Concurrent with the full execution and delivery of this Lease, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord a security deposit (the "SECURITY DEPOSIT") in the amount set forth in Section 10 of the Summary. The Security Deposit shall be held by Landlord as security for the faithful performance by Tenant of all the terms, covenants, and conditions of this Lease to be kept and performed by Tenant during the Lease Term. The Security Deposit shall not be mortgaged, assigned or encumbered in any manner whatsoever by either party without the prior written consent of the other. If Tenant defaults with respect to any provisions of this Lease, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, use, apply or retain all or any part of the Security Deposit for the payment of any Rent or any other sum in default, or for the payment of any amount that Landlord may spend or become obligated to spend by reason of Tenant's default, or to compensate Landlord for any other loss or damage that Landlord may suffer by reason of Tenant's default. If any portion of the Security Deposit is so used or applied, Tenant shall, within five (5) days after written demand therefor, deposit cash with Landlord in an amount sufficient to restore the Security Deposit to its original amount, and Tenant's failure to do so shall be a default under this Lease. The use, application or retention of the Security Deposit, or any portion thereof, by Landlord shall not (a) prevent Landlord from exercising any other right or remedy provided by this Lease or by law, it being intended that Landlord shall not first be required to proceed against the Security Deposit, nor (b) operate as a limitation on any recovery to which Landlord may otherwise be entitled. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has the right to transfer or mortgage its interest in the Real Property and the Building and in this Lease and Tenant agrees that in the event of any such transfer or mortgage, Landlord shall have the right to transfer or assign the Security Deposit to the transferee or mortgagee. Upon such transfer or assignment of the Security Deposit, provided that the transferee acknowledges receipt of the Security Deposit, Landlord shall thereby be released by Tenant from all liability or obligation for the return of such Security Deposit and Tenant shall took solely to such transferee or mortgagee for the return of the Security Deposit. Tenant shall earn interest on the unapplied Security Deposit at the rate of 6% per annum; provided that, at Landlord's option, Landlord may elect (which election must be made, if at all, within thirty (30) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Security Deposit) to deposit the Security Deposit in a bank and account mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant, in which case the Security Deposit shall earn interest at the rate earned in such account. Within thirty (30) days after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, any unapplied portion of the Security Deposit plus accrued interest shall be returned to Tenant.

The first such sign shall face Santa Monica Boulevard and be located on the existing monument, situated on the planter, which is closest to the corner of Santa Monica Boulevard and Century Park East. The second sign shall face Century Park East and be located on the existing monument, situated on the planter, which is the center monument sign of the three (3) monument signs, situated on the planter, which face Century Park East. ARTICLE 24

ARBITRATION

24.1 SUBMITTALS TO ARBITRATION. The parties agree that disputes between Landlord and Tenant arising under the terms of SECTIONS 1.3 (as to measurement of space not included in initial Premises), 6.3, or 7.2, ARTICLES 4 (following Tenant's "Initial Audit," as that term is defined in SECTION 4.7, above), 11 or 14, or the Tenant Work Letter shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the terms of this ARTICLE 24 and, therefore, this ARTICLE 24 shall be the sole and exclusive method, means and procedure to resolve each such dispute. The parties hereby irrevocably waive any and all rights to the contrary and shall at all times conduct themselves in strict, full, complete and timely accordance with the terms of this ARTICLE 24 and all attempts to circumvent the terms of this ARTICLE 24 shall be absolutely null and void and of no force or effect whatsoever. As to any matter submitted to arbitration (except with respect to the payment of money) to determine whether a matter would, with the passage of time, constitute a default, such passage of time shall not commence to run until any such affirmative arbitrated determination, as long as it is simultaneously determined in such arbitration that the challenge of such matter as a potential Tenant default was made in good faith. As to any matter submitted to arbitration with respect to the payment of money, to determine whether a matter would, with the passage of time, constitute a default, such passage of time shall not commence to run in the event that the party which is obligated to make the payment does in fact make the payment to the other party. Such payment can be made "under protest," which shall occur when such payment is accompanied by a good faith notice stating the reasons that the party has elected to make a payment under protest. Such protest will be deemed waived unless the subject matter identified in the protest is submitted to arbitration as set forth in this ARTICLE 24.

24.2 JAMS. Any dispute to be arbitrated pursuant to the provisions of this Article 24 shall be determined by binding arbitration before a retired judge of the Superior Court of the State of California (the "ARBITRATOR") under the auspices of Judicial Arbitration & Mediation Services, Inc. ("JAMS"). Such arbitration shall be initiated by the parties, or either of them, within ten (10) days after either party sends written notice (the "ARBITRATION NOTICE") of a demand to arbitrate by registered or certified mail to the other party and to JAMS. The Arbitration Notice shall contain a description of the subject matter of the arbitration, the dispute with respect thereto, the amount involved, if any, and the remedy or determination sought. The parties may agree on a retired judge from the JAMS panel. If they are unable to promptly agree, JAMS will provide a list of three available judges and each party may strike one. The remaining judge (or if there are two, the one selected by JAMS) will serve as the Arbitrator. In the event that JAMS shall no longer exist or if JAMS fails or refuses to accept submission of such dispute, then the dispute shall be resolved by binding arbitration before the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under the AAA's commercial arbitration rules then in effect.

24.3 ARBITRATION PROCEDURE.

24.3.1 PRE-DECISION ACTIONS. The Arbitrator shall schedule a pre-hearing conference to resolve procedural matters, arrange for the exchange of information, obtain stipulations, and narrow the issues. The parties will submit proposed discovery schedules to the Arbitrator at the pre-hearing conference. The scope and duration of discovery will be within the sole discretion of the Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall have the discretion to order a pre-hearing exchange of information by the parties, including, without limitation, production of requested documents, exchange of summaries of testimony of proposed witnesses, and examination by deposition of parties and third-party witnesses. This discretion shall be exercised in favor of discovery reasonable under the circumstances. Discovery as reasonably necessary shall be permitted, the type and quantity therof to be agreed upon by the parties, or if the parties fail to so agree, by the Arbitrator.

24.3.2 THE DECISION The arbitration shall be conducted in Los Angeles, California. Any party may be represented by counsel or other authorized representative. In rendering a decision(s), the Arbitrator shall determine the rights and obligations of the parties according to the substantive procedural laws of the State of California and the terms and provisions of this Lease. The Arbitrator's decision shall be based on the evidence introduced at the hearing, including all logical and reasonable inferences therefrom. The Arbitrator may make any determination, and/or grant any remedy or relief that is just and equitable with respect to the subject dispute. The decision must be based on, and accompanied by, a written statement of decision explaining the factual and legal basis for the decision as to each of the principal controverted issues. The decision shall be conclusive and binding, and it may thereafter be confirmed as a judgment by the Superior Court of the State of California, subject only to challenge on the grounds set forth in the California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1286.2. The validity and enforceability of the Arbitrator's decision is to be determined exclusively by the California courts pursuant to the provisions of this Lease. The Arbitrator may award costs, including without limitation attorneys' fees, and expert and witness costs, to the prevailing party, if any, as determined by the Arbitrator in his discretion. The Arbitrator's fees and costs shall be paid by the non-prevailing party as determined by the Arbitrator in his discretion. A party shall be determined by the Arbitrator to be the prevailing party if its proposal for the resolution of dispute is the closer to that adopted by the Arbitrator.

LATE CHARGES

Tenant hereby acknowledges that late payment by Tenant to Landlord of Rent or other sums due hereunder will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which is extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges, and late charges which may be imposed upon Landlord by the terms of any mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises. Accordingly, if any installment of Rent or any other sum due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord or Landlord's designee within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of notice from Landlord that said amount is overdue, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to $400; provided, however, that if such failure of receipt within such time occurs three (3) or more times in any twelve (12) month period, then for such third and any subsequent occurrence in such twelve (12) month period the late charge shall be the greater of $1,000 or two percent (2%) of the amount due. The parties hereby agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Landlord will incur by reason of the late payment of Rent by Tenant. Acceptance of such late charge by Landlord shall in no event constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. The late charge shall be deemed Additional Rent and the right to require it shall be in addition to all of Landlord's other rights and remedies hereunder or at law and shall not be construed as liquidated damages or as limiting Landlord's remedies in any manner. In addition to the late charge described above, any Rent or other amounts owing hereunder which are not paid within five (5) days after the date they are due shall thereafter bear interest (commencing as of the date due notwithstanding the foregoing five (5) day grace period) until paid at the Interest Rate.

LANDLORD'S RIGHT TO CURE DEFAULT; PAYMENTS BY TENANT

26.1 LANDLORD'S CURE. All covenants and agreements to be kept or performed by Tenant under this Lease shall be performed by Tenant at Tenant's sole cost and expense and without any reduction of Rent, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. If Tenant shall fail to perform any of its obligations under this Lease, within a reasonable time after such performance is required by the terms of this Lease (and after the expiration of any applicable cure period provided for herein), Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, after reasonable prior notice to Tenant (except in the event of an emergency, Landlord shall only give notice when and if feasible under the circumstances), make any such payment or perform any such act on Tenant's part without waiving its right based upon any default of Tenant and without releasing Tenant from any obligations hereunder.

26.2 TENANT'S REIMBURSEMENT. Except as may be specifically provided to the contrary in this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within ten (10) days after delivery by Landlord to Tenant of statements therefor; sums equal to expenditures reasonably made and obligations incurred by Landlord in connection with the remedying by Landlord of Tenant's defaults pursuant to the provisions of SECTION 26.1. Tenant's obligations under this SECTION 26.2 shall survive expiration or sooner termination of the Lease Term.

ENTRY BY LANDLORD

Landlord reserves the right at all reasonable times, and with reasonable frequency, upon reasonable notice to the Tenant, and in compliance with all other terms of this Lease, to enter the Premises to (i) inspect them; (ii) show the Premises to prospective purchasers, mortgagees or ground or underlying lessors, or during the last twelve (12) months of the initial Lease Term (or Option Term, as applicable), to prospective tenants; (iii) post notices of nonresponsibility or (iv) alter, improve or repair the Premises or the Building if necessary to comply with current building codes or other applicable laws, or for structural alterations, repairs or improvements to the Building. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this ARTICLE 27, Landlord may enter the Premises at any time to (A) perform services required of Landlord; (B) take possession due to any breach of this Lease in the manner provided herein; and (C) perform any covenants of Tenant which Tenant falls to perform. Landlord may make any such entries without the abatement of Rent (except as otherwise provided herein) and may take such reasonable steps as required to accomplish the stated purposes; provided, however, that any such entry shall be accomplished as expeditiously as reasonably possible and in a manner so as to cause as little interference to Tenant as reasonably possible. Tenant hereby waives any claims for any injuries or inconvenience to or interference with Tenant's business, lost profits, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Premises, and any other loss occasioned thereby. For each of the above purposes, Landlord shall at all times have a key with which to unlock all the doors in the Premises, excluding Tenant's vaults, safes and special security areas designated in advance by Tenant. In an emergency, Landlord shall have the right to use any means that Landlord may deem proper to open the doors in and to the Premises. Any entry into the Premises by Landlord in the manner hereinbefore described shall not be deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into, or a detainer of, the Premises, or an actual or constructive eviction of Tenant from any portion of the Premises.

TENANT PARKING

28.1 PARKING. Tenant shall be entitled to rent parking passes on a monthly basis throughout the Lease Term up to the amount set forth in SECTION 11 of the Summary, which parking passes shall pertain to the On-site Parking Area. Tenant shall be required to rent, at a minimum, one (1) pass per one thousand (1,000) rentable square feet of the Premises on a monthly basis throughout the Lease Term. At Tenant's option, up to ten (10) of such parking passes shall be reserved parking passes located within the "Special Valet" parking area of the Main Building Parking Area as that area is set forth in Exhibit M attached hereto. In addition, also at Tenant's option, up to twenty-five (25) of the parking passes shall be designated "Valet" parking passes for parking on Level P-1 of the Main Building Parking Area. The remainder of such parking passes shall provide for non-reserved parking in the Main Building Parking Area and/or Supplemental Parking Area, as Landlord may designate from time to time to Tenant. Tenant shall be entitled to vary the number of parking passes rented by Tenant (up to the maximum amount set forth in SECTION 11 of the Summary but in any event no less than the minimum amount set forth in this ARTICLE 28) upon at least thirty (30) days notice to Landlord. Tenant shall pay to Landlord for automobile parking passes on a monthly basis the prevailing rate charged for such parking passes; provided, however, that during the first three (3) Lease Years, the monthly rates for such parking passes, inclusive of all taxes, shall not exceed, for reserved parking passes, $250.00; for "Special Valet" and "Valet" parking passes, $160.00; and for unreserved parking passes, $110.00. Commencing in the fourth (4th) Lease Year such rates may be subject to annual adjustment, but in no event shall such rates be greater than the product of (i) the applicable rate during the prior Lease Year, and (ii) 1.05. Tenant shall instruct its employees to abide by all rules and regulations which are prescribed from time to time for the orderly operation and use of the On-site Parking Area. Landlord specifically reserves the right to reasonably change the size, configuration, design, layout and all other aspects of the On-site Parking Area at any time and Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord may, without incurring any liability to Tenant and without any abatement of Rent under this Lease, from time to time, temporarily close-off or restrict access to the On-site Parking Area for purposes of permitting or facilitating any such construction, alteration or improvements so long as Landlord provides adequate substitute parking reasonably acceptable to Tenant. Landlord may delegate its responsibilities hereunder to a parking operator in which case such parking operator shall have all the rights of control attributed hereby to the Landlord. The parking passes rented by Tenant pursuant to this Article 28 are provided to Tenant solely for use by Tenant's own personnel and such passes may not be transferred, assigned, subleased or otherwise alienated by Tenant without Landlord's prior approval; provided, however, Tenant may transfer a reasonable allocation of such spaces to an assignee or subtenant permitted pursuant to Article 14 of this Lease. Landlord shall provide adequate visitor parking for Tenant's visitors, subject to their payment of an hourly rate which shall not exceed the hourly rate generally charged in Comparable Buildings. Landlord shall provide Tenant with parking validations for such visitors at a rate not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of Landlord's prevailing rate for such validations.

28.2 PARKING CREDIT. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 28. 1, above, Landlord hereby grants Tenant a credit for the parking charges first due Landlord under the terms of this Lease, which credit shall be in the amount of $31,321.28.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

29.1 TERMS. The necessary grammatical changes required to make the provisions hereof apply either to corporations or partnerships or individuals, men or women, as the case may require, shall in all cases be assumed as though in each case fully expressed.

29.2 BINDING EFFECT. Each of the provisions of this Lease shall extend to and shall, as the case may require, bind or inure to the benefit not only of Landlord and of Tenant, but also of their respective successors or assigns, provided this clause shall not permit any assignment by Tenant contrary to the provisions of Article 14 of this Lease.

29.3 NO AIR RIGHTS. No rights to any view or to light or air over any property, whether belonging to Landlord or any other person, are granted to Tenant by this Lease. Lease.

29.4 MODIFICATION OF LEASE. Should any current or prospective mortgagee or ground lessor for the Building require a modification or modifications of this Lease, which modification or modifications will not cause an increased cost or expense to Tenant or in any other way adversely change the rights and obligations of Tenant hereunder, or diminish the obligations of Landlord hereunder, then and in such event, Tenant agrees that this Lease may be so modified and agrees to execute whatever documents are required therefor and deliver the same to Landlord within ten (10) days following the request therefor. Should Landlord or any such prospective mortgagee or ground lessor require execution of a short form of Lease for recording, containing, among other customary provisions, the names of the parties, a description of the Premises and the Lease Term, Tenant agrees to execute such short form of Lease and to deliver the same to Landlord within ten (10) days following the request therefor.

29.5 TRANSFER OF LANDLORD'S INTEREST. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has the right to transfer all or any portion of its interest in the Real Property and Building and in this Lease, and Tenant agrees that in the event of any such transfer, provided and to the extent that the transferee has agreed to assume liability (subject to the next succeeding sentence), Landlord shall automatically be released from all further liability under this Lease arising after the date of such transfer and Tenant agrees to look solely to such transferee for the performance of Landlord's obligations hereunder after the date of transfer. The liability of any transferee of Landlord shall be limited as provided in SECTION 29.14 below. Tenant further acknowledges that Landlord may assign its interest in this Lease to a mortgage lender as additional security and agrees that such an assignment shall not release Landlord from its obligations hereunder and that Tenant shall continue to look to Landlord for the performance of its obligations hereunder.

29.9 RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent, partnership, joint venturer or any associations between Landlord and Tenant, it being expressly understood and agreed that neither the method of computation of Rent nor any act of the parties hereto shall be deemed to create any relationship between Landlord and Tenant other than the relationship of landlord and tenant.

29.10 APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS. Landlord shall have the right to apply payments received from Tenant pursuant to this Lease, regardless of Tenant's designation of such payments, to satisfy any obligations of Tenant hereunder, in such order and amounts as Landlord, in its sole discretion, may elect.

29.11 TIME OF ESSENCE. Time is of the essence of this Lease and each of its provisions.

29.12 PARTIAL INVALIDITY. If any term, provision or condition contained in this Lease shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term, provision or condition to persons or circumstances other than those with respect to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each and every other term, provision and condition of this Lease shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent possible permitted by law.

29.13 NO WARRANTY. In executing and delivering this Lease, Tenant has not relied on any representation, including, but not limited to, any representation whatsoever as to the amount of any item comprising Additional Rent or the amount of the Additional Rent in the aggregate or that Landlord is furnishing the same services to other tenants, at all, on the same level or on the same basis, or any warranty or any statement of Landlord which is not set forth herein or in one or more of the exhibits attached hereto.

29.14 LANDLORD AND TENANT EXCULPATIONS. It is expressly understood and agreed that notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, and notwithstanding any applicable law to the contrary, neither Landlord (including any successor landlord) nor any members of Landlord's Group shall have any liability whatsoever under this Lease and the liability of Landlord hereunder and any recourse by Tenant against Landlord shall be limited solely and exclusively to the interest of Landlord in and to the Real Property and Building including Landlord's interests in any proceeds resulting from any sale or condemnation of the Building or insurance payments made to Landlord in connection with the Building, and neither Landlord (including any successor landlord) nor any members of Landlord's Group shall have any personal liability therefor, and Tenant hereby expressly waives and releases such personal liability on behalf of itself and all persons claiming by, through or under Tenant. It is further expressly understood and agreed that, notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, and notwithstanding any applicable law to the contrary, the obligations of the Tenant named in the Summary (the "Original Tenant") under this Lease do not constitute personal obligations of the individual partners, directors, officers or shareholders of Original Tenant, and Landlord will not seek recourse against the individual partners, directors, officers or shareholders of Original Tenant or any of their personal assets for satisfaction of any liability of Original Tenant in respect of this Lease. This Lease is being executed by Trust Company of the West on behalf of Landlord. Tenant hereby waives and releases any and all such personal liability and recourse. The limitations of liability provided in this SECTION 29.14 are in addition to, and not in limitation of, any limitation on liability applicable to Landlord provided by law or in any other contract, agreement or instrument.

29.15 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. It is understood and acknowledged that there are no oral agreements between the parties hereto affecting this Lease and this Lease supersedes and cancels any and all previous negotiations, arrangements, brochures, agreements and understandings, if any, between the parties hereto or displayed by Landlord to Tenant with respect to the subject matter hereof, and none thereof shall be used to interpret or construe this Lease. This Lease and any side letter or separate agreement executed by Landlord and Tenant in connection with this Lease and dated of even date herewith contain all of the terms, covenants, conditions, warranties and agreements of the parties relating in any manner to the rental, use and occupancy of the Premises, shall be considered to be the only agreements between the parties hereto and their representatives and agents, and none of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Lease can be modified, deleted or added to except in writing signed by the parties hereto. All negotiations and oral agreements between the parties have been merged into and are included herein. There are no other representations or warranties between the parties, and all reliance with respect to representations is based totally upon the representations and agreements contained in this Lease.

29.16 RIGHT TO LEASE. Landlord reserves the absolute right to effect such other tenancies in the Building as Landlord in the exercise of its sole business judgment shall determine to best promote the interests of the Building. Tenant does not rely on the fact, nor does Landlord represent, that any specific tenant or type or number of tenants shall, during the Lease Term, occupy any space in the Building.

29.17 FORCE MAJEURE. Any prevention, delay or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, labor disputes, acts of God, inability to obtain services, labor, or materials or reasonable substitutes therefor, governmental actions, civil commotions, fire or other casualty, and other causes beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated to perform, except with respect to the obligations imposed with regard to Rent and other charges to be paid by Tenant pursuant to this Lease (collectively, the "FORCE MAJEURE"), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, shall excuse the performance of such party for a period equal to any such prevention, delay or stoppage and, therefore, if this Lease specifies a time period for performance of an obligation of either party, that time period shall be extended by the period of any delay in such party's performance caused by a Force Majeure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Force Majeure shall not extend any time periods set forth in SECTION 2.1.2, 6.3, 7.2 OR 11.2.

A notice may be sent by a party or its attorneys. Any such notice shall also be delivered via facsimile to the applicable facsimile number set forth in the Summary.

29.26 INDEPENDENT COVENANTS. This Lease shall be construed as though the covenants herein between Landlord and Tenant are independent and not dependent and Tenant hereby expressly waives the benefit of any statute to the contrary and agrees that if Landlord fails to perform its obligations set forth herein, Tenant shall not be entitled to make any repairs or perform any acts hereunder at Landlord's expense or to any setoff of the Rent or other amounts owing hereunder against Landlord; provided, however, that the foregoing shall in no way impair the right of Tenant to commence a separate action against Landlord for any violation by Landlord of the provisions hereof so long as notice is first given to Landlord and any holder of a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Building, Real Property or any portion thereof, of whose address Tenant has theretofore been notified, and an opportunity is granted to Landlord and such holder to correct such violations as provided above.

This Tenant Work Letter shall set forth the terms and conditions relating to the construction of the tenant improvements in the Premises. This Tenant Work Letter is essentially organized chronologically and addresses the issues of the construction of the Premises, in sequence, as such issues will arise during the actual construction of the Premises. All references in this Tenant Work Letter to Articles or Sections of "this Lease" shall mean the relevant portion of the Lease to which this Tenant Work Letter is attached and of which this Tenant Work Letter forms a part.

SECTION I

LANDLORD'S INITIAL CONSTRUCTION IN THE PREMISES

Landlord has constructed, at its sole cost and expense the base building (i) of the Premises and (ii) of the floors of the Building on which the Premises is located (collectively, the "BASE BUILDING"). The Base Building shall be delivered to Tenant, and Tenant agrees to accept the same, in its currently existing, "as-is" condition, except as set forth below; provided, however, that the Base Building shall include the following items.

1.1 TELEPHONE ROOM AND ELECTRICAL ROOM. The telephone and electrical rooms will include a telephone backboard and electrical distribution panelboards, respectively. Conduit runs from the electrical closet to individual ceiling junction boxes, as installed. The 11th and 12th floor telephone rooms shall each contain 300 pair of telephone capacity. The 13th floor telephone room shall contain 900 pair, currently configured as 300 pair to be used for each of the 13th, 14th and 15th floors.

1.2 PUBLIC EXIT STAIRWAYS. Stairways in compliance with applicable laws as of the Lease Commencement Date ("Laws") to the extent necessary for Tenant to obtain its certificate of occupancy, assuming a standard buildout for office space.

1.3 ACCESS TO SYSTEMS. Access to domestic cold water, drainage and vent systems at readily accessible locations on the 11th, 13th and 15th floors.

1.4 WINDOW COVERINGS. Building Standard draperies, cleaned and installed on each exterior window.

1.5 FLOORING. Concrete floor with trowelled finish designed to support a minimum live load of 70 pounds per square foot.

1.6 CHILLED WATER. Condenser and chilled water loop on the 11th, 13th and 15th floors of the Premises. If Landlord allows any other tenant to tap into the Building's condenser and/or chilled water, Landlord shall allow Tenant to do so on the same terms and conditions, subject to overall restrictions on capacity, as determined in Landlord's reasonable discretion.

1.7 ACOUSTICS. To Landlord's best knowledge and belief, the Building has been constructed in a manner and at a level at least consistent with the sound production and vibration standards for normal office requirements maintained in the Comparable Systems Buildings, as that term is defined in Section 6.1 of the Lease.

1.8 BASE AND SHELL IMPROVEMENTS. The structural frame of the Building shall be complete including finished slab.

1.9 DEMOLITION Prior to Landlord's delivery of the Premises to Tenant, Landlord, at its sole cost and expense, shall demolish the improvements currently located in the Premises in accordance with the demolition plan attached to this Tenant Work Letter as Schedule 1 (the "DEMOLITION PLAN").

1.10 EXISTING STAIRWELLS. Except as otherwise described on the Demolition Plan, Landlord shall deliver the internal stairways currently located in the Premises in their currently existing, "as-is" condition.

SECTION 2

TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

2.1 ALLOWANCES.

2.1.1 TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE. Tenant shall be entitled to a one-time tenant improvement allowance (the "TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE") in the amount of $4,155,203.00 (composed of a core and shell allowance in the amount of $305,803.00, and an additional allowance in the amount of $3,849,400.00) for the costs relating to the initial design and construction of Tenant's improvements (the "TENANT IMPROVEMENTS"). Tenant agrees that not more than Eleven Dollars ($11.00) per usable square foot of the Premises of the Tenant Improvement Allowance (the "Eleven Dollar Amount") shall be spent on those items set forth in SECTIONS 2.2.1.1, 2.2.1.2, 2.2.1.7 AND 2.2.1.8, below. Additionally, the first $80,000.00 spent in connection with items set forth in SECTION 2.2.1.9, below (the “Signage Costs”), may be included within the Tenant Improvement Allowance. Signage Costs in excess of $80,000.00 may be included in the Tenant Improvement Allowance to the extent that they, together with the other items listed above, do not exceed the Eleven Dollar Amount. Additionally, Landlord shall have no obligation to disburse any amounts of the Tenant Improvement Allowance for costs of those items set forth in SECTION 2.2.1.8, below, until Landlord has first disbursed at least $40.00 per usable square foot of the Premises of the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

2.1.2 SPACE PLANNING ALLOWANCE. Landlord shall pay $0.10 per usable square foot of the Premises (the “DESIGN ALLOWANCE”), in addition to the Tenant Improvement Allowance, for the cost of the “Architect” and “Engineers,” as those terms are defined in SECTION 3.1, below, to prepare the “Final Space Plan,” as those terms are defined in SECTIONS 3.1 and 3.2, below, respectively. Any additional design costs may be deducted from the Tenant Improvement Allowance.

2.1.3 STAIR PRESSURIZATION ALLOWANCE. Landlord agrees that it shall pay up to $50,000.00 in aggregate (the “Pressurization Allowance”), as necessary for the pressurization and ventilation of the existing interior staircases connecting floors 12, 13, 14 and 15, as such pressurization and ventilation is required by the Laws. Landlord shall have no obligation to pay any amounts for such pressurization or ventilation in excess of the Pressurization Allowance.

The Tenant Improvement Allowance and Design Allowance are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the “ALLOWANCES.”

2.2 DISBURSEMENT OF THE TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE.

2.2.1 TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE ITEMS. Except as otherwise set forth in this Tenant Work Letter, the Tenant Improvement Allowance shall be disbursed by Landlord only for the following items and costs (collectively the “TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE ITEMS”):

2.2.1.1 Payment of the fees of the “Architect” and the “Engineers,” as those terms are defined in SECTION 3.1 of this Tenant Work Letter;

2.2.1.2 The payment of plan check, permit and license fees relating to construction of the Tenant Improvements;

2.2.1.3 The cost of construction of the Tenant Improvements, including, without limitation, testing and inspection costs, trash removal costs and contractors’ fees and general conditions;

2.2.1.4 The cost of any changes in the base building or the floor of the Building on which the Premises is located, when such changes are requred by the Construction Drawings (including if such changes are due to the fact that such work is prepared on an unoccupied basis) or to comply with Code, such cost to include all direct architectural and/or engineering fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith;

2.2.1.5 The cost of any chances to the Construction Drawings or Tenant Improvements required by Code;

2.2.1.6 Sales and use taxes and Title 24 fees;

2.2.1.7 Any moving or relocation costs incurred by Tenant;

2.2.1.8 The cost of free-standing workstations, furniture, fixtures and equipment for the Premises;

2.2.1.9 The cost of signs installed by Tenant in accordance with the provisions of the Lease;

2.2.1.10 The cost of cable and other telecommunications lines installed as part of the Tenant Improvements; and

2.2.1.11 All other costs of labor and materials approved by or expended by Tenant directly in connection with the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

2.2.2 DISBURSEMENT OF TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE. During the construction of the Tenant Improvements, Landlord shall make monthly disbursements of the Tenant Improvement Allowance for Tenant Improvement Allowance Items for the benefit of Tenant and shall authorize the release of monies for the benefit of Tenant as follows.

2.2.2.1 MONTHLY DISBURSEMENTS. On or before the first day (the “SUBMITTAL DATE”) of each calendar month commencing with the first calendar month following the execution of the Lease, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord: (i) a request for payment of the “Contractor,” as that term is defined in SECTION 4.1 of this Tenant Work Letter, approved by Tenant, on the standard AIA (G702) form showing, by trade, the percentage of completion of the Tenant Improvements in the Premises (as reasonably extrapolated by Tenant through the end of the applicable month), and detailing the portion of the work completed; (ii) invoices from all of “Tenant’s Agents,” as that term is defined in SECTION 4.1.2 of this Lease, for labor rendered and materials delivered to the Premises for the applicable payment period; (111) executed conditional mechianic’s lien releases from all of Tenant’s Agents which shall comply with the appropriate provisions of California Civil Code Section 3262(d); provided, however, that with respect to fees and expenses of the Architect or Engineers, the FF&E Costs items, or any other pre-construction items for which the payment scheme set forth in items (i) through (iii), above, is not applicable (collectively, the “NON-CONSTRUCTION ALLOWANCE ITEMS”), Tenant shall only be required to deliver to Landlord on or before the applicable Submittal Date, reasonable evidence of having paid the cost for the applicable Non-Construction Allowance Items (unless Landlord has received a preliminary notice in connection with such costs in which event conditional lien releases must be submitted in connection with such costs); and (iv) all other information reasonably requested in good faith by Landlord. Tenant’s request for payment shall be deemed Tenant’s acceptance and approval of the work furnished and/or the materials supplied as set forth in Tenant’s payment request vis-a-vis the Landlord, On or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each such calendar month (the “PAYMENT DATE”), and assuming Landlord receives the applicable information described in Items (i) through (iv), above, and unconditional lien releases, as applicable, for all work paid for from the Tenant Improvement Allowance as of the previous Payment Date, Landlord shall deliver a check to Tenant made jointly payable to Contractor, or any other provider of goods and services designated by Tenant to Landlord, and Tenant in payment of the lesser of: (A) the amounts so requested by Tenant, as set forth in this SECTION 2.2.2.1, above, less a ten percent (10%) retention (the aggregate amount of such retentions to be known as the “FINAL RETENTION,” but in no event shall the Final Retention be in excess of ten percent (10%), inclusive of the retention amount provided pursuant to the Standard AIA (G702) Form); provided, however, that no such retention shall be applicable to Non-Construction Allowance Items or, in Landlord’s resonable discretion, other Tenant Improvement Allowance Items in connection with the payment of suppliers for materials delivered to the Premises and subcontractors for completing performance of their work substantially in advance of the substantial completion of the

Tenant Improvements, and (B) the balance of any remaining available portion of the Tenant Improvement Allowance (not including the Final Retention), provided that Landlord does not dispute any request for payment based on material non-compliance of any work with the “Approved Working Drawings”, as that term is defined in SECTION 3.4 below, or due to any materially substandard work as identified in good faith by Landlord. In the event that Landlord identifies any material non-compliance with the Approved Working Drawings or substandard work, Tenant shall be provided a detailed statement identifying such material non-compliance or substandard work. Landiord's payment of such amounts shall not be deemed Landlord's approval or acceptance of the work furnished or materials supplied as set forth in Tenant's payment request.

2.2.2.2 FINAL RETENTION. Subject to the provisions of this Tenant Work Letter, a check for the Final Retention payable jointly to Tenant and Contractor shall be delivered by Landlord to Tenant following the completion of construction of the Premises, provided that (1) Tenant delivers to Landlord properly executed mechanics lien releases in compliance with both California Civil Code Section 3262(d)(2) and either Section 3262(d)(3) or Section 3262(d)(4), and (ii) Landlord has reasonably determined that no materially substandard work exists which materially and adversely affects the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and air conditioning, life-safety or other systems of the Building, the curtain wall of the Building, or the structure or exterior appearance of the Building.

2.2.3 FAILIURE TO DISBURSE TENANT IMPROVEMENT ALLOWANCE. In the event that Landlord fails to fulfill its obligation to disburse the Tenant Improvement Allowance in accordance with the terms of SECTION 2.2.2, above, following five (5) business days notice from Tenant and Landlord's failure to cure within such period, Tenant shall have the right, at Tenant's option, in addition to any rights or remedies available to Tenant under this Lease, at law or in equity, to continue to perform the work of the Tenant Improvements, and offset any unpaid portions of the Tenant Improvement Allowance plus interest at the Interest Rate against Tenant's obligation for Rent next coming due under this Lease.

CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS

3.1 SELECTION OF ARCHITECT/CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS. Tenant shall retain an architect/space planner reasonably approved by Landlord (the "ARCHITECT") to prepare the Construction Drawings, which approval shall be granted or denied by Landlord within five (5) business days after Tenant has submitted the proposed architect to Landlord. Tenant shall retain an engineering consultant reasonably approved by Landlord (the "ENGINEER") to prepare all plans and engineering working drawings relating to the structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, lifesafety, and sprinkler work of the Tenant Improvements. The plans and drawings to be prepared by Architect and the Engineer hereunder shall be known collectively as the "CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS." All Construction Drawings shall be subject to Landlord's approval pursuant to the terms set forth in SECTIONS 3.2 and 3.3, below. Landlord's review of the Construction Drawings as set forth in this SECTION 3, shall be for its sole purpose and shall not imply Landiord's review of the same, or obligate Landlord to review the same, for quality, design, Laws compliance or other like matters.

3.2 FINAL SPACE PLAN. Tenant and the Architect shall prepare the final space plan for Tenant Improvements in the Premises (collectively, the "Final Space Plan"), and shall deliver the Final Space Plan to Landlord for Landlord's approval. Landlord shall, within eight (8) business days after Landlord receives such Final Space Plan, (i) approve the Final Space Plan, (ii) approve the Final Space Plan subject to specified conditions to be complied with when the Final Working Drawings are submitted by Tenant to Landlord, or (iii) disapprove the final space plan and return the same to Tenant with requested revisions; provided however that Landlord shall only be entitled to dispprove the Final Space Plan for the following reasons: (i) an adverse effect on the structural integrity of the Building; (ii) non-compliance with Laws; (iii) an adverse effect on the systems and equipment of the Building; or (iv) an adverse effect on the exterior apperance of the Building (individually or collectively, a "DESIGN PROBLEM"). If Landlord disapproves the Final Space Plan, Tenant may resubmit the Final Space Plan to Landlord at any time, and Landlord shall approve or disapprove of the resubmitted Final Space Plan, based upon the criteria set forth in this SECTION 3.2, within two (2) business days after Landlord receives such resubmitted Final Space Plan.

3.3 FINAL WORKING DRAWINGS. Tenant, the Architect and the Engineer shall complete the architectural and engineering drawings for the Premises in a form which is complete to allow subcontractors to bid on the work and to obtain all applicable permits (collectively, the "FINAL WORKING DRAWINGS") and shall submit the same to Landlord for Landlord's approval. The Final Working Drawings may be submitted in one or more stages at one or more times, provided that Tenant shall ultimately supply Landlord with four (4) completed copies signed by Tenant of such Final Working Drawings. Landlord shall, within ten (10) business days after Landlord receives the Final Working Drawings, either (i) approve the Final Working Drawings, (ii) approve the Final Working Drawings subject to specified conditions to be satisfied by Tenant prior to submitting the Approved Working Drawings for permits as set forth in SECTION 3.4, below, if the Final Working Drawings do not comply with the Final Space Plan or contain a Design Problem, or (iii) disapprove and return the Final Working Drawings to Tenant with requested revisions if the Final Working Drawings do not comply with the Final Space Plan or contain a Design Problem. If Landlord disapproves the Final Working Drawings, Tenant may resubmit the Final Working Drawings to Landlord at any time, and Landlord shall approve or disapprove of the resubmitted Final Working Drawings, based upon the criteria set forth in this SECTION 3.3, within two (2) business days after Landlord receives such resubmitted Final Working Drawings.

3.4 PERMITS. The Final Working Drawings shall be approved by Landlord (the "APPROVED WORKING DRAWINGS") prior to the commencement of the construction of the Tenant Improvements. Architect shall submit the Approved Working Drawings to the appropriate municipal authorities for all applicable building permits necessary to allow "Contractor," as that term is defined in SECTION 4.1, below, to commence and fully complete the construction of the Tenant Improvements. Tenant shall be responsible for obtaining any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Premises; provided however that Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in executing permit applications and performing other ministerial acts reasonably necessary to enable Tenant to obtain any such permit or certificate of occupancy.

3.5 CHANGE ORDERS. In the event Tenant desires to change the Approved Working Drawings, Tenant shall deliver notice (the "DRAWING CHANGE NOTICE") of the same to Landlord, setting forth in detail the changes (the "TENANT CHANGE") Tenant desires to make to the Approved Working Drawings. Landlord shall, within three (3) business days of receipt of the Drawing Change Notice, either (i) approve the Tenant Change, or (ii) disapprove the Tenant Change and deliver a notice to Tenant specifying in detail the reasons for Landlord's disapproval; provided, however, that Landlord may only disapprove of the Tenant Change if the Tenant Change contains a Design Problem. Any additional costs which arise in connection with such Tenant Change shall be paid by Tenant.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

4.1 TENANT'S SELECTION OF CONTRACTORS.

4.1.1 THE CONTRACTOR. Tenant shall retain a licensed general contractor (the "CONTRACTOR"), as contractor for the construction of the Tenant Improvements, which Contractor shall be selected by Tenant pursuant to a competitive bidding of the general conditions, profit and overhead fees for construction of the Tenant Improvements, and which Contractor shall be subject to Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or conditioned, and which approval or refusal shall be granted or denied within five (5) business days after Tenant has submitted the name of the contractor.

4.1.2 TENANT'S AGENTS. Tenant agrees to cause Contractor to solicit bids from at least three (3) subcontractors for each item or trade involved in the construction of the Tenant improvements, which subcontractors shall be subject to Landlord's approval within five (5) business days after Tenant has submitted the name of a subcontractor. All of the subcontractors selected by Tenant, together with the laborers, materialmen, suppliers and the Contractor shall be known collectively as "TENANT'S AGENTS."

4.2 NOTICE OF COMPLETION. Within ten (10) days after the issuance of the permanent or temporary certificate of occupancy for the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall cause a Notice of Completion to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the County of Los Angeles in accordance with Section 3093 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor statute, and shall furnish a copy thereof to Landlord upon such recordation.

DEFERRAL COMMITMENTS/INTEREST CREDITING.

3.1 MINIMUM DEFERRAL.

(a) MINIMUM. For each Plan Year, a Participant may elect to defer Base Annual Salary and/or Annual Bonus paid in respect of such Plan Year in the following minimum amounts for each deferral elected:

Deferral	Minimum Amount
Base Annual Salary	$ 2,000
Annual Bonus	$ 2,000

If no election is made, the amount deferred shall be zero.

(b) SHORT PLAN YEAR. If a Participant first becomes a Participant after the first day of a Plan Year, the minimum Base Annual Salary and/or Annual Bonus deferral shall be an amount equal to the minimum set forth above, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of complete months remaining in the Plan Year and the denominator of which is 12.

3.2 MAXIMUM DEFERRAL. For each Plan Year, a Participant may elect to defer Base Annual Salary and/or Annual Bonus up to the following maximum amounts for each deferral elected:

Deferral	Maximum Amount
Annual Bonus	100%

3.3 ELECTION TO DEFER; EFFECT OF ELECTION FORM. In connection with a Participant's commencement of participation in the Plan, the Participant shall make a deferral election by delivering to the Committee a completed and signed Election Form, which election and form must be accepted by the Committee for a valid election to exist. For each succeeding Plan Year, a new Election Form must be delivered to the Committee, in accordance with its rules and procedures, before the end of the Plan Year preceding the Plan Year for which the election is made. If no Election Form is timely delivered for a Plan Year, no Annual Deferral Amount shall be withheld for that Plan Year.

3.4 WITHHOLDING OF DEFERRAL AMOUNTS. For each Plan Year, the Base Annual Salary portion of the Annual Deferral Amount shall be withheld each payroll period in equal amounts from the Participant's Base Annual Salary. The Annual Bonus portion of the Annual Deferral Amount shall be withheld at the time the Annual Bonus is or otherwise would be paid to the Participant. The Annual Deferral Amount shall be credited to the Participant's Elective Deferral Account. A Participant shall at all times have a fully vested and nonforfeitable interest in his or her Elective Deferral Account.

3.5 COMPANY MATCHING CONTRIBUTION. Each Plan Year, the Company shall make a Company Matching Contribution on behalf of a Participant. Such contribution shall be equal to 100 percent of the Participant's Annual Deferral Amount that does not exceed 10 percent of the sum of the Participant's Base Annual Salary. These contributions shall be credited to the Participant's Employer Matching Contribution Account. A Participant will at all times have a fully vested and nonforfeitable interest in each year's contribution (including interest to be credited thereto).

3.6 INTEREST CREDITING PRIOR TO DISTRIBUTION. Prior to any distributions of benefits under Articles 4, 5, 6 or 7, interest shall be credited and compounded annually on a Participant's Account Balance as though the Annual Deferral Amount and the Company Matching Contribution for that Plan Year was withheld or contributed, as the case may be, at the beginning of the Plan Year or, in the case of the first year of Plan participation, was withheld as contributed, as the case may be, on the date that the Participant commenced participation in the Plan; provided that interest shall be credited on the portion of the Annual Deferral Amount attributable to the Annual Bonus as of the last day of the pay period ending closest to the date the Annual Bonus is actually paid. The rate of interest for crediting shall be the Crediting Rate. In the event of Retirement, death or a Termination of Employment prior to the end of a Plan Year, the basis for that year's interest crediting will be a fraction of the full year's interest, based on the number of full months that the Participant was employed with the Employer during the Plan Year prior to the occurrence of such event. If a distribution is made under this Plan, for purposes of crediting interest, the Account Balance shall be reduced as of the first day of the month in which the distribution is made.

3.7 INTEREST CREDITING FOR INSTALLMENT DISTRIBUTIONS. In the event a benefit is paid in installments under Article 5 or 6, interest shall be credited and compounded on the undistributed portion of the Participant's Account Balance commencing on the first day of the month in which the Participant terminates employment, using a fixed interest rate that is determined by using the average of the Crediting Rates for the Plan Year in which installment payments commence and the four preceding Plan Years. If a Participant has participated in the Plan for less than five Plan Years, this average shall be determined using the Crediting Rates for the Plan Years during which the Participant actually participated in the Plan.

3.8 FICA TAXES. In these circumstances, the purpose of the Plan could be frustrated. Accordingly, if, following a Change in Control, it should appear to any Participant that the Company or the Committee has failed to comply with any of its obligations under the Plan or any agreement thereunder or, if the Company or any other person takes any action to declare the Plan void or unenforceable or institutes any arbitration, litigation or other legal action designed to deny, diminish or to recover from any Participant or Beneficiary the benefits intended to be provided, then the Company irrevocably authorizes such person to retain counsel of his or her choice at the expense of the Company to represent such person in connection with the initiation or defense of any arbitration, litigation or other legal action, whether by or against the Company, the Committee, or any director, officer, shareholder or other person affiliated with the Company or any successor thereto in any jurisdiction.

A Participant or his or her Beneficiary will cooperate with the Committee by furnishing any and all information requested by the Committee and take such other actions as may be requested in order to facilitate the administration of the Plan and the payments of benefits hereunder, including but not limited to taking such physical examinations as the Committee may deem necessary.

Mr. Brian Kane
Senior Vice President of Human Resources
HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL OF AMERICA, INC.
Post Office Box 80210
Los Angeles,
CA 90080-0210

Such notice shall be deemed given as of the date of delivery or, if delivery is made by mail, as of the date shown on the postmark on the receipt for registration or certification.

Any notice or filing required or permitted to be given to a Participant under this Plan shall be sufficient if in writing and hand-delivered, or sent by mail, to the last known address of the Participant.

15.12 SPOUSE'S INTEREST. The interest in the benefits hereunder of a spouse of a Participant who has predeceased the Participant shall automatically pass to the Participant and shall not be transferable by such spouse in any manner, including but not limited to such spouse's will, nor shall such interest pass under the laws of intestate succession.

15.13 VALIDATION. In case any provision of this Plan shall be illegal or invalid for any reason, said illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts hereof, but this Plan shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid provision had never been inserted herein.

15.14 INCOMPETENT. If the Committee determines in its discretion that a benefit under this Plan is to be paid to a minor, a person declared incompetent or to a person incapable of handling the disposition of that person's property, the Committee may direct payment of such benefit to the guardian, legal representative or person having the care and custody of such minor, incompetent or incapable person. The Committee may require proof of minority, incompetency, incapacity or Guardianship. as it may deem appropriate prior to distribution of the benefit. If, for any reason, all or any portion of a Participant's benefit under this Plan becomes taxable to the Participant prior to receipt, a Participant may petition the Committee for a distribution of assets sufficient to meet the Participant's tax liability (including additions to tax, penalties and interest). Upon the grant of such a petition, which grant shall not be unreasonably withheld, a Participant's Employer shall distribute to the Participant immediately available funds in an amount equal to that Participant's federal, state and local tax liability associated with such taxation (which amount shall not exceed the Participant's vested Account Balance), which liability shall be measured by using that Participant's then current highest federal, state and local marginal tax rate, plus the rates or amounts for the applicable additions to tax, penalties and interest. If the petition is granted, the tax liability distribution shall be made within 90 days of the date when the Participant's petition is granted. Such a distribution shall reduce the benefits to be paid under this Plan.

15.16 LEGAL FEES TO ENFORCE RIGHTS AFTER CHANGE IN CONTROL. The Company is aware that upon the occurrence of a Change in Control, the Board (which might then be composed of new members) or a shareholder of the Company, or of any successor corporation might then cause or attempt to cause the Company or such successor to refuse to comply with its obligations under the Plan and might cause or attempt to cause the Company to institute, or may institute, arbitration or litigation seeking to deny Participants the benefits intended under the Plan. In these circumstances, the purpose of the Plan could be frustrated. Accordingly, if, following a Change in Control, it should appear to any Participant that the Company or the Committee has failed to comply with any of its obligations under the Plan or any agreement thereunder or, if the Company or any other person takes any action to declare the Plan void or unenforceable or institutes any arbitration, litigation or other legal action designed to deny, diminish or to recover from any Participant or Beneficiary the benefits intended to be provided, then the Company irrevocably authorizes such person to retain counsel of his or her choice at the expense of the Company to represent such person in connection with the initiation or defense of any arbitration, litigation or other legal action, whether by or against the Company, the Committee, or any director, officer, shareholder or other person affiliated with the Company or any successor thereto in any jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has signed this Plan document as of 12/29, 1995.

The Payment Schedule shall be updated from time to time as is necessary. Except as otherwise provided herein, prior to a Change in Control the Trustee shall make payments to the Participants and their Beneficiaries in accordance with such Payment Schedule. Despite the foregoing, after a Change in Control, the Trustee shall make payments in accordance with the terms and provisions of each of the Plans and related plan agreements. The Trustee, at the direction of the Committee or, after a Change in Control, on its own volition, may make any distribution required to be made by it hereunder by delivering:

(i) Its check payable to the person to whom such distribution is to be made, to the person, or, if prior to a Change in Control, to the Company for redelivery to such person; provided that before a Change in Control, the Committee may direct the Trustee to deliver one or more lump sum checks payable to the Company, and the Company shall prepare and deliver individual checks for each Participant or Beneficiary; or

(ii) Its check payable to an insurer for the benefit of such person, to the insurer or, if prior to a Change in Control, to the Company for redelivery to the insurer; or

(iii) Contracts held on the life of the Participant to whom or with respect to whom the distribution is being made, to the Participant or Beneficiary, or, if prior to a Change in Control, to the Company for redelivery to the person to whom such distribution is to be made; or

(iv) If a distribution is being made, in whole or in part, of other assets, assignments or other appropriate documents or certificates necessary to effect a transfer of title, to the Participant or Beneficiary, or, if prior to a Change in Control, to the Company for redelivery to such person.

(c) If the principal of the Trust, and any earnings thereon, are not sufficient to make payments of benefits in accordance with the terms of the Plans, the Company and the Subsidiaries shall make the balance of each such payment as it falls due. The Trustee shall notify the Company and the Subsidiaries when principal and earnings are not sufficient.

(d) The Company and the Subsidiaries may make payment of benefits directly to Participants or their Beneficiaries as they become due under the terms of the Plans. The Company and the Subsidiaries shall notify the Trustee of their decisions to make payment of benefits directly prior to the time amounts are payable to Participants or their Beneficiaries.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Master Trust Agreement to the contrary, if at any time the Trust is finally determined by the IRS not to be a "grantor trust" with the result that the income of the Trust Fund is not treated as income of the Company or the Subsidiaries pursuant to Sections 671 through 679 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or if a tax is finally determined by the IRS to be payable by one or more Participants or Beneficiaries with respect to any interest in the Plans or the Trust Fund prior to payment of such interest to such Participant or Beneficiary, then the Trust shall immediately terminate, the Trustee shall immediately determine each Participant's share of the Trust Fund in accordance with the Plans, and the Trustee shall immediately distribute such share in a lump sum to each Participant or Beneficiary entitled thereto, regardless of whether such Participant's employment has terminated and regardless of form and time of payments specified in or pursuant to the Plans. Any remaining assets (less any expenses or costs due under Sections 3.8 and 3.9 of this Master Trust Agreement) shall then be paid by the Trustee to the Company and the Subsidiaries in such amounts, and in the manner instructed by the Committee. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee shall rely solely on the directions of the Committee with respect to the occurrence of the foregoing events and the resulting distributions to be made, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any failure to act in the absence of such direction.

(f) The Trustee shall make provision for the reporting and withholding of any federal, state or local taxes that may be required to be withheld with respect to the payment of benefits pursuant to the terms of the Plans and shall pay amounts withheld to the appropriate taxing authorities or determine that such amounts have been reported, withheld and paid by the Company and the Subsidiaries.

(g) Prior to a Change in Control, payments by the Trustee shall be delivered or mailed to addresses supplied by the Committee and the Trustee's obligation to make such payments shall be satisfied upon such delivery or mailing. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee shall have no obligation to determine the identity of persons entitled to benefits or their mailing addresses. After a Change in Control, the Trustee shall have such obligations.

(h) Prior to a Change in Control, the entitlement of a Participant or his or her Beneficiaries to benefits under the Plans shall be determined by the Company and the Subsidiaries or such party as they shall designate under the Plans, and any claim for such benefits shall be considered and reviewed under the procedures set out in the Plans.

3.7 TRUSTEE RESPONSIBILITY REGARDING PAYMENTS ON INSOLVENCY.

(a) As provided in Section 3.7(b), the Trustee shall cease payment of benefits to Participants and their Beneficiaries if the Company or any Subsidiary is Insolvent (the "Insolvent Entity"). The Insolvent Entity shall be considered "Insolvent" for purposes of this Master Trust Agreement if:

(i) the Insolvent Entity is unable to pay its debts as the, become due, or

(ii) the Insolvent Entity is subject to a pending proceeding as a debtor under the United States Bankruptcy Code.

For purposes of this Section 3.7, if an entity is determined to be Insolvent, each Subsidiary in which such entity has an equity interest shall also be deemed to be an Insolvent Entity. However, the insolvency of a Subsidiary will not cause a parent corporation to be deemed Insolvent.

(b) At all times during the continuance of this Trust, as provided in Section 1.3 above, the principal and income of the Trust shall be subject to claims of the general creditors of the Company and its Subsidiaries under federal and state law as set forth below:

(i) The Board and the president of the Company shall have the duty to inform the Trustee in writing of the Company's or any Subsidiary's Insolvency. If a person claiming to be a creditor of the Company or any Subsidiary alleges in writing to the Trustee that the Company or any Subsidiary has become Insolvent, the Trustee shall determine whether the Company or any Subsidiary is Insolvent and, pending such determination, the Trustee shall discontinue payment of benefits to the Insolvent Entity's Participants or their Beneficiaries. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee may conclusively rely on any determination it receives from the Board or the president of the Company with respect to the Insolvency of the Company or any Subsidiary.

(ii) Unless the Trustee has actual knowledge of the Company's or a Subsidiary's Insolvency, or has received notice from the Company, a Subsidiary, or a person claiming to be a creditor alleging that the Company or a Subsidiary is Insolvent, the Trustee shall have no duty to inquire whether the Company or any Subsidiary is Insolvent. The Trustee may in all events rely on such evidence concerning the Company's or any Subsidiary's solvency as may be furnished to the Trustee and that provides the Trustee with a reasonable basis for making a determination concerning the Company's or any Subsidiary's solvency. In this regard, the Trustee may rely upon a letter from the Company's or a Subsidiary's auditors as to the Company's or any Subsidiary's financial status.

(iii) If at any time the Trustee has determined that the Company or any Subsidiary is Insolvent, the Trustee shall discontinue payments to the Insolvent Entity's Participants or their Beneficiaries, and shall hold the portion of the assets of the Trust allocable to the Insolvent Entity for the benefit of the Insolvent Entity's general creditors. Nothing in this Master Trust Agreement shall in any way diminish any rights of Participants or their Beneficiaries to pursue their rights as general creditors of the Insolvent Entity with respect to benefits due under the Plans or otherwise.

(iv) The Trustee shall resume the payment of benefits to Participants or their Beneficiaries in accordance with this Article 3 of this Master Trust Agreement only after the Trustee has determined that the alleged Insolvent Entity is not Insolvent (or is no longer Insolvent).

(c) Provided that there are sufficient assets, if the Trustee discontinues the payment of benefits from the Trust pursuant to Section 3.7(b) hereof and subsequently resumes such payments, the first payment following such discontinuance shall include the aggregate amount of all payments due to Participants or their Beneficiaries under the terms of the Plans for the period of such discontinuance, less the aggregate amount of any payments made to Participants or their Beneficiaries by the Company or any Subsidiary in lieu of the payments provided for hereunder during any such period of discontinuance. Prior to a Change in Control, the Committee shall instruct the Trustee as to such amounts, and after a Change in Control, the Trustee shall determine such amounts in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plans.

3.8 COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION. The Trustee is authorized to incur reasonable obligations in connection with the administration of the Trust, including attorneys' fees, administrative fees and appraisal fees. Such obligations shall be paid by the Company and the Subsidiaries. The Trustee is authorized to pay such amounts from the Trust Fund if the Company or the Subsidiaries fail to pay them within 60 days of presentation of a statement of the amounts due.

3.9 TRUSTEE COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its services as from time to time agreed upon between the Trustee and the Company. If the Trustee and the Company fail to agree upon a compensation, or following a Change in Control, the Trustee shall be entitled to compensation at a rate equal to the rate charged by the Trustee for similar services rendered by it during the current fiscal year for other trusts similar to this Trust. The Trustee shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred by it in the performance of its duties as the Trustee, including reasonable fees for legal counsel. The Trustee's compensation and expenses shall be paid by the Company and the Subsidiaries. The Trustee is authorized to withdraw such amounts from the Trust Fund if the Company or the Subsidiaries fail to pay them within 60 days of presentation of a statement of the amounts due.

3.10 PROFESSIONAL ADVICE. The Company and the Subsidiaries specifically acknowledge that the Trustee may find it desirable or expedient to retain legal counsel (who may also be legal counsel for the Company generally) or other professional advisors to advise it in connection with the exercise of any duty under this Master Trust Agreement including, but not limited to, any matter relating to or following a Change in Control or the Insolvency of the Company or any Subsidiary. The Trustee shall be fully protected in acting upon the advice of such legal counsel or advisors.

3.11 PAYMENT ON COURT ORDER. To the extent permitted by law, the Trustee is authorized to make any payments directed by court order in any action in which the Trustee has been named as a party. The Trustee is not obligated to defend actions in which the Trustee is named, but shall notify the Company or Committee of any such action and may tender defense of the action to the Company, Committee or Participant or Beneficiary whose interest is affected. The Trustee may in its discretion defend any action in which the Trustee is named, and any expenses incurred by the Trustee shall be paid by the Company and the Subsidiaries. The Trustee is authorized to pay such amounts from the Trust Fund if the Company or the Subsidiaries fail to pay them within sixty (60) days of presentation of a statement of the amounts due.

3.12 PROTECTIVE PROVISION. Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Master Trust Agreement to the contrary, the Trustee shall have no obligation to (i) determine the existence of any conversion, redemption, exchange, subscription or other right relating to any securities purchased of which notice was given prior to the purchase of such securities and shall have no obligation to exercise any such right unless the Trustee is advised in writing by the Committee both of the existence of the right and the desired exercise thereof within a reasonable time prior to the expiration of the right to exercise, or (ii) advance any funds to the Trust. Furthermore, the Trustee is not a party to the Plans.

3.13 INDEMNIFICATIONS.

(a) The Company and the Subsidiaries shall indemnify and hold the Trustee harmless from and against all loss or liability (including expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees) to which it may be subject by reason of its execution of its duties under this Trust, or by reason of any acts taken in good faith in accordance with any directions, or acts omitted in good faith due to absence of directions, from the Company, the Committee or a Participant, unless such loss or liability is due to the Trustee's negligence or willful misconduct. The indemnity described herein shall be provided by the Company and the Subsidiaries.

(b) In the event that the Trustee is named as a defendant in a lawsuit or proceeding involving one or more of the Plans or the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive on a current basis the indemnity payments provided for in this Section, provided however that if the final judgement entered in the lawsuit or proceeding holds that the Trustee is guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall be required to refund the indemnity payments that it has received.

(c) All releases and indemnities provided in this Master Trust Agreement shall survive the termination of this Master Trust Agreement.

INSURANCE CONTRACTS

4.1 TYPES OF CONTRACTS. To the extent that the Trustee is directed by the Committee prior to a Change in Control to invest part or all of the Trust Fund in insurance contracts, the type and amount thereof shall be specified by the Committee. The Trustee shall be under no duty to make inquiry as to the propriety of the type or amount so specified.

4.2 OWNERSHIP. Each insurance contract issued shall provide that the Trustee shall, subject to Section 3.7 hereof, be the owner thereof with the power to exercise all rights, privileges, options and elections granted by or permitted under such contract or under the rules of the insurer. The exercise by the Trustee of any incidents of ownership under any contract shall, prior to a Change in Control, be subject to the direction of the Committee.

4.3 RESTRICTIONS ON TRUSTEE'S RIGHTS. The Trustee shall have no power to name a beneficiary of the policy other than the Trust, to assign the policy (as distinct from conversion of the policy to a different form) other than to a successor Trustee, or to loan to any person the proceeds of any borrowing against such policy. Except as the Committee may direct prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee may not (i) loan to the Company or any Subsidiary the proceeds of any borrowing against an insurance policy held in the Trust Fund or (ii) except as provided in Section 9.2 hereof, assign all, or any portion, of a policy to the Company or any Subsidiary.

TRUSTEE'S ACCOUNTS

5.1 RECORDS. The Trustee shall maintain accurate records and detailed accounts of all investments, receipts, disbursements and other transactions hereunder. Such records shall be available at all reasonable times for inspection by the Company and Subsidiaries or their authorized representative. The Trustee, at the direction of the Committee shall submit to the Committee and to any insurer such valuations, reports or other information as the Committee may reasonably require and, in the absence of fraud or bad faith, the valuation of the Trust Fund by the Trustee shall be conclusive.

5.2 ANNUAL ACCOUNTING: FINAL ACCOUNTING.

(a) Within 60 days following the end of each Plan Year and within 60 days after the removal or resignation of the Trustee or the termination of the Trust, the Trustee shall file with the Committee a written account setting forth a description of all properties purchased and sold, all receipts, disbursements and other transactions effected by it during the Plan Year or, in the case of removal, resignation or termination, since the close of the previous Plan Year, and listing the properties held in the Trust Fund as of the last day of the Plan Year or other period and indicating their values. Such values shall be either cost or market as directed by the Committee in accordance with the terms of the Plans.

(b) The Committee may approve such account either by written notice of approval delivered to the Trustee or by its failure to express written objection to such account delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the date of which such account was delivered to the Committee.

(e) The approval by the Committee of an accounting shall be binding as to all matters embraced in such accounting on all parties to this Master Trust Agreement and on all Participants and Beneficiaries, to the same extent as if such accounting had been settled by a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction in which the Trustee, the Committee, the Company, the Subsidiaries and all persons having or claiming any interest in any Plan or Trust Fund were made parties.

(d) Despite the foregoing, nothing, contained in this Master Trust Agreement shall deprive the Trustee of the right to have an accounting judicially settled, if the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, desires such a settlement.

5.3 VALUATION. The assets of the Trust Fund shall be valued at their respective fair market values on the date of valuation, as determined by the Trustee based upon such sources of information as it may deem reliable, including, but not limited to, stock market quotations, statistical evaluation services, newspapers of general circulation, financial publications, advice from investment counselors, brokerage firms or insurance companies, or any combination of sources. Prior to a Change in Control, the Committee shall instruct the Trustee as to the value of assets for which market values are not readily obtainable by the Trustee. If the Committee fails to provide such values, the Trustee may take whatever action it deems reasonable, including employment of attorneys, appraisers, life insurance companies or other professionals, the expense of which shall be an expense of administration of the Trust Fund and payable by the Company and the Subsidiaries. The Trustee may rely upon information from the Company and the Subsidiaries, the Committee, appraisers or other sources and shall not incur any liability for an inaccurate valuation based in good faith upon such information.

5.4 DELEGATION OF DUTIES. The Company or the Committee, or both, may at any time employ the Trustee as their agent to perform any act, keep any records or accounts and make any computations that are required of the Company, any Subsidiary or the Committee by this Master Trust Agreement or the Plans. The Trustee may be compensated for such employment and such employment shall not be deemed to be contrary to the Trust. Nothing done by the Trustee as such agent shall change or increase its responsibility or liability as Trustee hereunder.

RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL OF TRUSTEE

6.1 RESIGNATION REMOVAL. The Trustee may resign at any time by written notice to the Company, which shall be effective 60 days after receipt of such notice unless the Company and the Trustee agree otherwise. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee may be removed by the Company on 60 days notice or upon shorter notice accepted by the Trustee. After a Change in Control, the Trustee may be removed by a majority vote of the Participants, and if a Participant is dead, his or her Beneficiaries (who collectively shall have one vote among them and shall vote in place of such deceased Participant), on 60 days notice or upon shorter notice accepted by the Trustee.

6.2 SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE. If the Trustee resigns or is removed, a successor shall be appointed by the Company, in accordance with this Section, by the effective date of the resignation or removal under Section 6.1 above. The successor shall be a bank, trust company, or similar independent third party that is granted corporate trustee powers under state law. After the occurrence of a Change in Control, a successor Trustee may not be appointed without the consent of a majority of the Participants. If no such appointment has been made, the Trustee may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for appointment of a successor or for instructions. All expenses of the Trustee in connection with the proceeding shall be allowed as administrative expenses of the Trust.

6.3 SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS. Upon resignation or removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor Trustee, all assets shall subsequently be transferred to the successor Trustee. The transfer shall be completed within 90 days after receipt of notice of resignation, removal or transfer, unless the Company extends the time limit. Upon the transfer of the assets, the successor Trustee shall succeed to all of the powers and duties given to the Trustee in this Master Trust Agreement. The resigning or removed Trustee shall render to the Committee an account in the form and manner and at the time prescribed in Section 5.2. The approval of such accounting and discharge of the Trustee shall be as provided in such Section.

CONTROVERSIES, LEGAL ACTIONS AND COUNSEL

7.1 CONTROVERSY. If any controversy arises with respect to the Trust, the Trustee shall take action as directed by the Committee or, in the absence of such direction or after a Change in Control, as it deems advisable, whether by legal proceedings, compromise or otherwise. The Trustee may retain the funds or property involved without liability pending settlement of the controversy. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to take any legal action of whatever nature unless there shall be sufficient property in the Trust to indemnify the Trustee with respect to any expenses or losses to which it may be subjected.

7.2 JOINDER OF PARTIES. In any action or other judicial proceedings affecting the Trust, it shall be necessary to join as parties the Trustee, the Committee, the Company and the Subsidiaries. No Participant or other person shall be entitled to any notice or service of process. Any judgment entered in such a proceeding or action shall be binding on all persons claiming under the Trust. Nothing in this Master Trust Agreement shall be construed as to deprive a Participant or Beneficiary of his or her right to seek adjudication of his or her rights by administrative process or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

7.3 EMPLOYMENT OF COUNSEL. The Trustee may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Company or any Subsidiary) and shall be fully protected with respect to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith pursuant to the advice of counsel.

ARTICLE 8

INSURERS

8.1 INSURER NOT A PARTY. No insurer shall be deemed to be a party to the Trust and an insurer's obligations shall be measured and determined solely by the terms of contracts and other agreements executed by it.

8.2 AUTHORITY OR TRUSTEE. An insurer shall accept the signature of the Trustee to any documents or papers executed in connection with such contracts. The signature of the Trustee shall be conclusive proof to the insurer that the person on whose life an application is being made is eligible to have a contract issued on his or her life and is eligible for a contract of the type and amount requested.

8.3 CONTRACT OWNERSHIP. An insurer shall deal with the Trustee as the sole and absolute owner of any insurance contracts and shall have no obligation to inquire whether any action or failure to act on the part of the Trustee is in accordance with or authorized by the terms of the Plans or this Master Trust Agreement.

8.4 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. An insurer shall be fully discharged from any and all liability for any action taken or any amount paid in accordance with the direction of the Trustee and shall have no obligation to see the proper application of the amounts so paid. An insurer shall have no liability for the operation of the Trust or the Plans, whether or not in accordance with their terms and provisions.

8.5 CHANGE OF TRUSTEE. An insurer shall be fully discharged from any and all liability for dealing with a party or parties indicated on its records to be the Trustee until such time as it shall receive at its home office written notice of the appointment and qualification of a successor Trustee.

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

9.1 AMENDMENT. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 9.1, this Master Trust Agreement may be amended by a written instrument executed by the Trustee and the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment shall conflict with the terms of the Plans or shall make the Trust revocable after it has become irrevocable in accordance with Section 1.3 above. Any amendment, change or modification shall be subject to the following rules:

(a) GENERAL RULE. Subject to Sections 9.1(b), (c) and (d) below, this Master Trust Agreement may be amended:

(i) By the Company and the Trustee, provided, however, that if an amendment would in any way adversely affect the rights accrued under the Plans in the Trust Fund by any Participant or Beneficiary, each and every Participant and Beneficiary whose rights in the Trust Fund would be adversely affected must consent to the amendment before this Master Trust Agreement may be so amended; and

(ii) By the Company and the Trustee as may be necessary to comply with laws which would otherwise render the Trust void, voidable or invalid in whole or in part.

(b) LIMITATION. Notwithstanding that an amendment may be permissible under Section 9.1(a) above, this Master Trust Agreement shall not be amended by an amendment that would:

(i) Cause any of the assets of the Trust to be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants and Beneficiaries as set forth in the Plans, except as is required to satisfy the claims of the Company's or a Subsidiary's general creditors; or

(ii) Be inconsistent with the terms of any Plan, including the terms of any plan regarding termination, amendment or modification of the plan

(c) WRITING AND CONSENT. Any amendment to this Master Trust Agreement shall be set forth in writing and signed by the Company and the Trustee and, if consent of any Participant or Beneficiary is required under Section 9.1(a), the Participant or Beneficiary whose consent is required. Any amendment may be current, retroactive or prospective, in each case as provided therein.

(d) THE COMPANY AND TRUSTEE. In connection with the exercise of the rights under this Section 9.1:

(i) prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee shall have no responsibility to determine whether any proposed amendment complies with the terms and conditions set forth in Sections 9.1(a) and (b) above and may conclusively rely on the directions of the Committee with respect thereto, unless the Trustee has knowledge of a proposed transaction or transactions that would result in a Change in Control; and

(ii) after a Change in Control, the power of the Company to amend this Master Trust Agreement shall cease, and the power to amend that was previously held by the Company shall, instead, be exercised by a majority of the Participants and, if a Participant is dead, his or her Beneficiaries (who collectively shall have one vote among them and shall vote in place of such deceased Participant), with the consent of the Trustee, provided that such amendment otherwise complies with the requirements of Sections 9.1(a), (b) and (c) above.

(e) TAXATION. This Master Trust Agreement shall not be amended, altered, changed or modified in a manner that would cause the Participants and/or Beneficiaries under any Plan to be taxed on the benefits under any Plan in a year other than the year of actual receipt of benefits.

9.2 FINAL TERMINATION. The Trust shall not terminate until the date on which Participants and their Beneficiaries are no longer entitled to any benefits pursuant to the terms of the Plans, and on such date the Trust shall terminate. Upon termination of the Trust, any assets remaining in the Trust after the satisfaction of all liabilities hereunder and under the Plans shall be returned to the Company and the Subsidiaries. Such remaining assets shall be paid by the Trustee to the Company and the Subsidiaries in such amounts and in the manner instructed by the Company, whereupon the Trustee shall be released and discharged from all obligations hereunder. From and after the date of termination and until final distribution of the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall continue to have all of the powers provided herein as are necessary or expedient for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund.

MISCELLANEOUS

10.1 DIRECTIONS FOLLOWING CHANGE IN CONTROL. Despite any other provision of this Master Trust Agreement that may be construed to the contrary, following a Change in Control, all powers of the Committee, the Company and the Board to direct the Trustee under this Master Trust Agreement shall terminate, and the Trustee shall act on its own discretion to carry out the terms of this Master Trust Agreement in accordance with the Plans and this Master Trust Agreement.

10.2 TAXES. The Company and the Subsidiaries shall from time to time pay taxes of any and all kinds whatsoever that at any time are lawfully levied or assessed upon or become payable in respect of the Trust Fund, the income or any property forming a part thereof, or any security transaction pertaining thereto. To the extent that any taxes lawfully levied or assessed upon the Trust Fund are not paid by the Company and the Subsidiaries, the Trustee shall have the power to pay such taxes out of the Trust Fund and shall seek reimbursement from the Company and the Subsidiaries. Prior to making any payment, the Trustee may require such releases or other documents from any lawful taxing authority as it shall deem necessary. The Trustee shall contest the validity of taxes in any manner deemed appropriate by the Company or its counsel, but at the Company's and the Subsidiaries' expense, and only if it has received an indemnity bond or other security satisfactory to it to pay any such expenses. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee (i) shall not be liable for any nonpayment of tax when it distributes an interest hereunder on directions from the Committee, and (ii) shall have no obligation to prepare or file any tax return on behalf of the Trust Fund, any such return being the sole responsibility of the Committee. The Trustee shall cooperate with the Committee in connection with the preparation and filing of any such return.

10.3 THIRD PERSONS. All persons dealing with the Trustee are released from inquiring into the decisions or authority of the Trustee and from seeing to the application of any moneys, securities or other property paid or delivered to the Trustee.

10.4 NONASSIGNABILITY: NONALIENATION. Benefits payable to Participants and their Beneficiaries under this Master Trust Agreement may not be anticipated, assigned (either at law or in equity), alienated, pledged, encumbered or subjected to attachment, garnishment, levy, execution or other legal or equitable process.

10.5 THE PLANS. The Trust and the Plans are parts of a single, integrated employee benefit plan system and shall be construed together, except to the extent the rights of parties to each are determined uniquely under this Master Trust Agreement or a Plan, as the case may be. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Master Trust Agreement and the agreements that constitute the Plans, such conflict shall be resolved in favor of this Master Trust Agreement.

10.6 APPLICABLE LAW. Except to the extent, if any, preempted by ERISA, this Master Trust Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California. Any provision of this Master Trust Agreement prohibited by law shall be ineffective to the extent of any such prohibition, without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof.

10.7 NOTICES AND DIRECTIONS. Whenever a notice or direction is given by the Committee to the Trustee, it shall be in the form required by Section 2.1. Actions by the Company shall be by the Board or a duly authorized officer, with such actions certified to the Trustee by an appropriately certified copy of the action taken. The Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any such notice, resolution, order, certificate or other communication believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper party or parties.

10.8 SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Master Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company, the Subsidiaries and the Trustee and their respective successors and assigns.

10.9 GENDER AND NUMBER. Words used in the masculine shall also apply to the feminine where applicable, and when the context requires, the plural shall be read as the singular and the singular as the plural.

10.10 HEADINGS. Headings in this Master Trust Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and any conflict between such headings and the text shall be resolved in favor of the text.

10.11 COUNTERPARTS. This Master Trust Agreement may be executed in an original and any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original of one and the same instrument.

10.12 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. It is intended that wherever the rights and obligations of the parties hereto require, or may be exercised only with, the consent of any Participant or Beneficiary of a Plan, such third party shall be a third party beneficiary of the parties' agreement hereunder and may initiate an action in law or in equity in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any right granted hereunder. If any action is initiated by a third party hereunder, he or she shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which the trust may be entitled.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Company and the Trustee have signed this Master Trust Agreement as of the date first written above.

HERBALIFE
INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYEES 401 (K) PROFIT SHARING PLAN AND TRUST

THIS AGREEMENT is made this 22 day of December, 1994, by and between Herbalife International, Inc. ("the Employer") and Christopher Pair and Timothy Gerrity (collectively "the Trustee").

PART I

ARTICLE I

INTRODUCTION

1.1.1 ADOPTION AND TITLE. The Employer and Trustee hereby adopt and restate the Plan and Trust to be known as HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYEES 401(K) PROFIT SHARING PLAN AND TRUST.

1.1.2 EFFECTIVE DATE. The provisions of this amended and restated Plan and Trust which was originally effective January 1, 1985 shall be effective as of January 1, 1989, hereinafter the Effective Date.

1.1.3 PURPOSE. This Plan and Trust is established for the purpose of providing retirement benefits to eligible employees in accordance with the Plan and Trust. If the Plan is a cash or deferred profit sharing plan, the Plan is also intended to enable eligible Employees to supplement their retirement by electing to have the Employer contribute amounts to the Plan and Trust in lieu of payments to such Employees in cash. Under such circumstances, the Plan and. Trust are intended to satisfy the provisions of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

As used in this Plan and the Trust, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1.2.1 "ACCOUNT": The Employer Account, Controlled Account, Elective Contribution Account, Matching Account, Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account, Voluntary Account or Segregated Account of a Participant, as the context requires, established and maintained for accounting purposes.

1.2.2 "ACP": The average contribution percentage determined in accordance with the provisions of Part II, Article VII.

1.2.3 “ACT”: The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended from time to time.

1.2.4 “ADP”: The actual deferral percentage determined in accordance with the provisions of Part II, Article VII.

1.2.5 “ANNIVERSARY DATE”: The last day of each Plan Year.

1.2.6 “BENEFICIARY”: The person or persons entitled to receive the benefits which may be payable upon or after a Participant’s death.

1.2.7 “BOARD OF DIRECTORS”: The board of directors of an incorporated Employer.

1.2.8 “BREAK IN SERVICE”: The failure of a Participant to complete more than 500 Hours of Service during any twelve (12) consecutive month Plan Year beginning with a Participant’s first computation period after becoming a Participant. A Year of Service and a Break in Service for vesting purposes shall be measured on the same computation period. The Eligibility Computation Period and a Break in Service for eligibility purposes shall be measured on the same computation period.

1.2.9 “CODE”: The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

1.2.10 “COMPENSATION”: All of a Participant’s W-2 compensation (or Earned Income in the case of a self-employed individual) which is actually paid to the Participant by the Employer during the Limitation Year; provided that compensation shall also include any amount which is contributed by the Employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement and which is not includible in the gross income of the Employee under Sections 402(h)(1)(B)(SEP Deferrals), 402(a)(8) (401(k) deferrals), 403(b) and 457(b) of the Code; however, Compensation shall not include amounts received for bonuses; provided further that the annual gross compensation taken into account for purposes of the Plan shall not exceed $200,000, as such amount may be adjusted by the Secretary of the Treasury at the same time and in the same manner as under Section 415(d) of the Code, except that the dollar increase in effect on January 1 of any calendar year is effective for years beginning in such calendar year and the first adjustment to the $200,000 limitation is effected on January 1, 1990. If the plan determines compensation for a period of time that contains less than twelve (12) calendar months, then the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the annual compensation limit for the calendar year in which the compensation period begins multiplied by the ratio obtained by dividing the number of full months in the period by 12. For purposes of this dollar limitation, the rules of Section 414(q)(6) of the Code requiring the aggregation of the compensation of family members shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term “family” shall include only the spouse of the Participant and any lineal descendants of the Participant who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year. If, as a result of the application of such rules the adjusted $200,000 limitation is exceeded, then (except for purposes of determining the portion of compensation up to the Social Security Integration Level if this Plan provides for permitted disparity), the limitation shall be prorated among the affected individuals in proportion to each such individuals compensation as determined under this Section prior to the application of this limitation.

If compensation for any prior plan year is taken into account in determining an employee’s contributions or benefits for the current year, the compensation for such prior year is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior year. For this purpose, for years beginning before January 1, 1990, the applicable annual compensation limit is $200,000.

For the initial year of participation, Compensation from the first day of the Plan Year shall be considered.

1.2.11 “CONTROLLED ACCOUNT”: An account established and maintained for a Participant to account for his interest in a Segregated Fund over which he exercises investment control.

1.2.12 “DISTRIBUTABLE BENEFIT”: The benefit to which a Participant is entitled following termination of his employment.

Net earnings shall be determined without regard to items not included in gross income and the deductions allocable to such items but, in the case of taxable years beginning after 1989, with regard to the deduction allowed by Section 164(f) of the Code. Net earnings shall be reduced by contributions to a qualified plan to the extent deductible under Section 404 of the Code.

With respect to any taxable year, a Participant’s Elective Deferral is the sum of all Employer contributions made on behalf of the Participant pursuant to an election to defer under any qualified CODA as described in Section 401(k) of the Code, any simplified employee pension cash or deferred arrangement as described in Section 402(h)(1)(B), any eligible deferred compensation plan under Section 457, any plan as described under Section 501(c)(18), and any employer contributions made on the behalf of a participant for the purchase of an annuity contract under Section 403(b) pursuant to a salary reduction agreement. Elective Deferrals shall not include any deferrals properly distributed as excess annual additions.

1.2.20 “ELIGIBILITY COMPUTATION PERIOD”: For purposes of determining Years of Service and Breaks in Service for purposes of eligibility, the initial eligibility computation period is the twelve (12) consecutive month period beginning with the employment commencement date on which the Employee first renders an Hour of Service for the Employer and the subsequent eligibility computation periods are each subsequent twelve (12) consecutive month period commencing on the annual anniversary of such employment commencement date.

1.2.22 “EMPLOYER”: The Employer and, except where the context expressly indicates to the contrary, each Affiliate Employer that is a party to this Agreement, or any of their respective successors or assigns which adopt the Plan; provided, however, that no mere change in the identity, form or organization of the Employer shall affect its status under the Plan in any manner, and, if the name of the Employer is hereinafter changed, references herein to the Employer shall be deemed to refer to the Employer as it is then known.

(b) The maximum contribution percentage amounts permitted by the ACP test (determined by reducing contributions made on behalf of Highly Compensated Employees in order of their contribution percentages beginning with the highest of such percentages).

Such determination shall be made after first determining Excess Elective Deferrals and then determining Excess Contributions.

1.2.26 “EXCESS CONTRIBUTIONS”: With respect to any Plan Year, the excess of:

(A) The aggregate amount of Employer Contributions actually taken into account in computing the ADP of Highly Compensated Employees for such Plan Year, over

1.2.30 “FIDUCIARY”: The Plan Administrator, the Trustee and any other person who has discretionary authority or control in the management of the Plan or the disposition of Trust assets.

1.2.31 “HIGHLY COMPENSATED EMPLOYEE”: A highly compensated active employee and a highly compensated former employee. A highly compensated active employee includes: any Employee who performs service for the Employer during the determination year and who, during the look-back year: (i) received compensation from the Employer in excess of $75,000 (as adjusted pursuant to Section 415(d) of the Code); (ii) received compensation from the Employer in excess of $50,000 (as adjusted pursuant to Section 415(d) of the Code) and was a member of the top-paid group for such year; or (iii) was an officer of the Employer and received compensation during such year that is greater than 50 percent of the dollar limitation as in effect under Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Code. The term highly compensated employee also includes: (i) employees who are both described in the preceding sentence if the term “determination year” is substituted for the term “look-back year” and the employee is one of the 100 employees who received the most compensation from the Employer during the determination year; and (ii) employees who are 5 percent owners at any time during the look-back year or determination year.

If no officer has satisfied the compensation requirement of (iii) above during either a determination year or look-back year, the highest paid officer for such year shall be treated as a highly compensated employee. For this purpose, the determination year shall be the Plan Year. The look-back year shall be the twelve-month period immediately preceding the determination year and compensation is as defined in Section 415(c)(3) of the Code including amounts contributed by the Employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement and which is not includible in gross income under Sections 125, 402(a)(8), 402(h) or 403(b) of the Code.

A highly compensated former employee includes any employee who separated from service (or was deemed to have separated) prior to the determination year, performs no service for the employer during the determination year, and was a highly compensated active employee for either the separation year or any determination year ending on or after the employee's 55th birthday.

If an Employee is, during a Plan Year or the preceding Plan Year, a family member of either a 5 percent owner who is an active or former employee or a Highly Compensated Employee who is one of the 10 most highly compensated employees ranked on the basis of compensation paid by the Employer during such year, then the family member and the 5 percent owner or top-ten highly compensated employee shall be aggregated. In such case, the family member and 5 percent owner or top-ten highly compensated employee shall be treated as a single employee receiving compensation and plan contributions or benefits equal to the sum of such compensation and contributions or benefits of the family member and 5 percent owner or top-ten highly compensated employee. For purposes of this section, family member includes the spouse, lineal ascendants and descendants of the employee or former employee and the spouses of such lineal ascendants and descendants.

An Employee is in the top-paid group of employees for any year if the Employee is in the group consisting of the top twenty (20%) percent of the employees when ranked on the basis of compensation paid during such year.

For purposes of determining whether an Employee is a Highly Compensated Employee, Sections 414(b), (c), (m), (n) and (o) of the Code shall be applied.

The determination of who is a highly compensated employee, including the determination of the number and identity of employees in the top-paid group, the top 100 employees, the number of employees treated as officers and the compensation that is considered, will be made in accordance with Section 414(q) of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

Hours of Service shall be credited to the Employee under (a), above, for the period in which the duties are performed, under (b), above, in the period in which the period during which no duties are performed occurs, beginning with the first Hour of Service to which the payment relates, and under (c), above, for the period to which the award or agreement pertains rather than the period in which the award, agreement or payment is made; provided, however, that Hours of Service shall not be credited under both (a) and (b), above, as the case may be, and under (c) above. Notwithstanding the preceding sentences, (i) no more than five hundred one (501) Hours of Service shall be credited under (b), above, on account of any single continuous period during which the Employee performs no duties-whether or not such period occurs in a single computation period, (ii) no Hours of Service shall be credited to the Employee by reason of a payment made or due under a plan maintained solely for the purpose of complying with applicable worker's compensation, or unemployment compensation or disability insurance laws, and (iii) no Hours of Service shall be credited by reason of a payment which solely reimburses an Employee for medical or medically related expenses incurred by the Employee. The determination of Hours of Service for reasons other than the performance of duties and the crediting of Hours of Service to computation periods shall be made in accord with the provisions of Labor Regulation Sections 2530.200b-2(b) and (c) which are incorporated herein by reference.

Solely for purposes of determining whether an Employee has incurred a Break in Service, an Employee shall be credited with number of Hours of Service which would otherwise have been credited to such individual but for the absence or in any case in which such Hours cannot be determined with eight (8) Hours of Service for any day that the Employee is absent from work by reason of the Employee's pregnancy, the birth of a child of the Employee, the placement of a child with the Employee in connection with the adoption of such child by the Employee or for purposes of caring for such child for a period beginning immediately following such birth or placement. Such Hours of Service shall be credited only in the computation period in which the absence from work begins if the Employee would be prevented from incurring a Break in Service in such computation period solely because credit is given for such period of absence and, in any other case, in the immediately following computation period.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no credit shall be given for such service unless the Employee furnishes to the Plan Administrator information to establish that the absence from work is for the reasons indicated and the number of days for which there was such an absence.

2.1.4 TERMINATION OF PARTICIPATION. An Employee who has become a Participant shall remain a Participant until the entire amount of his Distributable Benefit is distributed to him or his Beneficiary in the event of his death.

2.1.5 DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY. In the event any question shall arise as to the eligibility of any person to become a Participant or the commencement of participation, the Plan Administrator shall determine such question from information provided by the Employer and the Plan Administrator's decision shall be conclusive and binding, except to the extent of a claimant's right to appeal the denial of a claim.

2.1.6 OMISSION OF ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEE. If an Employee who should be included as a Participant in the Plan is erroneously omitted and discovery of the omission is made after the contribution by the Employer is made and allocated, the Employer shall make an additional contribution on behalf of the omitted Employee in the amount which the Employer would have contributed on his behalf had he not been omitted.

2.1.7 INCLUSION OF INELIGIBLE PARTICIPANT. If any person is erroneously included as a Participant in the Plan and discovery of the erroneous inclusion is made after the contribution by the Employer is made and allocated, the Employer may elect to treat the amount contributed on behalf of the ineligible person plus any earnings thereon as a forfeiture for the Plan Year in which the discovery is made and apply such amount in the manner specified in Section 2.4.6.

2.1.8 ELECTION NOT TO PARTICIPATE. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, an Employee may elect with the approval of the Employer not to participate in the Plan if the tax-exempt status of the Plan is not jeopardized by the election. The Employee shall sign such documents as may be reasonably required by the Employer to evidence the election. If it is subsequently determined that the tax-exempt status of the Plan has been jeopardized, the Employer may elect to treat such Employee as having been erroneously omitted. An Employee may revoke the election only with respect to any subsequent Plan Year by written notice of revocation to the Employer prior to the end of the Plan Year for which the revocation is effective.

2.1.9 CHANGE IN STATUS. If any Participant continues in the employ of the Employer or an affiliate for which service is required to be taken into account but ceases to be an Employee by becoming a member of any ineligible class for any reason (such as becoming covered by a collective bargaining agreement unless the collective bargaining agreement otherwise provides) the Participant shall continue to be a Participant until the entire amount of his benefit is distributed but the individual shall not be entitled to receive an allocation of contributions or forfeitures during the period that the Participant is not an Employee for such reason. Such Participant shall continue to receive credit for Years of Service completed during the period for purposes of determining his vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Accounts. In the event that the individual subsequently again becomes a member of an eligible class of employees, the individual shall participate immediately upon the date of such change in status. If such Participant incurs a Break in Service and is subsequently reemployed, eligibility to participate shall be determined in accordance with Section 2.1-3. In the event that an individual who is not a member of an eligible class of employees becomes a member of an eligible class, the individual shall participate immediately if such individual has satisfied the eligibility requirements and would have otherwise previously become a participant.

2.1.10 EXISTING PARTICIPANTS. An Employee who, on the Effective Date, was a Participant under the provisions of the Plan as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date shall be a Participant on the Effective Date and the provisions of Sections 2.1.1 and 2.1.2, pertaining to participation, shall not be applicable to such Employee. The rights of a Participant whose employment terminated prior to the Effective Date shall be determined under the provisions of the Plan as in effect at the time of such termination.

However, the Employer shall not make Matching Contributions on behalf of a Participant for any Plan Year with respect to Elective Contributions in excess of 3% of a Participant's Compensation. The matching contribution shall be equal to 3% of each Participant's Compensation, provided the Participant makes an Elective Contribution of at least 2% of Compensation.

(c) AMOUNT OF QUALIFIED NON-ELECTIVE CONTRIBUTION. The Employer shall contribute to the Trust Fund each Plan Year such amount as a Qualified Non-Elective Contribution as the Employer may determine. In addition, in lieu of distributing Excess Contributions or Excess Aggregate Contributions as provided in Article VII, below, the Employer may make Qualified Non-Elective Contributions on behalf of Employees who are not Highly Compensated Employees me that are sufficient to satisfy either the ADP test or the ACP test, or both, pursuant to regulations under the Code.

All contributions by the Employer shall be delivered to the Trustee not later than the date fixed by law for the filing of the Employer's federal income tax return for the Year for which such contribution is made (including any extensions of time granted by the Internal Revenue Service for filing such return).

(f) DETERMINATION OF AMOUNT TO BE FINAL. The determination by the Employer as to the amount to be contributed by the Employer hereunder shall be in all respects final, binding, and conclusive on all persons or parties having or claiming any rights under this agreement or under the Plan and Trust created hereby. Under no circumstances and in no event shall any Participant, Beneficiary, or other person or party have any right to examine the books or records of the Employer.

(g) RIGHTS OF TRUSTEE AS TO CONTRIBUTIONS. The Trustee shall have no duty to report any contribution to be made or to determine whether contributions delivered to the Trustee by the Employer comply with the provisions of this Agreement. The Trustee shall be accountable only for funds actually received by the Trustee.

2.2.2 ELECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE EMPLOYER ON BEHALF OF ELECTING EMPLOYEES.

(a) AMOUNT OF CONTRIBUTION. Each Employee may elect to have the Employer contribute to the Trust on his behalf for any Plan Year during which he is a Participant such amounts expressed either in dollars or in whole percentages of his Compensation as he may elect which would otherwise be payable by the Employer as Compensation (but not to exceed the dollar limitation provided by Section 402(g) of the Code as in effect at the beginning of the taxable year); provided that the Employer may impose reasonable limitations in a uniform, nondiscriminatory manner on the amounts which may be so contributed in order to satisfy applicable legal requirements and to assure the deductibility of amounts contributed by the Employer to the Plan and any other qualified plan of deferred compensation.

(b) ELECTION. The Plan Administrator shall determine the manner in which a Participant may elect to have Elective Contributions made to the Plan on his behalf. The Plan Administrator shall establish reasonable periods during which the election may be made, modified or revoked. Unless the Plan Administrator establishes another period during which the election may be made, modified or revoked, any such election may be made, modified or revoked during the first and last months of the Plan Year. An election by an Employee may not be made retroactively and once made shall remain in effect until modified or terminated.

(d) SEGREGATED FUND. Unless an Elective Contribution on behalf of a Participant is received by the Trustee within the time prescribed by the Plan Administrator prior to a Valuation Date, the Plan Administrator shall direct the Trustee to establish a Segregated Fund with respect to such contribution. The funds contained in such Segregated Fund shall be transferred to the Trust Fund in accordance with the instructions of the Plan Administrator and such transfer shall be deemed to have been made as of such next succeeding Valuation Date. If an Elective Contribution on behalf of a Participant is received by the Trustee within the period prescribed by the Plan Administrator, such contribution shall be added to the Trust Fund. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Trust Fund is invested in such a manner that the Plan Administrator can determine, with a reasonable degree of certainty, that portion of the adjustment to fair market value which is attributable to Elective Contributions received by the Trustee other than within such period, then the Plan Administrator shall direct the Trustee to add any such Elective Contributions to the Trust Fund at the time the Trustee receives such Elective Contributions.

(e) HARDSHIP DISTRIBUTIONS. An Employee may not have Elective Contributions made on his or her behalf for the taxable year following the taxable year of a hardship distribution in excess of the applicable limit under Section 402(g) of the Code for such taxable year less the amount of the Employee's Elective Deferrals' for the taxable year of the hardship distribution.

(c) Each Qualified Non-Elective, Non-Elective and Matching Contribution is conditioned upon the deductibility of the contribution under the applicable sections of the Code and to the extent of a disallowance of the deduction for part or all of the contribution, the contribution shall be returned within one year after such disallowance upon the Employer's written request.

ARTICLE III

ALLOCATIONS

2.3.1 NON-ELECTIVE CONTRIBUTION. As of each Anniversary Date, the Non-Elective Contribution made by the Employer including any forfeitures with respect to the preceding Plan year shall be allocated among the Employer Accounts of Participants who have completed at least 1,000 Hours of Service during the Plan Year, in the following manner:

(a) Non-Elective Contributions and forfeitures for the Plan Year shall be allocated to each Participant's Employer Account in the ratio that each Participant's Compensation for the Plan Year bears to all Participants' Compensation for that year.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section to the contrary, if the employment of a Participant is terminated during a Plan year by reason of retirement, disability or death, as provided in Section 2.4.2, an allocation of contributions and forfeitures shall be made to the Employer Account of such Participant for the Plan Year during which his employment was so terminated, regardless of whether he has completed 1,000 Hours of Service during said Plan Year;

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section to the contrary, if the employment of a Participant is terminated during a Plan Year by reason of resignation or discharge as provided in Section 2.4.2(f), no allocation of contributions or forfeitures shall be made to the Employer Account of such Participant for the Plan Year during which his employment is terminated.

2.3.2 MINIMUM ALLOCATION. In the event the Plan becomes a Top-Heavy Plan during any Plan Year, the provisions of Section 2.6.1(a) shall apply.

2.3.3 FAIL-SAFE ALLOCATION. Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, for Plan Years beginning after December 31,

1989, if the Plan would otherwise fail to satisfy the requirements of Section 401(a)(26), 410(b)(1) or 410(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Code and the regulations thereunder because Employer contributions have not been allocated to a sufficient number or percentage of Participants for the Plan Year, an additional contribution shall be made by the Employer and shall be allocated to the Employer Accounts of affected Participants subject to the following provisions:

(a) The Participants eligible to share in the allocation of the Employer's contribution shall be expanded to include the minimum number of Participants who are not otherwise eligible to the extent necessary to satisfy the applicable test under the relevant Section of the Code. The specific Participants who shall become eligible are those Participants who are actively employed on the last day of the Plan Year who have completed the greatest number of Hours of Service during the Plan Year.

(b) If the applicable test is still not satisfied, the Participants eligible to share in the allocation shall be further expanded to include the minimum number of Participants who are not employed on the last day of the Plan Year as are necessary to satisfy the applicable test. The specific Participants who shall become eligible are those Participants who have completed the greatest number of Hours of Service during the Plan Year.

(c) A Participant's accrued benefit shall not be reduced by any reallocation of amounts that have previously been allocated. To the extent necessary, the Employer shall make an additional contribution equal to the amount such affected Participants would have received if they had originally shared in the allocations without regard to the deductibility of the contribution. Any adjustment to the allocations pursuant to this paragraph shall be considered a retroactive amendment adopted by the last day of the Plan Year.

2.3.4 MATCHING CONTRIBUTIONS. As of the next Valuation Date, the Matching Contribution made by the Employer with respect to the preceding Plan Year, and forfeitures, shall be allocated in the following manner:

(a) The Matching Contribution, including any forfeitures shall be allocated among the Matching Accounts of Participants who have completed at least an Hour of Service during the Plan Year and for whom Elective Contributions were made in an amount equal to 100 percent of the Elective Contributions made on behalf of each Participant.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section to the contrary, if the employment of a Participant is terminated during a Plan Year by reason of death, retirement, disability, resignation or discharge as provided in Section 2.4.2(f), an allocation of Matching Contributions or forfeitures shall be made to the Employer Account of such Participant for the Plan Year during which his employment is terminated.

2.3.5 ELECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS. The Elective Contributions by the Employer on behalf of an electing Employee shall be allocated to the Elective Contribution Account of such electing Employee as of the Anniversary Date of the Plan Year to which the Elective Contribution pertains.

2.3.6 QUALIFIED NON-ELECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS. The Qualified Non- Elective Contributions made by the Employer with respect to the preceding Plan Year shall be allocated to the Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account solely on behalf of Participants who are not Highly Compensated Employees to the extent necessary to satisfy the ACP test or the ADP test. The Qualified Non- Elective Contributions shall be allocated among affected Participant's as needed to satisfy the ADP/ACP test.

2.3.7 LIMITATION. The allocation of Employer contributions must satisfy the requirements of Section 416 of the Code. Neither Elective Contributions nor Matching Contributions may be taken into account for the purpose of satisfying the minimum top-heavy contribution requirement imposed by Section 416.

ARTICLE IV

BENEFITS

2.4.1 DISTRIBUTABLE BENEFIT. At such time that the employment of a Participant terminates for any reason, he or his Beneficiary shall be entitled to a benefit equal to the vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Accounts as of the Distribution Determination Date. The Accounts shall include the allocable share of contributions and forfeitures, if any, which may be allocated to the Accounts as of such Distribution Determination Date, and shall be determined after making the adjustments for which provision is made in the Plan.

2.4.2 VESTING. A Participant shall at all times be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in his Elective Contribution Account, Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account, Voluntary Account and Segregated Account. The vested and nonforfeitable interest of the Participant in his Controlled Account shall be determined by reference to the Account from which the funds were originally transferred. The vested and nonforfeitable interest in a Participant's Employer Account and Matching Account shall be determined as herein after provided.

(a) NORMAL RETIREMENT. If a Participant terminates employment at his Normal Retirement Age, he shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account and Matching Account.

(b) DEFERRED RETIREMENT. If a Participant continues in active employment following his Normal Retirement Age, he shall continue to participate under the Plan. From and after his Normal Retirement Age, he shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account and Matching Account.

(c) DISABILITY. If the employment of a Participant is terminated prior to his Normal Retirement Age as a result of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment which may be expected to result in death or to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months and which renders him incapable of performing his duties, he shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account and Matching Account. All determinations in connection with the permanence and degree of such disability shall be made by the Plan Administrator in a uniform, nondiscriminatory manner on the basis of medical evidence.

(d) DEATH. In the event of the death of a Participant, he shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account and Matching Account.

Less than 1	0%
1 but less than 2	0%
2 but less than 3	0%
3 but less than 4	30%
4 but less than 5	40%
5 but less than 6	60%
6 but less than 7	80%
7 or more	100%

2.4.3 LEAVE OF ABSENCE. A temporary cessation from active employment with the Employer pursuant to an authorized leave of absence in accordance with the nondiscriminatory policy of the Employer, whether occasioned by illness, military service or any other reason shall not be treated as either a termination of employment or a Break in Service provided that the Employee returns to employment prior to the end of the authorized leave of absence.

2.4.4 RE-EMPLOYMENT. In the event that the Participant is re-employed during a Plan Year subsequent to the Plan Year encompassing the Distribution Determination Date, he shall be given credit for Years of Service preceding the Break in Service for the purpose of determining his vested and nonforfeitable interest in his share of Employer contributions and forfeitures allocated to his Employer Account after such re-employment. Years of Service completed by the Participant after such re-employment shall not increase his vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account on the Distribution Determination Date as of which his Distributable Benefit is determined preceding such re-employment unless the Participant is re-employed before he incurs five (5) consecutive Breaks in Service.

In the case of any Participant who has a Break in Service, Years of Service before the Break in Service shall not be taken into account until he has completed a Year of Service after his return to employment.

In the case of a Participant who does not have any vested and nonforfeitable right under the Plan to an accrued benefit derived from Employer contributions, Years of Service before any period of consecutive Breaks in Service shall not be taken into account in the event of re-employment if the number of consecutive Breaks in Service within the period equals or exceeds the greater of five (5) or the aggregate number of Years of Service before such period. Any Years of Service which are not taken into account by reason of such period of Breaks in Service shall not be taken into account in applying the foregoing to a subsequent period of Breaks in Service.

2.4.5 DISTRIBUTION DETERMINATION DATE. The Distribution Determination Date shall be determined as hereinafter provided.

(a) LESS THAN 100% VESTED. If the employment of a Participant terminates and the Participant has less than a one hundred percent (100%) vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Employer Account as of the date of such termination, the Distribution Determination Date shall be the Valuation Date coinciding with or following the date of termination, provided that he is not re-employed on the last day of such Plan Year.

(b) FULLY VESTED. For a Participant who is fully vested but who terminates employment prior to death, total and permanent disability or retirement at his retirement date, the Distribution Determination Date shall be the Valuation Date coinciding with or following the date of termination.

For a Participant who terminates employment as a result of death, total and permanent disability or retirement at his retirement date, the Distribution Determination Date shall be the Valuation Date coinciding with or following the date of termination.

In the case of a Participant's interest in a Voluntary Account or a Segregated Account attributable to a rollover contribution from another plan, the Distribution Determination Date is the Valuation Date coinciding with or following the date of termination.

(c) TERMINATION OF PLAN. In the event of termination of the Plan (including termination resulting from a complete discontinuance of contributions by the Employer), the Distribution Determination Date shall be the date of such termination. In the event of a partial termination of the Plan, as to each Participant with respect to whom such partial termination has occurred, the Distribution Determination Date shall be the Anniversary Date coinciding with or immediately following the date of such partial termination.

(d) OTHER. Except as provided above, the Distribution Determination Date shall be the Anniversary Date coinciding with or next following the termination of employment of the Participant.

(e) DISTRIBUTIONS FOLLOWING DISTRIBUTION DETERMINATION DATE. Subject to the necessity, if any, of obtaining the consent of a Participant and spouse, distribution of a Participant's Distributable Benefit shall commence within a reasonable period a-f ter the Distribution Determination Date, unless otherwise elected by the Participant in accordance with the provisions of the Plan or as required by the provisions of the Plan.

2.4.6 FORFEITURES. If an Employee terminates service, and the value of the Employee's vested account balance derived from employer and employee contributions is not greater than $3,500 and the Employee receives a distribution of the value of the entire vested portion of such account balance, the nonvested portion shall be treated as a forfeiture as of the last day of the Plan Year in which the Participant's entire nonforfeitable interest in such Account is distributed from the Plan. If the value of an Employee's vested account balance is zero, the Employee shall be deemed to have received a distribution of such vested account balance. A participant's vested account balance shall not include accumulated deductible employee contributions within the meaning of Section 72(o)(5)(B) of the Code for plan years beginning prior to January 1, 1989.

