EBITDA represents net income plus net interest expense, income taxes and depreciation and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA represents EBITDA plus certain items detailed above. We present adjusted EBITDA because management believes it provides useful information in evaluating our operating trends. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operating activities and other consolidated income or cash flow statement data prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States or as a measure of profitability or liquidity. Adjusted EBITDA, as presented, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.