If an Employee terminates service, and elects, in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, to receive the value of the employee's vested account balance, the nonvested portion shall be treated as a forfeiture. If the Employee elects to have distributed less than the entire vested portion of the account balance derived from employer contributions, the part of the nonvested portion that will be treated as a forfeiture is the total nonvested portion multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of the distribution attributable to employer contributions and the denominator of which is the total value of the vested employer derived account balance.

If an Employee receives a distribution and the Employee resumes employment covered under the Plan, the Employee's employer-derived account balance shall be restored to the amount on the date of distribution if the Employee repays to the plan the full amount of the distribution attributable to Employer contributions before the earlier of five (5) years after the first date on which the Participant is subsequently re-employed by the Employer, or the date the Participant incurs five (5) consecutive Breaks in Service following the date of the distribution, If an Employee is deemed to receive a distribution pursuant to this section, and the Employee resumes employment covered under the Plan before the date the Participant incurs five (5) consecutive Breaks in Service, upon the reemployment of such Employee, the employer-derived account balance of the Employee will be restored to the amount on the date of such deemed distribution.

Any portion of a Participant's Employer or Matching Account with respect to which he is not vested shall be deemed a forfeiture as of the last day of the Plan Year in which the Participant's entire nonforfeitable interest in such Account is distributed from the Plan.

Forfeitures from the Employer Account shall be allocated to the Employer Account of Participants who are entitled by reason of re-employment to restoration of a prior forfeiture and any remaining forfeitures shall be allocated in the same manner as a contribution by the Employer.

Forfeitures from the Matching Account shall be allocated to the Matching Account of Participants who are entitled by reason of re-employment to restoration of a prior forfeiture and any remaining forfeitures shall in the same manner as -a contribution by the Employer, except that the administrative expenses of the Plan may first be deducted from the forfeitures to be allocated in any Plan Year and the remaining forfeitures then allocated to the respective Accounts from which they arose.

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, forfeitures resulting from contributions by an Employer shall not be reallocated for the benefit of another adopting Employer. If a Participant is entitled to a restoration of a forfeiture which has not otherwise been provided for, the amount to be restored shall be restored BY allocating forfeitures arising in the Plan Year of restoration to the Participant's Account to the extent thereof and an additional contribution by the Employer allocated to the Participant's Account to the extent that allocable forfeitures are insufficient.

ARTICLE V

DISTRIBUTIONS

2.5.1 COMMENCEMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.

(a) IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION. If the employment of a Participant is terminated for any reason other than resignation or discharge prior to his Normal Retirement Date, distribution of his Distributable Benefit shall begin in accordance with the Participant's election at any time after the earlier of the date determined under subsection (b) below or within a reasonable period after the Distribution Determination Date as of which his Distributable Benefit is determined; provided that, if he has not incurred a Break in Service, he is not reemployed prior to the date of the commencement of distributions.

(b) DEFERRED DISTRIBUTION. Unless the Participant elects either earlier commencement in accordance with the provisions of the Plan or to further defer distribution, if the employment of a Participant is terminated by reason of resignation or discharge prior to either his Early Retirement Date or his Normal Retirement Date, distribution of his Distributable Benefit shall be deferred and commenced on the sixtieth (60th) day after the close of the later of the following Plan Years:

(i) The Plan Year during which the Participant attains the earlier of age sixty-five (65) or the Normal Retirement Age;

(ii) The Plan Year during which the tenth (10th) anniversary of the commencement of the Participant's participation in the Plan occurs; or

(iii) The Plan Year during which the Participant terminates service with the Employer.

If distribution is so deferred, unless otherwise determined by the Plan Administrator, the Trustee at the Plan Administrator's direction shall transfer the Distributable Benefit to a Segregated Fund from which distribution shall thereafter be made.

Such transfer shall be made as of the Distribution Determination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of a Participant and spouse to consent to a distribution while a benefit is immediately distributable, within the meaning of Section 2.5.2, shall be deemed to be an election to defer commencement of payment of any benefit sufficient to satisfy this section.

(c) REQUIRED DISTRIBUTION. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, unless the Participant has made an appropriate elections BY December 31, 1983 to defer distribution which hat not been revoked or modified, the Participant's benefit shall be distributed to the Participant not later than April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which he attains age 70-1/2 (the required beginning date) or shall be distributed, commencing not later than April 1 of such calendar year in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the Participant or the life expectancy of the Participant and a beneficiary designated by the Participant. The amount required to be distributed for each calendar year, beginning with distributions for the first distribution calendar year, must at least equal the quotient obtained by dividing the Participant's benefit by the applicable life expectancy. Unless otherwise elected by the Participant (or spouse, if distributions begin after death and the spouse is the designated beneficiary), by the time distributions are required to begin, the life expectancy of the Participant and the Participant's spouse shall be recalculated annually. Other than for a life annuity, such election shall be irrevocable as to the Participant or spouse and shall apply to all subsequent years. The life expectancy of a non-spouse beneficiary may not be recalculated. Life expectancy and joint and last survivor expectancy shall be computed by use of the expected return multiples in Tables V and VI of Section 1.72-9 of the Treasury Regulations.

For calendar years beginning after December 31, 1988, the amount to be distributed each year, beginning with distributions for the first distribution calendar year shall not be less than the quotient obtained by dividing the Participant's benefit by the lesser of (1) the applicable life expectancy or (2) if the Participant's spouse is not the designated beneficiary, the applicable divisor then determined from the table set forth in Q&A-4 of Section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the proposed regulations. Distributions after the death of the Participant shall be distributed using the, applicable life expectancy as the relevant divisor without regard to Proposed Regulations Section 1.401(a)(9)-2. The minimum distribution for subsequent calendar years, including the minimum distribution for the distribution calendar year in which the Participant's required beginning date occurs, must be made on or before December 31 of that distribution calendar year.

(d) DISTRIBUTION AFTER DEATH. Unless the Participant has made an appropriate election by December 31, 1983 to extend the period of distribution after his death and the election has not been revoked or modified, the following provisions shall apply. If distribution of the Participant's benefit has begun and the Participant dies before his entire benefit has been distributed to him, the remaining portion of such benefit shall be distributed at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution being used as of the date of the Participant's death.

If the Participant dies before the distribution of his benefit has begun, the entire interest of the Participant shall be distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth (5th) anniversary of the death of such Participant, provided that if any portion of the Participants benefit is payable to or for the benefit of a designated beneficiary and such portion is to be distributed in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury over the life of, or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of such designated beneficiary, such distributions shall begin not later than December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the Participant's death or such later date as may be provided by regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury.

If the designated beneficiary is the surviving spouse of the Participant the date on which the distributions are required to begin shall not be earlier than the later of December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the Participant died and December 31 of the calendar year in which the Participant would have attained age 70-1/2. If the surviving spouse thereafter dies before the distributions to such spouse begin and any benefit is payable to a contingent beneficiary, the date on which distributions are required to begin shall be determined as if the surviving spouse were the Participant.

If the Participant has not specified the manner in which benefits are payable by the time of his or her death, the Participant's designated beneficiary must elect the method of distribution no later than the earlier of (1) December 31 of the calendar year in which distributions would be required to begin under this section, or (2) December 31 of the calendar year which contains the fifth anniversary of the date of death of the Participant. If the Participant has no designated beneficiary, or if the designated beneficiary does not elect a method of distribution, distribution of the Participant's entire interest must be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the Participant's death.

(e) Payments to Children. In accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, any amount paid to a child shall be treated as if it had been paid to the surviving spouse if such amount shall become payable to the surviving spouse upon such child reaching majority (or other designated event permitted under such regulations).

(f) Incidental Death Benefit Distributions. Any distribution required by the rules applicable to incidental death benefits shall be treated as a distribution required by this Section. All distributions required under this Section shall be determined and made in accordance with the proposed regulations under Section 401(a)(9) of the Code, including the minimum distribution incidental benefit requirement of Section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the proposed regulations.

(g) DISTRIBUTIONS. For the purposes of this section, distribution of a Participant's interest is considered to begin on the Participant's required beginning date or the date distribution is required to begin to the surviving spouse. If distribution in the form of an annuity irrevocably commences to the Participant before the required beginning date, the date distribution is considered to begin is the date distribution actually commences.

(h) DEFINITIONS.

(1) APPLICABLE LIFE EXPECTANCY. The life expectancy (or joint and last survivor expectancy) calculated using the attained age of the Participant (or designated beneficiary) as of the Participant's (or designated beneficiary's) birthday in the applicable calendar year reduced by one for each calendar year which has elapsed since the date life expectancy was first calculated. If life expectancy is being recalculated, the applicable life expectancy shall be the life expectancy as so recalculated. The applicable calendar year shall be the first distribution calendar year, and if life expectancy is being recalculated such succeeding calendar year.

(2) DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY. The individual who is designated as the beneficiary under the Plan in accordance with Section 401(a)(9) and the proposed regulations thereunder.

(3) DISTRIBUTION CALENDAR YEAR. A calendar year for which a minimum distribution is required. For distributions beginning before the Participant's death, the first distribution calendar year is the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year which contains the Participant's required beginning date. For distributions beginning after the Participant's death, the first distribution calendar year is the calendar year in which distributions are required to begin.

(4) PARTICIPANT'S BENEFIT.

(1) The account balance as of the last valuation date in the calendar year immediately preceding the distribution calendar year (valuation calendar year) increased by the amount of any contributions or forfeitures allocated to the account balance as of dates in the valuation calendar year after the valuation date and decreased by distributions made in the valuation calendar year after the valuation date.

(ii) Exception for second distribution calendar year. For purposes of paragraph (i) above, if any portion of the minimum distribution for the first distribution calendar year is made in the second distribution calendar year on or before the required beginning date, the amount of the minimum distribution made in the second distribution calendar year shall be treated as if it had been made in the immediately preceding distribution calendar year.

(5) REQUIRED BEGINNING DATE.

(i) GENERAL RULE. The required beginning date of a Participant is the first day of April of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Participant attains age 70 1/2

(ii) TRANSITIONAL RULES. The required beginning date of a Participant who attains age 70 1/2 before January 1, 1988, shall be determined in accordance with (I) or (II) below:

(I) NON-5-PERCENT OWNERS. The required beginning date of a Participant who is not a 5-percent owner is the first day of April of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the later of retirement or attainment of age 70 1/2 occurs.

(II) 5-PERCENT OWNERS. The required beginning date of a Participant who is a 5-percent owner during any year beginning after December 31, 1979, is the first day of April following the later of:

(A) the calendar year in which the Participant attains age 70 1/2 or

(B) the earlier of the calendar year with or within which ends the Plan Year in which the Participant becomes a 5- percent owner, or the calendar year in which the Participant retires.

The required beginning date of a Participant who is not a 5-percent owner who attains age 70 1/2 during 1988 and who has not retired as of January 1, 1989, is April 1, 1990.

(iii) 5-PERCENT OWNER. A Participant is treated as a 5-percent owner for purposes of this section if such Participant is a 5-percent owner as defined in Section 416(i) of the Code (determined in accordance with Section 416 but without regard to whether the Plan is top-heavy) at any time during the Plan Year ending with or within the calendar year in which such owner attains age 66 1/2 or any subsequent Plan Year.

(iv) Once distributions have begun to a 5-percent owner under this section, they must continue to be distributed, even if the Participant ceases to be a 5-percent owner in a subsequent year.

(i)TRANSITIONAL RULE.

(1) Notwithstanding the other requirements of this Section and subject to the requirements of Section 2.5.2, distribution on behalf of any employee, including a 5-percent owner, may be made in accordance with all of the following requirements (regardless of when such distribution commences):

(a) The distribution by the trust is one which would not have disqualified such trust under Section 401 (a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect prior to amendment by the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

(b) The distribution is in accordance with a method of distribution designated by the employee whose interest in the trust is being distributed or, if the employee is deceased, by a beneficiary of such employee.

(c) Such designation was in writing, was signed by the employee or the beneficiary, and was made before January 1, 1984.

2.5.2 METHOD OF DISTRIBUTION. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5.1 above and any security interest in a loan from the plan for which any necessary spousal consent has been obtained (to the extent such security interest is used as repayment of the loan), distribution shall be made by one of the following methods, as determined in accordance with the election of the Participant (or in the case of death, his Beneficiary) with such spousal consents as may be required by law in any of the following methods:

(a) In a single distribution; provided that if the Employer has applied a consistent policy since the first Plan Year beginning after 1988, the Employer may require a Participant who is a Highly Compensated Employee or who is otherwise entitled to receive a lump sum distribution in excess of $25,000.00 to execute a covenant not to compete with the Employer which shall provide that the Participant agrees that he shall not solicit the business of any person or entity doing business with the Employer at any time within the twelve month period prior to the date of termination of his employment and, in addition, shall not engage in any business, whether as a sole proprietor, partner, joint venturer, shareholder, employee, independent contractor, agent or otherwise, which is in competition with the business of the Employer for a period not exceeding two (2) years form the date of such distribution within fifty (50) miles of the principal offices of the Employer or containing such alternative provisions as determined by the Employer.

(b) Any alternative method of equivalent value contained in the Plan at any time on or after the first day of the first Plan Year beginning after 1988 to which the Participant consents.

(c) INCIDENTAL DEATH BENEFITS. For calendar years beginning before January 1,1989, if the Participant’s spouse is not the designated Beneficiary, the method of distribution selected must assure that at least fifty (50%) percent of the present value of the amount available for distribution is paid within the life expectancy of the Participant.

(d) CONSENTS. If the value of a Participant’s vested account balance derived from Employer and Employee contributions does not exceed (and at the time of any prior distribution did not exceed) $3,500, the consent of the Participants and his or her spouse shall not be required; provided that if such value exceeds $3,500, the Participant and spouse (or where either has died, the survivor) must consent to any distribution of such account balance.

The consent shall be obtained in writing within the 90 day period ending on the annuity starting date. Neither the consent of the Participant nor the Participant’s spouse shall be required to the extent that a distribution is required to satisfy Section 401(a)(9) or Section 415 of the Code. In addition, upon termination of the Plan if the Plan does not offer an annuity option (purchased from a commercial provider), the Participant’s account balance in the Plan may, without the Participant’s consent, be distributed to the Participant or transferred to another defined contribution plan (other than an employee stock ownership plan as defined in Section 4975(e)(7) of the Code) within the same controlled group.

(e) ZERO BENEFITS. If the value of the Participant’s vested and nonforfeitable interest in the Plan at the time of his termination of employment is zero, the Participant shall be deemed to have received a distribution of such interest.

(f) RESTRICTIONS ON IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTIONS. The Plan Administrator shall notify the Participant and the Participant's spouse of the right to defer any distribution until the Participant's account balance in the Plan is no longer immediately distributable. Such notification shall include a general description of the material features and an explanation of the relative values of the optional forms of benefit available under the Plan in a manner that would satisfy the notice requirements of Section 417(a)(3) of the Code and shall be provided no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days prior to the annuity starting date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, only the Participant need consent to the commencement of a distribution in the form of a qualified joint and survivor annuity while the Participant's account balance in the Plan is immediately distributable. Furthermore,, if payment in the form of a qualified joint and survivor annuity is not required with respect to the Participant pursuant to the Plan, only the Participant need consent to the distribution of an account balance that is immediately distributable.

The Participant's account balance is immediately distributable if any part of the Participant's account balance could be distributed to the Participant (or surviving spouse) before the Participant attains (or would have attained if not deceased) the later of age 62 or the Normal Retirement Age.

(g) TRANSITIONAL RULES.

(1) Any living Participant not receiving benefits on August 23, 1984, who would otherwise not receive the benefits prescribed by the@, previous sections of the article must be given the opportunity to elect to have the prior sections of this article apply if such Participant is credited with at least one hour of service under this Plan or a predecessor plan in a Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1976, and such Participant has at least 10 years of vesting service when he or she separated from service.

(2) Any living Participant not receiving benefits on August 23, 1984, who was credited with at least one hour of service under this Plan or a predecessor plan on or after September 2, 1974, and who is not otherwise credited with any service in a Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1976, must be given the opportunity to have his or her benefits paid in accordance with Section (4) below.

(3) The respective opportunities to elect (as described above) must be afforded to the appropriate Participants during the period commencing on August 23, 1984, and ending on the date benefits would otherwise commence to said Participants.

(4) Any Participant who has elected pursuant to Section (2) above and any Participant who does not elect under Section (1) or who meets the requirements of Section (1) except that such Participant does not have at least 10 years of vesting service when he or she separates from service, shall have his or her benefits distributed in accordance with all of the following requirements if benefits would have been payable in the form of a life annuity:

(i) AUTOMATIC JOINT AND SURVIVOR ANNUITY. If benefits in the form a life annuity become payable to a married Participant who:

(1) begins to receive payments under the Plan on or after normal retirement age; or

(2) dies on or after normal retirement age while still working for the Employer; or

(3) begins to receive payments on or after the qualified early retirement age; or

(4) separates from service on or after attaining normal retirement age (or the qualified early retirement age) and after satisfying the eligibility requirements for the payment of benefits under the plan and thereafter dies before beginning to receive such benefits;

then such benefits will be received under this Plan in the form of a qualified joint and survivor annuity, unless the Participant has elected otherwise during the election period. The election period must begin at least 6 months before the Participant attains qualified early retirement age and end not more than 90 days before the commencement of benefits. Any election hereunder will be in writing and may be changed by the Participant at any time.

(ii) ELECTION OF EARLY SURVIVOR ANNUITY. A Participant who is employed after attaining the qualified early retirement age will be given the opportunity to elect, during the election period, to have a survivor annuity payable on death. If the Participant elects the survivor annuity, payments under such annuity must not be less than the payments which would have been made to the spouse under the qualified joint and survivor annuity if the Participant had retired on the day before his or her death.

Any election under this provision will be in writing and may be changed by the Participant at any time. The election period begins on the later of (1) the 90th day before the Participant attains the qualified early retirement age, or (2) the date on which participation begins, and ends on the date the Participant terminates employment.

(iii) FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION (4):

(1) Qualified early retirement age is the later of:

(i) the earliest date, under the Plan, on which the Participant may elect to receive retirement benefits,

(ii) the first day of the 120th month beginning before the Participant reaches normal retirement age, or

(iii) the date the Participant begins participation.

(2) Qualified joint and survivor annuity is an annuity for the life of the Participant with a survivor annuity for the life of the spouse as otherwise described in the Plan.

2.5.3 NATURE OF DISTRIBUTIONS. The nature of the distribution of a Participant's Distributable Benefit shall be as hereinafter provided.

(a) TRUST FUND AND SEGREGATED FUNDS. Subject to the Joint and Survivor Annuity requirements, except as provided in subsection (b) with regard to Life Insurance Policies, distribution of a Participant's Distributable Benefit shall consist of cash or property, or an annuity contract as provided in Section 5.2

(b) INSURANCE POLICIES. In the event that the Trustee has purchased Life Insurance Policies on the life of the Participant, the values and benefits available with respect to each such Policy shall be distributed as follows:

(i) If the Participant's employment terminates for any reason other than death, then the Trustee shall either surrender the Life Insurance Policy for its available cash value and distribute the proceeds as provided in subsection (a) above or, at the election of the Participant, distribute the Life Insurance Policy to the Participant, provided the Participant has a vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Accounts in an amount at least equal to the cash value thereof.

(II) If the Participant's employment terminates by reason of death, the beneficiary designated by the Participant in accordance with the terms of the Plan shall be entitled to receive from the Trustee the full amount of the proceeds thereof.

The Trustee shall apply for and be the owner of any Policies purchased under the terms of the Plan. The Policies must provide that the proceeds are payable to the Trustee subject to the Trustee's obligation to pay over the proceeds to the designated Beneficiary. Under no circumstances shall the trust retain any part of the proceeds. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any Policies purchased hereunder, the Plan provisions shall control.

2.5.4 ADVANCE DISTRIBUTIONS. After a Participant's employment has terminated and before he is otherwise entitled to distribution of his Distributable Benefit but in no event earlier than the Valuation Date coincident with or following the date of termination the Trustee upon the request of the Participant or Beneficiary shall make advance distributions to him or to his Beneficiary. The aggregate of such an advance distribution shall not exceed the sum of the vested and nonforfeitable interest in the Participant's Accounts.

An Employee who terminates service and elects to receive the value of the Employee's vested account balance shall forfeit the nonvested portion. If the Employee elects to have distributed less than the entire vested portion of the account balance derived from Employer contributions, the part of the nonvested portion that is treated as a forfeiture is the total nonvested portion multiplied BY a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of the distribution attributable to Employer contributions and the denominator of which is the total value of the vested Employer derived account balance.

Except as otherwise provided in the preceding paragraph, if a Participant receives a distribution which reduces the balance in his Employer Account when he has less than a one hundred percent (100%) vested and nonforfeitable interest in the Account, the amount, if any, of the Participant's vested and nonforfeitable interest in the undistributed balance of said Account on his Accrual Date shall be transferred to a Segregated Account and shall not be less than an amount ("XI") determined by the formula: $X = P (AB + (R \times D)) - (R \times D)$. For purposes of applying the formula: P is the vested percentage at the relevant time; AB is the account balance at the relevant time; and D is the amount of the distribution; and R is the ratio of the Account balance at the relevant time to the Account balance after distribution.

A Participant who terminates employment and receives a distribution of an amount deducted from his Account when he has less than a one hundred percent (100%) vested and nonforfeitable interest in the Account and who subsequently again becomes an Employee may repay the full amount of such distribution before he incurs five (5) consecutive Breaks in Service following the date of the distribution but in no event later than the fifth (5th) anniversary of the date of his reemployment; provided, however, that in the event of repayment neither the Trust nor the Employer shall be liable for any federal or state income tax resulting from the distribution and the Participant shall indemnify and hold harmless the Trust and the Employer for and from any such liability. In the event of such repayment, the Employer Account of the Participant shall be credited with the full amount of such repayment and the previously undistributed balance.

In the event the Participant fails to repay the full amount of such distribution within the time permitted for repayment, the non-vested and forfeitable portion of the previously undistributed balance of his Employer Account which had been transferred to a Segregated Account shall be deemed a forfeiture as of the last day of such period. If a Participant is deemed to receive a distribution because his vested and nonforfeitable interest at the time of his termination of employment is zero and the Participant resumes employment covered under the Plan before the date the Participant incurs five (5) consecutive Breaks in Service, upon the reemployment of such Participant, the employer-derived account balance of the Participant shall be restored to the amount on the date of the deemed distribution.

2.5.5 IN SERVICE DISTRIBUTIONS. In Service Distributions are not permitted.

2.5.6 HARDSHIP DISTRIBUTIONS. A Participant may request a distribution from the Plan as a result of immediate and heavy financial needs of the Participant to the extent that the distribution is necessary to satisfy such financial needs. Hardship distributions are subject to the spousal consent requirements contained in Sections 401(a)(11) and 417 of the Code. The determination of whether a Participant has an immediate and heavy financial need shall be made by the Plan Administrator on the basis of all relevant facts and circumstances. A distribution shall be deemed to be made on account of an immediate and heavy financial need if the distribution is on account of:

(a) Deductible medical expenses described in Section 213(d) of the Code incurred or necessary for medical care of the Participant, his spouse or dependents;

(b) Purchase (excluding mortgage payments) of a principal residence for the Participant;

(c) Payment of tuition and related educational fees for the next 12 months of post-secondary education for the Participant, his spouse, children or dependents; or

(d) The need to prevent the eviction of the Participant from his principal residence or foreclosure on the mortgage of the Participant's principal residence.

A distribution shall be considered as necessary to satisfy an immediate and heavy financial need of the Participant only if:

(a) The Participant has obtained all distributions, other than hardship distributions, and all nontaxable loans under all plans maintained by the Employer;

(b) All plans maintained by the Employer provide that the Participant's elective Deferrals and employee contributions shall be suspended for twelve (12) months after the receipt of the hardship distribution;

(c) The distribution is not in excess of the amount of an immediate and heavy financial need (including amounts necessary to pay any federal, state, or local income taxes or penalties reasonably anticipated to result from the distribution); and

(d) All plans maintained by the Employer provide that the Participant may not make Elective Deferrals for the Participant's taxable year immediately following the taxable year of the hardship distribution in excess of the applicable limit under Section 402(g) of the Code for such taxable year less the amount of such Participant's Elective Deferrals for the taxable year of the hardship distribution.

In the event of such distribution, when a Participant is less than one hundred percent (100%) vested in his Employer Account or Matching Account, the vested interest in the Employer Account or Matching Account shall thereafter be determined in accordance with Section 2.5.4 of the Plan.

Distributions may be taken from only the Participant's Account balances attributable to the following:

- Elective Contribution Account

CONTINGENT TOP HEAVY PROVISIONS

2.6.1 TOP HEAVY REQUIREMENTS. If the Plan becomes a Top Heavy Plan during any Plan YEAR, the following provisions shall supersede any conflicting provisions in the Plan or Trust and apply for such Plan Year:

(a) Except as otherwise provided below, the Employer contributions and forfeitures allocated on behalf of any Participant who is not a Key Employee shall not be less than the lesser of 3 percent of such Participant's Compensation or in the case where the Employer has no defined benefit plan which designates this plan to satisfy Section 401 of the Code, the largest percentage of Employer contributions and forfeitures, as a percentage of the first $200,000 of the Key Employee's compensation, allocated on behalf of any Key Employee for that year. The minimum allocation is determined without regard to any Social Security contribution. This minimum allocation shall be made even though, under other plan provisions, the Participant would not otherwise be entitled to receive an allocation, or would have received a lesser allocation for the year because of (i) the Participant's failure to complete 1,000 Hours of Service (or any equivalent provided in the plan), or (ii) the Participant's failure to make mandatory employee contributions to the plan, or (iii) compensation less than a stated amount. Neither Elective Deferrals nor Matching Contributions may be taken into account for the purpose of satisfying the minimum allocations.

For purposes of computing the minimum allocation, Compensation shall mean a Participant's W-2 compensation.

The minimum allocation provided above shall not apply to any Participant who was not employed by the Employer on the last day of the Plan Year.

The minimum allocation provided above shall not apply to any Participant to the extent the Participant is covered under any other plan or plans of the Employer and the Employer has provided that the minimum allocation or benefit requirement applicable to top-heavy plans will be met in the other plan or plans.

(b) References in Section 3.2.1(d), pertaining to combined plan limitations, to 111.25" shall be applied by substituting 111.01, for "1.2511 therein. Reference in Section 3.2.1(e), pertaining to a special transition rule, to $51,875" shall be applied BY substituting "$41,500" for "$51,8751, therein.

(c) The vested and nonforfeitable interest of each Participant shall be-equal to the percentage determined under the following schedule if greater than the percentage determined under Section 2.4.2:

Years of Service	Percent Vested
Less than 1	0 %
1 but less than 2	2 %
2 but less than 3	20 %
3 but less than 4	40 %
4 but less than 5	60 %
5 but less than 6	80 %
6 or more	100 %

The top-heavy minimum vesting schedule applies to all benefits within the meaning of Section 411(a)(7) of the Code, except those attributable to employee contributions, including benefits accrued before the effective date of Section 416 of the Code and benefits accrued before the Plan becomes top-heavy.

If the Plan ceases to be a Top Heavy Plan, the vesting which occurs while the Plan is a Top Heavy Plan shall not be cutback. Any minimum allocation required (to the extent required to be nonforfeitable under Section 416(b)) may not be forfeited under Section 411(a)(3)(B) or (D) of the Code.

2.6.2 TOP HEAVY DEFINITIONS. The following terms, as used in this Plan, shall have the following meaning:

(a) "KEY EMPLOYEE": An Employee or former employee who, at any time during the Determination Period is either:

(i) an officer of the Employer having an Annual Compensation greater than fifty (50%) percent of the amount in effect; under Section 415 (b)(1) (A) of the Code;

(ii) an owner (or a person considered an owner under Section 318 of the Code) of one of the ten largest interests in the Employer if such individuals Annual Compensation from the Employer is more than the limitation in effect under Section 415(c)(1)(A) of the Code;

(iii) any person who owns directly or indirectly more than five (5%) percent of the outstanding stock of the Employer or stock possessing more than five (5%) percent of the total combined voting power of all stock of the Employer or, in the case of an unincorporated Employer, the capital or profits interest in the Employer;

(iv) any person who owns directly or indirectly more than one (1%) percent of the outstanding stock of the Employer or stock possessing more than one (1%) percent of the total combined voting power of all stock of the Employer or, in the case of an unincorporated Employer, the capital or profits interest in the Employer and having an Annual Compensation from the Employer of more than $150,000; or

(v) any beneficiary of a Key Employee.

The determination of who is a Key Employee shall be made in accordance with Section 416(i)(1) of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

(b) "AGGREGATION GROUP": Each qualified retirement plan of the Employer in which a Key Employee is a participant and each other qualified retirement plan of the Employer which enables any plan in which a Key Employee is a participant to meet the requirements of Section 401(a)(4) or Section 410 of the Code.

(c) "ANNUAL COMPENSATION": Compensation as defined in Section 415(c)(3) of the Code, but including amounts contributed by the Employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement which are excludible from the Employee's gross income under Section 125, Section 402(a)(8), Section 402(h) or Section 403(b) of the Code.

(d) "TOP-HEAVY PLAN": For any Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1983, the plan is top-heavy if any of the following conditions exists:

(i) If the top-heavy ratio for the plan exceeds 60 percent and the plan is not part of any required aggregation group or permissive aggregation group of plans.

(ii) If the plan is a part of a required aggregation group of plans but not part of a permissive aggregation group and the top-heavy ratio for the group of plans exceeds 60 percent.

(iii) If the plan is a part of a required aggregation group and part of a permissive aggregation group of plans and the top-heavy ratio for the permissive aggregation group exceeds 60 percent.

(e)"TOP-HEAVY RATIO":

(i) If the Employer maintains one or more defined contribution plans (including any simplified employee pension plan) and the Employer has not maintained any defined benefit plan which during the 5-year period ending on the Determination Date(s) has or has had accrued benefits, the top-heavy ratio for this plan alone or for the required or permissive aggregation group as appropriate is a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the account balances of all Key Employees as of the Determination Date(s) (including any part of any account balance distributed in the 5-year period ending on the Determination Date(s)), and the denominator of which is the sum of all account balances (including any part of any account balance distributed in the 5-year period ending on the Determination Date(s)), both computed in accordance with Section 416 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. Both the numerator and denominator of the top-heavy ratio are increased to reflect any contribution not actually made as of the Determination Date, but which is required to be taken into account on that date under Section 416 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

(ii) If the Employer maintains one or more defined contribution plans (including any simplified employee pension plan) and the Employer maintains or has maintained one or more defined benefit plans which during the 5-year period ending on the Determination Date(s) has or has had accrued benefits, the top-heavy ratio for any required or permissive aggregation group as appropriate is a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of account balances under the aggregated defined contribution plan or plans for all Key Employees, determined in accordance with (i) above, and the present value of accrued benefits under the aggregated defined benefit plan or plans for all Key Employees as of the Determination Date(s), and the denominator of which is the sum of the account balances under the aggregated defined contribution plan or plans for all Participants, determined in accordance with (i) above, and the present value of accrued benefits under the defined benefit plan or plans for all Participants as of the Determination Date(s), all determined in accordance with Section 416 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. The accrued benefits under a defined benefit plan in both the numerator and denominator of the top-heavy ratio are increased for any distribution of an accrued benefit made in the five-year period ending on the Determination Date.

(iii) For purposes of (i) and (ii) above, the value of account balances and the present value of accrued benefits will be determined as of the most recent valuation date that falls within or ends with the 12 month period ending on the Determination Date, except as provided in Section 416 of the Code and the regulations thereunder for the first and second plan years of a defined benefit plan. The account balances and accrued benefits of a Participant (1) who is not a Key Employee but was a Key Employee in a prior year, or (2) who has not been credited with at least one hour of service with any Employer maintaining the plan at any time during the 5-year period ending on the Determination Date will be disregarded.

The calculation of the top-heavy ratio, and the extent to which distributions, rollovers, and transfers are taken into account will be made in accordance with Section 416 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. Deductible employee contributions will not be taken into account for purposes of computing the top-heavy ratio. When aggregating plans, the value of account balances and accrued benefits will be calculated with reference to the Determination Dates that fall within the same calendar year.

The accrued benefit of a Participant other than a Key Employee shall be determined under (a) the method, if any, that uniformly applies for accrual purposes under all defined benefit plans maintained by the Employer, or (b) if there is no such method, as if such benefit accrued not more rapidly than the slowest accrual rate permitted under the fractional rule of Section 411(b)(1)(C) of the Code.

(f) "PERMISSIVE AGGREGATION GROUP": The required aggregation group of plans plus any other plan or plans of the Employer which, when considered as a group with the required aggregation group, would continue to satisfy the requirements of Sections 401(a)(4) and 410 of the Code.

(g) "REQUIRED AGGREGATION GROUP":

(i) Each qualified plan of the Employer in which at least one Key Employee participates or participated at any time during the Determination Period (regardless of whether the plan has terminated).

(j) "PRESENT VALUE": Present value shall be based only ON the interest and mortality rates.

(k) "DETERMINATION PERIOD": The Plan Year containing the Determination Date and the four (4) preceding Plan Year.

(1) "NON-KEY EMPLOYEE": An Employee who is not a Key Employee.

ARTICLE VII

SPECIAL CODA LIMITATIONS

2.7.1 LIMITATION ON DEFERRAL PERCENTAGE FOR HIGHLY COMPENSATED EMPLOYEES. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the actual deferral percentage for all Highly Compensated Employees for each Plan Year must not exceed the actual deferral percentage for all other Employees eligible to participate by more than the greater of:

(a) the actual deferral percentage of such other Employees multiplied by 1.25; or

(b) the actual deferral percentage of such other Employees multiplied by 2.0, but in no event more than two (2) percentage points greater than the actual deferral percentage of such other Employees.

For purposes hereof, the actual deferral percentages for a Plan Year for all Highly Compensated Employees and for all other Employees respectively are the averages of the ratios, calculated separately for each Employee in the respective group, of the amount of Elective Contributions and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions paid under the Plan on behalf of each such Employee for such Plan Year including Excess Elective Deferrals to the Employee's Compensation for such Plan Year whether or not the Employee was a Participant for the entire Plan Year, but excluding Elective Deferrals that are taken into account in the Contribution Percentage test (provided the ADP test is satisfied both with and without exclusion of those Elective Deferrals). An Employee who would be a Participant but for the failure to have Elective Contributions made on his behalf shall be treated as a Participant on whose behalf no Elective Contributions are made. For purposes of calculating the actual deferral percentages of Highly Compensated Employees who are 5 percent owners or among the ten most highly paid Employees, Elective Contributions and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions on behalf of a member of the Family of such Highly Compensated Employees shall be taken into account and Compensation of such Employees shall include the Elective Deferrals and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions and Compensation for the Plan Year of members of his Family (as determined in Section 414(q)(6) of the Code). A member of the Family of such Highly Compensated Employees shall be disregarded as a separate Employee in determining the actual deferral percentage both for Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees and for all other Employees.

For purposes of determining the actual deferral percentage test, Elective Contributions and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions must be made before the last day of the twelve month period immediately following the Plan Year to which the contributions relate.

The Employer shall maintain records sufficient to demonstrate satisfaction of the actual deferral percentage test and the amount of Qualified Non- Elective Contributions used in such test.

The determination and treatment of the actual deferral percentage amounts of any Participant shall satisfy such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

2.7.2 MULTIPLE PLAN LIMITATIONS.

(a) The actual deferral percentage for any Participant who is a Highly Compensated Employee for the Plan Year and who is eligible to have Elective Contributions (and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions if treated as Elective Deferrals for purposes of the actual deferral percentage test) allocated to his or her Accounts under two or more arrangements described in Section 401(k), of the Code, that are maintained by the Employer, shall be determined as if such Elective Deferrals (and, if applicable, such Qualified Non-Elective Contributions) were made under a single arrangement. If a Highly Compensated Employee participates in two or more cash or deferred arrangements that have different Plan Years, all cash or deferred arrangements ending with or within the same calendar year shall be treated as a single arrangement.

(b) In the event that this Plan satisfies the requirements of Section 401(k), 401(a)(4) or 410(b) of the Code only if aggregated with one or more other plans, or if one or more other plans satisfy the requirements of such sections of the Code only if aggregated with this Plan, then this section shall be applied by determining the actual deferral percentage of Employees as if all such plans were a single plan. For Plan Years beginning after December 31, 1989, plans may be aggregated in order to satisfy Section 401(k) of the Code only if they have the same Plan Year.

2.7.3 LIMITATION ON MATCHING CONTRIBUTIONS.

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the average contribution percentage for all Highly Compensated Employees for each Plan Year must not exceed the average contribution percentage for all other Employees eligible to participate by more than the greater of:

(a) the average contribution percentage of such other Employees multiplied by 1.25; or

(b) the average contribution percentage of such other Employees multiplied by 2.0, but in no event more than two (2) percentage points greater than the average contribution percentage of such other Employees.

For purposes hereof, the average contribution percentages for a Plan Year for all Highly Compensated Employees and for all other Employees respectively are the averages of the ratios, calculated separately for each Employee in the respective group, of the amount of Matching Contributions paid under the Plan on behalf of each such Employee for such Plan Year, to the Employee's Compensation for such Plan Year whether or not the Employee was a Participant for the entire Plan Year. Such contribution percentage amounts shall not include Matching Contributions that are forfeited either to correct Excess Aggregate Contributions or because the contributions to which they relate are Excess Elective Deferrals, Excess Contributions, or Excess Aggregate Contributions.

Such contribution percentage amounts shall include forfeitures of Excess Aggregate Contributions or Matching Contributions allocated to the Participant's Accounts which shall be taken into account in the Plan Year in which such forfeiture is allocated. The Employer shall include only those Qualified Non-Elective Contributions that are needed to meet the ACP test.

The Employer may also use Elective Deferrals in the contribution percentage amounts so long as the ADP test is met before the Elective Deferrals are used in the ACP test and continues to be met following the exclusion of those Elective Deferrals that are used to meet the ACP test. If an Elective Contribution or other contribution by an Employee is required as a condition of participation in the Plan, any Employee who would be a Participant if such Employee made such a contribution shall be treated as an eligible Participant on behalf of whom no such contributions are made.

The employer shall maintain records sufficient to demonstrate satisfaction of the average contribution percentage test and the amount of Qualified Non-Elective Contributions used in such test.

The determination and treatment of the contribution percentage of any participant shall satisfy such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

2.7.4. SPECIAL RULES

(a) Multiple Use: If one or more Highly Compensated Employees participate in both a CODA and a plan subject to the ACP test maintained by the Employer and the sum of the ADP and ACP of those Highly Compensated Employees subject to either or both tests exceeds the Aggregate Limit, then the ACP of those Highly Compensated Employees who also participate in a CODA shall be reduced (beginning with such Highly Compensated Employee whose ACP is the highest) so that the limit is not exceeded. The amount by which each Highly Compensated Employee's contribution percentage amount is reduced shall be treated as an Excess Aggregate Contribution.

The ADP and ACP of the Highly Compensated Employees are determined after any corrections required to meet the ADP and ACP test. Multiple use does not occur of either the ADP or ACP of the Highly Compensated Employees does not exceed 1.25 multiplied by the ADP and ACP of the Employees who are not Highly Compensated Employees.

(b) The contribution percentage for any Participant who is a Highly Compensated Employee and who is eligible to have contribution percentage amounts allocated to his or her Accounts under two or more plans described in Section 401 (a) of the Code, or arrangements described in Section 401(k) of the Code that are maintained by the Employer, shall be determined as if the total of such contribution percentage amounts was made under each plan. If a Highly Compensated Employee participates in two or more cash or deferred arrangements that have different plan years, all cash or deferred arrangement ending with or within the same calendar year shall be treated as a single arrangement.

(c) In the event that this Plan satisfies the requirements of Sections 401(m), 401(a)(4) or 410(b) of the Code only if aggregated with one or more other plans, or if one or more other plans satisfy the requirements of such Sections of the Code only if aggregated with this plan, the this section shall be applied by determining the contribution percentages of Employees as if all such plans were a single plan. For Plan Years beginning after December 31, 1989, plans may be aggregated in order to satisfy Section 401(m) of the Code only if they have the same Plan Year.

(d) For purposes of determining the contribution percentage of a Participant who is a five-percent owner or one of the ten most highly-paid Highly Compensated Employees, the contribution percentage amounts and Compensation of such participants shall include the contribution percentage amounts and Compensation for the Plan Year of members of the Family of such Highly Compensated Employees. Family members, with respect to Highly Compensated Employees, shall be disregarded as separate employees in determining the contribution percentage both for Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees and for all other Employees.

(e) For purposes of determining the contribution percentage test, Employee Contributions are considered to have been made in the Plan Year in which contributed to the trust. Matching Contributions and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions shall be considered made for a Plan Year if made no later than the end of the twelve month period beginning of the day after the close of the Plan Year.

2.7.5 DISTRIBUTION OF EXCESS ELECTIVE DEFERRALS. A Participant may assign to the Plan any Excess Elective Deferrals made during a taxable year of the Participant by notifying the Plan Administrator on or before March 15 of each calendar year of the amount of the Excess Elective Deferrals to be assigned to the Plan. A Participant is deemed to notify the Plan Administrator of any Excess Elective Deferrals that arise by taking into account only those Elective Deferrals made to this Plan and any other plans of the Employer.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, Excess Elective Deferrals, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be distributed no later than April 15 to any Participant to whose account Excess Elective Deferrals were assigned for the preceding year and who claims Excess Elective Deferrals for such taxable year.

Excess Elective Deferrals distributed under this section shall be adjusted for any income or loss based on a reasonable method of computing the allocable income or loss. The method selected must be applied consistently to all Participants and used for all corrective distributions under the Plan for the Plan Year, and must be the same method that is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participants' Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the taxable year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

2.7.6 DISTRIBUTION OF EXCESS CONTRIBUTIONS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, Excess Contributions, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be distributed no later than the last day of each Plan Year to Participants to whose Accounts such Excess Contributions were allocated for the preceding Plan Year.

If such excess amounts are distributed more than 2-1/2 months after the last day of the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose, a ten (10) percent excise tax will be imposed on the Employer maintaining the Plan with respect to such amounts. Such distributions shall be made to Highly Compensated Employees on the basis of the respective portions of the Excess Contributions attributable to each of such Employees. Excess Contributions of Participants who are subject to the family member aggregation rules shall be allocated among the family members in proportion to the Elective deferrals (and any amounts treated as Elective Deferrals) of each family member that is combined to determine the combined ADP.

Excess Contributions distributed under this section shall be adjusted for any income or loss based on a reasonable method of computing the allocable income or loss. The method selected must be applied consistently to all Participants and used for all corrective distributions under the Plan for the Plan Year, and must be the same method that is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participants' Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the taxable year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

Excess Contributions shall be distributed from the Participant's Elective Contribution Account in proportion to the Participant's Elective Deferrals for the Plan Year. Excess Contributions attributable to Qualified Non-Elective Contributions shall be distributed from the Participant's Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account only to the extent that such Excess Contributions exceed the balance in the Participant's Elective Contribution Account.

2.7.7 DISTRIBUTION OF EXCESS AGGREGATE CONTRIBUTIONS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, Excess Aggregate Contributions (including both Elective Contributions and the Employer's Matching Contributions as well as any Voluntary Contributions), plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be forfeited, if forfeitable, or if not forfeitable, distributed no later than the last day of each Plan Year to Participants to whose accounts such Excess Aggregate Contributions were allocated for the preceding Plan Year.

Excess Aggregate Contributions of Participants who are subject to the family member aggregation rules shall be allocated among the family members in proportion to the Employee and Matching Contributions (or amounts treated as Matching Contributions) of each family member that is combined to determine the combined ACP. Such distributions shall be made to Highly Compensated Employees on the basis of the respective portions of the Excess Aggregate Contributions attributable to each of such Employees. If such Excess Aggregate Contributions are distributed more than 2-1/2 months after the last day of the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose, a ten (10) percent excise tax will be imposed on the Employer maintaining the Plan with respect to those amounts.

Excess Aggregate Contributions distributed under this section shall be adjusted for any income or loss based on a reasonable method of computing the allocable income or loss. The method selected must be applied consistently to all Participants and used for all corrective distributions under the Plan for the Plan Year, and must be the same method that is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participants' Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the taxable year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

Forfeitures of Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be reallocated to the accounts of Employees who are not Highly Compensated Employees.

Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be forfeited, if forfeitable or distributed on a pro-rata basis from the Participant's Matching Account and Voluntary Account (and, if applicable, the Participant's Elective Contribution Account).

2.7.8 LIMITATION ON DISTRIBUTIONS. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, Elective Deferrals and Qualified Non-Elective Contributions and income allocable thereto are not distributable to a Participant or his or her Beneficiary in accordance with such Participant's or Beneficiary's election prior to separation from service, death or disability. Such amounts may, however, be distributed upon:

(a) Termination of the Plan without the establishment of another defined contribution plan.

(b) The disposition by a corporation to an unrelated corporation of substantially all of the assets (within the meaning of Section 409(d)(2) of the Code) used in a trade or business of such corporation if such corporation continues to maintain this Plan after the disposition, but only with respect to employees who continue employment with the corporation acquiring such assets.

(c) The disposition by a corporation to an unrelated entity of such corporation's interest in a subsidiary (within the meaning of Section 409(d)(3) of the Code) if such corporation continues to maintain this Plan, but only with respect to employees who continue employment with such subsidiary.

(d) The attainment of age 59 1/2.

(e) The Hardship of a Participant in accordance with Section 2.5.6.

All such distributions are subject to the spousal and Participant consent requirements, if applicable, contained in Sections 401 (a) (11) and 417 of the Code.

2.7.9 LIMITATION ON ELECTIVE DEFERRALS. No Participant shall be permitted to have Elective Deferrals made under this Plan, or any other qualified plan maintained by the Employer, during any taxable year, in excess of the dollar limitation contained in Section 402(g) of the Code in effect at the beginning of such taxable year.

PART III

ACCOUNTING

3.1.1 ACCOUNTS. All income, profits, recoveries, contributions and any and all monies, securities and properties of any kind at any time received or held by the Trustee shall be held as a commingled Trust Fund, except to the extent such assets are transferred to a Segregated Fund or Controlled Fund. For accounting purposes, the Plan Administrator shall establish and maintain certain Accounts for each Participant. An Employer Account shall be established and maintained for each Participant to which shall be added the Participant's share of Non-Elective Contributions and forfeitures. A Matching Account shall be established and maintained for each Participant to which shall be added the Participant's share of Matching Contributions and forfeitures. A Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account shall be established and maintained for each Participant to which shall be added the Participant's share of Qualified Non-Elective Contributions. If a Participant has previously made voluntary nondeductible employee contributions, the Plan Administrator shall establish and maintain a Voluntary Account for the Participant. If, in accordance with any of the provisions of the Plan, assets are either deposited initially or transferred to a Segregated Fund for the benefit of a Participant, the Plan Administrator shall establish and maintain a Segregated Account for the Participant. If a Participant elects to exercise investment control over all or a portion of his Accounts, the Plan Administrator shall establish and maintain a Controlled Account for the Participant.

3.1.2 ADJUSTMENTS. As of each Valuation Date each Participant's Accounts shall be adjusted in the following order and manner.

(a) DISTRIBUTIONS. Any distribution made to or on behalf of a Participant since the last preceding Valuation Date shall be deducted from the Participant's Account from which the distribution was made.

(b) INSURANCE PREMIUMS. Payments made since the last preceding Valuation Date for Life Insurance Policies on the life of a Participant (including without limitation payments of premiums and interest on policy loans) shall be deducted from the Account of the Participant from which the payment was made.

(c) ADJUSTMENT TO FAIR MARKET VALUE. The value of all monies, securities and other property in the Trust Fund, excluding Life Insurance Policies, SHALL be appraised by the Trustee at the then fair market value. In determining such value, all income and contributions, if any, received by the Trustee from the Employer or Participants on account of such year calculated under the method of accounting of the Trust shall be included and there shall be deducted all expenses determined in accordance with the method of accounting adopted by the Plan Administrator.

If the total net value of the Trust Fund so determined exceeds (or is less than) the total amount in the affected Accounts of all Participants, the excess (or deficiency) shall be added to (or deducted from) the respective Accounts of all Participants in the ratio that each such Participant's Account bears to the total amount in all such Accounts.

(d) ADJUSTMENT OF SEGREGATED AND CONTROLLED ACCOUNTS. The value of all monies, securities and other property in each Participant's Segregated Account or Controlled Account, if any, but exclusive of Life Insurance Policies, shall be appraised by the Trustee at the then fair market value. In determining such value, all income calculated under the method of accounting of the Trust shall be included and all expenses shall be deducted.

If the total net value of a Participant's Segregated Account or Controlled Account, as the case may be, so determined exceeds (or is less than) the previous balance in such Account, the excess (or deficiency) shall be added to (or deducted from) the Participant's respective Account.

(e) INSURANCE DIVIDENDS. Dividends or credits received since the last preceding Valuation Date on any Life Insurance Policy on the life of a Participant shall be added to the Account of the Participant from which the premiums for such Life Insurance Policy have been paid.

(f) CONTRIBUTIONS AND FORFEITURES. Each Participant's Account shall be increased BY that portion of the contribution and forfeitures which is allocated to him.

(g) TRANSFERS FROM TRUST FUND. To the extent that funds in the Trust Fund attributable to a Participant's Account were transferred since the last preceding Valuation Date or are to be transferred to a Segregated Fund pursuant to any of the provisions of the Plan, the Account from which the funds were transferred shall be decreased and the Account to which the funds were transferred shall be increased.

(h) TRANSFERS TO TRUST FUND. To the extent that funds are transferred from a Segregated Fund of a Participant to the Trust Fund pursuant to any of the provisions of the Plan, the Account from which the funds were transferred shall be decreased and the Account of the Participant to which the funds were transferred shall be increased.

(i) TIME OF ADJUSTMENTS. Every adjustment to be made pursuant to this Section shall be considered as having been made as of the applicable Valuation Date regardless of the actual dates of entries, receipt by the Trustee of contributions by the Participant or the Employer for such Year, or the transfers of funds to or from Segregated Funds. The Trustee's determination as to valuation of trust assets and charges or credits to the individual Accounts of the respective Participants shall be conclusive and binding on all persons. If funds are transferred to a Segregated Fund as of any date other than a Valuation Date pursuant to the terms of the Plan, the adjustments to be made pursuant to this Section shall be made as of the date as of which the transfer is made, as if such date is a Valuation Date. If any Participant receives a distribution pursuant to the terms of the Plan as of any date other than a Valuation Date, then earnings will be credited solely as of the immediately preceding Valuation Date.

LIMITATIONS

3.2.1 LIMITATIONS ON ANNUAL ADDITIONS. If the Participant does not participate in, and has never participated in another qualified plan maintained by the Employer, or an individual medical account, as defined in Section 415(l)(2) of the Code, maintained by the Employer, which provides an annual addition, subject to the adjustments hereinafter set forth, the amount of annual additions which may be credited to a Participant's Accounts during any Limitation Year shall in no event exceed the lesser of (a) thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00) or, if greater, one-fourth of the dollar limitation in effect under Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Code as in effect for the Limitation Year or (b) twenty-five percent (25%) of the Participant's Compensation for the Plan Year. The compensation limitation referred to in (b) shall not apply to any contribution for medical benefits (within the meaning of Section 401(h) or Section 419A(f)(2) of the Code) which is otherwise treated as an annual addition under Section 415(l)(1) or 419A(d)(2) of the Code. If the Employer contribution that would otherwise be contributed or allocated to the Participant's Account would cause the annual additions for the Limitation Year to exceed the maximum permissible amount, the amount contributed or allocated shall be reduced so that the annual additions for the Limitation Year shall equal the maximum permissible amount. For these purposes, the maximum permissible amount is the maximum annual additions permitted on behalf of a Participant.

(a) ANNUAL ADDITIONS. The term "annual additions" shall mean, the sum of the following amounts credited to a Participant's Accounts for the Limitation Year:

(i) Employer contributions;

(ii) Employee contributions;

(iii) Forfeitures; and

(iv) Amounts allocated after March 31, 1984, to an individual medical account, as defined in Section 415(l)(2) of the Code, which is part of a pension or annuity plan maintained by the Employer and amounts derived from contributions paid or accrued after December 31, 1985, in taxable years ending after such date, which are attributable to post-retirement medical benefits, allocated to the separate account of a key employee, as defined in Section 419A(d)(3) of the Code, under a welfare benefit fund as defined in Section 419(e) of the Code, maintained by the Employer.

Any excess amounts applied under subsections (b) and (c) below to reduce Employer contributions are considered annual additions for such Limitation Year.

(b) EXCESSIVE ANNUAL ADDITIONS. Prior to determining a Participant's actual Compensation for a Limitation Year, the Employer may determine the maximum permissible Annual Addition for the Participant on the basis of a reasonable estimation of the Participant's Compensation for the Limitation Year, uniformly determined for all Participants similarly situated. As soon as is administratively feasible after the end of the Limitation Year, the maximum permissible amount for the Limitation Year shall be determined on the basis of the Participant's actual Compensation for the Limitation Year. Any Excessive Annual Addition attributable to nondeductible voluntary employee contributions made by a Participant to the extent they reduce the excess amount shall be returned to the Participant before any other adjustments are made.

If an excess amount still exists, and the Participant is covered by the Plan at the end of the Limitation Year, the excess amount in the Participant's Account shall be used to reduce Employer contributions (including any allocation of forfeitures) for such Participant in the next Limitation Year, and each succeeding Limitation Year, if necessary. If an excess amount still exists, and the Participant is not covered by the Plan at the end of a Limitation Year, the excess amount shall be held unallocated in a suspense account.

The suspense account shall be applied to reduce future Employer contributions for all remaining Participants in the next Limitation Year, and each succeeding Limitation Year, if necessary.

If a suspense account is in existence at any time during a particular Limitation Year, all amounts in the suspense account must be allocated and reallocated to Participants' Accounts before any Employer or any Employee contributions may be made to the Plan for that Limitation Year. Excess amounts may not be distributed to Participants or former Participants. If a suspense account is in existence at any time during a Limitation Year, it shall not participate in the allocation of the Trust's investment gains and losses.

(c) PARTICIPATION IN CERTAIN OTHER PLANS. If in addition to this Plan, the Participant is covered under another qualified defined contribution plan maintained by the Employer, a welfare benefit fund, as defined in Section 419(e) of the code maintained by the Employer, or an individual medical account, as defined in Section 415(l)(2) of the Code, maintained by the Employer, which provides an Annual Addition during any Limitation Year, the annual additions which may be credited to a Participant's account under this Plan for any such Limitation Year shall not exceed the maximum permissible amount reduced by the Annual Additions credited to a Participant's Account under the other plans and welfare benefit funds for the same Limitation Year. If the Annual Additions with respect to the Participant under other defined contribution plans and welfare benefit funds maintained by the Employer are less than the maximum permissible amount and the Employer contribution that would otherwise be contributed or allocated to the Participant's Account under this Plan would cause the Annual Additions for the Limitation Year to exceed this limitation, the amount contributed or allocated shall be reduced so that the Annual Additions under all such plans and funds for the Limitation Year shall equal the maximum permissible amount.

If the Annual Additions with respect to the Participant under such other defined contribution plans and welfare benefit funds in the aggregate are equal to or greater than the maximum permissible amount, no amount will be contributed or allocated to the Participant's Account under this Plan for the Limitation Year.

Prior to determining the Participant's actual Compensation for the Limitation Year, the Employer may determine the maximum permissible amount for a Participant in the manner described in subsection (b) above. As soon as is administratively feasible after the end of the Limitation Year, the maximum permissible amount for the Limitation Year shall be determined on the basis of the Participant's actual Compensation for the Limitation Year.

If a Participant's Annual Additions under this Plan and such other plans would result in an excess amount for a Limitation Year, the excess amount shall be deemed to consist of the Annual Additions last allocated, except that Annual Additions attributable to a welfare benefit fund or individual medical account will be deemed to have been allocated first regardless of the actual allocation date.

If the excess amount was allocated to a Participant on an allocation date of this Plan which coincides with an allocation date of another plan, the excess amount attributed to this Plan will be the product of:

(i) the total excess amount allocated as of such date, times

(ii) the ratio of (I) the Annual Additions allocated to the Participant for the Limitation Year as of such date under this Plan to (II) the total Annual Additions allocated to the Participant for the Limitation Year as of such date under this and all the other qualified defined contribution plans. Any excess amount attributed to this Plan will be disposed in the manner described in subsection (b), above.

For purposes hereof, the excess amount is the excess of the Participant's annual additions for the Limitation Year over the maximum permissible amount.

If the Employer maintains, or at any time maintained, a qualified defined benefit plan covering any Participant in this Plan, the sum of the Participant's defined benefit plan fraction and defined contribution plan fraction will not exceed 1.0 in any Limitation Year.

(d) COMBINED PLAN LIMITATION. In the event that a Participant in this Plan participates in a defined benefit plan (as defined in the applicable sections of the Code) maintained by the Employer, the sum of the "defined benefit plan fraction" plus the "defined contribution plan fraction" shall at no time exceed 1.0. Except to the extent that applicable law permits greater amounts to be provided on behalf of a Participant, in which event such law is hereby incorporated by reference, the foregoing fractions are defined as follows. The "defined benefit plan fraction" for any year is a fraction (i) the numerator of which is the projected annual benefit of the Participant under all the defined benefit plans (whether or not terminated) maintained by the Employer (determined as of the close of the year), and (ii) the denominator of which is the lesser of (A) the product of 1.25 multiplied by the dollar limitation determined for the Limitation Year under Sections 415(b) and (d) of the Code, or (B) the product of 1.4 multiplied by one hundred (100%) percent of the Participant's average compensation for the three (3) consecutive Years of Service with the Employer that produces the highest average, including any adjustments under Section 415(b) of the Code. Notwithstanding the above, if the Participant was a Participant as of the first day of the first Limitation Year beginning after December 31, 1986, in one or more defined benefit plans maintained by the Employer which were in existence on May 6, 1986, the denominator of this fraction shall not be less than 125 percent of the sum of the annual benefits under such plans which the Participant had accrued as of the close of the last Limitation Year beginning before January 1, 1987, disregarding any changes in the terms and conditions of the Plan after May 5, 1986.

The preceding sentence applies only if the defined benefit plans individually and in the aggregate satisfied the requirements of Section 415 for all Limitation Years beginning before January 1, 1987. The "defined contribution fraction" for any year is a fraction (i) the numerator of which is the sum of the annual additions to the Participant's accounts under all defined contribution plans (whether or not terminated) maintained by the Employer for the current and all prior Limitation Years, including the annual additions attributable to the Participant's nondeductible employee contributions to all defined benefit plans, whether or not terminated, maintained by the Employer, and the annual additions attributable to all welfare benefit funds and individual medical accounts (as defined in Sections 419(e) and 415(l)(2) of the Code) maintained by the Employer, and (ii) the denominator of which is the sum of the lesser of the following amounts determined for the current year and for all prior limitation years of service with the Employer, regardless of whether a defined contribution plan was maintained by the Employer: (A) the product of 1.25 multiplied by the dollar limitation determined under Sections 415(b) and (d) of the Code in effect under Section 415(c)(1)(A) of the Code, or (B) thirty-five (35%) percent of the Participant's compensation from the Employer for such plan year. If the Employee was a Participant as of the end of the first day of the first Limitation Year beginning after December 31, 1986, in one or more defined contribution plans maintained by the Employer which were in existence on May 6, 1986, the numerator of this fraction will be adjusted if the sum of this fraction and the defined benefit fraction would otherwise exceed 1.0 under the terms of this Plan. Under the adjustment, an amount equal to the product of (1) the excess of the sum of the fractions over 1.0 times (2) the denominator of this fraction, shall be permanently subtracted from the numerator of this fraction. The adjustment is calculated using the fractions as they would be computed as of the end of the last Limitation Year beginning before January 1, 1987, and disregarding any changes in the terms and conditions of the Plan made after May 5, 1986, but using the Section 415 limitation applicable to the first Limitation Year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

The annual addition for any Limitation Year beginning before January 1, 1987, shall not be recomputed to treat all employee contributions as annual additions.

The projected annual benefits under a defined benefit plan is the annual retirement benefit (adjusted to an actuarially equivalent straight life annuity if such benefit is expressed in a form other than a straight life annuity) or qualified joint and survivor annuity) to which the Participant would be entitled under the terms of the Plan assuming the Participant continues employment until normal retirement age under the plan (or current age, if later), and the Participant's compensation for the current Limitation Year and all other relevant factors used to determine benefits under the Plan remain constant for all future Limitation Years.

(e) SPECIAL TRANSITION RULE FOR DEFINED CONTRIBUTION FRACTION. At the election of the Plan Administrator, in applying the provisions of subsection (d) above with respect to the defined contribution plan fraction for any year ending after December 31, 1982, the amount taken into account for the denominator for each Participant for all years ending before January 1, 1983 shall be an amount equal to the product of the amount of the denominator determined under subsection (d) above for the year ending in 1982, multiplied by the "transition fraction". The "transition fraction" is a fraction (i) the numerator of which is the lesser of (A) $51,875 or (B) 1.4 multiplied by twenty-five (25%) percent of the Participant's compensation for the year ending in 1981, and (ii) the denominator of which is the lesser of (A) $41,500 or (B) twenty-five (25%) percent of the Participant's compensation for the year ending in 1981.

(f) SPECIAL TRANSITION RULE FOR EXCESS BENEFITS. Provided that the Plan satisfied the requirements of Section 415 of the Code for the last Plan Year beginning before January 1, 1983, an amount shall be subtracted from the numerator of the defined contribution plan fraction (not exceeding such numerator) so that the sum of the defined benefit plan fraction and the defined contribution fraction computed in accordance with Section 415(e)(1) of the Code (as amended by the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982) does not exceed 1.0 for such year, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Code.

(g) EMPLOYER. For purposes of this Section, employer shall mean the Employer that adopts this Plan and all members of a group of employers which constitutes a controlled group of corporations or trades or businesses under common control (as defined in Sections 414(b) and (c) of the Code, as modified by Section 415(h) of the Code), or an affiliated service group (as defined in Section 414(m) of the Code) of which the adopting employer is part and any other entity required to be aggregated with the Employer under Section 414(o) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder.

(h) COMPENSATION. For purposes of this Section, Compensation shall mean all of a Participant's: Section 415 Safe-harbor Compensation. Wages, salaries and fees for professional services and other amounts received for personal services actually rendered in the course of employment for the Employer (including but not limited to commissions paid salesmen, compensation for services on the basis of a percentage of profits, commissions on insurance premiums, tips, bonuses, fringe benefit, reimbursements and expense allowances), but excluding:

(I) Employer contributions to a plan of deferred compensation which are not includable in the Employee's gross income for the taxable year in which contributed, or employer contributions under a simplified employee pension plan to the extent such contributions are deductible by the Employee or any distributions from a plan of deferred compensation;

(II) Amounts realized from the exercise of a non-qualified stock option or when restricted stock or property held by the Employee is no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture or becomes freely transferable.

(III) Amounts realized from the sale, exchange or other disposition of stock acquired under an incentive stock option; and

(IV) Other amounts which received special tax benefits or contributions made by the Employer (whether or not under a salary reduction agreement) towards the purchase of an annuity described in Section 403(b) of the Code (whether or not the amounts are actually excludable from the gross income of the Employee).

For any self-employed individual, compensation shall mean earned income. For limitation years beginning after December 31, 1991, for purposes of applying the limitations of this Article, Compensation for a Limitation Year is the Compensation actually paid or includible in gross income during such Limitation Year.

(i) SHORT LIMITATION YEAR. If the Limitation Year is amended to a different twelve (12) consecutive month period, the new Limitation Year must begin within the Limitation Year in which the amendment is made. If a short Limitation Year is created because of an amendment changing the Limitation Year to a different twelve (12) consecutive month period, the maximum annual addition shall not exceed the defined contribution dollar limitation determined in accordance with Section 415(c)(1)(A) of the Code then in effect multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short Limitation Year and the denominator of which is twelve (12).

3.2.2 CONTROLLED BUSINESSES. If this plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more owner-employees who control both the business for which this plan is established and one or more other trades or businesses, this plan and the plan established for other trades or businesses must, when looked at as a single plan, satisfy sections 401(a) and (d) for the employees of this and all other trades or businesses.

If the plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more owner-employees who control one or more other trades or businesses, the employees of the other trades or businesses must be included in a plan which satisfies sections 401(a) and (d) and which provides contributions and benefits not less favorable than provided for owner-employees under this plan.

If an individual is covered as an owner-employee under the plans of two or more trades or businesses which are not controlled and the individual controls a trade or business, then the contributions or benefits of the employees under the plan of the trades or businesses which are controlled must be as favorable as those provided for him under the most favorable plan of the trade or business which is not controlled.

For purposes of the preceding paragraphs, an owner-employee, or two or more owner-employees, will be considered to control a trade or business if the owner-employee, or two or more owner-employees together:

(a) own the entire interest in an unincorporated trade or business, or

(b) in the case of a partnership, own more than 50 percent of either the capital interest or the profits interest in the partnership.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, an owner-employee, or two or more owner-employees shall be treated as owning any interest in a partnership which is owned, directly or indirectly, by a partnership which such owner-employee, or such two or more owner-employees, are considered to control within the meaning of the preceding sentence.

FIDUCIARIES

3.3.1 STANDARD OF CONDUCT. The duties and responsibilities of the Plan Administrator and the Trustee with respect to the Plan shall be discharged (a) in a non-discriminatory manner; (b) for the exclusive benefit of Participants and their Beneficiaries; (c) by defraying the reasonable expenses of administering the Plan; (d) with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims; (e) by diversifying the investments of the Plan so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so; and (f) in accordance with the documents and instruments governing the Plan insofar as such documents and instruments are consistent with the provisions of the Act.

3.3.2 INDIVIDUAL FIDUCIARIES. At any time that a group of individuals is acting as Plan Administrator or Trustee, the number of such persons who shall act in such capacity from time to time shall be determined by the Employer. Such persons shall be appointed by the Employer and may or may not be Participants or Employees of the Employer. Any action taken by a group of individuals acting as either Plan Administrator or Trustee shall be taken at the direction of a majority of such persons, or, if the number of such persons is two (2), by unanimous consent.

3.3.3 DISQUALIFICATION FROM SERVICE. No person shall be permitted to serve as a Fiduciary, custodian, counsel, agent or employee of the Plan or as a consultant to the Plan who has been convicted of any of the criminal offenses specified in the Act.

3.3.4 BONDING. Except as otherwise permitted by law, each Fiduciary or person who handles funds or other property or assets of the Plan shall be bonded in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

3.3.6. INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY. The Employer may purchase or cause the Trustee to purchase and keep current as an authorized expense liability insurance for the Plan, its Fiduciaries, and any other person to whom any financial or other administrative responsibility with respect to the Plan and Trust is allocated or delegated, from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by such persons as a result of any act or omission to act in connection with the performance of the duties, responsibilities and obligations under the Plan and under the Act; provided that any such insurance policy purchased with Plan assets permits subrogation by the Insurer against the Fiduciary in the case of breach by such Fiduciary. Unless otherwise determined and communicated to affected parties by the Employer, the Employer shall indemnify and hold harmless such person, other than a corporate trustee, for and from any such liabilities, costs and expenses which are not covered by any such insurance, except to the extent that any such liabilities, costs or expenses are judicially determined to be due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such person. No Plan assets may be used for any such indemnification.

3.3.7 EXPENSES. Expenses incurred by the Plan Administrator or the Trustees in the administration of the Plan and the Trust, including fees for legal services rendered, such compensation to the Trustee as may be agreed upon in writing from time to time between the Employer and the Trustee, and all other proper charges and expenses of the Plan Administrator or the Trustee and of their agents and counsel shall be paid by the Employer, or at its election at any time or from time to time, may be charged against the assets of the Trust, but until so paid shall constitute a charge upon the assets of the Trust. The Trustee shall have the authority to charge the Trust Fund for its compensation and reasonable expenses unless paid or contested by written notice by the Employer within sixty (60) days after mailing of the written billing by the Trustee.

All taxes of any and all kinds whatsoever which may be levied or assessed under existing or future laws upon the assets of the Trust or the income thereof shall be paid from such assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no compensation shall be paid to any Employee for services rendered under the Plan and Trust as a Trustee.

3.3.8 AGENTS, ACCOUNTANTS AND LEGAL COUNSEL. The Plan Administrator shall have authority to employ suitable agents, custodians, investment counsel, accountants and legal counsel who may, but need not be, legal counsel for the Employer. The Plan Administrator and the Trustee shall be fully protected in acting upon the advice of such persons. The Trustee shall at no time be obliged to institute any legal action or to become a party to any legal action unless the Trustee has been indemnified to the Trustee's satisfaction for any fees, costs and expenses to be incurred in connection therewith.

3.3.9 INVESTMENT MANAGER. The Employer may employ as an investment manager or managers to manage all or any part of the Trust Fund any (i) investment advisor registered under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940; (ii) bank as defined in said Act; or (iii) insurance company qualified to perform investment management services in more than one state. Any investment manager shall have all powers of the Trustee in the management of such part of the Trust Fund, including the power to acquire or dispose of assets. In the event an investment manager is so appointed, the Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of such investment manager or be under any obligation to invest or otherwise manage that part of the Trust Fund which is subject to the management of the investment manager. The Employer shall notify the Trustee in writing of any appointment of an investment manager, and shall provide the Trustee with the investment manager's written acknowledgment that it is a fiduciary with respect to the Plan.

3.3.10 FINALITV OF DECISIONS OR ACTS. Except for the right of a Participant or Beneficiary to appeal the denial of a claim, any decision or action of the Plan Administrator or the Trustee made or done in good faith upon any matter within the scope of authority and discretion of the Plan Administrator or the Trustee shall be final and binding upon all persons. In the event of judicial review of actions taken by any Fiduciary within the scope of his duties in accordance with the terms of the Plan and Trust, such actions shall be upheld unless determined, to have been arbitrary and capricious.

3.3.11 CERTAIN CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS AND CONTRACTS. The term "Trustee" as used herein will also include a person holding the assets of a custodial account, an annuity Contract or other Contract which is treated as a qualified trust pursuant to Section 401(f) of the Code and references to the Trust Fund shall be construed to apply to such custodial account, annuity Contract or other Contract.

3.5.1 ACCEPTANCE OF TRUST. The Trustee, by joining in the execution of the Plan, agrees to act in accordance with the express terms and conditions hereof.

3.5.2 TRUSTEE CAPACITY - CO-TRUSTEES. The Trustee may be a bank, trust company or other corporation possessing trust powers under applicable state or federal law or one or more individuals or any combination thereof. When there are two or more Trustees, they may allocate specific responsibilities, obligations or duties among themselves by their written agreement. An executed copy of such written agreement shall be delivered to and retained by the Plan Administrator.

3.5.3 RESIGNATION, REMOVAL, AND SUCCESSORS. Any Trustee may resign at any time by delivering to the Employer a written notice of resignation to take effect at a date specified therein, which shall not be less than thirty (30) days after the delivery thereof; the Employer may waive such notice. The Trustee may be removed by the Employer with or without cause, by tendering to the Trustee a written notice of removal to take effect at a date specified therein. Upon such removal or resignation of a Trustee, the Employer shall either appoint a successor Trustee who shall have the same powers and duties as those conferred upon the resigning or discharged Trustee, or, if a group of individuals is acting as Trustee, determine that a successor shall not be appointed and the number of Trustees shall be reduced by one (1).

3.5.4 CONSULTATIONS. The Trustee shall be entitled to advice of counsel, which may be counsel for the Plan or the Employer, in any case in which the Trustee shall deem such advice necessary. The Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted in good faith reliance upon the advice of such counsel. With the exception of those powers and duties specifically allocated to the Trustee by the express terms of the Plan, it shall not be the responsibility of the Trustee to interpret the terms of the Plan and the Trustee may request, and is entitled to receive, guidance and written direction from the Plan Administrator on any point requiring construction or interpretation of the Plan Documents.

3.5.5 RIGHTS, POWERS AND DUTIES. The rights, powers and duties of the Trustee shall be as follows:

(a) The Trustee shall be responsible for the safekeeping of the assets of the Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions of the Plan and any amendments hereto. The duties of the Trustee under the Plan shall be determined solely by the express provisions hereof and no other further duties or responsibilities shall be implied. Subject to the terms of this Plan, the Trustee shall be fully protected and shall incur no liability in acting in reliance upon the written instructions or directions of the Employer, the Plan Administrator, a duly designated investment manager, or any other named Fiduciary.

(b) The Trustee shall have all powers necessary or convenient for the orderly and efficient performance of its duties hereunder, including but not limited to those specified in this Section. The Trustee shall have the power generally to do all acts, whether or not expressly authorized, which the Trustee in the exercise of its fiduciary responsibility may deem necessary or desirable for the protection of the Trust Fund and the assets thereof.

(c) The Trustee shall have the power to collect and receive any and all monies and other property due hereunder and to give full discharge and release therefore; to settle, compromise or submit to arbitration any claims, debts or damages due to or owing to or from the Trust Fund; to commence or defend suits or legal proceedings wherever, in the Trustee's judgment, any interest of the Trust Fund requires it; and to represent the Trust Fund in all suits or legal proceedings in any court of law or equity or before any other body or tribunal.

(d) The Trustee shall cause any Life Insurance Policies or assets of the Trust Fund to be registered in its name as Trustee and shall be authorized to exercise any and all ownership rights regarding these assets, subject to the terms of the Plan.

(e) The Trustee may temporarily hold cash balances and shall be entitled to deposit any funds received in a bank account in the name of the Trust Fund in any bank selected by the Trustee, including the banking department of a corporate Trustee, if any, pending disposition of such funds in accordance with the Plan. Any such deposit may be made with or without interest.

(f) The Trustee shall pay the premiums and other charges due and payable at any time on any Life Insurance Policies as it may be directed, by the Plan Administrator, provided funds for such payments are then available in the Trust. The Trustee shall be responsible only for such funds and Life Insurance Policies as shall actually be received by it as Trustee hereunder, and shall have no obligation to make payments other than from such funds and cash values of Life Insurance Policies.

(g) If the whole or any part of the Trust Fund shall become liable for the payment of any estate, inheritance, income or other tax which the Trustee shall be required to pay, the Trustee shall have full power and authority to pay such tax out of any monies or other property in its hands for the account of the person whose interest hereunder is so liable. Prior to making any payment, the Trustee may require such releases or other Documents from any lawful taxing authority as it shall deem necessary. The Trustee shall not be liable for any nonpayment of tax when it distributes an interest hereunder on instructions from the Plan Administrator.

(h) The Trustee shall keep a full, accurate and detailed record of all transactions of the Trust which the Employer and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to examine at any time during the Trustee's regular business hours. As of the close of each Plan Year, the Trustee shall furnish the Plan Administrator with a statement of account setting forth all receipts, disbursements and other transactions effected by the Trustee during the year. The Plan Administrator shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of his approval or disapproval of the account. The Plan Administrator's failure to disapprove the account within sixty (60) days after receipt shall be considered an approval.

Except as otherwise required by law, the approval by the Plan Administrator shall be binding as to all matters embraced in any statement to the same extent as if the account of the Trustee had been settled by judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction under which the Trustee, Employer and all persons having or claiming any interest in the Trust Fund were parties; provided, however, that the Trustee may have its account judicially settled if it so desires.

(i) The Trustee is hereby authorized to execute all necessary receipts and releases to any parties concerned; and shall be under a duty, upon being advised by the Plan Administrator that the proceeds of any Life Insurance Policies are payable, to give reasonable assistance to the Beneficiary designated therein in collecting such sums as may appear to be due.

(j) If, at any time, as the result of the death of the Participant there shall be a dispute as to the person to whom payment or delivery of monies or property should be made by the Trustee, or regarding any action to be taken by the Trustee, the Trustee may postpone such payment, delivery or action, retaining the funds or property involved, until such dispute shall have been resolved in a court of competent jurisdiction or the Trustee shall have been indemnified to its satisfaction or until it has received written direction from the Plan Administrator.

(k) Anything in this instrument to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall have no duty or responsibility with respect to the determination of matters pertaining to the eligibility of any Employee to become or remain a Participant hereunder, the amount of benefit to which any Participant or Beneficiary shall be entitled hereunder, or the size and type of any Life Insurance Policy to be purchased from any Insurer for any Participant hereunder; all such responsibilities being vested in the Plan Administrator.

3.5.6 TRUSTEE INDEMNIFICATION. The Employer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee for and from the assertion or occurrence of any liability to a Participant or Beneficiary for any action taken or omitted by the Trustee pursuant to any written direction to the Trustee from the Employer or the Plan Administrator. Such indemnification obligation of the Employer shall not be applicable to the extent that any such liability is covered by insurance.

3.5.7 CHANGES IN TRUSTEE AUTHORITY. If a successor Trustee is appointed, neither an Insurer nor any other person who has previously had dealings with the Trustee shall be chargeable with knowledge of such appointment or such change until furnished with notice thereof. Until such notice, the Insurer and any other such party shall be fully protected in relying on any action taken or signature presented which would have been proper in accordance with that information previously received.

TRUST ASSETS

3.6.1 TRUSTEE EXCLUSIVE OWNER. All assets held by the Trustee, whether in the Trust Fund or Segregated Funds, shall be owned exclusively by the Trustee and no Participant or Beneficiary shall have any individual ownership thereof. Participants and their Beneficiaries shall share in the assets of the Trust, its net earnings, profits and losses, only as provided in this Plan.

3.6.2 INVESTMENTS. The Trustee shall invest and reinvest the Trust Fund without distinction between income or principal in one or more of the following ways as the Trustee shall from time to time determine:

(a) The Trustee may invest the Trust Fund or any portion thereof in obligations issued or guaranteed by the United States of America or of any instrumentalities thereof, or in other bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, preferred or common stocks, options to buy or sell stocks or other securities, mutual fund shares, limited partnership interests, commodities, or in such other property, real or personal, as the Trustee shall determine.

(b) The Trustee may cause the Trust Fund or any portion thereof to be invested in a common trust fund established and maintained by a national bank or other for the collective investment of fiduciary funds even though the bank is acting as the Trustee or Investment Manager, providing such common trust fund is a qualified trust under the applicable section of the Code, or corresponding provisions of future federal internal revenue laws and is exempt from income tax under the applicable section of the Code. In the event any assets of the Trust Fund are invested in such a common trust fund, the Declaration of Trust creating such common trust fund, as it may be amended from time to time, shall be incorporated into this Plan by reference and made a part hereof.

(c) The Trustee may deposit any portion of the Trust Fund in savings accounts in federally insured banks or savings and loan associations or invest in certificates of deposit issued by any such bank or savings and loan association.

The Trustee may, without liability for interest, retain any portion of the Trust Fund in cash balances pending investment thereof or payment of expenses.

(d) The Trustee may buy and sell put and call options, covered or uncovered, engage in spreads, straddles, ratio writing and other forms of options trading, including sales of options against convertible bonds, and sales of Standard & Poor futures contracts, and trade in and maintain a brokerage account on a cash or margin basis.

(e) The Trustee may invest any portion or all of the assets of the Trust Fund which are attributable to the vested and nonforfeitable interest in the Accounts of a Participant in the purchase of group or individual Life Insurance Policies issued on the life of and for the benefit of the Participant with the consent of the Participant, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The aggregate premiums paid for ordinary whole Life Insurance Policies with both nondecreasing death benefits and nonincreasing premiums on the life of any Participant shall not at any time exceed forty-nine percent (49%) of the aggregate amount of Employer contributions which have been allocated to the Accounts of such Participant.

(ii) The aggregate Premiums paid for Life Insurance Policies on the life of any Participant which are either term, universal or any other Contracts which are not ordinary whole life policies shall not at any time exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the aggregate amount of Employer contributions which have been allocated to the Accounts of such Participant.

(iii) The sum of one-half of the aggregate premiums for ordinary whole Life Insurance Policies and all premiums for other Life Insurance Policies shall not at any time exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the aggregate amount of Employer contributions which have been allocated to the Accounts of such Participant.

(iv) If the Plan permits distributions to a Participant prior to his termination of employment in accordance with Section 2.5.5 and the Plan does not take into account contributions to provide Social Security Benefits in the allocation of Employer contributions, the amount which may be distributed to the Participant may be applied to the purchase of Life Insurance Policies.

(f) The Trustee may invest the Trust Fund or any portion thereof to acquire or hold Qualifying Employer Securities or Real Property, provided that the portion so invested shall not exceed the amount allowed as an investment under the Act.

3.6.3 ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST ASSETS. Subject to the limitations herein expressly set forth, the Trustee shall have the following powers and authority in connection with the administration of the assets of the Trust:

(a) To hold and administer all contributions made by the Employer to the Trust Fund and all income or other property derived therefrom as a single Trust Fund, except as otherwise provided in the Plan.

(b) To manage, control, sell, convey, exchange, petition, divide, subdivide, improve, repair, grant options, sell upon deferred payments, lease without limit as determined for any purpose, compromise, arbitrate or otherwise settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Fund, institute, compromise and defend actions and proceedings, and to take any other action necessary or desirable in connection with the administration of the Trust Fund.

(c) To vote any stock, bonds, or other securities of any corporation or other issuer; otherwise consent to or request any action on the part of any such corporation or other issuer; to give general or special proxies or powers of attorney, with or without power of substitution; to participate in any reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, merger or similar transaction with respect to such securities; to deposit such stocks or other securities in any voting trusts, or with any protective or like committee, or with the trustee, or with the depositories designated thereby; to exercise any subscription rights and conversion privileges or other options and to make any payments incidental thereto; and generally to do all such acts, execute all such instruments, take all such proceedings and exercise all such rights, powers and privileges with respect to the stock or other securities or property constituting the Trust Fund as if the Trustee were the absolute owner thereof.

(d) To apply for and procure, at the election of any Participant, Life Insurance Policies on the life of the Participant; to exercise whatever rights and privileges may be granted to the Trustee under such Policies, and to cash in, receive and collect such Policies or the proceeds therefrom as and when entitled to do so under the provisions thereof;

(e) To make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all Documents of transfer and conveyance and any and all other instruments that may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the powers herein granted;

(f) To register any investment held in the Trust in the Trustee's own name or in the name of a nominee and to hold any investment in bearer form, but the books and records of the Trustee shall at all times show that all such investments are part of the Trust;

(g) To borrow money for the purposes of the Plan in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems appropriate;

(h) To commingle the assets of the Trust Fund with the assets of other similar trusts which are exempt from income tax, whether sponsored by the Employer, an affiliate of the Employer or an unrelated employer, provided that the books and records of the Trustee shall at all times show the portion of the commingled assets which are part of the Trust; and

(i) To do all acts whether or not expressly authorized which the, Trustee may deem necessary or proper for the protection of, the property held hereunder.

3.6.4 SEGREGATED FUNDS. Unless otherwise determined by the Trustee to be prudent, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest each Segregated Fund without distinction between income or principal in one or more appropriately identified interest-bearing accounts or certificates of deposit in the name of the Trustee and subject solely to the dominion of the Trustee in a banking institution (which may or may not be the Trustee, if the Trustee is a banking institution) or savings and loan association. Any such account or certificate shall bear interest at a rate not less than the rate of interest currently being paid upon regular savings accounts by that banking corporation principally situated in the community in which the Employer has its principal business location, which has capital, surplus and undivided profits exceeding those of any other bank so situated. Such accounts shall be held for the benefit of the Participant for whom such Segregated Fund is established in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the Segregated Account of the Participant shall be credited with any interest earned in connection with such accounts. If the Trustee determines that an alternative investment is appropriate, the Trustee may invest the Segregated Fund in any manner permitted with respect to the Trust Fund and such Segregated Fund shall be credited with the net income or loss or net appreciation or depreciation in value of such investments. No Segregated Fund shall share in any Employer contributions or forfeitures, any net income or loss from, or net appreciation or depreciation in value of, any investments of the Trust Fund, or any allocation for which provision is made in this Plan which is not specifically attributable to the Segregated Fund.

3.6.5 INVESTMENT CONTROL OPTION. Participant may elect to have transferred to a Segregated Fund and exercise investment control with respect to funds in the Trust Fund which do not exceed the balances in his Accounts.

To the extent that the balance in the Participant’s Account with respect to which a transfer is to be made includes his share of an Employer contribution which has not been received by the Trustee, such transfer shall not be made until such contribution is received by the Trustee. In addition to the foregoing election, each Participant who has a Segregated Fund may elect to exercise investment control over any portion or all of such Segregated Fund. Funds so transferred to a Segregated Fund on behalf of the Participant shall be thereafter invested by the Trustee in such bonds, notes, debentures, commodities, mortgages, mutual funds, equipment trust certificates, investment trust certificates, preferred or common stocks, partnership interests, life insurance policies, including universal life insurance policies, or in such other property, real or personal (other than collectibles), wherever situated, as the Participant shall direct from time to time in writing; provided, however, that the Participant may not direct the Trustee to make loans to himself, nor to make loans to the Employer; and provided further that the Trustee may limit the investment alternatives available to the Participant in a uniform and nondiscriminatory manner but taking into account whether the interest of the Participant is fully vested and nonforfeitable. Any such election shall be made by the Participant giving notice thereof to the Trustee notice as the Trustee deems necessary and such notice shall specify the amount of such funds to be transferred and the Account from which the transfer is to be made. Any such election with respect to a Segregated Fund shall be made by the Participant giving the Trustee notice as the Trustee deems necessary and such notice shall specify the date the transfer is to take place and the amount of funds to be transferred. Any such election shall be at the absolute discretion of the Individual Participant and shall be binding upon the Trustee. Upon any such election being made, the amount of such funds to be transferred shall be deducted from his Account as appropriate and added to a Controlled Account of the Participant.

All dividends and interest thereafter received with respect to such transferred funds, as well as any appreciation or depreciation in his investments, shall be added to or deducted from his Controlled Account. If a Participant wishes to make such an election to transfer funds from the Trust Fund to a Segregated Fund as of a date other than a Valuation Date, the Trustee may defer such transfer until the next succeeding Valuation Date or, in the Trustee’s discretion, make such transfer, provided that the Trustee determines that the nature of the assets in the Trust Fund is such that it is feasible and practical to make, as of the date of such transfer, the adjustments to Participants’ Accounts for which provision is made in the Plan, as if such date is a Valuation Date.

The Trustee shall not have any investment responsibility with respect to a Participant’s Segregated Fund over which he exercises investment control. In the event that a Participant elects to have any such funds transferred to a Segregated Fund and invested in particular securities or assets pursuant to this Section, the Trustee shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from the investment decision of the Participant. As of any Valuation Date, the Participant may elect to have all or any portion of any cash contained in his Segregated Fund transferred back to the Trust Fund, in which case such cash shall be invested by the Trustee together with other assets held in the Trust Fund. Any such election shall be made by giving notice thereof to the Trustee as the Trustee deems necessary, and the notice shall specify the amount of cash to be transferred.

As of the said Valuation Date, the amount of such funds to be so transferred which is attributable to the balance in the Participant’s Controlled Account shall be deducted from such Account and added to the appropriate Account of the Participant.

ARTICLE VII

LOANS

3.7.1 AUTHORIZATION. If the employer elects to permit loans to Participants or Beneficiaries, the Plan Administrator shall establish a participant loan program in compliance with Labor Regulation S2550.408b. The terms of such participant loan program shall be in writing and shall constitute part of the Plan. Such terms shall include:

(a) The identity of the person or positions authorized to administer the participant loan program;

(b) A procedure for applying for loans;

(c) The basis on which loans will be approved or denied;

(d) Limitations (if any) on the types and amounts of loans offered;

(e) The procedure under the program for determining a reasonable rate of interest;

(f) The types of collateral which may secure a participant loan; and

(g) The events constituting default and the steps that will be taken to preserve plan assets in the event of default.

3.7.2 SPOUSAL CONSENT. A Participant must obtain the written consent of his spouse, if any, to the use of the Participant's interest in the Plan as security for the loan within ninety (90) days before the date on which the loan is to be so secured. A new consent must be obtained whenever the amount of the loan is increased or if the loan is renegotiated, extended, renewed or otherwise revised. The form of the consent must acknowledge the effect of such consent and be witnessed by a Plan representative or a notary public but shall be deemed to meet any such requirements relating to the consent of any subsequent spouse. Such consent shall thereafter be binding with respect to the consenting spouse or any subsequent spouse with respect to that loan.

If a valid spousal consent has been obtained, then notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, the portion of the Participant's vested Account balance used as a security interest held by the Plan by reason of a loan outstanding to the Participant shall be taken into account for purposes of determining the amount of the Account balance payable at the time of death or distribution but only if the reduction is used as repayment of the loan. If less than the entire amount of the Participant's vested Account balance (determined without regard to the preceding sentence) is payable to the surviving spouse, the Account balance shall be adjusted by first reducing the vested Account balance by the amount of the security used as repayment of the loan and then determining the benefit payable to the surviving spouse.

3.7.3 LIMITATIONS. Except to the extent provided in the participant loan program, in no event shall the amount loaned to any Participant or Beneficiary exceed the lesser of (a) fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) (reduced by the excess of the highest outstanding balance of loans from the Plan) during the one year period ending on the day before the date on which the loan was made over the outstanding balance of loans from the Plan on the date on which such loan was made) or (b) one-half of the sum of the vested and nonforfeitable interest in his Accounts, determined as of the Valuation Date coinciding with or immediately preceding such loan. For the purposes hereof, all loans from all plans of the Employer and other members of a group of employers described in Sections 414(b), (c) and (m) of the Code shall be aggregated. All loans must be adequately secured and bear a reasonable interest rate. In the event of a default foreclosure on the note evidencing the loan and attachment of the security shall not occur until a distributable event occurs.

3.7.4 AVAILABILITY. Loans, if any, must be available to all Participants and Beneficiaries without regard to any individual's race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin. Loans shall be made available to all Participants and Beneficiaries and loans shall not be made available to Highly Compensated Employees in an amount greater than the amount made available to other employees.

3.7.5 PROHIBITIONS. ARTICLE VIII

BENEFICIARIES

3.8.1 DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARIES. Each Participant shall have the right to designate a Beneficiary or Beneficiaries and contingent or successive Beneficiaries to receive any benefits provided by this Plan which become payable upon the Participant's death. The Beneficiaries may be changed at any time or times by the filing of a new designation with the Plan Administrator, and the most recent designation shall govern. Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to the provisions of Section 2.5.2, the designated Beneficiary shall be the surviving spouse of the Participant, unless such surviving spouse consents in writing to an alternate designation and the terms of such consent acknowledge the effect of such alternate designation and the consent is witnessed by a representative of the Plan or by a notary public. A spouse may not revoke the consent without the approval of the Participant. The designation of a Beneficiary other than the spouse of the Participant or a form of benefits with the consent of such spouse may not be changed without the consent of such spouse and any consent must acknowledge the specific non-spouse Beneficiary, including any class of Beneficiaries or any contingent Beneficiaries.

3.8.2 ABSENCE OR DEATH OF BENEFICIARIES. Except with respect to the process of life insurance payable upon the death of the Participant, if a Participant dies without having a beneficiary designation then in force, or if all of the Beneficiaries designated by a Participant predecease him, his Beneficiary shall be his surviving spouse, or if none, his surviving children, equally, or if none, such other heirs, or the executor or administrator of his estate, as the Plan Administrator shall select.

If a Participant dies survived by Beneficiaries designated by him and if all such surviving Beneficiaries thereafter dies before complete distribution of such deceased Participant's interest, the estate of the last of such designated Beneficiaries to survive shall be deemed to be the Beneficiary of the undistributed portion of such interest.

ARTICLE IX

CLAIMS

3.9.1 CLAIM PROCEDURE. Any Participant or Beneficiary who is entitled to a payment of a benefit for which provision is made in this Plan shall file a written claim with the Plan Administrator on such forms as shall be furnished to him by the Plan Administrator and shall furnish such evidence of entitlement to benefits as the Plan Administrator may reasonably require. The Plan Administrator shall notify the Participant or Beneficiary in writing as to the amount of benefit to which he is entitled, the duration of such benefit, the time the benefit is to commence and other pertinent information concerning his benefit. If a claim for benefit is denied by the Plan Administrator, in whole or in part, the Plan Administrator shall provide adequate notice in writing to the Participant or Beneficiary whose claim for benefit has been denied within ninety (90) days after receipt of the claim unless special circumstances require an extension of time for processing the claim. If such an extension of time for processing is required, written notice indicating the special circumstances and the date by which a final decision is expected to be rendered shall be furnished to the Participant or Beneficiary. In no event shall the period of extension exceed one hundred eighty (180) days after receipt of the claim. The notice of denial of the claim shall set forth (a) the specific reason or reasons for the denial; (b) specific reference to pertinent Plan provisions on which the denial is based; (c) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and (d) a statement that any appeal of the denial must be made by giving to the Plan Administrator, within sixty (60) days after receipt of the notice of the denial, written notice of such appeal, such notice to include a full description of the pertinent issues and basis of the claim. The Participant or Beneficiary (or his duly authorized representative) may review pertinent Documents and submit issues and comments in writing to the Plan Administrator. If the Participant or Beneficiary fails to appeal such action to the Plan Administrator in writing within the prescribed period of time, the Plan Administrator's adverse determination shall be final, binding and conclusive.

3.9.2 APPEAL. If the Plan Administrator receives from a Participant or a Beneficiary, within the prescribed period of time, a notice of an appeal of the denial of a claim for benefit, such notice and all relevant materials shall immediately be submitted to the Employer. The Employer may hold a hearing or otherwise ascertain such facts as it deems necessary and shall render a decision which shall be binding upon both parties. The decision of the Employer shall be made within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the Plan Administrator of the notice of appeal, unless special circumstances require an extension of time for processing, in which case a decision of the Employer shall be rendered as soon as possible but not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of the request for review. If such an extension of time is required, written notice of the extension shall be furnished to the claimant prior to the commencement of the extension. The decision of the Employer shall be in writing, shall include specific reasons for the decision, written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant, as well as specific references to the pertinent Plan provisions on which the decision is based and shall be promptly furnished to the claimant.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

3.10.1 RIGHT TO AMEND. The Employer may at any time or times amend the Plan and Trust, in whole or in part. The Employer specifically reserves the right to amend the Plan retroactively.

3.10.2 MANNER OF AMENDING. Each amendment of this Plan shall be made by delivery to the Trustee of a copy of the resolution of the Employer which sets forth such amendment.

3.10.3 LIMITATIONS ON AMENDMENTS. No amendment shall be made to this Plan which shall:

(a) Directly or indirectly operate to give the Employer any interest whatsoever in the assets of the Trust or to deprive any Participant or Beneficiary of his vested and nonforfeitable interest in the assets of the Trust as then constituted, or cause any part of the income or corpus of the Trust to be used for, or diverted to purposes other than the exclusive benefit of Employees or their Beneficiaries;

(b) Increase the duties or liabilities of the Trustee without the Trustee's prior written consent;

(c) Change the vesting schedule under the Plan if the nonforfeitable percentage of the accrued benefit derived from Employer contributions (determined as of the later of the date such amendment is adopted or the date such amendment becomes effective) of any Participant is less than such nonforfeitable percentage computed without regard to such amendment; or

(d) Reduce the accrued benefit of a Participant within the meaning of Section 411(d)(6) of the Code, except to the extent permitted under Section 412(c)(8) of the Code. An amendment which has the effect of decreasing a Participant's account balance or eliminating an optional form of benefit with respect to benefits attributable to service before the amendment shall be treated as reducing an accrued benefit.

If a Plan amendment changes the vesting schedule or the Plan is amended in any way that directly or indirectly affects the computation of the Participant's nonforfeitable percentage, each Participant who has completed three (3) or, in the case of Participants who do not have at least one (1) Hour of Service in any Plan Year beginning after 1988, five (5) or more Years of Service may elect within a reasonable period after the adoption of such amendment to have his nonforfeitable percentage computed without regard to such amendment or change. The period during which the election may be made shall commence with the date the amendment is adopted or deemed to be made and shall end on the latest of sixty (60) days after:

(i) the amendment is adopted;

(ii) the amendment becomes effective; or

(iii) the Participant is issued written notice of the amendment by the Employer or Plan Administrator.

3.10.4 VOLUNTARY TERMINATION. The Employer may terminate the Plan at any time by delivering to the Trustee an instrument in writing which designates such termination. Following termination of the Plan, the Trust will continue until the Distributable Benefit of each Participant has been distributed.

3.10.5 INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION. The Plan shall terminate if (a) the Employer is dissolved or adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent in appropriate proceedings, or if a general assignment is made by the Employer for the benefit of creditors, or (b) the Employer loses its identity by consolidation or merger into one or more corporations or organizations, unless within ninety (90) days after such consolidation or merger, such corporations or organizations elect to continue the Plan.

3.10.6 WITHDRAWAL BY EMPLOYER. The Employer may withdraw from participation under the Plan without terminating the Trust upon making a transfer of the Trust assets to another Plan which shall be deemed to constitute an amendment in its entirety of the Trust.

3.10.7 POWERS PENDING FINAL DISTRIBUTION. Until final distribute on of the assets of the Trust, the Plan Administrator and Trustee shall continue to have all the powers provided under this Plan as are necessary for the orderly administration, liquidation and distribution of the assets of the Trust.

3.10.8 DELEGATION. Each Affiliate Employer expressly delegates authority to the Employer the right to amend any part of the Plan on its behalf. The Employer shall submit a copy of the amendment to each Affiliate Employer who has adopted the Plan. An Affiliate Employer may revoke the authority of the Employer to amend the Plan on its behalf by written notice to the Employer of such revocation.

ARTICLE XI

PORTABILITY

3.11.1 CONTINUANCE BY SUCCESSOR. In the event of the dissolution, consolidation or merger of the Employer, or the sale by the Employer of its assets, the resulting successor person or persons, firm or corporations may continue this Plan by (a) adopting the Plan by appropriate resolution; (b) appointing a new Trustee as though the Trustee (including all members of a group of individuals acting as Trustee) had resigned; and (c) executing a proper agreement with the new Trustee. In such event, each Participant in this Plan shall have an interest in the Plan after the dissolution, consolidation, merger, or sale of assets, at least equal to the interest which he had in the Plan immediately before the dissolution, consolidation, merger or sale of assets. Any Participants who do not accept a position with such successor within a reasonable time shall be deemed to be terminated. If, within ninety (90) days from the effective date of such dissolution, consolidation, merger, or sale of assets, such successor does not adopt this Plan, as provided herein, the Plan shall automatically be terminated and deemed to be an involuntary termination.

3.11.2 MERGER WITH OTHER PLAN. In the event of the merger or consolidation with, or transfer of assets or liabilities to, any other deferred compensation plan and trust, each Participant shall have an interest in such other plan which is equal to or greater than the interest which he had in this Plan immediately before such merger, consolidation or transfer, and if such other plan thereafter terminates, each Participant shall be entitled to a Distributable Benefit which is equal to or greater than the Distributable Benefit to which he would have been entitled immediately before such merger, consolidation or transfer if this Plan had then been terminated.

3.11.3 TRANSFER FROM OTHER PLANS. The Employer may cause all or any of the assets held in connection with any other plan or trust which is maintained by the Employer for the benefit of its employees and satisfies the applicable requirements of the Code relating to qualified plans and trusts to be transferred to the Trustee, whether such transfer is made pursuant to a merger or consolidation of this Plan with such other plan or trust or for any other allowable purpose.

In addition, the Employer, may permit rollover to the Trustee of assets held for the benefit of an Employee in a conduit Individual Retirement Account, a terminated plan of the Employer, or any other plan or trust which is maintained by some other employer for the benefit of its employees and satisfies the applicable requirements of the Code relating to qualified plans and trusts even if the employee has not satisfied the conditions for participation in the Plan. Any such assets so transferred to the Trustee shall be accompanied by written instructions from the employer, or the trustee, custodian or individual holding such assets, setting forth the name of each Employee for whose benefit such assets have been transferred and showing separately the respective contributions by the employer and by the Employee and the current value of the assets attributable thereto. Upon receipt by the Trustee of such assets, the Trustee shall place such assets in a Segregated Fund for the Participant and the Employee shall be deemed to be one hundred percent (100%) vested and have a nonforfeitable interest in any such assets. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, unless the Plan provides a life annuity distribution option or the Participant and his spouse have signed a written waiver of their rights to the annuity options in a form which satisfies the waiver requirements of Section 417 of the Code, the Plan shall not be a direct or indirect transferee of a defined benefit pension plan, money purchase pension plan, target benefit pension plan, stock bonus or profit sharing plan which is subject to the survivor annuity requirements of Section 401(a)(11) and Section 417 of the Code.

3.11.4 TRANSFER TO OTHER PLANS. The Trustee, upon written direction by the Employer, shall transfer some or all of the assets held under the Trust to another plan or trust of the Employer meeting the requirements of the Code relating to qualified plans and trusts, whether such transfer is made pursuant to a merger or consolidation of this Plan with such other plan or trust or for any other allowable purpose. In addition, upon the termination of employment of any Participant and receipt by the Plan Administrator of a request in writing, the Participant may request that any distribution from the Trust to which he is entitled shall be transferred to an Individual Retirement Account, an Individual Retirement Annuity, or any other plan or trust which is maintained by some other employer for the benefit of its employees and satisfies the applicable requirements of the Code relating to qualified plans and trusts. Upon receipt of any such written request, the Plan Administrator shall cause the Trustee to transfer the assets so directed and, as appropriate, shall direct the Insurer to transfer to the new trustee any applicable insurance policies issued by it.

ARTICLE XII

MISCELLANEOUS

3.12.1 NO REVERSION TO EMPLOYER. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, no part of the corpus or income of the Trust shall revert to the Employer or be used for, or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants and their Beneficiaries.

3.12.2 EMPLOYEE ACTIONS. Any action by the Employer pursuant to the provisions of the Plan shall be evidenced by appropriate resolution or by written instrument executed by any person authorized by the Employer to take such action.

3.12.3 EXECUTION OF RECEIPTS AND RELEASES. Any payment to any person eligible to receive benefits under this Plan, in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, shall, to the extent thereof, be in full satisfaction of all claims hereunder. The Plan Administrator may require such person, as a condition precedent to such payment, to execute a receipt and release therefore in such form as he shall determine.

3.12.4 RIGHTS OF PARTICIPANTS LIMITED. Neither the creation of this Plan and Trust nor anything contained in this Plan shall be construed as giving any Participant, Beneficiary or Employee any equity or other interest in the assets, business or affairs of the Employer, or the right to complain about any action taken by or about any policy adopted or pursued by, the Employer, or as giving any Employee the right to be retained in the service of the Employer; and all Employees shall remain subject to discharge to the same extent as if the Plan had never been executed. Prior to the time that distributions are made in conformity with the provisions of the Plan, neither the Participants, nor their spouses, Beneficiaries, heirs-at-law, or legal representatives shall receive or be entitled to receive cash or any other thing of current exchangeable value, from either the Employer or the Trustee as a result of the Plan or the Trust.

3.12.5 PERSONS DEALING WITH TRUSTEE PROTECTED. No person dealing with the Trustee shall be required or entitled to see to the application of any money paid or property delivered to the Trustee, or determine whether or not the Trustee is acting pursuant to the authorities granted to the Trustee hereunder or to authorizations or directions herein required. The certificate of the Trustee that the Trustee is acting in accordance with the Plan shall protect any person relying thereon.

3.12.6 PROTECTION OF THE INSURER. An Insurer shall not be responsible for the validity of the Plan or Trust and shall have no responsibility for action taken or not taken by the Trustee, for determining the propriety of accepting premium payments or other contributions, for making payments in accordance with the direction of the Trustee, or for the application of such payments. The Insurer shall be fully protected in dealing with any representative of the Employer or any one of a group of individuals acting as Trustee. Until written notice of a change of Trustee has been received by an Insurer at its home office, the Insurer shall be fully protected in dealing with any party acting as Trustee according to the latest information received by the Insurer at its home office.

3.12.7 NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACT OF INSURER. Neither the Employer, the Plan Administrator nor the Trustee shall be responsible for any of the following, nor shall they be liable for instituting action in connection with:

(a) The validity of policies or policy provisions;

(b) Failure or refusal by the Insurer to provide benefits under a policy;

(c) An act by a person which may render a policy invalid or unenforceable; or

(d) Inability to perform or delay in performing an act, which inability or delay is occasioned by a provision of a policy or a restriction imposed by the Insurer.

3.12.8 INALIENABILITY. The right of any Participant or his Beneficiary in any distribution hereunder or to any separate Account shall not be subject to alienation, assignment or transfer, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, except as may be expressly permitted herein. No Participant shall assign, transfer, or dispose of such right nor shall any such right be subjected to attachment, execution, garnishment, sequestration, or other legal, equitable, or other process. The preceding shall also apply to the creation, assignment, or recognition of a right to any benefit payable with respect to a Participant pursuant to a domestic relations order, unless such order is determined to be a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Section 414(p) of the Code, or any domestic relations order entered before January 1, 1985.

In the event a Participant’s benefits are attached by order of any court, the Plan Administrator may bring an action for a declaratory judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the proper recipient of the benefits to be paid by the Plan. During the pendency of the action, the Plan Administrator shall cause any benefits payable to be paid to the court for distribution by the court as it considers appropriate.

3.12.9 DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDERS. The Plan Administrator shall adhere to the terms of any judgment, decree or order (including approval of a property settlement agreement) which relates to the provision of child support, alimony payments, or marital property rights to a spouse, former spouse, child or other dependent of a Participant and is made pursuant to a state domestic relations law (including a community property law) and which creates or recognizes the existence of an alternate payee’s right to, or assigns to an alternate payee the right to, receive all or a portion of the benefits payable with respect to a Participant.

Any such domestic relations order must clearly specify the name and last known mailing address of the Participant and the name and mailing address of each alternate payee covered by the order, the amount or percentage of the Participant’s benefit to be paid by the Plan to each such alternate payee, or the manner in which such amount or percentage is to be determined, the number of payments or period to which such order applies, and each plan to which such order applies.

Any such domestic relations order shall not require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option not otherwise provided under the Plan, to provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value) or the payment of benefits to an alternate payee which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, a domestic relations order may require the payment of benefits to an alternate payee before the Participant has separated from service on or after the date on which the Participant attains or would have attained the earliest retirement age under the Plan as if the Participant had retired on the date on which such payment is to begin under such order and in any form in which such benefits may be paid under the Plan to the Participant (other than the form of a joint and survivor annuity with respect to the alternate payee and his or her subsequent spouse). The interest rate assumption used in determining the present value shall be five (5%) percent. For these purposes, the earliest retirement age under the Plan means the earlier of: (a) the date on which the Participant is entitled to a distribution under the Plan, or (b) the later of the date the Participant attains age 50, or the earliest date on which the Participant could begin receiving benefits under the Plan if the Participant separated from service.

Distributions may be made to an alternate payee even though the Participant may not receive a distribution because he continues to be employed by the Employer.

To the extent provided in the qualified domestic relations order, the former spouse of a Participant shall be treated as a surviving spouse of such Participant for purposes of Sections 401(a)(11) and 417 of the Code (and any spouse of the Participant shall not be treated as a spouse of the Participant for such purposes) and if married for at least one (1) year, the surviving former spouse shall be treated as meeting the requirements of Section 417(d) of the Code.

The Plan Administrator shall promptly notify the Participant and each alternate payee pf the receipt of a domestic relations order by the Plan and the Plan’s procedures for determining the qualified status of domestic relations orders. Within a reasonable period after receipt of a domestic relations order,, the Plan Administrator shall determine whether such order is a qualified domestic relations order and shall notify the Participant and each alternate payee of such determination. If the Participant or any affected alternate payee disagrees with the determinations of the Plan Administrator, the disagreeing party shall be treated as a claimant and the claims procedure of the Plan shall be followed. The Plan Administrator may bring an action for a declaratory judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the proper recipient of the benefits to be paid by the Plan.

During any period in which the issue of whether a domestic relations order is a qualified domestic relations order is being determined (by the Plan Administrator, by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise), the Plan Administrator shall separately account for the amounts which would have been payable to the alternate payee during such period if the order had been determined to be a qualified domestic relations order. If, within the eighteen (18) month period beginning on the date on which the first payment would be required to be made under the domestic relations order, the order (or modification thereof) is determined to be a qualified domestic relations order, the Plan Administrator shall pay the segregated amounts, including any interest thereon, to the person or persons entitled thereto.

If within such eighteen (18) month period it is determined that the order is not a qualified domestic relations order or the issue as to whether such order is a qualified domestic relations order is not resolved, then the Plan Administrator shall pay the segregated amounts, including any interest thereon, to the person or persons who would have been entitled to such amounts if there had been no order. Any determination that an order is a qualified domestic relations order which is made after the close of the eighteen (18) month period shall be applied prospectively only.

3.12.10 AUTHORIZATION TO WITHHOLD TAXES. The Trustee is authorized in accordance with applicable law to withhold from distribution to any payee such sums as may be necessary to cover federal and state taxes which may be due with respect to such distributions.

3.12.11 MISSING PERSONS If the Trustee mails by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address of a Participant or Beneficiary, a notification that the Participant or Beneficiary is entitled to a distribution and if (a) the notification is returned by the post office because the addressee cannot be located at such address and if neither the Employer, the Plan Administrator nor the Trustee shall have any knowledge of the whereabouts of such Participant or Beneficiary within three (3) years from the date such notification was mailed, or (b) within three (3) years after such notification was mailed to such Participant or Beneficiary, he does not respond thereto by informing the Trustee of his whereabouts, the ultimate disposition of the then undistributed balance of the Distributable Benefit of such Participant or Beneficiary shall be determined in accordance with the then applicable Federal laws, rules and regulations. If any portion of the Distributable Benefit is forfeited because the Participant or Beneficiary cannot be found, such portion shall be reinstated if a claim is made by the Participant or Beneficiary.

3.12.12 NOTICES. Any notice or direction to be given in accordance with the Plan shall be deemed to have been effectively given if hand delivered to the recipient or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the recipient at the recipient's last known address. At any time that a group of individuals is acting as Trustee, notice to the Trustee may be given by giving notice to any one or more of such individuals.

3.12.13 GOVERNING LAW. The provisions of this Plan shall be construed, administered and enforced in accordance with the provisions of-the Act and, to the extent applicable, the laws of the state in which the Employer has its principal place of business. All contributions to the Trust shall be deemed to take place in such state.

3.12.14 SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS. In the event that any provision of this Plan shall be held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason, said illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions, but shall be fully severable and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if said illegal, invalid or unenforceable provisions had never been inserted herein.

3.12.15 GENDER AND NUMBER. Whenever appropriate, words used in the singular shall include the plural, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender.

3.12.16 BINDING EFFECT. The Plan, and all actions and decisions hereunder, shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of any and all parties hereto and Participants, present and future.

3.12.17 QUALIFICATION UNDER INTERNAL REVENUE LAWS. The Employer intends that the Trust qualify under the applicable provisions of the Code. Until advised to the contrary, the Trustee may assume that the Trust is so qualified and is entitled to tax exemption under the Code.

ARTICLE XIII

EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT

3.13.1 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original, and no other counterparts need be produced.

3.13.2 ACCEPTANCE BY TRUSTEE. The Trustee, by joining in the execution of this Agreement, hereby signifies the Trustee's acceptance thereof.

3.13.3 EXECUTION. To record the adoption of this Plan the Employer and each Affiliate Employer, if any, has caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly qualified officers and the Trustee has executed this Agreement, as of the day and year first above written.

The OBRA '93 annual compensation limit is $150,000, as adjusted by the Commissioner for increases in the cost of living in accordance with section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to any period, not exceeding 12 months, over which compensation is determined (determination period) beginning in such calendar year. 3.9 Indemnifications.

(a) The Employers shall indemnify and hold the Trustee harmless from and against all loss or liability (including expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees) to which it may be subject by reason of its execution of its duties under this Trust, or by reason of any acts taken in good faith in accordance with directions, or acts omitted in good faith due to absence of directions, from the Board, the Committee, the Participants (if such directions are given pursuant to this Trust Agreement) or any other person designated to act on such persons behalf, unless such loss or liability is due to the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct or similar conduct.

(b) In the event that the Trustee is named as a defendant in a lawsuit or proceeding involving the Plan, a Plan Agreement and/or the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive on a current basis the indemnity payments provided for in this Section, provided, however, that if the final judgement entered in the lawsuit or proceeding holds that the Trustee is guilty of negligence, willful misconduct or similar conduct with respect to the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall be required to refund the indemnity payments that it has received.

(c) All releases and indemnities provided in this Trust Agreement shall survive the termination of this Trust Agreement.

3.11 Affiliated Entities. In carrying out its obligations under this Trust Agreement, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Trustee is expressly authorized to (i) retain the services of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray Inc. and/or U.S. Bancorp Investments, Inc., each being affiliates of U.S. Bank National Association, and/or any other registered broker-deal organization hereafter affiliated with U.S. Bank National Association, and any future successors in interest thereto (collectively for the purposes of this paragraph referred to as the "Affiliated Entities"), to provide services to assist in or facilitate the purchase or sale of investment securities in the Trust, (ii) acquire as assets of the Trust shares of mutual funds to which Affiliated Entities provides, for a fee, services in any capacity and (iii) acquire in the Trust any other services or products of any kind or nature from the Affiliated Entities regardless of whether the same or similar services or products are available from other institutions. products provided to the Trust and/or such mutual funds at such Affiliated Entities' standard or published rates without offset (unless required by law) from any fees charged by the Trustee for its services as Trustee. The Trustee may also deal directly with the Affiliated Entities regardless of the capacity in which it is then acting, to purchase, sell, exchange or transfer assets of the Trust even though the Affiliated Entities are receiving compensation or otherwise profiting from such transaction or are acting as a principal in such transaction. Such records shall be available at all reasonable times for inspection by the Parent or the Company or its authorized representative. Such values shall be either cost or market as directed by the Committee in accordance with the Plan.

(b) The Committee may approve such account either by written notice of approval delivered to the Trustee or by its failure to express written objection to such account delivered to the Trustee within 90 days after the date of which such account was delivered to the Committee. On or after a Change in Control, the majority of Participants (by number and not percentage interest in the Trust Fund) may approve such account either by written notice of approval delivered to the Trustee or by the failure to express written objection to such account delivered to the Trustee within 90 days after the date of which such account was delivered to the Participants.

(c) Prior to a Change in Control, the approval by the Committee of an accounting, as provided in (b) above, shall be binding as to all matters embraced in such accounting on all parties to this Trust Agreement and on all Participants and Beneficiaries, to the same extent as if such accounting had been settled by a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction in which the Trustee, the Committee, the Employers and all persons having or claiming any interest in the Plan, a Plan Agreement or the Trust Fund were made parties. On or after a Change in Control, the approval by the Participants of an accounting, as provided in (b) above, shall be binding as to all matters embraced in such accounting on all parties to this Trust Agreement and on all Participants and Beneficiaries, to the same extent as if such accounting had been settled by a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction in which the Trustee, the Committee, the Employers and all persons having or claiming any interest in the Plan, a Plan Agreement or the Trust Fund were made parties.

(d) Despite the foregoing, nothing contained in this Trust Agreement shall deprive the Trustee of the right to have an accounting judicially settled, if the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, desires such a settlement.

5.3 Valuation. The assets of the Trust Fund shall be valued at their respective fair market values on the date of valuation, as determined by the Trustee based upon such sources of information as it may deem reliable, including, but not limited to, stock market quotations, statistical evaluation services, newspapers of general circulation, financial publications, advice from investment counselors, brokerage firms or insurance companies, or any combination of sources. Prior to a Change in Control, the Committee shall instruct the Trustee as to the value of assets for which market values are not readily obtainable by the Trustee. If the Committee fails to provide such values, the Trustee may take whatever action it deems reasonable, including employment of attorneys, appraisers, life insurance companies or other professionals, the expense of which shall be an expense of administration of the Trust Fund and payable by the Employers. Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee may rely upon information from the Employers, the Committee, appraisers or other sources and shall not incur any liability for an inaccurate valuation based in good faith upon such information.

5.4 Delegation of Duties. The Employers or the Committee, or both, may at any time employ the Trustee, with the Trustee's consent, as their agent to perform any act, keep any records or accounts and make any computations that are required of the Employers or the Committee by this Trust Agreement, the Plan or any Plan Agreement. The Trustee may be compensated for such employment and such employment shall not be deemed to be contrary to the Trust. The Trustee may resign as Trustee at any time by delivery of written notice of resignation to the Committee (and, on or after a Change in Control, with a copy sent to each Participant). Prior to a Change in Control, the Trustee may be removed by the Committee by delivery of written notice of removal to the Trustee; on or after a Change in Control, the Trustee may be removed by a majority (by number and not percentage interest in the Trust Fund) of the Participants.

(b) Effective Time. Any resignation or removal shall take effect on the date specified in the notice, which date, except as provided in the next sentence, shall not be less than 60 days after the delivery thereof unless an earlier date shall be mutually agreed upon. If the Trustee is removed for negligence or willful misconduct, the notice shall so state, and such removal shall take effect on the date specified in the notice.

6.2 Successor Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Committee shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. The successor shall be a bank, trust company, or independent individual unrelated to the Employers and qualified under applicable law to serve in such capacity. After the occurrence of a Change in Control, a successor Trustee may not be appointed without the consent of a majority of the Participants. Should no successor Trustee be named by the Committee within 60 days after delivery of notice of resignation or removal, the Trustee may, at the expense of the Employers, apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee. Such expenses shall be paid by the Employers; the Trustee is authorized to pay such expenses first from the Administrative Account and thereafter from the general Trust Fund (and thereafter seek reimbursement from the Employers) if the Employers fail to pay them within 60 days of presentation of a statement of the amounts due.

6.3 Settlement of Accounts. Upon the effective date of such resignation or removal of the Trustee, the former Trustee shall transfer all of the Trust Fund to the successor Trustee, whereupon such successor shall succeed to all of the powers and duties given to the Trustee in this Trust Agreement. The resigning or removed Trustee shall render an account in the form and manner and at the time prescribed in Section 5.2. The approval of such accounting and discharge of the Trustee shall be as provided in such Section.

Revocation, Creditor Claims,
Amendment and Termination

7.1 Irrevocability; Creditor Claims. The Trust is irrevocable, and the Trust Fund shall not be subject to the claims of the any creditor of the Employers. Except as provided in the Plan and this Trust Agreement, no part of the corpus or income of the Trust Fund shall be recoverable by the Employers or used for any purpose other than for the exclusive purpose of providing benefit payments to Participants, their Beneficiaries, the Employers and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the Trust in accordance with the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

7.2 Amendment. This Trust Agreement may not be amended, altered, changed or modified in any respect, except as follows:

(a) General Rule. Subject to Sections 7.2(b), (c) and (d) below, this Trust Agreement may be amended:

(i) By the Parent or the Company and the Trustee, provided, however, that if an amendment would in any way adversely affect the rights created by the Plan, any Plan Agreement or this Trust Agreement of any Participant or Beneficiary in the Trust Fund, each and every Participant and Beneficiary whose rights in the Trust Fund would be adversely affected must consent to the amendment before this Trust Agreement may be so amended; and

(ii) By the Parent or the Company and the Trustee, as may be necessary to comply with laws which would otherwise render the Trust void, voidable or invalid in whole or in part.

(b) Limitation. Notwithstanding that an amendment may be permissible under Section 7.2(a) above, this Trust Agreement shall not be amended by an amendment that would:

(i) Cause any of the assets of the Trust to be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants, Beneficiaries and the Employers as set forth in the Plan and the respective Plan Agreements; and

(ii) Be inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan and the related Plan Agreements, including the provisions of the Plan regarding termination, amendment or modification of the Plan and any Plan Agreement.

(c) Writing and Consent. Any amendment to the Trust Agreement shall be set forth in writing and signed by the Parent or the Company and the Trustee, and, if consent of any Participant or Beneficiary is required under Section 7.2(a), the Participant or Beneficiary whose consent is required. Any amendment may be current, retroactive or prospective, in each case as provided therein.

(d) Change in Control. In connection with the exercise of the rights under this Section 7.2, after a Change in Control, the power of the Parent or the Company to amend this Trust Agreement shall cease, and the power to amend that was previously held by the Parent and/or the Company shall, instead, be exercised by a majority of the Participants (by number and not by percentage interests in the Trust Fund) and the Trustee, provided that such amendment otherwise complies with the requirements of Sections 7.2(a), (b) and (c) above (substituting "a majority of Participants (by number and not by percentage interests in the Trust Fund)," for "Parent" or "Company" therein).

(e) Consistency Requirement. If the Parent or the Company elects to amend, modify or terminate the Trust under this Section 7.2, the Parent or the Company may do so only to the extent that such amendment, modification or termination is not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan and the related Plan Agreements, including the provisions regarding the amendment, modification or termination of the Plan or any Plan Agreement.

7.3 Final Termination. The Trust shall cease and terminate upon the last of the following to occur:

(a) The Trust Fund is exhausted and it is not anticipated that additional funds will be forthcoming from the Employers; or

(b) The claims of each and every Participant, Beneficiary and Employer under the Plan have been compromised, settled or paid.

If on termination of the Trust and the Plan (and only on such termination), there should be any balance in the Trust Fund after satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to Participants, Beneficiaries and Employers, such balance shall be paid by the Trustee to the Employers, in such amounts and in the manner instructed by the Parent or the Company, whereupon the Trustee shall be released and discharged from all obligations hereunder. From and after the date of termination and until final distribution of the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall continue to have all of the powers provided herein as are necessary or expedient for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund.

Controversies, Legal Actions and Counsel

8.1 Controversy. If any controversy arises with respect to the Trust, the Trustee shall take action as directed by the Committee or, in the absence of such direction or on or after a Change in Control, as it deems advisable, whether by legal proceedings, compromise or otherwise. The Trustee may retain the funds or property involved without liability pending settlement of the controversy. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to take any legal action of whatever nature unless there shall be sufficient property in the Trust to indemnify the Trustee with respect to any expenses or losses to which it may be subjected.

8.2 Joinder of Parties. In any action or other judicial proceedings affecting the Trust, it shall be necessary to join as parties the Trustee, the Committee, and the Employers. Prior to a Change in Control, no Participant or other person shall be entitled to any notice or service of process; on or after a Change in Control, each Participant shall be entitled to notice and service of process. Any judgment entered in such a proceeding or action shall be binding on all persons claiming under the Trust. Nothing in this Trust Agreement shall be construed as to deprive a Participant of his right to seek adjudication of his rights by administrative process or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

8.3 Employment of Counsel. The Trustee may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for any Employer) and shall be fully protected with respect to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith pursuant to the advice of counsel.

Insurers

9.1 Insurer Not a Party. No Insurer shall be deemed to be a party to the Trust and an Insurer's obligations shall be measured and determined solely by the terms of contracts and other agreements executed by it.

9.2 Authority of Trustee. An Insurer shall accept the signature of the Trustee to any documents or papers executed in connection with such contracts. The signature of the Trustee shall be conclusive proof to the Insurer that the person on whose life an application is being made is eligible to have a contract issued on his life and is eligible for a contract of the type and amount requested.

9.3 Contract Ownership. An Insurer shall deal with the Trustee as the sole and absolute owner of any insurance contracts and shall have no obligation to inquire whether any action or failure to act on the part of the Trustee is in accordance with or authorized by the terms of this Trust Agreement.

9.4 Limitation of Liability. An Insurer shall be fully discharged from any and all liability for any action taken or any amount paid in accordance with the direction of the Trustee and shall have no obligation to see to the proper application of the amounts so paid. An Insurer shall have no liability for the operation of the Trust, the Plan or any Plan Agreement, whether or not in accordance with their terms and provisions.

9.5 Change of Trustee. An Insurer shall be fully discharged from any and all liability for dealing with a party or parties indicated on its records to be the Trustee until such time as it shall receive at its home office written notice of the appointment and qualification of a successor Trustee.

Miscellaneous

10.1 Directions Following Change in Control. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement that may be construed to the contrary, except Section 7.3, following a Change in Control, all powers of the Committee, the Parent and the Company to direct the Trustee under this Trust Agreement shall terminate, and the Trustee shall act on its own volition to carry out the terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the Plan and the related Plan Agreements.

10.2 Taxes. The Employers shall contribute from time to time, as necessary, funds sufficient to pay taxes of any and all kinds whatsoever that at any time are lawfully levied or assessed upon or become payable in respect of the Trust Fund, the income or any property forming a part thereof, or any security transaction pertaining thereto. This obligation to contribute shall not extend to individual taxes levied or assessed against the individual Participant with respect to the Trust Fund. To the extent that contributions are not made within 30 days of the Trustee's request for such contributions, the Trustee shall have the power to pay such taxes out of the Trust Fund and shall seek reimbursement from the Employers. Prior to making any payment, the Trustee may require such releases or other documents from any lawful taxing authority as it shall deem necessary. The Trustee shall contest the validity of taxes in any manner deemed appropriate by the Employers, but at the Employers' expense, and only if it has received an indemnity bond or other security satisfactory to it to pay any such expenses. The Trustee shall not be liable for any nonpayment of tax when it distributes an interest hereunder on directions from the Committee. The Employers and the Company shall cooperate with each other as necessary to minimize the Trust's tax liability.

10.3 Third Persons. All persons dealing with the Trustee are released from inquiring into the decisions or authority of the Trustee and from seeing to the application of any moneys, securities or other property paid or delivered to the Trustee.

10.4 Nonassignability; Nonalienation. None of the benefits, payments, claims or interests hereunder of any Participant or Beneficiary shall be subject to any claim of such Participant's or Beneficiary's creditors and, in particular, the same shall not be subject to attachment or garnishment or other legal process by any such creditors, nor shall any Participant or Beneficiary have any right to alienate, anticipate, commute, pledge, encumber or assign any of the benefits, payments, claims or interest which he may expect to receive, contingently or otherwise, under the Trust, except that the foregoing shall not apply to any family support obligations set forth in a court order.

10.5 The Plan. The Trust, the Plan and all related Plan Agreements are parts of a single, integrated employee benefit plan system and shall be construed together. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Trust Agreement, the agreement that constitutes the Plan and any Plan Agreement, such conflict shall be resolved in favor of this Trust Agreement. In addition, if on or after a Change in Control, the Plan or Plan Agreement, or any provision of the Plan or Plan Agreement, is determined by any court to be, rejected, invalid or unenforceable, then for purpose of this Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall still interpret and apply the Plan and Plan Agreement according to its written terms and not according to the court's determination.

10.6 Applicable Law. This Trust Agreement shall be construed, administered and governed under the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflicts of law principles. If any provision of this Trust Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

10.7 Notices and Directions. Whenever a notice or direction is given by the Committee to the Trustee, it shall be in the form required by Section 2.1. Actions by the Parent or the Company shall be by the Board or a duly authorized officer(s), with such actions certified to the Trustee by an appropriately certified copy of the action taken. The Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any such notice, resolution, order, certificate or other communication believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper party or parties.

10.8 Successors and Assigns. This Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Employers and the Trustee and their respective successors and assigns.

10.9 Gender and Number. Words used in the masculine shall apply to the feminine where applicable, and when the context requires, the plural shall be read as the singular and the singular as the plural.

10.10 Headings. Headings in this Trust Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and any conflict between such headings and the text shall be resolved in favor of the text.

10.11 Counterparts. This Trust Agreement may be executed in an original and any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original of one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parent and the Trustee have signed this Trust Agreement as of the date first above written.

(b) The individuals who, as of the time immediately following the election of directors at the Parent's 2000 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, are members of the Board (the "Existing Directors"), cease, for any reason, to constitute more than fifty percent (50%) of the number of authorized directors of the Parent as determined in the manner prescribed in the Parent's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws; provided, however, that if the election, or nomination for election, by the Parent's stockholders of any new director was approved by a vote of at least fifty percent (50%) of the Existing Directors, such new director shall be considered an Existing Director; provided further, however, that no individual shall be considered an Existing Director if such individual initially assumed office as a result of either an actual or threatened "Election Contest" (as described in Rule 14a-11 promulgated under the Exchange Act) or other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies by or on behalf of anyone other than the Board (a "Proxy Contest"), including by reason of any agreement intended to avoid or settle any Election Contest or Proxy Contest.

With respect to Sections 1.4(d), (e) and (f) above, if the event described occurs only with respect to one or more Employers (other than the Parent or the Company) and not to the Parent or the Company, such event shall be a "Change in Control" only with respect to the Participants of that Employer or those Employers.

1.10 “Employer” shall mean the Parent, the Company and/or any of their subsidiaries that have been selected by the Board to participate in the Plan.

SELECTION, ENROLLMENT AND ELIGIBILITY

2.1 SELECTION BY COMMITTEE. Participation in the Plan shall be limited to a select group of management and highly compensated employees of the Employers. From that group, the Committee shall select, in its sole discretion, employees of the Employers to participate in the Plan.

2.2 ENROLLMENT REQUIREMENTS. As a condition to participation, each selected employee shall complete, execute and return to the Committee a Plan Agreement and a Beneficiary Designation Form. In addition, the Committee, in its sole discretion, shall establish from time to time such other enrollment requirements as it determines are necessary.

2.3 ELIGIBILITY; COMMENCEMENT OF PARTICIPATION. Provided an employee selected to participate in the Plan has met all enrollment requirements set forth in this Plan and required by the Committee, that employee shall commence participation in the Plan on the date specified by the Committee. If a selected employee fails to meet all such requirements prior to that date, that employee shall not be eligible to participate in the Plan until the completion of those requirements.

FORFEITURE LAPSE; ACCOUNT BALANCE

3.1 FORFEITURE LAPSE.

(a) GENERAL RULE. Upon commencement of participation, each Participant has a Retention Benefit, subject to forfeiture as provided in Section 3.2. If a Participant has not Retired, died, suffered a Disability or experienced a Termination of Employment prior to 90 days prior to a Change in Control, the Participant's Retention Benefit shall no longer be subject to forfeiture six months after the date of the Change in Control (the "Forfeiture Lapse Date").

(b) EARLY FORFEITURE LAPSE DATE. If at any time on or after 90 days prior to a Change in Control and prior to the Forfeiture Lapse Date a Participant Retires, dies, suffers a Disability or experiences an involuntarily termination of employment with all Employers, the Participant's (or the Participant's Beneficiary's in the event of the Participant's death) Retention Benefit shall no longer be subject to forfeiture on the later of (i) the date of the Change in Control or (ii) the date of such Retirement, death, Disability or involuntary termination of employment, and such date (rather than six months after the date of the Change in Control) shall be considered the "Forfeiture Lapse Date" for purposes of this Plan.

3.2 FORFEITURE. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 above, a Participant shall forfeit any right to benefits under this Plan if he or she:

(a) Retires, dies, suffers a Disability or experiences a Termination of Employment prior to 90 days prior to a Change in Control; or

(b) Voluntarily terminates his or her employment (other than by death, Retirement or Disability) with all of his or her Employers at any time on or after 90 days prior to the date of a Change in Control and prior to six months after the date of the Change in Control.

3.3 ACCOUNT BALANCE. Within 60 days of the end of each calendar year quarter (March 31, June 30, September 30, December 31), each Participant shall receive a statement setting forth the balance of his or her Participant's Account as of the end of such period.

4.1 RETENTION BENEFIT.

(a) ELIGIBILITY. On the Forfeiture Lapse Date, the "Retention Benefit," described in Section 4.1(b), of the Participant or the Participant's Beneficiary, as the case may be, the shall no longer be subject to forfeiture.

(b) BENEFIT AND PAYMENT. The "Retention Benefit" shall be a dollar amount that is equal to the Participant's Account as of any given date, subject to reduction in accordance with Section 4.3 below. The Retention Benefit shall be calculated as of the payment date and shall be paid to the Participant, or his or her Beneficiary, within 90 days of the Forfeiture Lapse Date.

4.2 EMPLOYER BENEFIT.

(a) ELIGIBILITY. The Participant's Employer shall be entitled to a contingent "Employer Benefit,"described in Section 4.2(b) below, if:

(i) A Participant Retires, dies, suffers a Disability or experiences a Termination of Employment prior to 90 days prior to a Change in Control;

(ii) A Participant voluntarily terminates his or her employment (other than by death, Retirement or Disability) with all of his or her Employers at any time on or after 90 days prior to the date of a Change in Control and prior to six months after the date of the Change in Control;

(iii) A Participant becomes entitled to a Retention Benefit, but such benefit is reduced pursuant to Section 4.3 below; or

(iv) There is a positive balance in the Employer Death Benefit Account.

(b) BENEFIT AND PAYMENT. The "Employer Benefit" shall be a dollar amount that is equal to the Account balance of a Participant who forfeits his or her rights to such Participant's Retention Benefit, measured as of the date of payment. In the case of 4.2(a)(iii), the Employer Benefit shall be the amount, if any, not paid to the Participant pursuant to Section 4.3. In the case of 4.2(a)(iv), the Employer Benefit shall be an amount equal to the Employer Death Benefit Account. The Employer Benefit shall be paid to the Participant's Employer within 120 days following the event described in Section 4.2(a) above.

4.3 GOLDEN PARACHUTE LIMITATION.

(a) In the event the Company believes that any portion of any payment to be made to a Participant pursuant to this Agreement constitutes an "excess parachute payment" (within the meaning of Code Section 280G(b)(1)), the Company shall notify the Participant and Trustee in writing. If the excise tax imposed under Code Section 4999 on such payments would cause the total payments to which the Participant would otherwise be entitled under this Agreement (after taking into account federal and state income and excise taxes) to be less than what such Participant would have retained (after taking into account federal and state income taxes) had the payments under this Agreement been reduced to the highest pre-tax dollar amount that could be paid to such Participant without any such payments constituting an "excess parachute payment" (the "Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax"), then the Participant's Retention Benefit shall be reduced to the Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax, and the difference between the amount that, but for this Section, would have been paid to the Participant and the Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax shall become the Employer Benefit. For purposes of the calculations described above, it shall be assumed that a Participant's tax rate will be the maximum marginal federal and state income tax rate on earned income, with such maximum federal rate to be computed with regard to Code Section 1(g), if applicable, unless the Participant informs the Company otherwise. In the event that the Participant and the Company are unable to agree as to the amount of the reduction described above, if any, Participant shall select a law firm or accounting firm from among those regularly consulted (during the twelve-month period immediately prior to the relevant Change in Control) by the Company regarding federal income tax matters (the "Determining Firm"), and the Determining Firm shall determine the amount of such reduction, if any. Subject to Section 4.3(b) below, such determination shall be final and binding upon all parties. All costs of such determination shall be borne by the Company.

(b) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 4999 and 280G of the Code, it is possible that (i) the Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax should have been paid and was not (an "Overpayment"), (ii) an amount calculated under Section 4.3(b) as the Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax was paid but the Participant should not have received such amount because the total payments to which the Participant would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement (after taking into account federal and state income and excise taxes) would have been more than what such Participant received (an "Erroneous Amount"), or (iii) the amount paid as the Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax was less than the amount that was the actual Maximum Pre-Tax Amount Not Subject to Excise Tax (an "Underpayment"). If it can be determined based upon (a) a final determination of a court for which all appeals have been taken and finally resolved or the time for all appeals has expired, or (b) an Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") proceeding which has been finally and conclusively resolved, that an Overpayment has been made, such Overpayment shall be deemed for all purposes to be a loan to the Participant made on the date the Participant received the Overpayment and the Participant shall repay the Overpayment to the Company on demand, together with interest on the Overpayment at the applicable federal rate (as defined in Section 1274(d) of the Code) compounded semi-annually from the date of the loan until the date of such repayment; provided however, that no Overpayment shall be treated as a loan unless the IRS agrees to treat such amount as a loan for all tax purposes, including without limitation, the calculation of the excise tax under Code Section 4999. If it can be determined based upon (x) a final determination of a court for which all appeals have been taken and finally resolved or the time for all appeals has expired, (y) an IRS proceeding which has been finally and conclusively resolved, or (z) a redetermination by the Determining Firm or the Company, that an Erroneous Amount or Underpayment has occurred, the Company shall pay an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid and the amount that should have been paid to the Participant within ten (10) calendar days of such determination or resolution, together with interest on such amount at the applicable federal rate compounded semi-annually from the date such amount should have been paid to the Participant pursuant to the terms of this Plan until the date of payment.

4.4 WITHHOLDING AND PAYROLL TAXES. The Trustee shall withhold from any and all benefit payments made under this Article 4, all federal, state and local income, employment, excise and other taxes required to be withheld in connection with the payment of benefits hereunder, in amounts to be determined in the sole discretion of the Participant's Employer.

BENEFICIARY

5.1 BENEFICIARY. Each Participant shall have the right, at any time, to designate his or her Beneficiary (both primary as well as contingent) to receive any benefits payable under the Plan to a Beneficiary upon the death of a Participant.

5.2 BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION; CHANGE; SPOUSAL CONSENT. A Participant shall designate his or her Beneficiary by completing and signing the Beneficiary Designation Form, and returning it to the Committee or its designated agent. A Participant shall have the right to change a Beneficiary by completing, signing and otherwise complying with the terms of the Beneficiary Designation Form and the Committee's rules and procedures, as in effect from time to time.

If the Participant names someone other than his or her spouse as a Beneficiary, a spousal consent, in the form designated by the Committee, must be signed by that Participant's spouse and returned to the Committee. Upon the acceptance by the Committee of a new Beneficiary Designation Form, all Beneficiary designations previously filed shall be cancelled. The Committee shall be entitled to rely on the last Beneficiary Designation Form filed by the Participant and accepted by the Committee before his or her death.

5.3 ACKNOWLEDGMENT. No designation or change in designation of a Beneficiary shall be effective until received, accepted and acknowledged in writing by the Committee or its designated agent.

5.4 NO BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION. If a Participant fails to designate a Beneficiary as provided in Sections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3 above or, if all designated Beneficiaries predecease the Participant or die prior to complete distribution of the Participant's benefits, then the Participant's designated Beneficiary shall be deemed to be his or her surviving spouse. If the Participant has no surviving spouse, the benefits remaining under the Plan shall be paid to the Participant's issue upon the principle of representation, and if there is no such issue, to the executor or personal representative of the Participant's estate.

5.5 DOUBT AS TO BENEFICIARY. If the Committee has any doubt as to the proper Beneficiary to receive payments pursuant to this Plan, the Committee shall have the right, exercisable in its discretion, before a Change in Control, to cause the Trustee to withhold such payments until this matter is resolved to the Committee's satisfaction.

5.6 DISCHARGE OF OBLIGATIONS. The payment of benefits under the Plan to a Beneficiary shall fully and completely discharge all Employers and the Committee from all further obligations under this Plan with respect to the Participant, and that Participant's Plan Agreement shall terminate upon such full payment of benefits.

ARTICLE 6
TERMINATION, AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION OF THE PLAN

6.1 TERMINATION, AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION PRIOR TO ONE YEAR BEFORE CHANGE IN CONTROL. Prior to one year before a Change in Control, each Employer reserves the right to terminate, amend or modify the Plan or any related Plan Agreement, in whole or in part, with respect to Participants whose services are retained by that Employer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no termination, amendment or modification shall be effective to decrease or reduce a Participant's potential benefits under this Plan below the balance in his or her Participant's Account as of the effective date of the termination, amendment or modification, adjusted for investment gains and losses thereon.

6.2 TERMINATION, AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION WITHIN ONE YEAR BEFORE CHANGE IN CONTROL OR FOLLOWING CHANGE IN CONTROL. Within one year before a Change in Control and thereafter, neither the Parent, the Company, any subsidiary of the Parent or the Company nor any corporation, trust or other Person that succeeds to all or any substantial portion of the assets of the Parent or the Company shall have the right to terminate, amend or modify the Plan and/or any Plan Agreement in effect prior to such Change in Control, and all benefits under the Plan and any such Plan Agreement shall thereafter be paid in accordance with the terms of the Plan and such Plan Agreement, as in effect immediately prior to such Change in Control. If the Plan is terminated, amended, or modified within one year before the Change in Control, such termination, amendment or modification shall be considered void as of the date of the termination, amendment or modification. Any provision of this Plan or any Plan Agreement to the contrary shall be construed in accordance with this Section 6.2(a).

6.3 TERMINATION OF PLAN AGREEMENT. Absent the earlier termination, modification or amendment of the Plan, or a Participant's forfeiture of his or her benefits under this Plan, the Plan Agreement of any Participant shall terminate upon the full payment of the applicable benefit provided under Article 4.

OTHER BENEFITS AND AGREEMENTS

7.1 COORDINATION WITH OTHER BENEFITS. The benefits provided for a Participant and Participant's Beneficiary under the Plan are in addition to any other benefits available to such Participant under any other plan or program for employees. The Plan shall supplement and shall not supersede, modify or amend any other such plan or program except as may otherwise be expressly provided.

TRUST

8.1 ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TRUST; PREMIUMS. The Employers shall establish the Trust and shall at least annually transfer over to the Trust such assets as the Committee determines in its sole and absolute discretion. If directed by the Committee, the Employers shall pay any and all Policy premiums and other costs directly to the Insurer. In addition, if the Trust incurs any tax liability, the Employers shall contribute to the Trust sufficient funds to allow the Trustee to pay any such tax liability.

8.2 INTERRELATIONSHIP OF THE PLAN AND THE TRUST. The provisions of the Plan and each Plan Agreement shall govern the rights of a Participant to receive distributions pursuant to the Plan. The provisions of the Trust shall govern the rights of the Trustee, Participant and a Participant's Beneficiary as to the assets of the Trust. The Employers shall at all times remain liable to carry out their obligations under the Plan. The Employers and the Company shall cooperate with each other as is necessary to minimize the Trust's tax liability.

8.3 ACCOUNTS.

(a) The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following separate accounts:

(i) A "Participant's Account" for each Participant, to which the Employers' contributions, or a portion thereof, and earnings thereon shall be allocated, and the amount of such Participant's Account (which can be expressed in dollar terms or as an undivided percentage of the entire Trust corpus) shall be used to calculate the Retention Benefit or the Employer Benefit in accordance with this Plan and the Trust; and

(ii) An "Administrative Account" for the administrative expenses of the Trust to which a portion of the Employers' contributions and earnings thereon may be allocated to and held, the assets of which are to be used to pay the administrative expenses, including all taxes, of the Trust in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Plan and the Trust.

(iii) A "Employer Death Benefit Account" to which shall be allocated the amount described in this subsection. In the event of the death of an insured who is insured by a Policy, the excess of (a) the death benefit received from such Policy over (b) the cash surrender value of such Policy as of the date immediately preceding the death of the insured, shall be allocated to the Employer Death Benefit Account. Such amount shall be distributed as an Employer Benefit pursuant to Section 4.2(b).

(b) Prior to the date that is 90 days prior to a Change in Control, the Committee shall direct the Trustee in writing as to the allocation of the Employers' contributions, and earnings of the Trust, to the accounts described in Section 8.3(a)(i) & (ii) above as of the end of a calendar year quarter (March 31, June 30, September 30, December 31) as soon as practicable after the end of such calendar year quarter. After a Change in Control, the Trustee shall use the allocation set forth in the last quarterly statement received from the Committee prior to the date that is 90 days prior to a Change in Control, and shall allocate any change in the value of the assets in the Trust among the accounts based on the percentage interest in the assets of the Trust that each account had as of the date of such written statement, based on the fair market value of the assets in the Trust on the date of such written statement.

(c) Each of the accounts described in Section 8.3(a) above shall qualify for and be treated as separate shares under Code Section 663(c).

INSURANCE POLICIES

9.1 POLICIES. The Committee may direct the Trustee in writing to acquire one or more Policies in the Trustee's name. Such direction shall include the Insurer, type of contract and amount. The Trustee shall be the sole and absolute owner and beneficiary of each Policy, with all rights of an owner and beneficiary, including without limitation, the right to surrender Policies for their cash surrender values and to take one or more loans against one or more Policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee shall exercise its ownership rights in each Policy only in accordance with the terms of this Plan, the respective Plan Agreements and the Trust.

9.2 DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY INSURER. The Trustee, the Participant's Employer and the Participant shall sign such documents and provided such information as may be required from time to time by the Insurer.

ADMINISTRATION

10.1 COMMITTEE DUTIES. This Plan shall be administered by a Committee which shall consist of persons approved by the Board. Members of the Committee may be Participants under this Plan. The Committee shall also have the discretion and authority to direct the Trustee prior to a Change in Control with regard to any Plan matter, make, amend, interpret, and enforce all appropriate rules and regulations for the administration of this Plan and decide or resolve any and all questions including interpretations of this Plan, as may arise in connection with the Plan.

10.2 AGENTS. In the administration of this Plan, the Committee may, from time to time, employ agents and delegate to them such administrative duties as it sees fit and may from time to time consult with counsel who may be counsel to any Employer.

10.3 BINDING EFFECT OF DECISIONS. The decision or action of the Committee with respect to any question arising out of or in connection with the administration, interpretation and application of the Plan and the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder shall be final and conclusive and binding upon all persons having any interest in the Plan.

10.4 INDEMNITY OF COMMITTEE. All Employers shall indemnify and hold harmless the members of the Committee against any and all claims, losses, damages, expenses or liabilities arising from any action or failure to act with respect to this Plan, except in the case of willful misconduct by the Committee or any of its members.

10.5 EMPLOYER INFORMATION. To enable the Committee to perform its functions, each Employer shall supply full and timely information to the Committee on all matters relating to the compensation of its Participants, the date and circumstances of the Retirement, Disability, death or Termination of Employment of its Participants, and such other pertinent information as the Committee may reasonably require.

CLAIMS PROCEDURES

11.1 PRESENTATION OF CLAIM. Any Participant or Beneficiary of a deceased Participant (such Participant or Beneficiary being referred to below as a "Claimant") may deliver to the Committee a written claim for a determination with respect to the amounts distributable to such Claimant from the Plan. If such a claim relates to the contents of a notice received by the Claimant, the claim must be made within 60 days after such notice was received by the Claimant. All other claims must be made within 180 days of the date on which the event that caused the claim to arise occurred. The claim must state with particularity the determination desired by the Claimant.

11.2 NOTIFICATION OF DECISION. The Committee shall consider a Claimant's claim within 60 days of receipt of that claim, and shall notify the Claimant in writing:

(a) that the Claimant's requested determination has been made, and that the claim has been allowed in full; or

(b) that the Committee has reached a conclusion contrary, in whole or in part, to the Claimant's requested determination, and such notice must set forth in a manner calculated to be understood by the Claimant:

(i) the specific reason(s) for the denial of the claim, or any part of it;

(ii) the specific reference(s) to pertinent provisions of the Plan upon which such denial was based;

(iii) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the Claimant to perfect the claim, and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and

(iv) an explanation of the claim review procedure set forth in Section 11.3 below.

11.3 REVIEW OF A DENIED CLAIM. Within 60 days after receiving a notice from the Committee that a claim has been denied, in whole or in part, a Claimant (or the Claimant's duly authorized representative) may file with the Committee a written request for a review of the denial of the claim. Thereafter, but not later than 30 days after the review procedure began, the Claimant (or the Claimant's duly authorized representative):

(a) may review pertinent documents;

(b) may submit written comments or other documents; and/or

(c) may request a hearing, which the Committee, in its sole discretion, may grant.

11.4 DECISION ON REVIEW. The Committee shall render its decision on review promptly, and not later than 60 days after the filing of a written request for review of the denial, unless a hearing is held or other special circumstances require additional time, in which case the Committee's decision must be rendered within 120 days after such date. Such decision must be written in a manner calculated to be understood by the Claimant, and it must contain:

(a) specific reasons for the decision;

(b) specific reference(s) to the pertinent Plan provisions upon which the decision was based; and

(c) such other matters as the Committee deems relevant.

11.5 LEGAL ACTION. A Claimant's compliance with the foregoing provisions of this Article 11 is a mandatory prerequisite to a Claimant's right to commence any arbitration under Section 11.6 with respect to any claim for benefits under this Plan.

11.6 ARBITRATION. Any claim or controversy between the parties which the parties are unable to resolve themselves, including any claim arising out of a Participant's employment or the termination of that employment, and including any claim arising out of, connected with, or related to the formation, interpretation, performance or breach of any provision of this Plan, and any claim or dispute as to whether a claim is subject to arbitration, shall be submitted to and resolved exclusively by expedited arbitration by a single arbitrator in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) In the event of a claim or controversy subject to this arbitration provision, the complaining party shall promptly send written notice to the other party identifying the matter in dispute and the proposed remedy. Following the giving of such notice, the parties shall meet and attempt in good faith to resolve the matter. In the event the parties are unable to resolve the matter within 21 days, the parties shall meet and attempt in good faith to select a single arbitrator acceptable to both parties. If a single arbitrator is not selected by mutual consent within 10 business days following the giving of the written notice of dispute, an arbitrator shall be selected from a list of nine persons each of whom shall be an attorney who is either engaged in the active practice of law or a recognized arbitrator and who, in either event, is experienced in serving as an arbitrator in disputes between employers and employees, which list shall be provided by the main Los Angeles office of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. If, within three business days of the parties' receipt of such list, the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator from the list, then the parties shall each strike names alternatively from the list, with the first to strike being determined by the flip of a coin. After each party has had four strikes, the remaining name on the list shall be the arbitrator. If such person is unable to serve for any reason, the parties shall repeat this process until an arbitrator is selected.

(b) Unless the parties agree otherwise, within 60 days of the selection of the arbitrator, a hearing shall be conducted before such arbitrator at a time and a place in Los Angeles County agreed upon by the parties. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon the time or place of the arbitration, the time and place within Los Angeles County shall be designated by the arbitrator after consultation with the parties. Within 30 days of the conclusion of the arbitration hearing, the arbitrator shall issue an award, accompanied by a written decision explaining the basis for the arbitrator's award.

(c) In any arbitration hereunder, the Company shall pay all administrative fees of the arbitration and all fees of the arbitrator, except that the Participant or Beneficiary may, if he wishes, pay up to one-half of those amounts. Each party shall pay its own attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, unless the arbitrator orders otherwise. The prevailing party in such arbitration, as determined by the arbitrator, and in any enforcement or other court proceedings, shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to reimbursement from the other party for all of the prevailing party's costs (including but not limited to the arbitrator's compensation), expenses, and attorneys' fees. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to or to modify this Plan, shall apply all applicable law, and shall have no lesser and no greater remedial authority than would a court of law resolving the same claim or controversy. The arbitrator shall, upon an appropriate motion, dismiss any claim without an evidentiary hearing if the party bringing the motion establishes that it would be entitled to summary judgement if the matter had been pursued in court litigation. The parties shall be entitled to reasonable discovery subject to the discretion of the arbitrator.

(d) The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding, and non-appealable, and may be enforced as a final judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) This arbitration provision of the Plan shall extend to claims against any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of each party, and, when acting within such capacity, any officer, director, shareholder, Participant, Beneficiary, or agent of each party, or of any of the above, and shall apply as well to claims arising out of state and federal statutes and local ordinances as well as to claims arising under the common law or under this Plan.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, and unless otherwise agreed between the parties, either party may, in an appropriate matter, apply to a court for provisional relief, including a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, on the ground that the arbitration award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without provisional relief.

(g) Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in accordance with the employment rules and procedures of the AAA then in effect; provided, however, that, in the event of any inconsistency between the rules and procedures of the AAA and the terms of this Plan, the terms of this Plan shall prevail.

(h) If any of the provisions of this Section 11.6 are determined to be unlawful or otherwise unenforceable, in whole or in part, such determination shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Section 11.6, and this Section 11.6 shall be reformed to the extent necessary to carry out its provisions to the greatest extent possible and to insure that the resolution of all conflicts between the parties, including those arising out of statutory claims, shall be resolved by neutral, binding arbitration. If a court should find that the provisions of this Section 11.6 are not absolutely binding, then the parties intend any arbitration decision and award to be fully admissible in evidence in any subsequent action, given great weight by any finder of fact, and treated as determinative to the maximum extent permitted by law.

MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 UNSECURED GENERAL CREDITOR. Participants and their Beneficiaries, heirs, successors and assigns shall have no legal or equitable rights, interest or claims in any property or assets of an Employer. Any and all of an Employer's assets shall be, and remain, the general, unpledged and unrestricted assets of the Employer. An Employer's obligation under the Plan shall be merely that of an unfunded and unsecured promise to pay money in the future.

12.2 EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY. An Employer's liability for the payment of benefits shall be defined only by the Plan and the Plan Agreement, as entered into between the Employer and a Participant. An Employer shall have no obligation to a Participant under the Plan except as expressly provided in the Plan and his or her Plan Agreement.

12.3 NONASSIGNABILITY. Neither a Participant nor any other person shall have any right to commute, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, anticipate, mortgage or otherwise encumber, transfer, hypothecate or convey in advance of actual receipt, the amounts, if any, payable hereunder, or any part thereof, which are, and all rights to which are expressly declared to be unassignable and non-transferable, except that the foregoing shall not apply to any family support obligations set forth in a court order. No part of the amounts payable shall, prior to actual payment, be subject to seizure or sequestration for the payment of any debts, judgments, alimony or separate maintenance owed by a Participant or any other person, nor be transferable by operation of law in the event of a Participant's or any other person's bankruptcy or insolvency.

12.4 NOT A CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT. The terms and conditions of this Plan shall not be deemed to constitute a contract of employment between any Employer and the Participant. Such employment is hereby acknowledged to be an "at will" employment relationship that can be terminated at any time for any reason, with or without cause, unless expressly provided in a written employment agreement. Nothing in this Plan shall be deemed to give a Participant the right to be employed in the service of any Employer, or to interfere with the right of any Employer to discipline or discharge the Participant at any time.

12.5 FURNISHING INFORMATION. A Participant will cooperate with the Committee by furnishing any and all information requested by the Committee and take such other actions as may be requested in order to facilitate the administration of the Plan and the payments of benefits hereunder, including but not limited to taking such physical examinations as the Committee may deem necessary.

12.6 TERMS. Whenever any words are used herein in the singular or in the plural, they shall be construed as though they were used in the plural or the singular, as the case may be, in all cases where they would so apply.

12.7 CAPTIONS. The captions of the articles, sections and paragraphs of this Plan are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any of its provisions.

12.8 GOVERNING LAW. The provisions of this Plan shall be construed and interpreted according to the laws of the State of California, without regard to principles of conflict of laws.

12.9 VALIDITY. In case any provision of this Plan shall be illegal or invalid for any reason, said illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts hereof, but this Plan shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal and invalid provision had never been inserted herein.

12.10 NOTICE. Any notice or filing required or permitted to be given to the Committee under this Plan shall be sufficient if in writing and hand-delivered, or sent by registered or certified mail, to the address below:

Herbalife International, Inc.
Post Office Box 80210
Los Angeles, CA 90080-0210
Attention: Senior Vice President, Human Resources

Such notice shall be deemed given as of the date of delivery or, if delivery is made by mail, as of the date shown on the postmark on the receipt for registration or certification.

Any notice or filing required or permitted to be given to a Participant under this Plan shall be sufficient if in writing and hand-delivered, or sent by mail, to the last known address of the Participant.

12.11 SUCCESSORS. The provisions of this Plan shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Participant’s Employer and its successors and assigns and the Participant, the Participant’s Beneficiaries, and their permitted successors and assigns.

12.12 SPOUSE’S INTEREST. The interest in the benefits hereunder of a spouse of a Participant who has predeceased the Participant shall automatically pass to the Participant and shall not be transferable by such spouse in any manner, including but not limited to such spouse’s will, nor shall such interest pass under the laws of intestate succession.

12.13 INCOMPETENT. If the Committee determines in its discretion that a benefit under this Plan is to be paid to a minor, a person declared incompetent or to a person incapable of handling the disposition of that person’s property, the Committee may direct payment of such benefit to the guardian, legal representative or person having the care and custody of such minor, incompetent or incapable person. The Committee may require proof of minority, incompetency, incapacity or guardianship, as it may deem appropriate prior to distribution of the benefit. Any payment of a benefit shall be a payment for the account of the Participant and the Participant’s Beneficiary, as the case may be, and shall be a complete discharge of any liability under the Plan for such payment amount.

12.14 DISTRIBUTION IN THE EVENT OF TAXATION. If, for any reason, all or any portion of a Participant’s benefit under this Plan becomes taxable to the Participant prior to the Forfeiture Lapse Date, a Participant may petition the Committee, if prior to a Change in Control, or the Trustee, after a Change in Control, for a distribution of assets sufficient to meet the Participant’s tax liability (including additions to tax, penalties and interest). Upon the grant of such a petition, which grant shall not be unreasonably withheld, the Trustee shall distribute to the Participant from the Trust immediately available funds in an amount equal to that Participant’s federal, state and local tax liability associated with such taxation, which liability shall be measured by using that Participant’s then current highest federal, state and local marginal tax rate, plus the rates or amounts for the applicable additions to tax, penalties and interest. If the petition is granted, the tax liability distribution shall be made within 90 days of the date when the Participant’s petition is granted.

12.15 LEGAL FEES TO ENFORCE RIGHTS AFTER CHANGE IN CONTROL. The Parent and the Company are aware that upon the occurrence of a Change in Control, the Board (which might then be composed of new members) or a shareholder of the Parent or the Company, or of any successor corporation might then cause or attempt to cause the Parent or the Company or such successor to refuse to comply with its obligations under the Plan and might cause or attempt to cause the Parent or the Company to institute, or may institute, arbitration or litigation seeking to deny Participants the benefits intended under the Plan. In these circumstances, the purpose of the Plan could be frustrated. Accordingly, if, following a Change in Control, it should appear to any Participant that the Parent, the Company or the Committee has failed to comply with any of its obligations under the Plan or any agreement thereunder or, if the Parent, the Company or any other person takes any action to declare the Plan or the Trust void or unenforceable or institutes any arbitration, litigation or other legal action designed to deny, diminish or to recover from any Participant or Beneficiary the benefits intended to be provided, including without limitation the assets in the Trust, then the Parent and the Company irrevocably authorize such person to retain counsel of his or her choice at the expense of the Parent and the Company to represent such person in connection with the initiation or defense of any arbitration, litigation or other legal action, whether by or against the Parent, the Company, the Committee, or any director, officer, shareholder or other person affiliated with the Parent, the Company or any successor thereto in any jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parent and the Company have signed this Plan document as of March 15, 2001.

R E C I T A L S

A. Whereas Sandler is employed as Executive Vice President, Corporate Secretary and General Counsel of Herbalife.

B. Whereas Sandler and Herbalife have agreed that Sandler will resign his employment with Herbalife.

C. Whereas Sandler and Herbalife wish their relationship to end amicably.

D. Whereas Sandler and Herbalife are parties to an Employment Agreement dated August 20, 2000 ("Employment Agreement").

E. Whereas Sandler is an "Eligible Employee" pursuant to the Herbalife Senior Executive Change in Control Plan ("Plan").

F. Whereas the parties have agreed that any of Herbalife's obligations to pay or provide to Sandler compensation, benefits or any other consideration under the Employment Agreement and/or the Plan will be satisfied by a lump sum payment to Sandler pursuant to this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, Sandler and Herbalife incorporate the foregoing recitals as part of this Agreement, and further agree and promise as follows:

A. Consideration.

1. Sandler's employment with Herbalife will terminate effective May 19, 2002 ("the Termination Date"). Sandler's compensation, benefits and perquisites of employment will cease as of the Termination Date.

2. Sandler shall be paid severance in the amount of Two Million, Six-Hundred and Twenty-Two Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($2,622,500.00) ("Severance") in a lump sum, less applicable withholdings, within ten days after execution of this Agreement without prior revocation of the Agreement by Sandler pursuant to paragraph 26 of this Agreement.

3. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, Sandler's Stock Options will vest and be exercisable in accordance with Sandler's August 20, 2000 Employment Agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit "A"). Sandler and the Company represent and agree that the number and strike price of vested and unvested stock options Sandler holds are currently set forth in the attached schedule, which is made a part of this Agreement as Exhibit "B."

(b) Herbalife will provide safe transport of artwork, and other personal property owned by Sandler currently located at Herbalife, to be delivered to Sandler's personal residence or an alternative local location designated by Sandler, at no expense to Sandler.

4. The release set forth at paragraph 24(a) herein is not a waiver of Sandler's rights to payments of monies to which he is entitled by virtue of the Company's Senior Executive Reimbursement Plan ("SERP"), Deferred Compensation Plan, 401K Plan or paid vacation policy. These monies will be paid to Sandler in accordance with the Company's SERP, Deferred Compensation and 401K plan documents, Company policy, and the law.

reimbursement plans and policies, and Herbalife's vacation plan. Although Sandler expressly waives all rights or claims with respect to compensation, remuneration, payments or consideration due to him now or in the future under his Employment Agreement, Sandler's obligations under the Employment Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, including, but not limited to Sandler's obligations pursuant to paragraph 6, subparts (a) - (c) of the Employment Agreement, which provisions are incorporated herein by reference.

B. Confidentiality.

8. Sandler agrees not to disclose or misappropriate any and all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information of Herbalife (collectively "Protected Information"). Protected Information means all information pertaining in any manner to the business of Herbalife and its employees, distributors, suppliers, vendors, customers, manufacturers, sales representatives, consultants, lawyers, accountants, and business associates. This definition includes, but is not limited to: (i) information about costs, profits, markets, sales, financial and marketing data and bids; (ii) plans for business, marketing, future development and new product concepts; (iii) employee personnel files and information about employee compensation and benefits; (iv) identity of and other business information relating to Herbalife's customers and/or distributors, past, present or future, together with each such customer's or distributor's habits or needs; (v) identity of and other business information relating to Herbalife's past, present or future vendors, manufacturers and suppliers; and (vi) design drawings and computer programs.

9. Sandler agrees to return to Herbalife by the Termination Date, any and all Company documents, books, manuals, drawings, lists, writings, computer records and other tangible Company property in his possession or control, including, but not limited to the Herbalife pass key in his possession (including all copies thereof) which he procured during or in connection with his employment with Herbalife.

10. For and in consideration for Herbalife's commitments, Sandler agrees and promises not to disclose the substance, contents, amounts or terms of this Agreement, except to Sandler's legal, tax or financial advisors, or pursuant to legal court process or federal or state tax authorities or other agencies. In the event Sandler reveals any terms of this Agreement as permitted in this Paragraph 10, said person or persons to whom such information is disclosed shall be instructed and must agree that this is a private Agreement and that the terms of this Agreement may not be revealed to any other person for any reason whatsoever. Sandler acknowledges that his promises of confidentiality, as set forth herein, are material and essential consideration for Herbalife's promises and agreements herein.

11. Sandler agrees not to disparage Herbalife, its officers, directors, distributors, or its products.

12. Herbalife agrees not to disparage Sandler.

13. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Parties from: (a) disclosing information or documents in response to legal process, including but not limited to production in response to any subpoena or in response to a discovery request issued in any administrative or legal proceeding in which one of the Parties is a party; (b) responding truthfully to any inquiry initiated by a government agency or entity; (c) disclosing information in proceedings to enforce the terms of this Agreement; (d) disclosing information necessary to prosecute or defend actions in which one of the Parties is a named party; or (e) testifying truthfully or providing truthful information under oath in any legal, administrative or other proceeding.

14. Sandler's obligations set forth in paragraphs 8 through 13 of this Agreement are in addition to, and in no way change, reduce or otherwise limit Sandler's obligations under the Employment Agreement, including, but not limited to, Sandler's obligations under paragraph 5, subparts (a) through (d) of the Employment Agreement, which provisions are incorporated herein by reference.

C. Further Agreements and Representations.

15. Sandler represents and warrants that he has not filed or initiated any claim, action, charge, complaint or suit of any kind against Herbalife or any Employer Released Party (as that term is defined in Paragraph 24 herein), and Sandler further agrees that he will not file or initiate any claim, action, charge, complaint or suit of any kind against any Employer Released Party. Sandler agrees that he will not assist, encourage, or cooperate with any other person or entity in instituting, prosecuting or obtaining any subpoena, document request, inquiry or investigation regarding Herbalife, or in making or asserting any claim or action against Herbalife, and Sandler further agrees that he will not assist, encourage, permit or authorize any other person or entity to institute a claim or action on his behalf or as part of a class action against Herbalife, or any Employer Released Party.

16. Any dispute regarding any aspect of this Agreement ("arbitrable dispute"), shall be submitted to arbitration in Los Angeles, California, before an experienced arbitrator licensed to practice law in California and selected in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. This shall be the exclusive remedy for any such claim or dispute, and Herbalife shall pay all administrative and arbitrator's costs and fees associated with any such arbitration proceeding. Any such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with California law regarding arbitration of employment claims. All substantive and procedural law will apply in the arbitration as if the parties were in Court. The arbitrator will provide a written decision, sufficiently detailed to be reviewed by a Court of law. This provision is an explicit waiver of any right to a trial by jury.

17. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

18. Should any provision of this Agreement or any portion thereof, be declared or be determined by any court to be illegal or invalid, the validity of the remaining parts, terms or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal or invalid part, term or provision shall be automatically conformed to the law, if possible, or deemed not to be part of the Agreement.

19. The Parties to this Agreement acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement voluntarily, without coercion and based upon their judgment and not in reliance upon any representation or promises made by the other party other than those contained therein. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof and shall be deemed a fully integrated agreement, which recites the sole consideration for the promises exchanged herein. The Parties have read this Agreement, and any provisions incorporated herein by reference, and are fully aware of their contents and their legal effect and acknowledge that all promises, waivers and agreements herein are knowing and voluntary. The Parties also acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to consult and have consulted with counsel with regard to the Agreement.

20. If any action is brought to enforce or interpret any provision of the Agreement or the rights or obligations of any party hereunder, to the extent not prohibited by California law, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover, as an element of such party's costs of suit, and not as damages, all attorneys', accountants and other expert fees and costs incurred or sustained by such prevailing party in connection with such action, including, without limitation, legal fees and costs. The "prevailing party" shall be defined as the party who is entitled to recover his/its costs of suit.

21. The Parties hereby agree to make, execute and deliver such other instruments or documents, and to do or cause to be done such further or additional acts, as reasonably may be necessary to effectuate the purposes or to implement the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement may not be modified or cancelled, nor may any provision with respect to it be waived, except in a writing signed by the Parties.

22. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

23. If Sandler materially breaches this Agreement, to the extent that consideration or monies otherwise payable to Sandler pursuant to this Agreement have not yet been paid to Sandler, Sandler forfeits his rights to such payments.

24. (a) For and in consideration of the promises and commitments set forth herein, Sandler on behalf of himself, his descendants, ancestors, dependents, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and successors, covenants not to sue, and fully and forever releases and discharges Herbalife and its and their parent(s), affiliates, successors, divisions, assigns, distributors, subsidiaries, and the estate of Mark Hughes and/or the Mark Hughes Family Trust, together with its or their past and present directors, officers, agents, representatives, consultants, insurers, attorneys, current and previous employees, and stockholders (collectively, “Employer Released Parties”), from all claims, liabilities, demands, rights, liens, agreements, contracts, covenants, actions, suits, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, judgments, orders, liabilities and causes of action known or unknown, which he may have or claim to have against the Employer Released Parties prior to the date of execution of this Release Agreement, including but not limited to any and all rights and claims arising out of Sandler’s employment or termination of employment with Herbalife, or any other transactions, occurrences, acts or omissions or any loss, damage or injury whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, resulting from any act or omission by or on the part of the Employer Released Parties, committed or omitted prior to the date of the Agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all rights and claims whether based on tort, contract (implied or express) or any federal, state or local law, statute or regulation (collectively, the “Released Claims”). By way of example, and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Released Claims shall include any claims based upon or related to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VII, as amended, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the California Family Rights Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (“WARN”), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”), the California State or United States Constitutions, the California Labor, and Civil or Business and Professions Codes, any and all tort claims, including, but not limited to, negligence, retaliation, violation of public policy, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, invasion of privacy or defamation. Except to the extent expressly incorporated within this Agreement, Sandler also explicitly acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement releases and waives any rights or claims he may have pursuant to any other Herbalife plan, agreement or policy, including, but not limited to, all agreements, plans, policies and other arrangements provided by Herbalife or any of its subsidiaries or trusts sponsored, established or maintained by any of such entities, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement dated August 20, 2000, the Senior Executive Change of Control Plan, the 1994 Performance-Based Annual Incentive Compensation Plan, the 1992 Executive Incentive Compensation Plan, the 1991 Stock Option Plan, the Management Deferred Compensation Plan and related trust(s), the Senior Executive Compensation Plan and related trust(s), the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and related trust(s), the Executive Medical Plan and all other health insurance and benefit plans, the Executive Long-Term Disability Plan, the Executive Life Insurance Plan, Herbalife’s expense reimbursement plans and policies, and Herbalife’s vacation plan. Although Sandler expressly waives all rights or claims with respect to compensation, remuneration, payments or consideration under his August 20, 2002 Employment Agreement, in all other respects that agreement shall remain in effect.

(b) For and in consideration of Sandler’s commitments and promises, Herbalife, on behalf of itself, its parent and subsidiary corporations, and its affiliates, shareholders, officers, employees, successors and assigns (collectively, Herbalife), covenants not to sue as to any claims released by this Agreement and fully and forever releases and discharges Sandler and his heirs, successors, assigns, representatives and estate (collectively, the “Sandler Releasees”), from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, rights, liens, agreements, contracts, covenants, actions, suits, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, judgments, orders, liabilities, and causes of action, known or unknown, which Herbalife may have or claim to have against the Sandler Releasees prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including but not limited to any and all rights and claims arising out of Sandler’s employment or termination of employment with Herbalife, or any other transactions, occurrences, acts or omissions or any loss, damage or injury whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, resulting from any act or omission by or on the part of the Sandler Releasees, committed or omitted prior to the date of the Agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all rights and claims whether based on tort, contract (implied or express) or any federal, state or local law, statute or regulation (collectively, the “Released Claims”).

25. Except for the obligations created by or arising from this Agreement, the Parties understand that this is a full and final release covering all unknown and unanticipated injuries, debts, claims, or damages to either party, which may have arisen or may arise in connection with any act or omission by either party released herein prior to the date of execution of this Agreement. For that reason, the parties waive any and all rights or benefits which they may have pursuant to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

26. Age Discrimination Claims. Sandler understands and agrees that: (i) certain terms of this Agreement constitute a waiver of any rights or claims he might have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. Sections 612-634; (ii) he has received consideration beyond that to which he was previously entitled; (iii) he has been advised to consult with an attorney regarding the terms of this Agreement which constitute a waiver of Age Discrimination in Employment Act claims; (iv) he has been offered the opportunity to evaluate the terms of his waiver of claims under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act for not less than twenty-one (21) days; and (v) he may revoke this Agreement by written notice to Herbalife’s Chief Executive Officer for a period of seven (7) days after his execution of this Agreement. This Agreement shall become enforceable only upon the expiration of this revocation period without prior revocation by Sandler.

27. This Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not in favor of or against any party. By way of example and not in limitation, this Agreement shall not be construed in favor of the party receiving a benefit nor against the party responsible for any particular language in this Agreement.

CLARIFICATION RE PARAGRAPH 3(a) OF SEPARATION AND GENERAL RELEASE AGREEMENT

This will clarify the intention of the parties regarding paragraph 3(a) of the Separation and General Release Agreement, and shall be attached to and become a part of that Agreement. Herbalife's 1991 Stock Option Plan allowed for the exercise of vested options for a period of thirty (30) days following employment termination. Herbalife's Amended and Restated 1991 Stock Option Plan extended the period for exercising vested options from thirty (30) to ninety (90) days following termination of employment. The Agreement between the parties is silent on this issue, and will therefore be clarified as follows:

3(a) (i) Vested Options. The Parties acknowledge that, pursuant to the existing terms of Herbalife's stock option plan and the stock option agreements between Sandler and Herbalife (collectively, the "Stock Option Materials"), Sandler was/is permitted to exercise stock options that were vested ("Vested Options") as of May 19, 2002 (the "Termination Date") not later than ninety (90) days following the Termination Date, subject to applicable law and any additional requirements set forth in the Stock Option Materials. Nothing in the Separation Agreement and General Release was or is intended to, or does, change or modify such provision(s).

(ii) Unvested Options. Herbalife agrees that stock options held by Sandler that were not vested as of the Termination Date ("Unvested Options") shall continue to be outstanding through and including September 19, 2003 (the "Option Termination Date"). To the extent that the vesting of stock options granted by Herbalife to its employees is accelerated for employees generally in connection with a change of control transaction that occurs on or before the Option Termination Date, then the Unvested Options will be afforded the same acceleration treatment as is provided to stock options held by employees generally.

EXHIBIT 10.10

AGREEMENT FOR RETENTION OF LEGAL SERVICES

This AGREEMENT FOR RETENTION OF LEGAL SERVICES (the "Agreement") is entered into as of May 20, 2002 by and between Herbalife International of America, Inc./Herbalife International, Inc. ("Herbalife") and Robert A. Sandler ("Sandler"). Herbalife and Sandler will sometimes be referred to herein as the "Parties."

RECITALS

A. Sandler was employed by Herbalife as General Counsel, Corporate Secretary and Executive Vice President.

B. The Parties wish to enter into this Agreement for purposes of Sandler providing, and Herbalife obtaining from Sandler legal advice and services on an as needed basis.

C. Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, Herbalife and Sandler are also entering into a Separation Agreement and General Release. Sandler's execution of the Separation Agreement and General Release is a condition precedent to any obligation of Herbalife under this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, Herbalife and Sandler incorporate the foregoing recitals as part of this Agreement and further agree as follows:

1. Retention as Attorney. Herbalife hereby retains Sandler as an independent contractor for a thirty-six (36) month period beginning May 20, 2002 provided that the Agreement may be terminated prior to the end of such period as provided in Section 6, below. It is understood and agreed that as of May 19, 2002 (the "Termination Date"), Sandler will no longer be an employee of Herbalife for any purpose or on any basis. After the Termination Date, Sandler is to be compensated only according to the terms of this Agreement and is not eligible for, and will not receive or accrue, any employment benefits, such as sick pay, vacation pay, holidays, health, life, dental, or accident insurance, retirement benefits, or any other benefit which is now, or may become available to employees of Herbalife. Herbalife is not responsible for, and will not withhold, any federal, state, or local taxes, workers' compensation contributions, unemployment insurance contributions, or other payroll deductions from Sandler's compensation as provided hereunder. Sandler is solely responsible for such matters. Sandler is not entitled to any rights, benefits, or protections conferred by Herbalife's personnel practices or procedures on its employees.

2. Legal Services. Sandler shall provide Herbalife with legal advice and perform such legal services as Herbalife may from time to time request. Sandler shall be available to perform legal services on behalf of Herbalife for a maximum of fifty (50) hours per month ("maximum hours"). Sandler shall not be entitled to any fees for any time spent performing legal services in excess of the maximum hours, without prior written consent by Herbalife, nor shall Sandler be required to spend time in excess of the maximum hours performing legal services, without prior written consent by Sandler. Sandler shall be required to maintain records of the time he spends performing legal services for Herbalife.

3. Performance of Legal Services. The nature of the legal services to be performed shall be at the discretion of Herbalife, and the time and place of performance of such services shall be as mutually agreed by Herbalife and Sandler. In the performance of legal services for Herbalife, Sandler shall owe Herbalife all duties and obligations of an attorney to his client, including fiduciary duties, a duty to maintain the attorney-client privilege, and a duty to act only in the best interests of Herbalife.

4. Consideration. In consideration of the legal services to be provided by Sandler hereunder, Herbalife agrees to pay Sandler a consulting fee of One Million, Eight Thousand Dollars ($1,008,000.00) payable in equal monthly installments of Twenty Eight Thousand Dollars ($28,000.00) on the 15th day of each of thirty-six (36) months following Sandler's Termination Date, with the first such payment to be made on June 15, 2002.

5. Expenses. Sandler's reasonable, documented expenses incurred in connection with the performance of legal services hereunder will be paid by Herbalife, provided that Sandler must first obtain from Herbalife written approval of such expenses. Herbalife shall not be liable for payment or reimbursement of expenses for which Sandler does not obtain preapproval.

6. Termination. This Agreement shall be subject to termination as follows:

(a) Sandler may terminate this Agreement at any time upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Herbalife;

(b) Herbalife may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause and with or without advance notice; provided that in the event Sandler is not terminated for cause (as defined below), Herbalife shall pay Sandler the amounts provided for in Section 8. Herbalife's right to terminate this Agreement shall be governed solely by the terms of this Agreement and may not be modified by any other express or implied practices, policies or agreements. "Cause," for purposes of this Agreement, shall mean (i) the willful and continued failure by Sandler to substantially perform his duties with Herbalife (other than any such failure resulting from his incapacity due to death or physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to Sandler that specifically identifies the manner in which Herbalife believes that Sandler has not substantially performed his duties and Sandler's failure to substantially cure such failure to perform within thirty (30) days of such notice, (ii) the willful engaging by Sandler in misconduct which is injurious to Herbalife, monetarily or otherwise, including, but not limited to, Sandler's failure to abide by his obligations as an attorney acting on behalf of his client, Herbalife or, (iii) Sandler's final conviction for fraud or of any felony involving moral turpitude;

7. Rights Upon Sandler's Death or Disability, or Termination of the Agreement by Sandler or the Company for Cause. Upon termination of this Agreement by reason of (a) Sandler's termination of the Agreement, (b) Sandler's death or disability, or (c) for cause, Sandler shall be entitled to receive only the amount of any accrued but unpaid monthly fees under this Agreement as of the date of the termination of this Agreement and Herbalife shall have no further obligation to Sandler.

8. Rights Upon Termination by Company other than for Cause. In the event Herbalife terminates this Agreement both (a) prior to the date thirty-six (36) months after the Termination Date, and (b) other than for cause, disability or death, Sandler shall receive a sum equal to the amount he would have otherwise been entitled to receive under Section 4 of this Agreement from the date of such termination of this Agreement to the date thirty-six (36) months after the Termination Date. Such amount shall be paid to Sandler in one lump sum within thirty (30) days of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this paragraph 8.

9. Confidentiality. Sandler agrees not to disclose or misappropriate any and all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information of Herbalife (collectively "Protected Information"). Protected Information means all information pertaining in any manner to the business of Herbalife and its employees, distributors, suppliers, vendors, customers, manufacturers, sales representatives, consultants, lawyers, accountants, and business associates. This definition includes, but is not limited to: (i) information about costs, profits, markets, sales, financial and marketing data and bids; (ii) plans for business, marketing, future development and new product concepts; (iii) employee personnel files and information about employee compensation and benefits; (iv) identity of and other business information relating to Herbalife's customers and/or distributors, past, present or future, together with each such customer's or distributor's habits or needs; (v) identity of and other business information relating to Herbalife's past, present or future vendors, manufacturers and suppliers; and (vi) design drawings and computer programs.

10. Ethical Obligations. Because Sandler will be providing legal advice and services to Herbalife, and in that capacity will be privy to highly confidential and privileged information, and because during the period of this Agreement Sandler will owe all duties of an attorney to a client with regard to the work conducted by Sandler on behalf of Herbalife, during the period of this Agreement, Sandler shall not engage in any activity competitive with Herbalife, or in any other manner act to the detriment of Herbalife or Herbalife's business interests, management or owner(s).

11. Additional Instruments. The parties hereto shall execute any further or additional instruments and they will perform any acts which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate in order to effectuate and carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

12. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which may be executed by one or more of the parties hereto, with the same force and effect as though all the parties who executed such counterparts had executed but one instrument, and each counterpart shall be deemed a duplicate original. 13. Modification and Amendments. No provision of this Agreement may be modified or amended except by a writing executed by the party sought to be charged with such modification or amendment.

14. Notices. All notices and communications pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered in person or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid:

To Herbalife:	Herbalife International of America, Inc. 1800 Century Park East, 14th Floor Los Angeles, California 90067 Attention: Timothy Swenney
To Sandler:	Robert A. Sandler 222 North Canon Drive Beverly Hills, CA 90210
With Copies to:	Marcus A. Torrano, Esq. Morrison & Foerster LLP 555 West Fifth Street, Suite 3500 Los Angeles, California 90013-1024

or to such other address as any party may, from time to time, designate by written notice hereunder. If delivered in person, such notice shall be effective immediately; if mailed, such notice shall be effective seventy-two (72) hours after deposit, postage prepaid, in the United States Postal Service mail.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes and embodies the full and complete understanding and agreement of the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior understandings or agreements, whether oral or in writing, between the parties hereto or their predecessors.

16. Severability.

16.1 Severable. The provisions of this Agreement are severable and, in the event that any provision hereof shall be found by any court to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remainder of this Agreement shall nonetheless remain enforceable and binding upon Herbalife and Sandler.

16.2 Enforcement. To the extent that any provision hereof is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited and/or length of time, but could be enforceable by reducing the scope of area, business activity prohibited or length of time, Sandler and Herbalife agree that same shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought, and that Herbalife shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to modify such invalid or unenforceable provision to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. Sandler agrees to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking or modifying any of the provisions hereof.

17. Assignment. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Sandler and Herbalife and their respective successors and heirs. Neither party may assign any rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other party. Any attempted assignment in contravention of this Section shall be null and void and of no effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement the date first written above.

None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or the Subsidiaries has received any notice of infringement of or conflict with (and neither knows of any such infringement or a conflict with) asserted rights of others with respect to any of the foregoing that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries, the use of the Intellectual Property in connection with the business and operations of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries does not infringe on the rights of any person, except for such infringement as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xxiii) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, all Tax returns required to be filed by Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and each Specified Subsidiary have been filed and all such returns are true, complete, and correct in all material respects, except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, all Taxes due or claimed to be due from Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and each Specified Subsidiary have been paid, other than those (i) currently payable without penalty or interest or (ii) being contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and for which, in the case of both clauses (i) and (ii), adequate reserves have been established on the books and records of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and each Specified Subsidiary in accordance with GAAP. To the knowledge of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Specified Subsidiaries, there are no proposed, material tax assessments against any of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or the Specified Subsidiaries. The accruals and reserves on the books and records of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and each Specified Subsidiary, in respect of any material Tax liability for any taxable period not finally determined have been made and established in accordance with GAAP. For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Tax” and “Taxes” shall mean all Federal, state, local, and foreign taxes, and other assessments of a similar nature (whether imposed directly or through withholding), including any interest, additions to tax, or penalties applicable thereto.

(xxiv) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, none of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary has any liability for any prohibited transaction (within the meaning of Section 4975 of the Code) which could have a Material Adverse Effect, accumulated funding deficiency (within the meaning of Section 412 of the Code) or any complete or partial withdrawal liability with respect to any pension, profit sharing or other plan which is subject to Title IV of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), to which Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary makes or ever has made a contribution and in which any employee of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary is or has ever been a Sponsor. With respect to such plans, there has been no failure by Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary to comply with any applicable provisions of ERISA, which failure could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xxv) None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary is an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" incorporated in the United States within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; and, after giving effect to the offering and sale of the Notes, none of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary will be required to register as an investment company.

(xxvi) Each of the Company and its subsidiaries maintains a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that: (A) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorizations; (B) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of their financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and to maintain accountability for assets; (C) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization; and (D) the recorded accountability for their assets is compared with the existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences.

(xxvii) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, each of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries maintain insurance covering their properties, assets, operations personnel and businesses, and such insurance is of such type and in such amounts in accordance with customary industry practice to protect Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries and their businesses.

(xxviii) None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates (as defined in Rule 501(b) of Regulation D under the Act) has (A) taken, directly or indirectly, any action designed to, or that might reasonably be expected to, cause or result in stabilization or manipulation of the price of any security of Issuer or the Company to facilitate the sale or resale of the Original Notes or (B) sold, bid for, purchased or paid any person any compensation for soliciting purchases of the Original Notes in a manner that would require registration of the Original Notes under the Act or paid or agreed to pay to any person any compensation for soliciting another to purchase any other securities of the Issuer or the Company in a manner that would require registration of the Original Notes under the Act.

(xxix) None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates (as defined in Regulation D under the Act) has, directly or through any agent (other than the Initial Purchaser or any affiliate of the Initial Purchaser, as to which no representation is made), sold, offered for sale, contracted to sell, pledged, solicited offers to buy or otherwise disposed of or negotiated in respect of any security (as defined in the Act) that is currently or will be integrated with the sale of the Original Notes in a manner that would require the registration of the Original Notes under the Act.

(xxx) None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates, or any person acting on its or their behalf (other than any Initial Purchaser, as to whom none of the Issuer and the Company makes any representation), is engaged in any directed selling effort with respect to the Original Notes, and each of them has complied with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S under the Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meaning given to them by Regulation S.

(xxxi) No form of general solicitation or general advertising (within the meaning of Regulation D under the Act) was used by Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives (other than any Initial Purchaser, as to whom none of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries makes any representation) in connection with the offer and sale of any of the Original Notes or in connection with Exempt Resales, including, but not limited to, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or displayed on any computer terminal, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising. None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates has entered into, and none of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates will enter into, any contractual arrangement with respect to the distribution of the Original Notes except for this Agreement.

(xxxii) As of the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries had any material liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that were required in accordance with GAAP, to be set forth in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of such date or in the notes thereto set forth in the Offering Memorandum not so set forth. Since the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, except as set forth or contemplated in the Offering Memorandum, (a) none of the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary has (1) incurred any liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (2) entered into any material transaction not in the ordinary course of business, (b) there has not been any event or development in respect of the business or condition (financial or other) of the Issuer, the Company and the Subsidiaries that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) there has been no dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by the Company on any class of its capital stock and (d) there has not been any material change in the long-term debt of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

(xxxiii) None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries (or any agent thereof acting on their behalf) has taken, and none of them will take, any action that might cause the issuance or sale of the Notes to violate Regulation T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as in effect, or as the same may hereafter be in effect, on the Closing Date.

(xxxiv) Deloitte & Touche LLP are independent accountants within the meaning of Regulation S-X of the Exchange Act. The historical financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial position, income statement, cash flows and changes in stockholder's equity of the Company and its subsidiaries at the respective dates and for the respective periods indicated. All such financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods presented (except as disclosed therein). The unaudited pro forma financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Offering Document have been prepared on a basis consistent with the historical financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries and give effect to assumptions used in the preparation thereof on a reasonable basis and in good faith and present fairly in all material respects the historical and proposed transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum; and such pro forma financial statements comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements applicable to pro forma financial statements set forth in Regulation S-X under the Act, except that Article 11 of Regulation S-X under the Act does not require the inclusion of pro forma financial statements for the twelve months ended March 31, 2002. The other financial and statistical information and data included in the Offering Memorandum (other than industry and market-related data) are accurately presented in all material respects and prepared on a basis consistent with the financial statements and the books and records of the Company and its subsidiaries.

(xxxv) As of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, immediately prior to and immediately following the consummation of the Transactions, each of Holdings, the Issuer and the Company and its subsidiaries (on a consolidated basis) is and will be Solvent. None of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or the Subsidiaries is contemplating the filing of a petition by it under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws or the liquidating of all or a substantial portion of its property, and none of Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or the Subsidiaries has knowledge of any Person contemplating the filing of any such petition. As used herein, "SOLVENT" shall mean, for any Person on a particular date, after giving effect, in the case of each of the Guarantors, to the limitations contained in each Guarantee, that on such date (a) the fair value of the property of such Person is greater than the total amount of liabilities, including, without limitation, contingent liabilities, of such Person, (b) the present fair salable value of the assets of such Person is not less than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liability of such Person on its debts as they become absolute and matured, (c) such Person does not intend to, and does not believe that it will, incur debts and liabilities beyond such Person's ability to pay as such debts and liabilities mature, (d) such Person is not engaged in a business or a transaction, and is not about to engage in a business or a transaction, for which such Person's property would constitute an unreasonably small capital and (e) such Person is able to pay its debts as they become due and payable.

(xxxvi) Except as described in the section entitled "Plan of Distribution" in the Offering Memorandum, and except for fees and expenses payable in connection with the Merger that are described elsewhere in the Offering Memorandum, there are no contracts, agreements or understandings between Holdings, the Issuer, the Company or any Subsidiary and any other Person other than the Initial Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement that would give rise to a valid claim against Holdings, the Issuer, the Company, any of the Subsidiaries or the Initial Purchaser for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or like payment in connection with the issuance, purchase and sale of the Notes.

(xxxvii) The statistical and market-related data and forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act) included in the Offering Memorandum are based on or derived from sources that the Issuer and the Company believe to be reliable and represent good faith estimates that are made on the basis of data derived from such sources.

(xxxviii) Each certificate signed by any officer of the Issuer, the Company or any Guarantor and delivered to the Initial Purchaser or counsel for the Initial Purchaser pursuant to, or in connection with, this Agreement shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors to the Initial Purchasers as to the matters covered by such certificate.

(xxxix) Each of the Issuer and the WH Guarantors has conducted no business prior to the date hereof other than in connection with the transaction contemplated by this Agreement, the Offering Memorandum and the Merger Agreement.

(xl) The Security Agreement has been duly authorized by the Issuer and, on the Closing Date, will have been duly executed and delivered by the Issuer. When the Security Agreement has been duly executed and delivered, the Security Agreement will be a valid and binding agreement of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms except as the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). On the Closing Date, the Security Agreement will conform to the description thereof contained in the Offering Memorandum in all material respects.

(xli) The provisions of the Security Agreement are effective to create, in favor of the Trustee to secure the Obligations (as defined in the Security Agreement), a valid security interest in the Issuer's rights in all Security Entitlements (as defined in the Security Agreement).

(xlii) The provisions of the Security Agreement are effective to perfect the security interest of the Trustee in the Security Entitlements, assuming that all filings and other actions contemplated by the Security Agreement to perfect such security interest are made and taken.

Each of the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors acknowledge that the Initial Purchaser and, for purposes of the opinions to be delivered to the Initial Purchaser pursuant to Section 8 of this Agreement, counsel to the Issuer and the WH Guarantors, counsel to the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors and counsel to the Initial Purchaser will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations and each of the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors hereby consent to such reliance.

Each of the foregoing representations and warranties, as far as each relates to the Company and its Subsidiaries, is made by the Issuer to the best of its knowledge; upon consummation of the Merger and the assumption by the Company of the obligations of the Issuer hereunder, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to have been made by the Company without such knowledge limitation.

(b) The Initial Purchaser acknowledges that it is purchasing the Original Notes pursuant to a private sale exemption from registration under the Act, and that the Original Notes have not been registered under the Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Act. The Initial Purchaser represents, warrants and covenants to the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors that:

(i) Neither it, nor any person acting on its behalf, has or will solicit offers for, or offer or sell, the Original Notes by any form of general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are used in Regulation D under the Act) or in any manner involving a public offering within the meaning of Section 4(2) of the Act, including, but not limited to, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or displayed on any computer terminal, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising, and it has and will solicit offers for the Original Notes only from, and will offer and sell the Original Notes only to, (A) Persons whom the Initial Purchaser reasonably believes to be QIBs or, if any such Person is buying for one or more institutional accounts for which such Person is acting as fiduciary or agent, only when such Person has represented to the Initial Purchaser, and the Initial Purchaser reasonably believes based on such representation, that each such account is a QIB to whom notice has been given that such sale or delivery is being made in reliance on Rule 144A, and, in each case, in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act pursuant to Rule 144A, or (B) Persons other than U.S. Persons outside the United States in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act provided by Regulation S. The Initial Purchaser agrees, with respect to resales made in reliance on Rule 144A of any of the Notes, to deliver either with the confirmation of such resale or otherwise prior to settlement of such resale a notice to the effect that the resale of such Notes have been made in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act provided by Rule 144A.

(ii) With respect to offers and sales outside the United States, the Initial Purchaser has offered the Original Notes and will offer and sell the Original Notes (1) as part of its distribution at any time and (2) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering of the Original Notes and the Closing Date, only in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Act. Accordingly, neither the Initial Purchaser nor any person acting on its behalf has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts (within the meaning of Regulation S) with respect to the Original Notes, and all such persons have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirements of Regulation S.

The Initial Purchaser agrees that it and each of its affiliates has not entered and will not enter into any contractual arrangement with respect to the distribution of the Notes except with the prior written consent of the Issuer or as contemplated by this Agreement.

Terms used in this Section 5(b)(ii) have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The Initial Purchaser understands that the Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors and, for purposes of the opinions to be delivered to them pursuant to Section 8 hereof, counsel to the Issuer and the WH Guarantors, counsel to the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors and counsel to the Initial Purchaser will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations, and the Initial Purchaser hereby consents to such reliance.

6. Indemnification. (a) Each of the Issuer, the WH Guarantors, and after the Merger, the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors, jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Initial Purchaser, each person, if any, who controls any Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, the agents, employees, officers and directors of any Initial Purchaser and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling person from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses whatsoever (including, but not limited, to reasonable attorneys' fees and any and all reasonable expenses whatsoever incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever, and any and all reasonable amounts paid in settlement of any claim or litigation) (collectively, "LOSSES") to which they or any of them may become subject under the Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or in any supplement thereto or amendment thereof, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that the foregoing indemnity agreement shall not apply any such case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission relating to the Initial Purchaser made therein in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Issuer by or on behalf of the Initial Purchaser expressly for use therein; provided, however, that with respect to any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement in or omission or alleged omission from the Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the indemnity agreement contained in this section shall not inure to the benefit of the Initial Purchaser if the Initial Purchaser sold the Notes concerned to the Person asserting any such Losses, to the extent that such sale was an initial resale by the Initial Purchaser and any such Losses of the Initial Purchaser results from the fact that there was not sent or given to such Person, at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Notes to such Person, a copy of the Offering Memorandum (exclusive of any material included therein but not attached thereto) if the Issuer had previously furnished copies thereof to the Initial Purchaser. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability that the Issuer, the WH Guarantors, and after the Merger, the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors, may otherwise have, including, but not limited to, liability under this Agreement.

(b) The Initial Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer the WH Guarantors, and after the Merger, also the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors and each person, if any, who controls the Issuer, the WH Guarantors, and after the Merger, also the Company and the Herbalife Guarantors, within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, each of its respective agents, employees, officers and directors and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling person from and against any Losses to which they or any of them may become subject under the Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or in any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission relating to the Initial Purchaser made therein in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to the Issuer by or on behalf of such Initial Purchaser expressly for use therein. Each of the Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchasers acknowledge that the information described in Section 9 of this Agreement is the only information furnished in writing by the Initial Purchasers to the Issuer expressly for use in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under subsection 6(a) or 6(b) above of notice of the commencement of any action, suit or proceeding (collectively, an "action"), such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under such subsection, notify each party against whom indemnification is to be sought in writing of the commencement of such action (but the failure so to notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve such indemnifying party from any liability that it may have under this Section 6 except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure). In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies an indemnifying party of the commencement of such action, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in such action, and to the extent it may elect by written notice delivered to the indemnified party promptly after receiving the aforesaid notice from such indemnified party, to assume the defense of such action with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnified party or parties shall have the right to employ its or their own counsel in any such action, but the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party or parties unless (i) the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the indemnifying parties in connection with the defense of such action, (ii) the indemnifying parties shall not have employed counsel to take charge of the defense of such action within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action, or (iii) the named parties to such action (including any impleaded parties) include such indemnified party and the indemnifying parties (or such indemnifying parties have assumed the defense of such action), and such indemnified party or parties shall have reasonably concluded that there may be defenses available to it or them that are different from, in addition to, or in conflict with, those available to one or all of the indemnifying parties (in which case the indemnifying parties shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party or parties), in any of which events such reasonable fees and expenses of counsel shall be borne by the indemnifying parties. In no event shall the indemnifying party be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but substantially similar or related actions arising in the same jurisdiction out of the same general allegations or circumstances. An indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim or action effected without its written consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an indemnified party shall have requested an indemnifying party to reimburse the indemnified party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated by paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 6, then the indemnifying party agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than 45 business days after receipt by such indemnifying party of the aforesaid request, (ii) such indemnifying party shall not have reimbursed the indemnified party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement and (iii) such indemnified party shall have given the indemnifying party at least 45 days prior notice of its intention to settle. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding and does not include a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or failure to act on behalf of any indemnified party.

7. Contribution. In order to provide for contribution in circumstances in which the indemnification provided for in Section 6 of this Agreement is for any reason held to be unavailable from an indemnifying party, or is insufficient to hold harmless a party indemnified under Section 6 of this Agreement, each party that is obligated under Section 6 of this Agreement to indemnify any other party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such aggregate Losses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, from the offering of the Original Notes or (ii) if such allocation is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to above but also the relative fault of the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchasers, on the other hand, shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as (x) the total proceeds from the offering of Original Notes (net of discounts and commissions but before deducting expenses) received by the Issuer are to (y) the total discount, commissions and other compensation received by the Initial Purchaser. The relative fault of the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors or the Initial Purchasers and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission or alleged statement or omission.

The Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 7 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to above. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7, (i) in no case shall the Initial Purchaser be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total discount, commissions and other compensation applicable to the Original Notes purchased by the Initial Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement exceeds the amount of any damages that the Initial Purchaser has otherwise been required to pay by reason of any untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission and (ii) no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section 7, each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Initial Purchaser, and each person, if any, who controls the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and each director, officer, employee and agent of the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors shall have the same rights to contribution as the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors. Any party entitled to contribution will, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action against such party in respect of which a claim for contribution may be made against another party or parties under this Section 7, notify such party or parties from whom contribution may be sought, but the omission to so notify such party or parties shall not relieve the party or parties from whom contribution may be sought from any obligation it or they may have under this Section 7 or otherwise, except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure; provided, however, that no additional notice shall be required with respect to any action for which notice has been given under Section 6 of this Agreement for purposes of indemnification. Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, no party shall be liable for contribution with respect to any action or claim settled without its written consent; provided, however, that such written consent was not unreasonably withheld.

8. Conditions to the Initial Purchaser's Obligations. The obligations of the Initial Purchaser to purchase and pay for the Original Notes, as provided for in this Agreement, shall be subject to satisfaction of the following conditions prior to or concurrently with such purchase:

(a) All of the representations and warranties of the Issuer, the Company and each of the Guarantors contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date (other than any such representations or warranties which are qualified as to materiality, which representations and warranties shall be accurate in all respect on the date hereof and on the Closing Date). The Issuer, the Company and each of the Guarantors shall have in all material respects performed or complied with all of the agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement and required to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Closing Date.

(b) The Offering Memorandum shall have been printed and copies distributed to the Initial Purchaser on the date of this Agreement or at such later date as the Initial Purchaser may determine. No stop order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of the Original Notes in any jurisdiction shall have been issued and no proceeding for that purpose shall have been commenced or shall be pending or threatened.

(c) No action shall have been taken and no statute, rule, regulation or order shall have been enacted, adopted or issued by any governmental agency that would, as of the Closing Date, prevent the issuance and sale of the Original Notes or consummation of the Exchange Offer; except as disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, no action, suit or proceeding shall have been commenced and be pending against or affecting or, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors, threatened against the Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors or any of their respective subsidiaries before any court or arbitrator or any governmental body, agency or official that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; and no stop order preventing the use of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any order asserting that any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are subject to the registration requirements of the Act shall have been issued.

(d) As of the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries had any material liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that were required in accordance with GAAP, to be set forth in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of such date or in the notes thereto set forth in the Offering Memorandum not so set forth. Since the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, except as set forth or contemplated in the Offering Memorandum, (a) none of the Issuer, the Company or any Guarantor has (1) incurred any liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (2) entered into any material transaction not in the ordinary course of business, (b) there has not been any event or development in respect of the business or condition (financial or other) of the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) there has been no dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by the Company on any class of its capital stock and (d) there has not been any material change in the long-term debt of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

(e) The Initial Purchaser shall have received certificates from each of the Issuer, the Company and the WH Guarantors, dated the Closing Date, signed by two authorized officers of each of the Issuer, the Company and the WH Guarantors confirming, as of the Closing Date, to its knowledge, the matters set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this Section 8.

(f) The Initial Purchaser shall have received on the Closing Date opinions dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Initial Purchaser, of (i) Chadbourne & Parke LLP, special counsel to the Issuer, (ii) Irell & Manella LLP, counsel to the Company, (iii) Hogan & Hartson LLP, special regulatory counsel to the Company, (iv) Frank Morse, general counsel to the Company, (v) Marshall Hill Cassas & di Lipkau, special Nevada counsel to the Issuer, (vi) Schreck Brignone Godfrey, special Nevada counsel to the Company, (vii) Maples and Calder, Special Cayman counsel to Holdings, (viii) Bonn Schmitt Steichen, special Luxembourg counsel to WH Luxembourg Holdings SaRL, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SaRL and WH Luxembourg CM SaRL, (ix) Chadbourne & Parke LLP, special counsel to Whitney V, L.P. and Whitney Equity Partners V, LLC under the Whitney Support Agreement, (x) Kirkland & Ellis, special counsel to Golden Gate Capital Management, L.L.C. under the Golden Gate Support Agreement and (xi) and Harney Westwood & Riegels, special counsel to CCG

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as United States special counsel to WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (the "Issuer"), and as United States special counsel to WH Intermediate Holdings Ltd., a Cayman Islands corporation, WH Luxembourg Holdings SaRL, a Luxembourg company, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SaRL, a Luxembourg company, WH Luxembourg CM SaRL, a Luxembourg company (collectively, the "WH Guarantors" and, together with the Issuer, the "Parties"), in connection with the preparation of the Offering Memorandum, dated June , 2002 (the "Offering Memorandum"), relating to the offering by the Issuer of $165,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 11 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (the "Notes"). This opinion is furnished pursuant to Section 8(f) of the Purchase Agreement, dated June 21, 2002 (the "Purchase Agreement"), between the Issuer, the Company, the WH Guarantors and you. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

In the course of our representation of the Issuer, we have examined and relied on originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the following documents (collectively referred to herein as the "Documents"):

We have also examined originals, or copies certified to our satisfaction, of such records of the Parties and other instruments, certificates of public officials and representatives of the Parties and other documents as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed in this opinion. In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity with the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies. In addition, we have attended the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement held on the date hereof.

On the basis of the foregoing, and having regard for such legal considerations as we deem relevant, we are of the opinion that:

(i) The Indenture has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer and each of the WH Guarantors thereto and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Trustee) constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of the Issuer and each of the WH Guarantors thereto, enforceable against each of them in accordance with their terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(ii) The Original Notes, when issued, authenticated and delivered by the Issuer against payment by the Initial Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement and the Indenture, (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Indenture by the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture) will constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of the Issuer (and following the Merger, the Company) entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against the Issuer (and following the Merger, the Company) in accordance with their terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(iii) The Guarantees endorsed on the Original Notes, when issued in connection with the issuance of the Original Notes or, if later, upon the consummation of the Merger with respect to the Herbalife Guarantors, (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Indenture by the Trustee, and the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Guarantees and the Supplemental Indenture by the Guarantors) will constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of each of the Guarantors, entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against each of the Guarantors in accordance with their terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(iv) The Exchange Notes, when issued, authenticated and delivered by the Issuer (and following the Merger, the Company) in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Exchange Offer and the Indenture, (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Trustee and assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Exchange Notes by the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture) will constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of the Issuer (and following the Merger, the Company) entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against the Issuer (and following the Merger, the Company) in accordance with their terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(v) The Guarantees endorsed on the Exchange Notes, when issued in connection with the issuance of the Exchange Notes or, if later, upon the consummation of the Merger with respect to the Herbalife Guarantors, (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Indenture by the Trustee, and the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Guarantees and the Supplemental Indenture by the Guarantors) will constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of each of the Guarantors, entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against each of the Guarantors in accordance with their terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(vi) The Registration Rights Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Initial Purchaser) will constitute the valid and legally binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except that (a) the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and (b) we express no opinion with respect to the provisions set forth in Section 7 of the Registration Rights Agreement.

(vii) Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser in the Purchase Agreement, no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing, registration or qualification of or with any court, governmental agency or body or administrative agency of the State of New York or the federal government of the United States is required to be obtained or made by the Issuer or any of the WH Guarantors for the execution, delivery and performance by the Issuer and the WH Guarantors of the Note Documents, to which it is a party, and except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, the consummation of the Transactions, except (a) such as have been or will be obtained or made on or prior to the Closing Date, (b) registration of the Exchange Offer under the Act pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, (c) qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act, in connection with the issuance of the Exchange Notes or (d) any state or foreign securities laws or by the regulations of the NASD .

(viii) To our knowledge, and except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, there does not exist any judgment, order, injunction or other restraint issued or filed which seek to restrain, enjoin, prevent the consummation of or otherwise challenge the Transactions or the performance by the Issuer or the WH Guarantors of their respective obligations under the Note Documents.

(ix) None of the Issuer or the WH Guarantors is, nor immediately after sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser and assuming immediate application of the proceeds therefrom in accordance with the Security Agreement and as set forth in the Offering Memorandum under the caption "Use of Proceeds" will be, an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" incorporated in the United States within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(x) Assuming (x) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser and the Issuer contained in the Purchase Agreement and (y) compliance by the Initial Purchaser and the Issuer with their respective covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement, neither registration of the Original Notes under the Act, nor qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act is required for the offer and sale of the Original Notes by the Issuer to the Initial Purchaser, or the initial resale of the Original Notes by the Initial Purchaser, in each case in accordance with the Offering Memorandum and the Purchase Agreement. We express no opinion, however, as to when or under what circumstances any Notes sold by the Initial Purchaser may be reoffered or resold.

(xi) To our knowledge, none of the Issuer or the WH Guarantors (or any agent thereof acting on their behalf) has taken any action that might cause the issuance or sale of the Notes to violate Regulations T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

(xii) Each of the Note Documents conforms in all material respects to the description thereof contained in the Offering Memorandum.

(xiii) The statements set forth in the Offering Memorandum under the caption "Description of Notes", insofar as they purport to constitute a summary of the terms of the Notes, the Indenture and the Guarantees, and under the caption "United States Federal Income Tax Consequences", insofar as they purport to describe relevant federal tax laws of the United States, fairly summarize the matters referred to therein in all material respects.

(xiv) The Security Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Trustee) and constitutes the valid and legally binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its terms, except that the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(xv) If the Securities Account (as defined in the Security Agreement) is a "securities account" within the meaning of Section 8-501(a) of the New York Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC"), the provisions of the Security Agreement, upon execution and delivery thereof by the parties thereto, are effective to create and perfect the security interest of the Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the Notes in the Issuer's rights in the Securities Account and the "security entitlements" (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(17) of the UCC) with respect to the Securities Account. As used in this paragraph (xv) and hereinafter in this opinion, "security entitlements" means "security entitlements" (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(17) of the UCC) with respect to "financial assets" (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the UCC) now or hereafter credited to the Securities Account. Assuming that the Trustee on behalf of the holders of the Notes has acquired its security interest for "value" (within the meaning of Section 9-203 of the UCC) and without notice of an "adverse claim" (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(1) of the UCC), no action based on such adverse claim to a Financial Asset, whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien or other theory, may be asserted against the Trustee.

(xvi) If the Securities Account is a "deposit account" within the meaning of Section 9-102(a)(29) of the UCC (the "Deposit Account"), the provisions of the Security Agreement, upon execution and delivery thereof by the parties thereto, are effective to create and perfect the security interest of the Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the Notes in the Issuer's rights in the Deposit Account, and in the "proceeds" (as defined in Section 9-102(a)(64) of the UCC) thereof, subject to the conditions set forth in Section 9-315 and 9-322(c) of the UCC.

(xvii) Subject to paragraphs (xv) and (xvi), the Security Agreement creates in favor of the Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the Notes a valid security interest in the Issuer's rights in the Security Entitlements (as defined in the Security Agreement) to secure the payment and performance when due of the Obligations (as defined in the Security Agreement).

In giving the opinions set forth above, we express no opinion as to:

(i) The enforceability of any provisions contained in the Note Documents that purport to establish (or may be construed to establish) evidentiary standards;

(ii) The enforceability of forum selection clauses in Federal courts;

(iii) The legality, validity, binding effect or enforceability of any provision of any of the Note Documents insofar as they provide for the payment or reimbursement of costs and expenses or indemnification for claims, losses, or liabilities in excess of a reasonable amount determined by any court or other tribunal;

(iv) The enforceability under certain circumstances of provisions indemnifying a party against liability for its own wrongful or negligent acts;

(v) The effect of the compliance or noncompliance of the Initial Purchaser with any state or federal laws or regulations (including, without limitation, any unpublished order, decree, or directive issued by any governmental authority but excluding Regulations T, U and X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to the extent set forth in paragraph (xi) above) applicable to the Initial Purchaser because of its legal or regulatory status, the nature of its business, or its authority to conduct business in any jurisdiction;

(vi) The enforceability of any provisions of the Note Documents that provide that the assertion or employment of any right or remedy shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other right or remedy, or that each and every remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to every other remedy or that any delay or omission to exercise any right or remedy shall not impair any other right or remedy or constitute a waiver thereof;

(vii) The validity, the binding nature or the enforceability of the obligations of any Guarantor under the Guarantees if Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or Article 10 of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law or any other law relating to fraudulent transfers or obligations were applicable thereto or the applicability of any such law to the obligations of any Guarantor under the Guarantees. In addition, we have assumed, without independent inquiry, that the Guarantees are in furtherance of the corporate purposes of or is necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of each Guarantor.

The foregoing opinion is limited to the Federal laws of the United States, the laws of the State of New York and we are expressing no opinion as to the effect of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

In connection with our opinion set forth in paragraphs (iv) and (v) above, we have, with your permission, assumed that at the time of the issuance and delivery of any Exchange Notes and the Guarantees thereon there will not have occurred any change in law affecting the validity, legally binding character or enforceability of such Exchange Notes and Guarantees and that the issuance and delivery of such Exchange Notes and the Guarantees thereon, all of the terms of such Exchange Notes and Guarantees and the performance by the Issuer, the Company and the Guarantors of its obligations thereunder will comply with applicable law and with each requirement or restriction imposed by any court or governmental body having jurisdiction over the Issuer, the Company or the Guarantors and will not result in a default under or a breach of any agreement or instrument then binding upon the Company.

In connection with our opinion set forth in paragraph (x) above, we have, also with your permission, relied upon the representations, warranties, agreements and undertakings of the Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser and the Initial Purchaser contained in the Purchase Agreement, including those with respect to the absence of any directed selling efforts (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) relating to the Original Notes, the absence of any general solicitation or general advertising in connection with the offering of the Original Notes and as to certain other matters. Insofar as such opinion relates to the sale of the Original Notes by the Issuer to the Initial Purchaser, we have assumed that all offers and resales of Original Notes by the Initial Purchaser will be made in accordance with the Purchase Agreement.

With your permission, with respect to matters of Nevada law, we have relied exclusively upon the opinion of Marshall Hill Cassas & de Lipkau, dated the date hereof, as to the matters set forth therein, a copy of which has been delivered to you and which is in form and scope satisfactory to us. Without limiting the foregoing, we have assumed, in reliance upon the opinion of Marshall Hill Cassas & de Lipkau, that (i) the Issuer is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Nevada, (ii) the Issuer has all corporate power and authority under Nevada law to consummate the Transactions and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Note Documents and (iii) each of the Note Documents has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer under Nevada law.

With your permission, with respect to matters of Cayman Islands law, we have relied exclusively upon the opinion of Maples and Calder, dated the date hereof, as to the matters set forth therein, a copy of which has been delivered to you and which is in form and scope satisfactory to us. Without limiting the foregoing, we have assumed, in reliance upon the opinion of Maples and Calder, that (i) WH Intermediate Holdings Ltd. is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Cayman Islands, (ii) the WH

Intermediate Holdings Ltd. has all corporate power and authority under Cayman Islands to consummate the Transactions and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Note Documents and (iii) each of the Note Documents has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by WH Intermediate Holdings Ltd. under Cayman Islands law.

With your permission, with respect to matters of Luxembourg law, we have relied exclusively upon the opinion of Bonn Schmitt Steichen, dated the date hereof, as to the matters set forth therein, a copy of which has been delivered to you and which is in form and scope satisfactory to us. Without limiting the foregoing, we have assumed, in reliance upon the opinion of Bonn Schmitt Steichen, that (i) each of WH Luxembourg Holdings SaRL, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SaRL and WH Luxembourg CM SaRL is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of Luxembourg, (ii) each of WH Luxembourg Holdings SaRL, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SaRL and WH Luxembourg CM SaRL has all corporate power and authority under Luxembourg law to consummate the Transactions and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Note Documents and (iii) each of the Note Documents has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by each of WH Luxembourg Holdings SaRL, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SaRL and WH Luxembourg CM SaRL under Luxembourg law.

We are furnishing this opinion to you at the request of the Issuer and no other person is entitled to rely hereon. This opinion is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purposes without our prior written consent. All of the opinions expressed herein are based upon the pertinent facts and laws in existence as of the date hereof. We expressly disclaim any obligation to advise you of changes to pertinent laws or facts that may hereafter come to our attention.

Chadbourne & Parke LLP will also provide a letter stating that as special U.S. counsel to the Issuer we reviewed the Offering Memorandum and participated in discussions with representatives of the Initial Purchaser and those of the Issuer, the Company and its accountants regarding the contents of the Offering Memorandum and certain related matters. Between the date of the Offering Memorandum and the time of the delivery of this letter, we participated in further discussions with representatives of the Issuer, the Company and its accountants regarding the contents of certain portions of the Offering Memorandum and certain related matters, reviewed certain records of the Issuer and the Company relating to the proceedings of their Boards of Directors, certificates of certain officers of the Issuer and the Company, legal opinions from other counsel to the Company and a letter from the Company's accountants. On the basis of the information that we gained in the course of the performance of the services referred to above, considered in the light of our understanding of the applicable Federal securities laws and the experience we have gained through our practice in this field, nothing that came to our attention in the course of such review has caused us to believe that the Offering Memorandum, as of the date of the Offering Memorandum, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Also, nothing that has come to our attention in the course of such review or the procedure described in the second sentence of this paragraph has caused us to believe that the Offering Memorandum, as of the date and time of delivery of this letter, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

The limitations inherent in the independent verification of factual matters and the character of determinations involved in the preparation of the Offering Memorandum are such, however, that we have not independently verified and are not passing upon nor do we assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Offering Memorandum except for those made under the captions "Description of Notes" and "Plan of Distribution" in the Offering Memorandum insofar as they relate to provisions of documents therein described. Also, we do not comment on or express any opinion or belief as to the financial statements or other technical, statistical or financial data contained in the Offering Memorandum.

Re: Herbalife International, Inc.

This opinion is furnished to you pursuant to Section 8(f)(ii) of the Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 21, 2002, by and among you, WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (the "Issuer"), Herbalife International, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the "Company") and the entities listed on the signature pages thereto as guarantors relating to the sale by the Issuer and the purchase by you, as Initial Purchaser, of $165,000,000 principal amount of 11 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (the "Purchase Agreement"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

We have acted as counsel for the Company and certain U.S. subsidiaries of the Company listed on Schedule A hereto (the "Applicable Herbalife Guarantors") in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement.

For the purpose of rendering this opinion, we have reviewed the following documents:

(a) the Purchase Agreement; and

(b) the other Note Documents referred to in the Purchase Agreement.

We also have reviewed such other matters and documents as we have deemed necessary or relevant as a basis for this opinion. In our review, we have assumed, without investigation, the legal capacity of all natural persons signing documents in their respective individual capacities, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified or reproduction copies, and the authenticity of the originals of such copies.

Insofar as this opinion relates to factual matters, information with respect to which is in the possession of the Company or the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors, we have relied upon certificates, statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Company and the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors, including, without limitation, the representations contained in the Purchase Agreement and the other Note Documents, and upon statements contained in the Offering Memorandum.

This opinion is limited to the laws of the State of California and we express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the securities and blue sky laws of any such jurisdiction) except the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") and the laws of the United States of America to the extent specifically referred to herein.

We call your attention to the fact that the Purchase Agreement provides that it is to be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York. Our opinion in paragraph 3 below with respect to the due execution and delivery of the Purchase Agreement by the Company and the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors is being rendered only to the extent that the laws of the State of California or the provisions of the DGCL may be relevant to such due execution and delivery.

Based upon the foregoing, and on the assumptions herein set forth, and subject to the limitations, qualifications and exceptions set forth herein, we are of the opinion that:

Each of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors (a) is a corporation, partnership or other entity duly incorporated or formed and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (b) has all requisite corporate or other power and authority and, to our knowledge, has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals necessary to own its property and carry on its business as now being conducted, and (c) is qualified to do business and is in good standing in the jurisdictions listed on Schedule B hereto.

1. Each of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors has all requisite corporate or other power and authority to execute, deliver and perform all of its obligations under the Note Documents to which it is or will be a party and to consummate the Transactions.

2. The Purchase Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors.

3. The execution, delivery and performance by the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors of the Note Documents to which they are or will be a party and the consummation of the Transactions do not and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or a default under (or an event that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default), or require consent under, or result in the creation or imposition of a lien, charge or encumbrance on any property or assets of any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors (other than as created pursuant to the Indenture or the Security Agreement) or an acceleration of any indebtedness of any of the Applicable Herbalife

Guarantors (a) pursuant to the charter, bylaws or other constitutive documents of any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors, or (b) to our knowledge, pursuant to (i) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material document, agreement or other instrument to which any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors is a party, (ii) any law, statute, rule or regulation applicable to any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors or their respective assets or properties and which in our experience is generally applicable to transactions of the type contemplated by the Purchase Agreement or (iii) any judgment, order or decree of any domestic or foreign court or governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors or their respective assets or properties except, in the case of this clause (b), for such as would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

4. Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser in Section 5(b) of the Purchase Agreement, no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing, registration, qualification, license or permit of or with, any court or governmental agency, body or administrative agency is required to be obtained or made by any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors for the execution, delivery and performance by any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors of the Note Documents to which it is or will be a party and the consummation of the Transactions, except (a) such as have been or will be obtained or made on or prior to the date on which any such Applicable Herbalife Guarantor becomes a Guarantor under the Indenture, (b) registration of the Exchange Offer or resale of the Notes under the Act pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, (c) qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act, in connection with the issuance of the Exchange Notes or (d) such as may be required by any applicable state or foreign securities or "blue sky" laws or the rules and regulations of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. No consents or waivers from any other person or entity are required for the execution, delivery and performance of any of the Note Documents and the consummation of any of the Transactions, other than such consents and waivers as have been obtained or will be obtained prior to the Closing Date and will be in full force and effect, and such other consents and waivers the failure to obtain which will not have a Material Adverse Effect.

5. To our knowledge, there does not exist any judgment, order, injunction or other restraint issued or filed to or against any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors with respect to the Transactions or the performance by any of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors of their respective obligations under the Note Documents to which they are a party.

6. Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries is, and none of the Company's subsidiaries immediately after sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser and application of the proceeds therefrom in accordance with the Security Agreement will be, an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" incorporated in the United States within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

7. Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries (or any agent thereof acting on their behalf) has taken, and none of them will take, any action that might cause the Agreement or the issuance or sale of the Notes to violate Regulations T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Purchase

In connection with the preparation of the Offering Memorandum, we have participated in conferences with officers and other representatives of the Company, representatives of the independent public or certified public accountants for the Company, representatives (including counsel) of the equity sponsors referred to in the Purchase Agreement and representatives of the Initial Purchaser at which the contents of the Offering Memorandum and related matters were discussed and, although we are not passing upon and do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Offering Memorandum, on the basis of the foregoing, nothing has come to our attention that would lead us to believe that the Offering Memorandum, as of its date or as of the date hereof, contained or contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (except that we express no such belief as to the financial statements or schedules or other financial, statistical, industry or market data included therein).

Our opinions expressed in paragraph 1 above as to the incorporation or formation, valid existence, good standing and qualification of the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors are based solely on certificates of legal existence and/or good standing and/or qualification issued by the Secretaries of State or other appropriate officials of the jurisdictions in which the Company and the significant subsidiaries of the Company are incorporated or qualified as foreign corporations, as set forth on Schedule B attached hereto.

We have assumed, with your permission, that no agreement or understanding that is not otherwise known to us exists between you and any parties that would modify, supplement or amend any document reviewed by us.

Whenever our opinion herein with respect to the existence or nonexistence of facts is qualified by the phrase “to our knowledge”, or any similar phrase implying a limitation on the basis of knowledge, such phrase means only that the individual attorneys in this firm who have had active involvement in the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and the Offering Memorandum do not have actual knowledge that the facts as stated herein are untrue. Unless otherwise expressly stated herein, such persons have not undertaken any investigation to determine the existence or nonexistence of such facts, and no inference as to the extent of their knowledge should be drawn from the fact of their representation of the Company or its subsidiaries in this or any other instance.

The opinions rendered herein are based upon applicable law and the state of our knowledge as of the date of this opinion. We do not undertake, and hereby expressly disclaim, any obligation to inform you of changes in any applicable law or relevant legal principles of law, or changes in our interpretation of such law or principles, or the state of our knowledge of the relevant facts subsequent to the date of this opinion. We note in this regard that the Applicable Herbalife Guarantors are expected to execute and deliver certain of the Note Documents on dates subsequent to the date hereof, and any such changes in law, principles of law or our interpretations thereof, or the state of our knowledge of relevant facts, may occur prior to the execution and delivery of such Note Documents. Please note that we are opining only as to the matters expressly set forth herein, and no opinion should be inferred as to any other matters.

This opinion is rendered only to you pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and is solely for your benefit in connection with the above transaction. This opinion may not be relied upon by any other person for any other purpose or in any other context, or furnished to, used, circulated, quoted or referred to, or relied upon by, any person for any purpose without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

IRELL & MANELLA LLP

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter is furnished to you pursuant to Section 8(f) of the Purchase Agreement dated June , 2002 (the “Purchase Agreement”) between you and WH Acquisition, a Nevada corporation (the “Issuer”), Herbalife International, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the “Company”) and the entities listed on the signature pages thereto as guarantors relating to the sale by the Issuer and the purchase by you as the Initial Purchasers of $ principal amount of % Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010.

This firm serves as special regulatory counsel to the Company in the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) area only. In such capacity, we have been retained by the Company to review certain information under the captions “Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business” and “Business—Regulation—General—Products”, in the Company’s final Offering Memorandum dated June , 2002 (the “Offering Memorandum”). We have not been retained or engaged by the Company to perform, nor have we performed, any review of any other information in the Offering Memorandum, nor have we acted as the Company’s corporate or securities counsel in connection with the sale of the Securities. Terms used herein that are defined in the Purchase Agreement shall have the respective meanings set forth in the Purchase Agreement, unless otherwise defined herein.

For purposes of the opinion expressed in this letter, which is set forth below (the “Opinion”), we have examined copies of the following:

1. An executed copy of the Purchase Agreement.

2. The information contained in the Offering Memorandum under the captions “Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business" and "Business—Regulation—General—Products", insofar as it relates to FDA regulatory matters.

3. A certificate dated as of June , 2002 of certain officers of the Company as to certain facts relating to the Company.

For purposes of the Opinion, we have not made any independent review or investigation of factual or other matters, including the assets, business or affairs of the Company. We have assumed the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the foregoing documents, certification and statements of fact, on which we are relying, and have made no independent investigations thereof. Further, we have not independently verified, nor do we take any responsibility for nor are we addressing in any way any statements of fact, any statements concerning state or foreign law or any statements of belief attributable to the Company concerning whether or not the Company is in compliance with applicable FDA requirements. The Opinion is given in the context of the foregoing.

This letter is based as to matters of law solely on the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (the "FDC Act"), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and we express no view as to any other laws, statutes, regulations or ordinances, including without limitation any foreign, federal or state licensing, tax or securities laws or regulations.

Nothing herein shall be construed to cause us to be considered "experts" within the meaning of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Based upon, subject to and limited by the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the statements in the Offering Memorandum under the captions "Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business" and "Business—Regulation—General—Products", insofar as such statements purport to summarize applicable provisions of the FDC Act, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, are accurate summaries in all material respects of the provisions purported to be summarized under such captions in the Offering Memorandum (the "Opinion").

During the course of preparation of the Offering Memorandum, we participated in certain discussions with certain officers and employees of the Company as to the FDA regulatory matters dealt with under the captions "Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business" and "Business—Regulation—General—Products" in the Offering Memorandum. While we have not undertaken to determine independently, and we do not assume any responsibility for, the accuracy, completeness, or fairness of the statements under the above-referenced captions in the Offering Memorandum, we may state on the basis of these discussions and our activities as special regulatory counsel to the Company in connection with our review of the statements contained in such captioned sections, that no facts have come to our attention that cause us to believe that the statements in the Offering Memorandum under such captioned sections, insofar as such statements relate to FDA regulatory matters, as of the date of the Offering Memorandum or as of the date hereof, included or includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

* * * * *

We assume no obligation to advise you of any changes in the foregoing subsequent to the delivery of this letter. This letter has been prepared solely for your use in connection with the Closing under the Purchase Agreement on the date hereof, and should not be quoted in whole or in part or otherwise be referred to, nor be filed with or furnished to any governmental agency or other person or entity, without the prior written consent of this firm.

Very truly yours,

FORM OF OPINION OF GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE COMPANY

June , 2002

UBS Warburg LLC

New York, New York 10171

Re: Herbalife International, Inc.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This opinion is furnished to you pursuant to Section 8(f)(iv) of the Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 21, 2002, by and among you, WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (the "Issuer"), Herbalife International, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the "Company") and the entities listed on the signature pages thereto as guarantors relating to the sale by the Issuer and the purchase by you, as Initial Purchaser, of $165,000,000 principal amount of 11 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (the "Purchase Agreement"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

I am , of the Company and in such capacity, I have reviewed the Purchase Agreement and such other matters and documents as I have deemed necessary or relevant as a basis for this opinion. I am admitted to practice in the State of California. This opinion is limited to the laws of the State of California, and I express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction.

Based upon the foregoing, and on the assumptions herein set forth, and subject to the limitations, qualifications and exceptions set forth herein, I am of the opinion that:

1. Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, there is (a) no action, suit or proceeding before or by any court, arbitrator or governmental agency, body or official, domestic or foreign, now pending or, to my knowledge, threatened or contemplated, to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is or may be a party or to which the business, assets or property of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is or may be subject, (b) no statute, rule, regulation or order that has been enacted, adopted or issued, or to my knowledge, that has been proposed by any governmental body or agency, domestic or foreign, (c) no injunction, restraining order or order of any nature by a federal or state court or foreign court of competent jurisdiction to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is or may be subject that, in the case of any of clauses (a), (b) or (c), could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, (1) to have a Material Adverse Effect or (2) to interfere with or adversely affect the consummation of the Transactions, assuming, in the case of clause (a), such action, suit or proceeding is determined adversely to the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

None of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is (a) in violation of its charter, bylaws or other constitutive documents or (b) in default (or, with notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) in the performance or observance of any obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any of the Agreements and Instruments, or (c) in violation of any law, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order or decree of any domestic or foreign court with jurisdiction over any of them or any of their assets or properties or other governmental or regulatory authority, agency or other body, that, in the case of clauses (b) and (c) herein, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

The opinion rendered herein is based upon applicable law as stated herein and the state of my knowledge, after due inquiry, as of the date of this opinion. Re: Purchase Agreement among WH Acquisition Corp., Herbalife International, Inc., UBS Warburg LLC and the entities listed on the signature page thereof, dated , 2002

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This office has acted as special Nevada counsel to WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (the “Issuer”) in connection with the Purchase Agreement among Issuer, UBS Warburg LLC (the “Initial Purchaser”) and the entities listed on the signature page thereof as Guarantors, by which Issuer will issue and sell to the Initial Purchaser $165,000,000 aggregate principal amount of % Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (the “Original Notes”). The Original Notes will be issued pursuant to an Indenture (the “Indenture”), by and among the Issuer, the WH Guarantors (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) and the Bank of New York as Trustee. The Original Notes will be offered and sold to the Initial Purchaser pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Issuer, with the assistance of Herbalife, has prepared a Preliminary Offering Memorandum, dated May 24, 2002 (the “Preliminary Offering Memorandum”) and a Final Offering Memorandum dated and available for distribution on the date hereof (the “Final Offering Memorandum”) relating to the Issuer, the Company, the Guarantors and the Original Notes.

In connection with the opinions set forth in this letter, we have examined copies of the following documents only:

(a) The Articles of Incorporation of Issuer filed with the Nevada Secretary of State on April 4, 2002;

(b) The Bylaws of the Issuer adopted by the Unanimous Written Consent of the Board of Directors of the Issuer on June , 2002;

(c) The Purchase Agreement;

(i) Unanimous Written Consent of the Board of Directors of Issuer dated June , 2002 authorizing and approving new bylaws of Issuer;

(j) Certificate of Good Standing issued by the Nevada Secretary of State for Issuer on June , 2002;

(k) Certificate of Steven E. Rodgers, President and Treasurer of Issuer, a copy of which is attached hereto (the “Certificate”).

Items (c) through (f) described above shall be hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Note Documents.” The issuance and sale of the Original Notes (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) and the placement of the net proceeds in the Secured Proceeds Account (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) shall be referred to in this letter as the “Transactions.”

In giving the opinions expressed in this letter, we exclude from the scope of the opinions state securities or “blue sky” laws and federal law. In reviewing the documents reviewed for this letter, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures and the capacity and legal competency of all individuals, the authenticity and completeness of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the original documents of all documents submitted to us as copies, the due execution and delivery by any person or entity of all documents where due execution and delivery is a prerequisite to the effectiveness of such documents, the authority of the person or persons who executed each of the documents on behalf of any person or entity other than an officer of Issuer, and the correctness and accuracy of the Issuer’s representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement and the statements in the Certificate. We have made no attempt to investigate or verify the accuracy and completeness of any document submitted to us upon which we have relied in giving our opinions expressed below.

We have assumed that the Articles of Incorporation described at item (a) above are the only charter documents of Issuer on file with the Nevada Secretary of State and that the Bylaws described at item (b) above are the currently-effective Bylaws of the Issuer.

Attorneys involved in the preparation of this opinion are admitted to practice in the State of Nevada, and we do not express any opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of the State of Nevada.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, under Nevada law:

1. The Issuer (a) is a corporation duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Nevada, and (b) has all requisite corporate or other power and authority, and has all Nevada governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals necessary to own its property and carry on its business as described in the Certificate;

2. The Issuer has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform all of its obligations under the Note Documents to which it is a party and to consummate the Transactions and, without limitation, the Issuer has all requisite corporate power and authority to issue, sell and deliver and perform its obligations under the Notes;

3. All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Issuer (as described in the Certificate) have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid, non-assessable and not subject to any preemptive or similar rights;

6. The Purchase Agreement has been duly authorized and, when executed by the Authorized Officers as provided in the Resolutions, will be duly executed;

7. The Registration Rights Agreement has been duly authorized and, when executed by the Authorized Officers as provided in the Resolutions, will be duly executed;

8. The execution, delivery and performance of the Purchase Agreement and the other Note Documents to which it is a party by the Issuer, the compliance by the Issuer with all provisions thereof, as applicable, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, as applicable, will not (i) require any consent, approval, authorization or other order of, or qualification with, any Nevada court or governmental body or agency (except as such as may be required under the securities or Blue Sky laws of Nevada), or (ii) in the case of the Issuer, conflict with our constitute a breach of any of the terms or provisions of, or a default under, the charter or bylaws or other organizational documents of the Issuer.

This opinion is being furnished only to you and is solely for your benefit and is not to be used, circulated, quoted, relied upon or otherwise referred to by any other party or entity. All of the opinions expressed herein are based upon the pertinent facts and laws in existence as of the date hereof. 1.8 the form of Guarantee set forth in Exhibit A to the Indenture.

The documents referred to in paragraphs 1.5 to 1.8 above are collectively referred to as the “TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS”.

2 ASSUMPTIONS

The following opinion is given only as to, and based on, circumstances and matters of fact existing and known to us on the date of this opinion. This opinion only relates to the laws of the Cayman Islands which are in force on the date of this opinion. In giving this opinion we have relied (without further verification) upon the completeness and accuracy of the Director’s Certificate and the Certificate of Good Standing. We have also relied upon the following assumptions, which we have not independently verified:

2.1 the Transaction Documents have been or will be authorised and duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of all relevant parties (other than the Company as a matter of Cayman Islands law) in accordance with all relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.2 the Transaction Documents are, or will be, legal, valid, binding and enforceable against all relevant parties in accordance with their terms under the laws of the State of New York and all other relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.3 the choice of the laws of the State of New York as the governing law of the Transaction Documents has been made in good faith and would be regarded as a valid and binding selection which will be upheld by the courts of the State of New York as a matter of the laws of the State of New York and all other relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.4 copy documents, conformed copies or drafts of documents provided to us are true and complete copies of, or in the final forms of, the originals;

2.5 all signatures, initials and seals are genuine;

2.7 there is nothing under any law (other than the law of the Cayman Islands) which would or might affect the opinions hereinafter appearing. Specifically, we have made no independent investigation of the laws of the State of New York.

3 OPINIONS

Based upon, and subject to, the foregoing assumptions and the qualifications set out below, and having regard to such legal considerations as we deem relevant, we are of the opinion that:

3.1 The Company has been duly incorporated as an exempted company with limited liability and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

3.2 The Company has full power and authority under its Memorandum and Articles of Association to enter into, execute and perform its obligations under the Transaction Documents.

3.3 The execution and delivery of the Transaction Documents and the performance by the Company of its obligations thereunder do not conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms or provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or any law, public rule or regulation applicable to the Company in the Cayman Islands currently in force.

3.4 The execution, delivery and performance of the Transaction Documents has been authorised by and on behalf of the Company and, assuming the Transaction Documents have been executed and delivered by a director of the Company, the Transaction Documents have been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Company and constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company enforceable in accordance with their terms.

3.5 No authorisations, consents, approvals, licenses, validations or exemptions are required by law from any governmental authorities or agencies or other official bodies in the Cayman Islands in connection with:

3.5.1 the execution, creation or delivery of the Transaction Documents;

3.5.2 subject to the payment of the appropriate stamp duty, enforcement of the Transaction Documents; or

3.5.3 the performance by the Company of its obligations under any of the Transaction Documents.

3.6 No taxes, fees or charges (other than stamp duty) are payable (either by direct assessment or withholding) to the government or other taxing authority in the Cayman Islands under the laws of the Cayman Islands in respect of:

3.6.1 the execution or delivery of the Transaction Documents;

3.6.2 the enforcement of the Transaction Documents;

3.6.3 payments made under, or pursuant to, the Transaction Documents.

The Cayman Islands currently have no form of income, corporate or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax.

3.7 The courts of the Cayman Islands will observe and give effect to the choice of the laws of the State of New York as the governing law of the Transaction Documents.

3.8 Based solely on our inspection of the Register of Writs and Other Originating process in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands from the date of incorporation of the Company there were no actions or petitions pending against the Company in the courts of the Cayman Islands as at close of business in the Cayman Islands on {date on or before day opinion issued}.

3.9 Although there is no statutory enforcement in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the State of New York, the courts of the Cayman Islands will recognise a foreign judgment as the basis for a claim at common law in the Cayman Islands provided such judgment:

3.9.1 is given by a competent foreign court;

3.9.2 imposes on the judgment debtor a liability to pay a liquidated sum for which the judgment has been given;

3.9.3 is final;

3.9.4 is not in respect of taxes, a fine or a penalty; and

3.9.5 was not obtained in a manner and is not of a kind the enforcement of which is contrary to the public policy of the Cayman Islands.

3.10 It is not necessary to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility in evidence of the Transaction Documents that any document be filed, recorded or enrolled with any governmental authority or agency or any official body in the Cayman Islands.

4 QUALIFICATIONS

The opinions expressed above are subject to the following qualifications:

4.1 The term "ENFORCEABLE" as used above means that the obligations assumed by the Company under the Transaction Documents are of a type which the courts of the Cayman Islands will enforce. It does not mean that those obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms. In particular:

4.1.1 enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, readjustment of debts or moratorium or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors;

4.1.2 enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity. For example, equitable remedies such as specific performance may not be available, inter alia, where damages are considered to be an adequate remedy;

4.1.3 some claims may become barred under the statutes of limitation or may be or become subject to defenses of set-off, counterclaim, estoppel and similar defenses;

4.1.4 where obligations are to be performed in a jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands, they may not be enforceable in the Cayman Islands to the extent that performance would be illegal under the laws of that jurisdiction;

4.1.5 the Cayman Islands court has jurisdiction to give judgment in the currency of the relevant obligation and statutory rates of interest payable upon judgments will vary according to the currency of the judgment. If the Company becomes insolvent and is made subject to a liquidation proceeding, the Cayman Islands court will require all debts to be proved in a common currency, which is likely to be the "functional currency" of the Company determined in accordance with applicable accounting principles. Currency indemnity provisions have not been tested, so far as we are aware, in the courts of the Cayman Islands; and

4.1.6 obligations to make payments that may be regarded as penalties will not be enforceable.

4.2 Cayman Islands stamp duty may be payable if the original Transaction Documents are brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands.

4.3 To maintain the Company in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, annual filing fees must be paid and returns made to the Registrar of Companies.

4.4 The obligations of the Company may be subject to restrictions pursuant to United Nations sanctions as implemented under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

4.5 A certificate, determination, calculation or designation of any party to the Transaction Documents as to any matter provided therein might be held by a Cayman Islands court not to be conclusive final and binding if, for example, it could be shown to have an unreasonable or arbitrary basis, or in the event of manifest error.

4.6 In principle a Cayman Islands court will award costs and disbursements in litigation in accordance with the relevant contractual provisions but there remains some uncertainty as to the way in which the rules of the Grand Court will be applied in practice. Whilst it is clear that costs incurred prior to judgment can be recovered in accordance with the contract, it is likely that post-judgment costs (to the extent recoverable at all) will be subject to taxation in accordance with Grand Court Rules Order 62.

4.7 We reserve our opinion as to the extent to which a Cayman Islands court would, in the event of any relevant illegality, sever the offending provisions and enforce the remainder of the transaction of which such provisions form a part, notwithstanding any express provisions in this regard.

4.8 We make no comment with regard to the references to foreign statutes in the Transaction Documents.

We express no view as to the commercial terms of the Transaction Documents or whether such terms represent the intentions of the parties and make no comment with regard to the representations which may be made by the Company.

This opinion is given as of the date shown and may not be relied upon as of any later date. This opinion may be relied upon by the addressees only. It may not be relied upon by any other person except with our prior written consent.

Yours faithfully,

MAPLES and CALDER

FORM OF OPINION OF BONN SCHMITT STIECHEN

UBS WARBURG LLC

NEW-YORK, NEW-YORK 10171

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Luxembourg, June , 2002

WH LUXEMBOURG HOLDINGS S.A.R.L.
WH LUXEMBOURG INTERMEDIATE HOLDINGS S.A.R.L.
WH LUXEMBOURG CM S.A.R.L.

(HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS THE "WH GUARANTORS")

Dear Sirs,

We have acted as Luxembourg counsel in connection with:

- an indenture dated June , 2002 (hereinafter referred to as the "Indenture") between WH ACQUISITION CORP., a Nevada corporation, WH INTERMEDIATE HOLDINGS LIMITED, a Cayman Islands corporation, the WH Guarantors and the BANK OF NEW-YORK as trustee;

- a registration rights agreement dated June , 2002 (hereinafter referred to as the "Registration Rights Agreement") between WH ACQUISITION CORP., a Nevada corporation, the WH Guarantors and UBS WARBURG LLC; and

- a purchase agreement dated June , 2002 (hereinafter referred to as the "Purchase Agreement") between WH ACQUISITION CORP., a Nevada corporation, HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL, INC., a Nevada corporation, and the entities listed on the signature pages of the Agreement as guarantors, including the WH Guarantors.

We have examined copies of the Indenture, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Purchase Agreement and such other documents as we have considered necessary.

We have not made any investigation of, and do not purport to express any opinion on, the law of any jurisdiction other than Luxembourg.

We have assumed:

(i) the capacity, power and authority of each of the parties (other than the WH Guarantors) to execute and deliver the Indenture, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Purchase Agreement (together the "DOCUMENTS");

(ii) that the execution copies of the Documents correspond in substance to the drafts that were submitted to us;

(iii) the due execution of the Documents by each of the parties (other than the WH Guarantors);

(iv) the due delivery of the Documents by each of the parties (other than the WH Guarantors);

(v) the conformity to original documents of all copy documents examined by us; and

(vi) the validity of the Documents and all other documents related to this transaction under their governing laws (other than the laws of Luxembourg) and the laws governing the parties thereto (other than the WH Guarantors).

Capitalised terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings given to them in the Documents.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the following opinion:

1. The WH Guarantors are corporations (societes a responsabilite limitee) duly organised and validly existing for an unlimited duration under the laws of Luxembourg and have the corporate capacity, power and authority to enter into the Documents and to carry out the transactions on the part of the WH Guarantors thereby contemplated. The WH Guarantors have not been declared bankrupt and, to the best of our knowledge, no steps have been taken for their winding up.

2. The entry into and the execution, delivery and performance of the Documents has been duly authorised on behalf of each of the WH Guarantors.

3. The Documents have been duly executed and delivered and the obligations of the WH Guarantors contained in the Documents constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the WH Guarantors enforceable against the WH Guarantors in accordance with their terms by the courts of Luxembourg.

4. None of the WH Guarantors is in violation of its constitutional documents.

5. The execution or delivery of the Documents or performance of any of the WH Guarantors' obligations under the Documents does not infringe or is not inconsistent with or a breach of or default under, any provision of the constitutional documents of any of the WH Guarantors or any Luxembourg law or regulation by which the WH Guarantors are bound and nothing in Luxembourg law or public policy will prevent the Documents from being enforced in the Luxembourg courts.

6. Subject to the provisions of qualification (o), it is not necessary or advisable in order to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility in evidence of any of the Documents that it or any other document be notarised or subject to any other formality or be filed, recorded, registered or enrolled with any court or authority in Luxembourg or that any other action be taken in relation to the same or any of them.

7. There is no withholding or other tax or duty imposed by any law, rule or regulation in Luxembourg on any payment to be made by the WH Guarantors under any of the Documents, save that payments made pursuant to the Documents may constitute taxable income in the hands of recipients resident in Luxembourg and/or recipients not resident in Luxembourg but having a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in Luxembourg to which or to whom the Documents are attributable.

8. If a Luxembourg court were to accept jurisdiction in any legal suit, action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the Documents, it would accept, and give effect to, the choice of law provisions of the Documents.

The opinions expressed herein are subject to the following qualifications:

(a) the obligations of the parties under the Documents may be limited by the general principles of bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, reconstruction or other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally (hereafter the "INSOLVENCY LAWS", and the relevant proceedings being referred to collectively as the "INSOLVENCY PROCEEDINGS"), and, in particular, in relation to the WH Guarantors:

- during a gestion controlee (controlled management) procedure under the Grand-Ducal Decree dated May 24, 1935 on the procedure of gestion controlee, the rights of secured creditors are frozen until a final decision has been taken by the court as to the petition for controlled management;

- the obligations of the WH Guarantors under the Documents may be affected and, after their performance, subject to annulment by a court on the basis of Article 445 of the Luxembourg Code of Commerce, if the Documents have been entered into during the suspect period ("periode suspecte"), such period being determined by the court in the judgement opening the insolvency proceedings, and preceding the date of such judgement by a maximum of 6 months and 10 days, and if the Documents constitute or contain, or the performance of such obligations thereunder would constitute (i) a contract for the transfer of movable or immovable property done without consideration, or a contract or transaction done with notably insufficient consideration for the insolvent party, or (ii) a payment, whether in cash or by transfer, assignment, sale, set-off or otherwise for debts not yet due, or a payment other than in cash or bills of exchange for debts due, or (iii) a contractual or judiciary mortgage, pledge, or charge on the debtor's assets for previously contracted debts;

- the obligations of the WH Guarantors under the Documents may be affected and after their performance, subject to annulment by a court on the basis of Article 446 of the Luxembourg Code of Commerce, if the Documents constitute or contain, or the performance of such obligations thereunder would constitute a payment for due debts or an onerous act done by the WH Guarantors after the stoppage of payments (such date as determined by the court) and prior to the judgement opening insolvency proceedings, if the counter-party that has received from or dealt with the WH Guarantors had knowledge of the stoppage of payments;

- regardless of the date of execution and performance, the Documents may be declared null and void in relation to the WH Guarantors, if they have been entered into with the fraudulent intent of the parties thereto to deprive other creditors of the insolvent party of their rights (Article 448 of the Code of Commerce);

- the obligations of the WH Guarantors may be affected or limited by the rights of the receiver liquidator or other court official appointed in the Insolvency Proceedings to selectively perform contracts profitable to the insolvent party's estate and renounce to the performance of contracts which are not profitable to the insolvent party's estate ("cherry-picking"), where such contracts have not been terminated automatically by the opening of the insolvency proceedings on the basis of an express contractual provision, or by operation of law;

(b) by application of article 203 of the Luxembourg Code on Commercial Companies a company not respecting any provision of Luxembourg criminal law or Luxembourg Law on Commercial Companies (especially but not limited to the obligations to lodge with the Register and publish the annual accounts) may be put into judicial liquidation upon the application of the Public Prosecutor;

(c) the rights and obligations of the parties under the Documents may be limited by general principles of criminal law, including but not limited to criminal freezing orders;

(d) whilst, in the event of any proceedings being brought in a Luxembourg court in respect of a monetary obligation expressed to be payable in a currency other than Euro, a Luxembourg court would have power to give judgement expressed as an order to pay a currency other than Euro, enforcement of the judgement against the WH Guarantors in Luxembourg would be available only in Euro and for such purposes all claims or debts would be converted into Euro;

(e) a Luxembourg court may stay proceedings if concurrent proceedings are being brought elsewhere;

(f) the expression valid and binding in paragraph 3 above means that the obligations expressed to be assumed under the Documents are of a type which the Luxembourg courts would treat as valid and binding. It does not mean that these obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms, as to which reference is made to the other qualifications expressed in this opinion and to the fact that a remedy such as specific performance or the issue of an injunction or a remedy such as termination for breach of contract are discretionary. In particular, notwithstanding any agreement purporting to confer the availability of any remedy, such remedy may not be available where damages instead of specific performance or specific performance instead of termination for breach of contract are considered by the court to be an adequate alternative remedy;

(g) a contractual provision conferring or imposing a remedy, an obligation or penalty consequent upon default may not be fully enforceable if it were construed by a Luxembourg court as constituting an excessive pecuniary remedy;

(h) a Luxembourg court may refuse to give effect to a purported contractual obligation to pay costs imposed upon another party in respect of the costs of any unsuccessful litigation brought against that party before a Luxembourg court and a Luxembourg court may not award by way of costs all of the expenditure incurred by a successful litigant in proceeding brought before such court;

(i) with respect to provisions under which determination of circumstances or certification by any party is stated or implied to be conclusive and binding upon the WH

Guarantors, a Luxembourg court would be authorised to examine whether such determination occurred in good faith;

(j) claims may become barred under the statute of limitations or may be or become subject to defences of set-off or counterclaim. As a principle, in commercial matters, claims are barred at the end of ten years and claims relating to interests at the end of five years;

(k) the Luxembourg courts would not apply a chosen foreign law if the choice was not made bona fide and/or if:

- the foreign law was not pleaded and proved; or
- if pleaded and proved, such foreign law would be contrary to the mandatory rules of Luxembourg law or manifestly incompatible with Luxembourg international public policy or public order;

(l) a Luxembourg court may refuse to apply the chosen governing law:

- if all elements of the matter are localised in a country other than the jurisdiction of the chosen governing law in which case it may apply the imperative laws of that jurisdiction; or
- if the agreement has a strong connection to another jurisdiction and certain laws of that jurisdiction are applicable regardless of the chosen governing law ("lois de police"), in which case it may apply those laws; or
- if a party is subject to insolvency proceedings, in which case it apply the insolvency laws of the jurisdiction in which such insolvency proceedings have been regularly opened to the effects of such insolvency;

(m) notwithstanding the jurisdiction clause contained in the Documents, Luxembourg courts would have in principle jurisdiction for any conservatory or provisional action in connection with assets located in Luxembourg and such action would most likely be governed by Luxembourg law;

7. the admissibility as evidence of the Documents before a Luxembourg court or Public Authority to which the Documents are produced may require that the Documents be accompanied by a complete or partial translation in the French or German language;

8. although such orders are rarely made in practice, Luxembourg courts may require the prior registration of the Documents, or any other document if they were to be produced in a Luxembourg court action, in which case a registration duty would become payable;

9. no opinion is given as to whether the performance of the Documents would cause any borrowing limits, debt/equity ratios, prudential, regulatory or other applicable ratios or borrowing limits to be exceeded or as to the consequences thereof;

10. other than as referred to in paragraph 6, no opinion is expressed on any tax consequences of the transactions considered;

THIS COLLATERAL SUPPORT AND ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT, is dated as of June , 2002 (as amended, supplemented, restated or otherwise modified from time to time, this "Agreement"), and is entered into by and among WH Acquisition Corp, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), Whitney V, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Sponsor"), Whitney Equity Partners V, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, the general partner of the Sponsor (the "General Partner") and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee") under the Indenture referred to below.

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, pursuant to an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of April 10, 2002 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands corporation, the Company and Herbalife International, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Herbalife"), the Company has agreed to merge with and into Herbalife (the "Merger") with Herbalife continuing as the surviving corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd.;

WHEREAS, the Company is issuing on the date hereof $165,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 11 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010 (and any notes that may from time to time be issued in substitution therefor, the "Notes"). The Notes will be issued pursuant to an indenture, dated as of the date hereof, by and among the Company, the guarantors signatory thereto and the Trustee (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Indenture");

(a) If (i) the Merger has not occurred prior to the close of business on August 31, 2002, or (ii) the Company has determined that the Merger will not occur by that date on substantially the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement and the Offering Memorandum (each, a "Triggering Event"), the Company shall, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture, redeem (a "Mandatory Redemption") all of the outstanding Notes, for a price equal to 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon through the redemption date, together with Liquidated Damages, if any (the "Mandatory Redemption Price"). The Mandatory Redemption must occur no later than 10 Business Days after the Triggering Event (the "Mandatory Redemption Date"); and

WHEREAS, it is a condition precedent to the issuance and sale of the Notes that the Sponsor enter into this Agreement to provide support for the obligations of the Company in connection with any Mandatory Redemption.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings provided in the Indenture. Capitalized terms defined herein and also defined in the Indenture shall have the meanings provided herein. In addition, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Fully Satisfied" means, with respect to the Support Obligation as of any date, that, as of such date, (a) the Support Obligation shall have been paid in full in cash and, (b) all fees, expenses and other amounts then due and payable under this Agreement shall have been paid in cash.

"Material Adverse Effect" means a material adverse effect on (i) the ability of the Sponsor to perform any material obligation under this Agreement or (ii) the material rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement.

"Partners" means a collective reference to all of the partners of the Sponsor.

"Transaction Documents" means the Indenture, the Notes, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Security and Control Agreement, collectively.

SECTION 2. COLLATERAL SUPPORT OBLIGATION.

(a) Support Obligation. If a Triggering Event occurs, the Sponsor shall, on or prior to the Mandatory Redemption Date, make a capital contribution to the Company in an amount equal to: (i) the Mandatory Redemption Price, minus (ii) the net liquidation proceeds (after deducting any applicable Securities Intermediary and Trustee fees and charges) delivered to the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.2 of the Security and Control Agreement (the obligation to make such payment, the "Support Obligation").

(b) Limitation of Support Obligation. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a) of this Section 2, the Sponsor shall have no obligation hereunder to make any contribution to the Company in respect of any amount of the Support Obligation that has been previously funded by any other Person.

SECTION 3. ASSIGNMENT TO TRUSTEE. The Company hereby unconditionally and irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys, contributes, delivers and sets over to the Trustee all right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Support Obligation (the "Assignment"). The Assignment is an absolute assignment and not a transfer for security. The Trustee hereby accepts the Assignment of the Support Obligation. The Sponsor hereby consents to the Assignment. The Assignment shall take effect as of the date hereof.

SECTION 4. OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL. The obligations of the Sponsor under Section 2 hereof are absolute and unconditional, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of any of the Transaction Documents, or any other agreement or instrument referred to therein, or any substitution, release, impairment or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for the Support Obligation, and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor, it being the intent of all parties that the Sponsor's Support Obligation shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances.

With respect to its obligations hereunder, the Sponsor hereby waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest, all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that the Trustee or Securities Intermediary exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against any Person under any Transaction Document or any other agreement or instrument referred to in the Transaction Documents, or against any other Person under any other guarantee of, or security for, the Support Obligation, except that upon closing of the Merger Sponsor shall be released.

SECTION 5. REINSTATEMENT. Neither the Support Obligation nor any remedy for the enforcement thereof shall be impaired, modified, changed or released in any manner whatsoever by an impairment, modification, change, release or limitation of the liability of the Company or any guarantor, by reason of the Company's or any guarantor's bankruptcy or insolvency or by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of all or any portion of the Support Obligation. The obligations of the Sponsor under this Agreement shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of any Person in respect of the Support Obligation is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of the Support Obligation, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

SECTION 6. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL WAIVERS. The Sponsor agrees that this Agreement may be enforced by the Trustee without the necessity of resorting to or exhausting any other security or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse under the Indenture or any collateral securing the Support Obligation or otherwise, and the Sponsor agrees not to assert any right to require the Trustee proceed against the Company or any other Person or to require the Trustee pursue any other remedy or enforce any other right. The Sponsor further acknowledges and agrees that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Trustee from suing any other Person in respect of the Support Obligation, foreclosing on any security interest or lien on any collateral securing the Support Obligation or from exercising any other right available to the Trustee in respect of the Support Obligation, if the Sponsor does not timely perform the Support Obligation. The exercise of any of such rights and completion of any such foreclosure proceedings shall not constitute a discharge of the Sponsor's obligations hereunder unless as a result thereof the Support Obligation shall have been Fully Satisfied, it being all parties' purpose and intent that the Support Obligation is absolute, irrevocable, independent and unconditional under all circumstances, except as such obligations may be terminated in accordance with the terms hereof.

SECTION 7. CALIFORNIA WAIVERS. For purposes of this Section 7 only, references to the "principal" include the Sponsor and references to the "creditor" includes the Trustee. In accordance with Section 2856 of the California Civil Code, the Sponsor waives all rights and defenses (i) available to it by reason of Sections 2787 through 2855, 2899, and 3433 of the California Civil Code, including all rights or defenses it may have by reason of protection afforded to the principal with respect to the Support Obligation, or to any other person liable for the Support Obligation, in either case in accordance with the antideficiency or other laws of the State of California limiting or discharging the principal's Indebtedness or such person's obligations, including Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure; and (ii) arising out of an election of remedies by the creditor, even though such election, such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for Support Obligation (or any obligation of any other person of the Support Obligation), has destroyed the Sponsor's right of subrogation and reimbursement against the principal (or such other person), by operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise. No other provision of this Agreement shall be construed as limiting the generality of any of the covenants and waivers set forth in this Section 7. As provided below, this Agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. This Section 7 is included solely out of an abundance of caution, and shall not be construed to mean that any of the above-referenced provisions of California law are in any way applicable to this Agreement or to the Support Obligation.

SECTION 8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The Sponsor hereby represents and warrants to the Trustee and the Company that:

(a) Existence and Power. The Sponsor is a limited partnership duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the State of Delaware, is in good standing as a foreign limited partnership in each other jurisdiction where ownership of its properties or the conduct of its business requires it to be so (except to the extent that the failure to be in good standing as a foreign limited partnership would not have a Material Adverse Effect), and has all power and authority under such laws and the Limited Partnership Agreement and all material governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals required to carry on its business as now conducted.

(b) Authorization. The Sponsor has the power and authority to enter into this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and has by proper action duly authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(c) No Conflicts or Consents. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, nor the performance of and compliance with the terms and provisions hereof will (i) violate or conflict with any provision of the Limited Partnership Agreement or other governance document, (ii) violate any material law, regulation, order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree or permit applicable to the Sponsor, (iii) violate or materially conflict with material contractual provisions of, or cause an event of default under, any indenture, loan agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other agreement or instrument to which the Sponsor is a party or by which it may be bound or (iv) result in or require the creation of any material lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance (other than those contemplated in or in connection with this Agreement) upon or with respect to the Sponsor's properties.

(d) Consents. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing, registration or qualification with, any Person which has not been obtained is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by the Sponsor.

(e) Enforceable Obligations. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Sponsor and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Sponsor, enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (whether enforcement is sought by proceedings in equity or at law).

(i) Adequate Capital Commitments. The Sponsor has adequate capital commitments from the Partners to satisfy its Support Obligations.

SECTION 9. COVENANTS. The Sponsor hereby covenants and agrees with the Trustee that so long as this Agreement is in effect:

(a) Preservation of Existence and Franchises. The Sponsor will do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, material rights, material franchises and authority.

(b) Compliance with Law. The Sponsor will comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and orders of, and all applicable restrictions imposed by, all applicable governmental bodies, foreign or domestic, or authorities and agencies thereof (including quasi-governmental authorities and agencies), in respect of the conduct of its business and the ownership of its property (including applicable statutes, regulations, orders and restrictions relating to environmental standards and controls).

(c) Nature of Business. The Sponsor will not engage in any business activity that is not permitted by its limited partnership agreement.

(d) Consolidation or Merger. The Sponsor will not dissolve, liquidate in its entirety, or wind up its affairs, or enter into any transaction of merger or consolidation.

(e) Adequate Capital Commitments. The Sponsor will cause the capital commitments from the Partners at all times to be sufficient to satisfy its Support Obligations.

(f) Requests for Capital Contributions. Upon the occurrence of a Triggering Event, the General Partner to take all steps required to cause the Partners to make capital contributions in an aggregate amount (taken together with any corresponding capital contribution by the General Partner and any amounts to be provided in respect of the Support Obligation by Persons other than the Sponsor) at least equal to the Support Obligation no later than four Business Days following the Triggering Event.

SECTION 10. ADDITIONAL LIABILITY OF THE SPONSOR. If the Sponsor is or becomes liable for any indebtedness owing by the Company to the Trustee by endorsement or otherwise other than under this Agreement, such liability shall not be in any manner impaired or reduced hereby but shall have all and the same force and effect it would have had if this Agreement had not existed and the Sponsor's liability hereunder shall not be in any manner' impaired or reduced thereby.

SECTION 11. NO WAIVER; CUMULATIVE RIGHTS. No failure or delay on the part of the Trustee in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Transaction Document and no course of dealing between the Trustee and the Company or the Sponsor shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Transaction Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which the Trustee would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on the Company or the Sponsor in any case shall entitle either of them to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any rights of the Trustee.

SECTION 12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall be binding on and enforceable against the Sponsor and its successors and assigns. The Sponsor may not assign or transfer any of its obligations hereunder without prior written consent of the Trustee.

SECTION 13. MODIFICATIONS. This Agreement and the provisions hereof may be amended, changed, waived, discharged or terminated only by an instrument in writing signed by the Sponsor and the Trustee. Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence, no action under and in accordance with Article IX of the Indenture to effectuate any amendment, change, waiver, discharge or termination in respect of any event or Capitalized terms defined herein and also defined in the Indenture shall have the meanings provided herein. In addition, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Fully Satisfied" means, with respect to the Support Obligation as of any date, that, as of such date, (a) the Support Obligation shall have been paid in full in cash and, (b) all fees, expenses and other amounts then due and payable under this Agreement shall have been paid in cash.

"Material Adverse Effect" means a material adverse effect on (i) the ability of the Sponsor to perform any material obligation under this Agreement or (ii) the material rights and remedies of the Trustee under this Agreement.

"Partners" means a collective reference to all of the partners of the Sponsor.

"Transaction Documents" means the Indenture, the Notes, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Security and Control Agreement, collectively.

SECTION 2. COLLATERAL SUPPORT OBLIGATION.

(a) Support Obligation. If a Triggering Event occurs, the Sponsor shall, on or prior to the Mandatory Redemption Date, make a capital contribution to the Company in an amount equal to: (i) the Mandatory Redemption Price, minus (ii) the net liquidation proceeds (after deducting any applicable Securities Intermediary and Trustee fees and charges) delivered to the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.2 of the Security and Control Agreement (the obligation to make such payment, the "Support Obligation").

(b) Limitation of Support Obligation. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a) of this Section 2, the Sponsor shall have no obligation hereunder to make any contribution to the Company in respect of any amount of the Support Obligation that has been previously funded by any other Person.

SECTION 3. ASSIGNMENT TO TRUSTEE. The Company hereby unconditionally and irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys, contributes, delivers and sets over to the Trustee all right, title and interest of the Company in and to the Support Obligation (the "Assignment"). The Assignment is an absolute assignment and not a transfer for security. The Trustee hereby accepts the Assignment of the Support Obligation. The Sponsor hereby consents to the Assignment. The Assignment shall take effect as of the date hereof.

SECTION 4. OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL. The obligations of the Sponsor under Section 2 hereof are absolute and unconditional, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of any of the Transaction Documents, or any other agreement or instrument referred to therein, or any substitution, release, impairment or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for the Support Obligation, and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor, it being the intent of all parties that the Sponsor's Support Obligation shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances.

With respect to its obligations hereunder, the Sponsor hereby waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest, all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that the Trustee or Securities Intermediary exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against any Person under any Transaction Document or any other agreement or instrument referred to in the Transaction Documents, or against any other Person under any other guarantee of, or security for, the Support Obligation, except that upon closing of the Merger Sponsor shall be released.

SECTION 5. REINSTATEMENT. Neither the Support Obligation nor any remedy for the enforcement thereof shall be impaired, modified, changed or released in any manner whatsoever by an impairment, modification, change, release or limitation of the liability of the Company or any guarantor, by reason of the Company's or any guarantor's bankruptcy or insolvency or by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of all or any portion of the Support Obligation. The obligations of the Sponsor under this Agreement shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of any Person in respect of the Support Obligation is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of the Support Obligation, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise.

SECTION 6. CERTAIN ADDITIONAL WAIVERS. The Sponsor agrees that this Agreement may be enforced by the Trustee without the necessity of resorting to or exhausting any other security or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse under the Indenture or any collateral securing the Support Obligation or otherwise, and the Sponsor agrees not to assert any right to require the Trustee proceed against the Company or any other Person or to require the Trustee pursue any other remedy or enforce any other right. The Sponsor further acknowledges and agrees that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Trustee from suing any other Person in respect of the Support Obligation, foreclosing on any security interest or lien on any collateral securing the Support Obligation or from exercising any other right available to the Trustee in respect of the Support Obligation, if the Sponsor does not timely perform the Support Obligation. The exercise of any of such rights and completion of any such foreclosure proceedings shall not constitute a discharge of the Sponsor's obligations hereunder unless as a result thereof the Support Obligation shall have been Fully Satisfied, it being all parties' purpose and intent that the Support Obligation is absolute, irrevocable, independent and unconditional under all circumstances, except as such obligations may be terminated in accordance with the terms hereof.

SECTION 7. CALIFORNIA WAIVERS. For purposes of this Section 7 only, references to the "principal" include the Sponsor and references to the "creditor" includes the Trustee. In accordance with Section 2856 of the California Civil Code, the Sponsor waives all rights and defenses (i) available to it by reason of Sections 2787 through 2855, 2899, and 3433 of the California Civil Code, including all rights or defenses it may have by reason of protection afforded to the principal with respect to the Support Obligation, or to any other person liable for the Support Obligation, in either case in accordance with the antideficiency or other laws of the State of California limiting or discharging the principal's Indebtedness or such person's obligations, including Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure; and (ii) arising out of an election of remedies by the creditor, even though such election, such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for Support Obligation (or any obligation of any other person of the Support Obligation), has destroyed the Sponsor's right of subrogation and reimbursement against the principal (or such other person), by operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise. No other provision of this Agreement shall be construed as limiting the generality of any of the covenants and waivers set forth in this Section 7. As provided below, this Agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. This Section 7 is included solely out of an abundance of caution, and shall not be construed to mean that any of the above-referenced provisions of California law are in any way applicable to this Agreement or to the Support Obligation.

SECTION 8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The Sponsor hereby represents and warrants to the Trustee and the Company that:

(a) Existence and Power. The Sponsor is a limited partnership duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the British Virgin Islands, is in good standing as a foreign limited partnership in each other jurisdiction where ownership of its properties or the conduct of its business requires it to be so (except to the extent that the failure to be in good standing as a foreign limited partnership would not have a Material Adverse Effect), and has all power and authority under such laws and the Limited Partnership Agreement and all material governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals required to carry on its business as now conducted.

(b) Authorization. The Sponsor has the power and authority to enter into this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and has by proper action duly authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(c) No Conflicts or Consents. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, nor the performance of and compliance with the terms and provisions hereof will (i) violate or conflict with any provision of the Limited Partnership Agreement or other governance document, (ii) violate any material law, regulation, order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree or permit applicable to the Sponsor, (iii) violate or materially conflict with material contractual provisions of, or cause an event of default under, any indenture, loan agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other agreement or instrument to which the Sponsor is a party or by which it may be bound or (iv) result in or require the creation of any material lien, security interest or other charge or encumbrance (other than those contemplated in or in connection with this Agreement) upon or with respect to the Sponsor's properties.

(d) Consents. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing, registration or qualification with, any Person which has not been obtained is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by the Sponsor.

(e) Enforceable Obligations. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Sponsor and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Sponsor, enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (whether enforcement is sought by proceedings in equity or at law).

(i) Adequate Capital Commitments. The Sponsor has adequate capital commitments from the Partners to satisfy its Support Obligations.

SECTION 9. COVENANTS. The Sponsor hereby covenants and agrees with the Trustee that so long as this Agreement is in effect:

(b) Compliance with Law. The Sponsor will comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and orders of, and all applicable restrictions imposed by, all applicable governmental bodies, foreign or domestic, or authorities and agencies thereof (including quasi-governmental authorities and agencies), in respect of the conduct of its business and the ownership of its property (including applicable statutes, regulations, orders and restrictions relating to environmental standards and controls).

(c) Nature of Business. The Sponsor will not engage in any business activity that is not permitted by its limited partnership agreement.

(d) Consolidation or Merger. The Sponsor will not dissolve, liquidate in its entirety, or wind up its affairs, or enter into any transaction of merger or consolidation.

(e) Adequate Capital Commitments. The Sponsor will cause the capital commitments from the Partners at all times to be sufficient to satisfy its Support Obligations.

(f) Requests for Capital Contributions. Upon the occurrence of a Triggering Event, the General Partner to take all steps required to cause the Partners to make capital contributions in an aggregate amount (taken together with any corresponding capital contribution by the General Partner and any amounts to be provided in respect of the Support Obligation by Persons other than the Sponsor) at least equal to the Support Obligation no later than four Business Days following the Triggering Event.

SECTION 10. ADDITIONAL LIABILITY OF THE SPONSOR. If the Sponsor is or becomes liable for any indebtedness owing by the Company to the Trustee by endorsement or otherwise other than under this Agreement, such liability shall not be in any manner impaired or reduced hereby but shall have all and the same force and effect it would have had if this Agreement had not existed and the Sponsor's liability hereunder shall not be in any manner' impaired or reduced thereby.

SECTION 11. NO WAIVER; CUMULATIVE RIGHTS. No failure or delay on the part of the Trustee in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Transaction Document and no course of dealing between the Trustee and the Company or the Sponsor shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Transaction Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which the Trustee would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on the Company or the Sponsor in any case shall entitle either of them to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of any rights of the Trustee.

SECTION 12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall be binding on and enforceable against the Sponsor and its successors and assigns. The Sponsor may not assign or transfer any of its obligations hereunder without prior written consent of the Trustee.

SECTION 13. MODIFICATIONS. This Agreement and the provisions hereof may be amended, changed, waived, discharged or terminated only by an instrument in writing signed by the Sponsor and the Trustee. Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence, no action under and in accordance with Article IX of the Indenture to effectuate any amendment, change, waiver, discharge or termination in respect of any event or

(a) The Issuer and the Guarantors shall (i) file a Registration Statement (the "Exchange Offer Registration Statement") within 105 days after the Merger Date with the Commission on an appropriate registration form with respect to a registered offer (the "Exchange Offer") to exchange any and all of the Registrable Notes for a like aggregate principal amount of notes (the "Exchange Notes") that are identical in all material respects to the Notes (except that the Exchange Notes shall not contain terms with respect to transfer restrictions or Liquidated Damages upon a Registration Default), (ii) use their reasonable efforts to cause the Exchange Offer Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act within 180 days after the Merger Date and (iii) use their reasonable efforts to consummate the Exchange Offer within 210 days after the Merger Date. Upon the Exchange Offer Registration Statement being declared effective by the Commission, the Issuer and the Guarantors will offer the Exchange Notes in exchange for surrender of the Notes. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall keep the Exchange Offer open for not less than 30 days (or longer if required by applicable law) after the date notice of the Exchange Offer is mailed to Holders.

Each Holder that participates in the Exchange Offer will be required to represent to the Issuer and the Guarantors in writing that (i) any Exchange Notes to be received by it will be acquired in the ordinary course of its business, (ii) it has no arrangement or understanding with any Person to participate in the distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of the Exchange Notes in violation of the provisions of the Securities Act or, if it is an affiliate, it will comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to the extent applicable, (iii) if such Holder is not a broker-dealer, it is not engaged in, and does not intend to engage in, a distribution of Exchange Notes, (iv) if such Holder is a broker-dealer that will receive Exchange Notes for its own account in exchange for Notes that were acquired as a result of market-making or other trading activities, it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes and (v) such Holder has full power and authority to transfer the Notes in exchange for the Exchange Notes and that the Issuer will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto free and clear of any liens, restrictions, charges or encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claims.

(b) The Issuer, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser acknowledge that the staff of the Commission has taken the position that any broker-dealer that elects to exchange Notes that were acquired by such broker-dealer for its own account as a result of market-making or other trading activities for Exchange Notes in the Exchange Offer (a "Participating Broker-Dealer") may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act and must deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes (other than a resale of an unsold allotment resulting from the original offering of the Notes).

The Issuer, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser also acknowledge that the staff of the Commission has taken the position that if the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement includes a plan of distribution containing a statement to the above effect and the means by which Participating Broker-Dealers may resell the Exchange Notes, without naming the Participating Broker-Dealers or specifying the amount of Exchange Notes owned by them, such Prospectus may be delivered by Participating Broker-Dealers to satisfy their prospectus delivery obligations under the Securities Act in connection with resales of Exchange Notes for their own accounts, so long as the Prospectus otherwise meets the requirements of the Securities Act.

In light of the foregoing, if requested by a Participating Broker-Dealer (a "Requesting Participating Broker-Dealer"), the Issuer and the Guarantors agree to use their reasonable efforts to keep the Exchange Offer Registration Statement continuously effective for a period not to exceed 180 days after the date on which the Exchange Registration Statement is declared effective, or such longer period if extended pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 5 hereof (such period, the "Applicable Period"), or such earlier date as all Requesting Participating Broker-Dealers shall have notified the Issuer in writing that such Requesting Participating Broker-Dealers have resold all Exchange Notes acquired in the Exchange Offer. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall include a plan of distribution in such Exchange Offer Registration Statement that meets the requirements set forth in the preceding paragraph.

If, prior to consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Initial Purchaser or any Holder, as the case may be, holds any Notes acquired by it that have, or that are reasonably likely to be determined to have, the status of an unsold allotment in an initial distribution, or if any Holder is not entitled to participate in the Exchange Offer, the Issuer upon the request of the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, shall simultaneously with the delivery of the Exchange Notes in the Exchange Offer, issue and deliver to the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, in exchange (the "Private Exchange") for such Notes held by the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, a like principal amount of notes (the "Private Exchange Notes") of the Issuer that are identical in all material respects to the Exchange Notes except that the Private Exchange Notes may be subject to restrictions on transfer and bear a legend to such effect. The Private Exchange Notes shall be issued pursuant to the same Indenture as the Exchange Notes and bear the same CUSIP number as the Exchange Notes.

For each Note surrendered in the Exchange Offer, the Holder will receive an Exchange Note having a principal amount equal to that of the surrendered Note. Interest on each Exchange Note and Private Exchange Note issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer and in the Private Exchange will accrue from the last interest payment date on which interest was paid on the Notes surrendered in exchange therefor or, if no interest has been paid on the Notes, from the Issue Date.

Upon consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall have no further registration obligations other than the Issuer's and the Guarantors' continuing registration obligations with respect to (i) Private Exchange Notes, (ii) Exchange Notes held by Participating Broker-Dealers and (iii) Notes or Exchange Notes as to which clause (c)(iii) of this Section 2 applies.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall:

(1) mail or cause to be mailed to each Holder entitled to participate in the Exchange Offer a copy of the Prospectus forming part of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, together with an appropriate letter of transmittal and related documents;

(2) utilize the services of a depositary for the Exchange Offer with an address in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York;

(3) permit Holders to withdraw tendered Notes at any time prior to the close of business, New York time, on the last Business Day on which the Exchange Offer shall remain open; and

(4) otherwise comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

As soon as practicable after the close of the Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange, if any, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall:

(1) accept for exchange all Registrable Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn by the Holders pursuant to the Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange, if any;

(2) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation all Registrable Notes so accepted for exchange; and

(3) cause the Trustee to authenticate and deliver promptly to each such Holder of Notes, Exchange Notes or Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, equal in principal amount to the Registrable Notes of such Holder so accepted for exchange.

The Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange shall not be subject to any conditions, other than that (i) the Exchange Offer or Private Exchange, as the case may be, does not violate applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission, (ii) no action or proceeding shall have been instituted or threatened in any court or by any governmental agency which might materially impair the ability of the Issuer and the Guarantors to proceed with the Exchange Offer or the Private Exchange, and no material adverse development shall have occurred in any existing action or proceeding with respect to the Issuer or the Guarantors and (iii) all governmental approvals shall have been obtained, which approvals the Issuer deems necessary for the consummation of the Exchange Offer or Private Exchange.

The Exchange Notes and the Private Exchange Notes shall be issued under (i) the Indenture or (ii) Indenture identical in all material respects to the Indenture (in either case, with such changes as are necessary to comply with any requirements of the Commission to effect or maintain the qualification thereof under the TIA) and which, in either case, has been qualified under the TIA and shall provide that (a) the Exchange Notes shall not be subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture and (b) the Private Exchange Notes shall be subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The Indenture or such indentures shall provide that the Exchange Notes, the Private Exchange Notes and the Notes shall vote and consent together on all matters as one class and that none of the Exchange Notes, the Private Exchange Notes or the Notes will have the right to vote or consent as a separate class on any matter.

(c) In the event that (i) any changes in law or the applicable interpretations of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Issuer and the Guarantors to effect the Exchange Offer,

(ii) for any reason the Exchange Offer is not consummated within 210 days of the Issue Date, (iii) any Holder, other than the Initial Purchaser, is prohibited by law or the applicable interpretations of the staff of the Commission from participating in the Exchange Offer or does not receive Exchange Notes on the date of the exchange that may be sold without restriction under state and federal securities laws (other than due solely to the status of such holder as an affiliate of the Issuer within the meaning of the Securities Act) or (iv) the Initial Purchaser so requests with respect to Notes or Private Exchange Notes that have, or that are reasonably likely to be determined to have, the status of unsold allotments in an initial distribution (each such event referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of this sentence, a "Shelf Filing Event"), then the Issuer and the Guarantors shall file a Shelf Registration pursuant to Section 3 hereof.

Section 3. Shelf Registration

If at any time a Shelf Filing Event shall occur, then:

(a) Shelf Registration. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall file with the Commission a Registration Statement for an offering to be made on a continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 covering all of the Registrable Notes not exchanged in the Exchange Offer, Private Exchange Notes and Exchange Notes as to which Section 2(c)(iii) is applicable (the "Shelf Registration"). The Issuer and the Guarantors shall use their reasonable efforts to file with the Commission the Shelf Registration as promptly as practicable. The Shelf Registration shall be on Form S-1 or another appropriate form permitting registration of such Registrable Notes for resale by Holders in the manner or manners designated by them (including, without limitation, one or more underwritten offerings). The Issuer shall not permit any securities other than the Registrable Notes to be included in the Shelf Registration.

(b) The Issuer and the Guarantors shall use their reasonable efforts (x) to cause the Shelf Registration to be declared effective under the Securities Act on or prior to the later of 210 calendar days after the Merger Date or 90 days after the Shelf Registration is required to be filed with the Commission and (y) to keep the Shelf Registration continuously effective under the Securities Act for the period ending on the date which is two years from the Issue Date, subject to extension pursuant to the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof (the "Effectiveness Period"), or such shorter period ending when all Registrable Notes covered by the Shelf Registration have been sold in the manner set forth and as contemplated in the Shelf Registration; provided, however, that (i) the Effectiveness Period in respect of the Shelf Registration shall be extended to the extent required to permit dealers to comply with the applicable prospectus delivery requirements of Rule 174 under the Securities Act and as otherwise provided herein and (ii) the Issuer and the Guarantors may suspend the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement by written notice to the Holders as a result of (A) the filing of a post-effective amendment to the Shelf Registration Statement to incorporate annual audited financial information with respect to the Issuer where such post-effective amendment is not yet effective and needs to be declared effective to permit Holders to use the related Prospectus and (B) the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof.

(c) Supplements and Amendments. The Issuer and the Guarantors agree to supplement or make amendments to the Shelf Registration Statement as and when required by the rules, regulations or instructions applicable to the registration form used for such Shelf Registration Statement or by the Securities Act or rules and regulations thereunder for shelf registration, or if reasonably requested by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or by any underwriter of such Registrable Notes.

Section 4. Liquidated Damages

(a) The Issuer, the Guarantors and the Initial Purchaser agree that the Holders will suffer damages if the Issuer and the Guarantors fail to fulfill their respective obligations under Section 2 or Section 3 hereof and that it would not be feasible to ascertain the extent of such damages with precision. Accordingly, the Issuer and the Guarantors agree that if:

(i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not filed with the Commission on or prior to the 105th day following the Merger Date or, if that filing date is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day,

(ii) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not declared effective on or prior to the 180th day following the Merger Date or, if that effectiveness day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day,

(iii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to the 210th day following the Merger Date, or, if that day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day; or

(iv) the Shelf Registration Statement is required to be filed but is not declared effective by the later of 210 calendar days after the Merger Date or 90 days after the Shelf Registration is required to be filed with the Commission, or, if either such day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day or is declared effective by such date but thereafter ceases to be effective or usable, except if the Shelf Registration ceases to be effective or usable as specifically permitted by the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof

(each such event referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) a "Registration Default"), liquidated damages ("Liquidated Damages") will accrue on the affected Notes and the affected Exchange Notes, as applicable. The rate of Liquidated Damages will be 0.25% per annum for the first 90-day period immediately following the occurrence of a Registration Default, increasing by an additional 0.25% per annum with respect to each subsequent 90-day period up to a maximum amount of 1.00% per annum, from and including the date on which any such Registration Default shall occur to, but excluding, the earlier of (1) the date on which all Registration Defaults have been cured or (2) the date on which all the Notes and Exchange Notes otherwise become freely transferable by Holders other than affiliates of the Issuer without further registration under the Securities Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) the amount of Liquidated Damages payable shall not increase because more than one Registration Default has occurred and is pending and (2) a Holder of Notes or Exchange Notes who is not entitled to the benefits of the Shelf Registration Statement (i.e., such Holder has not elected to include information) shall not be entitled to Liquidated Damages with respect to a Registration Default that pertains to the Shelf Registration Statement.

(b) So long as Notes remain outstanding, the Issuer shall notify the Trustee within five Business Days after each and every date on which an event occurs in respect of which Liquidated Damages is required to be paid. Any amounts of Liquidated Damages due pursuant to clauses (a)(i), (a)(ii), (a)(iii) or (a)(iv) of this Section 4 will be payable in cash semi-annually on each January 15th and July 15th (each a "Damages Payment Date"), commencing with the first such date occurring after any such Liquidated Damages commence to accrue, to Holders to whom regular interest is payable on such Damages Payment Date with respect to Notes that are Registrable Securities. The amount of Liquidated Damages for Registrable Notes will be determined by multiplying the applicable rate of Liquidated Damages by the aggregate principal amount of all such Registrable Notes outstanding on the Damages Payment Date following such Registration Default in the case of the first such payment of Liquidated Damages with respect to a Registration Default (and thereafter at the next succeeding Damages Payment Date until the cure of such Registration Default), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days such Liquidated Damages rate was applicable during such period (determined on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months and, in the case of a partial month, the actual number of days elapsed), and the denominator of which is 360.

Section 5. Registration Procedures

In connection with the filing of any Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2 or 3 hereof, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall effect such registrations to permit the sale of the securities covered thereby in accordance with the intended method or methods of disposition thereof, and pursuant thereto and in connection with any Registration Statement filed by the Issuer and the Guarantors hereunder, each of the Issuer and the Guarantors shall:

(a) Prepare and file with the Commission the Registration Statement or Registration Statements prescribed by Section 2 or 3 hereof, and use its reasonable efforts to cause each such Registration Statement to become effective and remain effective as provided herein; provided, however, that if (1) such filing is pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period relating thereto, before filing any Registration Statement or Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall furnish to and afford the Holders of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its counsel (if such counsel is known to the Issuer) and the managing underwriters, if any, a reasonable opportunity to review copies of all such documents (including copies of any documents to be incorporated by reference therein and all exhibits thereto) proposed to be filed (in each case at least five Business Days prior to such filing or such later date as is reasonable under the circumstances). The Issuer and the Guarantors shall not file any Registration Statement or Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto if the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement, or any such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its counsel, or the managing underwriters, if any, shall reasonably object on a timely basis.

(b) Prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and post-effective amendments to each Shelf Registration Statement or Exchange Offer Registration Statement, as the case may be, as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement continuously effective for the Effectiveness Period or the Applicable Period, as the case may be; cause the related Prospectus to be supplemented by any Prospectus supplement required by applicable law, and as so supplemented to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (or any similar provisions then in force) promulgated under the Securities Act; and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act applicable to it with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such Registration Statement as so amended or in such Prospectus as so supplemented and with respect to the subsequent resale of any securities being sold by a Participating Broker-Dealer covered by any such Prospectus, in each case, in accordance with the intended methods of distribution set forth in such Registration Statement or Prospectus, as so amended.

(c) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period relating thereto from whom the Issuer has received written notice that such Broker-Dealer will be a Participating Broker-Dealer in the applicable Exchange Offer, notify the selling Holders of Registrable Notes, or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, their counsel and the managing underwriters, if any, as promptly as possible, and, if requested by any such Person, confirm such notice in writing, (i) when a Prospectus or any Prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment has been filed, and, with respect to a Registration Statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective under the Securities Act (including in such notice a written statement that any Holder may, upon request, obtain, at the sole expense of the Issuer, one conformed copy of such Registration Statement or post-effective amendment including financial statements and schedules, documents incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference and exhibits), (ii) of the issuance by the Commission of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or of any order preventing or suspending the use of any preliminary prospectus or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, (iii) if at any time when a Prospectus is required by the Securities Act to be delivered in connection with sales of the Registrable Notes or resales of Exchange Notes by Participating Broker-Dealers, the representations and warranties of the Issuer or the Guarantors contained in any agreement (including any underwriting agreement) contemplated by Section 5(m)(i) hereof cease to be true and correct in all material respects, (iv) of the receipt by the Issuer or the Guarantors of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification or exemption from qualification of a Registration Statement or any of the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes for offer or sale in any jurisdiction, or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose, (v) of the happening of any event, the existence of any condition or any information becoming known to the Issuer or any Guarantor that makes any statement made in such Registration Statement or related Prospectus or any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference untrue in any material respect or that requires the making of any changes in or amendments or supplements to such Registration Statement, Prospectus or documents so that, in the case of the Registration Statement, it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and that in the case of the Prospectus, it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (vi) of the Issuer's determination that a post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement would be appropriate.

(d) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the issuance of any order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or of any order preventing or suspending the use of a Prospectus or suspending the qualification (or exemption from qualification) of any of the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes, as the case may be, for sale in any jurisdiction, and, if any such order is issued, to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the withdrawal of any such order at the earliest practicable moment.

(e) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period and if reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters (if any), the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or any Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, (i) promptly incorporate in such Registration Statement or Prospectus a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment such information as the managing underwriter or underwriters (if any), such Holders or any Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be (based upon advice of counsel), determine is reasonably necessary to be included therein and (ii) make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or such post-effective amendment as soon as practicable after the Issuer has received notification of the matters to be incorporated in such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment; provided, however, that the Issuer and the Guarantors shall not be required to take any action hereunder that would, in the written opinion of counsel to the Issuer and the Guarantors, violate applicable laws.

(f) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, furnish to each selling Holder of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, who so requests, its counsel and each managing underwriter, if any, at the sole expense of the Issuer, one conformed copy of the Registration Statement or Registration Statements and each post-effective amendment thereto, including financial statements and schedules, and, if requested, all documents incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference and all exhibits.

(g) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, deliver to each selling Holder of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its respective counsel, and the underwriters, if any, at the sole expense of the Issuer, as many copies of the Prospectus or Prospectuses (including each form of preliminary prospectus) and each amendment or supplement thereto and any documents incorporated by reference therein as such Persons may reasonably request; and, subject to the last paragraph of this Section 5, the Issuer hereby consents to the use of such Prospectus and each amendment or supplement thereto by each of the selling Holders of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, and the underwriters or agents, if any, and dealers (if any), in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Notes covered by, or the sale by Participating Broker-Dealers of the Exchange Notes pursuant to, such Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto.

(h) Prior to any public offering of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes or any delivery of a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, use its reasonable best efforts to register or qualify, and to cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, and its respective counsel in connection with the registration or qualification (or exemption from such registration or qualification) of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as the case may be, for offer and sale under the securities or Blue Sky laws of such jurisdictions within the United States as any selling Holder, Participating Broker-Dealer, or the managing underwriter or underwriters reasonably request; provided, however, that where Exchange Notes or Registrable Notes are offered other than through an underwritten offering, the Issuer agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Issuer's counsel to perform Blue Sky investigations and file registrations and qualifications required to be filed pursuant to this Section 5(h); keep each such registration or qualification (or exemption therefrom) effective during the period such Registration Statement is required to be kept effective and do any and all other acts or things reasonably necessary or advisable to enable the disposition in such jurisdictions of such Exchange Notes or Registrable Notes covered by the applicable Registration Statement; provided, however, that none of the Issuer or the Guarantors shall not be required to (A) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not then so qualified, (B) take any action that would subject it to general service of process in any such jurisdiction where it is not then so subject or (C) subject itself to taxation in excess of a nominal dollar amount in any such jurisdiction where it is not then so subject.

(i) If a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Notes and the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing Registrable Notes to be sold, which certificates shall not bear any restrictive legends and shall be in a form eligible for deposit with the depositary or common depositary, as applicable, and enable such Registrable Notes to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, or selling Holders may request at least five Business Days prior to any sale of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes.

(j) Use its reasonable efforts to cause the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes covered by any Registration Statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be reasonably necessary to enable the seller or sellers thereof or the underwriter or underwriters, if any, to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, except as may be required solely as a consequence of the nature of such selling Holder's business, in which case the Issuer and the Guarantors will cooperate in all reasonable respects with the filing of such Registration Statement and the granting of such approvals.

(k) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, upon the occurrence of any event contemplated by Section 5(c)(v) or 5(c)(vi) hereof, as promptly as practicable prepare and (subject to Section 5(a) and the penultimate paragraph of this Section 5) file with the Commission, at the sole expense of the Issuer, a supplement or post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement or a supplement to the related Prospectus or any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference, or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of the Registrable Notes being sold thereunder or to the purchasers of the Exchange Notes to whom such Prospectus will be delivered by a Participating Broker-Dealer, any such Prospectus will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(l) Prior to the effective date of the first Registration Statement relating to the Registrable Notes, (i) provide the Trustee with certificates for the Registrable Notes in a form eligible for deposit with the depositary and common depositary, as applicable, and (ii) provide a CUSIP number for the Registrable Notes.

(m) In connection with any underwritten offering of Registrable Notes pursuant to a Shelf Registration, enter into an underwriting agreement as is customary in underwritten offerings of debt securities similar to the Notes and take all such other actions as are reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters in order to expedite or facilitate the registration or the disposition of such Registrable Notes and, in such connection, (i) make such representations and warranties to, and covenants with, the underwriters with respect to the business of the Issuer, the Guarantors and their respective subsidiaries, as then conducted (including any acquired business, properties or entity, if applicable), and the Registration Statement, Prospectus and documents, if any, incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference therein, in each case, as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in underwritten offerings of debt securities similar to the Notes, and confirm the same in writing if and when requested; (ii) use its reasonable efforts to obtain the written opinions of counsel to the Issuer and the Guarantors and written updates thereof in form, scope and substance reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter or underwriters, addressed to the underwriters covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters; (iii) use its reasonable efforts to obtain "cold comfort" letters and updates thereof in form, scope and substance reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter or underwriters from the independent certified public accountants of the Issuer and the Guarantors (and, if necessary, any other independent certified public accountants of any subsidiary of the Issuer or any Guarantor or of any business acquired by the Issuer or any Guarantor for which financial statements and financial data are, or are required to be, included or incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement), addressed to each of the underwriters, such letters to be in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters in connection with underwritten offerings; and (iv) if an underwriting agreement is entered into, the same shall contain indemnification provisions and procedures no less favorable than those set forth in Section 7 hereof (or such other provisions and procedures acceptable to Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement and the managing underwriter or underwriters or agents) with respect to all parties to be indemnified pursuant to said Section; provided that the Issuer and the Guarantors shall not be required to provide indemnification to any underwriter selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 hereof with respect to information relating to such underwriter furnished in writing to the Issuer and the Guarantors by or on behalf of such underwriter expressly for inclusion in such Registration Statement. The above shall be done at each closing under such underwriting agreement, or as and to the extent required thereunder.

(n) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, make available for inspection by any selling Holder of such Registrable Notes being sold or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, any underwriter participating in any such disposition of Registrable Notes, if any, and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such selling Holder or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, or underwriter (collectively, the “Inspectors”), at the offices where normally kept, during reasonable business hours, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and instruments of the Issuer and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Records”) as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise any applicable due diligence responsibilities, and cause the officers, directors and employees of the Issuer, the Guarantors and their respective subsidiaries to supply all information reasonably requested by any such Inspector in connection with such Registration Statement and Prospectus. Each Inspector shall agree in writing that it will keep the Records confidential and that it will not disclose, or use in connection with any market transactions in violation of any applicable securities laws, any Records that the Issuer determines, in good faith, to be confidential and that it notifies the Inspectors in writing are confidential unless

(i) the disclosure of such Records is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in such Registration Statement or Prospectus, (ii) the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction, (iii) disclosure of such information is necessary or advisable in the opinion of counsel for an Inspector in connection with any action, claim, suit or proceeding, directly or indirectly, involving or potentially involving such Inspector and arising out of, based upon, relating to, or involving this Agreement or the Purchase Agreement, or any transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or arising hereunder or thereunder, or (iv) the information in such Records has been made generally available to the public; provided, however, that (i) each Inspector shall agree to use reasonable best efforts to provide notice to the Issuer of the potential disclosure of any information by such Inspector pursuant to clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of this sentence to permit the Issuer to obtain a protective order (or waive the provisions of this paragraph (n)) and (ii) each such Inspector shall take such actions as are reasonably necessary to protect the confidentiality of such information (if practicable) to the extent such action is otherwise not inconsistent with, an impairment of or in derogation of the rights and interests of the Holder or any Inspector.

(o) Provide an indenture trustee for the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes, as the case may be, and cause the Indenture or the trust indenture provided for in Section 2(b) hereof to be qualified under the TIA not later than the effective date of the Exchange Offer or the first Registration Statement relating to the Registrable Notes; and in connection therewith, cooperate with the trustee under any such indenture and the Holders of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as applicable, to effect such changes to such indenture as may be required for such indenture to be so qualified in accordance with the terms of the TIA; and execute, and use its reasonable best efforts to cause such trustee to execute, all documents as may be required to effect such changes, and all other forms and documents required to be filed with the Commission to enable such indenture to be so qualified in a timely manner.

(p) Comply in all material respects with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and make generally available to the Issuer’s securityholders earnings statements satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder (or any similar rule promulgated under the Securities Act) no later than 45 days after the end of any 12-month period (or 90 days after the end of any 12-month period if such period is a fiscal year) (i) commencing at the end of any fiscal quarter in which Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes are sold to underwriters in a firm commitment or best efforts underwritten offering and (ii) if not sold to underwriters in such an offering, commencing on the first day of the first fiscal quarter of the Issuer after the effective date of a Registration Statement, which statements shall cover said 12-month periods consistent with the requirements of Rule 158.

(q) Upon the request of a Holder, upon consummation of the Exchange Offer or a Private Exchange, use its reasonable efforts to obtain an opinion of counsel to the Issuer, in a form customary for underwritten transactions, addressed to the Trustee for the benefit of all Holders of Registrable Notes participating in the Exchange Offer or the Private Exchange, as the case may be, that the Exchange Notes or Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, and the related indenture constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with its respective terms, subject to customary exceptions and qualifications.

(r) If the Exchange Offer or a Private Exchange is to be consummated, upon delivery of the Registrable Notes by Holders to the Issuer (or to such other Person as directed by the Issuer) in exchange for the Exchange Notes or the Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, mark, or cause to be marked, on such Registrable Notes that such Registrable Notes are being cancelled in exchange for the Exchange Notes or the Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be; provided that in no event shall such Registrable Notes be marked as paid or otherwise satisfied.

(s) Cooperate with each seller of Registrable Notes covered by any Registration Statement and each underwriter, if any, participating in the disposition of such Registrable Notes and their respective counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the “NASD”).

(t) Use its reasonable efforts to take all other steps reasonably necessary or advisable to effect the registration of the Exchange Notes and/or Registrable Notes covered by a Registration Statement contemplated hereby.

The Issuer may require each seller of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes as to which any registration is being effected to furnish to the Issuer such information regarding such seller and the distribution of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes as the Issuer may, from time to time, reasonably request. The Issuer may exclude from such registration the Registrable Notes of any seller so long as such seller fails to furnish such information within a reasonable time after receiving such request and in the event of such an exclusion, the Issuer shall have no further obligation under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the obligations under Section 4) with respect to such seller or any subsequent Holder of such Registrable Notes. Each seller as to which any Shelf Registration is being effected agrees to furnish promptly to the Issuer all information required to be disclosed in order to make any information previously furnished to the Issuer by such seller not materially misleading.

If any such Registration Statement refers to any Holder by name or otherwise as the holder of any securities of the Issuer or the Guarantors, then such Holder shall have the right to require (i) the insertion therein of language, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such Holder, to the effect that the holding by such Holder of such securities is not to be construed as a recommendation by such Holder of the investment quality of the securities covered thereby and that such holding does not imply that such Holder will assist in meeting any future financial requirements of the Issuer, or (ii) in the event that such reference to such Holder by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or any similar federal statute then in force, the deletion of the reference to such Holder in any amendment or supplement to the applicable Registration Statement filed or prepared subsequent to the time that such reference ceases to be required.

Each Holder of Registrable Notes and each Participating Broker-Dealer agrees by acquisition of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes that, upon actual receipt of any notice from the

Issuer (x) of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 5(c)(ii), 5(c)(iii), 5(c)(iv), or 5(c)(v) hereof, or (y) that the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the “Board of Directors”) has resolved that the Issuer has a bona fide business purpose for doing so, then the Issuer may delay the filing or the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration Statement (if not then filed or effective, as applicable) and shall not be required to maintain the effectiveness thereof or amend or supplement the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration, in all cases, for a period (a “Delay Period”) expiring upon the earlier to occur of (i) in the case of the immediately preceding clause (x), such Holder's or Participating Broker-Dealer's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus contemplated by Section 5(k) hereof or until it is advised in writing (the "Advice") by the Issuer that the use of the applicable Prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any amendments or supplements thereto or (ii) in the case of the immediately preceding clause (y), the date which is the earlier of (A) the date on which such business purpose ceases to interfere with the Issuer's obligations to file or maintain the effectiveness of any such Registration Statement pursuant to this Agreement or (B) 60 days after the Issuer notifies the Holders of such good faith determination. There shall not be more than 60 days of Delay Periods during any 12-month period. Each of the Effectiveness Period and the Applicable Period, if applicable, shall be extended by the number of days during any Delay Period. Any Delay Period will not alter the obligations of the Issuer to pay Liquidated Damages under the circumstances set forth in Section 4 hereof.

In the event of any Delay Period pursuant to clause (y) of the preceding paragraph, notice shall be given as soon as practicable after the Board of Directors makes such a determination of the need for a Delay Period and shall state, to the extent practicable, an estimate of the duration of such Delay Period and shall advise the recipient thereof of the agreement of such Holder provided in the next succeeding sentence. Each Holder, by his acceptance of any Registrable Note, agrees that during any Delay Period, each Holder will discontinue disposition of such Notes or Exchange Notes covered by such Registration Statement or Prospectus or Exchange Notes to be sold by such Holder or Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be and further agrees that it shall hold in confidence the existence of any Delay Period.

Section 6. Registration Expenses

All fees and expenses incident to the performance of or compliance with this Agreement by the Issuer and each of the Guarantors (other than any underwriting discounts or commissions) shall be borne by the Issuer and each of the Guarantors, whether or not the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration is filed or becomes effective or the Exchange Offer is consummated, including, without limitation, (i) all registration and filing fees (including, without limitation, (A) fees with respect to filings required to be made with the NASD in connection with an underwritten offering and (B) fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or Blue Sky laws (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with Blue Sky qualifications of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes and determination of the eligibility of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes for investment under the laws of such jurisdictions (x) where the holders of Registrable Notes are located, in the case of an Exchange Offer, or (y) as provided in Section 5(h) hereof, in the case of a Shelf Registration or in the case of Exchange Notes to be sold by a Participating Broker-Dealer during the Applicable Period)), (ii) printing expenses, including, without limitation, expenses of printing certificates for Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes in a form eligible for deposit and of printing prospectuses if the printing of prospectuses is requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes included in any Registration Statement or in respect of Exchange Notes to be sold by any Participating Broker-Dealer during the Applicable Period, as the case may be, (iii) messenger, telephone and delivery expenses, (iv) fees and disbursements of counsel for the Issuer and the Guarantors and reasonable fees and disbursements of one special counsel for all of the sellers of Registrable Notes (exclusive of any counsel retained pursuant to Section 7 hereof), (v) fees and disbursements of all independent certified public accountants referred to in Section 5(m)(iii) hereof (including, without limitation, the expenses of any special audit and "cold comfort" letters required by or incident to such performance), (vi) Securities Act liability insurance, if the Issuer or any Guarantor desires such insurance, (vii) fees and expenses of all other Persons retained by the Issuer or any Guarantor, (viii) internal expenses of the Issuer and the Guarantors (including, without limitation, all salaries and expenses of officers and employees of the Issuer and each Guarantor performing legal or accounting duties), (ix) the expense of any annual audit, (x) the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the securities to be registered on any securities exchange, and the obtaining of a rating of the securities, in each case, if applicable, and (xi) the expenses relating to printing, word processing and distributing all Registration Statements, underwriting agreements, indenture and any other documents necessary in order to comply with this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary, each Holder shall pay all underwriting discounts and commissions of any underwriters with respect to any Registrable Notes sold by or on behalf of it.

Section 7. Indemnification

(a) The Issuer and each Guarantor, jointly and severally, agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Holder of Registrable Notes and each Participating Broker-Dealer selling Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, each Person, if any, who controls any such Person within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, the agents, employees, officers and directors of each Holder and each such Participating Broker-Dealer and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling Person (each, a "Participant") from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and any and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever, and any and all reasonable amounts paid in settlement of any claim or litigation (in the manner set forth in clause (c) below)) (collectively, "Losses") to which they or any of them may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Issuer shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or any preliminary prospectus, or caused by, arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the case of the Prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, provided that (i) the foregoing indemnity shall not be available to any Participant insofar as such Losses are caused by any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Participant furnished to the Issuer in writing by or on behalf of such Participant expressly for use therein, and (ii) that the foregoing indemnity with respect to any preliminary prospectus shall not inure to the benefit of any Participant from whom the Person asserting such Losses purchased Registrable Notes if (x) it is established in the related proceeding that such Participant failed to send or give a copy of the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if such amendment or supplement was furnished to such Participant prior to the written confirmation of such sale) to such Person with or prior to the written confirmation of such sale, if required by applicable law, and (y) the untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission was completely corrected in the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if amended or supplemented as aforesaid) and such Prospectus does not contain any other untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission that was the subject matter of the related proceeding. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability that the Issuer or any Guarantor may otherwise have, including, but not limited to, liability under this Agreement.

(b) Each Participant agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer and each Guarantor, each Person, if any, who controls the Issuer or any Guarantor within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, and each of their respective agents, employees, officers and directors and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling Person from and against any Losses to which they or any of them may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Issuer shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or any preliminary prospectus, or caused by, arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the case of the Prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Participant furnished in writing to the Issuer by or on behalf of such Participant expressly for use therein.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under subsection 7(a) or 7(b) above of notice of the commencement of any action, suit or proceeding

(collectively, an "action"), such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under such subsection, notify each party against whom indemnification is to be sought in writing of the commencement of such action (but the failure so to notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve such indemnifying party from any liability that it may have under this Section 7 except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure). In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies an indemnifying party of the commencement of such action, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in such action, and to the extent it may elect by written notice delivered to the indemnified party promptly after receiving the aforesaid notice from such indemnified party, to assume the defense of such action with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnified party or parties shall have the right to employ its or their own counsel in any such action, but the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party or parties unless (i) the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the indemnifying parties in connection with the defense of such action, (ii) the indemnifying parties shall not have employed counsel to take charge of the defense of such action within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action, or (iii) the named parties to such action (including any impleaded parties) include such indemnified party and the indemnifying party or parties (or such indemnifying parties have assumed the defense of such action), and such indemnified party or parties shall have reasonably concluded, that there may be defenses available to it or them that are different from, in addition to, or in conflict with, those available to one or all of the indemnifying parties (in which case the indemnifying parties shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party or parties), in any of which events such reasonable fees and expenses of counsel shall be borne by the indemnifying parties. In no event shall the indemnifying party be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but substantially similar or related actions arising in the same jurisdiction out of the same general allegations or circumstances. Any such separate firm for the Participants shall be designated in writing by Participants who sold a majority in interest of Registrable Notes sold by all such Participants and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Issuer and any such separate firm for the Issuer, its affiliates, officers, directors, representatives, employees and agents and such control Person of the Issuer shall be designated in writing by the Issuer and shall be reasonable acceptable to the Holders. An indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim or action effected without its written consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding and does not include a statement as to or an admission or fault, culpability or failure to act on behalf of any indemnified party.

(d) In order to provide for contribution in circumstances in which the indemnification provided for in this Section 7 is for any reason held to be unavailable from the indemnifying party, or is insufficient to hold harmless a party indemnified under this Section 7, each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such aggregate Losses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by each indemnifying party, on the one hand, and each indemnified party, on the other hand, from the sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser or the resale of the Registrable Notes by such Holder, as applicable, or (ii) if such allocation is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of each indemnified party, on the one hand, and each indemnifying party, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Issuer and the Guarantors, on the one hand, and each Participant, on the other hand, shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as (x) the total proceeds from the sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser (net of discounts and commissions but before deducting expenses) received by the Issuer and the Guarantors are to (y) the total net profit received by such Participant in connection with the sale of the Registrable Notes. The relative fault of the parties shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Issuer, the Guarantors or such Participant and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission or alleged statement or omission.

(e) The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 7 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to above. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7, (i) in no case shall any Participant be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the net profit received by such Participant in connection with the sale of the Registrable Notes exceeds the amount of any damages that such Participant has otherwise been required to pay by reason of any untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission and (ii) no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. Any party entitled to contribution will, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action against such party in respect of which a claim for contribution may be made against another party or parties under this Section 7, notify such party or parties from whom contribution may be sought, but the omission to so notify such party or parties shall not relieve the party or parties from whom contribution may be sought from any obligation it or they may have under this Section 7 or otherwise, except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure; provided, however, that no additional notice shall be required with respect to any action for which notice has been given under this Section 7 for purposes of indemnification. Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, no party shall be liable for contribution with respect to any action or claim settled without its written consent, provided, however, that such written consent was not unreasonably withheld.

Section 8. Rules 144 and 144A

The Issuer covenants that it will file the reports required, if any, to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the Commission thereunder in a timely manner in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and, if at any time the Issuer is not required to file such reports, it will, upon the request of any Holder or beneficial owner of Registrable Notes, make available such information necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act. The Issuer further covenants that for so long as any Registrable Notes remain outstanding it will take such further action as any Holder of Registrable Notes may reasonably request from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Registrable Notes without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (a) Rule 144(k) and Rule 144A under the Securities Act, as such Rules may be amended from time to time, or (b) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the Commission.

Section 9. Underwritten Registrations

If any of the Registrable Notes covered by any Shelf Registration are to be sold in an underwritten offering, the investment banker or investment bankers and manager or managers that will manage the offering will be selected by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of such Registrable Notes included in such offering and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Issuer.

No Holder of Registrable Notes may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder if such Holder does not (a) agree to sell such Holder's Registrable Notes on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements and (b) complete and execute all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

Section 10. Miscellaneous

(a) No Inconsistent Agreements. Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor has not, as of the date hereof, and shall not have, after the date of this Agreement, entered into any agreement with respect to any of its securities that is inconsistent with the rights granted to the Holders of Registrable Notes in this Agreement or otherwise conflicts with the provisions hereof. The rights granted to the Holders hereunder do not conflict with and are not inconsistent with, in any material respect, the rights granted to the holders of any of the Issuer's other issued and outstanding securities under any such agreements. Each of the Issuer and the Guarantors has not entered and will not enter into any agreement with respect to any of its securities which will grant to any Person piggy-back registration rights with respect to any Registration Statement.

(b) Adjustments Affecting Registrable Notes. The Issuer and the Guarantors shall not, directly or indirectly, take any action with respect to the Registrable Notes as a class that would adversely affect the ability of the Holders of Registrable Notes to include such Registrable Notes in a registration undertaken pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Amendments and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given except pursuant to a written agreement duly signed and delivered by (I) the Issuer and each of the Guarantors and (II)(A) the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Registrable Notes and (B) in circumstances that would adversely affect the Participating Broker-Dealers, the Participating Broker-Dealers holding not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Exchange Notes held by all Participating Broker-Dealers; provided, however, that Section 7 and this Section 10(c) may not be amended, modified or supplemented except pursuant to a written agreement duly signed and delivered by the Issuer, each Guarantor and each Holder and each Participating Broker-Dealer (including any Person who was a Holder or Participating Broker-Dealer of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as the case may be, disposed of pursuant to any Registration Statement) affected by any such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a waiver or consent to depart from the provisions hereof with respect to a matter that relates exclusively to the rights of Holders of Registrable Notes whose securities are being sold pursuant to a Registration Statement and that does not directly or indirectly affect, impair, limit or compromise the rights of other Holders of Registrable Notes may be given by Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes being sold pursuant to such Registration Statement.

(e) Successors and Assigns. (h) Guarantor Execution. The Issuer shall cause each of the Herbalife Guarantors in existence at the time of the closing of the Merger to execute and deliver a joinder to this Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto and the Herbalife Guarantors shall execute the foregoing in consideration of, among other things, consummation of the Merger. In the event of a breach by the Issuer under this Section 10(h), the Issuer agrees that monetary damages would not be adequate compensation for any loss or damage incurred by such breach and hereby further agrees that, in the event of an action for specific performance in respect of such breach, it shall waive the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate.

(i) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE NEW YORK GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW AND NEW YORK CIVIL PRACTICE LAWS AND RULES 327(B) (WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY PROVISIONS THEREOF RELATING TO CONFLICTS OF LAW).

(j) Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions set forth herein shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and the parties hereto shall use their best efforts to find and employ an alternative means to achieve the same or substantially the same result as that contemplated by such term, provision, covenant or restriction. It is hereby stipulated and declared to be the intention of the parties that they would have executed the remaining terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions without including any of such that may be hereafter declared invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable.

(k) Securities Held by the Issuer or Its Affiliates. Whenever the consent or approval of Holders of a specified percentage of Registrable Notes is required hereunder, Registrable Notes held by the Issuer or any of its affiliates (as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) shall not be counted in determining whether such consent or approval was given by the Holders of such required percentage.

(l) Third-Party Beneficiaries. Holders and beneficial owners of Registrable Notes and Participating Broker-Dealers are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement, and this Agreement may be enforced by such Persons. No other Person is intended to be, or shall be construed as, a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

(m) Attorneys' Fees. As between the parties to this Agreement, in any action or proceeding brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement, or where any provision hereof is validly asserted as a defense, the successful party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred in addition to its costs and expenses and any other available remedy.

(n) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Purchase Agreement and the Indenture, is intended by the parties as a final and exclusive statement of the agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein and therein and any and all prior oral or written agreements, representations, or warranties, contracts, understandings, correspondence, conversations and memoranda between the Holders on the one hand and the Issuer and the Guarantors on the other, or between or among any agents, representatives, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors in interest or successors in interest with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof are merged herein and replaced hereby.

Amounts paid or prepaid in respect of Term Loans may not be reborrowed. Within the limits set forth in clause (b) above and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth herein, Borrower may borrow, pay or prepay and reborrow Revolving Loans.

SECTION 2.02. LOANS.

(a) Each Loan shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their applicable Commitments; provided, however, that the failure of any Lender to make any Loan shall not in itself relieve any other Lender of its obligation to lend hereunder (it being understood, however, that no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to make any Loan required to be made by such other Lender). Except for Loans deemed made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), Loans comprising any Borrowing shall be in an aggregate principal amount that is (i) an integral multiple of $1.0 million and not less than $2.0 million or (ii) equal to the remaining available balance of the applicable Commitments.

(b) Subject to Sections 2.11 and 2.12, each Borrowing shall be comprised entirely of ABR Loans or Eurodollar Loans as Borrower may request pursuant to Section 2.03. Each Lender may at its option make any Eurodollar Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that, any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of Borrower to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Borrowings of more than one Type may be outstanding at the same time; provided, however, that Borrower shall not be entitled to request any Borrowing that, if made, would result in more than five Eurodollar Borrowings outstanding hereunder at any time. For purposes of the foregoing, Borrowings having different Interest Periods, regardless of whether they commence on the same date, shall be considered separate Borrowings.

(c) Except with respect to Loans made pursuant to Section 2.02(f), each Lender shall make each Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such account in New York City as the Administrative Agent may designate not later than 12:00 noon, New York City time, and the Administrative Agent shall promptly credit the amounts so received to an account as directed by Borrower in the applicable Borrowing Request maintained with the Administrative Agent or, if a Borrowing shall not occur on such date because any condition precedent herein specified shall not have been met, return the amounts so received to the respective Lenders.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's portion of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such portion available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with Section 2.02(c), and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If the Administrative Agent shall have so made funds available, then, to the extent that such Lender shall not have made such portion available to the Administrative Agent, such Lender and Borrower severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to Borrower until the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent at (i) in the case of Borrower, the interest rate applicable at the time to the Loans comprising such Borrowing and (ii) in the case of such Lender, a rate determined by the Administrative Agent to represent its cost of overnight or short-term funds (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error). If such Lender shall repay to the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount, such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan as part of such Borrowing for purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Borrower shall not be entitled to request, or to elect to convert or continue, any Borrowing if the Interest Period requested with respect thereto would end after the Revolving Maturity Date or the Term Loan Maturity Date, as applicable.

(f) If the Issuing Bank shall not have received from Borrower the payment required to be made by Section 2.17(e) within the time specified in such section, the Issuing Bank will promptly notify the Administrative Agent of the LC Disbursement and the Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Revolving Lender of such LC Disbursement and its Pro Rata Percentage thereof. Each Revolving Lender shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent on such date (or, if such Revolving Lender shall have received such notice later than 12:00 noon, New York City time, on any day, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the immediately following Business Day), an amount equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of such LC Disbursement (it being understood that such amount shall be deemed to constitute an ABR Revolving Loan of such Lender, and such payment shall be deemed to have reduced the LC Exposure), and the Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the Issuing Bank amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders. The Administrative Agent will promptly pay to the Issuing Bank any amounts received by it from Borrower pursuant to Section 2.17(e) prior to the time that any Revolving Lender makes any payment pursuant to this Section 2.02(f); any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent thereafter will be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Lenders that shall have made such payments and to the Issuing Bank, as their interests may appear. If any Revolving Lender shall not have made its Pro Rata Percentage of such LC Disbursement available to the Administrative Agent as provided above, such Lender and Borrower severally agree to pay interest on such amount, for each day from and including the date such amount is required to be paid in accordance with this Section 2.02(f) to but excluding the date such amount is paid, to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Issuing Bank at (i) in the case of Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable to Revolving Loans pursuant to Section 2.06(a), and (ii) in the case of such Lender, for the first such day, the Federal Funds Effective Rate, and for each day thereafter, the Alternate Base Rate.

SECTION 2.03. BORROWING PROCEDURE. To request a Revolving Borrowing or Term Borrowing, Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request by telephone (promptly confirmed by telecopy) or by delivering a duly completed Borrowing Request (a) in the case of a Eurodollar Borrowing, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, three Business Days before the date of the proposed Borrowing or (b) in the case of an ABR Borrowing, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the date of the proposed Borrowing; provided that, any such notice of an ABR Revolving Borrowing to finance the reimbursement of an LC Disbursement as contemplated by Section 2.17(e) may be given not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date of the proposed Borrowing. Each such telephonic Borrowing Request shall be irrevocable and shall be confirmed not later than 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on such Business Day by hand delivery or telecopy to the Administrative Agent of a written Borrowing Request substantially in the form of Exhibit C and signed by Borrower. Each such telephonic and written Borrowing Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(a) whether the requested Borrowing is to be a Revolving Borrowing or a Term Borrowing;

(b) the aggregate amount of such Borrowing;

(c) the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Business Day;

(d) whether such Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a Eurodollar Borrowing;

(e) in the case of a Eurodollar Borrowing, the initial Interest Period to be applicable thereto, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term "Interest Period"; provided that, until the Syndication Agent shall have notified Borrower that the primary syndication of the Commitments has been completed (which notice shall be given by the Syndication Agent as promptly as practicable and, in any event, within 60 days after the Closing Date) Borrower shall only be permitted to request an Interest Period of seven days); and

(f) the location and number of Borrower's account to which funds are to be disbursed, which shall comply with the requirements of Section 2.02.

If no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified, then the requested Borrowing shall be an ABR Borrowing. If no Interest Period is specified with respect to any requested Eurodollar Revolving Borrowing, then Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration. Promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Request in accordance with this Section 2.03, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and of the amount of such Lender's Loan to be made as part of the requested Borrowing.

SECTION 2.04. EVIDENCE OF DEBT; REPAYMENT OF LOANS.

(a) Borrower hereby unconditionally promises to pay (i) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender holding Term Loans, the principal amount of each Term Loan of such Lender as provided in Section 2.09; and (ii) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender, the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan of such Lender on the Revolving Maturity Date.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of Borrower to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender from time to time, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time under this Agreement.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it will record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Type and Class thereof and the Interest Period applicable thereto; (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from Borrower to each Lender hereunder; and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to Sections 2.04(b) and (c) shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations therein recorded (in the absence of manifest error); provided, however, that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligations of Borrower to repay the Loans in accordance with their terms.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans of any Class made by it be evidenced by a Note. In such event, Borrower shall prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a Note payable to the order of such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) and in a form approved by the Administrative Agent. Thereafter, the Loans evidenced by such Note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 11.04) be represented by one or more Notes in such form payable to the order of the payee named therein (or, if such Note is a registered note, to such payee and its registered assigns).

SECTION 2.05. FEES.

(a) COMMITMENT FEE. Borrower agrees to pay to each Lender, through the Administrative Agent, a commitment fee (a “COMMITMENT FEE”) equal to the Applicable Commitment Fee Percentage times the average daily unused amount of the Revolving Commitments of such Lender. All Commitment Fees shall be payable quarterly in arrears on the last Business Day of March, June, September and December in each year (commencing with the first such date to occur after the Closing Date) and on each date (including the Revolving Maturity Date) on which any Commitment of such Lender shall expire or be terminated as provided herein. All Commitment Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days. The Commitment Fee due to each Lender shall commence to accrue on the Closing Date and shall cease to accrue on the date on which the Revolving Commitment of such Lender shall expire or be terminated as provided herein.

(b) ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT FEES. Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for its own account, the administrative fees set forth in the Fee Letter or such other fees payable in the amounts and at the times separately agreed upon between Borrower and the Administrative Agent (the “ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT FEES”).

(c) LC AND FRONTING FEES. Borrower agrees to pay (i) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender a participation fee (“LC PARTICIPATION FEE”) with respect to its participations in Letters of Credit, which shall accrue at a rate equal to the Applicable Margin from time to time used to determine the interest rate on Eurodollar Revolving Loans pursuant to Section 2.06 on the average daily amount of such Lender’s LC Exposure (excluding any portion thereof attributable to unreimbursed LC Disbursements) during the period from and including the Closing Date to but excluding the later of the date on which such Lender’s Revolving Commitment terminates and the date on which such Lender ceases to have any LC Exposure, and (ii) to the Issuing Bank a fronting fee (“FRONTING FEE”), which shall accrue at the rate of 0.25% per annum on the average daily amount of the LC Exposure (excluding any portion thereof attributable to unreimbursed LC Disbursements) during the period from and including the Closing Date to but excluding the later of the date of termination of the Revolving Commitments and the date on which there ceases to be any LC Exposure, as well as the Issuing Bank’s standard fees with respect to the issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or processing of drawings thereunder. LC Participation Fees and Fronting Fees accrued through and including the last day of March, June, September and December of each year shall be payable on the third Business Day following such last day, commencing on the first such date to occur after the Closing Date; provided that, all such fees shall be payable on the date on which the Revolving Commitments terminate and any such fees accruing after the date on which the Revolving Commitments terminate shall be payable on demand. Any other fees payable to the Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section 2.05(c) shall be payable within ten days after demand. All LC Participation Fees and Fronting Fees shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day).

All Fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders, except that the Fronting Fees shall be paid directly to the Issuing Bank. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances.

SECTION 2.06. INTEREST ON LOANS.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.06(c), the Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Alternate Base Rate plus the Applicable Margin in effect from time to time.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.06(c), the Loans comprising each Eurodollar Borrowing shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the Adjusted LIBOR Rate for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing plus the Applicable Margin in effect from time to time.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, and at the election of the Required Lenders, the outstanding principal amount of all Loans and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any interest payments thereon and any fees and other amounts hereunder, shall thereafter bear interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable bankruptcy laws) payable upon demand at a rate that is 2% per annum in excess of the interest rate otherwise payable under this Agreement with respect to the applicable Loans (or, in the case of any such fees and other amounts, at a rate that is 2% per annum in excess of the interest rate otherwise payable under this Agreement for ABR Loans); provided that, in the case of Eurodollar Loans, upon the expiration of the Interest Period in effect at the time any such increase in interest rate is effective, such Eurodollar Rate Loans shall thereupon become ABR Loans and shall thereafter bear interest payable upon demand at a rate that is 2% per annum in excess of the interest rate otherwise payable under this Agreement for ABR Loans. Payment or acceptance of the increased rates of interest provided for in this Section 2.06(c) is not a permitted alternative to timely payment and shall not constitute a waiver of any Event of Default or otherwise prejudice or limit any rights or remedies of Administrative Agent or any Lender.

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan and, in the case of Revolving Loans, upon termination of the Revolving Commitments; provided that, (i) interest accrued pursuant to Section 2.06(c) shall be payable on demand, (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan (other than a prepayment of an ABR Revolving Loan prior to the end of the Revolving Availability Period), accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment and (iii) in the event of any conversion of any Eurodollar Loan prior to the end of the current Interest Period therefor, accrued interest on such Loan shall be payable on the effective date of such conversion.

(e) All interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that interest computed by reference to the Alternate Base Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year), and in each case shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). The applicable Alternate Base Rate or Adjusted LIBOR Rate shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.07. TERMINATION AND REDUCTION OF COMMITMENTS.

(a) The Term Loan Commitments shall automatically terminate at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Closing Date. The Revolving Commitments and the LC Commitment shall automatically terminate on the Revolving Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all the Commitments shall automatically terminate at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 31, 2002, if the initial Credit Extension shall not have occurred by such time.

(b) Borrower may at any time terminate, or from time to time reduce, the Commitments of any Class; provided that, (i) each reduction of the Commitments of any Class shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $500,000 and not less than $1.0 million and (ii) the Revolving Commitments shall not be terminated or reduced if, after giving effect to any concurrent prepayment of the Revolving Loans in accordance with Section 2.10(b), the sum of the Revolving Exposures would exceed the aggregate amount of Revolving Commitments.

(c) Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of any election to terminate or reduce the Commitments under Section 2.07(b) at least three Business Days prior to the effective date of such termination or reduction, specifying such election and the effective date thereof. Promptly following receipt of such notice, the Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of the contents thereof. Each notice delivered by Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.07(b) shall be irrevocable. Any termination or reduction of the Commitments of any Class shall be permanent. Each reduction of the Commitments of any Class shall be made ratably among the Lenders in accordance with their respective Commitments of such Class.

SECTION 2.08. INTEREST ELECTIONS.

(a) Each Revolving Borrowing and Term Borrowing initially shall be of the Type specified in the applicable Borrowing Request and, in the case of a Eurodollar Borrowing, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Borrowing Request. Thereafter, Borrower may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Eurodollar Borrowing, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section 2.08. Borrower may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders holding the Loans comprising such Borrowing, and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section 2.08, Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election by telephone by the time that a Borrowing Request would be required under Section 2.03 if Borrower were requesting a Revolving Borrowing or Term Borrowing of the Type resulting from such election to be made on the effective date of such election. Each such telephonic Interest Election Request shall be irrevocable and shall be confirmed promptly by hand delivery or telecopy to the Administrative Agent of a written Interest Election Request substantially in the form of Exhibit D.

(c) Each telephonic and written Interest Election Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) The Borrowing to which such Interest Election Request applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) whether the resulting Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a Eurodollar Borrowing; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Eurodollar Borrowing, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term “Interest Period”; provided that, until the Syndication Agent shall have notified Borrower that the primary syndication of the Commitments has been completed (which notice shall be given by the Syndication Agent as promptly as practicable and, in any event, within 60 days after the Closing Date), Borrower shall only be permitted to request an Interest Period of seven days.

If any such Interest Election Request requests a Eurodollar Borrowing but does not specify an Interest Period, then (except in the case of clause (iv) above) Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month’s duration.

(d) Promptly following receipt of an Interest Election Request, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and of such Lender’s portion of each resulting Borrowing.

(e) If an Interest Election Request with respect to a Eurodollar Borrowing is not timely delivered prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the request of the Required Lenders, so notifies Borrower, then, after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default, (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a Eurodollar Borrowing and (ii) unless repaid, each Eurodollar Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto.

SECTION 2.09. AMORTIZATION OF TERM BORROWINGS.

(a) Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Term Lenders, on the dates set forth on Annex I, or if any such date is not a Business Day, on the next preceding Business Day (each such date being a “TERM LOAN REPAYMENT DATE”), a principal amount of the Term Loans (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Sections 2.09(b) and 2.10) equal to the amount set forth on Annex I for such date (less all mandatory and optional prepayments made thereon), together in each case with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount to be paid to but excluding the date of such payment.

(b) To the extent not previously paid, all Term Loans shall be due and payable on the Term Loan Maturity Date.

SECTION 2.10. OPTIONAL AND MANDATORY PREPAYMENTS OF LOANS.

(a) OPTIONAL PREPAYMENTS. Borrower shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing, in whole or in part, subject to the requirements of this Section 2.10; provided that, each partial prepayment shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $500,000 and not less than $1.0 million.

(b) REVOLVING LOAN PREPAYMENTS. In the event of any termination of all the Revolving Commitments, Borrower shall, on the date of such termination, repay or prepay all its outstanding Revolving Borrowings and replace all outstanding Letters of Credit and/or deposit an amount equal to the LC Exposure in the LC Sub-Account. In the event of any partial reduction of the Revolving Commitments, (i) at or prior to the effective date of such reduction, the Administrative Agent shall notify Borrower and the Revolving Lenders of the sum of the Revolving Exposures after giving effect thereto and (ii) if the sum of the Revolving Exposures would exceed the aggregate amount of Revolving Commitments after giving effect to such reduction or termination, then Borrower shall, on the date of such reduction or termination, repay or prepay Revolving Borrowings and/or replace or cash collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit in an amount sufficient to eliminate such excess.

(c) ASSET SALES. Not later than five Business Days following the receipt of any Net Cash Proceeds of any Asset Sale (in the case of Asset Sales by non-U.S. parties, to the extent such amounts can be repatriated to the United States without materially adverse economic consequences taking into account the amount of proceeds received from such Asset Sale as determined by the Administrative Agent (after consultation with Borrower)), Borrower shall apply 100% of the Net Cash

Proceeds received with respect thereto to make prepayments in accordance with Sections 2.10(h) and (i); provided that:

(i) no such prepayment shall be required with respect to (A) any Asset Sale permitted by Section 6.04(b)(i), (d) or (f), (B) the disposition of assets subject to a condemnation or eminent domain proceeding or insurance settlement to the extent it does not constitute a Casualty Event, and (C) Asset Sales for fair market value resulting in no more than $2.5 million in Net Cash Proceeds in any fiscal year; and

(ii) so long as no Default shall then exist or would arise therefrom, no such prepayment shall be required to the extent that (A) Borrower shall have delivered an Officer's Certificate to the Administrative Agent on or prior to such date stating that the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale will be used to purchase replacement assets or other assets useful in such Person's business within 270 days of such Asset Sale and setting forth estimates of the proceeds to be so expended, and (B) all such Net Cash Proceeds in excess of $2.5 million individually and $5.0 million in the aggregate in any fiscal year of Borrower shall be held in the Collateral Account and released therefrom only in accordance with the provisions of Article IX; provided, however, that if any portion of such Net Cash Proceeds are not reinvested in accordance with this clause (ii), such unused portion shall be applied on the last day of such period as a mandatory prepayment of principal of outstanding Term Loans as provided in this Section 2.10(c).

(d) DEBT ISSUANCE. Upon any Debt Issuance after the Closing Date, Borrower shall make prepayments in accordance with Sections 2.10(h) and (i) in an aggregate principal amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds of such Debt Issuance.

(e) EQUITY ISSUANCE. Upon any Equity Issuance after the Closing Date (other than in connection with the Equity Financing), Borrower shall make prepayments in accordance with Sections 2.10(h) and (i) in an aggregate principal amount equal to 50% of the Net Cash Proceeds of such Equity Issuance.

(f) CASUALTY EVENTS. Not later than one Business Day following the receipt of any Net Cash Proceeds from a Casualty Event, Borrower shall make prepayments in accordance with Sections 2.10(h) and (i) in an amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds; provided, however, that:

(i) so long as no Default or Event of Default then exists or would arise therefrom, the Net Cash Proceeds thereof shall not be required to be so applied on such date to the extent that Borrower has delivered an Officers' Certificate to the Collateral Agent on or prior to such date stating that such proceeds shall be used to fund the acquisition of property used or usable in the business of Borrower and its Subsidiaries or repair, replace or restore the property in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Security Document in respect of which such Casualty Event has occurred, in each case within 270 days following the date of the receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds;

(ii) to the extent such Casualty Event affects any of the Collateral, all property acquired to effect any repair, replacement or restoration of such Collateral shall be made subject to the Lien of the Security Documents in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.11;

(iii) all such Net Cash Proceeds in excess of $1.0 million individually or in the aggregate for all such Casualty Events shall be held in the Collateral Account and released therefrom only in accordance with the terms of Article IX;

(iv) if all or any portion of such Net Cash Proceeds shall not be so applied within such 270-day period, such unused portion shall be applied on the last day of such period as a mandatory prepayment as provided in this Section 2.10(f); and

(v) no such prepayment shall be required with respect to Casualty Events resulting in no more than $1.0 million in Net Cash Proceeds in any fiscal year.

(g) EXCESS CASH FLOW. No later than 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of Borrower, commencing with the fiscal year ending on December 31, 2002, Borrower shall make prepayments in accordance with Section 2.10(h)(ii), Section 2.10(i) and Section 2.10(j) in an aggregate principal amount equal to 50% of Excess Cash Flow for the fiscal year then ended.

(h) APPLICATION OF PREPAYMENTS.

(i) Optional prepayments under this Agreement shall be applied as specified by Borrower in the applicable notice of prepayment in Section 2.10(i); provided that, in the event Borrower fails to specify the Loans to which any such prepayment shall be applied, such prepayment shall be applied first to repay outstanding Revolving Loans to the full extent thereof, and second to repay outstanding Term Loans to the full extent thereof. Mandatory prepayments under this Agreement shall be applied first to reduce outstanding Term Loans pro rata against the remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect of the Term Loans under Section 2.09. After application of mandatory prepayments pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence and to the extent there are mandatory prepayment amounts remaining after such application, any such remaining portion of the mandatory prepayment amounts shall be applied (i) to prepay the Revolving Loans to the full extent thereof and to further permanently reduce the Revolving Commitments ratably among the Revolving Lenders by the amount of such prepayment (and Borrower shall comply with Section 2.10(b)), and (ii) then, to the extent of any remaining portion of the mandatory prepayment amounts, to further permanently reduce the Revolving Commitments ratably among the Revolving Lenders to the full extent thereof.

(ii) Amounts to be applied pursuant to this Section 2.10 to the prepayment of Term Loans and Revolving Loans shall be applied, as applicable, first to reduce outstanding ABR Term Loans and ABR Revolving Loans, respectively. Any amounts remaining after each such application shall be applied to prepay Eurodollar Term Loans or Eurodollar Revolving Loans, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the amount of any prepayment of Loans required under this Section 2.10 shall be in excess of the amount of the ABR Loans at the time outstanding, only the portion of the amount of such prepayment as is equal to the amount of such outstanding ABR Loans shall be immediately prepaid and, at the election of Borrower, the balance of such required prepayment shall be either (x) deposited in the Collateral Account and applied to the prepayment of Eurodollar Loans on the last day of the then next-expiring Interest Period for Eurodollar Loans (with all interest accruing thereon for the account of Borrower) or (y) prepaid immediately, together with any amounts owing to the Lenders under Section 2.13. Notwithstanding any such deposit in the Collateral Account, interest shall continue to accrue on such Loans until prepayment.

(i) NOTICE OF PREPAYMENT. Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent by telephone (confirmed by telecopy) of any prepayment hereunder (i) in the case of prepayment of a Eurodollar Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, three Business Days before the date of prepayment, (ii) in the case of prepayment of an ABR Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the date of prepayment, and (iii) in the case of any mandatory prepayment under Section 2.10(g), not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, ten Business Days before the date of prepayment. Each such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the prepayment date, the principal amount of each Borrowing or portion thereof to be prepaid and, in the case of a mandatory prepayment, a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment. Promptly following receipt of any such notice, the Administrative Agent shall advise the Lenders of the contents thereof. Each partial prepayment of any Borrowing shall be in an amount that would be permitted in the case of an advance of a Borrowing of the same Type as provided in Section 2.02, except as necessary to apply fully the required amount of a mandatory prepayment. Each prepayment of a Borrowing shall be applied ratably to the Loans included in the prepaid Borrowing. Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest to the extent required by Section 2.06.

(j) WAIVABLE MANDATORY PREPAYMENT. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 2.10, if Borrower is required to make any mandatory prepayment under Section 2.10(g), then promptly after receiving notice thereof from Borrower in accordance with Section 2.10(i), the Administrative Agent will notify each Term Lender holding outstanding Term Loans of the amount of such Term Lender's ratable share of such prepayment to be applied toward reducing such Term Lender's outstanding Term Loans, and such Term Lender's option to refuse such amount. Each such Term Lender may exercise its option to refuse such amount by giving written notice thereof (which may be by telecopy) to Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before 11:00 a.m., New York City time, five Business Days before the date of such prepayment (it being understood that any Term Lender that does not so notify Borrower and the Administrative Agent within such time will be deemed to have elected, as of such date, not to exercise such option). That portion of such mandatory prepayment creditable to the Term Lenders that have elected not to refuse their ratable shares in accordance with this Section 2.10(j) shall be ratably applied to reduce such Term Lenders' principal amounts outstanding in accordance with Section 2.10(h). To the extent there are mandatory prepayment amounts remaining after the application described above in this Section 2.10(j), then the Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Revolving Lender of the amount of such Revolving Lender's ratable share of such prepayment to be applied toward reducing such Revolving Lender's outstanding Revolving Loans and permanently reducing such Revolving Lender Revolving Commitments, and such Revolving Lender's option to refuse such amount. Each such Revolving Lender may exercise its option to refuse such amount by giving written notice thereof (which may be by telecopy) to Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before 11:00 a.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the date of such prepayment (it being understood that any Revolving Lender that does not so notify Borrower and the Administrative Agent within such time will be deemed to have elected, as of such date, not to exercise such option). That portion of such mandatory prepayment creditable to the Revolving Lenders that have elected not to refuse their ratable shares in accordance with this Section 2.10(j) shall be ratably applied to reduce such Revolving Lenders' principal amounts outstanding and to further permanently reduce such Revolving Lenders' Revolving Commitments by the amount of such prepayment and then, to the extent of any remaining portion of the mandatory prepayment amounts, to further permanently reduce such Revolving Lenders' Revolving Commitments to the full extent thereof, all in accordance with Section 2.10(h). That portion of such mandatory prepayment creditable to the Term Lenders and Revolving Lenders that have elected to refuse their ratable shares in accordance with this Section 2.10(j) shall be, if not already paid hereunder, retained by Borrower, or if already paid hereunder, promptly credited to an account maintained with the Administrative Agent as directed by Borrower.

SECTION 2.11. ALTERNATE RATE OF INTEREST. If prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurodollar Borrowing:

(a) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBOR Rate for such Interest Period; or

(b) the Administrative Agent is advised by the Required Lenders that the Adjusted LIBOR Rate for such Interest Period will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of making or maintaining their Loans included in such Borrowing for such Interest Period;

then the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to Borrower and the Lenders by telephone or telecopy as promptly as practicable thereafter and, until the Administrative Agent notifies Borrower and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, (i) any Interest Election Request that requests the conversion of any Borrowing to, or continuation of any Borrowing as, a Eurodollar Borrowing shall be ineffective and (ii) if any Borrowing Request requests a Eurodollar Borrowing, such Borrowing shall be made as an ABR Borrowing.

SECTION 2.12. INCREASED COSTS.

(a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender (except any such reserve requirement reflected in the Adjusted LIBOR Rate) or the Issuing Bank; or

(ii) impose on any Lender or the Issuing Bank or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Eurodollar Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Eurodollar Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan) or to increase the cost to such Lender or the Issuing Bank of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or the Issuing Bank hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise), then Borrower will pay to such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender or the Issuing Bank determines that any Change in Law regarding capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by the Issuing Bank, to a level below that which such Lender or the Issuing Bank or such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's policies and the policies of such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time Borrower will pay to such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or the Issuing Bank or such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or the Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or the Issuing Bank or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in Section 2.12(a) or (b) shall be delivered to Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Borrower shall pay such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within ten days after receipt thereof.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or the Issuing Bank to demand compensation pursuant to this Section 2.12 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation; provided that, Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender or the Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section 2.12 for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, notifies Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or the Issuing Bank's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided further that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

SECTION 2.13. BREAKAGE PAYMENTS. In the event of (a) the payment of any principal of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), (b) the conversion of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, (c) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any Revolving Loan or Term Loan on the date specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto or (d) the assignment of any Eurodollar Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto as a result of a request by Borrower pursuant to Section 2.16, then, in any such event, Borrower shall compensate each Lender for the reasonable loss, cost and expense attributable to such event. In the case of a Eurodollar Loan, such loss, cost or expense to any Lender shall be deemed to include an amount determined by such Lender to be the excess, if any, of (i) the amount of interest that would have accrued on the principal amount of such Loan had such event not occurred, at the Adjusted LIBOR Rate that would have been applicable to such Loan, for the period from the date of such event to the last day of the then current Interest Period therefor (or, in the case of a failure to borrow, convert or continue, for the period that would have been the Interest Period for such Loan), over (ii) the amount of interest that would accrue on such principal amount for such period at the interest rate that such Lender would bid were it to bid, at the commencement of such period, for dollar deposits of a comparable amount and period from other banks in the Eurodollar market. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.13 shall be delivered to Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Borrower shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within ten days after receipt thereof.

SECTION 2.14. PAYMENTS GENERALLY; PRO RATA TREATMENT; SHARING OF SET-OFFS.

(a) Borrower shall make each payment required to be made by it hereunder or under any other Loan Document (whether of principal, interest, fees or reimbursement of LC Disbursements, or of amounts payable under Section 2.12, 2.13 or 2.15, or otherwise) on or before the time expressly required hereunder or under such other Loan Document for such payment (or, if no such time is expressly required, prior to 2:00 p.m., New York City time), on the date when due, in immediately available funds, without set-off or counterclaim. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent at its offices at 677 Washington Boulevard, Stamford, Connecticut, except payments to be made directly to the Issuing Bank as expressly provided herein and except that payments pursuant to Sections 2.12, 2.13, 2.15 and 11.03 shall be made directly to the persons entitled thereto and payments pursuant to other Loan Documents shall be made to the persons specified therein. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment under any Loan Document shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. All payments under each Loan Document shall be made in dollars.

(b) If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Administrative Agent to pay fully all amounts of principal, unreimbursed LC Disbursements, interest and fees then due hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first towards payment of interest and fees then due hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of interest and fees then due to such parties, and (ii) second towards payment of principal and unreimbursed LC Disbursements then due hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of principal and unreimbursed LC Disbursements then due to such parties.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set-off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Revolving Loans, Term Loans or participations in LC Disbursements resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Revolving Loans, Term Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Revolving Loans, Term Loans and participations in LC Disbursements of the other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Revolving Loans, Term Loans and participations in LC Disbursements; provided that, (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this Section 2.14(c) shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements to any assignee or participant, other than to Borrower or any Subsidiary or Affiliate thereof (as to which the provisions of this Section 2.14(c) shall apply). Borrower consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against Borrower rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders or the Issuing Bank hereunder that Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount due. In such event, if Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or Issuing Bank with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

(e) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.02(f), 2.14(d), 2.17(d) or 11.03(d), then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations under such sections until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid.

SECTION 2.15. TAXES.

(a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of Borrower hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall be made without set-off, counterclaim or other defense and free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any and all Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes; provided that, if Borrower shall be required by law to deduct any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes from such payments, then (i) the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after making all required deductions or withholdings (including deductions or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.15) the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank (as the case may be) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) Borrower shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) Borrower shall pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, Borrower shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(c) Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Issuing Bank, within ten Business Days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes paid by the Administrative Agent, such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, on or with respect to any payment by or on account of any obligation of Borrower hereunder or under any other Loan Document (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 2.15) and any penalties, interest and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. If in the reasonable opinion of Borrower, any amount has been paid to, by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or the Issuing Bank (as the case may be) pursuant to clause (a), (b) or this (c) of this Section 2.15 with respect to Taxes or Other Taxes which are not correctly or legally asserted, the Administrative Agent, such Lender or the Issuing Bank (as the case may be) will cooperate with Borrower in seeking to obtain a refund for the benefit of Borrower of such amount, provided that, the rendering of any such cooperation by the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, would not, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, (i) cause the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, to incur any expense or liability (which is not otherwise paid in full by Borrower prior to or at the time that such expense or liability is incurred) or (ii) have any adverse effect on the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to Borrower by a Lender or the Issuing Bank, or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender or the Issuing Bank, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. If the Administrative Agent, any Lender, or the Issuing Bank receives a written notice of Tax assessment from any Governmental Authority regarding any Tax in respect of which indemnification may be required pursuant to this Section 2.15(c), the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, shall notify Borrower within 120 days following the receipt of such notice that such notice has been received; provided, however, that the failure of the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank to provide such notice shall not relieve Borrower of its obligation to make any indemnification payment under this Agreement.

(d) As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes by Borrower to a Governmental Authority, Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) On or before the Closing Date in the case of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or the Issuing Bank, or on or before the acceptance of any appointment as the Administrative Agent in the case of a successor Agent, or on or before the effective date of an Assignment and Acceptance pursuant to which it became a Lender in the case of an assignee, or on or prior to the date that any Lender becomes an Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.17(i), and if otherwise reasonably requested from time to time by Borrower or the Administrative Agent, within 30 days of such request, the Administrative Agent, each Lender or the Issuing Bank which is not a U.S. Person within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Tax Code shall provide to each of the Administrative Agent and Borrower two duly completed and signed copies of Internal Revenue Service Forms W-8BEN, or W-8ECI or successor form(s), as the case may be, certifying as to such Administrative Agent's, Lender's or Issuing Bank's (if applicable) status for purposes of determining exemption from United States withholding taxes with respect to all payments to be made to the Administrative Agent, each Lender or the Issuing Bank under this Agreement. Until Borrower and the Administrative Agent have received such forms and indicating that payments under this Agreement are subject to an exemption from or reduction of United States withholding tax, Borrower or the Administrative Agent (if not withheld by Borrower) shall withhold taxes from such payments at the applicable statutory rate, without any obligation to "gross-up" or make the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank whole under clause (a) of this Section. In the case of an Administrative Agent, Lender, or Issuing Bank that is subject to a reduction of, rather than exemption from, United States withholding tax, the obligation of Borrower to "gross-up" under clause (a) of this Section shall not apply in respect of the amount of United States withholding tax that the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank is subject to at the time they become a party to this Agreement (provided, however, that in the case of an assignee that becomes a Lender pursuant to Section 11.04, the obligation of Borrower to "gross-up" under clause (a) of this Section, or indemnify for Indemnified Taxes under clause (c) of this Section, shall apply in respect of the amount of United States withholding tax that is applicable to payments made on or after the date upon which the assignee first becomes a Lender to the same extent that Borrower would have been obligated to "gross-up" under clause (a) of this Section, or indemnify for Indemnified Taxes under clause (c) of this Section, had the Administrative Agent, relevant Lender, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, not made such assignment to such assignee).

(f) If (i) the Administrative Agent, any Lender, or the Issuing Bank receives a cash refund in respect of an overpayment of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes from a Governmental Authority with respect to, and actually resulting from, an amount of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes actually paid to or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or Issuing Bank by Borrower (a "TAX REFUND") and (ii) the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, determines in its reasonable opinion that such Tax Refund has been correctly paid by such Governmental Authority and will not be required to be repaid to such Governmental Authority, then the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, shall use its reasonable efforts to notify Borrower of such Tax Refund and to forward the proceeds of such Tax Refund (or relevant portion thereof) to Borrower as reduced by any expense or liability incurred by the Administrative Agent, such Lender, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, in connection with obtaining such Tax Refund.

SECTION 2.16. MITIGATION OBLIGATIONS; REPLACEMENT OF LENDERS.

(a) MITIGATION OF OBLIGATIONS. If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.12, or if Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.15, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.12 or 2.15, as the case may be, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender. Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) REPLACEMENT OF LENDERS. If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.12, or if Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.15, or if any Lender defaults in its obligation to fund Loans hereunder, then Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 11.04), all of its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee selected by Borrower that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that, (i) Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (and, if a Revolving Commitment is being assigned, the Issuing Bank), which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld; (ii) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans and participations in LC Disbursements, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or Borrower (in the case of all other amounts); and (iii) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.12 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.15, such assignment will result in a material reduction in such compensation or payments. A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment and delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

SECTION 2.17. LETTERS OF CREDIT.

(a) GENERAL. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, Borrower may request the issuance of Letters of Credit for its own account or the account of a Subsidiary in a form reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank, at any time and from time to time during the Revolving Availability Period (provided that, Borrower shall be a co-applicant with respect to each Letter of Credit issued for the account of or in favor of a Subsidiary). In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any form of letter-of-credit application or other agreement submitted by Borrower to, or entered into by Borrower with, the Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control.

(b) NOTICE OF ISSUANCE, AMENDMENT, RENEWAL, EXTENSION; CERTAIN CONDITIONS. To request the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or the amendment, renewal or extension of an outstanding Letter of Credit), Borrower shall hand deliver or telecopy (or transmit by electronic communication, if arrangements for doing so have been approved by the Issuing Bank) to the Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent (at least three Business Days in advance of the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension, or such shorter period as is acceptable to such respective Issuing Bank) a duly completed Letter of Credit Request, together with such other information as shall be necessary to prepare, amend, renew or extend such Letter of Credit. If requested by the Issuing Bank, Borrower also shall submit a letter-of-credit application on the Issuing Bank's standard form in connection with any request for a Letter of Credit. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, renewed or extended only if (and upon issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of each Letter of Credit, Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant that) after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, renewal or extension, (i) the LC Exposure shall not exceed $10.0 million, (ii) the total Revolving Exposures shall not exceed the total Revolving Commitments, (iii) the stated amount of each Letter of Credit shall be no less than $500,000, or such lesser amount as is acceptable to the Issuing Bank, and (iv) each Letter of Credit shall be denominated in dollars.

(c) EXPIRATION DATE. Each Letter of Credit shall expire no later than the close of business on the earlier of (i) in the case of a Standby Letter of Credit, (x) the date one year after the date of the issuance of such Standby Letter of Credit (or, in the case of any renewal or extension thereof, one year after such renewal or extension) and (y) the date that is 15 Business Days prior to the Revolving Maturity Date and (ii) in the case of a Commercial Letter of Credit, (x) the date that is 180 days after the date of issuance of such Commercial Letter of Credit (or, in the case of any renewal or extension thereof, one year after such renewal or extension) and (y) the date that is 15 Business Days prior to the Revolving Maturity Date.

(d) PARTICIPATIONS. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or an amendment to a Letter of Credit increasing the amount thereof) and without any further action on the part of the Issuing Bank or the Lenders, the Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Lender, and each Revolving Lender hereby acquires from the Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit. In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Issuing Bank, such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage of each LC Disbursement made by the Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by Borrower on the date due as provided in Section 2.17(e), or of any reimbursement payment required to be refunded to Borrower for any reason. Each Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this Section 2.17(d) in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including any amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or the occurrence and continuance of a Default or reduction or termination of the Commitments, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever.

(e) REIMBURSEMENT. If the Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, Borrower shall reimburse such LC Disbursement by paying to the Issuing Bank an amount equal to such LC Disbursement not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date that such LC Disbursement is made, if Borrower shall have received notice of such LC Disbursement prior to 11:00 a.m., New York City time on such date, or, if such notice has not been received by Borrower prior to such time on such date, then not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on (i) the Business Day that Borrower receives such notice, if such notice is received prior to 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the day of receipt, or (ii) the Business Day immediately following the day that Borrower receives such notice, if such notice is not received prior to such time on the day of receipt; provided that, Borrower may, subject to the conditions to borrowing set forth herein, request in accordance with Section 2.03 that such payment be financed with an ABR Revolving Borrowing in an equivalent amount and, to the extent so financed, Borrower's obligation to make such payment shall be discharged and replaced by the resulting ABR Revolving Borrowing. If Borrower fails to make such payment when due, the Issuing Bank shall notify the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Agent shall notify each Revolving Lender of the applicable LC Disbursement, the payment then due from Borrower in respect thereof and such Lender's Pro Rata Percentage thereof. Promptly following receipt of such notice, each Revolving Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent its Pro Rata Percentage of the unreimbursed LC Disbursement in the same manner as provided in Section 2.02(f), with respect to Loans made by such Lender, and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the Issuing Bank the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders. Promptly following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any payment from Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.17(e), the Administrative Agent shall, to the extent that Revolving Lenders have made payments pursuant to this Section 2.17(e) to reimburse the Issuing Bank, distribute such payment to such Lenders and the Issuing Bank as their interests may appear. Any payment made by a Revolving Lender pursuant to this Section 2.17(e) to reimburse the Issuing Bank for any LC Disbursement (other than the funding of ABR Revolving Loans as contemplated above) shall not constitute a Loan and shall not relieve Borrower of its obligation to reimburse such LC Disbursement.

(f) OBLIGATIONS ABSOLUTE. The obligation of Borrower to reimburse LC Disbursements as provided in Section 2.17(e) shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under any and all circumstances whatsoever and irrespective of (i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or this Agreement, or any term or provision therein, (ii) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent or invalid in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, (iii) payment by the Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit, or (iv) any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section 2.17(f), constitute a legal or equitable discharge of, or provide a right of set-off against, the obligations of Borrower hereunder. Neither the Administrative Agent, the Lenders nor the Issuing Bank, nor any of their Affiliates, shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of the Issuing Bank; provided that, the foregoing shall not be construed to excuse the Issuing Bank from liability to Borrower to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by Borrower to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by Borrower that are caused by the Issuing Bank's failure to exercise care when determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof. The parties hereto expressly agree that, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Issuing Bank (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction), the Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have exercised care in each such determination. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented that appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the Issuing Bank may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit.

(g) DISBURSEMENT PROCEDURES. The Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. The Issuing Bank shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and Borrower by telephone (confirmed by telecopy) of such demand for payment and whether the Issuing Bank has made or will make an LC Disbursement thereunder; provided that, any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve Borrower of its obligation to reimburse the Issuing Bank and the Revolving Lenders with respect to any such LC Disbursement (other than with respect to the timing of such reimbursement obligation set forth in Section 2.17(e)).

(h) INTERIM INTEREST. If the Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement, then, unless Borrower shall reimburse such LC Disbursement in full on the date such LC Disbursement is made, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest, for each day from and including the date such LC Disbursement is made to but excluding the date that Borrower reimburses such LC Disbursement, at the rate per annum then applicable to ABR Revolving Loans; provided that, if Borrower fails to reimburse such LC Disbursement when due pursuant to Section 2.17(e), then Section 2.06(c) shall apply. Interest accrued pursuant to this Section 2.17(h) shall be for the account of the Issuing Bank, except that interest accrued on and after the date of payment by any Revolving Lender pursuant to Section 2.17(e) to reimburse the Issuing Bank shall be for the account of such Lender to the extent of such payment.

(i) RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL OF THE ISSUING BANK; ADDITIONAL ISSUING BANKS. The Issuing Bank may resign as Issuing Bank or be replaced at any time by written agreement among Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the replaced Issuing Bank and the successor Issuing Bank. Borrower may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and such Lender, by written agreement designate one or more additional Lenders to act as an issuing bank under the terms of this Agreement. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Lenders of any such replacement of the Issuing Bank or any such additional Issuing Bank. At the time any such replacement shall become effective, Borrower shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the replaced Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.05(c). From and after the effective date of any such replacement or addition, as applicable, (i) the successor or additional Issuing Bank shall have all the rights and obligations of the Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit to be issued thereafter by such Lender, and (ii) references herein and in the other Loan Documents to the term "Issuing Bank" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or such addition to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor or such addition and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the replacement of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the replaced Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such replacement, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit. If at any time there is more than one Issuing Bank hereunder, Borrower may, in its discretion, select which Issuing Bank is to issue any particular Letter of Credit.

(j) CASH COLLATERALIZATION. If any Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, on the Business Day that Borrower receives notice from the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders (or, if the maturity of the Loans has been accelerated, Revolving Lenders with LC Exposure representing greater than 50% of the total LC Exposure) demanding the deposit of cash collateral pursuant to this Section 2.17(j), Borrower shall deposit in the LC Sub-Account, in the name of the Collateral Agent and for the benefit of the Lenders, an amount in cash equal to the LC Exposure as of such date plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that, the obligation to deposit such cash collateral shall become effective immediately, and such deposit shall become immediately due and payable, without demand or other notice of any kind, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default with respect to Borrower described in paragraph (g) or (h) of Article VIII. Each such deposit shall be held by the Collateral Agent as collateral for the payment and performance of the obligations of Borrower under this Agreement. The Collateral Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account. Other than any interest earned on the investment of such deposits, which investments shall be made at the option and sole discretion of the Collateral Agent and at the risk and expense of Borrower, such deposits shall not bear interest. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall be invested in Cash Equivalents and applied by the Collateral Agent to reimburse the Issuing Bank for LC Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed and, to the extent not so applied, shall be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of Borrower for the LC Exposure at such time or, if the maturity of the Loans has been accelerated (but subject to the consent of Revolving Lenders with LC Exposure representing greater than 50% of the total LC Exposure), be applied to satisfy other Obligations of Borrower under this Agreement. If Borrower is required to provide an amount of cash collateral hereunder as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amount plus any accrued interest or realized profits or such amounts (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to Borrower within three Business Days after all Events of Default have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 3.01. ORGANIZATION; POWERS. Each Company (a) is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted, except where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (c) is qualified and in good standing (to the extent such concept is applicable in the applicable jurisdiction) to do business in every jurisdiction where such qualification is required, except in such jurisdictions where the failure to so qualify, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.03. GOVERNMENTAL APPROVALS; NO CONFLICTS. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.03, the Transactions (a) do not require any consent or approval of, registration or filing with, or any other action by, any Governmental Authority, except (i) such as have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect, (ii) filings necessary to perfect Liens created under the Loan Documents and (iii) consents, approvals, registrations, filings or actions the failure of which to obtain or perform could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect; (b) will not violate (i) any applicable law or regulation except for violations that could not reasonably imposition of any Lien on any asset of any Company, except Liens created under the Loan Documents and Permitted Liens.

SECTION 3.04. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS. Deloitte & Touche LLP are independent accountants within the meaning of Regulation S-X of the Securities Act. The historical financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial position, income statement, cash flows and changes in stockholder's equity of Borrower and its Subsidiaries at the respective dates and for the respective periods indicated. All such financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods presented (except as disclosed therein). The other financial and statistical information and data included in the Offering Memorandum (other than industry and market-related data) are accurately presented in all material respects and prepared on a basis consistent with the financial statements and the books and records of Borrower and its Subsidiaries.

SECTION 3.05. PROPERTIES.

(a) Each Loan Party has good title to, or valid leasehold interests in or other valid rights to use, all of such Company's Real Property, and all of such Loan Party's personal property material to its business. Title to all such property held by such Loan Party is free and clear of all Liens except for Permitted Liens. The property of the Companies, taken as a whole, (i) is in good operating order, condition and repair (ordinary wear and tear excepted) (except to the extent such condition could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect) and (ii) constitutes all the properties that are required for the business and operations of the Companies as currently conducted.

(b) For each Loan Party, Schedule 3.05(b) contains a true and complete list of each parcel of Real Property (i) owned by such Loan Party as of the Closing Date, including a description of the type of interest therein held by such Loan Party, and the name of the Loan Party holding such interest; or (ii) leased, subleased or otherwise occupied or utilized by any Loan Party, as lessee or sublessee, as of the Closing Date, including a description of the type of interest therein held by such Loan Party, the name of the Loan Party holding such interest, and whether such lease, sublease or other instrument (each, a "COMPANY LEASE") requires the consent of the landlord thereunder or other parties thereto to the Transactions. Each Company Lease is a legal, valid and binding agreement, enforceable in accordance with its terms, of the Loan Party that is a party thereto, and there is no, nor has any Loan Party received notice of any, default thereunder (or to the knowledge of any Loan Party, any condition or event that, after notice or a lapse of time or both, would constitute a default thereunder). No Loan Party, and, to the knowledge of each Loan Party, no third party to any Company Lease, has assigned any Company Lease or sublet any part of the premises covered thereby or exercised any renewal or purchase option thereunder. No penalties are accrued and unpaid by any Loan Party under any Company Lease. True and complete copies of all Company Leases, together with all modifications, extensions, amendments and assignments thereof have heretofore been made available to the Administrative Agent. None of the Loan Parties has granted any options or rights of first refusal, or rights of first offer to third parties to purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in any of the Real Property.

(c) Each Company owns, or is licensed to use, all Intellectual Property used in the conduct of its business as currently conducted, except for those the failure to own or license that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. No claim has been asserted and is pending by any person challenging or questioning the use of any such Intellectual Property or the validity or effectiveness of any such Intellectual Property, nor does any Company know of any valid basis for any such claim. The use of such Intellectual Property by each Company does not infringe the rights of any person, except for such claims and infringements that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(d) No Company has received any notice of, nor has any knowledge of, the occurrence or pendency or contemplation of any Casualty Event, zoning change, variance or special zoning exception affecting or that would affect all or any portion of the property.

Schedule 3.06(a) designates the only Subsidiaries of Borrower that constitute Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries on the Closing Date. Such schedule may be amended from time to time without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent so long as the Loan Parties and their Subsidiaries comply with all related obligations under this Agreement (including obligations described in Section 5.11 hereof). All Equity Interests of each Subsidiary of Holdings are duly and validly issued, are fully paid and non-assessable and, except as disclosed on Schedule 3.06(a), are owned directly or indirectly by Holdings. All Equity Interests of Parent are owned directly by Holdings, all Equity Interests of Luxembourg Holdings are owned directly by Parent, all Equity Interests of Luxembourg CM and Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings are owned directly by Luxembourg Holdings, and all Equity Interests of Borrower are owned directly by the Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings. Each Loan Party is the record and beneficial owner of, and has good and marketable title to, the Equity Interests pledged by it under the applicable Security Agreement, free of any and all Liens, rights or claims of other persons, except for the security interest created by the Security Agreements.

(b) No consent of any person including any other general or limited partner, any other member of a limited liability company, any other shareholder or any trust beneficiary is necessary or desirable in connection with the creation, perfection or first priority status of the security interest of the Collateral Agent in any Equity Interests, pledged to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties under any Security Agreement or the exercise by the Collateral Agent of the voting or other rights provided for in any Security Agreement or the exercise of remedies in respect thereof.

SECTION 3.07. LITIGATION; COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.07, there are no actions, suits or proceedings at law or in equity by or before any Governmental Authority now pending or, to the knowledge of any Company, threatened against or affecting any Company or any business, property or rights of any such person (i) that involve any Loan Document or the Transactions or (ii) as to which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse determination and that, if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except for matters covered by Section 3.17, no Company or any of its property is in violation of, nor will the continued operation of their property as currently conducted violate, any Requirements of Law (including any zoning or building ordinance, code or approval or any building permits) or any restrictions of record or agreements affecting the Real Property or is in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, decree or order of any Governmental Authority, in each case where such violation or default could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Schedule 3.08 accurately and completely lists all material agreements (other than Leases of Real Property set forth on Schedule 3.05(b)) to which any Loan Party is a party that are in effect on the Closing Date in connection with the operation of the business conducted thereby and Borrower has delivered to the Administrative Agent complete and correct copies of all such material agreements, including any amendments, supplements or modifications with respect thereto.

SECTION 3.09. FEDERAL RESERVE REGULATIONS.

(a) No Company is engaged principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of buying or carrying Margin Stock.

(b) No part of the proceeds of any Loan or any Letter of Credit will be used in any manner, whether directly or indirectly, for any purpose that violates, or that is inconsistent with, the provisions of the regulations of the Board, including Regulation T, U or X. The pledge of the Securities Collateral pursuant to the Security Agreements does not violate such regulations.

SECTION 3.10. INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT; PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT. No Company is (a) an “investment company” or a company “controlled” by an “investment company,” as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, or (b) a “holding company,” an “affiliate” of a “holding company” or a “subsidiary company” of a “holding company,” as defined in, or subject to regulation under, the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, as amended.

SECTION 3.13. NO MATERIAL MISSTATEMENTS. None of any information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule furnished by or on behalf of any Company to any Agent or any Lender in connection with the negotiation of any Loan Document or included therein or delivered pursuant thereto (including the Offering Memorandum), taken together with all related information so furnished, contained, contains or will contain any material misstatement of fact or omitted, omits or will omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were, are or will be made, not misleading as of the date such information is dated or certified; provided that, to the extent any such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule was based upon or constitutes a forecast, projection or pro forma adjustment, each Company represents only that it acted in good faith and utilized reasonable assumptions and due care in the preparation of such information, report, financial statement, exhibit or schedule (it being understood that, with respect to projected financial information, actual results may vary significantly from such projected results).

SECTION 3.14. LABOR MATTERS. As of the Closing Date, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against any Company pending or, to the knowledge of any Company, threatened which could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The hours worked by and payments made to employees of any Company have not been in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other applicable federal, state, local or foreign law dealing with such matters in any manner that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. All payments due from any Company, or for which any claim may be made against any Company, on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance and other benefits, have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of such Company except where the failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The consummation of the Transactions will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which any Company is bound.

SECTION 3.15. SOLVENCY. Immediately after the consummation of the Transactions to occur on the Closing Date and immediately following the making of each Loan and after giving effect to the application of the proceeds of each Loan, (a) the fair value of the assets of the Loan Parties, taken as a whole, will exceed their debts and liabilities, subordinated, contingent or otherwise; (b) the present fair saleable value of the property of the Loan Parties, taken as a whole, will be greater than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liability of their collective debts and other liabilities, subordinated, contingent or otherwise, as such debts and other liabilities become absolute and matured; (c) the Loan Parties, taken as a whole, will be able to pay their debts and liabilities, subordinated, contingent or otherwise, as such debts and liabilities become absolute and matured; and (d) the Loan Parties, taken as a whole, will not have unreasonably small capital with which to conduct the business in which they are engaged as such business is now conducted and is proposed to be conducted following the Closing Date.

No ERISA Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. No liability to the PBGC (other than required premium payments), the Internal Revenue Service, any Plan or any trust established under Title IV of ERISA has been or is expected to be incurred by any Company or any ERISA Affiliate. No Company or ERISA Affiliate sponsors, contributes, participates in or has any liability under a plan established under Title IV of ERISA or a Multiemployer Plan.

(b) Each Foreign Plan has been maintained in substantial compliance with its terms and with the requirements of any and all applicable laws, statutes, rules, regulations and orders and has been maintained, where required, in good standing with applicable regulatory authorities, except when such failure to comply is not reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. No Company has incurred any material obligation in connection with the termination of or withdrawal from any Foreign Plan that is reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. The present value of the accrued benefit liabilities (whether or not vested) under each Foreign Plan that is funded, determined as of the end of the most recently ended fiscal year of the respective Company on the basis of actuarial assumptions, each of which is reasonable, did not exceed the current value of the assets of such Foreign Plan by an amount that is reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 3.17. ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS.

(a) The Real Property of the Companies does not contain, and has not previously contained, therein, thereon or thereunder, including the soil and groundwater thereunder, any Hazardous Materials in amounts or concentrations that (i) constitute or constituted a violation of, (ii) require a Response under, or (iii) could give rise to liability under, Environmental Laws, which violations, Response and liabilities, in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(a) Subject to this Section 5.11 and except to the extent the Administrative Agent (after consultation with Borrower) determines that any of the following is not commercially reasonable (taking into account the expense of obtaining the same, the ability of Borrower or the relevant Subsidiary to obtain any necessary approvals or consents required to be obtained under applicable law in connection therewith, and the effectiveness and enforceability thereof under applicable law), with respect to any assets acquired after the Closing Date by Holdings, Parent, the LuxCos, Borrower or any other Loan Party that are intended to be subject to the Lien created by any of the Security Documents but that are not so subject, and with respect to any assets held by Holdings, Parent, the LuxCos, and Borrower or any other Loan Party on the Closing Date not made subject to a Lien created by any of the Security Documents but of a type intended to be subject to the Lien created by the applicable Security Documents (but, in any event, excluding any assets described in Section 5.11(b)), promptly (and in any event within 60 days after the acquisition thereof or upon the Administrative Agent's request): (i) execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent such amendments or supplements to the relevant Security Documents or such other documents as the Administrative Agent shall deem necessary or advisable to grant to the Administrative Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the other Secured Parties, a Lien on such properties or assets (including using its best efforts to deliver a Landlord Lien Waiver and Access Agreement with respect to each Real Property located in the United States in which a Loan Party holds the tenant's interest thereunder and where the Loan Parties maintain Collateral having a value in excess of $1.0 million), subject to no Liens other than Permitted Liens, and (ii) take all actions necessary to cause such Lien to be duly perfected to the extent required by such Security Document in accordance with all applicable Requirements of Law, including the filing of financing statements in such jurisdictions as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent. Borrower shall otherwise take such actions and execute and/or deliver to the Administrative Agent such documents as the Administrative Agent shall require to confirm the validity, perfection and priority of the Lien of Security Documents against such after-acquired properties or assets, and such assets held on the Closing Date not made subject to a Lien created by any of the Security Documents.

(b) To the extent the Administrative Agent (after consultation with Borrower) determines that any of the following is commercially reasonable (taking into account the expense (including taxes) of obtaining the same, the ability of Borrower or the relevant Subsidiary to obtain any necessary approvals or consents required to be obtained under applicable law in connection therewith, and the effectiveness and enforceability thereof under applicable law), with respect to any person that is a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries that are listed on Schedule 5.11(b) (a "SECTION 5.11(b) LISTED SUBSIDIARY"), any Subsidiary that has become a Released Guarantor pursuant to Section 7.09, and any person that becomes a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries after the Closing Date (a "NEW WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY"), promptly (and in any event (x) in the case of a New Wholly Owned Subsidiary, no later than 60 days after each such person becomes a New Wholly Owned Subsidiary, and (y) in the case of each Section 5.11(b) Listed Subsidiary or a New Wholly Owned Subsidiary that is required to become a Guarantor, or the stock or assets of which are required to be pledged, pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) immediately below, no later than 90 days following the Closing Date and, in the case of any such Subsidiary that continues to not be a Guarantor, no later than 60 days following the close of any taxable year that such Subsidiary continues not to be a Guarantor), cause such Subsidiary (i) to become a Guarantor and deliver to the Administrative Agent the certificates representing the Equity Interests of such Subsidiary (provided that, in no event shall the stock of any such Subsidiary be required to be pledged if such pledge is illegal under applicable law and no reasonable alternative structure can be devised having substantially the same effect as such pledge that would not be illegal under applicable law), together with undated stock powers executed and delivered in blank by a duly authorized officer of such Subsidiary's parent, as the case may be, and all Intercompany Notes owing from such Subsidiary to any Loan Party; and (ii) (A) to execute a Joinder Agreement or such comparable documentation, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, and (B) to take all actions reasonably necessary or advisable to cause the Lien created by each Security Agreement to be duly perfected to the extent required by such agreement in accordance with all applicable Requirements of Law, including the filing of financing statements in such jurisdictions as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent (provided that any such Subsidiary shall not be required to comply with clause (ii)(A) and (B) above if satisfying such requirements is illegal under applicable law and no reasonable alternative structure can be devised having substantially the same effect as such pledge that would not be illegal under applicable law).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein:

(i) in the case of any (x) Section 5.11(b) Listed Subsidiary and New Wholly Owned Subsidiary that has not previously become (and, if so, does not remain) a Guarantor and (y) other Non-Guarantor Subsidiary, 65% of the Equity Interests of any such Subsidiary (and 100% of the Equity Interests of any Domesticated Foreign Subsidiary) shall be subject to a Lien or be required to be pledged under the applicable Loan Document (except to the extent the Administrative Agent (after consultation with Borrower) determines that such Lien or pledge is not commercially reasonable (taking into account the expense (including taxes) of obtaining the same, the ability of Borrower or such Subsidiary to obtain any necessary approvals or consents required to be obtained under applicable law in connection therewith, and the effectiveness and enforceability thereof under applicable law)); and

(ii) notwithstanding clause (c)(i) immediately above and as of the end of any fiscal quarter of Parent:

(1) if the aggregate consolidated revenues of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries exceeds 35.0% of Parent's consolidated revenues, then within 60 days of such date Borrower shall cause a sufficient number of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries to become Guarantors hereunder so that, after giving pro forma effect to such action, the aggregate consolidated revenues of the Subsidiaries remaining as Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries is less than 35.0% of Parent's consolidated revenues; or

(2) if the aggregate consolidated sum of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries' fixed assets, receivables and inventories exceeds 35.0% of the aggregate consolidated sum of Parent's fixed assets, receivables and inventories (which fixed assets, receivables and inventories shall be computed after eliminating intercompany profit), then within 60 days of such date Borrower shall cause a sufficient number of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries to become Guarantors hereunder so that, after giving pro forma effect to such action, the aggregate consolidated sum of fixed assets, receivables and inventories of the Subsidiaries remaining as Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries is less than 35.0% of the aggregate consolidated sum of Parent's fixed assets, receivables and inventories.

If the condition set forth in clause (ii)(1) or (ii)(2) above is established, Borrower shall, or shall cause the applicable Foreign Subsidiaries to, take all such further action and execute and deliver all such further agreements or documents as the Administrative Agent deems necessary or advisable to receive the full benefits of the Guarantees and Security Documents to be entered into by such Foreign Subsidiaries to the extent necessary to preclude the 35.0% thresholds set forth in the immediately preceding clauses (ii)(1) and (ii)(2) from being exceeded, except to the extent such actions, executions, or, deliveries are illegal under applicable law, and no reasonable alternative structure can be devised having substantially the same effect as such actions, executions, or deliveries that would not be illegal under applicable law.

(d) REAL PROPERTY. Upon the written request of the Administrative Agent (provided that, except as otherwise provided in Section 5.12, the Administrative Agent shall not make such written request if (after consultation with Borrower) it determines that any of the following is not commercially feasible (taking into account the expense of obtaining the same and the effectiveness and enforceability thereof under applicable law)), each Loan Party will promptly grant to the Administrative Agent, within 60 days of such request, security interests and Mortgages in such owned or leased Real Property of such Loan Party located in the United States as is acquired or leased by such Loan Party after the Closing Date by Borrower or such Subsidiary and that is used for warehouse, manufacturing, distribution, or laboratory purposes, has a value as determined in good faith by the Administrative Agent in excess of $1.0 million or is otherwise material to the business operations of Borrower or such Subsidiary, as additional security for the Secured Obligations (unless (i) the subject property is already mortgaged to a third party to the extent permitted by Section 6.02 or (ii) in the encumbrancing of such leased Real Property requires the consent of any applicable lessor, where Parent and its Subsidiaries have attempted in good faith, but are unable, to obtain such lessor's consent). Such Mortgages shall be granted pursuant to documentation reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to the Collateral Agent and shall constitute valid and enforceable perfected Liens subject only to Permitted Liens and such other Liens reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent. The Mortgages or instruments related thereto shall be duly recorded or filed in such manner and in such places as are required by law to establish, perfect, preserve and protect the Liens in favor of the Collateral Agent required to be granted pursuant to the Mortgages and all taxes, fees and other charges payable in connection therewith shall be paid in full. Such Loan Party shall otherwise take such actions and execute and/or deliver to the Collateral Agent such documents as the Administrative Agent shall require to confirm the validity, perfection and priority of the Lien of any existing Mortgage or new Mortgage against such after-acquired Real Property (including a Title Policy, a survey and local counsel opinion (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent) and all other items described in Section 4.02(o) in respect of such Mortgage) within 60 days of the written request of the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 5.12. SECURITY INTERESTS; FURTHER ASSURANCES. Each Loan Party shall, at its own cost and expense, take any and all actions necessary to defend title to the Collateral against all persons and to defend the security interest of the Collateral Agent in the Collateral and the priority thereof against any Lien not expressly permitted pursuant to Section 6.02. Promptly, upon the reasonable request of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or the Collateral Agent, at Borrower's expense, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or cause the execution, acknowledgment and delivery of, and thereafter register, file or record, or cause to be registered, filed or recorded, in an appropriate governmental office, any document or instrument supplemental to or confirmatory of the Security Documents or otherwise deemed by Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent reasonably necessary or desirable for the continued validity, perfection and priority of the Liens on the Collateral covered thereby superior and prior to the rights of all third persons other than the holders of Permitted Liens and subject to other Liens except as permitted by the Security Documents, or obtain any consents, including landlord or similar Lien waivers and consents, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection therewith, to the extent contemplated hereby. Deliver or cause to be delivered to the Administrative Agent from time to time such other documentation, consents, authorizations, approvals and orders in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent as the Administrative Agent shall deem necessary to perfect or maintain the Liens on the Collateral pursuant to the Security Documents. Upon the exercise by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent of any power, right, privilege or remedy pursuant to any Loan Document that requires any consent, approval, registration, qualification or authorization of any Governmental Authority or any other person, execute and deliver and/or obtain all applications, certifications, instruments and other documents and papers that the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent may be so required to obtain. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall have the right to require any Loan Party to execute and deliver documentation, consents, authorizations, approvals and orders in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent as the Administrative Agent shall deem necessary to grant to the Administrative Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the other Secured Parties, a valid and perfected Lien subject to no Liens other than Permitted Liens on such assets and properties not otherwise required hereunder, except to the extent such requirements are illegal under applicable law, and no reasonable alternative structure can be devised having substantially the same effect as such actions that would not be illegal under applicable law. If the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Required Lenders determine that they are required by law or regulation to have appraisals prepared in respect of the Real Property of any Loan Party constituting Collateral, Borrower shall provide to the Administrative Agent appraisals that satisfy the applicable requirements of the Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments of FIRREA and are in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent.

GUARANTEE

SECTION 7.01. THE GUARANTEE. The Guarantors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally, jointly and severally guarantee as primary obligors and not as sureties to each Secured Party and their respective successors and assigns the prompt payment in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of and interest on (including any interest, fees, costs or charges that would accrue but for the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code after any bankruptcy or insolvency petition under Title 11 of the United States Code) the Loans made by the Lenders to, and the Notes held by each Lender of, Borrower, and all other Obligations from time to time owing to the Secured Parties by any Loan Party under any Loan Document or Interest Rate Protection Agreement relating to the Loans, in each case strictly in accordance with the terms thereof (such obligations being herein collectively called the “GUARANTEED OBLIGATIONS”). The Guarantors hereby irrevocably and unconditionally, jointly and severally agree that if Borrower or other Guarantor(s) shall fail to pay in full when due (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Guarantors will promptly pay the same, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full when due (whether at extended maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

SECTION 7.02. OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL. The obligations of the Guarantors under Section 7.01 shall constitute a guaranty of payment (and not of collection) and are absolute, irrevocable and unconditional, joint and several (except to the extent otherwise limited in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law as described in Annex IV attached hereto or in any other Guarantee required by applicable Requirements of Law), irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations of Borrower under this Agreement, the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or any substitution, release or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or Guarantor (except for payment in full). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of the Guarantors hereunder, which shall remain absolute, irrevocable and unconditional under any and all circumstances as described above:

(i) at any time or from time to time, without notice to the Guarantors, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;

(ii) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be done or omitted;

(iii) the maturity of any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be amended in any respect, or any right under the Loan Documents or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein shall be amended or waived in any respect or any other guarantee of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security therefor shall be released or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;

(iv) any Lien or security interest granted to, or in favor of, the Issuing Bank or any Lender or Agent as security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall fail to be perfected; or

(v) the release of any other Guarantor.

The Guarantors hereby expressly waive diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that any Loan Party exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against Borrower under this Agreement or the Notes, if any, or any other agreement or instrument referred to herein or therein, or against any other person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Guarantors waive any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension, waiver, termination or accrual of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and notice of or proof of reliance by any Secured Party upon this Guarantee or acceptance of this Guarantee, and the Guaranteed Obligations, and any of them, shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred in reliance upon this Guarantee, and all dealings between Borrower and the Secured Parties shall likewise be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. This Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute, irrevocable and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to any right of offset with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations at any time or from time to time held by the Secured Parties, and the obligations and liabilities of the Guarantors hereunder shall not be conditioned or contingent upon the pursuit by the Secured Parties or any other person at any time of any right or remedy against Borrower or against any other person that may be or become liable in respect of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or against any collateral or guarantee therefor or right of offset with respect thereto. This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and be binding in accordance with and to the extent of its terms upon the Guarantors and the successors and assigns thereof, and shall inure to the benefit of the Lenders, and their respective successors and assigns, notwithstanding that from time to time during the term of this Agreement there may be no Guaranteed Obligations outstanding.

For purposes of this paragraph only, references to the “principal” include each Loan Party and references to the “creditor” include each Secured Party. In accordance with Section 2856 of the California Civil Code, each Guarantor waives all rights and defenses (i) available to such Guarantor by reason of Sections 2787 through 2855, 2899, and 3433 of the California Civil Code, including all rights or defenses such Guarantor may have by reason of protection afforded to the principal with respect to any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or to any other guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations with respect to any of such guarantor’s obligations under its guarantee, in either case in accordance with the antideficiency or other laws of the State of California limiting or discharging the principal’s Indebtedness or such other guarantor’s obligations, including Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure; and (ii) arising out of an election of remedies by the creditor, even though such election, such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for any Guaranteed Obligation (or any obligation of any other guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations), has destroyed such Guarantor’s right of subrogation and reimbursement against the principal (or such other guarantor) by the operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise. No other provision of this Guarantee shall be construed as limiting the generality of any of the covenants and waivers set forth in this paragraph. As provided below, this Agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. This paragraph is included solely out of an abundance of caution, and shall not be construed to mean that any of the above-referenced provisions of California law are in any way applicable to this Agreement or to any of the Guaranteed Obligations.

SECTION 7.03. REINSTATEMENT. The obligations of the Guarantors under this Article VII shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of Holdings, Borrower or any other Loan Party in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings in bankruptcy or reorganization or otherwise. The Guarantors jointly and severally (except to the extent otherwise limited in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law as described in Annex IV attached hereto or in any other Guarantee required by applicable Requirements of Law) agree that they will indemnify each Secured Party on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable fees of counsel) incurred by such Secured Party in connection with such rescission or restoration, including any such costs and expenses incurred in defending against any claim alleging that such payment constituted a preference, fraudulent transfer or similar payment under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, other than any costs or expenses resulting from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Secured Party.

SECTION 7.04. SUBROGATION; SUBORDINATION. Each Guarantor hereby agrees that until the indefeasible payment and satisfaction in full in cash of all Guaranteed Obligations and the expiration and termination of the Commitments of the Lenders under this Agreement it shall not exercise any right or remedy arising by reason of any performance by it of its guarantee in Section 7.01, whether by subrogation or otherwise, against Borrower or any other Guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or any security for any of the Guaranteed Obligations. The payment of any amounts due with respect to any indebtedness of Borrower or any other Guarantor now or hereafter owing to any Guarantor or Borrower by reason of any payment by such Guarantor under the Guarantee in this Article VII is hereby subordinated to the prior indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations. In addition, any Indebtedness of the Guarantors now or hereafter held by any Guarantor is hereby subordinated in right of payment in full in cash to the Guaranteed Obligations. Each Guarantor agrees that it will not demand, sue for or otherwise attempt to collect any such indebtedness of Borrower or any other Guarantor to such Guarantor until the Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash. If, notwithstanding the preceding sentence, any Guarantor shall, prior to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Guaranteed Obligations, collect, enforce or receive any amounts in respect of such indebtedness, such amounts shall be collected, enforced and received by such Guarantor as trustee for the Secured Parties and be paid over to Administrative Agent on account of the Guaranteed Obligations without affecting in any manner the liability of such Guarantor under the other provisions of the guaranty contained herein.

SECTION 7.05. REMEDIES. The Guarantors jointly and severally (except to the extent otherwise limited in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law as described in Annex IV attached hereto) agree that, as between the Guarantors and the Lenders, the obligations of Borrower under this Agreement and the Notes, if any, may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Article VIII (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in said Article VIII) for purposes of Section 7.01, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or such obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against Borrower and that, in the event of such declaration (or such obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable), such obligations (whether or not due and payable by Borrower) shall forthwith become due and payable by the Guarantors for purposes of Section 7.01.

SECTION 7.06. INSTRUMENT FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY. Each Guarantor hereby acknowledges that the guarantee in this Article VII constitutes an instrument for the payment of money, and consents and agrees that any Lender or Agent, at its sole option, in the event of a dispute by such Guarantor in the payment of any moneys due hereunder, shall have the right to bring a motion-action under New York CPLR Section 3213 to the extent permitted thereunder.

SECTION 7.07. GENERAL LIMITATION ON GUARANTEE OBLIGATIONS. In any action or proceeding involving any state corporate law, or any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Guarantor under Section 7.01 would otherwise be held or determined to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable, or subordinated to the claims of any other creditors, on account of the amount of its liability under Section 7.01, then, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the amount of such liability shall, without any further action by such Guarantor, any Loan Party or any other person, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount that is valid and enforceable and not subordinated to the claims of other creditors as determined in such action or proceeding.

SECTION 7.08. CONTINUING GUARANTEE. The Guarantees in this Article VII are continuing guarantees of payment, and shall apply to all Guaranteed Obligations whenever arising.

SECTION 7.09. RELEASE OF GUARANTORS. If at any time after the Closing Date and in connection with the Guarantee of any Loan Party in this Article VII (i) subject to the requirements of Section 5.11(c), in the case of a Foreign Subsidiary, the Administrative Agent (after consultation with Borrower) determines that in the case of any existing Guarantor, it would not be commercially reasonable for such Guarantor to remain a Guarantor (taking into account the expense (including taxes), the ability of Borrower or such Guarantor to obtain any necessary approvals or consents required to be obtained under applicable law (but have not been previously obtained) in connection therewith, and the effectiveness and enforceability thereof under applicable law) or (ii) such Guarantee becomes illegal under applicable law and such Loan Party delivers to the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the Collateral Agent a legal opinion from its counsel to such effect, and no reasonable alternative structure can be devised having substantially the same effect as the issuance of a Guarantee that would not be illegal under applicable law, then, so long as the Senior Subordinated Note Guarantee of such Loan Party has been released or is contemporaneously released under the Senior Subordinated Note Documents, in case of each of the immediately preceding clauses (i) and (ii), the Collateral Agent shall (at the expense of Borrower) take all action necessary to release its security interest in that portion of the Security Agreement Collateral owned by such Guarantor (provided, however, that 65% of the Equity Interests of such Guarantor (and 100% of the Equity Interests of any Domesticated Foreign Subsidiary) shall not be released from the Security Agreement Collateral)), and such Guarantor shall be released from its obligations in respect of the Guarantees in this Article VII (such Guarantor being hereinafter referred to as a “RELEASED GUARANTOR,” so long as it continues to be a Non-Guarantor Subsidiary), which release from such Guarantees, in the case of an event described in the immediately preceding clause (i), shall become effective as of the closing of the last day of the taxable year that immediately precedes the date that the Administrative Agent makes a determination described in such clause (i); provided that, such Released Guarantor shall continue to be subject to Section 5.11(b).

ARTICLE VIII

(c) any representation or warranty made or deemed made in or in connection with any Loan Document or the borrowings or issuances of Letters of Credit hereunder, or any representation, warranty, statement or information contained in any report, certificate, financial statement or other instrument furnished in connection with or pursuant to any Loan Document, shall prove to have been false or misleading in any material respect when so made, deemed made or furnished;

(f) any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary) shall (i) fail to pay any principal or interest, regardless of amount, due in respect of any Indebtedness (other than the Obligations) when and as the same shall become due and payable (after all applicable grace periods have expired); or (ii) fail to observe or perform any other term, covenant, condition or agreement contained in any agreement or instrument evidencing or governing any such Indebtedness if the effect of any failure referred to in this clause (ii) is to cause, or to permit the holder or holders of such Indebtedness or a trustee on its or their behalf (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) to cause, such Indebtedness to become due prior to its stated maturity; provided that, it shall not constitute an Event of Default pursuant to this paragraph (f) unless the aggregate amount of all such Indebtedness referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) exceeds $5.0 million at any one time;

(g) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary), or of a substantial part of the property or assets of any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary), under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law; (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary) or for a substantial part of the property or assets of any Company; or (iii) the winding-up or liquidation of any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary); and such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for 60 days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered;

(h) any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary) shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking relief under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law; (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any proceeding or the filing of any petition described in paragraph (g) above; (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary) or for a substantial part of the property or assets of any Company (other than any Immaterial Subsidiary); (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding; (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (vi) become unable, admit in writing its inability or fail generally to pay its debts as they become due; (vii) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing; or (viii) wind up or liquidate;

(i) one or more judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount in excess of $5.0 million shall be rendered against any Company or any combination thereof and the same shall remain undischarged for a period of 30 consecutive days during which execution shall not be effectively stayed, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to levy upon assets or properties of any Company to enforce any such judgment;

(j) an ERISA Event occurs, an event of noncompliance with respect to any Foreign Plan occurs or, if the present value of the accrued benefit liabilities (whether or not vested) under any Foreign Plan that is funded, determined as of the end of the most recently ended fiscal year of the respective Loan Party on the basis of actuarial assumptions proper under applicable foreign law, exceeds the current value of the assets of such Foreign Plan by more than $1.0 million, that in the opinion of the Required Lenders, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, noncompliance and underfunding, could reasonably be expected to result in liability to any Company or its ERISA Affiliates in an aggregate amount exceeding $1.0 million;

(k) any security interest and Lien purported to be created by any Security Document shall cease to be in full force and effect, or shall cease to give the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the Liens, rights, powers and privileges purported to be created and granted under such Security Documents (including a perfected first priority security interest in and Lien on all of the Collateral thereunder (except as otherwise expressly provided in such Security Documents)) in favor of the Collateral Agent, or shall be asserted by Holdings, Borrower or any other Loan Party not to be a valid, perfected, first priority (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or such Security Document) security interest in or Lien on the Collateral covered thereby;

(l) the Guarantees or any Security Document shall cease to be in full force and effect, except to the extent expressly permitted to be released hereunder in accordance with Section 7.09;

(m) any Loan Document or any material provisions thereof shall at any time and for any reason be declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be null and void, or a proceeding shall be commenced by any Loan Party or any other person, or by any Governmental Authority, seeking to establish the invalidity or unenforceability thereof (exclusive of questions of interpretation of any provision thereof), or any Loan Party shall repudiate or deny that it has any liability or obligation for the payment of principal or interest or other obligations purported to be created under any Loan Document;

(n) there shall have occurred a Change in Control; or

(o) the Merger shall not have occurred on the Closing Date in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement;

then, and in every such event (other than an event described in paragraph (g) or (h) above), and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such event, the Administrative Agent may, and at the request of the Required Lenders shall, by notice to Borrower, take either or both of the following actions, at the same or different times: (i) terminate forthwith the Commitments; (ii) declare the Loans then outstanding to be forthwith due and payable in whole or in part, whereupon the principal of the Loans so declared to be due and payable, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of Borrower accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall become forthwith due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by Borrower and the Guarantors, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding; and (iii) direct Borrower to pay (and Borrower hereby agrees upon receipt of such notice, or upon the occurrence of any event specified in paragraph (g) or (h) above to pay) to the Administrative Agent such additional amounts of cash, to be invested in Cash Equivalents and held as security for Borrower's reimbursement Obligations in respect of Letters of Credit then outstanding, equal to the LC Exposure at such time. In any event described in paragraph (g) or (h) above, the Commitments shall automatically terminate and the principal of the Loans then outstanding, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of Borrower accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall automatically become due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by Borrower and the Guarantors, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding.

ARTICLE IX

COLLATERAL ACCOUNT; APPLICATION OF COLLATERAL PROCEEDS

SECTION 9.01. COLLATERAL ACCOUNT.

(a) The Collateral Agent is hereby authorized to establish and maintain at its office at 677 Washington Boulevard, Stamford, Connecticut 06901, in the name of the Collateral Agent and pursuant to a Control Agreement, a restricted deposit account designated "Collateral Account." Each Loan Party shall deposit into the Collateral Account from time to time (i) the cash proceeds of any of the Collateral (including pursuant to any disposition thereof) to the extent contemplated herein or in any other Loan Document, (ii) the cash proceeds of any Casualty Event with respect to Collateral to the extent contemplated herein or in any other Loan Document, and (iii) any cash such Loan Party is required to pledge as additional collateral security hereunder pursuant to the Loan Documents.

(b) The balance from time to time in the Collateral Account shall constitute part of the Collateral and shall not constitute payment of the Obligations until applied as hereinafter provided. So long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or will result therefrom, the Collateral Agent shall, within two Business Days of receiving a request of the applicable Loan Party for release of cash proceeds constituting (i) Net Cash Proceeds from the Collateral Account, remit such cash proceeds on deposit in the Collateral Account to or upon the order of such Loan Party, so long as such Loan Party has satisfied the conditions relating thereto set forth in Section 9.02; (ii) Net Cash Proceeds from any sale or other disposition of Collateral from the Collateral Account, remit such cash proceeds on deposit in the Collateral Account, so long as such Loan Party has satisfied the conditions relating thereto set forth in Section 9.02; and (iii) with respect to the LC Sub-Account at such time as all Letters of Credit shall have been terminated and all of the liabilities in respect of the Letters of Credit have been indefeasibly paid in full. At any time following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent may (and, if instructed by the Required Lenders as specified herein, shall) in its (or their) discretion apply or cause to be applied (subject to collection) the balance from time to time outstanding to the credit of the Collateral Account to the payment of the Obligations in the manner specified in Section 9.03, subject, however, in the case of amounts deposited in the LC Sub-Account, to the provisions of Sections 2.17(j) and 9.03. The Loan Parties shall have no right to withdraw, transfer or otherwise receive any funds deposited in the Collateral Account except to the extent specifically provided herein.

(c) Amounts on deposit in the Collateral Account shall be invested from time to time in Cash Equivalents as the applicable Loan Party (or, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent) shall determine, which Cash Equivalents shall be held in the name and be under the control of the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent); provided that, at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Collateral Agent may (and, if instructed by the Required Lenders as specified herein, shall) in its (or their) discretion at any time and from time to time elect to liquidate any such Cash Equivalents and to apply or cause to be applied the proceeds thereof to the payment of the Obligations in the manner specified in Section 9.03.

(d) Amounts deposited into the Collateral Account as cover for liabilities in respect of Letters of Credit under any provision of this Agreement requiring such cover shall be held by the Administrative Agent in a separate sub-account designated as the "LC Sub-Account" (the "LC SUB-ACCOUNT").

SECTION 9.02. PROCEEDS OF CASUALTY EVENTS AND COLLATERAL DISPOSITIONS.

(a) So long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, in the event there shall be any Net Cash Proceeds in respect of any Casualty Event or from any Asset Sale of Collateral, the applicable Loan Party shall have the right, at such Loan Party's option, to apply such Net Cash Proceeds in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

(b) In the event any Net Cash Proceeds are required to be deposited in the Collateral Account in accordance with Section 2.10, the Collateral Agent shall not release any part of such Net Cash Proceeds until the applicable Loan Party has furnished to the Collateral Agent (i) an Officers' Certificate setting forth: (A) a brief description of the reason for the release, (B) the dollar amount of the expenditures to be made, or costs incurred by such Loan Party in connection with such release and (C) each request for payment shall be made on at least ten day's prior notice to the Collateral Agent and such request shall state that the properties acquired in connection with such release have a fair market value at least equal to the amount of such Net Cash Proceeds requested to be released from the Collateral Account; and (ii) all security agreements and Mortgages and other items required by the provisions of Sections 5.11 and 5.12 to, among other things, subject such reinvestment properties or assets to the Lien of the Security Documents in favor of the Collateral Agent, for its benefit and for the benefit of the other Secured Parties.

SECTION 9.03. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS. The proceeds received by the Collateral Agent in respect of any sale of, collection from or other realization upon all or any part of the Collateral pursuant to the exercise by the Collateral Agent of its remedies shall be applied, together with any other sums then held by the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement, promptly by the Collateral Agent as follows:

(a) First, to the payment of all reasonable costs and expenses, fees, commissions and taxes of such sale, collection or other realization, including compensation to the Collateral Agent and its agents and counsel, and all expenses, liabilities and advances made or incurred by the Collateral Agent in connection therewith, together with interest on each such amount at the highest rate then in effect under this Agreement from and after the date such amount is due, owing or unpaid until paid in full;

(b) Second, to the payment of all other reasonable costs and expenses of such sale, collection or other realization, including compensation to the other Secured Parties and their agents and counsel and all costs, liabilities and advances made or incurred by the other Secured Parties in connection therewith, together with interest on each such amount at the highest rate then in effect under this Agreement from and after the date such amount is due, owing or unpaid until paid in full;

(c) Third, without duplication of amounts applied pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) above, to the indefeasible payment in full in cash, pro rata, of (i) interest, principal and other amounts constituting Obligations (other than the Obligations arising under the Interest Rate Protection Agreements), in each case equally and ratably in accordance with the respective amounts thereof then due and owing and (ii) the Obligations arising under the Interest Rate Protection Agreements in accordance with the terms of the Interest Rate Protection Agreements; and

(d) Fourth, the balance, if any, to the person lawfully entitled thereto (including the applicable Loan Party or its successors or assigns).

In the event that any such proceeds are insufficient to pay in full the items described in clauses (a) through (c) of this Section 9.03, the Loan Parties shall remain liable for any deficiency.

ARTICLE X

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND THE COLLATERAL AGENT

Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Bank hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent (it being understood that reference in this Article X to the Administrative Agent shall be deemed to include the Collateral Agent) as its agent and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms of the Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

The bank serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent, and such bank and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to and generally engage in any kind of business with Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not the Administrative Agent hereunder.

The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) the Administrative Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing; (b) the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated by the Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 11.02); and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the bank serving as Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 11.02) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to the Administrative Agent by Borrower or a Lender, and the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document; (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered thereunder or in connection therewith; (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document; (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document; or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or sent by the proper person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to be made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

The Administrative Agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers through their respective Affiliates. The exculpatory provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Affiliates of each Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent may resign as administrative agent hereunder at any time upon at least 30-days' prior notice to the Lenders, the Issuing Bank and Borrower. Upon any such resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, in consultation with Borrower, to appoint a successor from among the Lenders. If no successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders or shall have accepted appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Administrative Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders and the Issuing Bank, appoint a successor Administrative Agent, which successor shall be a commercial banking institution organized under the laws of the United States (or any state thereof) or a United States branch or agency of a commercial banking institution, and having combined capital and surplus of at least $250.0 million; provided, however, that if such retiring Administrative Agent is unable to find a commercial banking institution which is willing to accept such appointment and which meets the qualifications set forth above, the retiring Administrative Agent's resignation shall nevertheless thereupon become effective, and the Lenders shall assume and perform all of the duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder until such time, if any, as the Required Lenders appoint a successor as provided above. Upon the acceptance by a successor of its appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. The fees payable by Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between Borrower and such successor. After the Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article X and Section 11.03 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Affiliates in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while it was acting as Administrative Agent.

Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

The Lenders identified in this Agreement, the Syndication Agent and the Documentation Agent shall not have any right, power, obligation, liability, responsibility or duty under this Agreement other than those applicable to all Lenders. Without limiting the foregoing, neither the Syndication Agent nor the Documentation Agent shall have or be deemed to have a fiduciary relationship with any Lender. Each Lender hereby makes the same acknowledgments with respect to the Syndication Agent and the Documentation Agent as it makes with respect to the Administrative Agent or any other Lender in this Article X. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto acknowledge that the Documentation Agent and Syndication Agent hold such titles in name only, and that such titles confer no additional rights or obligations relative to those conferred on any Lender hereunder.

SECTION 11.02.WAIVERS; AMENDMENT.

(a) No failure or delay by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by Section 11.02(b), and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the making of a Loan or issuance of a Letter of Credit shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default, regardless of whether the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Lender or the Issuing Bank may have had notice or knowledge of such Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except, in the case of this Agreement, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by Borrower and the Required Lenders or, in the case of any other Loan Document, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Administrative Agent and the Loan Party or Loan Parties that are parties thereto, in each case with the written consent of the Required Lenders; provided that, no such agreement shall (i) increase the Commitment of any Lender without the written consent of such Lender; (ii) reduce the principal amount of any Loan or LC Disbursement or reduce the rate of interest thereon, or reduce any Fees payable hereunder, without the written consent of each Lender affected thereby (except in connection with any waiver of the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates); (iii) postpone the maturity of any Loan, or any scheduled date of payment of or installment otherwise due on the principal amount of any Term Loan under Section 2.09, or the required date of reimbursement of any LC Disbursement, or any date for the payment of any interest or fees payable hereunder, or reduce the amount of, waive or excuse any such payment, or postpone the scheduled date of expiration of any Commitment or postpone the scheduled date of expiration of any Letter of Credit beyond the Revolving Maturity Date, without the written consent of each Lender affected thereby; (iv) change Section 2.14(b) or (c) in a manner that would alter the pro rata sharing of payments or set-offs required thereby without the written consent of each Lender; (v) change the percentage set forth in the definition of “Required Lenders” or any other provision of any Loan Document (including this Section 11.02(b)) specifying the number or percentage of Lenders (or Lenders of any Class) required to waive, amend or modify any rights thereunder or make any determination or grant any consent thereunder without the written consent of each Lender (or each Lender of such Class, as the case may be); (vi) except as otherwise expressly permitted under this Agreement, (A) release Holdings, Parent or any of the LuxCos from its Guarantee or limit its liability in respect of such Guarantee or (B) release all or substantially all of the Subsidiary Guarantors from their Guarantees, or limit the liability of all or substantially all of the Subsidiary Guarantors in respect of their Guarantees, in each case without the written consent of each Lender; (vii) release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens of the Security Documents or alter the relative priorities of the Obligations entitled to the Liens of the Security Documents (except in connection with securing additional Obligations equally and ratably with the other Obligations), in each case without the written consent of each Lender; or (viii) change any provisions of any Loan Document in a manner that by its terms adversely affects the rights in respect of payments due to Lenders holding Loans of any Class differently than those holding Loans of any other Class without the written consent of Lenders holding a majority in interest of the outstanding Loans and unused Commitments of each affected Class; provided further that, (1) no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, or the Issuing Bank without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be; and (2) any waiver, amendment or modification of this Agreement that by its terms affects the rights or duties under this Agreement of the Revolving Lenders (but not the Term Lenders) or the Term Lenders (but not the Revolving Lenders) may be effected by an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by Borrower and the requisite percentage in interest of the affected Class of Lenders that would be required to consent thereto under this Section 11.02(b) if such Class of Lenders were the only Class of Lenders hereunder at the time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any provision of this Agreement may be amended by an agreement in writing entered into by Borrower, the Required Lenders and the Administrative Agent (and, if its rights or obligations are affected thereby, the Issuing Bank) if (x) by the terms of such agreement the Commitment of each Lender not consenting to the amendment provided for therein shall terminate upon the effectiveness of such amendment and (y) at the time such amendment becomes effective, each Lender not consenting thereto receives payment in full of the principal of and interest accrued on each Loan made by it and all other amounts owing to it or accrued for its account under this Agreement.

(c) If, in connection with any proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination of any of the provisions of this Agreement as contemplated by Section 11.02(b), the consent of the Required Lenders is obtained but the consent of one or more of such other Lenders whose consent is required is not obtained, then Borrower shall have the right to replace one or more of such non-consenting Lender or Lenders (so long as all non-consenting Lenders are so replaced) with one or more persons pursuant to Section 2.16 so long as at the time of such replacement each such new Lender consents to the proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination; provided, however, that Borrower shall not have the right to replace a Lender solely as a result of the exercise of such Lender’s rights (and the withholding of any required consent by such Lender) pursuant to Section 11.02(b).

SECTION 11.03.EXPENSES; INDEMNITY.

(a) Borrower agrees to pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses of counsel, expenses incurred in connection with due diligence and travel, courier, reproduction, printing and delivery expenses) incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Arranger and the Issuing Bank in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein and the preparation, execution and delivery, administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with any amendments, modifications, enforcement costs or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof (whether or not the transactions hereby or thereby contemplated shall be consummated), or incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Arranger or any Lender in connection with the enforcement or protection of its rights in connection with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents or in connection with the Loans made or Letters of Credit issued hereunder, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, special counsel for the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent (and one local counsel in each foreign jurisdiction where the Administrative Agent deems such local counsel advisable and any additional counsel to the Lenders required in the event of a conflict of interest), and, in connection with any such enforcement or protection, the fees, charges and disbursements of any consultants and advisors in connection with any out-of-court workout or in any bankruptcy case.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise limited in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law as described in Annex IV attached hereto, the Loan Parties agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify the Agents, the Arranger, each Lender, and the Issuing Bank, each Affiliate of any of the foregoing persons, and each of their respective directors, officers, trustees, employees and agents (each such person being called an "INDEMNITEE") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel fees, charges and disbursements, incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) any actual or proposed use of the proceeds of the Loans or issuances of Letters of Credit; (ii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto; or (iii) any actual or alleged presence or Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials, on, under or from any property owned, leased or operated by any Company, or any Environmental Claim related in any way to any Company; provided that, such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

(c) The provisions of this Section 11.03 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Loans, the expiration of the Commitments, the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Agents, the Arranger, the Issuing Bank or any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 11.03 shall be payable on written demand therefor accompanied by reasonable documentation with respect to any reimbursement, indemnification or other amount requested.

(d) To the extent that the Loan Parties fail to pay any amount required to be paid by it to the Agents, the Arranger or the Issuing Bank under Section 11.03(a) or (b), each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Agents, the Arranger or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, such Lender's pro rata share (determined as of the time that the applicable unreimbursed expense or indemnity payment is sought) of such unpaid amount; provided that, the unreimbursed expense or indemnified loss, claim, damage, liability or related expense, as the case may be, was incurred by or asserted against any of the Agents, the Arranger or the Issuing Bank in its capacity as such. For purposes hereof, a Lender's "pro rata share" shall be determined based upon its share of the sum of the total Revolving Exposure, outstanding Term Loans and unused Commitments at the time.

SECTION 11.04.SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the Issuing Bank that issues any Letter of Credit), except that no Loan Party may assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by any Loan Party without such consent shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the Issuing Bank that issues any Letter of Credit) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Affiliates of each of the Agents, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Any Lender may assign to one or more assignees (other than Holdings or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries) all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans at the time owing to it); provided that, (i) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or a Lender Affiliate, each of Borrower and the Administrative Agent (and, in the case of an assignment of all or a portion of a Revolving Commitment or any Lender's obligations in respect of its LC Exposure, the Issuing Bank) must give their prior written consent to such assignment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); (ii) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or a Lender Affiliate, any assignment made in connection with the primary syndication of the Commitment and Loans by the Arranger or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment or Loans, the amount of the Commitment or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall be in a principal amount that is an integral multiple of $500,000 and not less than $1.0 million, unless each of Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consent; (iii) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, except that this clause (iii) shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of one Class of Commitments or Loans; (iv) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance, together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500; and (v) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire; provided further that, any consent of Borrower otherwise required under this Section 11.04(b) shall not be required if a Default or an Event of Default under Article VIII has occurred and is continuing. Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to Section 11.04(d), from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement (provided that, any liability of Borrower to such assignee under Section 2.12, 2.13 or 2.15 shall be limited to the amount, if any, that would have been payable thereunder by Borrower in the absence of such assignment), and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.12, 2.13, 2.15 and 11.03). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 11.04(b) shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 11.04(e).

(c) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as an agent of Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices in Stamford, Connecticut a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount of the Loans and LC Disbursements owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "REGISTER"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive and Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders may treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by Borrower, the Issuing Bank and any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(d) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 11.04(b) and any written consent to such assignment required by Section 11.04(b), the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this Section 11.04(d).

(e) Any Lender may, without the consent of Borrower, the Administrative Agent or the Issuing Bank, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (a "PARTICIPANT") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that, (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (iii) Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce the Loan Documents and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of the Loan Documents; provided that, such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in the first proviso to Section 11.02(b) that affects such Participant. Subject to Section 11.04(f), Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.12, 2.13 and 2.15 to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 11.04(b). To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 11.08 as though it were a Lender; provided that, such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.14(c) as though it were a Lender.

(f) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.12, 2.13 or 2.15 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the prior written consent of Borrower. A Participant that would be a Foreign Lender if it were a Lender shall not be entitled to the benefits of Section 2.15 unless Borrower is notified of the participation sold to such Participant and such Participant agrees, for the benefit of Borrower, to comply with Section 2.15(e) as though it were a Lender.

(g) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, and the other provisions of this Section 11.04 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that, no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

SECTION 11.05. SURVIVAL OF AGREEMENT. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans and issuance of any Letters of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by any such other party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that the Agents, the Issuing Bank or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement is outstanding and unpaid or any Letter of Credit is outstanding and so long as the Commitments have not expired or terminated. The provisions of Sections 2.12, 2.14, 2.15 and 11.03 and Article X shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of the Loans, the expiration or termination of the Letters of Credit and the Commitments or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

SECTION 11.06. COUNTERPARTS; INTEGRATION; EFFECTIVENESS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Agreement, the other Loan Documents, the Engagement Letter, the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter constitute the entire contract among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof that, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by telecopy shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 11.07. SEVERABILITY. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 11.08. RIGHT OF SET-OFF. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender and each of its Affiliates are hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final (other than deposits in trust accounts)) at any time held and other obligations at any time owing by such Lender or Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of any Loan Party against any of and all the obligations of any Loan Party now or hereafter existing under this Agreement held by such Lender, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement and although such obligations may be unmatured. The rights of each Lender under this Section 11.08 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of set-off) that such Lender may have.

SECTION 11.09.GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.

(b) Each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State of New York sitting in New York County and of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any Loan Document, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall affect any right that the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any Loan Party or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(c) Each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any court referred to in Section 11.09(b). Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(d) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 11.01. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 11.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 11.10.

SECTION 11.11. HEADINGS. Article and section headings and the table of contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 11.12. CONFIDENTIALITY. Each of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), except that Information may be disclosed (a) to its and its Lender Affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors (it being understood that the persons to whom such disclosure is made will be informed of the confidential nature of such Information and instructed to keep such Information confidential pursuant to the terms hereof); (b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority; (c) to the extent required by applicable laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process; (d) to any other party to this Agreement; (e) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the enforcement of rights hereunder or thereunder; (f) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section 11.12, to (i) any assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or (ii) any actual or prospective counterparty (or its advisors) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to Borrower and its obligations; (g) with the consent of Borrower; or (h) to the extent such Information (i) is publicly available at the time of disclosure or becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 11.12, or (ii) becomes available to the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender on a nonconfidential basis from a source other than Borrower or any Subsidiary. For the purposes of this Section 11.12, "INFORMATION" shall mean all information received from Borrower or any Subsidiary on a confidential basis relating to Borrower or any Subsidiary or its business, other than any such information that is available to the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure by Borrower or any Subsidiary. Any person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section 11.12 shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such person would accord to its own confidential information.

SECTION 11.13. INTEREST RATE LIMITATION. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan, together with all fees, charges and other amounts that are treated as interest on such Loan under applicable law (collectively the "CHARGES"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "MAXIMUM RATE") that may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender holding such Loan in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan hereunder, together with all Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section 11.13 shall be cumulated and the interest and Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

SECTION 11.14. OBLIGATIONS CONDITIONAL ON MAKING OF INITIAL LOANS. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Borrower has no obligation or liability arising under this Agreement until the date on which the initial Loans are made under this Agreement.

If any securities now or hereafter acquired by any Pledgor constituting Investment Property are uncertificated and are issued to such Pledgor or its nominee directly by the issuer thereof, such Pledgor shall immediately notify Collateral Agent thereof and such Pledgor shall either (A) pursuant to a Control Agreement cause the issuer to agree to comply with instructions from Collateral Agent as to such securities, without further consent of any Pledgor, such nominee or any other person, or (B) arrange for Collateral Agent to become the registered owner of the securities. If any securities constituting Investment Property, whether certificated or uncertificated, or other Investment Property now or hereafter acquired by any Pledgor is held by such Pledgor or its nominee through a Securities Intermediary or Commodity Intermediary, such Pledgor shall promptly notify Collateral Agent thereof and, either (A) pursuant to a Control Agreement cause such Securities Intermediary or Commodity Intermediary, as the case may be, to agree to comply with Entitlement Orders or other instructions from Collateral Agent to such Securities Intermediary as to such securities or other Investment Property, or to apply any value distributed on account of any Commodity Contract as directed by Collateral Agent to such Commodity Intermediary, as the case may be, in each case without further consent of any Pledgor, such nominee or any other person, or (B) in the case of Financial Assets constituting Investment Property or other Investment Property held through a Securities Intermediary, arrange for Collateral Agent to become the Entitlement Holder with respect to such Investment Property, with the Pledgor being permitted, so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, to exercise rights to withdraw or otherwise deal with such Investment Property pursuant to an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to Collateral Agent. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any Financial Assets credited to a Securities Account for which Collateral Agent is the Securities Intermediary. Each Pledgor represents and warrants to Collateral Agent that, as of the date hereof, such Pledgor maintains no Securities Accounts or Commodity Accounts with any Securities Intermediary or Commodity Intermediary other than (i) as set forth in Section II.E of the Perfection Certificate or (ii) those for which the applicable Pledgor has provided notice thereof to Collateral Agent pursuant to the preceding sentence. Subject to the provisions of this Section 3.04(e)(i), each such Securities Account or Commodities Account is subject to a Control Agreement that is in full force and effect.

(ii) As between Collateral Agent and the Pledgors, the Pledgors shall bear the investment risk with respect to the Investment Property, and the risk of loss of, damage to, or the destruction of the Investment Property, whether in the possession of, or maintained as a Security Entitlement by, or subject to the control of, Collateral Agent, a Securities Intermediary, Commodities Intermediary, the Pledgor or any other person; provided that, nothing contained in this Section 3.04(e)(ii) shall release or relieve any Securities Intermediary or Commodities Intermediary of its duties and obligations to the Pledgors or any other person under any Control Agreement or under applicable law. Each Pledgor shall promptly pay all Charges and fees of whatever kind or nature with respect to the Investment Property pledged by it or this Agreement. In the event any Pledgor shall fail to make such payment contemplated in the immediately preceding sentence, Collateral Agent may do so for the account of such Pledgor and the Pledgors shall promptly reimburse and indemnify Collateral Agent from all costs and expenses incurred by Collateral Agent under this Section 3.04(e)(ii) in accordance with Section 7.03.

(f) ELECTRONIC CHATTEL PAPER AND TRANSFERABLE RECORDS. If any amount payable under or in connection with any of the Security Agreement Collateral shall be evidenced by any Electronic Chattel Paper or any "transferable record," as that term is defined in Section 201 of the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, or in Section 16 of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act as in effect in any relevant jurisdiction, the Pledgor acquiring such Electronic Chattel Paper or transferable record shall promptly notify Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of Collateral Agent, shall take such action as Collateral Agent may request to vest in Collateral Agent control under UCC Section 9-105 of such Electronic Chattel Paper or control under Section 201 of the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act or, as the case may be, Section 16 of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, as so in effect in such jurisdiction, of such transferable record. Collateral Agent agrees with such Pledgor that Collateral Agent will arrange, pursuant to procedures satisfactory to Collateral Agent and so long as such procedures will not result in Collateral Agent's loss of control, for the Pledgor to make alterations to the Electronic Chattel Paper or transferable record permitted under UCC Section 9-105 or, as the case may be, Section 201 of the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act of Section 16 of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act for a party in control to allow without loss of control, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or would occur after taking into account any action by such Pledgor with respect to such Electronic Chattel Paper or transferable record.

(g) LETTER-OF-CREDIT RIGHTS. If any Pledgor is at any time a beneficiary under a Letter of Credit in excess of $1.0 million now or hereafter issued in favor of such Pledgor, such Pledgor shall promptly notify Collateral Agent thereof and, at the request of Collateral Agent, such Pledgor shall, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to Collateral Agent, either (i) arrange for the issuer and any confirmer of such Letter of Credit to consent to an assignment to Collateral Agent of the proceeds of any drawing under the Letter of Credit or (ii) arrange for Collateral Agent to become the transferee beneficiary of the Letter of Credit.

(h) COMMERCIAL TORT CLAIMS. If any Pledgor shall at any time hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim relating to any of the Security Agreement Collateral, such Pledgor shall promptly notify Collateral Agent in writing signed by such Pledgor of the brief details thereof and grant to Collateral Agent in such writing a security interest therein and in the Proceeds thereof, all in accordance with this Agreement, with such writing to be in form and substance satisfactory to Collateral Agent.

(i) MOTOR VEHICLES. Upon the request of Collateral Agent, each Pledgor shall deliver to Collateral Agent originals of the Certificates of Title or certificates of ownership for the motor vehicles (and any other Equipment covered by Certificates of Title or ownership owned by it) with Collateral Agent listed as lienholder therein.

SECTION 3.05. SUPPLEMENTS; FURTHER ASSURANCES.

(a) The Pledgors shall cause each person that, from time to time after the date hereof, shall be required to pledge any assets to Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties pursuant to the provisions of the Credit Agreement, to execute and deliver to Collateral Agent a Joinder Agreement and, upon such execution and delivery, such person shall constitute a "Guarantor" and a "Pledgor" for all purposes hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Guarantor and Pledgor herein. The execution and delivery of such Joinder Agreement shall not require the consent of any Pledgor hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Pledgor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Guarantor and Pledgor as a party to this Agreement.

(b) Upon obtaining any Pledged Equity Interests or Pledged Intercompany Debt of any person, each Pledgor shall accept the same in trust for the benefit of Collateral Agent and forthwith deliver to Collateral Agent a Perfection Certificate Supplement, and the certificates and other documents required under this Article III in respect of the additional Pledged Equity Interests, Pledged Intercompany Debt or other possessory Security Agreement

Collateral that is to be pledged pursuant to this Agreement, and confirming the attachment of the Lien hereby created on and in respect of such additional Pledged Equity Interests or Pledged Intercompany Debt.

(c) Each Pledgor agrees to take such further actions, and to execute and deliver to Collateral Agent such additional assignments, agreements, supplements, powers and instruments, as Collateral Agent may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or appropriate, to perfect, preserve and protect the security interest in the Security Agreement Collateral as provided herein and the rights and interests granted to Collateral Agent hereunder, to carry into effect the purposes hereof or to better assure and confirm unto Collateral Agent or permit Collateral Agent to exercise and enforce its rights, powers and remedies hereunder with respect to any Security Agreement Collateral. By way of example, such actions may include appearing in and defending any action or proceeding, at Collateral Agent's request, that may affect such Pledgor's title to or Collateral Agent's security interest in all or any part of the Security Agreement Collateral. Upon the reasonable request of Collateral Agent, each Pledgor shall further make, execute, endorse, acknowledge, file or refile or deliver to Collateral Agent from time to time such lists, descriptions and designations of the Security Agreement Collateral, copies of warehouse receipts, receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, bills of lading, documents of title, vouchers, invoices, schedules, confirmatory assignments, supplements, additional security agreements, conveyances, financing statements, transfer endorsements, powers of attorney, certificates, reports and other assurances or instruments. If a Default has occurred and is continuing, Collateral Agent may institute and maintain, in its own name or in the name of any Pledgor, such suits and proceedings as Collateral Agent deems necessary or expedient to prevent any impairment of the security interest in or the perfection thereof in the Security Agreement Collateral. All of the foregoing shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Pledgors.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Pledgors and Collateral Agent acknowledge that this Agreement is intended to grant to Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest in and continuing Lien on the Security Agreement Collateral, and does not constitute a present assignment of ownership rights, a transfer of ownership or title to any Security Agreement Collateral, except as otherwise provided herein following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default. Unless an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Collateral Agent agrees from time to time to deliver, upon written request of any Pledgor and at such Pledgor's sole cost and expense (including reasonable expenses of counsel to, among other things, review the effect thereof on Collateral Agent's security interest granted hereunder), any and all instruments, certificates or other documents, in a form reasonably requested by such Pledgor, necessary or appropriate in the reasonable judgment of such Pledgor to enable such Pledgor to continue to exploit, license, use and protect the Security Agreement Collateral in accordance with the terms hereof and of the Credit Agreement.

(f) All Distributions that are received by such Pledgor contrary to the provisions of Section 4.08(d)(ii) shall be received in trust for the benefit of Collateral Agent, shall be segregated from other funds of such Pledgor and shall promptly be paid over to Collateral Agent as Security Agreement Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement).

SECTION 4.09. CERTAIN PROVISIONS CONCERNING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY.

(a) Such Pledgor agrees that it will not, nor will it knowingly permit or authorize any of its licensees to, do any act, or omit to do any act, whereby any issued Patent may become invalidated, dedicated to the public, or unenforceable, and agrees that it shall continue to mark any products covered by a Patent with the relevant patent number as necessary and sufficient to establish and preserve its maximum rights under applicable patent laws, except where the failure to so mark would not be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Such Pledgor (either itself or through its licensees or its sublicensees) will, for each material Trademark, (i) maintain such Trademark in full force free from any claim of abandonment or invalidity for nonuse, (ii) materially not diminish the value of such Trademark or the goodwill associated therewith, (iii) display such Trademark with notice of federal or foreign registration to the extent necessary and sufficient to establish and preserve its maximum rights under applicable law, except where the failure to display with notice would not be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (iv) not knowingly use or knowingly permit the use of such Trademark in violation of any third party rights.

(f) In the event that such Pledgor knows that any Security Agreement Collateral consisting of Intellectual Property material to the conduct of such Pledgor’s business has been or is about to be infringed, misappropriated or diluted by a third party, such Pledgor promptly shall notify Collateral Agent and shall promptly sue for infringement, misappropriation or dilution and to recover any and all damages for such infringement, misappropriation or dilution, or take such other actions as are appropriate under the circumstances to protect such Security Agreement Collateral, except where the failure to so notify or take such actions would not be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, such Pledgor shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all requisite consents or approvals by the licensor of each License to effect the assignment of all of such Pledgor’s right, title and interest thereunder to the Security Agreement Collateral Agent or its designee.

(h) Solely for the purpose of enabling Collateral Agent to exercise its rights and remedies upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, such Pledgor hereby grants to Collateral Agent, to the extent assignable, an irrevocable, nonexclusive license (exercisable without payment of royalty or other compensation to such Pledgor) to use, license or sublicense any of the Intellectual Property now owned or hereafter acquired by such Pledgor, wherever the same may be located, including in such license access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer programs used for the compilation or printout thereof.

(j) It shall, promptly upon the reasonable request of Collateral Agent, execute and deliver to Collateral Agent any document required to acknowledge, confirm, register, record, or perfect Collateral Agent’s security interest granted hereunder in any part of the Intellectual Property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired.

(k) Except with the prior consent of Collateral Agent or as permitted under the Credit Agreement, such Pledgor shall not execute any financing statement or other document or instrument, and there will not be on file in any public office any effective financing statement or other document or instruments, except financing statements or other documents or instruments filed or to be filed in favor of Collateral Agent, and such Pledgor shall not sell, assign, transfer, license, grant any option in, or create any Lien, claim, security interest or other encumbrance on or with respect to the Intellectual Property, or suffer to exist any effective Lien, claim, security interest or other encumbrance on or with respect to the Intellectual Property, except for the security interest created by and under this Security Agreement.

(l) It shall hereafter use commercially reasonable efforts so as not to permit the inclusion in any contract to which it hereafter becomes a party of any provision that would materially impair or prevent the creation of a security interest in, or the assignment of, such Pledgor's rights and interests in any property included within the definitions of any Intellectual Property acquired under such contracts.

SECTION 4.10. INSPECTION AND VERIFICATION. Collateral Agent or any representative designated by Collateral Agent shall have the same access and inspection rights as granted to the Administrative Agent by the Companies pursuant to Section 5.07 of the Credit Agreement; provided that, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Collateral Agent and its representatives shall at all times have the right to enter any premises of such Pledgor and inspect any property of such Pledgor where any of the Security Agreement Collateral of such Pledgor is located for the purpose of inspecting the same, observing its use, protecting its interests therein, or otherwise exercising the remedies provided under Article V. For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of Accounts or Security Agreement Collateral in the possession of any third person, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Collateral Agent or any designated representative shall have the right to contact such account debtors or third persons in possession of such Security Agreement Collateral for verification purposes. Collateral Agent shall have the absolute right to share any information it gains from such inspection or verification with any other Secured Party.

SECTION 4.11. PAYMENT OF TAXES; CONTESTING LIENS; CLAIMS. Such Pledgor represents and warrants that all Charges imposed on or assessed against the Security Agreement Collateral have been paid and discharged except to the extent such Charges constitute a Permitted Lien or a Lien not yet due and payable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such Pledgor may at its own expense contest the validity, amount or applicability of any Charges so long as the contest thereof shall satisfy the Contested Collateral Lien Conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 4.11, no contest of any such obligation may be pursued by such Pledgor if such contest would expose Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to any possible criminal liability.

SECTION 4.12. TRANSFERS AND OTHER LIENS. Such Pledgor shall not sell, convey, assign or otherwise dispose of, or grant any option with respect to, any of the Security Agreement Collateral pledged by it hereunder except as permitted by the Credit Agreement. Such Pledgor shall not make or permit to be made an assignment for security, pledge or hypothecation of the Security Agreement Collateral or shall grant any other Lien in respect of the Security Agreement Collateral, except as permitted by Section 6.02 of the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 4.13. INSURANCE. Such Pledgor, at its own expense, shall maintain or cause to be maintained, insurance covering physical loss or damage to the Inventory and Equipment in accordance with Section 5.04 of the Credit Agreement. Such Pledgor irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints Collateral Agent (and all officers, employees or agents designated by Collateral Agent) as such Pledgor's true and lawful agent (and attorney-in fact) for the purposes, during the continuance of an Event of Default, of making, settling and adjusting claims in respect of Security Agreement Collateral under policies of insurance, endorsing the name of such Pledgor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance and for making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto. In the event that such Pledgor at any time or times fails to obtain or maintain any of the policies of insurance required hereby or to pay any premium in whole or in part relating thereto, Collateral Agent may, without waiving or releasing any obligation or liability of any Pledgor hereunder or any Event of Default, in its sole discretion, obtain and maintain such policies of insurance and pay such premium and take any other actions with respect thereto as Collateral Agent deems advisable. All sums disbursed by Collateral Agent in connection with this Section 4.13, including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, expenses and other charges relating thereto, shall be payable, upon demand, by the Pledgors to Collateral Agent and shall be additional Secured Obligations.

SECTION 4.14. LEGEND. Such Pledgor shall legend, in form and manner satisfactory to Collateral Agent, its Chattel Paper and its books, records, and documents evidencing or pertaining thereto with an appropriate reference to the fact that such Chattel Paper has been assigned to Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties and that Collateral Agent has a security interest therein.

(c) Sell, assign, grant a license to use or otherwise liquidate, or direct any Pledgor to sell, assign, grant a license to use or otherwise liquidate, any and all investments made in whole or in part with the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof, and take possession of the proceeds of any such sale, assignment, license or liquidation;

(d) Take possession of the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof by directing any Pledgor in writing to deliver the same to Collateral Agent at any place or places so designated by Collateral Agent, in which event such Pledgor shall at its own expense: (i) forthwith cause the same to be moved to the place or places designated by Collateral Agent and there delivered to Collateral Agent, (ii) store and keep any Security Agreement Collateral so delivered to Collateral

(g) Exercise any and all rights as beneficial and legal owner of the Security Agreement Collateral, including perfecting assignment of and exercising any and all voting, consensual and other rights and powers with respect to any Security Agreement Collateral; and

(h) All the rights and remedies of a secured party on default under the UCC, and Collateral Agent may also in its sole discretion, without notice except as specified in Section 5.02, sell, assign or grant a license to use the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale, at any exchange, broker's board or at any of Collateral Agent's offices or elsewhere, for cash, on credit or for future delivery, and at such price or prices and on such other terms as Collateral Agent deems commercially reasonable. Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party or any of their respective Affiliates may be the purchaser, licensee, assignee or recipient of any or all of the Security Agreement Collateral at any such sale and shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Security Agreement Collateral sold, assigned or licensed at such sale, to use and apply any of the Secured Obligations owed to such person as a credit on account of the purchase price of any Security Agreement Collateral payable by such person at such sale. Each purchaser, assignee, licensee or recipient at any such sale shall acquire the property sold, assigned or licensed absolutely free from any claim or right on the part of any Pledgor, and each Pledgor hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all rights of redemption, stay and appraisal that it now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted. Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Security Agreement Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. Collateral Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. Each Pledgor hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims against Collateral Agent arising by reason of the fact that the price at which any Security Agreement Collateral may have been sold, assigned or licensed at such a private sale was less than the price that might have been obtained at a public sale, even if Collateral Agent accepts the first offer received and does not offer such Security Agreement Collateral to more than one offeree.

(i) Upon the written demand of Collateral Agent, each Pledgor shall execute and deliver to Collateral Agent an assignment or assignments of the registered Intellectual Property and such other documents as are necessary or appropriate to carry out the intent and purposes hereof.

SECTION 5.02. NOTICE OF SALE. Each Pledgor acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, ten days' notice to such Pledgor of the time and place of any public sale or of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to take place shall be commercially reasonable notification of such matters. No notification need be given to any Pledgor if it has signed, during the occurrence of an Event of Default, a statement renouncing or modifying any right to notification of sale or other intended disposition.

SECTION 5.03. WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CLAIMS. Each Pledgor hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, notice or judicial hearing in connection with Collateral Agent's taking possession or Collateral Agent's disposition of any of the Security Agreement Collateral, including any and all prior notice and hearing for any prejudgment remedy or remedies and any such right that such Pledgor would otherwise have under law, and each Pledgor hereby further waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law: (a) all damages occasioned by such taking of possession, (b) all other requirements as to the time, place and terms of sale or other requirements with respect to the enforcement of Collateral Agent's rights hereunder and (c) all rights of redemption, appraisal, valuation, stay, extension and moratorium now or hereafter in force under any applicable law. Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any incorrect or improper payment made pursuant to this Article V in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct. Any sale of, or the grant of options to purchase, or any other realization on, any Security Agreement Collateral shall operate to divest all right, title, interest, claim and demand, either at law or in equity, of the applicable Pledgor therein and thereto, and shall be a perpetual bar both at law and in equity against such Pledgor and against any and all persons claiming or attempting to claim the Security Agreement Collateral so sold, optioned or realized on, or any part thereof, from, through or under such Pledgor.

SECTION 5.04. CERTAIN SALES OF SECURITY AGREEMENT COLLATERAL. Each Pledgor recognizes that, by reason of certain prohibitions contained in the Securities Act, and applicable state securities laws, Collateral Agent may be compelled, with respect to any sale of all or any part of the Securities Collateral, to limit purchasers to persons who will agree, among other things, to acquire such Securities Collateral for their own account, for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale thereof. Each Pledgor acknowledges that any such private sales may be at prices and on terms less favorable to Collateral Agent than those obtainable through a public sale without such restrictions (including a public offering made pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act), and, notwithstanding such circumstances, agrees that any such private sale shall be deemed to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner and that Collateral Agent shall have no obligation to engage in public sales and no obligation to delay the sale of any Securities Collateral for the period of time necessary to permit the issuer thereof to register it for a form of public sale requiring registration under the Securities Act or under applicable state securities laws, even if such issuer would agree to do so.

SECTION 5.05. NO WAIVER; CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.

(a) No failure on the part of Collateral Agent to exercise, no course of dealing with respect to, and no delay on the part of Collateral Agent in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy; nor shall Collateral Agent be required to look first to, enforce or exhaust any other security, collateral or guarantees. The remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any remedies provided by law.

(b) In the event that Collateral Agent shall have instituted any proceeding to enforce any right, power or remedy under this Agreement by foreclosure, sale, entry or otherwise, and such proceeding shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason or shall have been determined adversely to Collateral Agent, then and in every such case, the Pledgors, Collateral Agent and each other Secured Party shall be restored to their respective former positions and rights hereunder with respect to the Security Agreement Collateral, and all rights, remedies and powers of Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties shall continue as if no such proceeding had been instituted.

OBLIGATIONS ABSOLUTE; WAIVERS

SECTION 6.01. LIABILITY OF THE PLEDGORS ABSOLUTE. Each Pledgor agrees that its obligations hereunder are irrevocable, absolute, independent, unconditional, and shall not be affected by any circumstance that constitutes a legal or equitable discharge of a pledgor or surety, except for payment in full of the Secured Obligations. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, each Pledgor agrees as follows:

(a) the obligations of each Pledgor hereunder are independent of the obligations of each other Pledgor and each guarantor of the obligations of the Loan Parties, and separate actions may be brought and prosecuted against such Pledgor whether or not any action is brought against any other Pledgor or guarantor, and whether or not such other Pledgor or guarantor is joined in any such actions;

(b) payment by any Loan Party of a portion of the Secured Obligations shall in no way limit, affect, modify or abridge such Pledgor's grant hereunder securing any portion of the Secured Obligations that has not been paid. By way of example and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if Collateral Agent is awarded a judgment in any suit brought to enforce any Loan Party's covenant to pay a portion of the Secured Obligations, such judgment shall not be deemed to release such Pledgor from its grant hereunder securing the portion of the Secured Obligations that is not the subject of such suit, and such judgment shall not, except to the extent satisfied by such Pledgor, limit, affect, modify or abridge any other Pledgor's grant hereunder securing the Secured Obligations;

(c) upon such terms as Collateral Agent deems appropriate, without obligation to give notice or demand, without affecting the validity or enforceability hereof, and without giving rise to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination of the security interests granted hereunder or such Pledgor's liability hereunder, Collateral Agent may, from time to time, (i) renew, extend, accelerate, increase the rate of interest on, or otherwise change the time, place and manner or terms of payment of any of the Secured Obligations in accordance with the terms of the other Loan Documents; (ii) settle, compromise, release or discharge, or accept or refuse any offer of performance with respect to, or substitutions for, any of the Secured Obligations or any agreement relating thereto, or subordinate the payment of the same to the payment of any other obligations; (iii) request and accept other pledges as security for any of the Secured Obligations, and take and hold security for the payment hereof or any of the Secured Obligations; (iv) release, surrender, exchange, substitute, compromise, settle, rescind, waive, alter, subordinate or modify, with or without consideration, any security for payment of any of the Secured Obligations, any guarantees of any of the Secured Obligations, or any other obligation of any person (including any other Pledgor) with respect to any of the Secured Obligations; (v) enforce and apply any security now or hereafter held by it in respect hereof or any of the Secured Obligations, and direct the order or manner of sale thereof, or exercise any other right or remedy that it may have against any such security, including foreclosure on any such security in accordance with one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is economically reasonable, and even though such action operates to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Pledgor against any other Loan Party, or any security for any of the Secured Obligations; and (vi) exercise any other rights available to it under the Loan Documents; and

(d) this Agreement and such Pledgor's obligations hereunder shall be valid and enforceable, and shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment, discharge or termination for any reason (other than payment in full of all the Secured Obligations), including the occurrence of any of the following (whether or not such Pledgor shall have had notice or knowledge of any of them): (i) any failure or omission to assert or enforce, any agreement or election not to assert or enforce, or any stay or enjoining by order of any court, by operation of law or otherwise, of the exercise or enforcement of any claim or demand, or any right, power or remedy (whether arising under the Loan Documents, at law, in equity, or otherwise) with respect to the Secured Obligations or any agreement related thereto, or with respect to any other guarantee of or security for the payment of the Secured Obligations; (ii) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of, or any consent to departure from, any of the terms or provisions (including provisions relating to events of default) hereof, any of the other Loan Documents, any agreement or instrument executed pursuant thereto, or any guarantee or other security for the Secured Obligations or any agreement relating thereto at any time being found to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect; (iv) the application of payments received form any source (other than payments received pursuant to the other Loan Documents or from the proceeds of any security for the Secured Obligations, except to the extent such security also serves as collateral for Indebtedness other than the Secured Obligations); (v) consent of Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to the change, reorganization or termination of the corporate structure or existence of any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof, and to any corresponding restructuring of the Secured Obligations; (vi) any failure to perfect or continue perfection of a security interest in any collateral that secures any of the Secured Obligations; (vii) any defenses, set-offs or counterclaims that any Loan Party may allege or assert against Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in respect of the Secured Obligations, including failure of consideration, breach of warranty, payment, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, accord and satisfaction, and usury; and (viii) any other act, thing or omission, or delay to do any other act or thing, that in any manner and to any extent may vary such Pledgor's risk as a grantor of security securing the Secured Obligations.

SECTION 6.02. GENERAL WAIVERS. Each Pledgor hereby waives, for the benefit of Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties: (a) all rights to require Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party, as a condition to exercising Collateral Agent's rights hereunder against the Security Agreement Collateral, to (i) proceed against any other Loan Party, any other pledgor (including any other Pledgor) of security securing any of the Secured Obligations, or any other person, (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any other Loan Party, any such other pledgor or any other person, (iii) proceed against or have resort to any balance of any Deposit Account or credit on the books of Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in favor of any other Loan Party or any other person, or (iv) pursue any other remedy whatsoever in the capacity of secured party; (b) any defense arising by reason of incapacity, lack of authority, or any disability or other defenses of any other Loan Party, including any defense based on or arising from the lack of validity or enforceability of any of the Secured Obligations or any agreement or instrument relating thereto, or by reason of the cessation of the liability of any other Loan Party from any cause other than the payment in full of all the Secured Obligations; (c) any defense based on any statute or rule of law that provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal; (d) any defense based on errors or omissions by Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in the administration of any of the Secured Obligations, except behavior that amounts to bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct; (e) any principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, that are or may be in conflict with the terms hereof, and any legal or equitable discharge of such Pledgor's obligations hereunder; (f) the benefit of any statute of limitations affecting such Pledgor's counterclaims; (g) promptness, diligence and any requirement that Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party protect, secure, perfect or insure any security interest or Lien or any property subject thereto; (h) notices, demands, presentments, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of any action or inaction, including acceptance hereof, notices of default hereunder, notices of any renewal, extension or modification of any of the Secured Obligations or any agreement related thereto, notices of any extension of credit to any other Loan party and notices of any of the matters referred to in Section 6.01, and any right to consent to any thereof; and (i) any defenses or benefits that may be derived from or afforded by law that limit the liability of or exonerate pledgors or sureties, or that may conflict with the terms hereof.

SECTION 6.03. CALIFORNIA WAIVERS. For purposes of this Section 6.03 only, references to the "principal" include each Loan Party and references to the "creditor" include each Secured Party. In accordance with Section 2856 of the California Civil Code, each Pledgor waives all rights and defenses (i) available to such Pledgor by reason of Sections 2787 through 2855, 2899, and 3433 of the California Civil Code, including all rights or defenses such Pledgor may have by reason of protection afforded to the principal with respect to any of the Secured Obligations, or to any other person liable for any of the Secured Obligations, in either case in accordance with the antideficiency or other laws of the State of California limiting or discharging the principal's Indebtedness or such person's obligations, including Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure; and (ii) arising out of an election of remedies by the creditor, even though such election, such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for any Secured Obligation (or any obligation of any other person of any of the Secured Obligations), has destroyed such Pledgor's right of subrogation and reimbursement against the principal (or such other person), by operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise. No other provision of this Agreement shall be construed as limiting the generality of any of the covenants and waivers set forth in this Section 6.03. As provided below, this Agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. This Section 6.03 is included solely out of an abundance of caution, and shall not be construed to mean that any of the above-referenced provisions of California law are in any way applicable to this Agreement or to any of the Secured Obligations.

SECTION 7.01. CONCERNING COLLATERAL AGENT.

(a) Collateral Agent has been appointed as Collateral Agent pursuant to Article X of the Credit Agreement. The actions of Collateral Agent hereunder are subject to the provisions of the Credit Agreement. Collateral Agent shall have the right hereunder to make demands, to give notices, to exercise or refrain from exercising any rights, and to take or refrain from taking action (including the release or substitution of the Security Agreement Collateral), in accordance with this Agreement and the Credit Agreement. Collateral Agent may employ agents and attorneys-in-fact in connection herewith. Collateral Agent may resign and a successor Collateral Agent may be appointed in the manner provided in the Credit Agreement. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as Collateral Agent by a successor Collateral Agent, that successor Collateral Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Collateral Agent under this Agreement, and the retiring Collateral Agent shall thereupon be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Agreement. After any retiring Collateral Agent's resignation, the provisions hereof shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it under this Agreement while it was Collateral Agent.

(b) Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of the Security Agreement Collateral in its possession if such Security Agreement Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equivalent to that which Collateral Agent, in its individual capacity, accords its own property consisting of similar instruments or interests, it being understood that neither Collateral Agent nor any of the Secured Parties shall have responsibility for (i) ascertaining or taking action with respect to calls, conversions, exchanges, maturities, tenders or other matters relating to any Securities Collateral, whether or not Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party has or is deemed to have knowledge of such matters, or (ii) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against any person with respect to any Security Agreement Collateral.

(c) Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely on any written notice, statement, certificate, order or other document or any telephone message believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper person, and, with respect to all matters pertaining to this Agreement and its duties hereunder, on advice of counsel selected by it.

(d) With respect to any of its rights and obligations as a Lender, Collateral Agent shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers hereunder. The term "Lenders," "Lender" or any similar terms shall, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, include Collateral Agent in its individual capacity as a Lender. Collateral Agent may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of banking, trust or other business with such Pledgor or any Affiliate of such Pledgor to the same extent as if Collateral Agent were not acting as Collateral Agent.

(e) If any item of Security Agreement Collateral also constitutes collateral granted to Collateral Agent under any other deed of trust, mortgage, security agreement, pledge or instrument of any type, in the event of any conflict between the provisions hereof and the provisions of such other deed of trust, mortgage, security agreement, pledge or instrument of any type in respect of such collateral, Collateral Agent, in its sole discretion, shall select which provision or provisions shall control.

SECTION 7.02. COLLATERAL AGENT MAY PERFORM; COLLATERAL AGENT APPOINTED ATTORNEY-IN-FACT. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) remedy or cause to be remedied any such breach, and may expend funds for such purpose; provided that, Collateral Agent shall in no event be bound to inquire into the validity of any tax, lien, imposition or other obligation that such Pledgor fails to pay or perform as and when required hereby and that such Pledgor does not contest in accordance with the provision of Section 6.02 of the Credit Agreement. Any and all amounts so expended by Collateral Agent shall be paid by the Pledgors in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.03. Neither the provisions of this Section 7.02 nor any action taken by Collateral Agent pursuant to the provisions of this Section 7.02 shall prevent any such failure by any Pledgor to observe any covenant contained in this Agreement nor any breach of warranty from constituting an Event of Default. Each Pledgor hereby appoints Collateral Agent its attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of such Pledgor and in the name of such Pledgor, or otherwise, from time to time during the continuance of an Event of Default in Collateral Agent's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument consistent with the terms hereof and the other Loan Documents that Collateral Agent may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes hereof. The foregoing grant of authority is an irrevocable power of attorney coupled with an interest and such appointment shall be irrevocable for the term hereof. Each Pledgor hereby ratifies all that such attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof.

SECTION 7.03. EXPENSES. Each Pledgor will promptly pay to Collateral Agent the amount of any and all costs and expenses, including the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel and the fees and expenses of any experts and agents, that Collateral Agent may incur in connection with this Agreement, including all costs and expenses relating to (a) any and all filings and other actions taken to ensure the attachment, perfection and priority of, and the ability of Collateral Agent to enforce, Collateral Agent's security interest in the Security Agreement Collateral; (b) any action, suit or other proceeding affecting the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof commenced, in which action, suit or proceeding Collateral Agent is made a party or participates or in which the right to use the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof is threatened, or in which it becomes necessary in the judgment of Collateral Agent to defend or uphold the Lien hereof (including any action, suit or proceeding to establish or uphold the compliance of the Security Agreement Collateral with any requirements of any Governmental Authority or law); (c) the collection of the Secured Obligations; (d) the enforcement and administration hereof; (e) the custody or preservation of, or the sale of, collection from, or other realization on, any of the Security Agreement Collateral; (f) the exercise or enforcement of any of the rights of Collateral Agent or any Secured Party hereunder; or (g) the failure by any Pledgor to perform or observe any of the provisions hereof. All amounts expended by Collateral Agent and payable by any Pledgor under this Section 7.03 shall be due upon demand therefor (together with interest thereon accruing at the default rate during the period from and including the date on which such funds were so expended to the date of repayment) and shall be part of the Secured Obligations. Each Pledgor's obligations under this Section 7.03 shall survive the termination hereof and the discharge of such Pledgor's other obligations under this Agreement, the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 7.04. INDEMNITY.

(a) INDEMNITY. Each Pledgor agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Collateral Agent and each of the other Secured Parties, and the officers, directors, employees, agents and Affiliates of Collateral Agent and each of the other Secured Parties (collectively, the "INDEMNITEES") from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, claims, costs (including settlement costs), expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever (including the fees and disbursements of counsel for such Indemnitees in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceeding, commenced or threatened, whether or not such Indemnitee shall be designated a party thereto) that may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against that Indemnitee, in any manner relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including any misrepresentation by any Pledgor in this Agreement or any other Loan Document) (the “INDEMNIFIED LIABILITIES”); provided that, no Pledgor shall have any obligation to an Indemnitee hereunder with respect to Indemnified Liabilities if it has been determined by a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction that such Indemnified Liabilities arose from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of that Indemnitee. To the extent that the undertaking to indemnify, pay and hold harmless set forth in the preceding sentence may be unenforceable because it is violative of any law or public policy, each Pledgor shall contribute the maximum portion that it is permitted to pay and satisfy under applicable law to the payment and satisfaction of all Indemnified Liabilities incurred by the Indemnitees or any of them.

(b) SURVIVAL. The obligations of the Pledgors contained in this Section 7.04 shall survive the termination hereof and the discharge of the Pledgors’ other obligations under this Agreement, any Hedging Agreement and under the other Loan Documents.

(c) REIMBURSEMENT. Any amounts paid by any Indemnitee as to which such Indemnitee has the right to reimbursement shall constitute Secured Obligations secured by the Security Agreement Collateral.

SECTION 7.05. CONTINUING SECURITY INTEREST; ASSIGNMENT. This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Security Agreement Collateral and shall (a) remain in full force and effect until the payment in full of all Secured Obligations, (b) be binding on the Pledgors, their respective successors and assigns, and (b) inure, together with the rights and remedies of the Lender hereunder, to the benefit of Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and each of their respective permitted successors, transferees and assigns. No other persons (including any other creditor of any Pledgor) shall have any interest herein or any right or benefit with respect hereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing clause (b), any Secured Party may assign or otherwise transfer any Indebtedness held by it that is secured by this Agreement to any other person, and such other person shall thereupon become vested with all the benefits in respect thereof granted to such Secured Party, herein or otherwise, subject however, to the provisions of the other Loan Documents and any Hedging Agreement to which such Secured Party is a party.

SECTION 7.06. TERMINATION; RELEASE. Upon payment in full of all the Secured Obligations, or upon any partial release of Security Agreement Collateral in accordance with the other Loan Documents, the security interests granted hereby shall terminate hereunder and of record, and all rights to the Security Agreement Collateral shall revert to the Pledgors, it being understood that in the case any such partial release, the security interests granted hereby shall terminate hereunder and of record only with respect to such Security Agreement Collateral subject to such partial release. Upon any such termination, Collateral Agent shall, at the Pledgors’ expense, execute and deliver to the Pledgors such documents, and take such other actions, as the Pledgors reasonably request to evidence such termination.

SECTION 7.07. MODIFICATION IN WRITING. No amendment, modification, supplement, termination or waiver of or to any provision hereof, nor consent to any departure by any Pledgor therefrom, shall be effective unless the same shall be made in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement and unless in writing and signed by Collateral Agent. Any amendment, modification or supplement of or to any provision hereof, any waiver of any provision hereof and any consent to any departure by any Pledgor from the terms of any provision hereof shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which made or given. Except where notice is specifically required by this Agreement or any other document evidencing the Secured Obligations, no notice to or demand on any Pledgor in any case shall entitle any Pledgor to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

SECTION 7.08. NOTICES. Unless otherwise provided herein or in the Credit Agreement, any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be given in the manner and become effective as set forth in the Credit Agreement, if to any Pledgor, addressed to it at the address of Borrower set forth in the Credit Agreement, and if to Collateral Agent, addressed to it at the address set forth in the Credit Agreement, or in each case at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other party complying as to delivery with the terms of this Section 7.08.

SECTION 7.09. GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK), EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHOICE-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES, THAT THE PERFECTION OF THE SECURITY INTERESTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, OR REMEDIES HEREUNDER IN RESPECT OF ANY ITEM OR TYPE OF SECURITY AGREEMENT COLLATERAL ARE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF A JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) Each Pledgor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State of New York sitting in New York County and of the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any Loan Document, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall affect any right that Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any Pledgor or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(c) Each Pledgor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in any court referred to in Section 7.09(b). Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(d) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 7.08. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 7.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 7.10.

SECTION 7.11. SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS. Any provision hereof that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 7.12. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement and any amendments, waivers, consents or supplements hereto may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

SECTION 7.13. BUSINESS DAYS. In the event any time period or any date provided in this Agreement ends or falls on a day other than a Business Day, then such time period shall be deemed to end and such date shall be deemed to fall on the next succeeding Business Day, and performance herein may be made on such Business Day, with the same force and effect as if made on such other day.

SECTION 7.14. NO CREDIT FOR PAYMENT OF TAXES OR IMPOSITION. Each Pledgor shall not be entitled to any credit against the principal, premium (if any), or interest payable under the Credit Agreement, and such Pledgor shall not be entitled to any credit against any other sums that may become payable under the terms thereof or hereof, by reason of the payment of any Tax on the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof.

SECTION 7.15. NO CLAIMS AGAINST COLLATERAL AGENT. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute any consent or request by Collateral Agent, express or implied, for the performance of any labor or services or the furnishing of any materials or other property in respect of the Security Agreement Collateral or any part thereof, nor as giving any Pledgor any right, power or authority to contract for or permit the performance of any labor or services or the furnishing of any materials or other property in such fashion as would permit the making of any claim against Collateral Agent in respect thereof or any claim that any Lien based on the performance of such labor or services or the furnishing of any such materials or other property is prior to the Lien hereof.

SECTION 7.16. NO RELEASE UNDER AGREEMENTS; NO LIABILITY OF COLLATERAL AGENT OR SECURED PARTIES. Nothing set forth in this Agreement shall relieve the Pledgor from the performance of any term, covenant, condition or agreement on the Pledgor’s part to be performed or observed under or in respect of any of the Security Agreement Collateral, or from any liability to any person under or in respect of any of the Security Agreement Collateral, or shall impose any obligation on Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to perform or observe any such term, covenant, condition or agreement on the Pledgor’s part to be so performed or observed, or shall impose any liability on Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party for any act or omission on the part of the Pledgor relating thereto or for any breach of any Hedging Agreement, any representation or warranty on the part of the Pledgor contained in this Agreement, Credit Agreement or the other Security Documents, or under or in respect of the Security Agreement Collateral or made in connection herewith or therewith. The obligations of the Pledgor contained in this Section 7.16 shall survive the termination hereof and the discharge of the Pledgor’s other obligations under this Agreement, the Credit Agreement, any Hedging Agreement and the other Security Documents.

SECTION 7.17. OBLIGATIONS ABSOLUTE. Subject to Section 7.09 of the Credit Agreement, all obligations of each Pledgor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:

(a) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment, composition, liquidation or the like of any Pledgor or any other Loan Party;

(b) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Credit Agreement, any Hedging Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto;

(c) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Secured Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Credit Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Hedging Agreement or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto;

(d) any pledge, exchange, release or nonperfection of any other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent to any departure from any guarantee, for all or any of the Secured Obligations, except to the extent that any such amendment, waiver or consent expressly relieves such Pledgor of any obligations;

(e) any exercise, nonexercise or waiver of any right, remedy, power or privilege under or in respect hereof, the Credit Agreement, any Hedging Agreement or any other Loan Document except as specifically set forth in a waiver granted pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.03; or

(f) any other circumstances that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Pledgor.

SECTION 7.18. MARSHALING; PAYMENTS SET ASIDE. Collateral Agent shall not be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Pledgor or any other person or against or in payment of any or all of the Secured Obligations.

SECTION 7.19. RELEASE OF PLEDGORS. NOTICE TO DISTRIBUTORS

Dated As Of July 18, 2002

Regarding

Amendment To The Agreements Of Distributorship

Between

HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL, INC.

And

EACH HERBALIFE DISTRIBUTOR

AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENTS OF DISTRIBUTORSHIP

THIS AMENDMENT TO THE AGREEMENTS OF DISTRIBUTORSHIP ("Amendment") is made and entered into as of July 18, 2002 by HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL, INC., a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), for the benefit of all of the Company's existing and future independent distributors that meet (and continue to meet) the requirements to become (or remain) a distributor according to Company policy ("Distributors").

RECITALS

A. Whereas the Company distributes its products through individuals acting as independent distributors.

B. Whereas the Company acknowledges the importance of its Distributors to the ongoing success and growth of the Company.

C. Whereas the Company has operated for years based on paying its Distributors under the Company Sales and Marketing Plan and utilizing its Distributors as its exclusive means of distribution for the sale of Herbalife products.

D. Whereas the Distributors, to continue as Herbalife Distributors, desire assurances that no material changes adverse to the Distributors will be made to the existing Company Sales and Marketing Plan or the use of Distributors as the exclusive means of distribution of Herbalife products.

E. Whereas in consideration for the Company giving assurances that no material changes adverse to the Distributors will be made to the existing Company Marketing Plan or to its use of Distributors as the exclusive means of distribution of Herbalife products, the Distributors will continue to distribute Herbalife products following the consummation of the proposed merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Company, WH Acquisition Corp. and WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. dated as of April 10, 2002.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Company agrees as follows:

1. Distribution of Company Products by Independent Distributors. The Company agrees to continue to distribute its products exclusively through individuals acting as independent Distributors. Such Distributors will be encouraged both to sell products directly to customers and (subject to compliance with any applicable law) to develop their own networks of individuals acting as independent Distributors. Subject to compliance with any applicable law (United States federal, state or local, and the laws of any other governmental authority with jurisdiction over the Company), the Company also agrees not to materially change the existing requirements for becoming a Distributor, which will continue to be minimal and non-burdensome.

In connection with the distribution of the Company's products, the Company shall therefore not (i) adopt any strategy which would entail multiple distribution channels, (ii) enter into any exclusive sales agreement, or (iii) enter into any exclusive license agreement with respect to any geographic area or territory.

2. Establishment and Maintenance of Distributor Networks. The Company agrees to continue to permit the development of Distributor networks without any geographic or exclusive territory restrictions, subject to limitations on activities in countries which have not been cleared by the Company for product sales and subject to restrictions imposed on the development of such Distributor networks by any governmental authority, including but not limited to any applicable laws or regulations. The Company will continue to develop and maintain rules and regulations and other Company policies and procedures to assist the Distributors in establishing networks and maintain and protect the integrity of Distributor networks once established.

3. Marketing Plan. The Company may increase but not decrease the current discount percentages available to Distributors for the purchase of products from the Company and may increase but not decrease the applicable royalty override percentages (including roll-ups) and production and other bonus percentages available to Distributors at various qualification levels below the percentage levels currently provided for in the Company's Sales and Marketing Plan, including the Rules of Conduct & Distributor Policies (the "Rules of Conduct"), the Company's Career Book and other Company promotional material and literature regarding Distributors (collectively, "Company Distributor Material"), in effect as of the date hereof.

The Company further agrees not to modify the criteria for eligibility for such discounts and/or the qualification criteria for royalty overrides and production and other bonuses, unless it does so in a manner to make eligibility and/or qualification easier but not more difficult than under the applicable criteria currently provided for in Company Distributor Material in effect as of the date hereof.

The Company also agrees not to vary the criteria for qualification for each distributor tier (including, without limitation, the Chairman's Club, 50K President, 30K President, 20K President, President's Team, Millionaire Team, Global Expansion Team, World Team, Supervisor and Senior Consultant tiers) unless it does so in such a way so as to make qualification easier but not more difficult.

Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Company may decrease but may not increase the royalty override qualification thresholds of 1,000, 4,000, 10,000, 20,000, 30,000, and 50,000 royalty override points for 2%, 4%, 6% 6.5%, 6.75% and 7% production bonuses, respectively, paid to TAB Team Distributors and may increase but may not decrease such percentages, (ii) the Company may increase but not decrease the aggregate President's Council bonus below its current level of 1% of retail product sales and (iii) the Company may not, in countries where the Company is currently operating, materially change the relative relationship between the volume points, the adjusted retail price and/or the retail price of all products sold by the Company in the markets in which such products are being sold, unless such changes are made to convert adjusted retail prices up to a full retail price basis (i.e., one volume point per US $1.00 in the United States) or unless such changes are required by applicable law or are necessary in the Company's reasonable business judgment to account for specific local market conditions or local currency conditions to achieve a reasonable profit on operations in such respective market or markets.

4. Herbalife Products. The Company will continue to endeavor to provide Distributors with high quality products for distribution, and will use reasonable commercial efforts to meet the demand of Distributors for the Company's products.

5. Termination of Distributors. The Company maintains the right to terminate any Distributor of the Company who violates the Company Rules of Conduct and Distributor Policies or other rules and regulations of the Company as adopted or amended, consistent with Company policies and procedures as published in the Career Manual or other Company literature (the "Company Rules"). The Company however does not have the right to terminate a Distributor who does not violate the Company Rules.

A terminated Distributor must however be provided an opportunity to appeal such decision in accordance with the Rules of Conduct and Distributor policies and must be given an opportunity to present evidence relevant to the termination decision.

Upon receipt of the appeal and other evidence, the Company must review the terminated Distributor's file and prepare a summary of the evidence for and against such termination and submit such summary without identifying the complaining party or parties, the terminated Distributor or his or her upline or downline to a committee comprised of an appointed representative from each of the Sales Department, the Distributor Relations Department and the Legal Department (the "Review Committee"). If a majority of the Review Committee determines that the terminated Distributor should not have been terminated, the Distributor shall be reinstated, but the Review Committee shall recommend an alternative penalty, if any, for the alleged violations. In making a termination decision, however, the Review Committee must consider whether the alleged violation was material.

6. Death of A Distributor. Subject to applicable laws, a Distributorship may, upon the death of the Distributor, be transferred to a spouse or heir who is, or upon the transfer becomes, an active participant in the business, subject to the prior written approval of Herbalife, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and subject to reasonable terms and conditions of transfer (including, without limitation, demonstration to Herbalife's satisfaction that the proposed transferee has the ability to actively promote the business and provide services as a distributor).

In the event of such a transfer, the transferee shall succeed to the qualification level and earning status generated by the Distributorship without any reduction based solely as a result of the death of the decedent.

7. Privacy. The Company agrees that all Distributor records are confidential and will not disclose any such information except (i) in the ordinary course of business, (ii) as determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company to be necessary or appropriate so long as the recipient of any such information is bound by a confidentiality agreement and as may be required by law, legal process, regulation or other reasonable governmental or governmental agency request.

8. Term. The term of this Amendment shall commence from the Effective Date hereof as set forth in Section 11 of this Amendment and shall continue until terminated or amended by the approval of (a) not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the Distributors then at the level of Presidents Team earning at the production bonus level of 6% of the Company who respond to ballots sent to 100% of such Distributors, provided however that at least 50% of those Distributors entitled to vote return their ballots to the Company; and (b) a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company.

9. Future Distributors. The Company makes this Amendment for the benefit of all future Distributors and agrees to include this Amendment in the terms of the Agreement of Distributorship of each future Distributor.

10. Controlling Effect. In the event of any inconsistency between this Amendment, any Company Distributor Material and any other document, instrument or agreement to which the Company is now or hereafter becomes a party, the provisions of this Amendment, as amended (or terminated) in accordance with Section 8 of this Amendment, shall prevail and be given effect.

11. Effective Date. This Amendment is expressly conditioned upon and shall be effective only upon the date of consummation of the proposed merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Company, WH Acquisition Corp and WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. dated as of April 10, 2002.

12. Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflicts of law principles.

13. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and other agreements contained in this Amendment by or on behalf of any of the parties hereto bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors (including, without limitation, any successor in any merger, consolidation or other business combination in which the Company is not the surviving entity) and assigns whether so expressed or not. This Amendment may not be assigned by the Company; provided, however, that in the event substantially all of the assets or substantially all of the business of the Company or the Herbalife trade names or trademarks are to be disposed of by the Company in one or a series of transactions, the Company shall assign this Amendment to the Acquiror(s) of substantially all of the assets or substantially all of the business of the Company or the Herbalife trade names or trademarks in such transaction or transactions and such Acquiror(s) will agree to assume the Company's obligations hereunder. This Section 13 will apply to successive successors (including, without limitation, any successor in any merger, consolidation or other business combination in which the Company is not the surviving entity) of the parties hereto and successive assigns of this Amendment. In consideration of the provisions of this Section 13, each Distributor accepting the benefits of this amendment agrees not to employ or recruit any present, former or future employee or Distributor of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to serve in any type of management capacity, as an employee, consultant, advisor, distributor, member or otherwise, for any person or entity, other than the Company or any of its subsidiaries, that engages in the business of selling products through a multi-level or network marketing system or the sale of weight management products, nutritional supplements or personal care products anywhere in the United States or any other country in which the Company or one of its subsidiaries operates.

14. Severability of Provisions. The provisions of this Amendment are severable, and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or provisions of this Amendment or portions thereof shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision, or portion of this Amendment, which shall remain in full force and effect as if executed with the unenforceable or invalid provisions or portion thereof eliminated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Amendment as of the date first above written.

MONITORING FEE AGREEMENT

This Monitoring Fee Agreement (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of July 31, 2002, by and among Herbalife International, Inc., a Nevada corporation, on behalf of itself and each of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"), and Whitney & Co., LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Sponsor").

The Company, WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands ("Parent"), and Parent's subsidiary, WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation ("Merger Corp.") are parties to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 10, 2002 (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Merger Corp. will be merged with and into Herbalife International, Inc. This Agreement shall only become effective (the "Effective Date") upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Company desires to retain Sponsor with respect to the activities described herein, for which Sponsor shall be entitled to the fees set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Term. This Agreement shall be in effect for an initial term commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"), and shall be automatically extended thereafter on a year to year basis unless Parent or Sponsor provides written notice of its desire to terminate this Agreement to the other parties 90 days prior to the expiration of the Term or any extension thereof.

2. Activities. Sponsor shall perform or cause to be performed such activities related to the Company as determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion. Such activities may include, without limitation, the following:

(a) activities related to the general management of the Company and its subsidiaries;

(b) identification, support, negotiation and analysis of acquisitions and dispositions by the Company or its subsidiaries;

(c) support, negotiation and analysis of financing alternatives for the Company and its subsidiaries; and

(d) other activities determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion, including any activities determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion to be necessary or advisable with respect to the monitoring of the Company.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall require Sponsor to perform any minimum level of activities pursuant to this Agreement.

3. Monitoring Fee.

(a) During the Term of this Agreement, the Company will pay Sponsor or its designee for actual activities conducted by Sponsor and/or its affiliates (charged on an hourly basis for actual activities conducted) pursuant to this Agreement, it being agreed that subject to the terms and conditions of the following sentence, such fees will not be less than $1,625,000 (the "Minimum Amount") (regardless of the level of services performed) but will not exceed $3,250,000 on an annual basis, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of Sponsor and/or its affiliates in connection with the activities rendered by Sponsor and/or its affiliates pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to pay Sponsor the aforementioned fees (but will be obligated to pay Sponsor for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in any event) (a) if there is, or if such payment would result in, a default under the Senior Credit Agreement (as defined below), or if the Senior Credit Agreement otherwise prohibits such payment, which shall result in such fees accruing until such time as such default is cured or waived or (b) until such time as Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries achieve LTM Adjusted EBITDA (as defined below) equal to or greater than $125.8 million (it being agreed that the aforementioned LTM Adjusted EBITDA threshold need only be achieved once, and thereafter, shall not operate as a limitation on the Company's obligation to pay the fees specified herein). "LTM Adjusted EBITDA" means, for Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries (including, for avoidance of doubt, the pre-Effective Date LTM Adjusted EBITDA of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries), for any trailing twelve month period ending on any calendar quarter following the Effective Date, "Adjusted EBITDA" calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation thereof set forth under the caption "Summary unaudited pro forma and historical consolidated financial data" set forth in that certain Offering Memorandum dated June 21, 2002 pursuant to which WH Acquisition Corp. privately placed an aggregate of $165 million of its 11.75% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010. The Company shall pay the aforementioned fees and expenses to Sponsor or its designee on a quarterly (calendar year) basis, in arrears. "Senior Credit Agreement" means that certain Credit Agreement (as the same may be amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time) to be dated on or about July 31, 2002, among the Company, the subsidiaries of Parent listed therein as guarantors, the lenders listed therein, UBS Warburg LLC, as arranger, UBS AG,

Stamford Branch, as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the other parties listed therein as agents.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, so long as there are any unpaid Obligations (as such term is defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) pursuant to the Senior Credit Agreement (other than contingent indemnity obligations), the Company shall not pay any monitoring fees pursuant to Section 3(a) of this Agreement in excess of the Minimum Amount. Any monitoring fees due and payable pursuant to Section 3(a) of this Agreement in excess of the Minimum Amount shall be accrued as a general unsecured obligation of the Company, and shall accrue interest at a rate of 12% per annum, compounded quarterly, and shall be due and payable upon the first date on which (i) all Obligations (other than contingent indemnity obligations) pursuant to the Credit Agreement have been paid in full in cash or otherwise satisfied in full and (ii) following the satisfaction of the condition in the aforementioned clause (i) of this sentence, Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries achieve LTM Adjusted EBITDA equal to or greater than $100 million (it being agreed that the aforementioned LTM Adjusted EBITDA threshold need only be achieved once, and thereafter, shall not operate as a limitation on the Company's obligation to pay the fees specified in this Section 3(b)).

4. Transaction Fees.

(a) The Company shall pay Sponsor or its designee upon the Effective Date a fee in the amount of $10,500,000 for activities rendered in connection with the structuring of the Company's debt financing for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Such fee will be payable to Sponsor or its designee by wire transfer of immediately available funds. In addition, the Company shall pay Sponsor or its designee, by wire transfer or immediately available funds, the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Sponsor and/or its affiliates in connection with the foregoing.

(b) In addition, during the Term, the Company will pay Sponsor or its designee a transaction fee in connection with the consummation of each transaction resulting in a Change in Control (as defined below), acquisition, divestiture or financing (whether debt or equity financing) by or involving Parent or its subsidiaries in an amount equal to 1.5% of the aggregate value of each such transaction (in each case, whether such transaction is by way of merger, purchase or sale of stock, purchase or sale or other disposition of assets, recapitalization, reorganization, consolidation, tender offer, public or private offering or otherwise, and whether consummated directly by Parent or its subsidiaries or indirectly by their respective stockholders). "Change in Control" means (i) any sale or transfer by Parent or its subsidiaries of all or substantially all of their assets on a consolidated basis, (ii) any consolidation, merger or reorganization of Parent or any subsidiary with or into any other entity or entities as a result of which the holders of Parent's or such subsidiary's outstanding capital stock possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board or directors immediately prior to such consolidation, merger or reorganization cease to own the outstanding capital stock of the surviving corporation possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the surviving corporation's board of directors or (iii) issuance by Parent or any subsidiary or sale or transfer to any third party of shares of Parent's or such subsidiary's capital stock by the holders thereof as a result of which the holders of Parent's or such subsidiary's outstanding capital stock possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors immediately prior to such sale or transfer cease to own the outstanding capital stock of Parent or such subsidiary possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors.

5. Personnel. Sponsor will provide and devote to the performance of this Agreement such partners, employees and agents of Sponsor as Sponsor shall deem appropriate to the conduct of the activities contemplated hereunder.

6. Liability. Neither Sponsor nor any of its affiliates, nor any of their respective partners, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Sponsor Group") shall be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for any loss, liability, damage or expense (including attorney's fees and expenses) (collectively a "Loss") arising out of or in connection with the performance of activities contemplated by this Agreement. Sponsor makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, in respect of the activities provided by any member of the Sponsor Group. Except as Sponsor may otherwise agree in writing after the date hereof: (i) each member of the Sponsor Group shall have the right to, and shall have no duty (contractual or otherwise) not to, directly or indirectly: (A) engage in the same or similar business activities or lines of business as the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates and (B) do business with any client or customer of the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates; (ii) no member of the Sponsor Group shall be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for breach of any duty (contractual or otherwise) by reason of any such activities or of such person's participation therein; and (iii) in the event that any member of the Sponsor Group acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter that may be a corporate opportunity for both the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates on the one hand, and any member of the Sponsor Group, on the other hand, or any other person, no member of the Sponsor Group shall have any duty (contractual or otherwise) to communicate or present such corporate opportunity to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates and, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, shall not be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for breach of any duty (contractual or otherwise) by reason of the fact that any member of the Sponsor Group directly or indirectly pursues or acquires such opportunity for itself, directs such opportunity to another person, or does not present such opportunity to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates. In no event will any of the parties hereto be liable to any other party hereto for (i) any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, including lost profits or savings, whether or not such damages are foreseeable or (ii) in respect of any liabilities relating to any third party claims (whether based in contract, tort or otherwise), except as set forth in Section 7 below.

7. Indemnity. The Company, Parent and their subsidiaries shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Sponsor Group from and against any and all Losses arising from any claim by any person or entity with respect to, or in any way related to, this Agreement (collectively, "Claims") resulting from any act or omission of any member of the Sponsor Group. The Company, Parent and their subsidiaries shall defend at their own cost and expense any and all suits or actions (just or unjust) which may be brought against the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates, or any member of the Sponsor Group or in which any member of the Sponsor Group may be impleaded with others upon any Claims, or upon any matter, directly or indirectly related to or arising out of this Agreement or the performance hereof by any member of the Sponsor Group.

8. Notices. All notices hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or mailed, postage prepaid, addressed to the parties as follows:

The Company, WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands ("Parent"), and Parent's subsidiary, WH Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation ("Merger Corp.") are parties to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 10, 2002 (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Merger Corp. will be merged with and into Herbalife International, Inc. This Agreement shall only become effective (the "Effective Date") upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Company desires to retain Sponsor with respect to the activities described herein, for which Sponsor shall be entitled to the fees set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Term. This Agreement shall be in effect for an initial term commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"), and shall be automatically extended thereafter on a year to year basis unless Parent or Sponsor provides written notice of its desire to terminate this Agreement to the other parties 90 days prior to the expiration of the Term or any extension thereof.

2. Activities. Sponsor shall perform or cause to be performed such activities related to the Company as determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion. Such activities may include, without limitation, the following:

(a) activities related to the general management of the Company and its subsidiaries;

(b) identification, support, negotiation and analysis of acquisitions and dispositions by the Company or its subsidiaries;

(c) support, negotiation and analysis of financing alternatives for the Company and its subsidiaries; and

(d) other activities determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion, including any activities determined by Sponsor in its sole discretion to be necessary or advisable with respect to the monitoring of the Company.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall require Sponsor to perform any minimum level of activities pursuant to this Agreement.

3. Monitoring Fee.

(a) During the Term of this Agreement, the Company will pay Sponsor or its designee for actual activities conducted by Sponsor and/or its affiliates (charged on an hourly basis for actual activities conducted) pursuant to this Agreement, it being agreed that subject to the terms and conditions of the following sentence, such fees will not be less than $875,000 (the "Minimum Amount") (regardless of the level of services performed) but will not exceed $1,750,000 on an annual basis, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of Sponsor and/or its affiliates in connection with the activities rendered by Sponsor and/or its affiliates pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to pay Sponsor the aforementioned fees (but will be obligated to pay Sponsor for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in any event) (a) if there is, or if such payment would result in, a default under the Senior Credit Agreement (as defined below), or if the Senior Credit Agreement otherwise prohibits such payment, which shall result in such fees accruing until such time as such default is cured or waived or (b) until such time as Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries achieve LTM Adjusted EBITDA (as defined below) equal to or greater than $125.8 million (it being agreed that the aforementioned LTM Adjusted EBITDA threshold need only be achieved once, and thereafter, shall not operate as a limitation on the Company's obligation to pay the fees specified herein). "LTM Adjusted EBITDA" means, for Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries (including, for avoidance of doubt, the pre-Effective Date LTM Adjusted EBITDA of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries), for any trailing twelve month period ending on any calendar quarter following the Effective Date, "Adjusted EBITDA" calculated in a manner consistent with the calculation thereof set forth under the caption "Summary unaudited pro forma and historical consolidated financial data" set forth in that certain Offering Memorandum dated June 21, 2002 pursuant to which WH Acquisition Corp. privately placed an aggregate of $165 million of its 11.75% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2010. The Company shall pay the aforementioned fees and expenses to Sponsor or its designee on a quarterly (calendar year) basis, in arrears. "Senior Credit Agreement" means that certain Credit Agreement (as the same may be amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time) to be dated on or about July 31, 2002, among the Company, the subsidiaries of Parent listed therein as guarantors, the lenders listed therein, UBS Warburg LLC, as arranger, UBS AG, Stamford Branch, as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the other parties listed therein as agents.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, so long as there are any unpaid Obligations (as such term is defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) pursuant to the Senior Credit Agreement (other than contingent indemnity obligations), the Company shall not pay any monitoring fees pursuant to Section 3(a) of this Agreement in excess of the Minimum Amount. Any monitoring fees due and payable pursuant to Section 3(a) of this Agreement in excess of the Minimum Amount shall be accrued as a general unsecured obligation of the Company, and shall accrue interest at a rate of 12% per annum, compounded quarterly, and shall be due and payable upon the first date on which (i) all Obligations (other than contingent indemnity obligations) pursuant to the Credit Agreement have been paid in full in cash or otherwise satisfied in full and (ii) following the satisfaction of the condition in the aforementioned clause (i) of this sentence, Parent and its consolidated subsidiaries achieve LTM Adjusted EBITDA equal to or greater than $100 million (it being agreed that the aforementioned LTM Adjusted EBITDA threshold need only be achieved once, and thereafter, shall not operate as a limitation on the Company's obligation to pay the fees specified in this Section 3(b)).

4. Transaction Fees.

(a) The Company shall pay Sponsor or its designee upon the Effective Date a fee in the amount of $7,000,000 for activities rendered in connection with the structuring of the Company's debt financing for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Such fee will be payable to Sponsor or its designee by wire transfer of immediately available funds. In addition, the Company shall pay Sponsor or its designee, by wire transfer or immediately available funds, the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Sponsor and/or its affiliates in connection with the foregoing.

(b) In addition, during the Term, the Company will pay Sponsor or its designee a transaction fee in connection with the consummation of each transaction resulting in a Change in Control (as defined below), acquisition, divestiture or financing (whether debt or equity financing) by or involving Parent or its subsidiaries in an amount equal to 1.0% of the aggregate value of each such transaction (in each case, whether such transaction is by way of merger, purchase or sale of stock, purchase or sale or other disposition of assets, recapitalization, reorganization, consolidation, tender offer, public or private offering or otherwise, and whether consummated directly by Parent or its subsidiaries or indirectly by their respective stockholders). "Change in Control" means (i) any sale or transfer by Parent or its subsidiaries of all or substantially all of their assets on a consolidated basis, (ii) any consolidation, merger or reorganization of Parent or any subsidiary with or into any other entity or entities as a result of which the holders of Parent's or such subsidiary's outstanding capital stock possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board or directors immediately prior to such consolidation, merger or reorganization cease to own the outstanding capital stock of the surviving corporation possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the surviving corporation's board of directors or (iii) issuance by Parent or any subsidiary or sale or transfer to any third party of shares of Parent's or such subsidiary's capital stock by the holders thereof as a result of which the holders of Parent's or such subsidiary's outstanding capital stock possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors immediately prior to such sale or transfer cease to own the outstanding capital stock of Parent or such subsidiary possessing the voting power (under ordinary circumstances) to elect a majority of the board of directors.

5. Personnel. Sponsor will provide and devote to the performance of this Agreement such partners, employees and agents of Sponsor as Sponsor shall deem appropriate to the conduct of the activities contemplated hereunder.

6. Liability. Neither Sponsor nor any of its affiliates, nor any of their respective partners, members, employees or agents (collectively, the "Sponsor Group") shall be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for any loss, liability, damage or expense (including attorney's fees and expenses) (collectively a "Loss") arising out of or in connection with the performance of activities contemplated by this Agreement. Sponsor makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, in respect of the activities provided by any member of the Sponsor Group. Except as Sponsor may otherwise agree in writing after the date hereof: (i) each member of the Sponsor Group shall have the right to, and shall have no duty (contractual or otherwise) not to, directly or indirectly: (A) engage in the same or similar business activities or lines of business as the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates and (B) do business with any client or customer of the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates; (ii) no member of the Sponsor Group shall be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for breach of any duty (contractual or otherwise) by reason of any such activities or of such person's participation therein; and (iii) in the event that any member of the Sponsor Group acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter that may be a corporate opportunity for both the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates on the one hand, and any member of the Sponsor Group, on the other hand, or any other person, no member of the Sponsor Group shall have any duty (contractual or otherwise) to communicate or present such corporate opportunity to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates and, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, shall not be liable to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates for breach of any duty (contractual or otherwise) by reason of the fact that any member of the Sponsor Group directly or indirectly pursues or acquires such opportunity for itself, directs such opportunity to another person, or does not present such opportunity to the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates. In no event will any of the parties hereto be liable to any other party hereto for (i) any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, including lost profits or savings, whether or not such damages are foreseeable or (ii) in respect of any liabilities relating to any third party claims (whether based in contract, tort or otherwise), except as set forth in Section 7 below.

7. Indemnity. The Company, Parent and their subsidiaries shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Sponsor Group from and against any and all Losses arising from any claim by any person or entity with respect to, or in any way related to, this Agreement (collectively, "Claims") resulting from any act or omission of any member of the Sponsor Group. The Company, Parent and their subsidiaries shall defend at their own cost and expense any and all suits or actions (just or unjust) which may be brought against the Company, Parent, their subsidiaries or any of their affiliates, or any member of the Sponsor Group or in which any member of the Sponsor Group may be impleaded with others upon any Claims, or upon any matter, directly or indirectly related to or arising out of this Agreement or the performance hereof by any member of the Sponsor Group.

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

This INDEMNITY AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is effective as of July 31, 2002, and is by and among WH HOLDINGS (CAYMAN ISLANDS) LTD. (the "Company") and WH ACQUISITION CORP. ("WH Acquisition", and, together with the Company, the "Indemnifying Parties"), and WHITNEY & CO., LLC, WHITNEY V, L.P., WHITNEY STRATEGIC PARTNERS V, L.P., GGC ADMINISTRATION, L.L.C., GOLDEN GATE PRIVATE EQUITY, INC., CCG INVESTMENTS (BVI), L.P., CCG ASSOCIATES-AI, LLC, CCG INVESTMENT FUND-AI, LP, CCG AV, LLC-SERIES C, CCG AV, LLC-SERIES E, CCG ASSOCIATES-QP, LLC and WH INVESTMENTS LTD. (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties").

WHEREAS, certain of the Indemnified Parties have entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with the Company dated as of the date hereof (the "Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which such Indemnified Parties will purchase equity securities from the Company;

WHEREAS, the proceeds from the sale of such securities will be used by the Company in connection with the merger (the "Merger") of WH Acquisition with and into Herbalife International, Inc. ("Herbalife");

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the obligation of such Indemnified Parties to purchase such equity securities that the Company enter into this Agreement for the benefit of the Indemnified Parties;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the investment in the Company by the Indemnified Parties who are acquiring equity securities of the Company, and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

1. Indemnification. Each Indemnifying Parties agrees, jointly and severally, to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties and each of their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, subsidiaries, partners, members, and controlling persons to the fullest extent permitted by law from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel and costs of investigation incurred by an Indemnified Party in connection therewith) (collectively, "Liabilities") resulting from, arising out of, or in any way related to the Merger or any other transaction or proposed transaction involving the sale or other disposition or acquisition of Herbalife and/or the business and assets of Herbalife, regardless of when or where such action is brought (including, without limitation, the action pending in Superior Court of the State of California in the County of San Francisco brought by Rosemont Associates Inc. and Joseph P. Urso against Whitney & Co., LLC, and filed as Case No. CGC-02-409712). If and to the extent that the foregoing indemnification is unenforceable for any reason, Indemnifying Parties shall make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of such Liabilities that shall be permissible under applicable law. In connection with the obligation of Indemnifying Parties to indemnify for expenses as set forth above, each Indemnifying Parties further agrees, upon presentation of appropriate invoices containing reasonable detail, to reimburse, without duplication, each Indemnified Party for all such expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel and costs of investigation) incurred by such Indemnified Party as they are incurred by such Indemnified Party.

2. Procedure. Each Indemnified Party will, promptly after the receipt of notice of the commencement of any action, investigation, claim or other proceeding against such Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought from the Indemnifying Parties, notify the Indemnifying Parties in writing of the commencement thereof. The omission of any Indemnified Party so to notify the Indemnifying Parties of any such action shall not relieve the Indemnifying Parties from any liability which it may have to such Indemnified Party unless, and only to the extent that, such omission results in the Indemnifying Parties' forfeiture of substantive rights or defenses. In case any such action, claim or other proceeding shall be brought against any Indemnified Party and it shall notify the Indemnifying Parties of the commencement thereof, the Indemnifying Parties shall, without any reservations of rights, be entitled to assume the defense thereof at their own expense, with counsel satisfactory to such Indemnified Party in its reasonable judgment; provided, however, that any Indemnified Party may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any action, claim or proceeding in which the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and an Indemnified Party, on the other hand, is, or is reasonably likely to become, a party, such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at the Indemnifying Party's expense and to control its own defense of such action, claim or proceeding if, in the reasonable opinion of counsel to such Indemnified Party, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and such Indemnified Party, on the other hand, that would make such separate representation advisable. The Indemnifying Party agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any pending or threatened claim, action or proceeding relating to the matters contemplated hereby (if any Indemnified Party is a party thereto or has been actually threatened to be made a party thereto) unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all liability arising or that may arise out of such claim, action or proceeding. The Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim, action or proceeding effected by an Indemnified Party without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The rights accorded to Indemnified Parties hereunder shall be in addition to any rights that any Indemnified Party may have at common law, by separate agreement or otherwise.

3. Assignability. This Agreement may not be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto. This Agreement shall be enforceable by, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns, and no others.

4. Consent to Jurisdiction and Service. Each of the parties hereby absolutely and irrevocably consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the courts in the State of New York and the Federal court located in New York, New York in connection with any actions or proceedings brought against any of the parties (or each of them) arising out of or relating to this Agreement. In any such action or proceeding, the parties each hereby absolutely and irrevocably (i) waives any objection to jurisdiction or venue, (ii) waives personal service of any summons, complaint, declaration or other process, and (iii) agree that the service thereof may be made by certified or registered first-class mail directed to such party.

5. Modifications. This Agreement may not be altered or modified without the express written consent of the parties hereto. No course of conduct shall constitute a waiver of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, unless such waiver is specified in writing, and then only to the extent so specified. A waiver of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement on one occasion shall not constitute a waiver of the other terms of this Agreement, or of such terms and conditions on any other occasion.

6. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

7. Invalid Provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under present or future laws, such provision shall be fully severable. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement.

8. Effective Date. This Agreement shall be and become effective and binding pursuant to its terms after execution as of the date first above written. It is understood and agreed that said date shall be the effective date even though that date may be a date other or different than the actual date of execution.

9. New York Law to Govern. This Agreement shall be deemed and construction to be made under and shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. It is agreed that it is both the intent and the desire of the parties that wherever possible each provision of this Agreement shall be given a judicial construction and interpretation so as to be effective and valid under New York law, but if any provision of this Agreement shall be construed or prohibited by or determined invalid under the laws of the State of New York, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity only, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously or otherwise in one or more identical counterparts, each of which shall be deemed and construed as an original, and all of which shall be construed together to constitute one and the same document. Confidentiality. The existence, content and terms of this Agreement are and shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed by any party to any third party without the prior consent of the other parties, except to the extent required: (i) to enforce its terms in a court of law; or (ii) by subpoena from any third party, provided, however, that Indemnified Party shall be afforded notice of any such subpoena and an opportunity to quash it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Indemnity Agreement or caused the same to be executed by their duly authorized representatives, as of the date first hereinabove.

(k) “Incentive Stock Option” means an Option which satisfies all of the applicable requirements of Code Section 422.

(w) “Total Exercise Cost” means an amount equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of Shares being purchased pursuant to the Option.

3. Administration of Plan.

(a) The Plan will be administered by the Committee. The Committee may adopt its own rules of procedure. The Committee will have the power and authority to administer, construe and interpret the Plan, to make rules for carrying it out and to make changes to such rules.

(b) The Committee may employ attorneys, consultants, accountants, appraisers, brokers or other persons. The Committee, the Company, and the officers of the Company will be entitled to rely upon the advice, opinions or valuations of any such persons. All actions taken and all interpretations and determinations made by the Committee in good faith will be final and binding upon all Participants, the Company and all other interested persons. No member of the Committee will be personally liable for any action, determination or interpretation made in good faith with respect to the Plan or the Grants, and all members of the Committee will be fully protected by the Company with respect to any such action, determination or interpretation.

4. Eligibility.

Subject to Paragraph 5(a), the Committee may from time to time make Grants under the Plan to such Independent Directors of the Company or any of its Affiliates, and in such form and having such terms, conditions and limitations as the Committee may determine. Prior to participation in the Plan, the Committee may require any Participant to execute a Release and Waiver to Rights to payments and benefits under certain plans of Herbalife International, Inc. 5. Grants.

(a) The Plan provides for grants only to Independent Directors of Non-Statutory Stock Options.

(b) At the time of the Grant, the Committee will determine, and will include in the Option Agreement or other Plan rules, the Option exercise price and such other conditions and restrictions on the grant or exercise of the Option as the Committee deems appropriate.

(c) In addition to any other restrictions contained in the Plan, an Option granted under the Plan may not be exercised more than 10 years after the date it is granted.

(d) Payment of the Option price will be made in cash or, if subsequent to an Initial Public Offering, through the delivery of irrevocable instructions to a broker to deliver promptly to the Company an amount equal to the Option price, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Option Agreement and of any applicable guidelines of the Committee in effect at the time, and subject to increase for any applicable withholding requirements.

6. Limitations and Conditions.

(a) The number of Shares available for Grants under the Plan will be 1,000,000, subject to adjustment in accordance with Paragraphs 7 or 8 hereof If an Option expires, is canceled, forfeited or otherwise terminated without being exercised or settled, the Shares allocable to the unexercised portion of such Option shall remain available for grant under the Plan.

(b) No Grants will be made under the Plan more than 10 years after the date the Plan is adopted by the Board or is approved by the shareholders of the Company, whichever is earlier, but the terms of Grants made on or before the expiration of the Plan may extend beyond such expiration.

(c) Nothing contained herein will affect the right of the Company to terminate any Participant’s employment or services at any time or for any reason.

(d) Other than as specifically provided with regard to the death of a Participant or as hereinafter provided, no benefit under the Plan will be subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, or charge, and any attempt to do so will be void. No such benefit will, prior to receipt thereof by the Participant, be in any manner liable for or subject to the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, or torts of the Participant. At the time a Grant is made or amended or the terms or conditions of a Grant are changed, the Committee may provide for limitations or conditions on such Grant. Notwithstanding the preceding, the Participant may transfer all or part of the Option by gift to either to any member of the Participant’s Immediate Family, to a trust or partnership or limited liability company solely for the benefit of the Participant or such Participant’s Immediate Family Members, jointly to the Participant and one or more of the foregoing, or to any combination thereof, if applicable law permits and the Option Agreement so provides. “Immediate Family” means the Participant’s spouse, children and grandchildren.

(e) Participants will not be, and will not have any of the rights or privileges of, equityholders of the Company in respect of any Shares purchasable in connection with any Grant unless and until certificates representing any such Shares have been issued by the Company to such Participants. Prior to an Initial Public Offering, each Participant will be required to enter into the Shareholders' Agreement with the Company, or execute a joinder to the Shareholders' Agreement in a form provided by the Company, upon the exercise of any Option under the Plan.

(f) No election as to benefits or exercise of Options, or other rights may be made during a Participant's lifetime by anyone other than the Participant except by a legal representative appointed for or by the Participant, unless such all or a part of such Option has been transferred either to any member of the Participant's Immediate Family, to a trust or partnership or limited liability company solely for the benefit of the Participant or such Participant's Immediate Family members, jointly to the Participant and one or more of the foregoing, or to any combination thereof, in which case it shall only be exercisable by such transferee.

(g) Absent express provisions to the contrary, any Grant under the Plan will not be deemed compensation for purposes of computing benefits or contributions under any retirement plan of the Company or its Subsidiaries and will not affect any benefits under any other benefit plan of any kind now or subsequently in effect under which the availability or amount of benefits is related to level of compensation. The Plan is not an "employee benefit plan" under Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

(h) Unless the Committee determines otherwise, no benefit or promise under the Plan will be secured by any specific assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, nor will any assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries be designated as attributable or allocated to the satisfaction of the Company's obligations under the Plan.

7. Adjustments.

In the event of any change in the outstanding Shares by reason of an acquisition, spin-off or reclassification, recapitalization or merger, combination or exchange of Shares or other corporate exchange, Change of Control or similar event, or as required under any Option Agreement, the Committee may adjust appropriately the number or kind of Shares or securities subject to the Plan and available for or covered by Grants and Option prices related to outstanding Grants and make such other revisions to outstanding Grants as it deems are equitably required.

8. Merger, Consolidation, Exchange, Acquisition, Liquidation or Dissolution.

In its absolute discretion, and on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, coincident with or after the grant of any Option, the Committee may provide, with respect to the merger or consolidation of the Company into another corporation, the exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company for the securities of another corporation, a Change of Control or the recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution of the Company, either (a) that such Option cannot be exercised after such event, in which case the Committee may also provide (but will be under no obligation to provide), either by the terms of such Option or by a resolution adopted prior to the occurrence of such event, that for some period of time prior to such event, such Option will be exercisable as to all Shares subject thereto which are exercisable, or, by virtue of the event, become exercisable, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein (but subject to the provisions of Paragraph 6(b)) or that the Option will be repurchased by the Company at a specific price and that, upon the occurrence of such event, such Option will terminate and be of no further force or effect, or (b) that even if the Option will remain exercisable after such event, from and after such event, any such Option will be exercisable only for the kind and amount of securities and/or other property, or the cash equivalent thereof, receivable as a result of such event by the holder of a number of Shares for which such Option could have been exercised immediately prior to such event, or that the Option will be repurchased by the Company at a specific price.

In addition, in the event of a Change of Control, the Committee may, in its absolute discretion and on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, provide, either by the terms of such Option or by a resolution adopted prior to the occurrence of the Change of Control, that such Option will be exercisable as to all or any portion of the Shares subject thereto, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein (but subject to the provisions of Paragraph 6(b)).

9. Securities Law Requirements.

Shares shall not be issued under the Plan unless the issuance and delivery of the Shares comply with (or are exempt from) all applicable requirements of law, including (without limitation) the Securities Act, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, state securities laws and regulations and the regulations of any stock exchange or other securities markets on which the Company's securities may then be traded.

10. Amendment and Termination.

The Board will have the authority to make such amendments to any terms and conditions applicable to outstanding Grants as are consistent with the Plan provided that, except for adjustments under Paragraph 7 or 8, no such action will modify such Grant in a manner adverse to the Participant without the Participant's consent except as such modification is provided for or contemplated in the terms of the Grant.

The Board may amend, suspend or terminate the Plan except that no such action, other than an action under Paragraph 7 or 8, may be taken which would, without shareholder approval (but only if such approval is necessary for exemption under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act or to meet the applicable requirements of Code Section 422), increase the aggregate number of Shares available for Grants under the Plan, change the eligible class of individuals, decrease the price of outstanding Options, change the requirements relating to the Committee or extend the term of the Plan.

11. Withholding Taxes.

The Company will have the right to deduct from any cash payment made under the Plan any federal, state or local income or other taxes required by law to be withheld with respect to such payment. The Participant must pay to the Company such amount as may be requested by the Company for the purpose of satisfying any liability for such withholding taxes before the obligation of the Company to deliver certificates for the Shares upon the exercise of an Option arises. Any Option Agreement may provide that the Participant may elect, in accordance with any conditions set forth in such Option Agreement, to pay a portion or all of such withholding taxes in Shares.

12. Governing Law.

The Plan will be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the state of New York, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

13. Effective Date and Termination Date.

The Plan will be effective on July 31, 2002 and will terminate on July 31, 2012, subject to earlier termination pursuant to Paragraph 10.

At the request of Borrower, the undersigned Lenders, constituting Requisite Lenders under the Credit Agreement, hereby agree to the limited waivers and consents specified in clauses (i) through (v) above, and hereby authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into such documentation reasonably acceptable to it in order to effectuate the foregoing. --- Lender's Revolving Commitment and the principal amount of its outstanding Term Loans, pro forma after giving effect to the prepayments in Section 3 hereof.

(b) The representations and warranties contained herein and in the Credit Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date hereof as if made on the date hereof (except for those which by their terms specifically refer to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date).

(c) All corporate proceedings taken in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Amendment and all other agreements, documents and instruments executed and/or delivered pursuant hereto, and all legal matters incident thereto, shall be satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall have received such documentation and confirming legal opinions as it shall have requested confirming the first priority security interests of the Lenders in connection with the internal corporate reorganization outlined in Section 6 above.

(e) No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, after giving effect to this Amendment.

Section 8. Representations and Warranties. The Borrower hereby represents and warrants to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders that, as of the date hereof and after giving effect to this Amendment, (a) all representations and warranties set forth in the Credit Agreement and in any other Loan Document are true and correct in all material respects as if made again on and as of such date (except those, if any, which by their terms specifically relate only to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties are true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date), (b) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and (c) the Credit Agreement (as amended by this Amendment), and all other Loan Documents are and remain legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations in accordance with the terms thereof.

Section 9. Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made in this Amendment or any other Loan Document shall survive the execution and delivery of this Amendment and the other Loan Documents, and no investigation by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders, or any closing, shall affect the representations and warranties or the right of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders to rely upon them. If any representation or warranty made in this Amendment is false in any material respect, then such shall constitute an Event of Default under the Credit Agreement.

Section 10. Reference to Agreement. Each of the Loan Documents, including the Credit Agreement, and any and all other agreements, documents or instruments now or hereafter executed and/or delivered pursuant to the terms hereof or pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement as amended hereby, are hereby amended so that any reference in such Loan Documents to the Credit Agreement, whether direct or indirect, shall mean a reference to the Credit Agreement as amended hereby. This Amendment shall constitute a Loan Document under the Credit Agreement.

Section 11. Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay on demand all reasonable costs and expenses of the Administrative Agent (including the reasonable fees, costs and expenses of counsel to the Administrative Agent) incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and delivery of this Amendment.

Section 12. Governing Law. THIS AMENDMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Section 13. Execution. This Amendment may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Amendment by telecopier shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Amendment.

Section 14. Limited Effect. This Amendment relates only to the specific matters expressly covered herein, shall not be considered to be a waiver of any rights or remedies any Lender may have under the Credit Agreement or under any other Loan Document, and shall not be considered to create a course of dealing or to otherwise obligate in any respect any Lender to execute similar or other amendments or grant any waivers under the same or similar or other circumstances in the future.

Section 15. Ratification By Guarantors. Each of the Guarantors hereby agrees to this Amendment and acknowledges that such Guarantor's Guaranty shall remain in full force and effect without modification thereto.

NON-STATUTORY STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") entered into as of the 10th day of March, 2003, by and between WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands company (the "Company"), and the undersigned employee (the "Employee") of the Company or its Subsidiaries.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"), the Committee designated under the Plan desires to grant to the Employee an option to acquire Common Shares, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Employee desires to accept such option subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, the Company and the Employee, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Option. On the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, the Company hereby grants to the Employee an option to purchase all (or any part) of (i) 1,207,583 Shares at an exercise price of $0.44 per share and (ii) 603,792 Shares at an exercise price of $1.76 per share (the aforementioned clauses (i) and (ii) collectively, the "Option"). This Option is granted as of the date hereof (the "Grant Date"). The Option is a Non-Statutory Stock Option. This Option is granted pursuant to the Plan, and is governed by the terms and conditions of the Plan. All defined terms used herein, unless specifically defined in this Agreement, have the meanings assigned to them in the Plan. Employee has previously been provided with a copy of that certain Private Placement Memorandum dated July 15, 2002 regarding the offering of the Company's 12% Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, as supplemented by Supplements Nos. 1, 2 and 3 thereto (collectively, the "PPM"). To the Company's knowledge, the disclosure of the Company's share ownership set forth in the PPM beneath the caption "Share Ownership" therein accurately sets forth, in all material respects, the share ownership of the Company as of the dates indicated therein.

2. Time of Exercise of Option.

(a) The Option will become vested and exercisable (pro rata according to the number of Shares exercisable at the relevant exercise prices specified above) fifteen percent (15%) as of the date hereof, and thereafter, in quarterly 5% increments (pro rata according to the number of Shares exercisable at the relevant exercise prices specified above) commencing on June 30, 2003 and on each subsequent last day of each following calendar quarter until the Option becomes fully vested and exercisable as of June 30, 2007.

(b) Notwithstanding the preceding or any other provision in this Agreement or the Plan to the contrary, in the event that the Sponsors sell, for cash, 100% of their investments in the debt and equity securities of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries (whether by sale to an independent third party (i.e., excluding either Sponsor, the Company or any of their respective affiliates) or in connection with a liquidating distribution in connection with a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company) in connection with either: (i) a Change in Control or (ii) an Initial Public Offering, the previously unexercisable portion of the Option will immediately become 100% vested and exercisable immediately prior to the closing of any such transaction. In such event, Employee shall have the right, by giving notice five days before such closing, to exercise the Option, in whole or in part, effective as of and conditioned upon such closing. For purposes of the Plan and this Agreement, "Sponsors" means Whitney & Co., LLC, Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc. and the respective investment funds managed by each of them.

3. Term of Options and Repurchase Rights.

(a) The Option will expire 10 years from the date hereof, but will be subject to earlier termination as provided below.

(b) Upon Employee's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for whatever reason:

(i) the unexercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will terminate on the date of such termination.

(ii) the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be treated as follows:

(A) Subject to the repurchase rights described in (c) below and the Shareholders' Agreement, if the Employee is terminated for any reason except for Cause, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be exercisable for 30 days following the termination, unless the Employee terminates employment on account of a "disability" as defined in Code Section 22(e) or if the Employee dies, in which case, such Employee or such Employee's personal representative, respectively, may exercise the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted for 90 days following the termination of employment on account of such disability or the Employee's death.

(B) If the Employee is terminated for Cause, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will terminate on the date of such termination.

(c) The Company has the right to repurchase the Shares acquired upon the exercise of Options for a period of 90 days after the Employee terminates employment or 90 days after the Shares for which the Option is exercised are acquired, whichever is later (the "Repurchase Period"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Shareholders' Agreement, the purchase price per Share payable under Section 6(a) or (b) of the Shareholder's Agreement where such Termination (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement):

(i) was due to resignation or for Cause shall be the amount equal to the lesser of: (A) the Fair Market Value at the time of such termination; or (B) the relevant exercise price for such Shares;

(ii) was without Cause or because of death, disability or Retirement (as defined below) shall be the amount equal to the greater of: (A) the Fair Market Value at the time of such termination; or (B) the relevant exercise price for such Shares.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, (i) "Cause" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in any written employment agreement between Employee and the Company or one or more of its Subsidiaries, as the same may be amended or modified from time to time and (ii) "Retirement" shall mean Employee's resignation from the service of the Company or its Subsidiaries, so long as Employee does not engage in any employment or consulting activities with any third party which require in excess of 10 hours per week during the Repurchase Period.

(e) The Company's repurchase option set forth in Section 4(c) above shall terminate upon the consummation of an Initial Public Offering.

4. Manner of Exercise of Option. The Option may be exercised by delivery, via first class mail, fax or electronic mail of a Notice of Option Exercise and related forms to the Company stating the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised and accompanied by payment of the Total Exercise Cost in cash or by check, bank draft or money order payable to the order of the Company. The Company will cooperate in any reasonable manner (including cooperating with Employee's broker) to allow Employee to exercise the Option in any expedient manner, so long as such cooperation does not violate applicable law or could not result in any adverse consequences to the Company.

5. Non-Transferability. The right of the Employee to exercise the Option (as and when exercisable) may not be assigned or transferred by the Employee other than (i) by will or the laws of descent and distribution or (ii) with the prior written approval of the Committee (not to be unreasonably withheld), for estate planning purposes. The Option may be exercised and the Shares may be purchased during the lifetime of the Employee only by the Employee (or the Employee's legal representative in the event that the Employee's employment is terminated due to "disability" as defined in Code Section 22(e) or any other permitted transferee of the Option). Any attempted assignment or transfer, except as hereinabove provided, including without limitation any purported assignment, whether voluntary or by operation of law, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition contrary to the provisions hereof, or any levy of execution, attachment, trustee process or similar process, whether legal or equitable, upon the Option, will in each instance be null and void.

6. Representation Letter and Investment Legend.

(a) In the event that for any reason the issuance of the Shares to be issued upon exercise of an exercisable Option will not be effectively registered under the Securities Act upon any date on which the Option is exercised, the Employee (or the person exercising the Option pursuant to Paragraph 6) will give a written representation to the Company in the form of paragraph 1 of Exhibit A attached hereto, and the Company will place the Securities Act legend described in paragraph 2 of Exhibit A upon any certificate for the Shares issued by reason of such exercise.

(b) The Company will be under no obligation to qualify Shares or to cause a registration statement or a post-effective amendment to any registration statement to be prepared for the purpose of covering the issuance of Shares.

7. Adjustments of Shares and Options.

(a) In the event of any change in the outstanding Shares by reason of an acquisition, spin-off or reclassification, recapitalization or merger, combination or exchange of Shares or other corporate exchange, Change of Control or similar event, the Committee shall adjust appropriately the number or kind of Shares or securities subject to the Option and exercise prices related thereto and make such other revisions to the Option as it deems are equitably required.

(b) With respect to any merger or consolidation of the Company into another corporation, the sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, a Change of Control or the recapitalization, reclassification, liquidation or dissolution of the Company or any other similar fundamental transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (any of the foregoing, a "Qualifying Event"), the Committee shall provide either: (i) that the Option cannot be exercised after such Qualifying Event, provided that nothing in this Section 7(b) shall prohibit Employee from exercising any then exercisable portion of the Option (including any portion thereof which will become exercisable by virtue of such Qualifying Event) prior to, or simultaneously with, the occurrence of such Qualifying Event and that, upon the occurrence of such Qualifying Event, the Option will terminate and be of no further force or effect and no longer be outstanding; (ii) that the Option will remain outstanding after such Qualifying Event, and from and after the consummation of such Qualifying Event, the Option will be exercisable for the kind and amount of securities and/or other property receivable as a result of such Qualifying Event by the holder of a number of Shares for which the Option could have been exercised immediately prior to such Qualifying Event; or (iii) the then exercisable portion of the Option (including any portion thereof which will become exercisable by virtue of such Qualifying Event) will be repurchased by the Company at a specific price (it being agreed that, with respect to each Share for which all or any portion of the Option is then exercisable, such specific price shall be equal to the Fair Market Value of such Share less the applicable Exercise Price) and that, upon the occurrence of such Qualifying Event, the Option will terminate and be of no further force or effect and no longer be outstanding. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Section 7(b) and the terms and conditions of Section 8 of the Plan, the terms and condition of this Section 7(b) shall control.

8. No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement will be construed or deemed by any person under any circumstances to bind the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to continue the employment of the Employee for the period within which this Option may vest or for any other period.

9. Rights as a Shareholder. The Employee will have no rights as a shareholder with respect to any Shares which may be purchased upon the exercise of this Option unless and until a certificate or certificates representing such Shares are duly issued and delivered to the Employee.

10. Withholding Taxes. The Employee hereby agrees, as a condition to any exercise of the Option, to provide to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy its obligation to withhold certain federal, state and local taxes arising by reason of such exercise (the "Withholding Amount"), if any, by (a) authorizing the Company to withhold the Withholding Amount from the Employee's cash compensation, or (b) remitting the Withholding Amount to the Company in cash; provided that, to the extent that the Withholding Amount is not provided by one or a combination of such methods, the Company may at its election withhold from the Shares delivered upon exercise of the Option that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value as of the date immediately prior to the issuance of such Shares equal to the Withholding Amount.

11. Execution of Shareholders' Agreement. The Employee acknowledges that, in connection with his or her prior or future purchase of Shares of the Company, unless such Shareholders' Agreement is no longer in effect, he or she will execute and deliver the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder or counterpart signature page thereto. The Employee further agrees that all Shares acquired by such Employee upon exercise of the Option will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Agreement, if then in effect, as modified hereby.

12. Lock-Up Agreements. The Employee agrees that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in the event of an Initial Public Offering or any other public offering of securities of the Company, except to the extent that: (a) the Employee sells his or her Shares obtained upon the exercise of the Option to the underwriters of the Company's securities in connection with such offering or (b) the underwriters do not require the following restrictions of all of the Company's directors and officers, such Employee shall not (i) offer, hedge, pledge, sell or contract to sell any such Shares, (ii) sell any option or contract to purchase any Shares, (iii) purchase any option or contract to sell any Shares, (iv) grant any option, right or warrant for the sale of any Shares, or (v) lend or otherwise dispose of or transfer any Shares during the longer of (A) any black-out period requested by underwriters conducting any such public offering of securities on behalf of the Company and (B) during the seven days prior to and during the 180 day period beginning on the effective date of such initial public offering or other public offering of securities; provided, however, that such Employee shall, in any event, be entitled to sell his or her Shares commencing on the expiration of the black-out period described in the aforementioned clause (A) or (B).

Any attempted assignment or transfer, except as hereinabove provided, including without limitation any purported assignment, whether voluntary or by operation of law, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition contrary to the provisions hereof, or any levy of execution, attachment, trustee process or similar process, whether legal or equitable, upon the Option, will in each instance be null and void.

6. Representation Letter and Investment Legend.

(b) The Company will be under no obligation to qualify Shares or to cause a registration statement or a post-effective amendment to any registration statement to be prepared for the purpose of covering the issuance of Shares.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Section 7(b) and the terms and conditions of Section 8 of the Plan, the terms and condition of this Section 7(b) shall control.

10. Withholding Taxes. The Employee hereby agrees, as a condition to any exercise of the Option, to provide to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy its obligation to withhold certain federal, state and local taxes arising by reason of such exercise (the "Withholding Amount"), if any, by (a) authorizing the Company to withhold the Withholding Amount from the Employee's cash compensation, or (b) remitting the Withholding Amount to the Company in cash; provided that, to the extent that the Withholding Amount is not provided by one or a combination of such methods, the Company may at its election withhold from the Shares delivered upon exercise of the Option that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value as of the date immediately prior to the issuance of such Shares equal to the Withholding Amount.

11. Execution of Shareholders' Agreement. The Employee acknowledges that, in connection with his or her prior or future purchase of Shares of the Company, unless such Shareholders' Agreement is no longer in effect, he or she will execute and deliver the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder or counterpart signature page thereto. AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the respective covenants and agreements set forth below, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. The Company shall employ Executive and Executive shall continue in the employ of the Company for the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending as provided in Section 4 hereof (the "TERM"). Except for any covenants or agreements contained herein which by their terms are to be performed or observed following the termination of the Term, upon the termination of the Term, this Agreement and all of its provisions shall terminate and shall cease to have any force or effect.

2. Duties.

(a) During the Term, Executive shall serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, with all of the authority, duties and responsibilities commensurate with such position and such other duties commensurate with his position as are assigned to Executive from time to time by the Board of Directors of Parent (the "BOARD"). During the Term, Executive shall report to the Board. With respect to all elections of directors to the Board during the Term, Parent shall nominate, and use its best efforts to elect, Executive to serve as a member of both the Board and as a non-voting member of the Executive Committee of the Board. Executive will work principally in the Los Angeles, California offices of the Company, but will also conduct such business travel as is reasonably required to fulfill his duties hereunder.

(b) During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all his working time, attention, skill and efforts to the business and affairs of the Company, and shall not commence employment with or serve as a consultant to, any other company; provided, however, the foregoing shall not preclude Executive from devoting a reasonable amount of time to managing Executive's investments and personal affairs and to charitable and civic activities (including serving on the boards of directors of not-for-profit organizations) and, with the consent of the Executive Committee of the Board and so long as such activities do not materially interfere with Executive's performance of his duties hereunder, serving on the boards of directors of for-profit entities.

3. Compensation and Related Matters.

(a) Salary. During the Term, Executive shall receive a salary at the per annum rate of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($850,000), payable semi-monthly or otherwise in accordance with the Company's payroll practices for senior executives. Executive's annual base salary shall be subject to review from time to time for possible increases by the Board. Executive's base salary may be increased (but not decreased) and, as increased from time to time, shall be referred to as the "BASE SALARY."

(b) Expenses. The Company shall reimburse Executive for all reasonable travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket business expenses (including all such expenses related to Executive's maintenance of his home office, including all such expenses related to the procurement and/or maintenance of a personal computer, internet connection, fax and telephone (including wireless) service) incurred by Executive in the performance of his duties under this Agreement upon evidence of payment and otherwise in accordance with the Company's policies and procedures in effect from time to time. In addition, the Company will pay all reasonable out-of-pocket attorneys' fees and financial representation costs incurred by Executive in connection with the evaluation and negotiation of this Agreement in an amount not to exceed $50,000.

(c) Employee Benefits. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to participate in or receive benefits under each benefit plan or arrangement made available by the Company to its senior executives (including, without limitation, those relating to group medical, dental, vision, long-term disability and life insurance) on terms no less favorable in the aggregate than those applicable to any other senior executive of the Company, subject to and on a basis consistent with the terms, conditions and overall administration of such plans and subject to the Company's right to modify, amend or terminate any such plan or arrangement.

(d) Life Insurance. During the Term, the Company will pay all premiums for a ten-year fixed premium term life insurance policy on Executive's life in the amount of $10 million issued by an insurance carrier reasonably acceptable to Executive, so long as and to the extent that Executive is insurable. Executive shall have the right to designate both the owner and the beneficiary of such term life insurance policy. Executive agrees to undergo any and all reasonable physical examinations that are necessary for the issuance and/or renewal of said term life insurance policy. After the expiration of the Term, so long as permitted by such insurance policy terms, Executive may elect to continue coverage under such policy at his own cost.

(e) Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, Executive will have the opportunity to earn an annual target bonus in such amounts, and based upon such targets, established annually by the Board. The annual target bonus amounts and the target determination procedures are set forth on Annex A attached hereto. Any bonus earned during the Term will be deemed to have been earned as of the last day of the relevant calendar year, but will be paid following the completion of the relevant calendar year at such time bonuses are paid to the Company's other senior executives.

(f) Vacation. Executive shall be entitled to five (5) weeks paid vacation during each year of the Term. Unused vacation in any year shall carry over to subsequent years without limitation, unless otherwise provided in a vacation pay policy that is generally applicable to the senior executives of the Company.

(b) Disability. In addition to the above, the provisions of this Agreement are severable, and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or provisions of this Agreement or portions thereof shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision, or portion of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect as if executed with the unenforceable or invalid provision or portion thereof eliminated. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto affirmatively represent, acknowledge and agree that it is their intention that this Agreement and each of its provisions are enforceable in accordance with their terms and expressly agree not to challenge the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or any of its provisions, or portions or aspects thereof, in the future. The parties hereto are expressly relying upon this representation, acknowledgement and agreement in determining to enter into this Agreement.

AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") entered into as of April 3, 2003, by and between WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands company (the "Company"), and the undersigned employee (the "Employee") of the Company or its Subsidiaries.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"), the Committee designated under the Plan desires to grant to the Employee an option to acquire Common Shares, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Employee desires to accept such option subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, the Company and the Employee, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Option. On the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, the Company hereby grants to the Employee an option to purchase all (or any part) of (i) 1,182,369 Shares at an exercise price of $0.44 per share (the "44 Cent Tranche"), (ii) 1,182,369 Shares at an exercise price of $1.76 per share (the "$1.76 Tranche"), (iii) 1,182,369 Shares at an exercise price of $5.28 per share (the "$5.28 Tranche"), (iv) 1,182,369 Shares at an exercise price of $8.80 per share (the "$8.80 Tranche"), and (v) 1,182,369 Shares at an exercise price of $12.32 per share (the "$12.32 Tranche", and together with the 44 Cent Tranche, the $1.76 Tranche, the $5.28 Tranche and the $8.80 Tranche, the "Option"). This Option is granted as of the date hereof. The Option is a Non-Statutory Stock Option. This Option is granted pursuant to the Plan, and except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, is governed by each of the terms and conditions of the Plan. All defined terms used herein, unless specifically defined in this Agreement, have the meanings assigned to them in the Plan. The Employee has previously been provided with a copy of that certain Private Placement Memorandum dated July 15, 2002 regarding the offering of the Company's 12% Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, as supplemented by Supplements Nos. 1, 2 and 3 thereto (collectively, the "PPM"). To the Company's knowledge, the disclosure of the Company's share ownership set forth in the PPM beneath the caption "Share Ownership" therein accurately sets forth, in all material respects, the share ownership of the Company as of the dates indicated therein. The numbers of Shares reflected in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) above are based on 112,325,066 Shares, which was the number of Shares of the Company that were outstanding on fully diluted basis as of March 31, 2003.

2. Time of Exercise of Option.

(a) The 44 Cent Tranche of the Option will become vested and exercisable in 50% increments on the first and second anniversaries of the "Effective Date", as such term is defined in that certain Employment Agreement dated as of the date hereof, by and among the Employee, Herbalife International, Inc. and Herbalife International of America, Inc. (as amended or modified from time to time, the "Employment Agreement").

(b) The $1.76 Tranche, the $5.28 Tranche, the $8.80 Tranche and the $12.32 Tranche are collectively referred to herein as the "Long-Term Tranche". Twenty percent (20%) of the Long-Term Tranche of the Option will become vested and exercisable (pro rata according to the number of Shares exercisable at the relevant exercise prices specified above for each of the individual tranches within the Long-Term Tranche) on the first anniversary of the Effective Date, and the remainder of the Long-Term Tranche of the Option will become vested and exercisable (pro rata according to the number of Shares exercisable at the relevant exercise prices specified above for each of the individual tranches within the Long-Term Tranche) in quarterly 5% increments commencing September 30, 2004 and on each subsequent last day of each following calendar quarter until the Long-Term Tranche of the Option becomes fully vested and exercisable as of June 30, 2008.

(c) Notwithstanding the preceding or any other provision in this Agreement or the Plan to the contrary, (i) simultaneously with the consummation of any Change of Control, 50% of the Shares granted pursuant to the Option (pro rata according to the number of Shares exercisable at the relevant exercise prices specified above for each of the individual tranches within the Option) will become immediately vested and exercisable (including any previously vested and exercisable Shares), (ii) if, following the consummation of any Change of Control, all or any portion of the Option described in this Agreement remains outstanding and the Employee's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries (or their respective successors-in-interest) is terminated (other than by reason of the Employee's resignation without Good Reason or termination for Cause) at any time following the consummation of such Change of Control, 100% of the Shares granted pursuant to the Option will immediately vest and become exercisable, and (iii) in the event the Employee's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries is terminated by reason of the Employee's death or Disability or during the 90 day period immediately preceding the consummation of any Change of Control (other than by reason of Employee's resignation without Good Reason or termination for Cause), 100% of the Shares granted pursuant to the Option will immediately vest and become exercisable. For purposes hereof, the terms "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason" shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Employment Agreement.

(d) In the event Employee exercises all or any portion of the Option prior to the consummation of an Initial Public Offering, the Committee shall make a determination of the Fair Market Value (as defined in the Plan) of the Shares acquired pursuant to such exercise of the Option.

3. Term of Options and Repurchase Rights.

(a) The Option will expire 10 years from the date hereof, but will be subject to earlier termination as provided below.

(b) Upon the Employee's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for whatever reason (x) the unexercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will terminate on the date of such termination and (y) the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be treated as set forth in this Section 3(b). Subject to the repurchase rights described in (c) below and the Shareholders' Agreement, in the event of a termination of the Employee's employment:

(i) by reason of death or Disability, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be exercisable for 180 days following any such termination;

(ii) without Cause or due to the Employee's resignation for Good Reason, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be exercisable until the first to occur of (A) six months following the expiration of any lock-up period following the consummation of an Initial Public Offering and (B) the second anniversary of Employee's termination of employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries, but in the case of either (A) or (B) above, no earlier than the expiration of the Standard Exercise Period (as defined below);

(iii) by reason of Employee's resignation without Good Reason, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will be exercisable until the expiration of the Standard Exercise Period; and

(iv) for Cause, the exercisable portion of the Option hereby granted will terminate on the date of such termination.

The “Standard Exercise Period” shall be the 30 day period immediately following Employee’s termination of employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries for any reason, but if at the time of such termination the Company is in a “black-out” period or subject to a lock-up period other than the lock-up period resulting from an Initial Public Offering, or the Employee is otherwise prohibited from selling his stock due to material non-public information or applicable regulation, then in either such case, the Standard Exercise Period shall be the period that expires 30 days immediately following the expiration of any such restriction. For purposes of this Section 3 (including, without limitation, Section 3(c)), if the Employee continues to provide services as a director or consultant to the Company or its Subsidiaries after the Employee’s termination of employment, such employment termination shall not be deemed to have occurred until the Employee’s termination of service in all capacities.

(c) The Company has the right to repurchase the Shares acquired upon the exercise of Options for a period of 181 days after the Employee terminates employment or 181 days after the Shares for which the Option is exercised are acquired, whichever is later (the “Repurchase Period”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Shareholders’ Agreement, the purchase price per Share payable under Section 6(a) or (b) of the Shareholder’s Agreement where such Termination (as defined in the Shareholders’ Agreement):

(i) was due to the Employee’s resignation without Good Reason or for Cause shall be the amount equal to the lesser of: (A) the Fair Market Value at the time of such termination; or (B) the relevant exercise price for such Shares; provided, however, that after the earlier to occur of the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date or the consummation of a Change of Control, Section 3(c)(ii) shall apply in lieu of this Section 3(c)(i); and

(ii) was without Cause, because of death or Disability, due to the Employee’s resignation for Good Reason or as provided in the proviso of Section 3(c)(i), shall be the amount equal to the Fair MarketValue at the time of such termination.

(d) The Company’s repurchase option set forth in Section 3(c) above shall terminate upon the consummation of an Initial Public Offering.

4. Manner of Exercise of Option. The Option may be exercised by delivery, via first class mail, fax or electronic mail of a Notice of Option Exercise and related forms to the Company stating the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised and accompanied by payment of the Total Exercise Cost in cash or by check, bank draft or money order payable to the order of the Company. To the extent permitted by law and applicable stock exchange regulations, the Employee may pay the exercise price of the options using stock of the Company held by the Employee for at least six months and with a Fair Market Value equal to the portion of the exercise price which Employee elects to pay through delivery of such stock. Prior to the consummation of the Company’s Initial Public Offering and to the extent permitted by law and applicable stock exchange regulations, (a) subject to the following sentence, during the 20 business day period immediately prior to the expiration of the exercise period set forth in Section 3(b) above or any extension thereof pursuant to this Section 4, the Employee may elect (on not less than ten business days’ prior written notice to the Company) to have the number of shares issued upon exercise of the options reduced (such reduction equal to a number of Shares with a Fair Market Value equal to the required tax withholding) to cover minimum required tax withholding (i.e., the minimum federal and state statutory tax withholding amount, including payroll taxes) and (b) subject to the following sentence, during the 20 business day period immediately prior to the expiration of the exercise period set forth in Section 3(b) above or any extension thereof pursuant to this Section 4, the Employee may elect (on not less than ten business days’ prior written notice to the Company) to pay the exercise price of the Shares subject to the Option by reduction (such reduction equal to a number of Shares with a Fair Market Value equal to the portion of the exercise price to be satisfied by such cashless exercise) of the number of Shares otherwise issuable upon such exercise of the Option. Upon receipt of Employee’s written notice to the Company pursuant to clause (a) or clause (b) of the preceding sentence, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, elect to extend the period of time during which the exercisable portion of the Option may be exercised for one or more Extension Periods (as defined below), in which case Employee’s election to exercise all or any portion of such Options pursuant to clause (a) or clause (b) of the preceding sentence shall be rescinded and of no further force and effect, subject to subsequent revesting of Employee’s right to make either such election during the 20 business day period immediately prior to the expiration of any Extension Period (and subject to the Committee’s right, in its sole discretion, to grant one or more additional Extension Periods). For purposes hereof, “Extension Period” means the 30 day period (or such longer period as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion) immediately following the expiration of the relevant exercise period specified in Section 3(b) above (or, in the case of any prior Extension Period, immediately following the expiration thereof).

5. Non-Transferability. The right of the Employee to exercise the Option (as and when exercisable) may not be assigned or transferred by the Employee other than (i) by will or the laws of descent and distribution or (ii) with the prior written approval of the Committee (not to be unreasonably withheld), for estate planning purposes. The Option may be exercised and the Shares may be purchased during the lifetime of the Employee only by the Employee (or the Employee’s legal representative in the event that the Employee’s employment is terminated due to Disability or any other permitted transferee of the Option). In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Section 7(b) and the terms and conditions of Section 8 of the Plan, the terms and condition of this Section 7(b) shall control. The Committee's election pursuant to this Section 7(b) will be applied in the same manner to all other holders of the Company's stock options. The Committee may only elect the alternatives specified in clauses (i) or (iii) of the first sentence of this Section 7(b) in connection with any Qualifying Event described in clauses (w) or (x) of the definition of "Organic Transaction" (as such term is defined in the Company's Articles of Association as of the date hereof).

11. Execution of Shareholders' Agreement. The Employee acknowledges that, in connection with his prior or future purchase of Shares of the Company, unless such Shareholders' Agreement is no longer in effect, he will execute and deliver the Shareholders' Agreement or a joinder or counterpart signature page thereto. 1. In exchange for your waiver of claims against the Company Entities (as defined below) and compliance with other terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, the Company agrees to provide you with the payments and benefits provided in Section 4 of your Employment Agreement with the Company.

2. (a) In consideration for the payments and benefits to be provided to you pursuant to paragraph 1 above, you, for yourself and for your heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives and assigns (hereinafter referred to collectively as "RELEASORS"), forever release and discharge the Company and its past, present and future parent entities, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates and related business entities, successors and assigns, assets, employee benefit plans or funds (including, without limitation, each of Whitney & Co., L.L.C., Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc., any investment fund managed by either of them and any affiliate of any of the aforementioned persons or entities), and any of its or their respective past, present and/or future directors, officers, fiduciaries, agents, trustees, administrators, employees and assigns, whether acting on behalf of the Company or in their individual capacities (collectively the "COMPANY ENTITIES") from any and all claims, suits, demands, causes of action, covenants, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, fees and liabilities of any kind whatsoever in law or equity, by statute or otherwise, whether known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspected or unsuspected and whether or not concealed or hidden (collectively, the "CLAIMS"), which you ever had, now have, or may have against any of the Company Entities by reason of any act, omission, transaction, practice, plan, policy, procedure, conduct, occurrence, or other matter related in any way to your employment by (including, but not limited to, termination thereof) the Company Entities up to and including the date on which you sign this Agreement, except as provided in subsection (c) below.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement is intended to and shall release the Company Entities from any and all claims, whether known or unknown, which Releasors ever had, now have, or may have against the Companies Entities arising out of your employment or termination thereof, including, but not limited to: (i) any claim under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (excluding claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law), the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, or the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, in each case as amended; (ii) any claim under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Labor Code, the California Family Rights Act, or the California Pregnancy Disability Leave Law; (iii) any other claim (whether based on federal, state, or local law (statutory or decisional), rule, regulation or ordinance) relating to or arising out of your employment, the terms and conditions of such employment, the termination of such employment, including, but not limited to, breach of contract (express or implied), wrongful discharge, detrimental reliance, defamation, emotional distress or compensatory or punitive damages; and (iv) any claim for attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements and/or the like.

(b) Should any provision of this Agreement require interpretation or construction, it is agreed by the parties that the entity interpreting or constructing this Agreement shall not apply a presumption against one party by reason of the rule of construction that a document is to be construed more strictly against the party who prepared the document.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising any right, remedy or power hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise of any other right, remedy or power provided herein or by law or in equity.

16. Representation of Counsel; Mutual Negotiation. Each party has had the opportunity to be represented by counsel of its choice in negotiating this Agreement. This Agreement shall therefore be deemed to have been negotiated and prepared at the joint request, direction and construction of the parties, at arm's-length, with the advice and participation of counsel, and shall be interpreted in accordance with its terms without favor to any party.

AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

Agreement and General Release (“AGREEMENT”), by and among Gregory L. Probert (“EXECUTIVE” and referred to herein as “you”) and HERBAL LIFE INTERNATIONAL OF AMERICA, INC., a California corporation (the “COMPANY”).

1. In exchange for your waiver of claims against the Company Entities (as defined below) and compliance with other terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, the Company agrees to provide you with the payments and benefits provided in Section 4 of your Employment Agreement with the Company.

2. (a) In consideration for the payments and benefits to be provided to you pursuant to paragraph 1 above, you, for yourself and for your heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives and assigns (hereinafter referred to collectively as “RELEASORS”), forever release and discharge the Company and its past, present and future parent entities, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates and related business entities, successors and assigns, assets, employee benefit plans or funds (including, without limitation, each of Whitney & Co., L.L.C., Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc., any investment fund managed by either of them and any affiliate of any of the aforementioned persons or entities), and any of its or their respective past, present and/or future directors, officers, fiduciaries, agents, trustees, administrators, employees and assigns, whether acting on behalf of the Company or in their individual capacities (collectively the “COMPANY ENTITIES”) from any and all claims, suits, demands, causes of action, covenants, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, fees and liabilities of any kind whatsoever in law or equity, by statute or otherwise, whether known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspected or unsuspected and whether or not concealed or hidden (collectively, the “CLAIMS”), which you ever had, now have, or may have against any of the Company Entities by reason of any act, omission, transaction, practice, plan, policy, procedure, conduct, occurrence, or other matter related in any way to your employment by (including, but not limited to, termination thereof) the Company Entities up to and including the date on which you sign this Agreement, except as provided in subsection (c) below.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement is intended to and shall release the Company Entities from any and all claims, whether known or unknown, which Releasors ever had, now have, or may have against the Companies Entities arising out of your employment or termination thereof, including, but not limited to: (i) any claim under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (excluding claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law), the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, or the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, in each case as amended; (ii) any claim under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Labor Code, the California Family Rights Act, or the California Pregnancy Disability Leave Law; (iii) any other claim (whether based on federal, state, or local law (statutory or decisional), rule, regulation or ordinance) relating to or arising out of your employment, the terms and conditions of such employment, the termination of such employment, including, but not limited to, breach of contract (express or implied), wrongful discharge, detrimental reliance, defamation, emotional distress or compensatory or punitive damages; and (iv) any claim for attorneys’ fees, costs, disbursements and/or the like.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be a waiver of claims: (1) that may arise after the date on which you sign this Agreement; (2) with respect to your right to enforce your rights that survive termination under the Employment Agreement or any other written agreement entered into between you and the Company (including, without limitation, any equity grants or agreements); (3) regarding rights of indemnification, receipt of legal fees and directors and officers liability insurance to which you are entitled under the Employment Agreement, the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws, pursuant to any separate writing between you and the Company or pursuant to applicable law; (4) relating to any claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit plan or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law; or (5) as a stockholder or optionholder of the Company.

(d) In signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you intend that this Agreement shall be effective as a bar to each and every one of the Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You expressly consent that this Agreement shall be given full force and effect according to each and all of its express terms and provisions, including those relating to unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims (notwithstanding any state statute that expressly limits the effectiveness of a general release of unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims), if any, as well as those relating to any other Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You acknowledge and agree that this waiver is an essential and material term of this Agreement, and the Company is entering into this Agreement in reliance on such waiver. You further agree that if you bring your own Claim in which you seek damages against any Company Entity, or if you seek to recover against any Company Entity in any Claim brought by a governmental agency on your behalf, the releases set forth in this Agreement shall serve as a complete defense to such Claims, and you shall reimburse each Company Entity for any attorneys’ fees or expenses or other fees and expenses incurred in defending any such Claim; provided, however, if a class action claim or governmental claim is brought on your behalf, your obligations will be limited to (i) opting out of such action or claim at the first available opportunity and (ii) turning over any and all damage awards or other proceeds received in connection therewith to the Company, it being agreed that you shall not be liable to the Company for any attorneys’ fees or expenses or other fees or expenses in the case of any such class action claim or governmental claim.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you waive all rights under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM, MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

3. (a) This Agreement is not intended, and shall not be construed, as an admission that any of the Company Entities has violated any federal, state or local law (statutory or decisional), ordinance or regulation, breached any contract or committed any wrong whatsoever against you.

(b) Should any provision of this Agreement require interpretation or construction, it is agreed by the parties that the entity interpreting or constructing this Agreement shall not apply a presumption against one party by reason of the rule of construction that a document is to be construed more strictly against the party who prepared the document.

4. For two years from and after the date of your employment termination, you agree not to make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about any Company Entity, or to make any public statement (or any statement likely to become public) that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect or disparage the reputation, or, to the extent applicable, business or goodwill of any Company Entity, it being agreed and understood that nothing herein shall prohibit you (a) from disclosing that you are no longer employed by the Company, (b) from responding truthfully to any governmental investigation or inquiry related thereto, whether by the Securities and Exchange Commission or other governmental entity or any other law, subpoena, court order or other compulsory legal process or any disclosure requirement of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or (c) from making traditional competitive statements in the course of promoting a competing business, so long as any statements made by you described in this clause (c) are not based on confidential information obtained during the course of your employment with the Company. The Company agrees that it will not make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about you in an authorized press release or authorized public announcement.

5. This Agreement is binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

6. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such State.

7. You acknowledge that your obligations pursuant to Sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Employment Agreement survive the termination of your employment in accordance with the terms thereof.

8. You acknowledge that you: (a) have carefully read this Agreement in its entirety; (b) have had an opportunity to consider for at least twenty-one (21) days the terms of this Agreement; (c) are hereby advised by the Company in writing to consult with an attorney of your choice in connection with this Agreement; (d) fully understand the significance of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and have discussed them with your independent legal counsel, or have had a reasonable opportunity to do so; (e) have had answered to your satisfaction by your independent legal counsel any questions you have asked with regard to the meaning and significance of any of the provisions of this Agreement; and (f) are signing this Agreement voluntarily and of your own free will and agree to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein.

9. You understand that you will have at least twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Agreement to consider the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You may accept this Agreement by signing it and returning it to the Company's General Counsel at the address specified pursuant to Section 12 of the Employment Agreement on or before . After executing this Agreement, you shall have seven (7) days (the "REVOCATION PERIOD") to revoke this Agreement by indicating your desire to do so in writing delivered to the General Counsel at the address above by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the seventh (7th) day after the date you sign this Agreement. The effective date of this Agreement shall be the eighth (8th) day after you sign the Agreement (the "AGREEMENT EFFECTIVE DATE"). If the last day of the Revocation Period falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day of the Revocation Period will be deemed to be the next business day. In the event you do not accept this Agreement as set forth above, or in the event you revoke this Agreement during the Revocation Period, this Agreement, including but not limited to the obligation of the Company to provide the payments and benefits provided in paragraph 1 above, shall be deemed automatically null and void.

deemed to have been terminated for Cause in the case of clause (iv) above, unless any such breach is not fully corrected prior to the expiration of the fifteen (15) calendar day period following delivery to Executive of the Company's written notice of its intention to terminate his employment for Cause describing the basis therefore in reasonable detail.

Accordingly, Executive agrees that if Executive violates or threatens to violate the provisions of Section 5 or 6, in addition to any other remedy which may be available at law or in equity, the Company shall be entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive relief, without posting bond or other security, and without the necessity of proving actual damages. In addition, in the event of a violation or threatened violation by Executive of Section 5 or 6 of this Agreement, the Nonsolicitation Period will be tolled until such violation or threatened violation has been duly cured. If, at the time of enforcement of Sections 5 or 6 of this Agreement, a court holds that the restrictions stated therein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated period, scope or area.

Executive agrees that he shall not assign, sell, transfer, delegate or otherwise dispose of, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, any rights or obligations under this Agreement, nor shall Executive's rights hereunder be subject to encumbrance of the claims of creditors. In the event that any provision of this Agreement should ever be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, then such provision shall be deemed reformed to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

11. Warranty. As an inducement to the Company to enter into this Agreement, Executive represents and warrants that he is not a party to any other agreement or obligation for personal services, and that there exists no impediment or restraint, contractual or otherwise, on his power, right or ability to enter into this Agreement and to perform his duties and obligations hereunder.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

14. Entire Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and this Agreement supersedes (and may not be contradicted by, modified or supplemented by) any prior or contemporaneous agreement, written or oral, with respect thereto, with the exception of the Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement and the Shareholders' Agreement. 2. (a) In consideration for the payments and benefits to be provided to you pursuant to paragraph 1 above, you, for yourself and for your heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives, and assigns (hereinafter referred to collectively as "RELEASORS"), FOREVER RELEASE AND DISCHARGE THE Company and its past, present and future parent entities, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates and related business entities, successors and assigns, assets, employee benefit plans or funds (including, without limitation, each of Whitney & Co., LLC, Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc., any investment fund managed by either of them and any affiliate of any of the aforementioned persons or entities), and any of its or their respective past, present and/or future directors, officers, fiduciaries, agents, trustees, administrators, employees and assigns, whether acting on behalf of the Company or in their individual capacities (collectively the "COMPANY ENTITIES") from any and all claims, suites, demands, causes of action, covenants, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, fees and liabilities of any kind whatsoever in law or equity, by statute or otherwise, whether known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspected or unsuspected and whether or not concealed or hidden (collectively, the "CLAIMS"), which you ever had, now have, or may have against any of the Company Entities by reason of any act, omission, transaction, practice, plan, policy, procedure, conduct, occurrence, or other matter related in any way to your employment by (including, but not limited to, termination thereof) the Company Entities up to and including the date on which you sign this Agreement, except as provided in subsection (c) below.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement is intended to and shall release the Company Entities form any all claims, whether known or unknown, which Releasors ever had, now have, or may have against the Companies Entities arising out of your employment or termination thereof, including, but not limited to: (i) any claim under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974,(excluding claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law), the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Worker Adjustment and Restraining Notification Act of 1988, or the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, in each case as amended; (ii) any claim under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Labor Code, the California Family Rights Act, or the California pregnancy Disability Leave Law; (iii) any other claim (whether based on federal, state, or local law (statutory or decisional), rule, regulation or ordinance) relating to or arising out of your employment, the terms and conditions of such employment, the termination of such employment, including, but not limited to, breach of contract (express or implied), wrongful discharge, detrimental reliance, defamation, emotional distress or compensatory or punitive damages; and (iv) any claim for attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements and/of the like.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be a waiver of claims: (1) that may arise after the date on which you sign this Agreement; (2) with respect to your right to enforce your rights that survive termination under the Employment Agreement or any other written agreement entered into between you and the Company (including, without limitation, any equity grants or agreements); (3) regarding rights of indemnification, receipt of algal fees and directors and officers liability insurance to which you are entitled under the Employment Agreement, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws, pursuant to any separate writing between you and the Company or pursuant to applicable law; (4) relating to any claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit plan or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law; or (5) as a stockholder or optionholder of the Company.

(d) In signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you intend that this Agreement shall be effective as a bar to each and every one of the Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You expressly consent that this Agreement shall be given full force and effect according to each and all of its express terms and provisions, including those relating to unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims (notwithstanding any state statute that expressly limits the effectiveness of a general release of unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims), if any, as well as those relating to any other claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You acknowledge and agree that this waiver is an essential and material term of this Agreement, and if you bring your own Claim in which you seek damages against any Company Entity, or if you seek to recover against any Company Entity in any Claim brought by a governmental agency on your behalf, the release set forth in this Agreement shall serve as a complete defense to such Claims, and you shall reimburse each Company Entity for any attorneys' fees or expense or other fees and expense incurred in defending such Claim; provided, however, if a class action claim or governmental claim is brought on your behalf, your obligations will be limited to (i) opting out of such action or other proceedings received in connection therewith to the Company, it being agreed that you shall not be liable to the Company for any attorneys' fees or expense or other fees or expenses in the case of any such class action claim or governmental claim.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you waive all rights under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM, MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

3. (a) This Agreement is not intended, and shall not be construed, as an admission that any of the Company Entities has violated any federal, state or local law (statutory or decisional), ordinance or regulation, breached any contract or committed any wrong whatsoever against you.

(b) Should any provision of this Agreement require interpretation or construction, it is agreed by the parties that the entity interpreting or constructing this Agreement shall not apply a presumption against one party by reason of the rule of construction that a document is to be construed more strictly against the party who prepared the document.

4. For two years from and after the date of your employment termination, you agree not to make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about any Company Entity, or to make any public statement (or any statement likely to become public) that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect or disparage the reputation, or, to the extent applicable, business or goodwill of any Company Entity, it being agreed and understood that nothing herein shall prohibit you (a) from disclosing that you are no longer employed by the Company, (b) from responding truthfully to any governmental investigation or inquiry related thereto, whether by the Securities and Exchange Commission or other governmental entity or any other law, subpoena, court order or other compulsory legal process or any disclosure requirement of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or (c) from making traditional competitive statements in the course of promoting a competing business, so long as any statements made by you described in this clause (c) are not based on confidential information obtained during the course of your employment with the Company. The Company agrees that it will not make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about you in an authorized press release or authorized public announcement.

5. This Agreement is binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

6. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such State.

7. You acknowledge that your obligations pursuant to Sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Employment Agreement survive the termination of your employment in accordance with the terms thereof.

8. You acknowledge that you: (a) have carefully read this Agreement in its entirety; (b) have had an opportunity to consider for at least twenty-one (21) days the terms of this Agreement; (c) are hereby advised by the Company in writing to consult with an attorney of your choice in connection with this Agreement; (d) fully understand the significance of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and have discussed them with your independent legal counsel, or have had a reasonable opportunity to do so; (e) have had answered to your satisfaction by your independent legal counsel any questions you have asked with regard to the meaning and significance of any of the provisions of this Agreement; and (f) are signing this Agreement voluntarily and of your own free will and agree to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein.

9. You understand that you will have at least twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Agreement to consider the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You may accept this Agreement by signing it and returning it to the Company's Chief Executive Officer at the address specified pursuant to Section 12 of the Employment Agreement on or before After executing this Agreement, you shall have seven (7) days (the "REVOCATION PERIOD") to revoke this Agreement by indicating your desire to do so in writing delivered to the Chief Executive Officer at the address above by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the seventh (7th) day after the date you sign this Agreement. The right of the Employee to exercise the Option (as and when exercisable) may not be assigned or transferred by the Employee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. The Option may be exercised and the Shares may be purchased during the lifetime of the Employee only by the Employee (or the Employee’s legal representative in the event that the Employee’s employment is terminated due to “Disability” within the meaning of Code Section 22(e)). Any attempted assignment or transfer, except as hereinabove provided, including without limitation any purported assignment, whether voluntary or by operation of law, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition contrary to the provisions hereof, or any levy of execution, attachment, trustee process or similar process, whether legal or equitable, upon the Option, will in each instance be null and void.

7. Representation Letter and Investment Legend.

(a) In the event that for any reason the issuance of the Shares to be issued upon exercise of an exercisable Option will not be effectively registered under the 1933 Act, upon any date on which the Option is exercised, the Employee (or the person exercising the Option pursuant to Paragraph 6) will give a written representation to the Company in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, and the Company will place the legend described in Exhibit A upon any certificate for the Shares issued by reason of such exercise.

(b) The Company will be under no obligation to qualify Shares or to cause a registration statement or a post-effective amendment to any registration statement to be prepared for the purpose of covering the issuance of Shares.

8. Adjustments of Shares and Options. Subject to Paragraph 7 of the Plan, in the event of any change in the outstanding Shares by reason of an acquisition, spin-off or reclassification, recapitalization or merger, combination or exchange of Shares or other corporate exchange, Change of Control or similar event, the Committee may adjust appropriately the number or kind of Shares or securities subject to the Option and exercise prices related thereto and make such other revisions to the Option as it deems are equitably required.

9. No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement will be construed or deemed by any person under any circumstances to bind the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to continue the employment of the Employee for the period within which this Option may vest or for any other period.

10. Rights as a Shareholder. The Employee will have no rights as a shareholder with respect to any Shares which may be purchased upon the exercise of this Option unless and until a certificate or certificates representing such Shares are duly issued and delivered to the Employee. If at any time during the term of the Option, the Company is advised by its counsel that the Shares are required to be registered under the Securities Act or under applicable state securities laws, or that delivery of the Shares must be accompanied or preceded by a prospectus meeting the requirements of such laws, delivery of Shares by the Company may be deferred until a registration is effective or a prospectus is available or an appropriate exemption from registration is secured.

11. Withholding Taxes. The Employee hereby agrees, as a condition to any exercise of the Option, to provide to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy its obligation to withhold certain federal, state and local taxes arising by reason of such exercise (the “Withholding Amount”), if any, by (a) authorizing the Company to withhold the Withholding Amount from the Employee’s cash compensation, or (b) remitting the Withholding Amount to the Company in cash; provided that, to the extent that the Withholding Amount is not provided by one or a combination of such methods, the Company may at its election withhold from the Shares delivered upon exercise of the Option that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value as of the date immediately prior to the issuance of such Shares equal to the Withholding Amount.

12. Execution of Shareholders’ Agreement and of Release and Waiver of Rights. The Employee acknowledges that, in connection with his or her prior or future purchase of Shares of the Company, he or she will execute and deliver the Shareholders’ Agreement or a joinder or counterpart signature page thereto. The Employee further agrees that all Shares acquired by such Employee upon exercise of the Option will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Shareholders’ Agreement as modified hereby. Prior to participation in the Plan, if the Committee requires, the Employee will execute a Release and Waiver to Rights to payments and benefits under certain plans of Herbalife International, Inc.

13. Lock-Up Agreements. The Employee agrees that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in the event of an Initial Public Offering or any other offering of securities of the Company, except to the extent that: (a) the Employee sells his or her Shares obtained upon the exercise of the Option to the underwriters of the Company’s securities in connection with such offering or (b) the underwriters do not request the following restrictions, such Employee shall not (i) offer, hedge, pledge, sell or contract to sell any such Shares, (ii) sell any option or contract to purchase any Shares, (iii) purchase any option or contract to sell any Shares, (iv) grant any option, right or warrant for the sale of any Shares, or (v) lend or otherwise dispose of or transfer any Shares during the longer of (A) any black-out period requested by the underwriters conducting any such offering of securities on behalf of the Company and (B) during the seven days prior to and during the 180-day period beginning on the effective date of such Initial Public Offering or other offering of securities; provided, however, that such Employee shall, in any event, be entitled to sell his or her Shares commencing on the expiration of the black-out period described in the aforementioned clause (A) or (B).

14. Delivery of Certificates. The Employee will have no interest in the Shares unless and until certificates for the Shares are issued following exercise of the Option.

Section 2. Exchange Offer

(a) The Issuers shall (i) file a Registration Statement (the "Exchange Offer Registration Statement") within 105 days after the Issue Date with the Commission on an appropriate registration form with respect to a registered offer (the "Exchange Offer") to exchange any and all of the Registrable Notes for a like aggregate principal amount of notes (the "Exchange Notes") that are identical in all material respects to the Notes (except that the Exchange Notes shall not contain terms with respect to transfer restrictions or Liquidated Damages upon a Registration Default), (ii) use their reasonable efforts to cause the Exchange Offer Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act within 165 days after the Issue Date and (iii) use their reasonable efforts to consummate the Exchange Offer within 195 days after the Issue Date. Upon the Exchange Offer Registration Statement being declared effective by the Commission, the Issuers will offer the Exchange Notes in exchange for surrender of the Notes. The Issuers shall keep the Exchange Offer open for not less than 30 days (or longer if required by applicable law) after the date notice of the Exchange Offer is mailed to Holders.

Each Holder that participates in the Exchange Offer will be required to represent to the Issuers in writing that (i) any Exchange Notes to be received by it will be acquired in the ordinary course of its business, (ii) it has no arrangement or understanding with any Person to participate in the distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of the Exchange Notes in violation of the provisions of the Securities Act or, if it is an affiliate, it will comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to the extent applicable, (iii) if such Holder is not a broker-dealer, it is not engaged in, and does not intend to engage in, a distribution of Exchange Notes, (iv) if such Holder is a broker-dealer that will receive Exchange Notes for its own account in exchange for Notes that were acquired as a result of market-making or other trading activities, it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes and (v) such Holder has full power and authority to transfer the Notes in exchange for the Exchange Notes and that the Issuers will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto free and clear of any liens, restrictions, charges or encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claims.

(b) The Issuers and the Initial Purchaser acknowledge that the staff of the Commission has taken the position that any broker-dealer that elects to exchange Notes that were acquired by such broker-dealer for its own account as a result of market-making or other trading activities for Exchange Notes in the Exchange Offer (a "Participating Broker-Dealer") may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act and must deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale of such Exchange Notes (other than a resale of an unsold allotment resulting from the original offering of the Notes).

The Issuers and the Initial Purchaser also acknowledge that the staff of the Commission has taken the position that if the Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement includes a plan of distribution containing a statement to the above effect and the means by which Participating Broker-Dealers may resell the Exchange Notes, without naming the Participating Broker-Dealers or specifying the amount of Exchange Notes owned by them, such Prospectus may be delivered by Participating Broker-Dealers to satisfy their prospectus delivery obligations under the Securities Act in connection with resales of Exchange Notes for their own accounts, so long as the Prospectus otherwise meets the requirements of the Securities Act.

In light of the foregoing, if requested by a Participating Broker-Dealer (a "Requesting Participating Broker-Dealer"), the Issuers agree to use their reasonable efforts to keep the Exchange Offer Registration Statement continuously effective for a period not to exceed 60 days after the date on which the Exchange Registration Statement is declared effective, or such longer period if extended pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 5 hereof (such period, the "Applicable Period"), or such earlier date as all Requesting Participating Broker-Dealers shall have notified the Issuers in writing that such Requesting Participating Broker-Dealers have resold all Exchange Notes acquired in the Exchange Offer. The Issuers shall include a plan of distribution in such Exchange Offer Registration Statement that meets the requirements set forth in the preceding paragraph.

If, prior to consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Initial Purchaser or any Holder, as the case may be, holds any Notes acquired by it that have, or that are reasonably likely to be determined to have, the status of an unsold allotment in an initial distribution, or if any Holder is not entitled to participate in the Exchange Offer, the Issuers upon the request of the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, shall simultaneously with the delivery of the Exchange Notes in the Exchange Offer, issue and deliver to the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, in exchange (the "Private Exchange") for such Notes held by the Initial Purchaser or any such Holder, as the case may be, a like principal amount of notes (the "Private Exchange Notes") of the Issuers that are identical in all material respects to the Exchange Notes except that the Private Exchange Notes may be subject to restrictions on transfer and bear a legend to such effect. The Private Exchange Notes shall be issued pursuant to the same Indenture as the Exchange Notes and bear the same CUSIP number as the Exchange Notes.

For each Note surrendered in the Exchange Offer, the Holder will receive an Exchange Note having a principal amount equal to that of the surrendered Note. Interest on each Exchange Note and Private Exchange Note issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer and in the Private Exchange will accrue from the last interest payment date on which interest was paid on the Notes surrendered in exchange therefor or, if no interest has been paid on the Notes, from the Issue Date.

Upon consummation of the Exchange Offer, the Issuers shall have no further registration obligations other than the Issuers' continuing registration obligations with respect to (i) Private Exchange Notes, (ii) Exchange Notes held by Participating Broker-Dealers and (iii) Notes or Exchange Notes as to which clause (c)(iii) of this Section 2 applies.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, the Issuers shall:

(1) mail or cause to be mailed to each Holder entitled to participate in the Exchange Offer a copy of the Prospectus forming part of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement, together with an appropriate letter of transmittal and related documents;

(2) utilize the services of a depositary for the Exchange Offer with an address in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York;

(3) permit Holders to withdraw tendered Notes at any time prior to the close of business, New York time, on the last Business Day on which the Exchange Offer shall remain open; and

(4) otherwise comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

As soon as practicable after the close of the Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange, if any, the Issuers shall:

(1) accept for exchange all Registrable Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn by the Holders pursuant to the Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange, if any;

(2) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation all Registrable Notes so accepted for exchange; and

(3) cause the Trustee to authenticate and deliver promptly to each such Holder of Notes, Exchange Notes or Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, equal in principal amount to the Registrable Notes of such Holder so accepted for exchange.

The Exchange Offer and the Private Exchange shall not be subject to any conditions, other than that (i) the Exchange Offer or Private Exchange, as the case may be, does not violate applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the staff of the Commission, (ii) no action or proceeding shall have been instituted or threatened in any court or by any governmental agency which might materially impair the ability of the Issuers to proceed with the Exchange Offer or the Private Exchange, and no material adverse development shall have occurred in any existing action or proceeding with respect to the Issuers and (iii) all governmental approvals shall have been obtained, which approvals the Issuers deem necessary for the consummation of the Exchange Offer or Private Exchange.

The Exchange Notes and the Private Exchange Notes shall be issued under (i) the Indenture or (ii) an indenture identical in all material respects to the Indenture (in either case, with such changes as are necessary to comply with any requirements of the Commission to effect or maintain the qualification thereof under the TIA) and which, in either case, has been qualified under the TIA and shall provide that (a) the Exchange Notes shall not be subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture and (b) the Private Exchange Notes shall be subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the Indenture. The Indenture or such indentures shall provide that the Exchange Notes, the Private Exchange Notes and the Notes shall vote and consent together on all matters requiring the vote or consent of the holders of the Exchange Notes, the Private Exchange Notes and the Notes under the Indenture as one class and that none of the Exchange Notes, the Private Exchange Notes or the Notes will have the right to vote or consent as a separate class on any matter.

(c) In the event that (i) any changes in law or the applicable interpretations of the staff of the Commission do not permit the Issuers to effect the Exchange Offer, (ii) for any reason the Exchange Offer is not consummated within 195 days of the Issue Date, (iii) any Holder, other than the Initial Purchaser, is prohibited by law or the applicable interpretations of the staff of the Commission from participating in the Exchange Offer or does not receive Exchange Notes on the date of the exchange that may be sold without restriction under state and federal securities laws (other than due solely to the status of such holder as an affiliate of the Issuers within the meaning of the Securities Act) or (iv) the Initial Purchaser so requests with respect to Notes or Private Exchange Notes that have, or that are reasonably likely to be determined to have, the status of unsold allotments in an initial distribution (each such event referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of this sentence, a "Shelf Filing Event"), then the Issuers shall file a Shelf Registration pursuant to Section 3 hereof.

Section 3. Shelf Registration

If at any time a Shelf Filing Event shall occur, then:

(a) Shelf Registration. The Issuers shall file with the Commission a Registration Statement for an offering to be made on a continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 covering all of the Registrable Notes not exchanged in the Exchange Offer, Private Exchange Notes and Exchange Notes as to which Section 2(c)(iii) is applicable (the "Shelf Registration"). The Issuers shall use their reasonable efforts to file with the Commission the Shelf Registration as promptly as practicable. The Shelf Registration shall be on Form S-1 or another appropriate form permitting registration of such Registrable Notes for resale by Holders in the manner or manners designated by them (including, without limitation, one or more underwritten offerings). The Issuers shall not permit any securities other than the Registrable Notes to be included in the Shelf Registration.

(b) The Issuers shall use their reasonable efforts (x) to cause the Shelf Registration to be declared effective under the Securities Act on or prior to the later of 195 calendar days after the Issue Date or 90 days after the Shelf Registration is required to be filed with the Commission and (y) to keep the Shelf Registration continuously effective under the Securities Act for the period ending on the date which is two years from the Issue Date, subject to extension pursuant to the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof (the "Effectiveness Period"), or such shorter period ending when all Registrable Notes covered by the Shelf Registration have been sold in the manner set forth and as contemplated in the Shelf Registration; provided, however, that (i) the Effectiveness Period in respect of the Shelf Registration shall be extended to the extent required to permit dealers to comply with the applicable prospectus delivery requirements of Rule 174 under the Securities Act and as otherwise provided herein and (ii) the Issuers may suspend the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement by written notice to the Holders as a result of (A) the filing of a post-effective amendment to the Shelf Registration Statement to incorporate annual audited financial information with respect to the Issuers where such post-effective amendment is not yet effective and needs to be declared effective to permit Holders to use the related Prospectus and (B) the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof.

(c) Supplements and Amendments. The Issuers agree to supplement or make amendments to the Shelf Registration Statement as and when required by the rules, regulations or instructions applicable to the registration form used for such Shelf Registration Statement or by the Securities Act or rules and regulations thereunder for shelf registration, or if reasonably requested by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or by any underwriter of such Registrable Notes.

Section 4. Liquidated Damages

(a) The Issuers and the Initial Purchaser agree that the Holders will suffer damages if the Issuers fail to fulfill their respective obligations under Section 2 or Section 3 hereof and that it would not be feasible to ascertain the extent of such damages with precision. Accordingly, the Issuers agree that if:

(i) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not filed with the Commission on or prior to the 105th day following the Issue Date or, if that filing date is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day,

(ii) the Exchange Offer Registration Statement is not declared effective on or prior to the 165th day following the Issue Date or, if that effectiveness day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day,

(iii) the Exchange Offer is not consummated on or prior to the 195th day following the Issue Date, or, if that day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day; or

(iv) the Shelf Registration Statement is required to be filed but is not declared effective by the later of 195 calendar days after the Issue Date or 90 days after the Shelf Registration is required to be filed with the Commission, or, if either such day is not a Business Day, the next day that is a Business Day or is declared effective by such date but thereafter ceases to be effective or usable, except if the Shelf Registration ceases to be effective or usable as specifically permitted by the penultimate paragraph of Section 5 hereof

(each such event referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) a "Registration Default"), liquidated damages ("Liquidated Damages") will accrue on the affected Notes and the affected Exchange Notes, as applicable. The rate of Liquidated Damages will be 0.25% per annum for the first 90-day period immediately following the occurrence of a Registration Default, increasing by an additional 0.25% per annum with respect to each subsequent 90-day period up to a maximum amount of 1.00% per annum, from and including the date on which any such Registration Default shall occur to, but excluding, the earlier of (1) the date on which all Registration Defaults have been cured or (2) the date on which all the Registrable Notes otherwise become freely transferable by Holders other than affiliates of the Issuers without further registration under the Securities Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) the amount of Liquidated Damages payable shall not increase because more than one Registration Default has occurred and is pending and (2) a Holder of Notes or Exchange Notes who is not entitled to the benefits of the Shelf Registration Statement (i.e., such Holder has not elected to include information) shall not be entitled to Liquidated Damages with respect to a Registration Default that pertains to the Shelf Registration Statement.

(b) So long as Notes remain outstanding, the Issuers shall notify the Trustee within five Business Days after each and every date on which an event occurs in respect of which Liquidated Damages is required to be paid. Any amounts of Liquidated Damages due pursuant to clauses (a)(i), (a)(ii), (a)(iii) or (a)(iv) of this Section 4 will be payable in cash semi-annually on each April 1 and October 1 (each a "Damages Payment Date"), commencing with the first such date occurring after any such Liquidated Damages commence to accrue, to Holders to whom regular interest is payable on such Damages Payment Date with respect to Notes that are Registrable Securities. The amount of Liquidated Damages for Registrable Notes will be determined by multiplying the applicable rate of Liquidated Damages by the aggregate principal amount of all such Registrable Notes outstanding on the Damages Payment Date following such Registration Default in the case of the first such payment of Liquidated Damages with respect to a Registration Default (and thereafter at the next succeeding Damages Payment Date until the cure of such Registration Default), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days such Liquidated Damages rate was applicable during such period (determined on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months and, in the case of a partial month, the actual number of days elapsed), and the denominator of which is 360.

Section 5. Registration Procedures

In connection with the filing of any Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2 or 3 hereof, the Issuers shall effect such registrations to permit the sale of the securities covered thereby in accordance with the intended method or methods of disposition thereof, and pursuant thereto and in connection with any Registration Statement filed by the Issuers hereunder, each of the Issuers shall:

(a) Prepare and file with the Commission the Registration Statement or Registration Statements prescribed by Section 2 or 3 hereof, and use its reasonable efforts to cause each such Registration Statement to become effective and remain effective as provided herein; provided, however, that if (1) such filing is pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period relating thereto, before filing any Registration Statement or Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, the Issuers shall furnish to and afford the Holders of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its counsel (if such counsel is known to the Issuers) and the managing underwriters, if any, a reasonable opportunity to review copies of all such documents (including copies of any documents to be incorporated by reference therein and all exhibits thereto) proposed to be filed (in each case at least five Business Days prior to such filing or such later date as is reasonable under the circumstances). The Issuers shall not file any Registration Statement or Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto if the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement, or any such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its counsel, or the managing underwriters, if any, shall reasonably object on a timely basis.

(b) Prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and post-effective amendments to each Shelf Registration Statement or Exchange Offer Registration Statement, as the case may be, as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement continuously effective for the Effectiveness Period or the Applicable Period, as the case may be; cause the related Prospectus to be supplemented by any Prospectus supplement required by applicable law, and as so supplemented to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (or any similar provisions then in force) promulgated under the Securities Act; and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act applicable to it with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such Registration Statement as so amended or in such Prospectus as so supplemented and with respect to the subsequent resale of any securities being sold by a Participating Broker-Dealer covered by any such Prospectus, in each case, in accordance with the intended methods of distribution set forth in such Registration Statement or Prospectus, as so amended.

(c) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period relating thereto from whom the Issuers have received written notice that such Broker-Dealer will be a Participating Broker-Dealer in the applicable Exchange Offer, notify the selling Holders of Registrable Notes, or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, their counsel and the managing underwriters, if any, as promptly as possible, and, if requested by any such Person, confirm such notice in writing, (i) when a Prospectus or any Prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment has been filed, and, with respect to a Registration Statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective under the Securities Act (including in such notice a written statement that any Holder may, upon request, obtain, at the sole expense of the Issuers, one conformed copy of such Registration Statement or post-effective amendment including financial statements and schedules, documents incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference and exhibits), (ii) of the issuance by the Commission or any state securities commission or other governmental agency or court of any stop order, injunction, ruling or other order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or of any order preventing or suspending the use of any preliminary prospectus, the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose or of any request by the Commission for additional information or for an amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement or any Prospectus or Prospectus supplement relating thereto, (iii) if at any time when a Prospectus is required by the Securities Act to be delivered in connection with sales of the Registrable Notes or resales of Exchange Notes by Participating Broker- Dealers, the representations and warranties of the Issuers contained in any agreement (including any underwriting agreement) contemplated by Section 5(m)(i) hereof cease to be true and correct in all material respects, (iv) of the receipt by the Issuers of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification or exemption from qualification of a Registration Statement or any of the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes for offer or sale in any jurisdiction, or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose, (v) of the happening of any event, the existence of any condition or any information becoming known to the Issuers that makes any statement made in such Registration Statement or related Prospectus or any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference untrue in any material respect or that requires the making of any changes in or amendments or supplements to such Registration Statement, Prospectus or documents so that, in the case of the Registration Statement, it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and that in the case of the Prospectus, it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (vi) of the Issuers' determination that a post-effective amendment to a Registration Statement would be appropriate.

(d) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the issuance of any order suspending the effectiveness of a Registration Statement or of any order preventing or suspending the use of a Prospectus or suspending the qualification (or exemption from qualification) of any of the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes, as the case may be, for sale in any jurisdiction, and, if any such order is issued, to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the withdrawal of any such order at the earliest practicable moment.

(e) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period and if reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters (if any), the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement or any Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, (i) promptly incorporate in such Registration Statement or Prospectus a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment such information as the managing underwriter or underwriters (if any), such Holders or any Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be (based upon advice of counsel), determine is reasonably necessary to be included therein and (ii) make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or such post-effective amendment as soon as practicable after the Issuers have received notification of the matters to be incorporated in such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment; provided, however, that the Issuers shall not be required to take any action hereunder that would, in the written opinion of counsel to the Issuers, violate applicable laws.

(f) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, furnish to each selling Holder of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, who so requests, its counsel and each managing underwriter, if any, at the sole expense of the Issuers, one conformed copy of the Registration Statement or Registration Statements and each post-effective amendment thereto, including financial statements and schedules, and, if requested, all documents incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference and all exhibits.

(g) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, deliver to each selling Holder of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, its respective counsel, and the underwriters, if any, at the sole expense of the Issuers, as many copies of the Prospectus or Prospectuses (including each form of preliminary prospectus) and each amendment or supplement thereto and any documents incorporated by reference therein as such Persons may reasonably request; and, subject to the last paragraph of this Section 5, the Issuers hereby consent to the use of such Prospectus and each amendment or supplement thereto by each of the selling Holders of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, and the underwriters or agents, if any, and dealers (if any), in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Notes covered by, or the sale by Participating Broker-Dealers of the Exchange Notes pursuant to, such Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto.

(h) Prior to any public offering of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes or any delivery of a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, use its reasonable best efforts to register or qualify, and to cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Notes or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, and its respective counsel in connection with the registration or qualification (or exemption from such registration or qualification) of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as the case may be, for offer and sale under the securities or Blue Sky laws of such jurisdictions within the United States as any selling Holder, Participating Broker-Dealer, or the managing underwriter or underwriters reasonably request; provided, however, that where Exchange Notes or Registrable Notes are offered other than through an underwritten offering, the Issuers agree to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Issuers' counsel to perform Blue Sky investigations and file registrations and qualifications required to be filed pursuant to this Section 5(h); keep each such registration or qualification (or exemption therefrom) effective during the period such Registration Statement is required to be kept effective and do any and all other acts or things reasonably necessary or advisable to enable the disposition in such jurisdictions of such Exchange Notes or Registrable Notes covered by the applicable Registration Statement; provided, however, that the Issuers shall not be required to (A) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where they are not then so qualified, (B) take any action that would subject them to general service of process in any such jurisdiction where they are not then so subject or (C) subject themselves to taxation in excess of a nominal dollar amount in any such jurisdiction where they are not then so subject.

(i) If a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, cooperate with the selling Holders of Registrable Notes and the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing Registrable Notes to be sold, which certificates shall not bear any restrictive legends and shall be in a form eligible for deposit with the depositary or common depositary, as applicable, and enable such Registrable Notes to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, or selling Holders may request at least five Business Days prior to any sale of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes.

(j) Use its reasonable efforts to cause the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes covered by any Registration Statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be reasonably necessary to enable the seller or sellers thereof or the underwriter or underwriters, if any, to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, except as may be required solely as a consequence of the nature of such selling Holder's business, in which case the Issuers will cooperate in all reasonable respects with the filing of such Registration Statement and the granting of such approvals.

(k) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof, or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, upon the occurrence of any event contemplated by Section 5(c)(v) or 5(c)(vi) hereof, as promptly as practicable prepare and (subject to Section 5(a) and the penultimate paragraph of this Section 5) file with the Commission, at the sole expense of the Issuers, a supplement or post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement or a supplement to the related Prospectus or any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference, or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of the Registrable Notes being sold thereunder or to the purchasers of the Exchange Notes to whom such Prospectus will be delivered by a Participating Broker-Dealer, any such Prospectus will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(l) Prior to the effective date of the first Registration Statement relating to the Registrable Notes, (i) provide the Trustee with certificates for the Registrable Notes in a form eligible for deposit with the depositary and common depositary, as applicable, and (ii) provide a CUSIP number for the Registrable Notes.

(m) In connection with any underwritten offering of Registrable Notes pursuant to a Shelf Registration, enter into an underwriting agreement as is customary in underwritten offerings of debt securities similar to the Notes and take all such other actions as are reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters in order to expedite or facilitate the registration or the disposition of such Registrable Notes and, in such connection, (i) make such representations and warranties to, and covenants with, the underwriters with respect to the business of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries, as then conducted (including any acquired business, properties or entity, if applicable), and the Registration Statement, Prospectus and documents, if any, incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference therein, in each case, as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in underwritten offerings of debt securities similar to the Notes, and confirm the same in writing if and when requested; (ii) use its reasonable efforts to obtain the written opinions of counsel to the Issuers and written updates thereof in form, scope and substance reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter or underwriters, addressed to the underwriters covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters; (iii) use its reasonable efforts to obtain "cold comfort" letters and updates thereof in form, scope and substance reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter or underwriters from the independent certified public accountants of the Issuers (and, if necessary, any other independent certified public accountants of any subsidiary of the Issuers or of any business acquired by the Issuers for which financial statements and financial data are, or are required to be, included or incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement), addressed to each of the underwriters, such letters to be in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters in connection with underwritten offerings; and (iv) if an underwriting agreement is entered into, the same shall contain indemnification provisions and procedures no less favorable than those set forth in Section 7 hereof (or such other provisions and procedures acceptable to Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of Registrable Notes covered by such Registration Statement and the managing underwriter or underwriters or agents) with respect to all parties to be indemnified pursuant to said Section; provided that the Issuers shall not be required to provide indemnification to any underwriter selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 hereof with respect to information relating to such underwriter furnished in writing to the Issuers by or on behalf of such underwriter expressly for inclusion in such Registration Statement. The above shall be done at each closing under such underwriting agreement, or as and to the extent required thereunder.

(n) If (1) a Shelf Registration is filed pursuant to Section 3 hereof or (2) a Prospectus contained in the Exchange Offer Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2 hereof is required to be delivered under the Securities Act by any Participating Broker-Dealer who seeks to sell Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, make available for inspection by any selling Holder of such Registrable Notes being sold or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, any underwriter participating in any such disposition of Registrable Notes, if any, and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such selling Holder or each such Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be, or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), at the offices where normally kept, during reasonable business hours, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and instruments of the Issuers and their subsidiaries (collectively, the "Records") as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise any applicable due diligence responsibilities, and cause the officers, directors and employees of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries to supply all information reasonably requested by any such Inspector in connection with such Registration Statement and Prospectus. Each Inspector shall agree in writing that it will keep the Records confidential and that it will not disclose, or use in connection with any market transactions in violation of any applicable securities laws or otherwise, any Records that the Issuers determine, in good faith, to be confidential and that either of the Issuers notifies the Inspectors in writing are confidential unless (i) the disclosure of such Records is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in such Registration Statement or Prospectus, (ii) the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction, (iii) disclosure of such information is necessary or advisable in the opinion of counsel for an Inspector in connection with any action, claim, suit or proceeding, directly or indirectly, involving or potentially involving such Inspector and arising out of, based upon, relating to, or involving this Agreement or the Purchase Agreement, or any transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or arising hereunder or thereunder, or (iv) the information in such Records has been made generally available to the public otherwise than pursuant to a breach of this Agreement; provided, however, that (i) each Inspector shall agree to use reasonable best efforts to provide notice to the Issuers of the potential disclosure of any information by such Inspector pursuant to clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of this sentence to permit the Issuers to obtain a protective order (or waive the provisions of this paragraph (n)) and (ii) each such Inspector shall take such actions as are reasonably necessary to protect the confidentiality of such information (if practicable) to the extent such action is otherwise not inconsistent with, an impairment of or in derogation of the rights and interests of the Holder or any Inspector.

(o) Provide an indenture trustee for the Registrable Notes or the Exchange Notes, as the case may be, and cause the Indenture or the trust indenture provided for in Section 2(b) hereof to be qualified under the TIA not later than the effective date of the Exchange Offer or the first Registration Statement relating to the Registrable Notes; and in connection therewith, cooperate with the trustee under any such indenture and the Holders of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as applicable, to effect such changes to such indenture as may be required for such indenture to be so qualified in accordance with the terms of the TIA; and execute, and use its reasonable best efforts to cause such trustee to execute, all documents as may be required to effect such changes, and all other forms and documents required to be filed with the Commission to enable such indenture to be so qualified in a timely manner.

(p) Comply in all material respects with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and make generally available to the Holders earnings statements satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder (or any similar rule promulgated under the Securities Act) no later than 45 days after the end of any 12-month period (or 90 days after the end of any 12-month period if such period is a fiscal year) (i) commencing at the end of any fiscal quarter in which Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes are sold to underwriters in a firm commitment or best efforts underwritten offering and (ii) if not sold to underwriters in such an offering, commencing on the first day of the first fiscal quarter of the Company after the effective date of a Registration Statement, which statements shall cover said 12-month periods consistent with the requirements of Rule 158.

(q) Upon the request of a Holder, upon consummation of the Exchange Offer or a Private Exchange, use its reasonable efforts to obtain an opinion of counsel to the Issuers, in a form customary for underwritten transactions, addressed to the Trustee for the benefit of all Holders of Registrable Notes participating in the Exchange Offer or the Private Exchange, as the case may be, that the Exchange Notes or Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, and the related indenture constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Issuers, enforceable against the Issuers in accordance with its respective terms, subject to customary exceptions and qualifications.

(r) If the Exchange Offer or a Private Exchange is to be consummated, upon delivery of the Registrable Notes by Holders to the Issuers (or to such other Person as directed by the Issuers) in exchange for the Exchange Notes or the Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be, mark, or cause to be marked, on such Registrable Notes that such Registrable Notes are being cancelled in exchange for the Exchange Notes or the Private Exchange Notes, as the case may be; provided that in no event shall such Registrable Notes be marked as paid or otherwise satisfied.

(s) Cooperate with each seller of Registrable Notes covered by any Registration Statement and each underwriter, if any, participating in the disposition of such Registrable Notes and their respective counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD").

(t) Use its reasonable efforts to take all other steps reasonably necessary or advisable to effect the registration of the Exchange Notes and/or Registrable Notes covered by a Registration Statement contemplated hereby.

The Issuers may require each seller of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes as to which any registration is being effected to furnish to the Issuers such information regarding such seller and the distribution of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes as the Issuers may, from time to time, reasonably request. The Issuers may exclude from such registration the Registrable Notes of any seller so long as such seller fails to furnish such information within a reasonable time after receiving such request and in the event of such an exclusion, the Issuers shall have no further obligation under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the obligations under Section 4) with respect to such seller or any subsequent Holder of such Registrable Notes. Each seller as to which any Shelf Registration is being effected agrees to furnish promptly to the Issuers all information required to be disclosed in order to make any information previously furnished to the Issuers by such seller not materially misleading.

If any such Registration Statement refers to any Holder by name or otherwise as the holder of any securities of the Issuers, then such Holder shall have the right to require (i) the insertion therein of language, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to such Holder, to the effect that the holding by such Holder of such securities is not to be construed as a recommendation by such Holder of the investment quality of the securities covered thereby and that such holding does not imply that such Holder will assist in meeting any future financial requirements of the Issuer, or (ii) in the event that such reference to such Holder by name or otherwise is not required by the Securities Act or any similar federal statute then in force, the deletion of the reference to such Holder in any amendment or supplement to the applicable Registration Statement filed or prepared subsequent to the time that such reference ceases to be required.

Each Holder of Registrable Notes and each Participating Broker-Dealer agrees by acquisition of such Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes that, upon actual receipt of any notice from the Issuers (x) of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 5(c)(ii), 5(c)(iii), 5(c)(iv), or 5(c)(v) hereof, or (y) that the Board of Directors of the Issuers (the "Board of Directors") has resolved that the Issuers have a bona fide business purpose for doing so, then the Issuers may delay the filing or the effectiveness of the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration Statement (if not then filed or effective, as applicable) and shall not be required to maintain the effectiveness thereof or amend or supplement the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration, in all cases, for a period (a "Delay Period") expiring upon the earlier to occur of (i) in the case of the immediately preceding clause (x), such Holder's or Participating Broker-Dealer's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus contemplated by Section 5(k) hereof or until it is advised in writing (the "Advice") by the Issuers that the use of the applicable Prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any amendments or supplements thereto or (ii) in the case of the immediately preceding clause (y), the date which is the earlier of (A) the date on which such business purpose ceases to interfere with the Issuers' obligations to file or maintain the effectiveness of any such Registration Statement pursuant to this Agreement or (B) 60 days after the Issuers notify the Holders of such good faith determination. There shall not be more than 90 days of Delay Periods during any 12-month period. Each of the Effectiveness Period and the Applicable Period, if applicable, shall be extended by the number of days during any Delay Period. Any Delay Period will not alter the obligations of the Issuers to pay Liquidated Damages under the circumstances set forth in Section 4 hereof.

In the event of any Delay Period pursuant to clause (y) of the preceding paragraph, notice shall be given as soon as practicable after the Board of Directors makes such a determination of the need for a Delay Period and shall state, to the extent practicable, an estimate of the duration of such Delay Period and shall advise the recipient thereof of the agreement of such Holder provided in the next succeeding sentence. Each Holder, by his acceptance of any Registrable Note, agrees that during any Delay Period, each Holder will discontinue disposition of such Notes or Exchange Notes covered by such Registration Statement or Prospectus or Exchange Notes to be sold by such Holder or Participating Broker-Dealer, as the case may be and further agrees that it shall hold in confidence the existence of any Delay Period.

Section 6. Registration Expenses

All fees and expenses incident to the performance of or compliance with this Agreement by the Issuers (other than any underwriting discounts or commissions) shall be borne by the Issuers, whether or not the Exchange Offer Registration Statement or the Shelf Registration is filed or becomes effective or the Exchange Offer is consummated, including, without limitation, (i) all registration and filing fees (including, without limitation, (A) fees with respect to filings required to be made with the NASD in connection with an underwritten offering and (B) fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or Blue Sky laws (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with Blue Sky qualifications of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes and determination of the eligibility of the Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes for investment under the laws of such jurisdictions (x) where the holders of Registrable Notes are located, in the case of an Exchange Offer, or (y) as provided in Section 5(h) hereof, in the case of a Shelf Registration or in the case of Exchange Notes to be sold by a Participating Broker-Dealer during the Applicable Period)), (ii) printing expenses, including, without limitation, expenses of printing certificates for Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes in a form eligible for deposit and of printing prospectuses if the printing of prospectuses is requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters, if any, or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes included in any Registration Statement or in respect of Exchange Notes to be sold by any Participating Broker-Dealer during the Applicable Period, as the case may be, (iii) messenger, telephone and delivery expenses, (iv) fees and disbursements of counsel for the Issuers and reasonable fees and disbursements of one special counsel for all of the sellers of Registrable Notes (exclusive of any counsel retained pursuant to Section 7 hereof), (v) fees and disbursements of all independent certified public accountants referred to in Section 5(m)(iii) hereof (including, without limitation, the expenses of any special audit and "cold comfort" letters required by or incident to such performance), (vi) Securities Act liability insurance, if the Issuers desire such insurance, (vii) fees and expenses of all other Persons retained by the Issuers, (viii) internal expenses of the Issuers (including, without limitation, all salaries and expenses of officers and employees of the Issuers performing legal or accounting duties), (ix) the expense of any annual audit, (x) the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the securities to be registered on any securities exchange, and the obtaining of a rating of the securities, in each case, if applicable, and (xi) the expenses relating to printing, word processing and distributing all Registration Statements, underwriting agreements, indenture and any other documents necessary in order to comply with this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary, each Holder shall pay all underwriting discounts and commissions of any underwriters with respect to any Registrable Notes sold by or on behalf of it.

Section 7. Indemnification

(a) The Issuers, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify and hold harmless each Holder of Registrable Notes and each Participating Broker-Dealer selling Exchange Notes during the Applicable Period, each Person, if any, who controls any such Person within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, the agents, employees, officers and directors of each Holder and each such Participating Broker-Dealer and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling Person (each, a "Participant") from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and any and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever, and any and all reasonable amounts paid in settlement of any claim or litigation (in the manner set forth in clause (c) below)) (collectively, "Losses") to which they or any of them may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Issuers shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or any preliminary prospectus, or caused by, arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the case of the Prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, provided that (i) the foregoing indemnity shall not be available to any Participant insofar as such Losses arise out of, are based upon or are caused by any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Participant furnished to the Issuers in writing by or on behalf of such Participant expressly for use therein, and (ii) that the foregoing indemnity with respect to any preliminary prospectus shall not inure to the benefit of any Participant from whom the Person asserting such Losses purchased Registrable Notes if (x) it is established in the related proceeding that such Participant failed to send or give a copy of the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if such amendment or supplement was furnished to such Participant prior to the written confirmation of such sale) to such Person with or prior to the written confirmation of such sale, if required by applicable law, and (y) the untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission was completely corrected in the Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if amended or supplemented as aforesaid) and such Prospectus does not contain any other untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission that was the subject matter of the related proceeding. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability that the Issuers may otherwise have, including, but not limited to, liability under this Agreement.

(b) Each Participant agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuers, each Person, if any, who controls the Issuers within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, and each of their respective agents, employees, officers and directors and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling Person from and against any Losses to which they or any of them may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement (or any amendment thereto) or Prospectus (as amended or supplemented if the Issuers shall have furnished any amendments or supplements thereto) or any preliminary prospectus, or caused by, arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the case of the Prospectus, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Participant furnished in writing to the Issuers by or on behalf of such Participant expressly for use therein.

action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies an indemnifying party of the commencement of such action, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in such action, and to the extent it may elect by written notice delivered to the indemnified party promptly after receiving the aforesaid notice from such indemnified party, to assume the defense of such action with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnified party or parties shall have the right to employ its or their own counsel in any such action, but the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party or parties unless (i) the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the indemnifying parties in connection with the defense of such action, (ii) the indemnifying parties shall not have employed counsel to take charge of the defense of such action within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action, or (iii) the named parties to such action (including any impleaded parties) include such indemnified party and the indemnifying party or parties (or such indemnifying parties have assumed the defense of such action), and such indemnified party or parties shall have reasonably concluded, that there may be defenses available to it or them that are different from, in addition to, or in conflict with, those available to one or all of the indemnifying parties (in which case the indemnifying parties shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party or parties), in any of which events such reasonable fees and expenses of counsel shall be borne by the indemnifying parties. In no event shall the indemnifying party be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but substantially similar or related actions arising in the same jurisdiction out of the same general allegations or circumstances. Any such separate firm for the Participants shall be designated in writing by Participants who sold a majority in interest of Registrable Notes sold by all such Participants and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Issuers and any such separate firm for the Issuers, its affiliates, officers, directors, representatives, employees and agents and such control Person of the Issuers shall be designated in writing by the Issuers and shall be reasonable acceptable to the Holders. An indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim or action effected without its written consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding and does not include a statement as to or an admission or fault, culpability or failure to act on behalf of any indemnified party.

(d) In order to provide for contribution in circumstances in which the indemnification provided for in this Section 7 is for any reason held to be unavailable from the indemnifying party, or is insufficient to hold harmless a party indemnified under this Section 7, each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such aggregate Losses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by each indemnifying party, on the one hand, and each indemnified party, on the other hand, from the sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser or the resale of the Registrable Notes by such Holder, as applicable, or (ii) if such allocation is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of each indemnified party, on the one hand, and each indemnifying party, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Issuers, on the one hand, and each Participant, on the other hand, shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as (x) the total proceeds from the sale of the Notes to the Initial Purchaser (net of discounts and commissions but before deducting expenses) received by the Issuers are to (y) the total net profit received by such Participant in connection with the sale of the Registrable Notes. The relative fault of the parties shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Issuers or such Participant and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission or alleged statement or omission.

(e) The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 7 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to above. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7, (i) in no case shall any Participant be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the net profit received by such Participant in connection with the sale of the Registrable Notes exceeds the amount of any damages that such Participant has otherwise been required to pay by reason of any untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission and (ii) no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. Any party entitled to contribution will, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action against such party in respect of which a claim for contribution may be made against another party or parties under this Section 7, notify such party or parties from whom contribution may be sought, but the omission to so notify such party or parties shall not relieve the party or parties from whom contribution may be sought from any obligation it or they may have under this Section 7 or otherwise, except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure; provided, however, that no additional notice shall be required with respect to any action for which notice has been given under this Section 7 for purposes of indemnification. Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, no party shall be liable for contribution with respect to any action or claim settled without its written consent, provided, however, that such written consent was not unreasonably withheld.

Section 8. Rules 144 and 144A

The Issuers covenant that they will file the reports required, if any, to be filed by them under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the Commission thereunder in a timely manner in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and, if at any time the Issuers are not required to file such reports, they will, upon the request of any Holder or beneficial owner of Registrable Notes, make available such information necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act. The Issuers further covenant that for so long as any Registrable Notes remain outstanding they will take such further action as any Holder of Registrable Notes may reasonably request from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Registrable Notes without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (a) Rule 144(k) and Rule 144A under the Securities Act, as such Rules may be amended from time to time, or (b) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the Commission.

Section 9. Underwritten Registrations

If any of the Registrable Notes covered by any Shelf Registration are to be sold in an underwritten offering, the investment banker or investment bankers and manager or managers that will manage the offering will be selected by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of such Registrable Notes included in such offering and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Issuers.

No Holder of Registrable Notes may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder if such Holder does not (a) agree to sell such Holder's Registrable Notes on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements and (b) complete and execute all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

Section 10. Miscellaneous

(a) No Inconsistent Agreements. Each of the Issuers have not, as of the date hereof, and shall not have, after the date of this Agreement, entered into any agreement with respect to any of its securities that is inconsistent with the rights granted to the Holders of Registrable Notes in this Agreement or otherwise conflicts with the provisions hereof. The rights granted to the Holders hereunder do not conflict with and are not inconsistent with, in any material respect, the rights granted to the holders of any of the Issuers' other issued and outstanding securities under any such agreements. The Issuers have not entered and will not enter into any agreement with respect to any of its securities which will grant to any Person piggy-back registration rights with respect to any Registration Statement.

(b) Adjustments Affecting Registrable Notes. The Issuers shall not, directly or indirectly, take any action with respect to the Registrable Notes as a class that would adversely affect the ability of the Holders of Registrable Notes to include such Registrable Notes in a registration undertaken pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Amendments and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given except pursuant to a written agreement duly signed and delivered by (I) the Issuers and (II)(A) the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Registrable Notes and (B) in circumstances that would adversely affect the Participating Broker-Dealers, the Participating Broker-Dealers holding not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Exchange Notes held by all Participating Broker-Dealers; provided, however, that Section 7 and this Section 10(c) may not be amended, modified or supplemented except pursuant to a written agreement duly signed and delivered by the Issuers and each Holder and each Participating Broker-Dealer (including any Person who was a Holder or Participating Broker-Dealer of Registrable Notes or Exchange Notes, as the case may be, disposed of pursuant to any Registration Statement) affected by any such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a waiver or consent to depart from the provisions hereof with respect to a matter that relates exclusively to the rights of Holders of Registrable Notes whose securities are being sold pursuant to a Registration Statement and that does not directly or indirectly affect, impair, limit or compromise the rights of other Holders of Registrable Notes may be given by Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Registrable Notes being sold pursuant to such Registration Statement.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications (including, without limitation, any notices or other communications to the Trustee) provided for or permitted hereunder shall be made in writing by hand-delivery, registered first-class mail, next-day air courier or telecopier:

It is hereby stipulated and declared to be the intention of the parties that they would have executed the remaining terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions without including any of such that may be hereafter declared invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable.

(j) Securities Held by the Issuers or Their Affiliates. Whenever the consent or approval of Holders of a specified percentage of Registrable Notes is required hereunder, Registrable Notes held by the Issuers or any of their affiliates (as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) shall not be counted in determining whether such consent or approval was given by the Holders of such required percentage.

(k) Third-Party Beneficiaries. Holders and beneficial owners of Registrable Notes and Participating Broker-Dealers are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement, and this Agreement may be enforced by such Persons. No other Person is intended to be, or shall be construed as, a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

(l) Attorneys' Fees. As between the parties to this Agreement, in any action or proceeding brought to enforce any provision of this Agreement, or where any provision hereof is validly asserted as a defense, the successful party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred in addition to its costs and expenses and any other available remedy.

WH CAPITAL CORPORATION

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNITY AGREEMENT is made and entered into as of February 9, 2004, by and between WH Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), and Gregory Probert ("Indemnitee"), as an "Agent" (as hereinafter defined) of the Company.

RECITALS

A. The Company recognizes that competent and experienced individuals are reluctant to serve as directors or officers of corporations unless they are protected by comprehensive liability insurance or indemnification, or both, due to increased exposure to litigation costs and risks resulting from their service to such corporations, and due to the fact that the exposure frequently bears no reasonable relationship to the compensation of such directors and officers;

B. The Company and Indemnitee are aware of the substantial growth in the number of lawsuits filed against corporate officers and directors in connection with their activities in such capacities and by reason of their status as such;

C. The Company and Indemnitee recognize that the statutes and judicial decisions regarding the duties of directors and officers are often difficult to apply, ambiguous or conflicting, and therefore fail to provide such directors and officers with adequate or reliable advance knowledge or guidance with respect to the legal risks and potential liabilities to which they may become personally exposed or information regarding the proper course of action to take in performing their duties in good faith for the Company;

D. The Company and Indemnitee recognize that plaintiffs often seek damages in such large amounts and the costs of litigation may be so enormous (whether or not the case is meritorious), that the defense and/or settlement of such litigation is often beyond the financial resources of officers and directors or far outweighs the limited benefits of serving as a director and officer of the Company;

E. The Company believes that it is unfair for its directors and officers and the directors and officers of its subsidiaries to assume the risk of huge judgments and other Expenses which may occur in cases in which the director or officer received no personal profit and in cases where the director or officer was not culpable;

F. The Company, after reasonable investigation, has determined that the liability insurance coverage presently available to the Company and its subsidiaries is inadequate, unreasonably expensive or both. The Company believes, therefore, that the interests of the Company and its stockholders would best be served by a combination of (i) such insurance as the Company or its subsidiaries may hereafter obtain and (ii) the indemnification by the Company of the directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries;

G. Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, as amended ("NRS"), empowers the Company to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents and indemnify persons who serve or served, at the request of the Company, as the directors, officers, employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise and NRS 78.751(2) further provides that the articles, bylaws or an agreement may provide that the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance;

H. NRS 78.751(3) expressly provides that the indemnification authorized by NRS 78.7502 and the advancement of expenses authorized in NRS 78.751(2) do not exclude any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement thereunder may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise;

I. In order to induce and encourage highly experienced and capable individuals to serve as an officer or director of the Company, to take the business risks necessary for the success of the Company and its subsidiaries and to otherwise promote the desirable end that such persons will resist what they consider unjustifiable lawsuits and claims made against them in connection with good faith performance of their duties to the Company, secure in the knowledge that certain expenses, costs and liabilities incurred by them in their defense of such litigation will be borne by the Company and that they will receive the maximum protection against such risks and liabilities as may be afforded by law, the Board of Directors of the Company has determined, after due consideration and investigation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the various other options available to the Company and Indemnitee in lieu hereof, that contractual indemnification as set forth herein is not only reasonable and prudent but necessary to promote and ensure the best interests of the Company, its stockholders and its subsidiaries;

J. The Company desires and has requested Indemnitee to serve or continue to serve as a director or officer of the Company and/or one or more subsidiaries of the Company, as the case may be, free from undue concern for the risks and personal liabilities arising out of or related to such services to the Company and/or one or more of its subsidiaries;

K. Indemnitee has served or is willing to serve, or continue to serve, the Company and/or one or more of its subsidiaries, provided that he or she is furnished with the indemnity provided for herein; and

L. Certain Indemnitees have recently served as an Agent (as defined herein) in reliance of the Company's promise to enter into this Agreement upon the Company's ability to do so as a Nevada corporation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above premises and the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) The term "Agent" of the Company shall include any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a predecessor corporation of the Company or was a member, manager or managing member of a predecessor limited liability company or affiliate of such limited liability company or is or was serving in any capacity at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, member, manager or fiduciary of, or in any other capacity for, another corporation or any partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust, or other enterprise.

(b) The term "Proceeding" shall include any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether brought by or in the name of the Company or otherwise, and whether of a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative nature including, but not limited to, actions, suits, investigations or proceedings brought under and/or predicated upon the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and/or their respective state counterparts and/or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, in which Indemnitee may be or may have been involved as a party or otherwise, by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was an Agent of the Company, by reason of any action taken by him or her or of any inaction on his or her part while acting as an Agent whether or not he or she is serving in such capacity at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification or reimbursement can be provided under this Agreement.

(c) The term "Expenses" shall be broadly construed and shall include all direct and indirect costs incurred, paid or accrued of any type or nature whatsoever including, without limitation,

(i) all attorneys' fees, retainers, court costs, transcripts, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses (including food and lodging expenses while traveling), duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service, freight or other transportation fees and expenses and related disbursements; (ii) all other disbursements and out-of-pocket costs; (iii) reasonable compensation for time spent by Indemnitee for which he or she is not otherwise compensated by the Company or any third party (provided the rate of compensation and estimated time involved is approved in advance by the Board of Directors), actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with either the investigation, defense or appeal of a Proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Agreement, NRS 78.7502, NRS 78.751 or otherwise; and (iv) amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee to the extent permitted by Nevada law; provided, however, that "Expenses" shall not include any judgments, fines, penalties or excise taxes imposed under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or other excise taxes or penalties actually levied against Indemnitee.

(d) References to "other enterprise" shall include, without limitation, employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include, without limitation, any excise tax assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan; and any service as an Agent with respect to any employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries, and a person who acts in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company" as referred to in this Agreement.

(e) "Independent Legal Counsel" means a law firm, member of a law firm, or attorney that is experienced in matters of corporate law and neither presently is, nor in the past five years has been, retained to represent: (i) the Company or Indemnitee in any matter material to either such party (other than with respect to matters concerning Indemnitee under this Agreement, or of other indemnitees under similar indemnification or indemnity agreements); or (ii) any other party to the Proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term "Independent Legal Counsel" shall not include any person who, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, would have a conflict of interest in representing either the Company or Indemnitee in an action to determine Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement.

2. Agreement to Serve. Unless Indemnitee is no longer an Agent, Indemnitee agrees to serve and/or continue to serve as an Agent of the Company, at his or her will or under separate agreement, as the case may be, in the capacity Indemnitee currently serves as an Agent of the Company, for so long as he or she is duly appointed or elected and qualified in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bylaws of the Company until such time as he or she tenders his or her resignation in writing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to create any right or obligation to continued employment by Indemnitee in any capacity.

3. Indemnification and Contribution. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by Nevada law and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company in effect on the date hereof or as Nevada law or the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws may from time to time be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than Nevada law and the Articles and Bylaws permitted the Company to provide before such amendment). Such indemnification shall include, without limitation, the following:

(a) Indemnity in Third Party Proceedings. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any Proceeding (other than a Proceeding by or in the name of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent of the Company or by reason of any act or inaction by Indemnitee in any such capacity, against all Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such Proceeding, if Indemnitee either is not liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, in addition had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any such Proceeding by judgment, order of court, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that Indemnitee is liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or did not act in good faith in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Company, or that, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful;

(b) Indemnity in Derivative Actions. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any Proceeding by or in the name of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that Indemnitee was or is an Agent of the Company or by reason of any act or inaction by him or her in any such capacity, against all Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such Proceeding, if Indemnitee either is not liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company;

(c) Limitations on Indemnification. No indemnification under this Paragraph 3 shall be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which Indemnitee has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after the exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that any court in which such Proceeding is brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such amounts as the court shall deem proper;

(d) Indemnification of Expenses of Successful Party. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, including the dismissal of an action without prejudice, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the investigation, defense or appeal of such Proceeding;

(e) Indemnification for Expenses of a Witness. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if and whenever he or she is a witness or is threatened to be made a witness to any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is not a party, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent or by reason of any action taken or not taken by him or her in such capacity, against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection therewith; and

(f) Contribution. If the indemnification provided in this Agreement is unavailable and may not be paid to Indemnitee for any reason other than statutory limitations set forth in applicable law, then in respect of any threatened, pending or completed Proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, inquiry or investigation), the Company shall contribute to the amount of Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by Indemnitee in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company other than Indemnitee who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be in joined in such action, suit or proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, from the transaction from which such action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, inquiry or investigation arose, and (ii) the relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company other than Indemnitee who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such action, suit or proceeding), on the one hand, and of Indemnitee, on the other, in connection with the events which resulted in such Expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement), as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault referred to above shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such Expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement). The Company agrees that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this subsection were determined by pro rata allocation or any other method of allocation that does not take account of the foregoing equitable considerations.

4. Advances of Expenses. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the Company shall advance all Expenses incurred by or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is a party or is threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was an Agent of the Company or is a witness of the Company in any Proceeding. Indemnitee hereby undertakes to repay such amounts advanced only if, and only to the extent that, it shall ultimately be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized by this Agreement. The advances to be made hereunder shall be paid by the Company to or on behalf of Indemnitee within ten calendar days following delivery of a written request therefor by Indemnitee to the Company. The request shall reasonably evidence the Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection therewith. Indemnitee's entitlement to advancement of Expenses shall include those incurred in connection with any Proceeding by Indemnitee seeking a determination or adjudication pursuant to this Agreement.

5. Independent Legal Counsel.

The Company agrees to pay the reasonable fees of the Independent Legal Counsel and to fully indemnify such counsel against any and all expenses, claims, liabilities and damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its engagement pursuant hereto.

6. Procedure for Indemnification.

(a) Promptly after receipt by Indemnitee of notice of the commencement of or the threat of commencement of any Proceeding, Indemnitee shall, if Indemnitee believes that indemnification with respect thereto may be sought from the Company under this Agreement, notify the Company in writing of the commencement or threat of commencement thereof. The written notification to the Company shall be addressed to the Board of Directors and shall include documentation or information which is necessary for the determination of entitlement to indemnification and which is reasonably available to Indemnitee. Delay in so notifying the Company shall not constitute a waiver or release by Indemnitee or of any rights hereunder. In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power.

(b) Any indemnification requested by Indemnitee under Paragraph 3 hereof shall be made no later than 60 calendar days after receipt of the written request of Indemnitee, unless a determination is made within said 60-day period that Indemnitee has not met the relevant standards for indemnification set forth in Paragraph 3 hereof (i) by the stockholders, (ii) by the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such Proceeding, (iii) if such a quorum so orders, by Independent Legal Counsel (selected by the Company and approved by Indemnitee, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) in a written opinion or (iv) in the event such a quorum is not obtainable, by Independent Legal Counsel (selected by the Company and approved by Indemnitee, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) in a written opinion. Upon making a request for indemnification, Indemnitee shall be presumed to be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement and the Company shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in reaching any contrary determination.

(c) Notwithstanding a determination under Paragraph 6(b) above that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification with respect to any specific Proceeding, Indemnitee shall have the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing Indemnitee's right to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement, which determination shall be made de novo and Indemnitee shall not be prejudiced by reason of a determination that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. The burden of proving that indemnification or advances are not appropriate shall be on the Company. Neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, its stockholders, or Independent Legal Counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification or advances are proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, its stockholders, or Independent Legal Counsel) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create any presumption that Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(d) If an initial determination is made or deemed to have been made pursuant to the terms of this Agreement that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the Company shall be bound by such determination in the absence of (i) a misrepresentation or omission of a material fact by Indemnitee in the request for indemnification or (ii) a specific finding (which has become final) by a court of competent jurisdiction that all or any part of such indemnification is expressly prohibited by law.

(e) The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses incurred in connection with any hearing or proceeding under this Paragraph 6 unless a court of competent jurisdiction finds that each of the claims and/or defenses of Indemnitee in any such proceeding was frivolous or made in bad faith.

7. Indemnity Hereunder Not Exclusive. The provisions for indemnification and advancement of Expenses contained in this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights which Indemnitee may have under any provision of law, the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, any vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, other agreements, insurance, or other financial arrangements or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while occupying his or her position as an Agent of the Company, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Paragraph 3 hereof or for the advancement of Expenses pursuant to Paragraph 4 hereof, may not be made to or on behalf of Indemnitee if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action. The indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to Indemnitee for any action taken or not taken while serving as an Agent of the Company even though Indemnitee may have ceased to serve in such capacity.

8. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by him or her in the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of a Proceeding but not entitled, however, to indemnification for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.

9. Assumption of Defense. In the event the Company shall be obligated to pay the Expenses of any Proceeding against Indemnitee, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such Proceeding, with counsel approved by Indemnitee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), upon the delivery to Indemnitee of written notice of the Company's election to do so. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by Indemnitee and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding, provided that (a) Indemnitee shall have the right to employ his or her counsel in such Proceeding at Indemnitee's expense, and (b) if (i) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been previously authorized in writing by the Company, (ii) the Company shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or (iii) the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding, then the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. The Company shall not settle any action or claim that would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnitee without Indemnitee's prior written consent. Neither the Company nor Indemnitee will unreasonably withhold its or his or her consent to any proposed settlement.

10. Liability Insurance. The Company shall, from time to time (including prior to the expiration of a Liability Insurance (as defined below) policy), make the good faith determination whether or not it is practicable for the Company to obtain and maintain a policy or policies of Liability Insurance with reputable insurance companies providing the Agents of the Company with coverage for any liability asserted against them and for Expenses and liabilities incurred by them in such capacity or arising out of their status as such, or to ensure the Company's performance of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement (collectively, for purposes of this Paragraph 10, "Liability Insurance"). Among other considerations, the Company will weigh the costs of obtaining such insurance coverage against the protection afforded by such coverage. To the extent the Company maintains Liability Insurance, Indemnitee shall be covered by such policies in such a manner as to provide Indemnitee the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Company's directors, if Indemnitee is a director; or of the Company's most favorably insured officers, if Indemnitee is not a director of the Company but is an officer; or of the Company's most favorably insured key employees, agents, or fiduciaries, if Indemnitee is not an officer or director but is a key employee, agent or fiduciary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to obtain or maintain such insurance if (a) the Company determines in good faith that (i) such insurance is not reasonably available, (ii) the premium costs for such insurance are substantially disproportionate to the amount of coverage provided, or (iii) the coverage provided by such insurance is limited by exclusions so as to provide an insufficient benefit, or (b) Indemnitee is covered by similar insurance maintained by a subsidiary or parent of the Company or other person under common control with the Company. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for Expenses or liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, or amounts paid in settlement), which have been paid directly to Indemnitee by Liability Insurance. If the Company has Liability Insurance in effect at the time the Company receives from Indemnitee any notice of the commencement of a Proceeding, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such Proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such Proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

11. Security/Financial Arrangements. To the extent requested by Indemnitee and approved by the Company (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), the Company may from time to time provide security or other financial arrangements to Indemnitee for the Company's obligations hereunder through an irrevocable bank line of credit, funded trust, other collateral or other financial arrangement. Any such security or other financial arrangement, once provided to Indemnitee, may not be revoked or released without the prior written consent of Indemnitee.

12. Exceptions to Indemnification. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement:

(a) To indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except (i) with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any law or otherwise as required under NRS 78.751 or (ii) in specific cases if the Board of Directors has approved the initiation or bringing of such proceedings or claims;

(b) To indemnify Indemnitee for any Expenses incurred by Indemnitee with respect to any proceeding instituted by Indemnitee to enforce or interpret this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnitee in such proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous;

(c) To indemnify Indemnitee under this Agreement for any amounts paid in settlement of a Proceeding effected without the Company's written consent; or

(d) To indemnify Indemnitee on account of any Proceeding with respect to (i) remuneration paid to Indemnitee if it is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that such remuneration was in violation of law, (ii) which final judgment is rendered against Indemnitee for an accounting of profits made from the purchase or sale by Indemnitee of securities of the Company pursuant to the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the provisions of Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 or similar provisions of any federal, state or local statute, or (iii) which it is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that Indemnitee defrauded or stole from the Company or converted to his or her own personal use and benefit business or properties of the Company or was otherwise knowingly dishonest.

13. Duration and Interpretation of Agreement. It is understood that the parties hereto intend this Agreement to be interpreted and enforced so as to provide indemnification to Indemnitee to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law. This Agreement shall continue so long as Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent and shall be applicable to Proceedings commenced or continued after execution of this Agreement, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after such execution.

14. Severability. If any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraphs of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and (b) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraph of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provisions held invalid, illegal or unenforceable and to give effect to Paragraph 13 hereof.

15. Modification and Waiver. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by both of the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any provision hereof (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver.

16. Successor and Assigns. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and his or her spouse, assigns, heirs, devisees, executors, administrators and other legal representatives.

17. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be made in writing and shall be deemed properly delivered when (i) delivered personally or by messenger (including air courier), or (ii) by the mailing of such notice to the party entitled thereto, registered or certified mail, postage prepaid to the parties at the following addresses (or to such other addresses designated in writing by one party to the other):

Company:	WH Capital Corporation 1800 Century Park East Los Angeles, CA 90067 Attention: Vicki Tuchman
Indemnitee:	Gregory Probert 1800 Century Park East Los Angeles, CA 90067

18. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada.

19. Consent of Jurisdiction. The Company and Indemnitee each hereby irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Nevada for all purposes in connection with any action or Proceeding which arises out of or relates to this Agreement and agree that any action instituted under this Agreement shall be brought only in the state courts of the State of Nevada.

20. Subrogation. In the event of payment under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee, who shall execute all documents required and shall do all acts that may be necessary to secure such rights and to enable the Company effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights.

21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but both of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Indemnity Agreement as of the date first above written.

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNITY AGREEMENT is made and entered into as of February 9, 2004, by and between WH Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), and Brett R. Chapman ("Indemnitee"), as an "Agent" (as hereinafter defined) of the Company.

RECITALS

A. The Company recognizes that competent and experienced individuals are reluctant to serve as directors or officers of corporations unless they are protected by comprehensive liability insurance or indemnification, or both, due to increased exposure to litigation costs and risks resulting from their service to such corporations, and due to the fact that the exposure frequently bears no reasonable relationship to the compensation of such directors and officers;

B. The Company and Indemnitee are aware of the substantial growth in the number of lawsuits filed against corporate officers and directors in connection with their activities in such capacities and by reason of their status as such;

C. The Company and Indemnitee recognize that the statutes and judicial decisions regarding the duties of directors and officers are often difficult to apply, ambiguous or conflicting, and therefore fail to provide such directors and officers with adequate or reliable advance knowledge or guidance with respect to the legal risks and potential liabilities to which they may become personally exposed or information regarding the proper course of action to take in performing their duties in good faith for the Company;

D. The Company and Indemnitee recognize that plaintiffs often seek damages in such large amounts and the costs of litigation may be so enormous (whether or not the case is meritorious), that the defense and/or settlement of such litigation is often beyond the financial resources of officers and directors or far outweighs the limited benefits of serving as a director and officer of the Company;

E. The Company believes that it is unfair for its directors and officers and the directors and officers of its subsidiaries to assume the risk of huge judgments and other Expenses which may occur in cases in which the director or officer received no personal profit and in cases where the director or officer was not culpable;

F. The Company, after reasonable investigation, has determined that the liability insurance coverage presently available to the Company and its subsidiaries is inadequate, unreasonably expensive or both. The Company believes, therefore, that the interests of the Company and its stockholders would best be served by a combination of (i) such insurance as the Company or its subsidiaries may hereafter obtain and (ii) the indemnification by the Company of the directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries;

G. Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, as amended ("NRS"), empowers the Company to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents and indemnify persons who serve or served, at the request of the Company, as the directors, officers, employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise and NRS 78.751(2) further provides that the articles, bylaws or an agreement may provide that the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance;

H. NRS 78.751(3) expressly provides that the indemnification authorized by NRS 78.7502 and the advancement of expenses authorized in NRS 78.751(2) do not exclude any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement thereunder may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise;

I. In order to induce and encourage highly experienced and capable individuals to serve as an officer or director of the Company, to take the business risks necessary for the success of the Company and its subsidiaries and to otherwise promote the desirable end that such persons will resist what they consider unjustifiable lawsuits and claims made against them in connection with good faith performance of their duties to the Company, secure in the knowledge that certain expenses, costs and liabilities incurred by them in their defense of such litigation will be borne by the Company and that they will receive the maximum protection against such risks and liabilities as may be afforded by law, the Board of Directors of the Company has determined, after due consideration and investigation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the various other options available to the Company and Indemnitee in lieu hereof, that contractual indemnification as set forth herein is not only reasonable and prudent but necessary to promote and ensure the best interests of the Company, its stockholders and its subsidiaries;

J. The Company desires and has requested Indemnitee to serve or continue to serve as a director or officer of the Company and/or one or more subsidiaries of the Company, as the case may be, free from undue concern for the risks and personal liabilities arising out of or related to such services to the Company and/or one or more of its subsidiaries;

K. Indemnitee has served or is willing to serve, or continue to serve, the Company and/or one or more of its subsidiaries, provided that he or she is furnished with the indemnity provided for herein; and

L. Certain Indemnitees have recently served as an Agent (as defined herein) in reliance of the Company's promise to enter into this Agreement upon the Company's ability to do so as a Nevada corporation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above premises and the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) The term "Agent" of the Company shall include any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a predecessor corporation of the Company or was a member, manager or managing member of a predecessor limited liability company or affiliate of such limited liability company or is or was serving in any capacity at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, member, manager or fiduciary of, or in any other capacity for, another corporation or any partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, trust, or other enterprise.

(b) The term "Proceeding" shall include any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether brought by or in the name of the Company or otherwise, and whether of a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative nature including, but not limited to, actions, suits, investigations or proceedings brought under and/or predicated upon the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and/or their respective state counterparts and/or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, in which Indemnitee may be or may have been involved as a party or otherwise, by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was an Agent of the Company, by reason of any action taken by him or her or of any inaction on his or her part while acting as an Agent whether or not he or she is serving in such capacity at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification or reimbursement can be provided under this Agreement.

(c) The term "Expenses" shall be broadly construed and shall include all direct and indirect costs incurred, paid or accrued of any type or nature whatsoever including, without limitation, (i) all attorneys' fees, retainers, court costs, transcripts, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses (including food and lodging expenses while traveling), duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service, freight or other transportation fees and expenses and related disbursements; (ii) all other disbursements and out-of-pocket costs; (iii) reasonable compensation for time spent by Indemnitee for which he or she is not otherwise compensated by the Company or any third party (provided the rate of compensation and estimated time involved is approved in advance by the Board of Directors), actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with either the investigation, defense or appeal of a Proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Agreement, NRS 78.7502, NRS 78.751 or otherwise; and (iv) amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of Indemnitee to the extent permitted by Nevada law; provided, however, that "Expenses" shall not include any judgments, fines, penalties or excise taxes imposed under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or other excise taxes or penalties actually levied against Indemnitee.

(d) References to "other enterprise" shall include, without limitation, employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include, without limitation, any excise tax assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan; and any service as an Agent with respect to any employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries, and a person who acts in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company" as referred to in this Agreement.

(e) "Independent Legal Counsel" means a law firm, member of a law firm, or attorney that is experienced in matters of corporate law and neither presently is, nor in the past five years has been, retained to represent: (i) the Company or Indemnitee in any matter material to either such party (other than with respect to matters concerning Indemnitee under this Agreement, or of other indemnitees under similar indemnification or indemnity agreements); or (ii) any other party to the Proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term "Independent Legal Counsel" shall not include any person who, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, would have a conflict of interest in representing either the Company or Indemnitee in an action to determine Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement.

2. Agreement to Serve. Unless Indemnitee is no longer an Agent, Indemnitee agrees to serve and/or continue to serve as an Agent of the Company, at his or her will or under separate agreement, as the case may be, in the capacity Indemnitee currently serves as an Agent of the Company, for so long as he or she is duly appointed or elected and qualified in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bylaws of the Company until such time as he or she tenders his or her resignation in writing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to create any right or obligation to continued employment by Indemnitee in any capacity.

3. Indemnification and Contribution. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by Nevada law and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company in effect on the date hereof or as Nevada law or the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws may from time to time be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than Nevada law and the Articles and Bylaws permitted the Company to provide before such amendment). Such indemnification shall include, without limitation, the following:

(a) Indemnity in Third Party Proceedings. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any Proceeding (other than a Proceeding by or in the name of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent of the Company or by reason of any act or inaction by Indemnitee in any such capacity, against all Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such Proceeding, if Indemnitee either is not liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, in addition had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any such Proceeding by judgment, order of court, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that Indemnitee is liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or did not act in good faith in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Company, or that, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful;

(b) Indemnity in Derivative Actions. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to or otherwise involved in any Proceeding by or in the name of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that Indemnitee was or is an Agent of the Company or by reason of any act or inaction by him or her in any such capacity, against all Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such Proceeding, if Indemnitee either is not liable pursuant to NRS 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company;

(c) Limitations on Indemnification. No indemnification under this Paragraph 3 shall be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which Indemnitee has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after the exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the Company or for amounts paid in settlement to the Company, unless and only to the extent that any court in which such Proceeding is brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such amounts as the court shall deem proper;

(d) Indemnification of Expenses of Successful Party. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, including the dismissal of an action without prejudice, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the investigation, defense or appeal of such Proceeding;

(e) Indemnification for Expenses of a Witness. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if and whenever he or she is a witness or is threatened to be made a witness to any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is not a party, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent or by reason of any action taken or not taken by him or her in such capacity, against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection therewith; and law, then in respect of any threatened, pending or completed Proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, inquiry or investigation), the Company shall contribute to the amount of Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by Indemnitee in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company other than Indemnitee who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be in joined in such action, suit or proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, from the transaction from which such action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, inquiry or investigation arose, and (ii) the relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company other than Indemnitee who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such action, suit or proceeding), on the one hand, and of Indemnitee, on the other, in connection with the events which resulted in such Expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement), as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault referred to above shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such Expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement). The Company agrees that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this subsection were determined by pro rata allocation or any other method of allocation that does not take account of the foregoing equitable considerations.

4. Advances of Expenses. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the Company shall advance all Expenses incurred by or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is a party or is threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was an Agent of the Company or is a witness of the Company in any Proceeding. Indemnitee hereby undertakes to repay such amounts advanced only if, and only to the extent that, it shall ultimately be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized by this Agreement. The advances to be made hereunder shall be paid by the Company to or on behalf of Indemnitee within ten calendar days following delivery of a written request therefor by Indemnitee to the Company. The request shall reasonably evidence the Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection therewith. Indemnitee's entitlement to advancement of Expenses shall include those incurred in connection with any Proceeding by Indemnitee seeking a determination or adjudication pursuant to this Agreement.

5. Independent Legal Counsel.

The Company agrees to pay the reasonable fees of the Independent Legal Counsel and to fully indemnify such counsel against any and all expenses, claims, liabilities and damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its engagement pursuant hereto.

6. Procedure for Indemnification.

(a) Promptly after receipt by Indemnitee of notice of the commencement of or the threat of commencement of any Proceeding, Indemnitee shall, if Indemnitee believes that indemnification with respect thereto may be sought from the Company under this Agreement, notify the Company in writing of the commencement or threat of commencement thereof. The written notification to the Company shall be addressed to the Board of Directors and shall include documentation or information which is necessary for the determination of entitlement to indemnification and which is reasonably available to Indemnitee. Delay in so notifying the Company shall not constitute a waiver or release by Indemnitee or of any rights hereunder. In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power.

(b) Any indemnification requested by Indemnitee under Paragraph 3 hereof shall be made no later than 60 calendar days after receipt of the written request of Indemnitee, unless a determination is made within said 60-day period that Indemnitee has not met the relevant standards for indemnification set forth in Paragraph 3 hereof (i) by the stockholders, (ii) by the Board of Directors of the Company by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such Proceeding, (iii) if such a quorum so orders, by Independent Legal Counsel (selected by the Company and approved by Indemnitee, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) in a written opinion or (iv) in the event such a quorum is not obtainable, by Independent Legal Counsel (selected by the Company and approved by Indemnitee, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) in a written opinion. Upon making a request for indemnification, Indemnitee shall be presumed to be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement and the Company shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in reaching any contrary determination.

(c) Notwithstanding a determination under Paragraph 6(b) above that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification with respect to any specific Proceeding, Indemnitee shall have the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing Indemnitee's right to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement, which determination shall be made de novo and Indemnitee shall not be prejudiced by reason of a determination that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. The burden of proving that indemnification or advances are not appropriate shall be on the Company. Neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, its stockholders, or Independent Legal Counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification or advances are proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, its stockholders, or Independent Legal Counsel) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create any presumption that Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(d) If an initial determination is made or deemed to have been made pursuant to the terms of this Agreement that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the Company shall be bound by such determination in the absence of (i) a misrepresentation or omission of a material fact by Indemnitee in the request for indemnification or (ii) a specific finding (which has become final) by a court of competent jurisdiction that all or any part of such indemnification is expressly prohibited by law.

(e) The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses incurred in connection with any hearing or proceeding under this Paragraph 6 unless a court of competent jurisdiction finds that each of the claims and/or defenses of Indemnitee in any such proceeding was frivolous or made in bad faith.

7. Indemnity Hereunder Not Exclusive. The provisions for indemnification and advancement of Expenses contained in this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights which Indemnitee may have under any provision of law, the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, any vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, other agreements, insurance, or other financial arrangements or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while occupying his or her position as an Agent of the Company, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Paragraph 3 hereof or for the advancement of Expenses pursuant to Paragraph 4 hereof, may not be made to or on behalf of Indemnitee if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action. The indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to Indemnitee for any action taken or not taken while serving as an Agent of the Company even though Indemnitee may have ceased to serve in such capacity.

8. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the Expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by him or her in the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of a Proceeding but not entitled, however, to indemnification for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.

9. Assumption of Defense. In the event the Company shall be obligated to pay the Expenses of any Proceeding against Indemnitee, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such Proceeding, with counsel approved by Indemnitee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), upon the delivery to Indemnitee of written notice of the Company's election to do so. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by Indemnitee and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding, provided that (a) Indemnitee shall have the right to employ his or her counsel in such Proceeding at Indemnitee's expense, and (b) if (i) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been previously authorized in writing by the Company, (ii) the Company shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or (iii) the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding, then the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. The Company shall not settle any action or claim that would impose any penalty or limitation on Indemnitee without Indemnitee's prior written consent. Neither the Company nor Indemnitee will unreasonably withhold its or his or her consent to any proposed settlement.

10. Liability Insurance. The Company shall, from time to time (including prior to the expiration of a Liability Insurance (as defined below) policy), make the good faith determination whether or not it is practicable for the Company to obtain and maintain a policy or policies of Liability Insurance with reputable insurance companies providing the Agents of the Company with coverage for any liability asserted against them and for Expenses and liabilities incurred by them in such capacity or arising out of their status as such, or to ensure the Company's performance of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement (collectively, for purposes of this Paragraph 10, "Liability Insurance"). Among other considerations, the Company will weigh the costs of obtaining such insurance coverage against the protection afforded by such coverage. To the extent the Company maintains Liability Insurance, Indemnitee shall be covered by such policies in such a manner as to provide Indemnitee the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Company's directors, if Indemnitee is a director; or of the Company's most favorably insured officers, if Indemnitee is not a director of the Company but is an officer; or of the Company's most favorably insured key employees, agents, or fiduciaries, if Indemnitee is not an officer or director but is a key employee, agent or fiduciary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to obtain or maintain such insurance if (a) the Company determines in good faith that (i) such insurance is not reasonably available, (ii) the premium costs for such insurance are substantially disproportionate to the amount of coverage provided, or (iii) the coverage provided by such insurance is limited by exclusions so as to provide an insufficient benefit, or (b) Indemnitee is covered by similar insurance maintained by a subsidiary or parent of the Company or other person under common control with the Company. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for Expenses or liabilities (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, or amounts paid in settlement), which have been paid directly to Indemnitee by Liability Insurance. If the Company has Liability Insurance in effect at the time the Company receives from Indemnitee any notice of the commencement of a Proceeding, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such Proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such Proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

11. Security/Financial Arrangements. To the extent requested by Indemnitee and approved by the Company (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), the Company may from time to time provide security or other financial arrangements to Indemnitee for the Company's obligations hereunder through an irrevocable bank line of credit, funded trust, other collateral or other financial arrangement. Any such security or other financial arrangement, once provided to Indemnitee, may not be revoked or released without the prior written consent of Indemnitee.

12. Exceptions to Indemnification. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement:

(a) To indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except (i) with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any law or otherwise as required under NRS 78.751 or (ii) in specific cases if the Board of Directors has approved the initiation or bringing of such proceedings or claims;

(b) To indemnify Indemnitee for any Expenses incurred by Indemnitee with respect to any proceeding instituted by Indemnitee to enforce or interpret this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnitee in such proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous;

(c) To indemnify Indemnitee under this Agreement for any amounts paid in settlement of a Proceeding effected without the Company's written consent; or

(d) To indemnify Indemnitee on account of any Proceeding with respect to (i) remuneration paid to Indemnitee if it is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that such remuneration was in violation of law, (ii) which final judgment is rendered against Indemnitee for an accounting of profits made from the purchase or sale by Indemnitee of securities of the Company pursuant to the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the provisions of Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 or similar provisions of any federal, state or local statute, or (iii) which it is determined by final judgment or other final adjudication that Indemnitee defrauded or stole from the Company or converted to his or her own personal use and benefit business or properties of the Company or was otherwise knowingly dishonest.

13. Duration and Interpretation of Agreement. It is understood that the parties hereto intend this Agreement to be interpreted and enforced so as to provide indemnification to Indemnitee to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law. This Agreement shall continue so long as Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an Agent and shall be applicable to Proceedings commenced or continued after execution of this Agreement, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after such execution.

14. Severability. If any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraphs of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and (b) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraph of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provisions held invalid, illegal or unenforceable and to give effect to Paragraph 13 hereof.

15. Modification and Waiver. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by both of the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any provision hereof (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver.

16. Successor and Assigns. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and his or her spouse, assigns, heirs, devisees, executors, administrators and other legal representatives.

17. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be made in writing and shall be deemed properly delivered when (i) delivered personally or by messenger (including air courier), or (ii) by the mailing of such notice to the party entitled thereto, registered or certified mail, postage prepaid to the parties at the following addresses (or to such other addresses designated in writing by one party to the other):

Company:	WH Capital Corporation 1800 Century Park East Los Angeles, CA 90067 Attention: Vicki Tuchman
Indemnitee:	Brett R. Chapman 1800 Century Park East Los Angeles, CA 90067

18. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada.

19. Consent of Jurisdiction. The Company and Indemnitee each hereby irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Nevada for all purposes in connection with any action or Proceeding which arises out of or relates to this Agreement and agree that any action instituted under this Agreement shall be brought only in the state courts of the State of Nevada.

20. Subrogation. In the event of payment under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee, who shall execute all documents required and shall do all acts that may be necessary to secure such rights and to enable the Company effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights.

21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but both of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Indemnity Agreement as of the date first above written.

WHEREAS, Employee is a party to that certain Shareholders' Agreement, dated as of July 31, 2002, by and among WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. and certain of its shareholders (the "Shareholders Agreement");

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to provide for a customary mutual general release with respect to any disputes or claims which may exist between the Parties.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises contained in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment Agreement; Consulting Agreement.

a) The Parties agree that Employee shall remain employed pursuant to the Employment Agreement through June 30, 2004, but that from and after May 1, 2004 Employee shall no longer be required to render her normal services for the Company pursuant to the Employment Agreement or any other agreement; provided, however, that Employee shall be available on the Company's reasonable request to provide advice and counsel not to exceed twenty (20) hours per month.

b) Employee will remain bound by Sections 5, 6, and 7 of the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, to the extent provided in such sections.

c) Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Employee and Company shall enter into a consulting agreement (the "Consulting Agreement"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

2. Shareholders' Agreement.

a) Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement is not intended to and shall not affect the rights and obligations of the parties pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, nor pursuant to the Side Letter Agreement which made certain modifications to the Shareholders' Agreement with respect to certain Purchased Shares (as defined in the Side Letter Agreement).

b) The Parties acknowledge and agree that Employee's employment with the Company is being terminated at Employee's request due to her "Retirement" within the meaning of Section 3(d) of the Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement.

3. Non Statutory Stock Option Agreement.

Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement is not intended to and shall not affect the rights and obligations of the parties pursuant to the Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement.

4. Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement.

a) Employee agrees and promises not to disclose the substance, contents, amounts or terms of this Agreement, except to Employee's legal, tax or financial advisors, Employee's immediate family or in response to an inquiry by federal or state tax authorities or other agencies. In the event Employee reveals any material terms of this Agreement as permitted in this Paragraph 4(a), said person or persons to whom such information is disclosed shall be instructed that this is a private agreement and that the terms of this Agreement may not be revealed to any other person for any reason whatsoever. Employee acknowledges that her promises of confidentiality, as set forth herein, are material and essential consideration for the Company's promises and agreements herein.

b) Employee agrees not to make any public statement, remark or comment regarding the Company and its Affiliates and its and their employees, directors, officers, distributors, or shareholders, or its or their products or services, other than the substance of the following: "I have decided to retire after 24 years with the Company. I have enjoyed my years and wish the Company, its employees and distributors the best success in the future."

c) The Company and its Affiliates agree not to make any public statement, remark or comment regarding the Employee other than the substance of the following: "Carol has been a valuable employee for over 24 years. She has decided to retire and the Company thanks her for her years of dedicated service and wishes her well."

d) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Parties from: (i) disclosing information or documents in response to a compelled process of law, including, without limitation, production in response to any subpoena or in response to a discovery request issued in any administrative or legal proceeding in which one of the Parties is a party; provided, however, that to the extent Employee is the subject of any such discovery request or subpoena, Employee will immediately notify the Company's legal department, for the purpose of allowing the Company to assert its rights to confidentiality under this Agreement and/or the law; (ii) responding truthfully to any inquiry initiated by a government agency or entity; (iii) disclosing information in proceedings to enforce the terms of this Agreement; (iv) disclosing information necessary to prosecute or defend actions in which one of the Parties is a named party; or (v) testifying truthfully or providing truthful information under oath in any legal, administrative or other proceeding.

a) Subject to Paragraph 5(c), for and in consideration of the promises and commitments set forth herein, Employee on behalf of herself, her heirs, assigns and successors, covenants not to sue as to claims released herein, and fully releases and discharges the Company and its and their parent(s), affiliates, successors, divisions, assigns, distributors, subsidiaries, together with its or their past and present directors, officers, agents, representatives, consultants, insurers, attorneys, current and previous employees, and shareholders (collectively, "Employer Released Parties"), from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, rights, liens, agreements, contracts, covenants, actions, suits, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, damages, judgments, orders, liabilities and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Employee may have or claim to have against the Employer Released Parties prior to the date of execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation, any and all rights and claims based on, arising out of, or in connection with Employee's employment or separation of employment with or services for the Company, claims arising out of the Employment Agreement, or any other transactions, occurrences, acts or omissions or any loss, damage or injury whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, resulting from any act or omission by or on the part of the Employer Released Parties, committed or omitted prior to the date of this Agreement. This release includes, but is not limited to, any and all rights and claims whether based on contract (implied or express) or any federal, state or local law, statute or regulation (collectively, the "Released Claims"). By way of example, and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Released Claims shall include any claims based upon or related to federal or state discrimination laws, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the California Labor Code, any and all tort claims, including, without limitation, negligence, retaliation, violation of public policy, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, invasion of privacy or defamation.

b) For and in consideration of Employee's commitments and promises, the Company, on behalf of itself, its parent and subsidiary corporations, and its affiliates, successors and assigns, covenants not to sue as to any claims released by this Agreement and fully releases and discharges Employee and her heirs, successors, assigns, representatives and her estate (collectively, the "Employee Releasees"), from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, rights, liens, agreements, contracts, covenants, actions, suits, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, damages, judgments, orders, liabilities, and causes of action, known or unknown, which the Company may have or claim to have against the Employee Releasees prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation, any and all rights and claims arising out of Employee's employment or separation of employment with the Company, claims arising under the Employment Agreement or any other transactions, occurrences, acts or omissions or any loss, damage or injury whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, resulting from any act or omission by or on the part of the Employee Releasees, committed or omitted prior to the date of the Agreement, including, without limitation, any and all rights and claims whether based on tort, contract (implied or express) or any federal, state or local law, statute or regulation (collectively, the "Company Claims"). By way of example, and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Company Claims shall include any claims for breach of contract or breach of fiduciary duty and any and all tort claims including, without limitation, negligence or defamation.

c) The Released Claims and the Company Claims shall be collectively referred to herein as the "Released Matters." Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties expressly agree that nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver or release of the following: (i) claims by either Party to enforce the terms of this Agreement or the Consulting Agreement, (ii) claims for reimbursement or payment from any Company health, vision or medical plan or other employee benefit plan in which Employee and/or her family members have participated, and (iii) Employee's rights under Section 18 of the Employment Agreement.

d) Except for the obligations created by or arising from this Agreement and the claims identified in Paragraph 5(c) above, the Parties understand that this is a full and final release covering all unknown and unanticipated injuries, debts, claims, or damages to either the Employer

Released Parties or the Employee Releasees which may have arisen or may arise in connection with any act or omission by the parties released herein prior to the date of execution of this Agreement. For that reason, the Parties waive any and all rights or benefits which they may have pursuant to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides as follows:

e) Except as otherwise specifically set forth in this Agreement, the Parties waive any and all rights they have or may have under California Civil Code Section 1542, and/or any similar provision of law or successor statute to it, with respect to the Released Matters. In connection with this waiver, the Parties acknowledge that they are aware that they may hereafter discover claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Nevertheless, the Parties intend by this Agreement, and with and upon the advice of their own independently selected counsel and/or other qualified representative, to release fully, finally and forever all Released Matters under this Agreement. In furtherance of such intention, the releases set forth in this Agreement shall be and shall remain in effect as full and complete releases notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different claims or facts relevant hereto.

f) Pursuant to the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 626(f), Employee acknowledges that: (a) Employee has read this Agreement; (b) Employee has been provided a full and ample opportunity to study it; (c) Employee is hereby advised in writing to consult with an attorney prior to signing this Agreement; (d) Employee has been advised that Employee has twenty-one (21) days from the date this Agreement is presented to her in which to consider this Agreement and whether Employee will enter into it; (e) Employee has seven (7) days following her execution of this Agreement to revoke the Agreement by physical delivery of timely notice of her revocation to the General Counsel of the Company ("Revocation Period"); (f) Employee is waiving rights Employee may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), 29 U.S.C. § 621 et. seq.; (g) Employee is receiving consideration for this waiver beyond that to which Employee is otherwise entitled; and (h) Employee is signing this Agreement voluntarily with full knowledge that it is intended, to the maximum extent permitted by law, as a complete and final release and waiver of any and all claims. Any revocation shall be considered timely only if it is received by the General Counsel of the Company by 5:00 p.m. on the seventh (7th) day following the date upon which Employee executes this Agreement. To the extent Employee revokes this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 5(f), this Agreement is void, and the Company will have no obligation or responsibilities to Employee under this Agreement.

a) The Parties represent and warrant that they have not filed or initiated any action, claim, charge, complaint or suit of any kind against one another and, in Employee's case, against any Employer Released Party, and the Parties further agree that they will not file or initiate any claim, action, charge, complaint or suit of any kind against one another based on any claims released herein. The Parties agree that they will not voluntarily assist, encourage, or cooperate with any other person in instituting or prosecuting any claim or action against one another, and Employee further agrees that Employee will not assist, encourage, permit or authorize any other person to institute a claim or action on his behalf or as part of a class action against the Company or its Affiliates, or any Employer Released Party that relates in any way to the matters released in this Agreement.

b) Any and all issues, disputes and questions concerning the construction, validity, interpretation and enforceability of this Agreement or the rights and obligations of the Parties hereunder (an "arbitrable dispute") shall be resolved exclusively by final and binding arbitration in Los Angeles, California, before a single experienced arbitrator licensed to practice law in California and selected in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. This shall be the exclusive remedy for any such claim or dispute, and the Company shall pay all administrative and arbitrator's costs and fees associated with any such arbitration proceeding. Any such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with California law regarding arbitration of employment claims. All substantive and procedural law will apply in the arbitration as if the Parties were in Court. The Arbitrator shall issue a Statement of Decision setting forth the factual and legal basis for the Arbitrator's decision sufficiently detailed to be reviewed by a Court of law. In any arbitration hereunder, the prevailing Party shall be entitled, in addition to other remedies, to recover attorneys' fees and costs of suit. Should any Party to this Agreement hereafter institute any legal action or administrative proceeding against the other with respect to any claim waived by this Agreement or pursue any arbitrable dispute by any method other than said arbitration, the responding Party shall be entitled to recover from the initiating party all damages, costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred as a result of such action. The arbitration decision may be enforced by a petition to the Superior Court for confirmation and enforcement of the award. The Arbitrator shall have the power to enter temporary restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions. Prior to the appointment of the Arbitrator or for remedies beyond the jurisdiction of an arbitrator, at any time, either of the Parties may seek pendente lite relief in a court of competent jurisdiction in Los Angeles County, California without thereby waiving its right to arbitration of the dispute or controversy under this section. All arbitration proceedings shall be closed to the public and confidential and all records relating thereto shall be permanently sealed, except as necessary to obtain court confirmation of the arbitration award. The provisions of this Paragraph 6 shall supersede any inconsistent provisions of any prior agreement between the parties. If any part of this arbitration provision is deemed to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal, the balance of this arbitration provision shall remain in effect and shall be construed in accordance with its terms as if the invalid, unenforceable, illegal or conflicting provision were not contained herein.

c) It is understood and agreed that this is a compromise settlement of potential disputed claims, and the furnishing of the consideration for this Agreement shall not be deemed or construed as an admission of liability, responsibility or wrongdoing by any party at any time for any purpose, all of which liability, responsibility or wrongdoing are hereby denied. It is further agreed and understood that this Agreement is being entered into solely for the purpose of avoiding further expense and inconvenience.

d) The Parties hereby agree to make, execute and deliver such other instruments or documents, and to do or cause to be done such further or additional acts, as reasonably may be necessary to effectuate the purposes or to implement the terms of this Agreement.

e) The Company warrants and represents that the individual executing this Agreement on its behalf has all necessary authority to do so and that the Company has taken all necessary steps and fulfilled all conditions to make this Agreement binding upon the Company.

7. Miscellaneous.

a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of California without regard to any conflict or choice of law rules that would result in the application of any other state's law.

b) Should any provision of this Agreement or any portion hereof, be declared or be determined by any court to be illegal or invalid, the validity of the remaining parts, terms or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal or invalid part, term or provision shall be automatically conformed to the law, if possible, or deemed not to be part of this Agreement.

c) The Parties to this Agreement acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement voluntarily, without coercion and based upon their judgment and not in reliance upon any representation or promises made by the other party other than those contained or referred to herein. This Agreement incorporates and constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings and agreements between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and the Parties each respectively acknowledge and agree that they have not relied on any representations or promises in connection with this Agreement not contained or referred to herein. The Parties have read this Agreement, and they are fully aware of its contents and of its legal effect and acknowledge that all promises, waivers and agreements herein are knowing and voluntary. In the event that the Company shall exercise its rights under this Paragraph 12 to repurchase such shares, the purchase price per share shall be an amount equal to the relevant exercise price for such shares; provided, however, that if Consultant shall have already sold the shares she acquired upon the exercise of the Options, then Consultant shall promptly pay to the Company an amount per share equal to the difference between the sale price and the relevant exercise price for such shares.

13. Injunctive Relief; Profits. Consultant understands that monetary damages alone will not be sufficient to avoid or compensate for a breach of any of the terms of Sections 8, 9, 10, or 11 and that injunctive relief would be appropriate to prevent any such actual or threatened breach. Such right to obtain injunctive relief may be exercised, at the option of the Company, concurrently with, prior to, after, or in lieu of, the exercise of any other rights or remedies which the Company may have as a result of any such breach or threatened breach. Consultant shall account for and pay over to the Company all compensation, profits and other benefits, after taxes, inuring to Consultant's benefit which are derived or received by Consultant or any of her Affiliates resulting from any action or transaction constituting a breach of any term of Sections 8, 9, 10, or 11.

14. Status as Consultant.

14.1 Intention of the Parties. It is mutually understood and agreed that Consultant, while performing all responsibilities under this Agreement, is and shall at all times be, act, function, and perform all services and responsibilities in the legal capacity of an independent contractor. It is mutually understood and agreed that no work, act, commission or omission of any act by Consultant or the Company pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be construed to make or render Consultant an employee of the Company. particular expenditure if Consultant does not submit to the Company sufficient documentation evidencing such expenditure.

(c) All inventions, improvements, trade secrets, reports, manuals, computer programs, tapes and other ideas and materials developed or invented by Executive during the period of his employment, either solely or in collaboration with others, which relate to the actual or anticipated business or research of the Company or any of its affiliates which result from or are suggested by any work Executive may do for the Company or any of its affiliates or which result from use of the Company's or any of its affiliates' premises or property (collectively, the "Developments") shall be the sole and exclusive property the Company and its affiliates, as

5. Non-Solicitation. Executive acknowledges that in the course of his employment for the Company he will become familiar with the Company's and its affiliates' trade secrets and other confidential information concerning the Company and its affiliates. Accordingly, Executive agrees that, during Executive's employment and for a period of twenty-four (24) months immediately thereafter (the "Non-Solicitation Period"), he will not directly or indirectly through another entity (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee or Distributor of the Company or any of its affiliates to leave the employment of, or cease to maintain its distributor relationship with, the Company or such affiliate, or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company or any such affiliate and any employee or Distributor thereof, (ii) hire any person who was an employee of the Company or any of its affiliates at any time during the Non-Solicitation Period or enter into a distributor relationship with any person or entity who was a Distributor of the Company or any of its affiliates at any time during the Non-Solicitation Period, (iii) induce or attempt to induce any Distributor, supplier, licensor, licensee or other business relation of the Company or any of its affiliates to cease doing business with the Company or such affiliate, or in any way interfere with the relationship between such Distributor, supplier, licensor, licensee or business relation and the Company or any of its affiliates or (iv) use any trade secrets or other confidential information of the Company or any of its affiliates to directly or indirectly participate in any means or manner in any competitive business, wherever located.

6. Injunctive Relief. Executive and the Company (a) intend that the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 be and become valid and enforceable, (b) acknowledge and agree that the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the business of the Company and its affiliates and (c) agree that any violation of Sections 5 or 6 will result in irreparable injury to the Company and its affiliates, the exact amount of which will be difficult to ascertain and the remedies at law for which will not be reasonable or adequate compensation to the Company and its affiliates for such a violation. Accordingly, Executive agrees that if Executive violates or threatens to violate the provisions of Sections 5 or 6, in addition to any other remedy which may be available at law or in equity, the Company shall be entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive relief, without posting bond or other security, and without the necessity of proving actual damages. In addition, in the event of a violation or threatened violation by Executive of Sections 5 or 6 of this Agreement, the Non-Solicitation Period will be tolled until such violation or threatened violation has been duly cured. If, at the time of enforcement of Sections 5 or 6 of this Agreement, a court holds that the restrictions stated therein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties hereto agree that the maximum period, scope or geographical area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated period, scope or area.

7. Assignment; Successors and Assigns. Executive agrees that he shall not assign, sell, transfer, delegate or otherwise dispose of, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, any rights or obligations under this Agreement, nor shall Executive's rights hereunder be subject to encumbrance of the claims of creditors. This Agreement may be assigned by the Company without the consent of Executive to (a) any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company, whether by merger, consolidation, acquisition or otherwise (upon which entity the Agreement shall be binding), or (b) any affiliate; provided, however, that in neither case shall the Company be released from its obligations hereunder, nor shall any assignment to an affiliate materially lessen the Executive's rights with respect to his position, duties, responsibilities or authority with respect to the Company.

8. Governing Law; Jurisdiction and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of California without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Suit to enforce this Agreement or any provision or portion thereof may be brought in the federal or state courts located in Los Angeles, California.

9. Severability of Provisions. In the event that any provision of this Agreement should ever be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, then such provision shall be deemed reformed to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

10. Warranty. As an inducement to the Company to enter into this Agreement, Executive represents and warrants that he is not a party to any other agreement or obligation for personal services, and that there exists no impediment or restraint, contractual or otherwise, on his power, right or ability to enter into this Agreement and to perform his duties and obligations hereunder.

11. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications which are required or may be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when received if personally delivered; when transmitted if transmitted by telecopy, electronic or digital transmission method upon receipt of telephonic or electronic confirmation; the day after it is sent, if sent for next day delivery to a domestic address by recognized overnight delivery service (e.g., Federal Express); and upon receipt, if sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Agreement and General Release

Agreement and General Release ("AGREEMENT"), by and among Richard Goudis ("EXECUTIVE" and referred to herein as "you") and HERBALIFE INTERNATIONAL OF AMERICA, INC., a California corporation (the "COMPANY").

1. In exchange for your waiver of claims against the Company Entities (as defined below) and compliance with other terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon the effectiveness of this Agreement, the Company agrees to provide you with the payments and benefits provided in Section 3 of that certain employment agreement by and between Richard Goudis and the Company (the "Employment Agreement").

2. (a) In consideration for the payments and benefits to be provided to you pursuant to paragraph 1 above, you, for yourself and for your heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives and assigns (hereinafter referred to collectively as "RELEASORS"), forever release and discharge the Company and its past, present and future parent entities, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates and related business entities, successors and assigns, assets, employee benefit plans or funds (including, without limitation, each of Whitney & Co., L.L.C., Golden Gate Private Equity, Inc., any investment fund managed by either of them and any affiliate of any of the aforementioned persons or entities), and any of its or their respective past, present and/or future directors, officers, fiduciaries, agents, trustees, administrators, employees and assigns, whether acting on behalf of the Company or in their individual capacities (collectively the "COMPANY ENTITIES") from any and all claims, suits, demands, causes of action, covenants, obligations, debts, costs, expenses, fees and liabilities of any kind whatsoever in law or equity, by statute or otherwise, whether known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspected or unsuspected and whether or not concealed or hidden (collectively, the "CLAIMS"), which you ever had, now have, or may have against any of the Company Entities by reason of any act, omission, transaction, practice, plan, policy, procedure, conduct, occurrence, or other matter related in any way to your employment by (including, but not limited to, termination thereof) the Company Entities up to and including the date on which you sign this Agreement, except as provided in subsection (c) below.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement is intended to and shall release the Company Entities from any and all claims, whether known or unknown, which Releasors ever had, now have, or may have against the Companies Entities arising out of your employment or termination thereof, including, but not limited to: (i) any claim under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (excluding claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law), the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, or the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, in each case as amended; (ii) any claim under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the California Labor Code, the California Family Rights Act, or the California Pregnancy Disability Leave Law; (iii) any other claim (whether based on federal, state, or local law (statutory or decisional), rule, regulation or ordinance) relating to or arising out of your employment, the terms and conditions of such employment, the termination of such employment, including, but not limited to, breach of contract (express or implied), wrongful discharge, detrimental reliance, defamation, emotional distress or compensatory or punitive damages; and (iv) any claim for attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements and/or the like.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be a waiver of claims: (1) that may arise after the date on which you sign this Agreement; (2) with respect to your right to enforce your rights that survive termination under the Employment Agreement or any other written agreement entered into between you and the Company (including, without limitation, any equity grants or agreements); (3) regarding rights of indemnification, receipt of legal fees and directors and officers liability insurance to which you are entitled under the Employment Agreement, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws, pursuant to any separate writing between you and the Company or pursuant to applicable law; (4) relating to any claims for accrued, vested benefits under any employee benefit plan or pension plan of the Company Entities subject to the terms and conditions of such plan and applicable law; or (5) as a stockholder or optionholder of the Company.

(d) In signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you intend that this Agreement shall be effective as a bar to each and every one of the Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You expressly consent that this Agreement shall be given full force and effect according to each and all of its express terms and provisions, including those relating to unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims (notwithstanding any state statute that expressly limits the effectiveness of a general release of unknown, unsuspected or unanticipated Claims), if any, as well as those relating to any other Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. You acknowledge and agree that this waiver is an essential and material term of this Agreement, and the Company is entering into this Agreement in reliance on such waiver. You further agree that if you bring your own Claim in which you seek damages against any Company Entity, or if you seek to recover against any Company Entity in any Claim brought by a governmental agency on your behalf, the releases set forth in this Agreement shall serve as a complete defense to such Claims, and you shall reimburse each Company Entity for any attorneys' fees or expenses or other fees and expenses incurred in defending any such Claim; provided, however, if a class action claim or governmental claim is brought on your behalf, your obligations will be limited to (i) opting out of such action or claim at the first available opportunity and (ii) turning over any and all damage awards or other proceeds received in connection therewith to the Company, it being agreed that you shall not be liable to the Company for any attorneys' fees or expenses or other fees or expenses in the case of any such class action claim or governmental claim.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you waive all rights under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM, MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

3. (a) This Agreement is not intended, and shall not be construed, as an admission that any of the Company Entities has violated any federal, state or local law (statutory or decisional), ordinance or regulation, breached any contract or committed any wrong whatsoever against you.

(b) Should any provision of this Agreement require interpretation or construction, it is agreed by the parties that the entity interpreting or constructing this Agreement shall not apply a presumption against one party by reason of the rule of construction that a document is to be construed more strictly against the party who prepared the document.

4. For two (2) years from and after the date of your employment termination, you agree not to make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about any Company Entity, or to make any public statement (or any statement likely to become public) that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect or disparage the reputation, or, to the extent applicable, business or goodwill of any Company Entity, it being agreed and understood that nothing herein shall prohibit you (a) from disclosing that you are no longer employed by the Company, (b) from responding truthfully to any governmental investigation or inquiry related thereto, whether by the Securities and Exchange Commission or other governmental entity or any other law, subpoena, court order or other compulsory legal process or any disclosure requirement of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or (c) from making traditional competitive statements in the course of promoting a competing business, so long as any statements made by you described in this clause (c) are not based on confidential information obtained during the course of your employment with the Company. The Company agrees that it will not make any derogatory, negative or disparaging public statement about you in an authorized press release or authorized public announcement.

5. This Agreement is binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

6. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of California without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof.

7. You acknowledge that your obligations pursuant to Sections 4 and 5 of the Employment Agreement survive the expiration or earlier termination of your employment in accordance with the terms thereof.

8. You acknowledge that you: (a) have carefully read this Agreement in its entirety; (b) have had an opportunity to consider for at least twenty-one (21) days the terms of this Agreement; (c) are hereby advised by the Company in writing to consult with an attorney of your choice in connection with this Agreement; (d) fully understand the significance of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and have discussed them with your independent legal counsel, or have had a reasonable opportunity to do so; (e) have had answered to your satisfaction by your independent legal counsel any questions you have asked with regard to the meaning and significance of any of the provisions of this Agreement; and (f) are signing this Agreement voluntarily and of your own free will and agree to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein.

9. You understand that you will have at least twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Agreement to consider the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You may accept this Agreement by signing it and returning it to the Company's General Counsel at the address specified pursuant to Section 11 of the Employment Agreement on or before . After executing this Agreement, you shall have seven (7) days (the "REVOCATION PERIOD") to revoke this Agreement by indicating your desire to do so in writing delivered to the General Counsel at the address above by no later than 5:00 p.m. (pacific time) on the seventh (7th) day after the date you sign this Agreement. The effective date of this Agreement shall be the eighth (8th) day after you sign this Agreement (the "AGREEMENT EFFECTIVE DATE"). If the last day of the Revocation Period falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day of the Revocation Period will be deemed to be the next business day. In the event you do not accept this Agreement as set forth above, or in the event you revoke this Agreement during the Revocation Period, this Agreement, including but not limited to the obligation of the Company to provide the payments and benefits provided in paragraph 1 above, shall be deemed automatically null and void.

This Agreement, the Notes, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement are hereinafter sometimes referred to collectively as the "Note Documents."

As described in the Offering Memorandum under the caption "The recapitalization of Holdings and related transactions," the net proceeds of the offering of the Notes, together available cash, will be used as a part of a recapitalization of the Company, pursuant to which the Company will redeem all of its outstanding 12% Series A Convertible Preferred Shares (the "Holdings Preferred Stock") and pay accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, purchase the Company's outstanding 15.5% Senior Notes due 2011 (the "Holdings Senior Notes") at a negotiated price, repay a portion of Herbalife's senior credit facilities (the "Herbalife Senior Credit Facilities"), and pay related fees and expenses.

The issuance and sale of the Original Notes, the redemption of the Holdings Preferred Stock, the purchase of the Holdings Senior Notes and the prepayment of a portion of the Herbalife Senior Credit Facilities and the payment of related fees and expenses are referred to as the "Transactions."

2. Agreements to Sell and Purchase. On the basis of the representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Issuers agree to issue and sell to the Initial Purchaser and the Initial Purchaser agrees to purchase from the Issuers, $275,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Original Notes at a purchase price equal to 97.25% of their principal amount.

3. Delivery and Payment. Delivery of, and payment of the purchase price for, the Original Notes will be made at 9:00 a.m., New York time, on March 8, 2004 (such date and time, the "Closing Date") at the offices of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 2029 Century Park East, Suite 4000, Los Angeles, California 90067. The Closing Date and the location of delivery of and the form of payment for the Original Notes may be varied by mutual agreement between the Initial Purchaser and the Issuers.

All of the Original Notes will be delivered by the Issuers to the Initial Purchaser (or as the Initial Purchaser may direct) against payment by the Initial Purchaser of the purchase price therefor by means of transfer of immediately available funds to such account or accounts specified by the Issuers in accordance with its obligations under Section 4(g) hereof on or prior to the Closing Date, or by such means as the parties hereto agree prior to the Closing Date. Delivery of the Original Notes shall be made through the facilities of the Depositary Trust Company ("DTC") unless the Initial Purchaser shall otherwise instruct. The Original Notes shall be evidenced by one or more certificates in global form registered in such names as the Initial Purchaser may request upon at least one business day's notice prior to the Closing Date and having an aggregate principal amount corresponding to the aggregate principal amount of the Original Notes.

4. Agreements of the Issuers. Each of the Issuers severally covenants and agrees with the Initial Purchaser as follows:

(a) To furnish the Initial Purchaser and those persons identified by the Initial Purchaser, without charge, with as many copies of the Preliminary Offering

Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum, and any amendments or supplements thereto, as the Initial Purchaser may reasonably request. Each of the Issuers consents to the use of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum, and any amendments and supplements thereto required pursuant to this Agreement, by the Initial Purchaser in connection with Exempt Resales.

(b) Not to amend or supplement the Offering Memorandum prior to the Closing Date unless the Initial Purchaser has previously been advised of such proposed amendment or supplement at least two business days prior to the proposed use, and shall not have reasonably objected to such amendment or supplement.

(c) If, prior to the time that the Initial Purchaser has notified the Issuers that it has completed its distribution of the Original Notes, any event shall occur that makes any statement of a material fact in the Offering Memorandum, as then amended or supplemented, untrue or requires the making of any additions to or changes in the Offering Memorandum in order to make the statements in the Offering Memorandum, as then amended or supplemented, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or if it is necessary to amend or supplement the Offering Memorandum to comply with all applicable laws known to the Issuers, the Issuers shall promptly notify the Initial Purchaser of such event and prepare an appropriate amendment or supplement to the Offering Memorandum so that (i) the statements in the Offering Memorandum, as amended or supplemented, in light of the circumstances as of the time of the amendment or supplement will not be misleading and (ii) the Offering Memorandum will comply with applicable law.

(d) To cooperate with the Initial Purchaser and counsel to the Initial Purchaser in connection with the qualification or registration of the Original Notes under the securities laws of such jurisdictions as the Initial Purchaser may reasonably request and to continue such qualification in effect so long as reasonably required for the Exempt Resales. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither of the Issuers shall be required to qualify as a foreign corporation or other business entity in any jurisdiction in which it is not so qualified or to file a general consent to service of process in any such jurisdiction or subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction where it is not then so subject.

(e) To advise the Initial Purchaser promptly and, if requested by the Initial Purchaser, to confirm such advice in writing, of the issuance by any securities commission of any stop order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of any of the Original Notes for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or the initiation of any proceeding for such purpose by any securities commission or other regulatory authority. Each of the Issuers shall use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or order suspending the qualification or exemption of any of the Original Notes under any securities laws, and if at any time any securities commission or other regulatory authority shall issue an order suspending the qualification or exemption of any of the Original Notes under any securities laws, each of the Issuers shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the withdrawal or lifting of such order at the earliest possible time.

(f) Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated, to pay all costs, expenses, fees, disbursements (including reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of each of the counsel to the Issuers and the Initial Purchaser) reasonably incurred and stamp, documentary or similar taxes incident to and in connection with: (i) the preparation, printing and distribution of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum (including, without limitation, financial statements) and all amendments and supplements thereto, (ii) all expenses (including travel expenses) of the Issuers and the Initial Purchaser in connection with any meetings with prospective investors in the Original Notes, (iii) the preparation, notarization (if necessary) and delivery of the Note Documents and all other agreements, memoranda, correspondence and documents prepared and delivered in connection with this Agreement and with the Exempt Resales, (iv) the issuance, transfer and delivery of the Original Notes by the Issuers to the Initial Purchaser, (v) (subject to Section 4(d)) hereof, the qualification or registration of the Notes for offer and sale under the securities laws of the several states of the United States or provinces of Canada (including, without limitation, the cost of printing and mailing preliminary and final Blue Sky or legal investment memoranda and fees, and disbursements of counsel (including local counsel) to the Initial Purchaser relating thereto up to $20,000), (vi) the furnishing of such copies of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum, and all amendments and supplements thereto, as may be reasonably requested for use in connection with Exempt Resales, (vii) the preparation of certificates for the Notes, (viii) the application for quotation of the Original Notes and the Exchange Notes in The PORTAL Market ("PORTAL") of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"), including, but not limited to, all listing fees and expenses, (ix) the approval of the Notes by the DTC for "book-entry" transfer, (x) the rating of the Notes by investment rating agencies, (xi) the fees and expenses of the Trustee and its counsel and (xii) the performance by the Issuers of their other obligations under the Note Documents.

(g) To use the proceeds from the sale of the Original Notes substantially in the manner described in the Offering Memorandum under the caption "Use of Proceeds."

(h) To do and perform all things required to be done and performed under this Agreement by it prior to or after the Closing Date and to use its reasonable best efforts to satisfy all conditions precedent on its part to the delivery of the Original Notes.

(i) Not to, and not to cause any of its subsidiaries to, sell, offer for sale or solicit offers to buy any security (as defined in the Act) that would be integrated with the sale of the Original Notes in a manner that would require the registration under the Act of the sale of the Original Notes to the Initial Purchaser or any Eligible Purchasers.

(j) Not to, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates (as defined in Rule 144 under the Act) not to, resell any of the Original Notes that have been reacquired by any of them; provided, that, affiliates of the Issuers may resell any Original Notes that have been acquired by such affiliate so long as such resale (i) is made pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Act or a transaction registered under the Act and (ii) such Original Notes, when resold by such affiliates do not constitute restricted securities (as defined in Rule 144 of the Act).

(k) Not to engage, not to allow any of its subsidiaries to engage, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its other affiliates and any person acting on their behalf (other than, in any case, the Initial Purchaser and any of their affiliates, as to whom neither of the Issuers makes any covenant) not to engage, in any form of general solicitation or general advertising (within the meaning of Regulation D under the Act) in connection with any offer or sale of the Original Notes in the United States prior to the effectiveness of a registration statement with respect to the Notes.

(l) Not to engage, not to allow any of its subsidiaries to engage, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its other affiliates and any person acting on its behalf (other than, in any case, the Initial Purchaser and any of their affiliates, as to whom neither of the Issuers makes any covenant) not to engage, in any directed selling effort with respect to the Original Notes, and to comply with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S under the Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

(m) From and after the Closing Date, to provide to the holders of the Notes the information required by the Indenture and, for so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Act and during any period in which the Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, to make available upon request the information required by Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Act to (i) any holder of Notes in connection with any sale of such Notes and (ii) any prospective purchaser of such Notes from any such holder designated by the holder. The Issuers will pay the expenses of printing and distributing such documents.

(n) To comply with all of its agreements set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement.

(o) To use its reasonable best efforts to obtain approval of the Notes by DTC for "book-entry" transfer.

(p) Prior to the Closing Date, to furnish without charge to the Initial Purchaser, (i) as soon as they have been prepared by the Company, a copy of any regularly prepared internal financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for any period subsequent to the period covered by the financial statements appearing in the Offering Memorandum, (ii) all other reports and other communications (financial or otherwise) that the Company mails or otherwise makes available to its security holders and (iii) such other information as the Initial Purchaser shall reasonably request.

(q) During the period of two years after the Closing Date or, if earlier, until such time as the Original Notes are no longer restricted securities (as defined in Rule 144 under the Act), not to be or become a closed-end investment company required to be registered, but not registered, under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(r) In connection with the offering, until the Initial Purchaser shall have notified the Issuers of the completion of the resale of the Notes, not to, and not to permit any of their affiliates (as such term is defined in Rule 501(b) of Regulation D under the Act) to, either alone or with one or more other Persons, bid for or purchase for any account in which it or any of its affiliates has a beneficial interest, and neither of the Issuers or any of their affiliates will make bids or purchases for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or of raising the price of, the Notes.

(s) To use its reasonable best efforts to effect the inclusion of the Notes in PORTAL.

5. Representations and Warranties. (a) Each of the Issuers hereby severally and not jointly represents and warrants to the Initial Purchaser that:

(i) Each of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum has been prepared for use in connection with the Exempt Resales. The Preliminary Offering Memorandum as of its date, and the Offering Memorandum or any supplement or amendment thereto as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date do not, and will not, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that neither of the Issuers makes any representation or warranty with respect to information relating to the Initial Purchaser contained in or omitted from the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum or any supplement or amendment thereto in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to the Issuers in writing by or on behalf of the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the Offering Memorandum or any supplement or amendment thereto. No order preventing the use of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or any order asserting that any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are subject to the registration requirements of the Act, has been issued or, to the knowledge of the Issuers has been threatened.

(ii) There are no securities of the Issuers that are listed on a national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Exchange Act or that are quoted in a United States automated interdealer quotation system of the same class as the Notes within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Act.

(iii) The Company has an authorized capitalization as set forth under the heading "Capitalization" in the Offering Memorandum. All of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock or other equity interests of the Issuers have been duly authorized and validly issued, are fully paid and nonassessable and were not issued in violation of any preemptive or similar right. Attached as Schedule I is a true and complete list of each entity, as of the Closing Date, in which either of the Issuers has a direct or indirect majority equity or voting interest (all such entities, the "Subsidiaries"), their jurisdictions of incorporation or formation, type of entity and percentage equity ownership by such Issuer. All of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock or other equity interests of the Subsidiaries referred to in Schedule II (the "Specified Subsidiaries") have been duly and validly authorized and issued, fully paid and nonassessable, were not issued in violation of any preemptive or similar right and, except as set forth in Schedule II herein, are owned by either of the Issuers or another Subsidiary, as appropriate, free and clear of all Liens (as defined in the Indenture), (other than transfer restrictions imposed by the Act, the securities or Blue Sky laws of certain jurisdictions and security interests granted pursuant to the Credit Facilities). Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, and except for directors qualifying shares or shares or other securities issued under circumstances similar to those applicable to directors qualifying shares, there are no outstanding options, warrants or other rights to acquire or purchase, or instruments convertible into or exchangeable for, any shares of capital stock of the Issuers or any of the Subsidiaries. No holder of any securities of the Issuers or any of the Subsidiaries is entitled to have such securities (other than the Notes) registered under any registration statement contemplated by the Registration Rights Agreement.

(iv) Each of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries (a) is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization; (b) has all requisite power and authority (corporate or otherwise), and has all governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals, necessary to own its property and carry on its business as now being conducted, except if the failure to obtain any such license, authorization, consent and approval could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below); and (c) is qualified to do business and is in good standing in all jurisdictions in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification necessary and where failure to be so qualified and in good standing, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. A "Material Adverse Effect" means any material adverse effect on the business, condition (financial or other), results of operations, performance or properties of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(v) Each of the Issuers has all requisite power and authority (corporate or otherwise) to execute, deliver, and perform all of its obligations under, the Note Documents to which it is a party and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Note Documents to be consummated on its part and, without limitation, each of the Issuers has all requisite corporate power and authority to issue, sell and deliver, and perform its obligations under, the Notes.

(vi) This Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by each of the Issuers.

(vii) The Indenture has been duly and validly authorized by the Issuers and, at the Closing Date, when duly executed and delivered by the Issuers (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Trustee), will be valid and legally binding obligations of each of the Issuers, enforceable against each of the Issuers in accordance with their terms, except as the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). The Indenture, when executed and delivered, will conform in all material respects to the description thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(viii) The Original Notes have been duly and validly authorized for issuance and sale to the Initial Purchaser by the Issuers, and when issued, authenticated and delivered by the Issuers against payment by the Initial Purchaser in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Indenture, the Original Notes will be valid and legally binding obligations of each of the Issuers, entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against each of the Issuers in accordance with their terms, except as the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). The Original Notes, when issued, authenticated and delivered, will conform in all material respects to the descriptions thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(ix) The Exchange Notes have been, or on or before the Closing Date will be, duly and validly authorized for issuance by each of the Issuers and when issued, authenticated and delivered by each of the Issuers, in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Exchange Offer and the Indenture, the Exchange Notes will be valid and legally binding obligations of each of the Issuers entitled to the benefits of the Indenture and enforceable against each of the Issuers, in accordance with their terms, except as the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(x) The Registration Rights Agreement has been duly and validly authorized by each of the Issuers and, when duly executed and delivered by each of the Issuers (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Initial Purchaser), will constitute a valid and legally binding obligation of each of the Issuers enforceable against each of the Issuers in accordance with its terms, except that (A) except as the enforcement thereof may be subject to (x) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (y) general principles of equity and the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and (B) any rights to indemnity or contribution thereunder may be limited by federal and state securities laws and public policy considerations. The Registration Rights Agreement, when executed and delivered, will conform in all material respects to the description thereof in the Offering Memorandum.

(xi) All Taxes (as defined herein), fees and other governmental charges that are due and payable on or prior to the Closing Date in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of the Note Documents and the execution, delivery and sale of the Original Notes shall have been paid by or on behalf of the Issuers at or prior to the Closing Date.

(xii) None of the Issuers or any Subsidiary is (A) in violation of its memorandum and articles of association, charter, bylaws or other constitutive documents, (B) in default (or, with notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) in the performance or observance of any obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any bond, debenture, note, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan or credit agreement, lease, license, franchise agreement, authorization, permit, certificate or other agreement or instrument to which either of the Issuers or any Subsidiary is a party or by which any of them is bound or to which any of their assets or properties is subject (collectively, "Agreements and Instruments"), or (C) except as disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, in violation of any law, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order or decree of any domestic or foreign court with jurisdiction over any of them or any of their assets or properties or other governmental or regulatory authority, agency or other body, which, in the case of clauses (B) and (C) herein, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. There exists no condition that, with notice, the passage of time or otherwise, would constitute a default by the Issuers or any Subsidiary under any such document or instrument or result in the imposition of any penalty or the acceleration of any indebtedness, other than penalties, defaults or conditions that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xiii) Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser in Section 5(b) of this Agreement, the execution, delivery and performance of the Note Documents and consummation of the Transactions does not and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a breach of any of the terms or provisions of or a default under (or an event that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default), or require consent under, or result in the creation or imposition of a lien, charge or encumbrance on any property or assets of either of the Issuers or any Specified Subsidiary (other than as created pursuant to the Indenture) or an acceleration of any indebtedness of either of the Issuers or Specified Subsidiary, as applicable, pursuant to, (i) the memorandum and articles of association, charter, bylaws or other constitutive documents of either of the Issuers or any Specified Subsidiary, (ii) any of the Agreements and Instruments, except for any such violation, conflict, breach, default or event which would not individually or in the aggregate reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (iii) assuming compliance with all applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws and assuming qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "Trust Indenture Act"), any law, statute, rule or regulation applicable to either of the Issuers or any Subsidiary or their respective assets or properties, or (iv) any judgment, order or decree of any domestic or foreign court or governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over either of the Issuers or any Specified Subsidiary or their respective assets or properties, except for any such violation, conflict, breach, default or event which would not individually or in the aggregate reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser in Section 5(b) of this Agreement, no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or filing, registration, qualification, license or permit of or with, any court or governmental agency, body or administrative agency, domestic or foreign, is required to be obtained or made by the Issuers or any of the Subsidiaries for the execution, delivery and performance by the Issuers or any of the Subsidiaries of the Note Documents and the consummation of the Transactions, except (w) such as have been or will be obtained or made on or prior to the Closing Date, (x) registration of the Exchange Offer or resale of the Notes under the Act pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, (y) qualification of the Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act, in connection with the issuance of the Exchange Notes and (z) any state or foreign securities laws or by the regulations of the NASD. No consents or waivers from any other person or entity are required for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement or any of the other Note Documents and the consummation of the Transactions, other than such consents and waivers as have been obtained or will be obtained prior to the Closing Date and will be in full force and effect, or such consents or waivers the failure to obtain which individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xiv) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, there is (A) no action, suit or proceeding before or by any court, arbitrator or governmental agency, body or official, domestic or foreign, now pending or, to the knowledge of the Issuers or any Subsidiary threatened or contemplated, to which the Issuers or any Subsidiary is or may be a party or to which the business, assets or property of such Person is or may be subject, (B) no statute, rule, regulation or order that has been enacted, adopted or issued or, to the knowledge of the Issuers or any Subsidiary, that has been proposed by any governmental body or agency, domestic or foreign, (C) no injunction, restraining order or order of any nature by a federal or state court or foreign court of competent jurisdiction to which the Issuers or any Subsidiary is or may be subject, which in the case of clauses (A) through (C), could reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, (1) to have a Material Adverse Effect or (2) to interfere with or adversely affect the consummation of the Transactions. Every request of any securities authority or agency of any jurisdiction for additional information with respect to the Transactions that has been received by the Issuers or any Subsidiary or their counsel prior to the date hereof has been, or will prior to the Closing Date be, complied with in all material respects.

(xv) Except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no labor disturbance by the employees of the Issuers or any Subsidiary exists or, to the knowledge of the Issuers, is imminent.

(xvi) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries (A) is in compliance with, or not subject to costs or liabilities under, laws, regulations, rules of common law, orders and decrees, as in effect as of the date hereof, and any present judgments and injunctions issued or promulgated thereunder relating to pollution or protection of public and employee health and safety, the environment or hazardous or toxic substances or wastes, pollutants or contaminants applicable to it or its business or operations or ownership or use of its property ("Environmental Laws"), other than noncompliance or such costs or liabilities that, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and (B) possesses all permits, licenses or other approvals required under applicable Environmental Laws, except where the failure to possess any such permit, license or other approval could not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. All currently pending and, to the knowledge of the Issuers and each of the Subsidiaries, threatened proceedings, notices of violation, demands, notices of potential responsibility or liability, suits and existing environmental investigations by any governmental authority relating to Environmental Laws which the Issuers or any Subsidiary could reasonably expect to result in a Material Adverse Effect are fully and accurately described in all material respects in the Offering Memorandum. The Company maintains a system of internal environmental management controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance of compliance in all material respects of its business facilities, real property and operations with requirements of applicable Environmental Laws.

(xvii) Each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries has (A) all licenses, certificates, permits, authorizations, approvals, franchises and other rights from, and has made all declarations and filings with, all applicable authorities, all self-regulatory authorities and all courts and other tribunals (each, an "Authorization") necessary to engage in the business conducted by it in the manner described in the Offering Memorandum, except where the failure to hold such Authorizations could not, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and (B) except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, no reason to believe that any governmental body or agency, domestic or foreign, is considering limiting, suspending or revoking any such Authorization, except where such limitation, suspension or revocation could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. All such Authorizations are valid and in full force and effect and each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries is in compliance in all material respects with the terms and conditions of all such Authorizations and with the rules and regulations of the regulatory authorities having jurisdiction with respect to such Authorizations, except for any invalidity, failure to be in full force and effect or noncompliance with any Authorization that could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xviii) Each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries has good, valid and marketable title in fee simple to all items of owned real property, and valid title to all personal property owned by each of them, in each case free and clear of any pledge, lien, encumbrance, security interest or other defect or claim of any third party other than Permitted Liens, except such as do not adversely affect the value of such property and do not interfere with the use made or proposed to be made of such property by the Issuers or any of the Subsidiaries to an extent that such effect on value and/or interference could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Any real property, personal property that is leased and buildings held under lease by the Issuers and each of the Subsidiaries are held under valid, subsisting and enforceable leases, with such exceptions as do not interfere with the use made or proposed to be made of such property and buildings the Issuers or the Subsidiaries to the extent such interference could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xix) To the knowledge of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries, each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries own, possess or have the right to employ all patents, patent rights, licenses, inventions, copyrights, know-how (including trade secrets and other unpatented and/or unpatentable proprietary or confidential information, systems or procedures), trademarks, service marks and trade names (collectively, the "Intellectual Property") necessary to conduct the businesses operated by it as described in the Offering Memorandum, except where the failure to own, possess or have the right to employ such Intellectual Property, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Neither of the Issuers nor any of the Subsidiaries has received any notice of infringement of or conflict with (and neither knows of any such infringement or a conflict with) asserted rights of others with respect to any of the foregoing that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries, the use of the Intellectual Property in connection with the business and operations of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries does not infringe on the rights of any person, except for such infringement as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xx) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, all Tax returns required to be filed by the Issuers and each Specified Subsidiary have been filed and all such returns are true, complete, and correct in all material respects, except as could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, all Taxes due or claimed to be due from the Issuers and each Specified Subsidiary have been paid, other than those (i) currently payable without penalty or interest or (ii) being contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings and for which, in the case of both clauses (i) and (ii), adequate reserves have been established on the books and records of the Issuers and each Specified Subsidiary in accordance with GAAP. To the knowledge of the Issuers and the Specified Subsidiaries, there are no proposed, material tax assessments against any of the Issuers or the Specified Subsidiaries. The accruals and reserves on the books and records of the Issuers and each Specified Subsidiary, in respect of any material Tax liability for any taxable period not finally determined have been made and established in accordance with GAAP. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Tax" and "Taxes" shall mean all Federal, state, local, and foreign taxes, and other assessments of a similar nature (whether imposed directly or through withholding), including any interest, additions to tax, or penalties applicable thereto.

(xxi) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, none of the Issuers or any Subsidiary has any liability for any prohibited transaction (within the meaning of Section 4975 of the Code) which could have a Material Adverse Effect, accumulated funding deficiency (within the meaning of Section 412 of the Code) or any complete or partial withdrawal liability with respect to any pension, profit sharing or other plan which is subject to Title IV of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), to which the Issuers or any Subsidiary makes or ever has made a contribution and in which any employee of the Issuers or any Subsidiary is or has ever been a Sponsor. With respect to such plans, there has been no failure by the Issuers or any Subsidiary to comply with any applicable provisions of ERISA, which failure could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(xxii) None of the Issuers or any Subsidiary is an "investment company" or a company "controlled" by an "investment company" incorporated in the United States within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; and, after giving effect to the offering and sale of the Notes, none of the Issuers or any Subsidiary will be required to register as an investment company.

(xxiii) Each of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries maintains a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that: (A) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorizations; (B) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of their financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and to maintain accountability for assets; (C) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management's general or specific authorization; and (D) the recorded accountability for their assets is compared with the existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences.

(xxiv) Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, each of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries maintain insurance covering their properties, assets, operations personnel and businesses, and such insurance is of such type and in such amounts in accordance with customary industry practice to protect the Issuers and the Subsidiaries and their businesses.

(xxv) None of the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates (as defined in Rule 501(b) of Regulation D under the Act) has (A) taken, directly or indirectly, any action designed to, or that might reasonably be expected to, cause or result in stabilization or manipulation of the price of any security of either of the Issuers to facilitate the sale or resale of the Original Notes or (B) sold, bid for, purchased or paid any person any compensation for soliciting purchases of the Original Notes in a manner that would require registration of the Original Notes under the Act or paid or agreed to pay to any person any compensation for soliciting another to purchase any other securities of the Issuers in a manner that would require registration of the Original Notes under the Act.

(xxvi) None of the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates (as defined in Regulation D under the Act) has, directly or through any agent (other than the Initial Purchaser or any affiliate of the Initial Purchaser, as to which no representation is made), sold, offered for sale, contracted to sell, pledged, solicited offers to buy or otherwise disposed of or negotiated in respect of any security (as defined in the Act) that is currently or will be integrated with the sale of the Original Notes in a manner that would require the registration of the Original Notes under the Act.

(xxvii) None of the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates, or any person acting on its or their behalf (other than any Initial Purchaser, as to whom neither of the Issuers makes any representation), is engaged in any directed selling effort with respect to the Original Notes, and each of them has complied with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S under the Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meaning given to them by Regulation S.

(xxviii) No form of general solicitation or general advertising (within the meaning of Regulation D under the Act) was used by the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives (other than any Initial Purchaser, as to whom none of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries makes any representation) in connection with the offer and sale of any of the Original Notes or in connection with Exempt Resales, including, but not limited to, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or displayed on any computer terminal, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising. None of the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates has entered into, and none of the Issuers, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates will enter into, any contractual arrangement with respect to the distribution of the Original Notes except for this Agreement.

(xxix) As of the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, neither the Issuers nor any of their subsidiaries had any material liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that were required in accordance with GAAP, to be set forth in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of such date or in the notes thereto set forth in the Offering Memorandum not so set forth. Since the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, except as set forth or contemplated in the Offering Memorandum, (a) none of the Issuers or any Subsidiary has (1) incurred any liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (2) entered into any material transaction not in the ordinary course of business, (b) there has not been any event or development in respect of the business or condition (financial or other) of the Issuers and the Subsidiaries that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) there has been no dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by either of the Issuers on any class of its capital stock and (d) there has not been any material change in the long-term debt of either of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries.

(xxx) None of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries (or any agent thereof acting on their behalf) has taken, and none of them will take, any action that might cause the issuance or sale of the Notes to violate Regulation T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as in effect, or as the same may hereafter be in effect, on the Closing Date.

(xxxi) Each of Deloitte & Touche LLP and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP are independent accountants within the meaning of Regulation S-X of the Exchange Act. The historical financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Offering Memorandum present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial position, income statement, cash flows and changes in stockholder's equity of the Company and its subsidiaries at the respective dates and for the respective periods indicated. All such financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods presented (except as disclosed therein). The unaudited pro forma financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Offering Document have been prepared on a basis consistent with the historical financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries and give effect to assumptions used in the preparation thereof on a reasonable basis and in good faith and present fairly in all material respects the historical and proposed transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum; and such pro forma financial statements comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements applicable to pro forma financial statements set forth in Regulation S-X under the Act. The other financial and statistical information and data included in the Offering Memorandum (other than industry and market-related data) are accurately presented in all material respects and prepared on a basis consistent with the financial statements and the books and records of the Company and its subsidiaries.

(xxxii) As of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, immediately prior to and immediately following the consummation of the Transactions, each of the Issuers and their respective subsidiaries (on a consolidated basis) is and will be Solvent. None of the Issuers or the Subsidiaries is contemplating the filing of a petition by it under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws or the liquidating of all or a substantial portion of its property, and none of the Issuers or the Subsidiaries has knowledge of any Person contemplating the filing of any such petition. As used herein, "Solvent" shall mean, for any Person on a particular date that on such date (a) the fair value of the property of such Person is greater than the total amount of liabilities, including, without limitation, contingent liabilities, of such Person, (b) the present fair salable value of the assets of such Person is not less than the amount that will be required to pay the probable liability of such Person on its debts as they become absolute and matured, (c) such Person does not intend to, and does not believe that it will, incur debts and liabilities beyond such Person's ability to pay as such debts and liabilities mature, (d) such Person is not engaged in a business or a transaction, and is not about to engage in a business or a transaction, for which such Person's property would constitute an unreasonably small capital and (e) such Person is able to pay its debts as they become due and payable.

(xxxiii) Except as described in the section entitled "Plan of Distribution" in the Offering Memorandum, there are no contracts, agreements or understandings between either of the Issuers or any Subsidiary and any other Person other than the Initial Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement that would give rise to a valid claim against either of the Issuers, any of the Subsidiaries or the Initial Purchaser for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or like payment in connection with the issuance, purchase and sale of the Notes.

(xxxiv) The statistical and market-related data and forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act) included in the Offering Memorandum are based on or derived from sources that each of the Issuers believe to be reliable and represent good faith estimates that are made on the basis of data derived from such sources.

(xxxv) Capital has conducted no business prior to the date hereof other than in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Offering Memorandum.

(xxxvi) Each certificate signed by any officer of either of the Issuers and delivered to the Initial Purchaser or counsel for the Initial Purchaser pursuant to, or in connection with, this Agreement shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by such Issuer to the Initial Purchaser as to the matters covered by such certificate.

Each of the Issuers acknowledges that the Initial Purchaser and, for purposes of the opinions to be delivered to the Initial Purchaser pursuant to Section 8 of this Agreement, counsel to the Issuers and counsel to the Initial Purchaser will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations and each of the Issuers hereby consent to such reliance.

(b) The Initial Purchaser acknowledges that it is purchasing the Original Notes pursuant to a private sale exemption from registration under the Act, and that the Original Notes have not been registered under the Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Act. The Initial Purchaser represents, warrants and covenants to the Issuers that:

(i) Neither it, nor any person acting on its behalf, has or will solicit offers for, or offer or sell, the Original Notes by any form of general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are used in Regulation D under the Act) or in any manner involving a public offering within the meaning of Section 4(2) of the Act, including, but not limited to, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio or displayed on any computer terminal, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising, and it has and will solicit offers for the Original Notes only from, and will offer and sell the Original Notes only to, (A) Persons whom the Initial Purchaser reasonably believes to be QIBs or, if any such Person is buying for one or more institutional accounts for which such Person is acting as fiduciary or agent, only when such Person has represented to the Initial Purchaser, and the Initial Purchaser reasonably believes based on such representation, that each such account is a QIB to whom notice has been given that such sale or delivery is being made in reliance on Rule 144A, and, in each case, in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act pursuant to Rule 144A, or (B) Persons other than U.S. Persons outside the United States in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act provided by Regulation S. The Initial Purchaser agrees, with respect to resales made in reliance on Rule 144A of any of the Notes, to deliver either with the confirmation of such resale or otherwise prior to settlement of such resale a notice to the effect that the resale of such Notes have been made in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the Act provided by Rule 144A.

(ii) With respect to offers and sales outside the United States, the Initial Purchaser has offered the Original Notes and will offer and sell the Original Notes (1) as part of its distribution at any time and (2) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering of the Original Notes and the Closing Date, only in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Act. Accordingly, neither the Initial Purchaser nor any person acting on its behalf has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts (within the meaning of Regulation S) with respect to the Original Notes, and all such persons have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirements of Regulation S.

The Initial Purchaser agrees that it and each of its affiliates has not entered and will not enter into any contractual arrangement with respect to the distribution of the Notes except with the prior written consent of the Issuers or as contemplated by this Agreement.

Terms used in this Section 5(b)(ii) have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The Initial Purchaser understands that the Issuers and, for purposes of the opinions to be delivered to them pursuant to Section 8 hereof, counsel to the Issuers and counsel to the Initial Purchaser will rely upon the accuracy and truth of the foregoing representations, and the Initial Purchaser hereby consents to such reliance.

6. Indemnification. (a) Each of the Issuers, jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Initial Purchaser, each person, if any, who controls any Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, the agents, employees, officers and directors of any Initial Purchaser and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling person from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses whatsoever (including, but not limited, to reasonable attorneys' fees and any and all reasonable expenses whatsoever incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever, and any and all reasonable amounts paid in settlement of any claim or litigation) (collectively, "Losses") to which they or any of them may become subject under the Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or in any supplement thereto or amendment thereof, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that the foregoing indemnity agreement shall not apply any such case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission relating to the Initial Purchaser made therein in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to either of the Issuers by or on behalf of the Initial Purchaser expressly for use therein; provided, however, that with respect to any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement in or omission or alleged omission from the Preliminary Offering Memorandum, the indemnity agreement contained in this section shall not inure to the benefit of the Initial Purchaser if the Initial Purchaser sold the Notes concerned to the Person asserting any such Losses, to the extent that such sale was an initial resale by the Initial Purchaser and any such Losses of the Initial Purchaser results from the fact that there was not sent or given to such Person, at or prior to the written confirmation of the sale of such Notes to such Person, a copy of the Offering Memorandum (exclusive of any material included therein but not attached thereto) if the Issuers had previously furnished copies thereof to the Initial Purchaser. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability that the Issuers may otherwise have, including, but not limited to, liability under this Agreement.

(b) The Initial Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Issuers and each person, if any, who controls either of the Issuers, within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, each of its respective agents, employees, officers and directors and the agents, employees, officers and directors of any such controlling person from and against any Losses to which they or any of them may become subject under the Act, the Exchange Act or otherwise insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or in any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that any such Loss arises out of or is based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission relating to the Initial Purchaser made therein in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to either of the Issuers by or on behalf of such Initial Purchaser expressly for use therein. Each of the Issuers and the Initial Purchasers acknowledge that the information described in Section 9 of this Agreement is the only information furnished in writing by the Initial Purchasers to the Issuers expressly for use in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under subsection 6(a) or 6(b) above of notice of the commencement of any action, suit or proceeding (collectively, an "action"), such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under such subsection, notify each party against whom indemnification is to be sought in writing of the commencement of such action (but the failure so to notify an indemnifying party shall not relieve such indemnifying party from any liability that it may have under this Section 6 except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure). In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies an indemnifying party of the commencement of such action, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in such action, and to the extent it may elect by written notice delivered to the indemnified party promptly after receiving the aforesaid notice from such indemnified party, to assume the defense of such action with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnified party or parties shall have the right to employ its or their own counsel in any such action, but the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party or parties unless (i) the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the indemnifying parties in connection with the defense of such action, (ii) the indemnifying parties shall not have employed counsel to take charge of the defense of such action within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action, or (iii) the named parties to such action (including any impleaded parties) include such indemnified party and the indemnifying parties (or such indemnifying parties have assumed the defense of such action), and such indemnified party or parties shall have reasonably concluded that there may be defenses available to it or them that are different from, in addition to, or in conflict with, those available to one or all of the indemnifying parties (in which case the indemnifying parties shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party or parties), in any of which events such reasonable fees and expenses of counsel shall be borne by the indemnifying parties. In no event shall the indemnifying party be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all indemnified parties in connection with any one action or separate but substantially similar or related actions arising in the same jurisdiction out of the same general allegations or circumstances. An indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any claim or action effected without its written consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an indemnified party shall have requested an indemnifying party to reimburse the indemnified party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated by paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section 6, then the indemnifying party agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than 45 business days after receipt by such indemnifying party of the aforesaid request, (ii) such indemnifying party shall not have reimbursed the indemnified party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement and (iii) such indemnified party shall have given the indemnifying party at least 45 days prior notice of its intention to settle. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding and does not include a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or failure to act on behalf of any indemnified party.

7. Contribution. In order to provide for contribution in circumstances in which the indemnification provided for in Section 6 of this Agreement is for any reason held to be unavailable from an indemnifying party, or is insufficient to hold harmless a party indemnified under Section 6 of this Agreement, each party that is obligated under Section 6 of this Agreement to indemnify any other party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such aggregate Losses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Issuers, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, from the offering of the Original Notes or (ii) if such allocation is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to above but also the relative fault of the Issuers on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Issuers and the Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchasers, on the other hand, shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as (x) the total proceeds from the offering of Original Notes (net of discounts and commissions but before deducting expenses) received by the Issuers are to (y) the total discount, commissions and other compensation received by the Initial Purchaser. The relative fault of the Issuers, on the one hand, and the Initial Purchaser, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Issuers, or the Initial Purchasers and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission or alleged statement or omission.

Each of the Issuers and the Initial Purchaser agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 7 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to above. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7, (i) in no case shall the Initial Purchaser be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total discount, commissions and other compensation applicable to the Original Notes purchased by the Initial Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement exceeds the amount of any damages that the Initial Purchaser has otherwise been required to pay by reason of any untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission and (ii) no person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section 7, each person, if any, who controls the Initial Purchaser within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Initial Purchaser, and each person, if any, who controls either of the Issuers within the meaning of Section 15 of the Act or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act and each director, officer, employee and agent of each of the Issuers shall have the same rights to contribution as the Issuers. Any party entitled to contribution will, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action against such party in respect of which a claim for contribution may be made against another party or parties under this Section 7, notify such party or parties from whom contribution may be sought, but the omission to so notify such party or parties shall not relieve the party or parties from whom contribution may be sought from any obligation it or they may have under this Section 7 or otherwise, except to the extent that it has been prejudiced in any material respect by such failure; provided, however, that no additional notice shall be required with respect to any action for which notice has been given under Section 6 of this Agreement for purposes of indemnification. Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, no party shall be liable for contribution with respect to any action or claim settled without its written consent; provided, however, that such written consent was not unreasonably withheld.

8. Conditions to the Initial Purchaser's Obligations. The obligations of the Initial Purchaser to purchase and pay for the Original Notes, as provided for in this Agreement, shall be subject to satisfaction of the following conditions prior to or concurrently with such purchase:

(a) All of the representations and warranties of the Issuers contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects on the date of this Agreement and on the Closing Date

(other than any such representations or warranties which are qualified as to materiality, which representations and warranties shall be accurate in all respect on the date hereof and on the Closing Date). Each of the Issuers shall have in all material respects performed or complied with all of the agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement and required to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Closing Date.

(b) The Offering Memorandum shall have been printed and copies distributed to the Initial Purchaser on the date of this Agreement or at such later date as the Initial Purchaser may determine. No stop order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of the Original Notes in any jurisdiction shall have been issued and no proceeding for that purpose shall have been commenced or shall be pending or threatened.

(c) No action shall have been taken and no statute, rule, regulation or order shall have been enacted, adopted or issued by any governmental agency that would, as of the Closing Date, prevent the issuance and sale of the Original Notes or consummation of the Exchange Offer; except as disclosed in the Offering Memorandum, no action, suit or proceeding shall have been commenced and be pending against or affecting or, to the best knowledge of the Issuers, threatened against either of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries before any court or arbitrator or any governmental body, agency or official that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; and no stop order preventing the use of the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any order asserting that any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are subject to the registration requirements of the Act shall have been issued.

(d) As of the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries had any material liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that were required in accordance with GAAP, to be set forth in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of such date or in the notes thereto set forth in the Offering Memorandum not so set forth. Since the date of the latest balance sheet presented in the Offering Memorandum, except as set forth or contemplated in the Offering Memorandum, (a) neither of the Issuers has (1) incurred any liabilities or obligations, direct or contingent, that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (2) entered into any material transaction not in the ordinary course of business, (b) there has not been any event or development in respect of the business or condition (financial or other) of the Issuers that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (c) there has been no dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by the Company on any class of its capital stock and (d) there has not been any material change in the long-term debt of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

(e) The Initial Purchaser shall have received certificates from each of the Issuers, dated the Closing Date, signed by two authorized officers of each of the Issuers confirming, as of the Closing Date, to its knowledge, the matters set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this Section 8.

(f) The Initial Purchaser shall have received on the Closing Date opinions dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Initial Purchaser, of (i) Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, special counsel to the Issuers, (ii) Schreck Brignone, special Nevada counsel to the Issuers, (iii) Sidley Austin Brown & Wood LLP, special regulatory counsel to the Issuers, (iv) Brett R. Chapman, general counsel to the Issuers, and (v) Maples and Calder, Cayman Islands counsel to Issuers, each substantially in the form of Exhibits A-1, A-2, A-3, A-4 and A-5 attached hereto, with such reasonable assumptions and qualifications satisfactory to the Initial Purchaser.

(g) The Initial Purchaser shall have received on the Closing Date an opinion dated the Closing Date of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, counsel to the Initial Purchaser.

(h) On the date hereof, the Initial Purchaser shall have received a "comfort letter" from each of Deloitte & Touche LLP and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent public accountants for the Issuers, dated the date of this Agreement, addressed to the Initial Purchaser and in form and substance satisfactory to the Initial Purchaser and counsel to the Initial Purchaser. In addition, the Initial Purchaser shall have received "bring-down comfort letter" from each of Deloitte & Touche LLP and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, dated as of the Closing Date, addressed to the Initial Purchaser and in form and substance satisfactory to the Initial Purchaser and counsel to the Initial Purchaser.

(i) Each of the other Note Documents shall have been executed and delivered and the Initial Purchaser shall have received copies, conformed as executed, thereof.

(j) Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, counsel to the Initial Purchaser, shall have been furnished with such documents as they may reasonably request to enable them to review or pass upon the matters referred to in this Section 8 and in order to evidence the accuracy, completeness or satisfaction in all material respects of any of the representations, warranties or conditions contained in this Agreement.

(k) The Notes shall be eligible for trading in PORTAL upon issuance. All agreements set forth in the representation letter of the Issuers to DTC relating to the approval of the Notes by DTC for "book-entry" transfer shall have been complied with.

If any of the conditions specified in this Section 8 shall not have been fulfilled when and as required by this Agreement to be fulfilled (or waived by the Initial Purchaser), this Agreement may be terminated by the Initial Purchaser on notice to the Issuers and at any time at or prior to the Closing Date, and such termination shall be without liability of any party to any other party. Notwithstanding any such termination, the provisions of Sections 4(f), 6, 7, 9, 10 and 11(d) shall remain in effect.

The documents required to be delivered by this Section 8 will be delivered at the office of counsel for the Initial Purchaser on the Closing Date.

9. Initial Purchaser Information. The Issuers and the Initial Purchaser severally acknowledge that the statements with respect to the*delivery* of the Original Notes to the Initial Purchaser set forth in the third, sixth, seventh, eighth, tenth and eleventh paragraph under "Plan of Distribution" in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum constitute the only information furnished in writing by the Initial Purchaser expressly for use in the Preliminary Offering Memorandum or the Offering Memorandum.

10. Survival of Representations and Agreements. All representations and warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, including the agreements contained in Sections 4(f) and 11(d), the indemnity agreements contained in Section 6 and the contribution agreements contained in Section 7, shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Initial Purchaser or any controlling person thereof or by or on behalf of either of the Issuers or any controlling person thereof, and shall survive delivery of and payment for the Original Notes to and by the Initial Purchaser. The agreements contained in Sections 4(f), 6, 7, 9 and 11(d) shall survive the termination of this Agreement, including pursuant to Section 11.

11. Effective Date of Agreement; Termination. (a) This Agreement shall become effective upon execution and delivery of a counterpart hereof by each of the parties hereto.

(b) The Initial Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time prior to the Closing Date by notice to the Issuers from the Initial Purchaser, without liability (other than with respect to Sections 6 and 7) on the Initial Purchaser's part to the Issuers, or any affiliate thereof if, on or after the date hereof there shall have occurred: (i) a failure, refusal or inability to perform by either of the Issuers in any material respect any agreement on its part to be performed under this Agreement when and as required, (ii) a failure by either of the Issuers to fulfill pursuant to Section 8 any other condition to the obligations of the Initial Purchaser under this Agreement when and as required, (iii) a general moratorium on commercial banking activities is declared by either Federal or New York State authorities or a material disruption in commercial banking or securities settlement or clearance services in the United States, (iv) the outbreak or escalation of hostilities involving the United States or the declaration by the United States of a national emergency or war or (v) the occurrence of any other calamity or crisis or any change in financial, political or economic conditions in the United States or elsewhere, if the effect of any such event specified in clause (iv) or (v) in the judgment of the Initial Purchaser makes it impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the public offering or the delivery of the Original Notes on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Offering Memorandum.

(c) Any notice of termination pursuant to this Section 11 shall be given at the address specified in Section 12 below by telephone, telex, telephonic facsimile or telegraph, confirmed in writing by letter.

(d) If this Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to Section 11(b), or if the sale of the Notes provided for in this Agreement is not consummated because of any refusal, inability or failure on the part of either of the Issuers to satisfy any condition to the obligations of the Initial Purchaser set forth in this Agreement to be satisfied on its part or because of any refusal, inability or failure on the part of either of the Issuers to perform in any material respect any agreement in this Agreement or comply in any material respect with any provision of this Agreement, the Issuers will reimburse the Initial Purchaser for all of their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of the Initial Purchaser's counsel) incurred in connection with this Agreement.

12. Notice. All communications with respect to or under this Agreement, except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, shall be in writing and, if sent to the Initial Purchaser, shall be mailed, delivered, or, telegraphed or telecopied and confirmed in writing to UBS Securities LLC, 677 Washington Boulevard, Stamford, Connecticut (telephone: (203) 719-3000, fax number: (203) 719-1075), Attention: High Yield Syndicate Department, with a copy to UBS Securities LLC, 677 Washington Boulevard, Stamford, Connecticut (telephone: (203) 719-3000, fax number: (203) 719-0680), Attention: Legal Department and to Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, 300 South Grand Ave., Los Angeles, California, 90071 (telephone: (213) 687-5000, fax: (213) 687-5600), Attention: Nicholas P. Exhibit A-1

FORM OF OPINION OF GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER LLP

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as United States special counsel to WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted limited liability company ("WH Holdings"), and as United States special counsel to WH Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("WH Capital Corp." and, together with WH Holdings, the "Issuers"), in connection with the offering and sale by the Issuers of $275,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of their 9 1¤2% Notes due 2011 (the "Initial Securities") to you pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, dated March 3, 2004 (the "Purchase Agreement"), among the Issuers and you, as initial purchaser (the "Initial Purchaser"). Terms defined in the Purchase Agreement and not otherwise defined herein are used herein as therein defined.

In connection with the opinions herein expressed, we have reviewed the final offering memorandum, dated March 3, 2004 (the "Offering Memorandum"), relating to the offering of the Initial Securities. In addition, we have examined originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the following:

i. the Purchase Agreement;

ii. the Indenture, dated the date hereof (the "Indenture"), between the Issuers, on the one hand, and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee"), on the other hand, relating to the Initial Securities;

iii. the Registration Rights Agreement, dated the date hereof (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), among you and the Issuers relating to the Initial Securities; and

iv. such other documents, corporate records, and other instruments as we have deemed necessary or advisable to enable us to render the opinions set forth herein.

The documents described under the foregoing clauses (i) through (iii), together with the Initial Securities and the Exchange Securities, are referred to herein as the "Operative Documents".

In rendering this opinion, we have made such inquiries and examined, among other things, originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such records, agreements, certificates, instruments and other documents as we have considered necessary or appropriate for purposes of this opinion. As to certain factual matters, we have relied upon the representations and warranties of each Issuer in the Purchase Agreement, certificates of officers of each Issuer (copies of which are attached hereto) (collectively, the "Officers' Certificate") or certificates obtained from public officials.

Further, we have assumed with your permission and without independent investigation that:

a) The signatures on all documents examined by us are genuine, all individuals executing such documents had all requisite legal capacity and competency, the documents submitted to us as originals are authentic and the documents submitted to us as certified or reproduction copies conform to the originals;

b) Each of the parties to the Operative Documents (including, without limitation, the Issuers) is validly existing in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization and has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under each of the Operative Documents to which it is a party, and the execution and delivery of such Operative Documents by such party and performance of its obligations thereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such party and do not violate any law, regulation, order, judgment or decree applicable to such party, and such Operating Documents have been duly executed and delivered by such party;

c) The Operative Documents are legal, valid and binding obligations of each party thereto (other than the Issuers, as to which this assumption does not apply), enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms;

d) The proceeds from the sale of the Initial Securities will be applied as set forth in the Offering Memorandum.

Except as expressly stated otherwise herein, whenever an opinion herein with respect to the existence or absence of facts is stated to be to the best of our knowledge, such statement is intended to signify that, during the course of our representation of the Issuers, as herein described, no information has come to the attention of the lawyers in our Firm working on the transactions contemplated by the Offering Memorandum and the Operative Documents that would give them actual knowledge of facts contrary to the existence or absence of the facts indicated. However, we have not undertaken any independent investigation to determine the existence or absence of such facts, and no inference as to our knowledge of the existence or absence of such facts should be drawn from our representation of the Issuers or any affiliate thereof.

Based on the foregoing and in reliance thereon, and subject to the assumptions, exceptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Initial Securities, when executed by each Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee in the manner provided for in the Indenture and delivered to and paid for by the Initial Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement, will be legal, valid and binding obligations of each Issuer, enforceable against each Issuer in accordance with their terms. The Initial Securities are in the form contemplated by the Indenture.

2. When the Exchange Securities are executed, authenticated and delivered in the manner provided for by the terms of the Indenture, the Exchange Securities will be legal, valid and binding obligations of each Issuer, enforceable against each Issuer in accordance with their terms.

3. The Indenture constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Issuer, enforceable against each Issuer in accordance with its terms.

4. The Registration Rights Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Issuer, enforceable against each Issuer in accordance with its terms.

5. Insofar as the statements in the Offering Memorandum under the heading “Description of the Notes” purport to describe specific provisions of the Initial Securities, the Indenture or the Registration Rights Agreement, such statements present in all material respects an accurate summary of such provisions.

6. Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Initial Purchaser and the Issuers contained in the Purchase Agreement, and compliance by them with their respective agreements contained therein, no registration of the Initial Securities under the Act is required for the purchase of the Initial Securities by the Initial Purchaser on the date hereof in the manner contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and the Offering Memorandum. The Indenture does not require qualification under the Trust Indenture Act.

7. The issuance of the Initial Securities, and the execution, delivery and performance by each Issuer of the Operative Documents to which it is a party, and the consummation of the Transactions, do not and will not violate, or require any filing with or approval of any governmental authority or regulatory body of the State of New York or the United States of America under, any law or regulation of the State of New York or the United States of America applicable to either of the Issuers that, in our experience, is generally applicable to transactions in the nature of those contemplated by the Operative Documents, except for such filings or approvals (i) as already have been obtained or (ii) that, if not made or obtained, would not have a material adverse effect on the Issuers and their subsidiaries taken as a whole or expose the Initial Purchaser to any liability. We express no opinion in this Paragraph 7 as to the United States federal securities laws or securities or “blue sky” laws of any state, including, without limitation, the State of New York.

8. The execution and delivery of the Purchase Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement by each Issuer and the performance by each Issuer on or prior to the date hereof of its obligations under the Purchase Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement do not, as of the date hereof:

(i) based solely upon review of the orders, judgments or decrees identified to us in the Officers’ Certificate as constituting all material orders, judgments or decrees binding on either of the Issuers (each a “Governmental Order”), violate any Governmental Order; or

(ii) based solely upon review of the documents, agreements or other instruments to which either of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries is a party or by which any of their respective assets is bound and which is filed as an exhibit to WH Intermediate Holdings, Ltd.’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, and the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of March 8, 2004, by and among Herbalife International, Inc., WH Holdings, WH Intermediate Holdings Ltd., WH Luxembourg Holdings SàRL, WH Luxembourg Intermediate Holdings SàRL, WH Luxembourg CM SàRL and the Subsidiary Guarantors party thereto, and certain lenders and agents named therein (each a “Material Contract”), (A) result in a material breach of or material default under any Material Contract, or (B) result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien or encumbrance on any assets of either of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries under any Material Contract.

9. Neither of the Issuers is, or after giving effect to the offering and sale of the Initial Securities and the application of the proceeds thereof as described in the Offering Memorandum will be, required to be registered as an “investment company” within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

10. To the extent that the statements in the Offering Memorandum under the caption “United States federal income tax consequences”, purport to describe specific provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, such statements present in all material respects an accurate summary of such provisions.

11. To our knowledge, and except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, there does not exist any judgment, order, injunction or other restraint issued or filed which seeks to restrain, enjoin, prevent the consummation of or otherwise challenges the Transactions or the performance by either of the Issuers of their respective obligations under the Operative Documents.

12. To our knowledge, the issuance to and resale by the Initial Purchaser of the Initial Securities in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Agreement do not and will not result in a violation of Regulation T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following exceptions, qualifications, assumptions and limitations:

A. We render no opinion herein as to matters involving the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York and the United States of America. This opinion is limited to the present effect of the present state of the laws of the State of New York and the United States of America and to present judicial interpretations and to the facts as they presently exist. We assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion in the event of any future change in such laws or any interpretation thereof or such facts.

B. Our opinions set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 4 are subject to (1) the effect of any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, arrangement or similar laws affecting the rights and remedies of creditors generally (including, without limitation, the effect of statutory or other laws regarding fraudulent transfers or preferential transfers or distributions by corporations to stockholders); and (2) general principles of equity, regardless of whether enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, including without limitation concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing. We express no opinion as to the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies as a remedy for breach of or default under any of the Operative Documents.

C. We express no opinion as to the enforceability of provisions providing for the indemnification of or contribution to a party with respect to a liability to the extent such indemnification or contribution may be found to be contrary to public policy. We express no opinion regarding the effect on the enforceability of the Operative Documents against any surety (which could include a co-issuer of notes or co-borrower of loans jointly liable for notes or loans the proceeds of which were delivered to another co-issuer or co-borrower, a hypothecator of property to secure obligations owed by another person or a common creditor that has subordinated obligations owing to it), of any facts or circumstances that would constitute a defense to the obligation of a surety, unless such defense has been waived effectively by such surety.

D. We express no opinion regarding (1) the effectiveness of any waiver (whether or not stated as such) under the Operative Documents of, or any consent thereunder relating to, any unknown future rights or the rights of any party thereto existing, or duties owing to it, as a matter of law; (2) the effectiveness of any waiver (whether or not stated as such) contained in the Operative Documents of rights of any party, or duties owing to it, that is broadly or vaguely stated or does not describe the right or duty purportedly waived with reasonable specificity; or (3) provisions relating to indemnification, exculpation or contribution, to the extent such provisions may be held unenforceable as contrary to public policy or federal or state securities laws or due to the negligence or willful misconduct of the indemnified party.

E. In rendering our opinion expressed in Paragraph 8(ii) insofar as it requires interpretation of Material Contracts, we express no opinion with respect to the compliance by either of the Issuers with, or any financial calculations or data in respect of, financial covenants or ratios included in any Material Contract.

F. For purposes of our opinion in paragraph 12, we have assumed without independent investigation that: the representation and warranty of the Company set forth in Section 5(xxx) of the Purchase Agreement is and will be true and correct at all relevant times, the Issuers will comply with their agreement set forth in Section 4(g) of the Purchase Agreement, less than 25% of the value of the assets of the Issuer and its subsidiaries subject to the negative covenants of the Indenture consist and will consist of "margin stock" within the meaning of Regulations U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System at all relevant times. Our opinion in paragraph 12 is subject to (and we express no opinion in respect of) any requirement applicable to purchasers of the Notes to obtain in good faith a Form FR U-1 signed by the Issuers.

We have participated in conferences with officers and other representatives of the Issuers, representatives of the independent public accountants for WH Holdings and your representatives and your counsel, at which the contents of the Offering Memorandum and related matters were discussed. Although, except as expressly stated herein, we have not verified, are not passing upon and do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Offering Memorandum and have not made any independent verification thereof, in the course of our participation, nothing has come to our attention that caused us to believe that the Offering

Memorandum, as of its date, or as of the date hereof, contained or contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading (it being understood that we have not been requested to, and do not make any comment with respect to, the financial statements and the notes thereto or other financial data or statistical data derived therefrom included or incorporated by reference in the Offering Memorandum).

The opinions expressed in section II above, and the statements made in section III above, are solely for your benefit in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Operative Documents and are not to be used for any other purpose, or, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any purpose, without, in each case, our written permission, except that the Trustee, in its capacity as trustee under the Indenture, may rely on this opinion as if it were addressed to it.

Very truly yours,

Whenever a statement herein is qualified by the phrase "to our knowledge" or "known to us" or a similar phrase, we have, with your consent, advised you concerning only the conscious awareness of facts in the possession of those attorneys who are currently members of or associated with this firm and who have performed legal services on behalf of the Company in connection with the Transactions, and which knowledge we have recognized as being pertinent to the matters set forth herein.

As used herein, all references to (i) "Applicable Nevada Law" refers to those statutes, rules and regulations of the State of Nevada which, in our experience, are customarily applicable both to transactions of the type contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and to general business entities which are not engaged in regulated business activities; (ii) "Nevada Governmental Authorities" shall mean the governmental and regulatory authorities, bodies, instrumentalities and agencies and courts of the State of Nevada, excluding its political subdivisions and local agencies; (iii) "Nevada Governmental Order" refers to any judgment, order or decree known to us to have been issued by any Nevada Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Company under Applicable Nevada Law; and (iv) "Nevada Governmental Approval" refers to any consent, approval or authorization of any Nevada Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Company that is required to be obtained by the Company pursuant to Applicable Nevada Law.

We are qualified to practice law in the State of Nevada. We express no opinion herein concerning, and we assume no responsibility as to laws or judicial decisions related to, or any orders, consents or other authorizations or approvals as may be required by, any federal law, including any federal securities law, or any state securities or Blue Sky laws or regulations.

The opinions expressed herein are based upon the Applicable Nevada Law in effect and the facts in existence as of the date of this letter. In delivering this letter to you, we assume no obligation, and we advise you that we shall make no effort, to update the opinions set forth herein, or to conduct an inquiry into the continued accuracy of such opinions, or to apprise any addressee hereof, its counsel or its assignees of any facts, matters, transactions, events or occurrences taking place, and of which we may acquire knowledge, after the date of this letter, or of any change in any Applicable Nevada Law or any facts occurring after the date of this letter, which may affect the opinions set forth herein. No opinions are offered or implied as to any matter, and no inference may be drawn, beyond the strict scope of the specific issues expressly addressed by the opinions herein.

This opinion is rendered only to you in your capacity as the Initial Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, and is solely for your benefit in connection with the closing of the Transactions. This opinion may not be relied upon or used by you for any other purpose, or otherwise circulated or furnished to, quoted to, or relied upon by any other person, firm or entity for any purpose, without our prior written consent in each instance except that, subject to all qualifications, limitations, exceptions and assumptions set forth herein, the Trustee may rely on this opinion letter as if it were an addressee on this date for all purposes relating to its capacity as Trustee under the Indenture.

Very truly yours,

Exhibit A-3

FORM OF OPINION OF SIDLEY AUSTIN BROWN & WOOD LLP

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We address this opinion to you as the initial purchasers (the “Initial Purchasers”) named in the Purchase Agreement, dated March 3, 2004 (the “Purchase Agreement”), between you and WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted limited liability company (“WH Holdings”) and WH Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation (“WH Capital” and, together with WH Holdings, the “Issuers”) relating to the issuance of $275,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Issuers’ 9 1/2% Notes due 2011 (the “Securities”). We have acted as special regulatory counsel to the Issuers in the United States Food and Drug Administration (the “FDA”) area only. In such capacity, we have been retained by the Issuers to review certain information under the captions “Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business” and “Business—Regulation—General—Products,” in the Issuers’ final Offering Memorandum dated March 3, 2004 (the “Offering Memorandum”). We have not been retained or engaged by the Issuers to perform, nor have we performed, any review of any other information in the Offering Memorandum, nor have we acted as the Issuers’ corporate or securities counsel in connection with the issuance and sale of the Securities. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

This opinion letter is furnished to you at the request of the Issuers pursuant to Section 8(f) of the Purchase Agreement.

In connection with the opinions expressed herein we have made such examination of matters of law and of fact as we considered appropriate or advisable for purposes hereof. We have examined such documents and such records as we have deemed appropriate, including the following:

1. an executed copy of the Purchase Agreement;

2. the Offering Memorandum; and

3. such other records, documents, instruments and certificates (including but not limited to certificates of public officials and officers of the Company) as we have considered necessary for purposes of this opinion.

In rendering this opinion, we have relied without independent investigation, as to matters of fact, upon the representations and warranties of the Company in the Purchase Agreement and upon representations, both written and oral, and certificates of officers or employees of the Company, third parties and government authorities; and we have assumed the genuineness of signatures of all persons signing any documents, the authority of all persons signing any document on behalf of the parties thereto, the authority of all governmental authorities and public officials, the truth and accuracy of all matters of fact set forth in all certificates furnished to us, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed or photostatic copies or by facsimile or other means of electronic transmission, and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents.

Nothing herein shall be construed to cause us to be considered “experts” within the meaning of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Based on and subject to the foregoing and subject to the further qualifications, exceptions and assumptions set forth below, we are of the opinion that the statements made in the Offering Memorandum under the captions “Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business” and “Business—Regulation—General—Products,” insofar as such statements purport to constitute a summary of the applicable provisions of the United States Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act, as amended (the “FDC Act”), fairly present in all material respects such provisions.

In acting as special regulatory counsel to the Issuers for FDA matters, during the course of preparation of the Offering Memorandum, we participated in certain discussions with certain officers and employees of the Issuers regarding the FDA regulatory matters dealt with under the captions “Risk Factors—Regulatory matters governing our industry could have a significant negative effect on our business” and “Business—Regulation—General—Products” in the Offering Memorandum. While we have not undertaken to determine independently, and we do not assume any responsibility for, the accuracy, completeness, or fairness of the statements under the above referenced captions in the Offering Memorandum, on the basis of these discussions and our activities as special regulatory counsel to the Issuers in connection with our review of the statements contained in such captioned sections, no facts have come to our attention that cause us to believe that the statements in the Offering Memorandum under such captioned sections, insofar as such statements relate to FDA regulatory matters, as of the date of the Offering Memorandum or as of the date hereof, included or includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The foregoing opinions and other statements are subject to the following qualifications, exceptions, assumptions and limitations:

The foregoing opinion is limited to matters arising under the FDC Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder and we express no opinion as to any other federal laws of the United States of America or the laws, rules or regulations of any other jurisdiction or as to the municipal laws or the laws, rules or regulations or any state or local agencies or governmental authorities of or within the United States of America.

The opinions expressed herein are given as of the date hereof, and we undertake no obligation to supplement this letter if any applicable laws change after the date hereof or of any facts or circumstances occurring or coming to our attention after the date hereof.

This letter is solely for your benefit in connection with the transaction described in the first paragraph above and may not be quoted or relied upon by, nor may copies be made or delivered to, any other person (including, without limitation, any person who acquires the Securities from the persons to whom this is addressed), nor may this letter be relied upon by you for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

FORM OF OPINION OF GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE COMPANY

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am the General Counsel and Secretary of WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted limited liability company ("Holdings") and the Secretary of WH Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("Capital", and together with Holdings, the "Issuers"). I have acted as legal counsel to the Issuers in connection with the offering and sale by the Issuers of $275,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of their $9\frac{1}{2}$% Notes due 2011 (the "Initial Securities") to you pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, dated March 3, 2004 (the "Purchase Agreement"), among the Issuers and you, as initial purchaser (the "Initial Purchaser"). With respect to any opinion herein in regard to the existence or absence of facts stated to be to my knowledge, such statement is intended to signify that I have no actual knowledge of facts contrary to the existence or absence of the facts indicated.

Based on the foregoing and in reliance thereon, and subject to the assumptions, exceptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, I am of the opinion that:

1. Except as set forth in the Offering Memorandum, there is: (a) no action, suit or proceeding before or by any court, arbitrator or governmental agency, body or official, domestic or foreign, now pending or, to my knowledge, threatened in writing, to which the Issuers or any of their subsidiaries is, or to my knowledge is threatened in writing to be made, a party or to which the business, assets or property of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries is, or to my knowledge is threatened in writing to be made, subject, (b) no statute, rule, regulation or order that has been enacted, adopted or issued, or to my knowledge, that has been proposed by any governmental body or agency, domestic or foreign, or (c) to my knowledge, no injunction, restraining order or order of any nature by a federal or state court or foreign court of competent jurisdiction to which the Issuers or any of their subsidiaries is subject that, in the case of any of clauses (a), (b) or (c), would, individually or in the aggregate, (1) have a Material Adverse Effect or (2) prevent or adversely affect the consummation of the Transactions, assuming, in the case of clause (a), such action, suit or proceeding is determined adversely to the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries.

2. None of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries is (a) in violation of its charter, bylaws or other constitutive documents, (b) in default (or, with notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) in the performance or observance of any obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any of the Agreements and Instruments known to me, or (c) in violation of any law, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order or decree of any domestic or foreign court with jurisdiction over any of them or any of their assets or properties or other governmental or regulatory authority, agency or other body, that, in the case of clauses (b) and (c) herein, individually or in the aggregate, would have a Material Adverse Effect.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following exceptions, qualifications, assumptions and limitations:

A. I am admitted to practice in the State of California and I render no opinion herein as to matters involving the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of California. I call to your attention that each of the Operative Documents provides that it is governed by New York law and I am not providing any opinion with respect to New York law. Therefore, I have not examined the question of what law would govern the interpretation or enforcement of such Operative Documents and my opinion is based on the assumption that the internal laws of the State of California would govern the provisions of such Operative Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby. This opinion is limited to the present effect of the present state of the laws of the State of California and to present judicial interpretations and to the facts as they presently exist. I assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion in the event of any future change in such laws or any interpretation thereof or such facts. I express no opinion with respect to the effect or applicability of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

B. In rendering the opinion expressed in Paragraph 2(c), I express no opinion as to the application of any (i) local laws and regulations such as city ordinances and county zoning ordinances, that are adopted by political subdivisions below the state level, (ii) tax, insolvency, antitrust, antifraud, margin rules, trade regulation, gaming, state securities or Blue Sky laws and the Exxon Florio amendment, and (iii) laws that a lawyer exercising customary diligence would not reasonably recognize as being applicable to a transaction of this type involving these parties.

C. In rendering the opinion expressed in Paragraph 2(b) insofar as it requires interpretation of Agreements and Instruments, I express no opinion with respect to the compliance by either of the Issuers or any of their respective subsidiaries with, or any financial calculations or data in respect of, financial covenants or ratios included in any of the Agreements or Instruments.

In rendering this opinion, I expressly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to update or modify this opinion as a consequence of any future changes in any laws or in the facts bearing upon this opinion.

The opinions expressed in Section II above are solely for your benefit in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Operative Documents and are not to be used for any other purpose, or, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any purpose, without, in each case, my written permission.

Very truly yours,

FORM OF OPINION OF MAPLES & CALDER

Dear Sirs

Re: WH Holdings (Cayman Islands) Ltd. (the "Company")

We have acted as counsel as to Cayman Islands law to the Company in connection with its issue of US$275,000,000 9^{1}¤$_{2}$% Notes due 2011 (the "Notes) the proceeds of which, together with available cash, the Company will use to pay the cash redemption price due upon conversion of all of the Company's outstanding convertible preferred shares, including all accrued and unpaid dividends, to refinance a portion of the Company's existing indebtedness and to pay related fees and expenses.

1 DOCUMENTS REVIEWED

We have reviewed originals, copies, drafts or conformed copies of the following documents:

1.1 the Certificate of Incorporation dated 4th April, 2002 and Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company adopted on 24th July, 2002 as amended by a special resolution passed on 11th October, 2002, an ordinary resolution to alter the share capital passed on 31st July, 2003 and special resolutions and an ordinary resolution passed on 1st March, 2004;

1.2 the minutes of the meeting of the board of directors of the Company held on [ ], 2004 and the corporate records of the Company maintained at its registered office in the Cayman Islands;

1.3 a Certificate of Good Standing issued by the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands (the "Certificate of Good Standing");

1.4 a certificate from a director of the Company a copy of which is annexed hereto (the "Director's Certificate"); and

1.5 the documents listed in the Second Schedule hereto. The documents listed from 1 to 3 in the Second Schedule hereto are collectively referred to as the "Note Documents".

2 ASSUMPTIONS

The following opinion is given only as to, and based on, circumstances and matters of fact existing and known to us on the date of this opinion. This opinion only relates to the laws of the Cayman Islands which are in force on the date of this opinion. In giving this opinion we have relied (without further verification) upon the completeness and accuracy of the Director's Certificate and the Certificate of Good Standing. We have also relied upon the following assumptions, which we have not independently verified:

2.1 the Note Documents and the Notes have been or will be authorised and duly executed and delivered by or on behalf of all relevant parties (other than the Company as a matter of Cayman Islands law) in accordance with all relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.2 the Note Documents and the Notes are, or will be, legal, valid, binding and enforceable against all relevant parties in accordance with their terms under New York law and all other relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.3 the choice of New York law as the governing law of the Note Documents and the Notes has been made in good faith and would be regarded as a valid and binding selection which will be upheld by the courts of the State of New York as a matter of New York law and all other relevant laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands);

2.4 copy documents, conformed copies or drafts of documents provided to us are true and complete copies of, or in the final forms of, the originals;

2.5 all signatures, initials and seals are genuine;

2.6 the power, authority and legal right of all parties under all relevant laws and regulations (other than, with respect to the Company, the laws of the Cayman Islands) to enter into, execute, deliver and perform their respective obligations under the Note Documents;

2.7 the Notes will be issued and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture;

2.8 no invitation has been or will be made by or on behalf of the Company to the public in the Cayman Islands to subscribe for any of the Notes; and

2.9 there is nothing under any law (other than the law of the Cayman Islands) which would or might affect the opinions hereinafter appearing. Specifically, we have made no independent investigation of the laws of the State of New York.

3 OPINIONS

Based upon, and subject to, the foregoing assumptions and the qualifications set out below, and having regard to such legal considerations as we deem relevant, we are of the opinion that:

3.1 The Company has been duly incorporated as an exempted company with limited liability and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

3.2 The Company has full power and authority under its Memorandum and Articles of Association to enter into, execute and perform its obligations under the Note Documents and the Notes including the issue and offer of the Notes pursuant to the Note Documents.

3.3 The execution and delivery of the Note Documents and the issue and offer of the Notes by the Company and the performance of its obligations thereunder do not conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms or provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or any law, public rule or regulation applicable to the Company in the Cayman Islands currently in force.

3.4 The execution, delivery and performance of the Note Documents has been authorised by and on behalf of the Company and, assuming the Note Documents have been executed and delivered by any Director or Officer, the Note Documents have been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Company and constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company enforceable in accordance with their terms.

3.5 The Notes have been duly authorised by the Company and when the Notes are signed in facsimile or manually by a Director on behalf of the Company and, if appropriate, authenticated in the manner set forth in the Indenture and delivered against due payment therefor will be duly executed, issued and delivered and will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.

3.6 No authorisations, consents, approvals, licences, validations or exemptions are required by law from any governmental authorities or agencies or other official bodies in the Cayman Islands in connection with:

3.6.1 the issue of the Offering Memorandum;

3.6.2 the execution, creation or delivery of the Note Documents by the Company;

3.6.3 subject to the payment of stamp duty, the enforcement of the Note Documents against the Company;

3.6.3 the offering, execution, authentication, allotment, issue or delivery of the Notes;

3.6.4 the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Notes and the Note Documents; or

3.6.5 the payment of the principal and interest and any other amounts under the Notes.

3.7 No taxes, fees or charges (other than stamp duty) are payable (either by direct assessment or withholding) to the government or other taxing authority in the Cayman Islands under the laws of the Cayman Islands in respect of:

3.7.1 the execution or delivery of the Note Documents or the Notes;

3.7.2 the enforcement of the Note Documents or the Notes;

3.7.3 payments made under, or pursuant to, the Note Documents; or

3.7.4 the issue, transfer or redemption of the Notes.

The Cayman Islands currently have no form of income, corporate or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax.

3.8 The courts of the Cayman Islands will observe and give effect to the choice of New York law as the governing law of the Note Documents and the Notes.

3.9 Based solely on our inspection of the Register of Writs and Other Originating process in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands from the date of incorporation of the Company there were no actions or petitions pending against the Company in the courts of the Cayman Islands as at close of business in the Cayman Islands on [date].

3.10 Although there is no statutory enforcement in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the State of New York, the courts of the Cayman Islands will recognise a foreign judgment as the basis for a claim at common law in the Cayman Islands provided such judgment:

3.10.1 is given by a competent foreign court;

3.10.2 imposes on the judgment debtor a liability to pay a liquidated sum for which the judgment has been given;

3.10.3 is final;

3.10.4 is not in respect of taxes, a fine or a penalty; and

3.10.5 was not obtained in a manner and is not of a kind the enforcement of which is contrary to the public policy of the Cayman Islands.

3.11 It is not necessary to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility in evidence of the Note Documents or the Notes that any document be filed, recorded or enrolled with any governmental authority or agency or any official body in the Cayman Islands.

3.12 The statements made in the Offering Memorandum under the heading “Cayman Islands tax consequences” are correct in so far as such statements are summaries of or relate to Cayman Islands law.

4 QUALIFICATIONS

The opinions expressed above are subject to the following qualifications:

4.1 The term "enforceable" as used above means that the obligations assumed by the Company under the Note Documents and the Notes are of a type which the courts of the Cayman Islands will enforce. It does not mean that those obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms. In particular:

4.1.1 enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, readjustment of debts or moratorium or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors;

4.1.2 enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity. For example, equitable remedies such as specific performance may not be available, inter alia, where damages are considered to be an adequate remedy;

4.1.3 some claims may become barred under the statutes of limitation or may be or become subject to defenses of set-off, counterclaim, estoppel and similar defenses;

4.1.4 where obligations are to be performed in a jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands, they may not be enforceable in the Cayman Islands to the extent that performance would be illegal under the laws of that jurisdiction;

4.1.5 the Cayman Islands court has jurisdiction to give judgment in the currency of the relevant obligation and statutory rates of interest payable upon judgments will vary according to the currency of the judgment. If the Company becomes insolvent and is made subject to a liquidation proceeding, the Cayman Islands court will require all debts to be proved in a common currency, which is likely to be the "functional currency" of the Company determined in accordance with applicable accounting principles. Currency indemnity provisions have not been tested, so far as we are aware, in the courts of the Cayman Islands;

4.1.6 obligations to make payments that may be regarded as penalties will not be enforceable; and

4.1.7 the courts of the Cayman Islands may decline to exercise jurisdiction in relation to substantive proceedings brought under or in relation to the Note Documents in matters where they determine that such proceedings may be tried in a more appropriate forum.

4.2 Cayman Islands stamp duty may be payable if the original Note Documents, the agreements to transfer Notes or the original Notes (not being treated as registered Notes) are brought to or executed in the Cayman Islands.

4.3 To maintain the Company in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, annual filing fees must be paid and returns made to the Registrar of Companies.

4.4 The obligations of the Company may be subject to restrictions pursuant to United Nations sanctions as implemented under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

4.5 A certificate, determination, calculation or designation of any party to the Note Documents or the Notes as to any matter provided therein might be held by a Cayman Islands court not to be conclusive final and binding if, for example, it could be shown to have an unreasonable or arbitrary basis, or in the event of manifest error.

4.6 In principle a Cayman Islands court will award costs and disbursements in litigation in accordance with the relevant contractual provisions but there remains some uncertainty as to the way in which the rules of the Grand Court will be applied in practice. Whilst it is clear that costs incurred prior to judgment can be recovered in accordance with the contract, it is likely that post-judgment costs (to the extent recoverable at all) will be subject to taxation in accordance with Grand Court Rules Order 62.

4.7 We reserve our opinion as to the extent to which a Cayman Islands court would, in the event of any relevant illegality, sever the offending provisions and enforce the remainder of the transaction of which such provisions form a part, notwithstanding any express provisions in this regard.

4.8 We make no comment with regard to the references to foreign statutes in the Note Documents or the Notes.

We express no view as to the commercial terms of the Note Documents or the Notes or whether such terms represent the intentions of the parties and make no comment with respect to any representations which may be made by the Company.

This opinion may be relied upon by the addressees only. It may not be relied upon by any other person except with our prior written consent.

Yours faithfully,
